Air India mishap: 2nd black box recovered

Agencies
Ahmedabad

The first images of the second black box from the Air India flight AI-171, which crashed in Ahmedabad on June 13, have surfaced. Authorities have successfully retrieved the Cockpit Voice Recorder (CVR), the second black box, from the crash site on Monday.

This discovery will allow investigators to reconstruct the sequence of events leading up to a crash on a second-by-second basis, providing the most objective and detailed account of what happened inside the cockpit and throughout the aircraft systems.

According to reports, the black box—one of the most vital components of an aircraft that records everything happening inside the cockpit—has been recovered. This crucial discovery is expected to assist authorities in uncovering the exact circumstances surrounding the tragic crash of Air India Flight AI-171 on June 12.

The second Black Box recovered by the probe team.

The second black box recovered from the crash site is the Cockpit Voice Recorder (CVR), which records all cockpit sounds including pilot conversations, radio communications, warning alarms, and background mechanical noises

The first black box component, the Flight Data Recorder (FDR), was found on Friday atop the roof of a building near the crash site in Ahmedabad.

With both black boxes now recovered, investigators will be able to conduct a comprehensive analysis of the incident.

The London-bound Air India Flight AI-171, carrying 242 passengers, crashed mere seconds after departing from Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport in Ahmedabad.

Authorities are hopeful that data retrieved from the black boxes will shed light on the cause of the ill-fated crash.

McKinsey likely to aid Air India overhaul

GEORGE MATHEW
MUMBAI, JUNE 16

A top Tata Sons official met a senior partner of McKinsey in Mumbai last week to discuss a revival strategy for the carrier, according to a source

THE TATA group is exploring the possibility of a major revamp of Air India. The group is reportedly in discussions with global consulting firm McKinsey & Company to lead a comprehensive overhaul of the airline, which is currently grappling with one of the most severe crises in its recent history.

A top Tata Sons official met a senior partner of McKinsey in Mumbai last week to discuss a revival strategy for the carrier, according to a source. The meeting took place just days after a London-bound Air India Boeing Dreamliner crashed shortly after takeoff from Ahmedabad, claiming the lives of 241 passengers and crew. Only one passenger survived the crash.

"While we do not comment on or publicly discuss details of any client work, it would be inaccurate to report that McKinsey is currently serving the Tata group on a transformation project for Air India," McKinsey & Company said in a statement to The Indian Express.

However, when contacted, a Tata group official did not comment on the issue.

This isn't McKinsey's first engagement with the consulting firm. Its relationship with Air India started almost eight years ago. In 2017, Air India selected McKinsey to help develop its long-term strategic business plan — especially on cash-flow, route networks, marketing strategies and updating its loyalty program.

Watson Farley & Williams (WFW) advised multiple parties on the historic merger of Tata SIA Airlines Ltd (Vistara) with Air India, creating a unified full-service airline under the Air India brand. This followed the merger of Air India group's low-cost airlines Air India Express and AIX Connect earlier.

The combined entity is now the largest international carrier with more than 90 destinations worldwide and the second largest domestic carrier. The Indian aviation market is the third largest in the world and is one of the fastest growing.

Founded in 1932, Air India is a pioneer of India's aviation sector and has developed an extensive global network, becoming a major international carrier. The consolidation of the four Tata-owned airlines into one group is part of Air India's ongoing, five-year transformation program, Vihaan.AI which is focussed on establishing Air India Group as a world-class aviation company.

Air India reported a lower loss of Rs 4,444.10 crore for FY24, a significant decrease of 60 per cent compared to the Rs 11,388 crore loss in FY23. The airline's turnover also increased by 23.69 per cent to Rs 38,812 crore during the same period.

The Dreamliner crash has cast a spotlight on the Tata group's efforts to turn around the airline, which it acquired from the Indian government in 2022 with the goal of restoring its performance and reputation. FULL REPORT ON www.indianexpress.com

Tata chief: Need to use crash as 'act of force' to build a safer A-I

SUKALP SHARMA
NEW DELHI, JUNE 16

TATA GROUP and Air India chairman N Chandrasekaran on Monday asked the airline's employees to stay strong and use last week's crash of the airline's Boeing 787-8 aircraft in Ahmedabad as "an act of force to build a safer airline", according to sources in the know. Chandrasekaran also told Air India employees that while the reasons behind the crash will be known only once the investigation is complete, they should "stay the course" and not put their "shoulders down" in the face of criticism.

Chandrasekaran addressed around 700 Air India employees and its leadership team on Monday at the company headquarters and its training academy in Gurugram. According to sources, he later met Civil Aviation Minister K Ram Mohan Naidu at the Ministry of Civil Aviation (MoCA) in the Capital, and held discussions.

"Criticisms are there, and those of us who are very passionate...who are working on making this airline a great airline, and who genuinely care about what kind of a company we want to build, but it's not easy to face criticisms. I want you to be strong. If you feel distraught, the word you should remember is determination. We are going to get through this. We need to show resilience. We need to use this incident an act of force to build a safer airline," Chandrasekaran is learnt to have said.

According to sources, the Tata group chairman told Air India staff that the Ahemdabad air crash is the "most heartbreaking crisis" he has seen in his career. All but one of the 242 people on board the doomed aircraft perished in Thursday's crash. There were a number of casualties on the ground as well. The accidents was the worst aviation disaster involving an Indian carrier in four decades. It is also the first crash of the Boeing 787 globally.

"I went to the site on that day...it was not easy at all. I know many of you here in this room are part of the emergency response team, may be even at the site or were handling all the shocks of that day...Whatever I say and whatever we do is not going to bring the lives back. Those affected, they're going to feel the pain for a very long time. But having said that, we have got to do our very best humanly possible to help each of them," Chandrasekaran said, according to sources.

"It's a very complex business...it's a complex machine, so a lot of redundancies, checks and balances, certifications, which have been perfected over years and years. Yet this happens, so we will figure out why it happens after the investigation. So we just have to stay calm and not put your shoulders down. This is the time to be brave, time to be resolute, time to know that you have the full support," he is learnt to have told employees. FULL REPORT ON www.indianexpress.com

NEW DELHI, JUNE 16

THE GOVERNMENT'S high-level multi-disciplinary committee on Thursday's crash of Air India flight AI 171 in Ahmedabad held its first meeting on Monday and discussed various possible causes and theories pertaining to the deadly aviation accident, the worst for an Indian airline in four decades.

Deliberations were also focussed on identifying areas of improvement and creating a roadmap to formulate standard operating procedures (SOPs) to prevent such disasters. Records pertaining to earlier aviation disasters in India, like the 2010 Mangaluru crash and 2020 Kozhikode accident of Air India Express aircraft, and how they were handled by various stakeholders were also shared in the meeting that lasted around two hours, it is learnt.

The committee is headed by the Home Secretary Govind Mohan and includes senior officials from the civil aviation ministry, home ministry, Gujarat government, the Indian Air Force, and various other departments and agencies including the Intelligence Bureau, Bureau of Civil Aviation Security, and Directorate General of Civil Aviation, among others. It is expected to submit its report within three months.

The technical investigation into the crash of Air India's Boeing 787-8 aircraft operating flight AI-171 from Ahmedabad to London Gatwick is being conducted by the Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB). On being asked why a government committee has been constituted when the AAIB-led probe is already on, Naidu had said on Saturday that the AAIB investigation is technical and specific to the tragic plane crash in Ahmedabad, while the government's committee will take a more holistic approach and look at further strengthening of the aviation safety ecosystem.

"The Committee will examine the existing Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) and guidelines issued to prevent and handle such occurrences and suggest comprehensive guidelines for dealing with such instances in the future. The Committee will not be a substitute to other enquiries being conducted by relevant organisations but will focus on formulating SOPs for preventing and handling such occurrences in the future," the civil aviation ministry had said late Friday while notifying the constitution of the high-level committee.

The objective and scope of the government panel also includes ascertaining the root cause of the crash, including assessment of possible contributory factors like mechanical failure, human error, weather conditions, and regulatory compliance-related issues, among others. It is also tasked with assessing the emergency response of various stakeholders — both Central and State governments — including rescue operations, and the coordination between them.

The panel will formulate comprehensive SOPs and suggest the roles of various Central and State government organisations to deal with post-crash incident handling and management. It will also suggest policy changes, operational improvements, and training enhancements required to prevent such accidents in future, and handle the situation in the event of a crash.

Thursday's crash claimed the lives of 241 of the 242 people on board the Boeing 787-8 aircrfat—bearing registration VT-ANB. Lives were also lost on the ground as the plane crashed into a medical college hostel mess close to the Ahmedabad airport.

To collate final toll, police turn to all missing cases filed in city on June 12

MOHAMED THAVER
AHMEDABAD, JUNE 16

POLICE HAVE collated all the missing persons complaints registered at stations across Ahmedabad on June 12 as they attempt to put together a final tally of people on the ground who died in the Air India crash.

While the death toll of people on the plane is known to be 241, nine DNA samples have been collected so far from the crash site and around it.

Police, however, believe there may have been more people around the BJ Medical College hostel in Meghaninagar — like those at a nearby tea stall — who may have been killed.

A senior police officer told The Indian Express that CCTV cameras that could potentially have helped them locate such people were destroyed in the crash. "While students at the hostel have been accounted for, we fear some who were passing by the hostel, or having tea at a tea stall nearby may have been a victim of the crash," the officer said, requesting anonymity.

Looking for leads, police turned to missing persons cases.

