CREDAI partners with Adani Cement

Aims at promoting green, best quality construction works

NEW DELHI

REALTORS' apex body CREDAI has partnered with Adani Cement to promote sustainable and best practices in construction activities.

In a statement on Friday, the Confederation of Real Estate Developers' Associations of India (CREDAI) said it has entered into a "strategic partnership with Adani Cement to champion sustainable and high-quality construction practices across the country". CREDAI, which represents over 13,000 private real estate developers across 20 states and 230 city chapters, has also launched the Green India Council and Skilling Council.

"As CREDAI's preferred partner, Adani Cement will provide its industry-leading portfolio of premium and GRIHA-certified products, including green concrete solutions, advanced additives, and technical services," it added. The announcement was made at CREDAI's Governing Council meeting, held in the presence of Goa Chief Minister Pramod Sawant and CREDAI leadership.

Shekhar Patel, President of CREDAI, said, "The launch of the Green India Council and Skilling Council marks a decisive step toward integrating sustainability and workforce development into the core of our industry." These initiatives reflect CRE-

DAI's commitment to build an environment that drives economic growth, protects the environment, and uplifts communities, he added. CREDAI said the collaboration with Adani Cement will empower its members to elevate construction quality, safety, and sustainability across projects nationwide. Adani Cement will also offer on-site technical support and knowledge-sharing programs to upskill engineers and construction professionals within the CREDAI network.

CREDAI, Adani Cement join hands to promote sustainable construction

AHMEDABAD: Adani Cement and CREDAI (Confederation of Real Estate Developers' Associations of India) have entered an exclusive preferred partnership to advance sustainable and high-quality construction in India.

The signing took place in the presence of Chief Minister of Goa, Pramod Sawant, during the CREDAI Governing Council Meeting held in Panjim.

This strategic alliance brings together Adani Cement and the country's apex body of private real estate developers, aiming to benefit both organisations and the broader construction industry.

Under this collaboration, Adani Cement will leverage

CREDAI's nationwide network of 13,000+ developers to strengthen its B2B outreach, while CREDAI members benefit from Adani Cement's industry-leading solutions.

Vinod Bahety, CEO – Cement Business, Adani Group, stated: "Our exclusive partnership with CREDAI is a testament to Adani Cement's commitment to nation-building through sustainable and innovative construction. By joining hands with CREDAI, we aim to accelerate the adoption of world-class cement products and green concrete solutions in India's real estate sector. This collaboration aligns perfectly with our vision of building a greener, smarter urban future – one where Adani Cement's technical expertise and CREDAI's on-ground experience come together to create stronger, safer, and more sustainable structures. We are excited to work closely with CREDAI members and support them with the best of our materials and R&D capabilities, ultimately delivering superior value to homeowners and contributing to India's growth story." # Adani Cement, CREDAI to boost sustainable and high-quality urban construction

AHMEDABAD, JUNE 13

Adani Cement and the Confederation of Real Estate Developers' Associations of India (CREDAI) on Friday joined hands to advance sustainable and high-quality construction in the country.

The strategic alliance brings together Adani Cement and the country's apex body of private real estate developers, aiming to benefit both organisations and the broader construction industry.

Under this collaboration, Adani Cement will leverage CREDAI's nationwide network of more than 13,000 developers to strengthen its B2B outreach, while CREDAI members benefit from Adani Cement's industry-leading solutions.

The signing took place in the presence of Goa Chief Minister Pramod Sawant, during the CREDAI Governing Council Meeting held in Panjim, attended by industry body office bearers and leading developers from across the country.

"Our exclusive partnership with CREDAI is a testament to Adani Cement's commitment to nation-building through sustainable and innovative construction. By joining hands with CREDAI, we aim to accelerate the adoption of world-class cement products and green concrete solutions in India's real estate sector," said Vinod Bahety, CEO – Cement Business, Adani Group.

He further stated that this collaboration aligns perfectly with our vision of building a greener, smarter urban future – one where Adani Cement's technical expertise and CREDAI's on-ground experience come together to create stronger, safer, and more sustainable structures.

The industry body members will have the advantage of enhancing their project quality in various parameters, including availability of Adani Cement's Innovative Concrete Solutions; and availability of Adani's diverse Ready-Mix Concrete (RMX) and advanced concrete solutions customised to varied requirements – from standard grades to specialised mixes.

CREDAI members will benefit from Adani Cement's premium products, including concrete solutions and technical expertise, elevating high-quality, sustainable urban development

"We are excited to work closely with CREDAI members and support them with the best of our materials and R&D capabilities, ultimately delivering superior value to homeowners and contributing to India's growth story," said Bahety.

