OUR CORRESPONDENT

MUNDRA: The Adani Foundation celebrated the achievements of over 1,000 'Lakhpati Didis' at an event in Mundra, Kutch, ahead of International Women's Day. The initiative supports women in becoming financially independent through skill development and entrepreneurship.

The Foundation also recognised the contributions of 614 women working at Adani Solar in roles ranging from technical associates to engineers in HR, manufacturing, and production. Additionally, over 850 women have been assisted in developing entrepreneur-

Manisha Chandra (IAS), Commissioner of Rural Development, praised the initiative in a recorded message, calling it a significant step in breaking stereotypes. Ms Ami Shah, Director of Adani Public School, Mundra, was among the guests.

Pankti Shah, CSR Head, Gujarat, Adani Foundation, stressed the need for family, community, and corporate support in advancing gender equality. Adani Solar has also introduced facilities such as locker rooms, canteens, and secure transport to encourage women's participation in the workforce.

For nearly three decades, the Adani Foundation has worked to empower women through education, healthcare, livelihoods, and community development. Its initiatives have benefited over two million women and girls across India.