"If anyone who went missing on June 12 has not reached home, we will probe the complaint closely to rule out unrelated cases. In this manner we are hoping to zero in on missing cases linked to the crash following which we may take DNA samples from family members to match with those found from the site," the officer said

On why the scope has been widened to the entire city and not nearby police stations such as Meghaninagar and Naroda, the officer said that they may have come to the area without the knowledge of family members. "We want to rule out all possibilities," the officer said.

Among those missing are Sarlaben Thakor, a cook at the hostel mess, her granddaughter Adyaravi, music video director Mahesh Kalawadia and IT student Arshdeep Banga.

Missing persons complaints of Thakor, Adyaravi and Banga were registered with the Meghaninagar police station; Kalawadia's was registered with the Naroda police station.

DNA samples of the family members of the missing persons have been sent for checking with the DNA samples extracted from the remains found at the hostel.

Sarlaben's son, Ravi Thakor, has been trying to locate his mother and daughter. Along with his mother, he and his wife cooked meals at the mess.

Kalawadia's younger brother Kartik and his wife Hetal have been doing the rounds of hospitals but have so far not been able to trace him. Mahesh spoke to his wife at around 1.10 pm on June 12 and headed to his residence on his scooter. At around 1.40 pm, however, his phone switched off around the crash area. Even his two-wheeler has not been found.

Banga was passing by the mess on his bike around the time of the crash.

PARAMEDIC RECALLS GUIDING LONE SURVIVOR OF AIR INDIA CRASH TO AMBULANCE

'We saw man coming out of gate... didn't know he was a passenger'

BRENDAN DABHI
AHMEDABAD, JUNE 16

LIKE THE students in the BJ Medical College hostel, Satinder Singh Sandhu was having lunch with fellow paramedics at the local GVK-EMRI ambulance office inside the 1,200-bed hospital at Medicity in Ahmedabad on June 12 when he heard a massive explosion.

Running outside, he saw a man coming out of the hostel building's gate as a massive fire raged behind him. This man was 39-year-old Viswashkumar Ramesh, the lone survivor of the London-bound Air India flight that crashed into the hostel building soon after taking off from the Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport in Ahmedabad.

Sandhu took Ramesh's hand and guided him away from the site. A video of this has since been widely shared.

"I asked my team to deploy ambulances immediately while I rushed to the spot. When I got there, I realised this was a major incident. I called my head office and asked them to inform the police and send more ambulances. Meanwhile, five ambulances under my command reached the site," Sandhu said.

The 44-year-old has been

with the GVK-EMRI emergency ambulance service for a decade, and is a supervisor who controls 20 of the 120 ambulances in the city.

"I first saw the watchman of the hostel injured on the road. We picked him up and dispatched him in one of the ambulances. Then, we saw one man coming out of the gate next to the burning hostel building. I approached him, but he suddenly turned around and began walking back to the crash site," Sandhu told The Indian Express, referring to Ramesh.

Sandhu said Ramesh initially resisted attempts to take him away from the site, repeatedly saying that his family member was burning in the fire.

"We thought it must be a family member inside the hostel building. We didn't know at that time that he was a passenger who had come out of the burning aircraft," said Sandhu, adding, "We finally managed to calm him down a little, seat him in one of the ambulances and send him to the hospital. He had injuries on his face, hands and legs. He had burn marks across his body, but he was able to walk with a slight limp."

It was en route to the hospital that Ramesh told paramedics he had been on the aircraft that had just crashed. He said he and his brother were going home to the UK and that he had been seated next to the emergency exit, in seat 11A. However, he did not know how he managed to exit the crashed aircraft.

Sandhu said Ramesh was in a state of shock and confusion after his ordeal. His mind was still fixed on a singular point — saving his younger brother, Ajay, from the burning plane.

Ajay was among the 241 people on board flight AI-171, and several others on the ground, to die in the crash. The Boeing 787 Dreamliner was carrying a total of 242 people.

Ramesh and his brother, who were originally from the Union Territory of Diu, were British nationals settled with their families in Leicester, England.

Sandhu said he and his fleet of ambulances were on the site of the crash by 1.41 pm, just three minutes after the crash that took place at 1.38 pm.

A firefighting team also arrived soon after and started the task of dousing the flames. It was when the heavy soot-laden smoke cleared that paramedics saw charred bodies of men, women and children strewn on the ground. There were also bodies inside the medical college hostel compound.

Sandhu was among the first to rush into the building to try and save anyone stuck in the rubble or stranded by the fire. He said he had no count of how many people his team managed to rescue from the hostel premises and the road in front of it, but estimated that it must have been at least 20-25.

Originally from Thaluh village in Punjab's Rupnagar district, Sandhu has lived in Gujarat since 1992.

125 IDENTIFIED, 83 BODIES HANDED TO FAMILIES: OFFICIALS

DNA tests identify 125 victims, 83 bodies handed over to kin, says Gujarat minister

ENS & PTI
AHMEDABAD, JUNE 16

FOUR DAYS after the horrific crash of an Air India plane that claimed the lives of 241 passengers and killed multiple people on the ground, 125 victims have so far been identified through DNA matching and 83 bodies were handed over to their families, according to a post by Gujarat Health Minister Rushikesh Patel on X Monday late evening.

An official expressed hope that the DNA profiling all the victims will be completed by either Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning.

Former Gujarat chief minister Vijay Rupani was among the 242 passengers and crew members on board the London-bound Air India flight AI-171 that crashed in Ahmedabad on June 12. His mortal remains were handed over to his wife Anjali Rupani and other family members at the city civil hospital.

Authorities are carrying out DNA tests to establish the identity of the victims as many bodies were charred beyond recognition.

Speaking to the media, Medical Superintendent of Ahmedabad Civil Hospital Dr Rakesh Joshi expressed hope that the DNA profiling of all the victims will be completed by either Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning.

He urged the grief-stricken kin of the victims to not panic over the time-consuming process of matching DNA samples with mortal remains.

"We are trying our best to finish this process as soon as possible. Some are complaining that the results have not come even after 72 hours. I appeal to them not to panic because this is a very important process with legal implications. We will call them as soon as results arrive," Joshi said.

Earlier, Dr Rajnish Patel, Professor of Surgery at BJ Medical College, told mediapersons on Monday that 13 families were present at the hospital to collect the remains.

"Twelve families have opted to collect the bodies together after DNA confirmation for all their deceased members. Discussions have been completed with 11 other families, who are on their way to collect the remains," he said.

Ahmedabad Civil Hospital authorities had said on Sunday that samples of 250 victims, including persons on board the ill-fated flight as well as those killed on the ground, had been collected for identification.

The Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner with 242 persons on board crashed into a medical college complex in Ahmedabad moments after taking off from the Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport at 1.39 pm on June 12.

While 241 persons on board the London-bound aircraft died, one passenger miraculously survived. The crash also killed multiple people on the ground, including five MBBS students.

The Ahmedabad accident has shaken us to the core. It has made us accept that not everything is in our control. Before the paranoia subsides, the nation needs to grieve

A CRASH THAT FLIES IN THE FACE OF OUR HUBRIS

HARISH BIJOOR

Brand guru & Founder, Harish Bijoor Consults Inc

MANDAR PARDIKAR

I took a flight out of Bengaluru to Kochi on the morning of June 12. All was well and happy. But by the time I reached my hotel, I heard the heartbreaking news that AI 171, a Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner, had crashed while taking off on a routine flight from Ahmedabad to London's Gatwick airport. Even as the news broke, social media was full of visuals of dark smoke burning litres of aviation fuel on the ground as the flight had crashed just 38 seconds after a full-tank take-off. It looked as if no one could be alive.

The details emerged slowly. The flight, that had 242 people, faced 241 fatalities, with just one miraculous escape of a passenger from seat 11A. Worse news was to come. The plane's crash into the B J Medical College premises killed another 38 hapless people on the ground. This remains a disaster hard to explain. Why did it happen at all?

The whole nation is in shock. So am I. Many other nations, whose nationals perished, are in shock too. Disasters of this kind rattle all in more ways than one. Even as the news kept coming out, there were prayers on every lip, hoping for more survivors and fewer fatalities. But that was not to be.

As I write this piece, it is only three days since the accident and the wound is still raw. If that is our situation, just imagine the plight of the near and dear ones of those who perished. Whole sets of lives have changed forever. Whole sets of nations and families have been scarred, not by an act of war, but by an accident. This first-ever hull loss of a Boeing Dreamliner is more than the loss of an aircraft and lives. It raises questions on many aspects of life itself.

For a start, why did all of us get so rattled by this accident? Many reasons maybe. An incident of this kind makes us feel the pain of others distant from us in many ways, and at the same time very close to who we are as humans. The key question, "What if it was me?" lurks around ominously as well. We as human-beings will forever empathise with the distress of another, all the time living vicariously through the distress. We will very quickly visit the fact in our minds that we are but mere mortals. An accident of this kind could happen to us. We get off our "I will never ever die" pedestal, and face reality. What the Covid pandemic did to us as a society, this air crash did to all of us as well just a few days ago. At least momentarily. Add to it the thought that we are suddenly confronted by the fact that we cannot plan for everything. We spend our lives at work and home, planning for the worst and the best. Incidents such as this tell us very clearly that you can plan your life, but you can't plan your death.

In many ways, the fall of AI 171 touched each one of us in a rather selfish manner of speaking as well. In our minds we still do want to plan for success, not doom. We will therefore keep assessing risk. In this case it is the risk of flying. This incident of the loss of plane and loss of precious lives might make some of us reduce the number of flights we take. In the case of some, if here is a choice between a bus and a train and an airplane, you just might decide on modes of travel rooted to the ground rather than ones that need a take-off and a landing. This is irrational for sure. Not fact and numbers based. But the fear of flying is back in our lives. A take-off will never be taken for granted. At least for a while.

