Mumbai: The ₹500-crore nonconvertible debenture (NCD) issue of Adani Enterprises has been oversubscribed three times on its first day of subscription, data on exchanges showed, indicating strong retail interest for the issue.

Apart from the base size of 500 crore, the issue also has a green shoe option to raise another 500 crore for the Adani Group flagship company that houses all the new businesses. The issue opened for subscription on Wednesday, and is scheduled to remain open until July 22.

This is the second instance when the flagship company of the Adani Group is raising funds through the domestic bond market.

In 2024, the company had raised $800 crore through the local market, and that issue was also subscribed on the first day itself.

Munibai: The ₹500-crore non-convertible debenture (NCD) issue of Adani Enterprises has been oversubscribed three times on its first day of subscription, data on exchanges showed, indicating strong retail interest for the issue.

Apart from the base size of ₹500 crore, the issue also has a green shoe option to raise another ₹500 crore for the Adani Group flagship company that houses all the new businesses.

The issue opened for subscription on Wednesday, and is scheduled to remain open until July 22.

This is the second instance when the flagship company of the Adani Group is raising funds through the domestic bond market. In 2024, the company had raised 4800 crore through the local market, and that issue was also subscribed on the first day itself.

At least 75% of the proceeds from this fund raising would be used for prepayment or repayment of the company's debt, with the rest to be used for general corporate purposes. Adani Enterprises had said earlier.

ADAM UNITS IN TALKS WITH HUFG FOR $250 M OFFSHORE LOANS

Investors are growing more confident lending to Indian conglomerate Adani Group as the company seeks to raise funds for units across the spectrum of its businesses.

Two units of Adani Group are in advance talks to raise about $250 million from Mitsubishi UFJ Financial Group through separate bilateral offshore loans, according to people familiar with the

The units, Adani Ports and Special Economic Zone Ltd. and Adani Airport Holdings Ltd., will raise about $100 million and $150 million, respectively, said the people who asked not to be identified discussing private matters. The Adami port deal will be signed as early as this week, and the businesses are also in talks with other Japanese lenders for additional debt, they said.

The deal would mark MUFG's first bilateral loan with the company since the US Department of Justice indicted Gautam Adani over an alleged bribery plot in November. In Max, the ports unit raised $150 million in a similar bilateral deal with DBS Group Holdings Ltd.

Representatives for Adani Group and MUFG didn't immediately respond to requests for comment on the loans.

Separately, the company's flagship firm Adani Enterprises Ltd. is closing a public bond offering ahead of schedule after the issuance was oversubscribed, according to people familiar with the matter.

The 10-billion-rupee ($117 million) bond sale, the company's first since the indictment, received subscriptions worth 15.1 billion rupees as of 5:00 pm India time, according to lead manager Nuvama Wealth Management Ltd.'s website.

Adani Enterprises' Rs 1,000 cr bond issue fully subscribed in just 3 hours

'The NCD may see early closure due to the issue being fully subscribed'

OUR CORRESPONDENT

NEW DELHI: Adani Enterprises Ltd's Rs 1,000 crore bond issue was fully subscribed within three hours of opening on Wednesday, stock exchange data showed.

The non-convertible debenture (NCD) issue, which opened on Wednesday and was to close on July 22, may see early closure due to the issue being fully subscribed, sources said.

NCDs are debt instruments issued by companies to raise funds from investors, promising fixed interest payments.

The Adani group's flagship firm promised up to 9.3 per cent interest per annum.

The issue received bids worth over Rs 1,400 crore by 15.30 hrs, stock exchange data showed.

REPRESENTATIVE PIC

The offering was on a firstcome, first-served basis and saw participation entirely from the non-institutional segment, including retail investors, high networth individuals and corporates.

This was Adani Enterprises' second public issuance of secured, rated, listed redeemable, non-convertible debentures.

"What sets this issue apart is the strong and encouraging participation that has entirely come from the non-institutional segment. Adna, as a brand, is strongly resonating with the retail public," said one of the lead managers. "Retail NHIs and corporate investors have responded enthusiastically, reaffirming confidence in the company's credit profile and future outlook."

The current issue follows AEL's first public NCD issue of Rs 800 crore in September last year, which was 90 per cent subscribed on the first day.

The base issue size of the current NCD is Rs 500 crore, with an option to retain over-subscription up to an additional Rs 500 crore (greenshoe option), aggregating up to Rs 1,000 crore.

The NCDs have a face value of Rs 1,000 each. Applicants could apply for a minimum of 10 NCDs and in multiples of 1 NCD thereafter, making the minimum application size of Rs 10,000.

"At least 75 per cent of the proceeds from the issuance will be utilised towards the prepayment or repayment, in full or in part, of the existing indebtedness availed by the company and the balance (up to maximum of 25 per cent) for general corporate purposes," the company had said in a statement on July 6.

Nuvama Wealth Management Ltd, Trust Investment Advisors Pvt Ltd and Tipsons Consultancy Services Pvt Ltd are the lead managers to the issue.

The NCDs are available in tenors of 24 months, 36 months, and 60 months with quarterly, annual, and cumulative interest payment options across eight series.