The announcement comes at a pivotal time when India's cement consumption patterns are undergoing a significant shift. Traditionally, individual home builders (IHBs) in the retail segment constituted the largest share of cement usage, accounting for roughly 60 per cent of demand.

CREDAI partners with Adani Cement to promote sustainable, high-quality construction nationwide

TGG NETWORK
NEW DELHI

The Confederation of Real Estate Developers' Associations of India (CREDAI) has announced a strategic partnership with Adani Cement for sustainable and high-quality construction practices across the country.

The CREDAI is an apex body representing over 13,000 private real estate developers across 20 states and 230 city chapters.

This announcement was made at CREDAI's Governing Council meeting, which was held in the presence of the Chief Minister of Goa, Dr Pramod Sawant, and CREDAI leadership.

The real estate industry body added in a release that the partnership with Adani Cement is part of a broader three-pronged initiative that also includes the launch of the Green India Council and a dedicated Skilling Council--both aimed at building a future-ready, environmentally conscious, and professionally equipped real estate sector.

As part of the partnership, Adani Cement will provide its industry-leading portfolio of premium and GRIHA-certified products, including green concrete solutions, advanced additives, and technical services.

Adani Cement will also offer on-site technical support and knowledge-sharing programs to upskill engineers and construction professionals within the CREDAI network.

Speaking on these initiatives, Shekhar Patel, President, CREDAI, said, "The launch of the Green India Council and Skilling Council marks a decisive step toward integrating sustainability and workforce development into the core of our industry.

We are committed to collaborating with partners like Raah Foundation and Adani Cement to advance this mission. Together, we aim to foster a future-ready real estate ecosystem that champions innovation, inclusivity, and climate responsibility."

The newly formed Green India Council marks a transformative step in CREDAI's sustainability agenda. The Council will oversee a wide spectrum of green initiatives, including a large-scale reforestation initiative.

This initiative, which will start with the restoration of 9,000 acres of land across various blocks of Nashik District, Maharashtra, aims to convert barren landscapes through reforestation and significantly increase the green cover.

रियल एस्टेट क्षेत्र का सर्वोच्च विकास क्रेडाई ने निर्माण गतिविधियों में पर्यावरण अनुकूल और सर्वोत्तम प्रक्रियाओं को बढ़ावा देने के लिए अदाणी सीमेंट के साथ साझेदारी की है। कन्फेडरेशन ऑफ रियल एस्टेट डेवलपर्स एसोसिएशन ऑफ इंडिया (क्रेडाई) ने शुक्रवार को एक बयान में कहा कि उसने 'देश भर में पर्यावरण अनुकूल और उच्च गुणवत्ता वाली निर्माण प्रक्रियाओं को बढ़ावा देने के लिए अदाणी सीमेंट के साथ रणनीतिक साझेदारी' की है।

देश के 20 राज्यों और 230 सहरी राज्यों में 13,000 से अधिक निजी रियल एस्टेट डेवलपर्स का प्रतिनिधित्व कर रहे क्रेडाई ने 'ग्रीन इंडिया कंस्ट्रिक्शंस' और 'सिस्टीम कंस्ट्रिक्शंस' भी शुरू की है। इसने कहा, "क्रेडाई के 'पर्सोनाल भागीदार' के रूप में, अदाणी सीमेंट 'गृह' (ग्रीन रेंटल फॉर इंटिग्रेटेड लिविंग एक्सपेरिमेंट) प्रमाणित उत्पादों के साथ उच्च गुणवत्ता के उत्पाद प्रदान करेगा, जिसमें हरित क्रेडिट समाधान और तकनीकी सेवाएं शामिल हैं।"

यह 'ग्रीन' श्रेणी के मुख्यमंत्री प्रमोद खांबत और क्रेडाई नेतृत्व की उपस्थिति में आयोजित क्रेडाई की संस्थान परिषद की बैठक में की गई।

"ग्रीन इंडिया कंस्ट्रिक्शंस" और 'सिस्टीम कंस्ट्रिक्शंस' की शुरुआत हमारे उद्योग के मूल में पर्यावरण अनुकूलता और कर्तव्य विचारों को एकीकृत करने की दिशा में एक निर्णायक कदम है।

ये पहल अव्यंक्त वृद्धि को बढ़ावा देने, पर्यावरण को रक्षित करने और समुदायों के उत्थान के लिए एक परिणाम बनाने की क्रेडाई की प्रतिबद्धता को दर्शाती है। अदाणी सीमेंट, क्रेडाई सदस्यों को इंजीनियरी और निर्माण पेशेवरों को कुशल बनाने के लिए तकनीकी सहायता और ज्ञान-साझाकरण कार्यक्रम भी प्रदान करेगी।