In the case of some, the airline in question will be avoided for a while. In some cases, even if you are not the one flying, you will advise your near and dear ones not to fly the airline if there is choice put in front of you. In some more due-diligence oriented minds, the aircraft maker in question will be avoided (if there is a viable choice to make). In the case of some, due diligence will be done on the age of the aircraft, its history of flying, its accident record and more. Paranoia is back. At least for a while—though I suspect, a very short while.

We are all suddenly feeling vulnerable. This incident has shaken us. This incident has stirred us. Simply and bluntly put, this incident has really scared us, whether we are willing to admit it or not. In many ways, it has made all of us accept the fact that not everything is in our control. There is more to life than meets the eye. The fall of AI 171 has really woken up our sensitivities and our sensibilities. It has made us feel more human than we ever otherwise do maybe. It has made us get off the pedestal of pompous life, if at all for a brief set of days.

As the investigations into what has happened bring out whatever facts are possible to be probed, I do believe this is not the time for media of both the legacy and social kind to ask for the blood of the airline and the sweat of the aircraft maker. Accidents happen. Nothing is perfect in life. Just as life happens, accidents happen as well. It should not have happened for sure. The lives of thousands have been altered by this incident at Ahmedabad. This is a moment to respect the lives lost and feel our collective grief with dignity and humility.

Our collective psyche has been hurt. Many people have asked me to comment on the future of brand Air India, as well as the future image of brand Boeing at large. My one answer to all has been a simple one: This is not a moment to talk of what will or will not happen to these brands. The Tata group that owns Air India is possibly India's most respected and responsible business group with a heritage of responsible business, social and ethical behaviour. They will do what they are meant to do, without any reminders or cajolement. There are far more important issues at hand for now. This is a sensitive moment. Let's respect it and put a gag order on ourselves for a month and let our monkey minds settle. Once through, let's ask Air India the answers it needs to give us all.

This is not the time to ask for the blood and sweat of any of those involved. This is a moment to just shed tears. A moment to take care of our collective tears as well. A moment to console and condole each one of us.

Om shanti.

Scare for Saudi aircraft from Jeddah as smoke billows from wheels

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

AMID the ongoing concerns over the recent air crash in Ahmedabad, panic gripped over 250 passengers and crew aboard a Saudi aircraft from Jeddah when smoke was detected from the plane's wheels upon landing at Lucknow's Chaudhury Charan Singh International airport on Sunday.

As the flight headed toward the terminal for taxying, a ground handling crew noticed wisps of smoke billowing from the left-side wheels. The Airport Rescue and Fire Fighting (ARFF) team responded promptly and worked with the Saudia crew in successfully containing the smoke and preventing any damage to the aircraft. The flight was scheduled to return to Jeddah on Monday evening.

All passengers on board — mostly Haj pilgrims — were safely deboarded, and airport operations continued without disruption. The haj pilgrims were returning home after performing pilgrimage between June 4 and June 9 in Saudi Arabia.

According to a source, technical assessment identified a hydraulic fluid leak in the landing gear system, a common issue affecting older aircraft amidst increased global focus on airline maintenance standards.

Based on available data in the public domain, the aircraft was approximately 15-year-old. "The aircraft has been grounded and is expected to take off for Jeddah by Tuesday morning after thorough inspections by engineers and technicians," said another source.

Later, Airport authorities confirmed that all passengers were safely disembarked and that there was no disruption to regular flight operations.

According to officials, no injuries were reported in the incident. However, an official inquiry into the cause of the smoke was ordered.

'Crash catalyst to build safer airline'

Air India's chairman N. Chandrasekaran on Monday told staff that last week's plane crash that killed at least 271 people should be a catalyst to build a safer airline, urging employees to stay resolute amid any criticism. In a town hall held at the headquarters of the Tata Group-owned airline near New Delhi and attended by 700 staff, Chandrasekaran said the crash was the "most heartbreaking" crisis of his career, a spokesperson told Reuters.

"I've seen a reasonable number of crises in my career, but this is the most heartbreaking one," he said, as per a Tata Group spokesperson.

"We need to use this incident as an act of force to build a safer airline," Chandrasekaran said.

The Airport Rescue and Fire Fighting (ARFF) team responded promptly and worked with the Saudia crew in successfully containing the smoke and preventing any damage to the aircraft. The flight was scheduled to return to Jeddah on Monday evening.

All passengers on board — mostly Haj pilgrims — were safely deboarded, and airport operations continued without disruption. The haj pilgrims were returning home after performing pilgrimage between June 4 and June 9 in Saudi Arabia.

According to a source, technical assessment identified a hydraulic fluid leak in the landing gear system, a common issue affecting older aircraft amidst increased global focus on airline maintenance standards.

Based on available data in the public domain, the aircraft was approximately 15-year-old. "The aircraft has been grounded and is expected to take off for Jeddah by Tuesday morning after thorough inspections by engineers and technicians," said another source.

Later, Airport authorities confirmed that all passengers were safely disembarked and that there was no disruption to regular flight operations.

According to officials, no injuries were reported in the incident. However, an official inquiry into the cause of the smoke was ordered.

AIR INDIA FLIGHT RETURNS TO HONG KONG OVER TECHNICAL SNAG

Chennai, 17 June 2025: A Delhi-bound Air India Boeing 787 Dreamliner returned to Hong Kong airport on Monday morning after the aircraft reportedly encountered a technical snag mid-air.

The flight, AI-315, was operated by Air India. It had departed from Hong Kong and was en route to Delhi when the crew detected a possible technical issue. As a precautionary measure, the aircraft returned to Hong Kong to ensure passenger safety.

Air India is yet to issue an official statement regarding the incident. The incident comes just four days after a London-bound Air India Boeing 787 Dreamliner crashed shortly after taking off from Ahmedabad airport on June 12.

The aircraft, carrying 242 people on board, crashed into a medical college complex in Ahmeda bad moments after taking off from the Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport at 1.39pm.

While 241 people on board the aircraft died, one passenger miraculously survived.

Mahesh Jirawala missing; wife claims his last known location was 700m from plane crash site

Filmmaker Mahesh Kalawadia, also known as Mahesh Jirawala, has been missing since the London-bound Air India flight crashed in Ahmedabad (Gujarat) on June 12.

Speaking to media persons, his wife Hetal — who has anxiously been searching for him — said that the last active location on Mahesh's phone put him a mere 700 metres from the medical college hostel in Meghaninagar where the plane crashed minutes after take-off from Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport. She added that worry set in when Mahesh failed to return home after he called her to say he was on his way home.

"On June 12, Mahesh had gone to meet someone. He called me at 1.14pm to tell me his meeting was over and that he was on his way home," she told PTI, adding, "I called him again at 1.40pm, but his phone was switched off. That was just a minute after the plane took off from Ahmedabad airport."

Hetal further shared, "His scooter and mobile phone are missing. All this is unusual since he would never use that route to come home."

In a desperate bid to find Mahesh, his family have now submitted DNA samples to confirm if the filmmaker was indeed one of the ground victims of the crash.

As of Monday noon, 90 victims were identified through DNA sampling and the remains of 47 handed over to their families. The crash has claimed over 270 lives — 241 out of 242 travellers aboard the flight as well as 29 people on the ground.

Tata chief: Need to use crash as 'act of force' to build a safer A-I

SUKALP SHARMA

TATA GROUP and Air India chairman N Chandrasekaran on Monday asked the airline's employees to stay strong and use last week's crash of the airline's Boeing 787-8 aircraft in Ahmedabad as "an act of force to build a safer airline", according to sources in the know. Chandrasekaran also told Air India employees that while the reasons behind the crash will be known only once the investigation is complete, they should "stay the course" and not put their "shoulders down" in the face of criticism.

Chandrasekaran addressed around 700 Air India employees and its leadership team on Monday at the company headquarters and its training academy in Gurugram. According to sources, he later met Civil Aviation Minister K Ram Mohan Naidu at the Ministry of Civil Aviation (MoCA) in the Capital, and held discussions.

"Criticisms are there, and those of us who are very passionate...who are working on making this airline a great airline, and who genuinely care about what kind of a company we want to build, but it's not easy to face criticisms. I want you to be strong. If you feel distraught, the word you should remember is determination. We are going to get through this. We need to show resilience. We need to use this incident an act of force to build a safer airline," Chandrasekaran is learnt to have said.

According to sources, the Tata group chairman told Air India staff that the Ahemdabad air crash is the "most heartbreaking crisis" he has seen in his career. All but one of the 242 people on board the doomed aircraft perished in Thursday's crash. There were a number of casualties on the ground as well. The accidents was the worst aviation disaster involving an Indian carrier in four decades. It is also the first crash of the Boeing 787 globally.

"I went to the site on that day...it was not easy at all. I know many of you here in this room are part of the emergency response team, may be even at the site or were handling all the shocks of that day...Whatever I say and whatever we do is not going to bring the lives back. Those affected, they're going to feel the pain for a very long time. But having said that, we have got to do our very best humanly possible to help each of them," Chandrasekaran said, according to sources.

"It's a very complex business...it's a complex machine, so a lot of redundancies, checks and balances, certifications, which have been perfected over years and years. Yet this happens, so we will figure out why it happens after the investigation. So we just have to stay calm and not put your shoulders down. This is the time to be brave, time to be resolute, time to know that you have the full support," he is learnt to have told employees. FULL REPORT ON www.indianexpress.com

The Ahmedabad accident has shaken us to the core. It has made us accept that not everything is in our control. Before the paranoia subsides, the nation needs to grieve

A CRASH THAT FLIES IN THE FACE OF OUR HUBRIS

HARISH BIJOOR

MANDAR PARDIKAR

I took a flight out of Bengaluru to Kochi on the morning of June 12. All was well and happy. But by the time I reached my hotel, I heard the heartbreaking news that AI 171, a Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner, had crashed while taking off on a routine flight from Ahmedabad to London's Gatwick airport. Even as the news broke, social media was full of visuals of dark smoke burning litres of aviation fuel on the ground as the flight had crashed just 38 seconds after a full-tank take-off. It looked as if no one could be alive.

The details emerged slowly. The flight, that had 242 people, faced 241 fatalities, with just one miraculous escape of a passenger from seat 11A. Worse news was to come. The plane's crash into the B J Medical College premises killed another 38 hapless people on the ground. This remains a disaster hard to explain. Why did it happen at all?

The whole nation is in shock. So am I. Many other nations, whose nationals perished, are in shock too. Disasters of this kind rattle all in more ways than one. Even as the news kept coming out, there were prayers on every lip, hoping for more survivors and fewer fatalities. But that was not to be.

As I write this piece, it is only three days since the accident and the wound is still raw. If that is our situation, just imagine the plight of the near and dear ones of those who perished. Whole sets of lives have changed forever. Whole sets of nations and families have been scarred, not by an act of war, but by an accident. This first-ever hull loss of a Boeing Dreamliner is more than the loss of an aircraft and lives. It raises questions on many aspects of life itself.

For a start, why did all of us get so rattled by this accident? Many reasons maybe. An incident of this kind makes us feel the pain of others distant from us in many ways, and at the same time very close to who we are as humans. The key question, "What if it was me?" lurks around ominously as well. We as human-beings will forever empathise with the distress of another, all the time living vicariously through the distress. We will very quickly visit the fact in our minds that we are but mere mortals. An accident of this kind could happen to us. We get off our "I will never ever die" pedestal, and face reality. What the Covid pandemic did to us as a society, this air crash did to all of us as well just a few days ago. At least momentarily. Add to it the thought that we are suddenly confronted by the fact that we cannot plan for everything. We spend our lives at work and home, planning for the worst and the best. Incidents such as this tell us very clearly that you can plan your life, but you can't plan your death.

In many ways, the fall of AI 171 touched each one of us in a rather selfish manner of speaking as well. In our minds we still do want to plan for success, not doom. We will therefore keep assessing risk. In this case it is the risk of flying. This incident of the loss of plane and loss of precious lives might make some of us reduce the number of flights we take. In the case of some, if here is a choice between a bus and a train and an airplane, you just might decide on modes of travel rooted to the ground rather than ones that need a take-off and a landing. This is irrational for sure. Not fact and numbers based. But the fear of flying is back in our lives. A take-off will never be taken for granted. At least for a while.

In the case of some, the airline in question will be avoided for a while. In some cases, even if you are not the one flying, you will advise your near and dear ones not to fly the airline if there is choice put in front of you. In some more due-diligence oriented minds, the aircraft maker in question will be avoided (if there is a viable choice to make). In the case of some, due diligence will be done on the age of the aircraft, its history of flying, its accident record and more. Paranoia is back. At least for a while—though I suspect, a very short while.

We are all suddenly feeling vulnerable. This incident has shaken us. This incident has stirred us. Simply and bluntly put, this incident has really scared us, whether we are willing to admit it or not. In many ways, it has made all of us accept the fact that not everything is in our control. There is more to life than meets the eye. The fall of AI 171 has really woken up our sensitivities and our sensibilities. It has made us feel more human than we ever otherwise do maybe. It has made us get off the pedestal of pompous life, if at all for a brief set of days.

As the investigations into what has happened bring out whatever facts are possible to be probed, I do believe this is not the time for media of both the legacy and social kind to ask for the blood of the airline and the sweat of the aircraft maker. Accidents happen. Nothing is perfect in life. Just as life happens, accidents happen as well. It should not have happened for sure. The lives of thousands have been altered by this incident at Ahmedabad. This is a moment to respect the lives lost and feel our collective grief with dignity and humility.

Our collective psyche has been hurt. Many people have asked me to comment on the future of brand Air India, as well as the future image of brand Boeing at large. My one answer to all has been a simple one: This is not a moment to talk of what will or will not happen to these brands. The Tata group that owns Air India is possibly India's most respected and responsible business group with a heritage of responsible business, social and ethical behaviour. They will do what they are meant to do, without any reminders or cajolement. There are far more important issues at hand for now. This is a sensitive moment. Let's respect it and put a gag order on ourselves for a month and let our monkey minds settle. Once through, let's ask Air India the answers it needs to give us all.

This is not the time to ask for the blood and sweat of any of those involved. This is a moment to just shed tears. A moment to take care of our collective tears as well. A moment to console and condole each one of us.

Om shanti.

Indian trucks take hydrogen highway to future

SHINE JACOB & SOHINI DAS
Chennai/Mumbai, 16 June

From the industrial sprawl of Reliance Industries' Jamnagar refinery to the frost-bitten heights of Leh and the traffic-choked avenues of New Delhi, a quiet shift is underway in India's commercial vehicle (CV) sector. Hydrogen-powered trucks and buses — once a speculative future — are now rolling out onto the country's roads, driven by auto giants like Ashok Leyland and Tata Motors. Others are not far behind.

While many of these efforts are aligned with the government's National Green Hydrogen Mission, original equipment manufacturers (OEMs) are also shaping their own road maps to remain future-ready. Ashok Leyland, for instance, made headlines in 2023 when it unveiled the country's first hydrogen internal combustion engine (H2-ICE) truck, developed in collaboration with Reliance Industries Ltd (RIL).

ASHOK LEYLAND HAS PARTNERED NTPC GREEN TO DEPLOY HYDROGEN FUEL CELL BUSES IN KEY LOCATIONS, INCLUDING DELHI AND LADAKH

Since then, over 20 of these heavy-duty vehicles have clocked nearly 250,000 kilometres, and have rivalled the efficiency of traditional ICE vehicles.

The firm has partnered NTPC Green to deploy hydrogen fuel cell buses in key locations, including Delhi and Ladakh.

"Among the alternative fuels, the ultimate destination of the CV market is going to be hydrogen. However, it needs the cost structure to be right," Sanjeev Kumar, president and head of the medium and heavy commercial vehicle division at Ashok Leyland, told Business Standard. "As an organisation, we are ready with technology; it is only a question of when and how, as the cost of hydrogen continues to be very high. Recently, we have also delivered one 55-tonne fuel cell vehicle to Adani (group) for its mining application in Chhattisgarh."

Tata Motors, too, is carrying out trials of hydrogen-powered CVs. Since March, the firm has been testing two trucks — one powered by H2-ICE, the other by hydrogen fuel cell — across a 24-month pilot programme. A total of 16 hydrogen-powered vehicles, with varying payloads and configurations, will ply on some of India's busiest freight routes in Mumbai, Pune, Delhi-NCR, Surat, Vadodara, Jamshedpur, and Kalinganagar.

"We've also started shipping our first hydrogen trucks, which are now going to ply on specific lanes," P B Balaji, group chief financial officer at Tata Motors, said during a recent post-earnings call.

The pilot, undertaken in partnership with Indian Oil Corporation, aims to gather on-ground data — both to finetune the vehicles and to map out hydrogen availability along key transport routes.

Govt's pilot projects to put 37 hydrogen-powered vehicles on the road

At the Bharat Mobility Global Expo earlier this year, Tata Motors Executive Director Girish Wagh signalled that the company was targeting a commercial launch window within the next 12 to 24 months. The company did not wish to share further updates at the moment.

The momentum isn't limited to Indian firms. Daimler Truck, one of the world's leading CV manufacturers, is preparing to enter the Indian hydrogen race. "On the path towards decarbonising transport, Daimler Truck is entering the next development phase of its fuel cell trucks," said Pradeep Kumar T, president of product engineering and chief technology officer, Daimler India Commercial Vehicles.

Following extensive testing, both on tracks and public roads, Daimler's Mercedes-Benz GenH2 trucks are now approaching the customer deployment phase. "We are currently evaluating customer readiness, infrastructure availability, and local operating conditions to ensure that when our hydrogen trucks enter Indian roads, it will be with full commitment to the quality, safety and reliability that define Daimler Truck worldwide," he added.

The central government, too, is ramping up its hydrogen play. Through the Ministry of New and Renewable Energy, five pilot projects have been allocated to a group of private players — Tata Motors, RIL, NTPC, Ashok Leyland, Hindustan Petroleum Corporation Ltd, Bharat Petroleum Corporation Ltd, and Indian Oil Corporation Ltd. Together, these projects will put 37 hydrogen-powered vehicles (a mix of buses and trucks) on the road, supported by nine hydrogen-refuelling stations.

The vehicles include 15 powered by hydrogen fuel cells and 22 by hydrogen ICEs. The trials will take place on 10 routes across the country — from Delhi to Thiruvananthapuram. Launched in January 2023, the National Green Hydrogen Mission has an allocated budget of ₹19,744 crore through to the end of the decade.

It is the centrepiece of India's push towards becoming aatmanirbhar (self-reliant) in clean energy and serving as an inspiration for the global clean energy transition.

NEW DELHI: Air India chairman N Chandrasekaran on Monday urged employees to channel criticism over the crash of AI Flight 171 in Ahmedabad last week into building a safer and better airline even as he met a top Boeing executive and Union aviation minister Ram Mohan Naidu to discuss the accident and its aftermath.

Describing the crash as the "most heartbreaking" crisis of his career, Chandrasekaran told the company's employees at the airline's headquarters that "we must wait for the outcome of the investigation before drawing conclusions," an airline official said.

Addressing the criticism the airline has faced, Chandrasekaran acknowledged that it is difficult for those who care deeply about their work and the future of the airline. However, he encouraged employees instead to draw strength from determination and channel their emotions into building a safer and better airline.

"We need to show resilience. We need to use this incident as an act of force to build a safer airline," news agency PTI quoted him as saying.

The Air India chairman said that the airline was doing its best to help the families of the victims.

Chandrasekaran, also chairman of Air India's owner, Tata Sons, discussed the accident with civil aviation minister

N Chandrasekaran

Ram Mohan Naidu in a 45-minute meeting, officials said.

"The Tata group will begin to disburse their insurance amount of ₹25 lakhs in a couple of days," a ministry official said.

The Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner crashed soon after takingoof from Ahmedabad airport, killing 241 of the 242 passengers and crew on board. In a letter, Chandrasekaran had announced Rs 1crore as compensation to the families of each victim. The company later said it would pay ₹25 lakhs as interim compensation to the families.

A Reuters report citing two sources said the head of Boeing Commercial Airplanes, Stephanie Pope, also met Chandrasekaran Air India's headquarters in New Delhi on Monday. Boeing, in a statement to Reuters, declined to comment on Pope's visit and meeting with Air India but said it is "focused on supporting the investigation" and its customer.

Air India was one of Boeing's earlier customers for the Dreamliner when it rolled of the assembly lines in 2011. Air India has a total of 33 Dreamliner 787, which are undergoing enhanced safety checks ordered by India's aviation regulator.

Pope was accompanied by Boeing's India President Salil Gupte, one of the sources said inj the report. Pope oversees design, production and delivery of advanced jetliners to Boeing customers around the world, according to the US plane maker's website.

The Dreamliner was fitted with GE engines and GE Aerospace's CEO for Commercial Engines and Services, Russell Stokes, and its South Asia chief, Vikram Rai, also met Chandrasekaran on Monday, one of the sources added, according to the report.

DNA profiling may end today, kin await results

AHMEDABAD: The painstaking process of DNA profiling of all the victims of the Air India Dreamliner crash is expected to finish by Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning, a top doctor said on Monday, potentially exacerbating the wait of scores of relatives who continue to camp in Ahmedabad.

A group of 54 experts across Forensic Science Laboratories in Gandhinagar, Ahmedabad, Vadodara, Surat, and Rajkot are working round-the-clock to carry out profiling and matching tests. But there is still no final word on the official toll on what is India's worst single-aircraft tragedy that killed all but one of the 242 on board, and at least 30 in the hostel building the AI-171 jet rammed into, or in the neighbourhood.

Dr Rakesh Joshi, superintendent of Ahmedabad Civil Hospital, said that 119 DNA samples have matched with the victims of the crash. Using these, 76 bodies have been handed over to families. Another eight bodies, which didn't require DNA sampling, were returned on Friday.

At least 14 more bodies will be returned by Tuesday morning.

"The DNA profiling all the victims will be completed by either Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning," Joshi

said. "We are trying our best to finish this process as soon as possible."

One of the people identified by DNA profiling was former chief minister Vijay Rupani, whose final rites were conducted in Rajkot on Monday.

The Air India Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner from Ahmedabad to London Gatwick crashed 33 seconds after taking off on Thursday afternoon and rammed into the medical college hostel, marking the worst air tragedy in the country in three decades.

Thick plumes of black smoke billowed from the debris of AI-171 at the crash site roughly 3km from the Ahmedabad airport premises.

The aircraft – which carried almost a full load of 125,000 litres of fuel – entered a slow descent shortly after taking off at 1.38pm, with its landing gear still extended before exploding into a huge fireball upon impact. The twin-engine plane had reached an altitude of 625 feet (190.5 meters) at a speed of 174 knots, according to data from Flightradar24.

Since Thursday, scores of relatives have trooped into Ahmedabad, their wait turning from hours into days as authorities struggled to identify charred bodies and recover samples.

At Dr Pratik Joshi's home in Ahmedabad, for example, 50-60 relatives from Rajasthan's Banswara are anxiously awaiting DNA confirmation to claim the remains of Pratik, 41, his wife Dr Komi Vyas, and their children — Miraya, 8, and twins Nakul and Pradyut, 5.

"We are caught in a nightmare, unable to sleep or stay awake," said Anil Vyas, Komi's father. "They've confirmed Pratik' identity, but we're still waiting for the others. Nothing is in our hands...Hospital authorities have promised answers by tomorrow. The wait gets heavier with time," he told HT.

Dr Pratik Joshi, a 41-year-old radiologist, was relocating his family from India to London for a new chapter. The family had captured their joy in a selfie on board, moments before the crash.

Other families grew more impatient. "They told us 72 hours. It has been four days now. We haven't got a call."

NEW DELHI: A high-level government panel led by the Union home secretary Govind Mohan met for the first time on Monday, deciding to study the country's response to air crashes in the past, as it works to prepare a standard operating procedure to respond to such accidents, officials said.

The high- level multi-disciplinary committee, formed and announced by the government on Friday, also focused on improving safety in order to avoid accidents in the future. The committee was set up after an Air India Boeing 787 crashed shortly after take-off from Ahmedabad airport on Thursday, killing 241 of the 242 on board and at least 30 in the buildings at the crash site.

"The committee revisited previous accidents in India or involved an Indian registered aircraft," one of the officials said. "Reports of all the previous accidents were analysed," the official added.

Officials said that the lead probe agency, India's Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB), with the US National Transport Safety Board (NTSB), and a team from the aircraft's manufacturer Boeing from Seattle that reached Ahmedabad on Sunday, were scheduled to extract the plane's flight data recorder by Tuesday. A Press Information Bureau release on Sunday night said the US NTSB is conducting a parallel probe under international protocols, as the aircraft is American-made.

"The committee is not going to probe the technical aspect of the accident but look into the procedures that were followed to handle it and if there is a change required in the approach towards handling accidents in the country," the official quoted above said. "Hence they discussed the accident and the way it was handled," he added.

The meeting began at 2.15pm on Monday and went on for around two hours. "While the secretary of civil aviation along with other civil aviation ministry officials, attended the meeting in person, local officials from Ahmedabad and other aviation officials investigating the Thursday crash participated virtually," a second official said.

"This was an introductory meeting and it touched upon various aspects not only including the AI 171 crash but also the response to the crash, the update on the situation at the crash site and also the need to come up with an SOP to be followed during such times," a third person said, requesting anonymity.

Officials added issues such as the time it took for local agencies to respond to the crash site at Ahmedabad were also discussed. The committee includes secretary of civil aviation SK Sinha, representatives from the Gujarat home department, the state disaster response authority, the police commissioner of Ahmedabad, the director general (DG), inspection and safety of the Indian Air Force, the DG of Bureau of Civil Aviation Security, the DG of the Directorate General of Civil Aviation, the special director of Intelligence Bureau and the director of the Directorate of Forensic Science Services.

The civil aviation ministry did not comment on the discussions held in the meeting.

The government had announced the formation of this committee on Friday to not only examine the causes leading to the crash but also to analyse the existing guidelines issued to prevent and handle such occurrences, and suggest comprehensive guidelines for dealing with such situations in the future.

जयपुर एयरपोर्ट : टेक्निकल एरर का पायलट को ऐन वक्त पर पता चला

प्लेन को रनवे से वापस एप्रन पर पहुंचाया, तीन घंटे बाद भरी उड़ान

119 की पहचान, 64 के शव परिजनों को सौंपे

■ डीएनए जांच न हो पाने के कारण नहीं सौंपे जा सके शव

समिति ने किया विमान हादसे के संभावित कारणों पर मंथन

गुजरात के सीएम ने की उच्च स्तरीय समीक्षा बैठक

गांधीनगर : गुजरात के मुख्यमंत्री भूपेंद्र पटेल ने हाल में हुए विमान दुर्घटना को लेकर राज्य के मंत्रियों और राज्य के उच्च अधिकारियों के साथ सोमवार को बैठक कर पूरे राहत एवं बचाव अभियान की समीक्षा की। पटेल ने सोमवार को अहमदाबाद सिविल अस्पताल में विमान दुर्घटना के पीड़ितों से मुलाकात कर उनका हालचाल पूछा तथा अस्पताल के डी2 ब्लॉक में संचालित वेरिफिकेशन रूम का दौरा किया और इलाज करा रहे मरीजों के परिजनों को सांत्वना दी। पटेल को डीएनए सैंपल मैचिंग की पूरी प्रक्रिया और उसके विवरण के बारे में जानकारी दी गई तथा उन्होंने अधिकारियों को घायलों को शीघ्र राहत, गहन जांच और पीड़ितों तथा उनके परिवारों को व्यापक सहायता सुनिश्चित करने के लिए आवश्यक निर्देश दिए। इसके बाद मुख्यमंत्री ने राज्य के मंत्रियों और उच्च अधिकारियों के साथ बैठक कर पूरे राहत एवं बचाव अभियान की समीक्षा की।

मुम्बई : टाटा संस और एयर इंडिया के चेयरमैन एन चंद्रशेखरन ने एयर इंडिया के कर्मचारियों से सोमवार को कहा कि उन्हें आगे बढ़ते रहना चाहिए और जो कुछ भी हम करते हैं, उसमें दृढ़ निश्चयी होना चाहिए। सूत्रों ने यह जानकारी दी। एयर इंडिया के एक विमान के अहमदाबाद में पिछले सप्ताह दुर्घटनाग्रस्त होने के मद्देनजर उन्होंने यह बात कही और इस दुर्घटना को अपने 'करियर' का सबसे दिल दहला देने वाला संकट बताया। चंद्रशेखरन ने गुरुग्राम स्थित एयर इंडिया मुख्यालय एवं एयर इंडिया प्रशिक्षण अकादमी में करीब 700 कर्मचारियों व नेतृत्व दल को संबोधित करते हुए कहा कि कर्मचारियों को दृढ़ता दिखाने की जरूरत है और इस घटना से सबक लेते हुए एक 'सुरक्षित विमानन कंपनी' बनाने की राह पर बढ़ना चाहिए। सूत्रों के अनुसार उन्होंने कहा, 'मैंने अपने कैरियर में काफी संकट देखे हैं, लेकिन यह सबसे दुखद घटना है।'

Adani scam probe hampered by lack of information from tax haven countries: Cong.

The Hindu Bureau
NEW DELHI

The Congress on Monday said that a key figure in the alleged Adani scam had Cypriot citizenship, but ongoing investigations by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) into transactions involving the Adani Group had been impacted by insufficiency in sharing of financial information by tax haven countries, and the "lack of pressure" from India.

The charge came amid Prime Minister Narendra Modi's visit to Cyprus.

"The Prime Minister is in Cyprus on his way to Canada. Of course, he would have us believe that it is a pure coincidence that a key figure in the Modani scam has Cypriot citizenship. The Cyprus-based fund New Leaina has reportedly about $420 million in Adani companies,"

Jairam Ramesh

Congress's communications chief Jairam Ramesh said in a post on social media platform X.

The "ultimate beneficial owners of this fund are linked to Amicorp, which is believed to have set up at least seven Adani promoter entities, seventeen offshore shell companies linked to Mr. Vinod Adani, and three Mauritius-based offshore investors in Adani Group stock," Mr. Ramesh said.

"All these transactions are part of the ongoing SEBI investigations which have been hampered by lack of sharing of financial information by these and other tax-haven countries and lack of pressure by India," Mr. Ramesh alleged.

There was no reaction to the latest salvo from the Congress from either the Union government or the Adani Group.

Mr. Ramesh also explained how India, under Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru in the 1950s, had rooted for Cyprus to become independent from British rule, and the island had become free on August 16, 1960.

"In the context of today's geopolitics, it is worthwhile to recall that India's championing of the independence of Cyprus in the 1950s and thereafter became a sore point in our bilateral relations with Turkiye," he said.

Cong recalls ties with Cyprus

Gaurav Vivek Bhatnagar
NEW DELHI

At a time when Prime Minister Narendra Modi is visiting Cyprus, an eastern Mediterranean island that has since 1974 been seeking a return of Turkish forces from its territory, in a bid to send a subtle message following Operation Sindoor to Turkey which has armed Pakistan with drones and missiles, the Congress on Monday pitched in by recalling India's contribution in its Independence struggle.

In a post on "X", Congress general secretary Jairam Ramesh recalled the support extended by Jawaharlal Nehru for Cyprus's independence. He wrote that "Cyprus gained independence from British rule on Aug 16, 1960. In the 1950s, India spearheaded the international campaign for the full decolonisation of the island."

He added that "Nehru had, in fact, also ensured the participation of the Cypriot leader and freedom fighter Archbishop Makarios III at the historic Afro-Asian Bandung Conference held in Indonesia in late April 1955" and that Makarios was the only European to attend that summit.

Ramesh also wrote about India's military support to Cyprus in the past saying, "Three distinguished Indian army men--Lt. Gen P. S. Gyani, the legendary Gen K. S. Thimayya, and Lt. Gen Dewan Prem Chand--headed the United Nations Force In Cyprus (UNFICYP) between 1964 and 1974." He also wondered aloud if the PM's advisors were even aware of these strong ties.

Ramesh also linked Cyprus to the Adani case saying the PM would "have us believe that it is a pure coincidence that a key figure in the Modani scam has Cypriot citizenship." He added that "the Cyprus-based fund New Leaina has reportedly about $420 million in Adani companies. The 'ultimate beneficial owners' of this fund are linked to Amicorp, which is believed to have set up at least seven Adani promoter entities, seventeen offshore shell companies linked to Mr. Vinod Adani, and three Mauritius-based offshore investors in Adani Group stock."

The Congress leader claimed that, "All these transactions are part of the ongoing SEBI investigations which have been hampered by lack of sharing of financial information by these and other tax-haven countries and lack of pressure by India."

Shangumukham scenic shoreline devoured by sea

HD Bureau
KOCHI

Erosion along the Thiruvananthapuram coast has intensified, with Shangumukham Beach virtually engulfed by advancing seas. The parallel coastal road, once a scenic pathway beside the shore and a connector to the historic Arattumandapam, now lies submerged beneath the Arabian Sea's relentless surge. Families, fishermen and civil authorities are raising alarm as this transformation unfolds-.Fishermen and local residents, alarmed by the pace of loss, blocked the Valiyathura–Airport Road on 12 June, staging a two-hour protest against the authorities' inaction. They demand immediate and robust shore protection; J. Mosses, a protest organiser, stated that "around three rows of houses" along a 180-metre stretch have already been claimed by the sea in the past three to four years, with minimal remedial work other than scattered rock dumping. The extent of erosion has been corroborated by satellite-informed studies.

A research paper published in Estuarine, Coastal and Shelf Science confirms that Shangumukham, along with stretches from Pozhiyoor to Anchuthengu, is among the most severely eroded segments of the 58-kilometre Thiruvananthapuram district coastline. The study, using remote-sensing and machine learning, found average shoreline retreat at Shangumukham of approximately 4.7 metres per year between 2006 and 2020, with certain sections expunged as ablaze.

Effects extend beyond scenic loss. The swallowed beachfront encroaches on the airport's parallel service road, now compromised, compelling passengers to disembark and navigate by foot to access the terminal. Public amenities installed by the tourism department have been rendered obsolete, with access roads and recreational facilities increasingly battered by destructive wave action.

The erosion is part of a state-wide pattern: more than half of the 590 km Kerala coastline is classified as vulnerable or highly vulnerable to erosion. In Thiruvananthapuram alone, over 2.6 km² were lost between 2006 and 2020. Long-standing infrastructure such as seawalls, breakwaters, and harbours have exhibited limited effectiveness, with structural interventions disrupting sediment flows and exacerbating erosion downstream.

Government bodies have responded with temporary measures. Geobag barriers, filled with sand and placed along critical zones, have been deployed in areas like Poonthura and Chellanam but are criticised for being insufficient and short-lived. The latest Poonthura geotube breakwater project, funded by state development agencies, was designed to extend protection across Shangumukham, but supply chain issues and rough seas have pushed completion from March 2025 to April 2026. Officials describe geotubes as submerged barriers meant to attenuate waves and foster sand deposition, though only two of the three segments have reached completion.

An expert committee examining the impact of the Vizhinjam port concluded that coastal erosion at Shangumukham cannot be attributed to port infrastructure. The report, based on shoreline data, indicates local erosion trends predate the port project, with disturbances concentrated within eight to ten times the length of the breakwater—far shorter than the span between Vizhinjam and Shangumukham.

Nevertheless, climate stressors like rising sea levels and monsoon wave surges compound the crisis. Between 2012 and 2021, Kerala witnessed 223 sea-surge events, disproportionately affecting southern and central regions. Experts from the Kerala University of Fisheries and Ocean Studies highlight that the southern sandy coasts are more vulnerable than the rocky shores up north.

Local residents report not only property loss but livelihood disruptions. Hundreds of coastal fishermen have seen their landing spaces vanish, forcing them to port boats on eroded land or travel farther offshore. The Valiyathura blockades underscored their desperation: supplies of rock dumping have been inadequate, and no long-term defences have been installed.

State infrastructure agencies are pursuing a multipronged approach.

Smoke scare: Hajj flight lands safely

Biswajeet Banerjee

LUCKNOW

A Saudia Airlines flight carrying 242 Hajj pilgrims from Jeddah to Lucknow triggered a brief emergency at the Chaudhary Charan Singh International Airport on Sunday morning after smoke was spotted coming from the aircraft's left wheel during landing.

Airport sources confirmed that the smoke was noticed shortly after the flight touched down, raising immediate alarm. However, a swift response by the Aircraft Rescue and Fire Fighting (ARFF) team, the situation was brought under control quickly, and no damage was caused to the aircraft.

"All 242 passengers, returning from their Hajj pilgrimage, were safely deboarded. No injuries were reported, and there was no harm to the aircraft," said an airport official.

The ARFF team acted promptly in coordination with the Saudia technical staff to contain the smoke and ensure the aircraft's safety.

"There was no disruption to airport operations," the official added.

The airline has arranged for the now-empty aircraft to return to its base for further inspection and technical checks. "The empty flight is scheduled to fly back today," sources said.

While the exact cause of the smoke is yet to be officially confirmed, initial reports suggest a minor technical snag in the landing gear. An investigation has been initiated by Saudia's engineering team.

Passengers expressed relief over the safe landing. "We were scared when we heard about the smoke, but the crew kept us calm. We're grateful to be back safely," said Imran Qureshi, a returnee from the pilgrimage.

AI crash may trigger $475 mn in claims

India's deadliest plane crash in more than decade is set to send shock waves through the aviation insurance industry and trigger one of the country's costliest claims, estimated at around $475 million.

"This aviation insurance claim could be one of the biggest in India's history," said Ramaswamy Narayanan, chairman and managing director at General Insurance Corporation of India, one of the firms that has provided coverage for Air India.

The claim for the aircraft hull and engine is estimated at around $125 million, according to Narayanan. He estimates additional liability claims for loss of life for passengers and others will be around $350 million. The sum is more than triple the annual premium for the aviation industry in India in 2023, according to GlobalData.

The financial repercussions of the crash that killed 241 people on board and others as it fell in a densely populated part of Ahmedabad in western India on Thursday will ripple through the global aviation insurance and reinsurance market.

It's also likely to make insurance costlier for airlines in India.

Insurance premiums across the aviation industry are expected to rise in India, either now or at the time of policy renewals, according to people familiar with the matter.

On the Air India insurance payout, totals could climb, since there were foreign nationals killed in the accident, and those claims will be calculated according to the rules in their respective jurisdictions, the people said, who asked not to be identified discussing private matters.

AI-171 crash: A wake-up call for urban planning around airports

AI-171 crash: A wake-up call for urban planning around airports

The Air India AI-171 crash near Ahmedabad airport has left behind more than just wreckage. It has left families devastated, careers cut short, and a city in grief. Amid all that's being said about aircraft performance, weather, and pilot decisions, a quieter but harsher truth is coming to light — this tragedy on the ground (at the medical college hostel) could have been avoided if proper building norms and smarter urban planning around airports had been followed.Past disasters have already shown how densely populated areas near runways can turn aviation accidents into large-scale tragedies. In 2020, Pakistan International Airlines Flight 8303 crashed into Karachi's Model Colony, a crowded residential area just short of the runway, killing 97 people. In 2012, Dana Air Flight 992 fell into a suburb of Lagos, wiping out entire families.

Even in New York, American Airlines Flight 587 crashed over the Belle Harbor neighbourhood in Queens. The tragic crash of Air India flight AI-171, along with the examples above, brings into sharp focus the urgent need for better urban planning - especially within the 5-kilometre radius of major airports. The 5 km radius around airports has long been considered a sensitive zone — not necessarily because buildings within it are illegal or too tall, but because it is a critical safety zone for aircraft during take-off and landing, the most vulnerable phases of flight. Traditionally in India, during British rule, airports (unlike railway stations) were built far away from populated areas. For example, when Delhi's Safdarjung Airport and Palam Airport were built, there were very few settlements nearby — only a few army barracks around Safdarjung (now known as Lodhi Colony) and the old, sparsely populated villages of Mehram Nagar and Palam around Palam Airport. In those days, air crashes were more frequent, and placing airports away from populated areas was a deliberate step to avoid ground casualties. Even today, airports in tier-II towns are located at a fair distance from cities, although the growing urban sprawl is now fast approaching them as well. After independence, as India witnessed a massive surge in population and rapid urbanisation, cities began expanding in all directions. The airports that were once located far from residential and commercial zones gradually found themselves surrounded by growing urban settlements. With the rise in land demand, areas around airports have become highly sought after due to their excellent connectivity and strategic location, significantly pushing up real estate values. This led to high-density development near airport boundaries.

AJAY S JASRA

However, this unchecked growth brought with it serious concerns like constructing buildings near active flight paths not just from a flight safety perspective, but also from a security point of view. As a result, managing construction and land use near airports became a critical issue, demanding a careful balance between urban development and the uncompromising need for aviation safety and security.Globally, aviation authorities, including India's DGCA and AAI, have issued detailed zoning maps for every major airport. There is a formal process to apply for height clearance of any structure. All international airports in India follow Obstacle Limitation Surfaces (OLS) — a set of 3D safety rules that make sure aircraft have enough space to climb and descend without danger. These OLS regulations, overseen by the Airports Authority of India (AAI) and DGCA, are not optional. They are strict safety norms. Structures within 5 km of a runway face the toughest height limits.

The hostel where the recent crash caused casualties was most likely within the permitted height as per AAI rules. But what often escapes attention is not just height, but the density of the human population in such areas. Even if buildings technically follow all safety norms, the presence of thousands of people living or working near a runway increases the risk in case of crashes, aborted landings, or engine failure during low-altitude flights. This is what makes the crash of AI-171 even more tragic. This raises a critical and timely question: Is it time to completely rethink how we plan our cities around airports — or even relocate airports themselves? Hyderabad has already done it. The old Begumpet Airport was relocated to Shamshabad, about 24 km south of the city centre, to allow for future expansion and improved safety. With urban sprawl rapidly swallowing earlier remote zones, many airports in cities like Ahmedabad, Mumbai, and Chennai now find themselves trapped amid dense residential, institutional, and commercial structures.

The AI-171 crash should serve as a wake-up call. Not necessarily because rules were violated, but because the current model of reactive urban planning — where development chases growth without long-term thinking — is failing to safeguard lives. If airports are to expand safely along with cities, we may need to reimagine their place on the map.

That means moving older airports beyond city boundaries where possible, enforcing no-build or low-density zones around newer ones, and treating the 5 km airport radius not just as a regulatory guideline, but as a life-saving buffer zone.Urban planning must take into account not just real estate needs, but safety and long-term sustainability. The tragedy of AI-171 is not just a story of an aircraft gone wrong - it's also a story of a city that grew too close to danger.

AIR INDIA DREAMLINER CRASH IN AHMEDABAD

At first meet, panel discusses possible causes and SOPs

NEW DELHI, JUNE 16

THE GOVERNMENT'S high-level multi-disciplinary committee on Thursday's crash of Air India flight AI-171 in Ahmedabad held its first meeting on Monday and discussed various possible causes and theories pertaining to the deadly aviation accident, the worst for an Indian airline in four decades.

Deliberations were also held on identifying areas of improvement and creating a roadmap to formulate standard operating procedures (SOPs) to prevent such disasters. Records pertaining to earlier aviation disasters in India, like the 2010 Mangaluru crash and 2020 Kozhikode accident of Air India Express aircraft, and how they were handled by various stakeholders were also shared in the meeting that lasted around two hours, it is learnt.

The committee is headed by the Home Secretary Govind Mohan and includes senior officials from the civil aviation ministry, home ministry, Gujarat government, the Indian Air Force, and various other departments and agencies including the Intelligence Bureau, Bureau of Civil Aviation Security, and Directorate General of Civil Aviation, among others. It is expected to submit its report within three months.

The technical investigation into the crash of Air India's Boeing 787-8 aircraft operating flight AI-171 from Ahmedabad to London Gatwick is being conducted by the Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB). On being asked why a government committee has been constituted when the AAIB-led probe is already on, Naidu had said on Saturday that the AAIB investigation is technical and specific to the tragic plane crash in Ahmedabad, while the government's high-level committee will take a more holistic approach and look at further strengthening of the aviation safety ecosystem.

"The Committee will examine the existing Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) and guidelines issued to prevent and handle such occurrences and suggest comprehensive guidelines for dealing with such instances in the future. The Committee will not be a substitute to other enquiries being conducted by relevant organisations but will focus on formulating SOPs for preventing and handling such occurrences in the future," the civil aviation ministry had said late Friday while notifying the constitution of the high-level committee.

The objective and scope of the committee also includes ascertaining the root cause of the crash, including assessment of possible contributory factors like mechanical failure, human error, weather conditions, and regulatory compliance-related issues, among others. It is also tasked with assessing the emergency response of various stakeholders—both Central and State governments.

The committee will formulate comprehensive SOPs and suggest the roles of various Central and State government organisations to deal with post-crash incident handling and management. It will also suggest policy changes, operational improvements, and training enhancements required to prevent such accidents in future, and handle the situation in the event of a crash.

Thursday's crash claimed the lives of 241 of the 242 people on board the Boeing 787-8 aircraft—bearing registration VT-ANB. Lives were also lost on the ground as the plane crashed into a medical college hostel mess close to the Ahmedabad airport.

As for the technical probe into the accident, the AAIB is being assisted in the probe by the US National Transportation Safety Board given that the aircraft was manufactured by an American company—Boeing—and was made in the US. A UK AAIB team is also going to help with the investigation, and so are Boeing and other major component manufacturers like GE (engine manufacturer). According to aircraft accident investigation protocol, the probe report should be finalised within a year. The world has its eyes set on the probe as scores of Boeing 787 aircraft are operating all over the globe, and this was the first-ever crash involving the 787.

Cong: Modi govt's negligence to aviation safety worrying

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

The Congress on Monday accused the Modi government of being negligent in not giving priority to aviation sector safety and said that while it awaits the investigation report on the Ahmedabad plane crash, the Centre must clarify on the "lack of action" despite a parliamentary committee report flagging concerns.

Congress general secretary in-charge communications Jairam Ramesh cited a media report which flagged that the Parliamentary Standing Committee on Transport, Tourism and Culture had raised the issues related to safety in the civil aviation sector through a report tabled in the Rajya Sabha on March 25.

"We are waiting for the investigation report on the air crash in Ahmedabad, but the lack of action despite the parliamentary committee report is a serious matter. We demand the government to clarify the situation and take necessary steps on this."

"The Modi government's negligence in not giving priority to safety in the aviation sector is worrying. It is evident from media reports that there is a huge shortage of officers and personnel in the Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA), Bureau of Civil Aviation Security (BCAS) and the Airports Authority of India (AAI)," Ramesh said in a post on X in Hindi.

"53% posts are vacant in DGCA; 35% posts vacant in BCAS; 17% posts vacant in AAI," he said.

How will safe flights be ensured when key departments dealing with aviation safety, inspection, regulation and operations are working at less than half their staff, Ramesh asked. "We are waiting for the investigation report on the air crash in Ahmedabad, but the lack of action despite the parliamentary committee report is a serious matter. We demand the government to clarify the situation and take necessary steps on this," the Congress leader said.

His remarks come after the Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner with 242 people on board crashed into a medical college complex in Ahmedabad moments after taking off from the Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport at 1.39 pm on June 12.

While 241 people on board the London-bound Air India aircraft died, one passenger miraculously survived. Besides, 29 persons, including five MBBS students, are reported to have died in the disaster on the ground.

Indian trucks take hydrogen highway to future

SHINE JACOB & SOHINI DAS
Chennai/Mumbai, 16 June

From the industrial sprawl of Reliance Industries' Jamnagar refinery to the frost-bitten heights of Leh and the traffic-choked avenues of New Delhi, a quiet shift is underway in India's commercial vehicle (CV) sector. Hydrogen-powered trucks and buses — once a speculative future — are now rolling out onto the country's roads, driven by auto giants like Ashok Leyland and Tata Motors. Others are not far behind.

While many of these efforts are aligned with the government's National Green Hydrogen Mission, original equipment manufacturers (OEMs) are also shaping their own road maps to remain future-ready. Ashok Leyland, for instance, made headlines in 2023 when it unveiled the country's first hydrogen internal combustion engine (H2-ICE) truck, developed in collaboration with Reliance Industries Ltd (RIL).

ASHOK LEYLAND HAS PARTNERED NTPC GREEN TO DEPLOY HYDROGEN FUEL CELL BUSES IN KEY LOCATIONS, INCLUDING DELHI AND LADAKH

Since then, over 20 of these heavy-duty vehicles have clocked nearly 250,000 kilometres, and have rivalled the efficiency of traditional ICE vehicles.

The firm has partnered NTPC Green to deploy hydrogen fuel cell buses in key locations, including Delhi and Ladakh.

"Among the alternative fuels, the ultimate destination of the CV market is going to be hydrogen. However, it needs the cost structure to be right," Sanjeev Kumar, president and head of the medium and heavy commercial vehicle division at Ashok Leyland, told Business Standard. "As an organisation, we are ready with technology; it is only a question of when and how, as the cost of hydrogen continues to be very high. Recently, we have also delivered one 55-tonne fuel cell vehicle to Adani (group) for its mining application in Chhattisgarh."

Tata Motors, too, is carrying out trials of hydrogen-powered CVs. Since March, the firm has been testing two trucks — one powered by H2-ICE, the other by hydrogen fuel cell — across a 24-month pilot programme. A total of 16 hydrogen-powered vehicles, with varying payloads and configurations, will ply on some of India's busiest freight routes in Mumbai, Pune, Delhi-NCR, Surat, Vadodara, Jamshedpur, and Kalinganagar.

"We've also started shipping our first hydrogen trucks, which are now going to ply on specific lanes," P B Balaji, group chief financial officer at Tata Motors, said during a recent post-earnings call.

The pilot, undertaken in partnership with Indian Oil Corporation, aims to gather on-ground data — both to finetune the vehicles and to map out hydrogen availability along key transport routes.

Govt's pilot projects to put 37 hydrogen-powered vehicles on the road

At the Bharat Mobility Global Expo earlier this year, Tata Motors Executive Director Girish Wagh signalled that the company was targeting a commercial launch window within the next 12 to 24 months. The company did not wish to share further updates at the moment.

The momentum isn't limited to Indian firms. Daimler Truck, one of the world's leading CV manufacturers, is preparing to enter the Indian hydrogen race. "On the path towards decarbonising transport, Daimler Truck is entering the next development phase of its fuel cell trucks," said Pradeep Kumar T, president of product engineering and chief technology officer, Daimler India Commercial Vehicles.

Following extensive testing, both on tracks and public roads, Daimler's Mercedes-Benz GenH2 trucks are now approaching the customer deployment phase. "We are currently evaluating customer readiness, infrastructure availability, and local operating conditions to ensure that when our hydrogen trucks enter Indian roads, it will be with full commitment to the quality, safety and reliability that define Daimler Truck worldwide," he added.

The central government, too, is ramping up its hydrogen play. Through the Ministry of New and Renewable Energy, five pilot projects have been allocated to a group of private players — Tata Motors, RIL, NTPC, Ashok Leyland, Hindustan Petroleum Corporation Ltd, Bharat Petroleum Corporation Ltd, and Indian Oil Corporation Ltd. Together, these projects will put 37 hydrogen-powered vehicles (a mix of buses and trucks) on the road, supported by nine hydrogen-refuelling stations.

The vehicles include 15 powered by hydrogen fuel cells and 22 by hydrogen ICEs. The trials will take place on 10 routes across the country — from Delhi to Thiruvananthapuram. Launched in January 2023, the National Green Hydrogen Mission has an allocated budget of ₹19,744 crore through to the end of the decade.

It is the centrepiece of India's push towards becoming aatmanirbhar (self-reliant) in clean energy and serving as an inspiration for the global clean energy transition.

Plane crash: DNA tests identify 119 victims

Hope to complete process by Tue-Wed, says official

PNS ■ AHMEDABAD

Four days after the horrific crash of an Air India plane claimed 270 lives, 119 victims have so far been identified through DNA matching and 76 bodies, including that of former Gujarat chief minister Vijay Rupani, were handed over to their families, officials said on Monday.

An official expressed hope that the DNA profiling all the victims will be completed by either Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning.

Rupani was among the 242 passengers and crew members on board the London-bound Air India flight AI-171 that crashed in Ahmedabad on June 12. His mortal remains were handed over to his wife Anjali Rupani and other family members at the city civil hospital.

Till Monday evening, 119 DNA samples have been matched, and 76 bodies have already been handed over to the respective families. These deceased were from different parts of Gujarat and Rajasthan

Authorities are carrying out DNA tests to establish the identity of the victims as many bodies were charred beyond recognition or damaged.

"Till Monday evening, 119 DNA samples have been matched, and 76 bodies have already been handed over to the respective families. These deceased were from different parts of Gujarat and Rajasthan," Medical Superintendent of Ahmedabad Civil Hospital Dr Rakesh Joshi told reporters.

He expressed hope that the DNA profiling all the victims will be completed by either Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning.

He urged the grief-stricken kin of the victims to not panic over the time-consuming process of matching DNA samples with mortal remains.

"We are trying our best to finish this process as soon as possible. Some are complaining that the results have not come even after 72 hours. I appeal to them not to panic because this is a very important process with legal implications. We will call them as soon as results arrive," Joshi asserted.

Ahmedabad Civil Hospital authorities had said on Sunday that samples of 250 victims, including persons on board the ill-fated flight as well as those killed on the ground, had been collected for identification.

The Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner with 242 persons on board crashed into a medical college complex in Ahmedabad moments after taking off from the Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport at 1.39 pm on June 12.

UAE-based Indian doc announces Rs 6 cr aid for AI crash victims

PNS ■ DUBAI

UAE-based Indian doctor and philanthropist Dr Shamsheer Vayalil has announced Rs 6 crore in financial aid for the families of medical students and doctors affected by the Air India plane crash in Ahmedabad last week.

The ill-fated aircraft struck the BJ Medical College's Atulyam hostel complex during lunch hour, reducing student residences and the dining hall to rubble. All but one of the 242 passengers and crew on board the Boeing 787-8(AI 171) and another 29 persons, including five MBBS students, on the ground were killed when the London-bound aircraft crashed, moments after it took off from the Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport.

Announcing the relief from the UAE capital of Abu Dhabi, Dr Shamsheer, founder and chairman of Burjeel Holdings and managing director of VPS Health, said he was deeply shaken when he saw the aftermath of the crash. As someone who had lived in similar hostels during his medical education at Kasturba Medical College in Mangalore and Sri Ramachandra Medical College in Chennai, the images struck a chord, he said.

"I saw the footage from the mess and the hostel, and it truly shook me. It reminded me of the places I once called home, the corridors, the beds, the laughter, the pressure of exams, and the anticipation of a call from family," he said. "No one expects a commercial aircraft to come crashing into that world," he added. "Those students started the day thinking about lectures, assignments, and patients. Their lives ended in a way none of us could ever imagine. It hit close. Too close," he said. Dr Shamsheer's relief package includes Rs 1 crore for each of the four deceased students' families, Rs 20 lakh each for five seriously injured students, and Rs 20 lakh each for the families of doctors who lost loved ones.

PARAMEDIC RECALLS GUIDING LONE SURVIVOR OF AIR INDIA CRASH TO AMBULANCE

'We saw man coming out of gate... didn't know he was a passenger'

BRENDAN DABHI
AHMEDABAD, JUNE 16

LIKE THE students in the BJ Medical College hostel, Satinder Singh Sandhu was having lunch with fellow paramedics at the local GVK-EMRI ambulance office inside the 1,200-bed hospital at Medicity in Ahmedabad on June 12 when he heard a massive explosion.

Running outside, he saw a man coming out of the hostel building's gate as a massive fire raged behind him. This man was 39-year-old Viswashkumar Ramesh, the lone survivor of the London-bound Air India flight that crashed into the hostel building soon after taking off from the Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport in Ahmedabad.

Sandhu took Ramesh's hand and guided him away from the site. A video of this has since been widely shared.

"I asked my team to deploy ambulances immediately while I rushed to the spot. When I got there, I realised this was a major incident. I called my head office and asked them to inform the police and send more ambulances. Meanwhile, five ambulances under my command reached the site," Sandhu said.

The 44-year-old has been with the GVK-EMRI emergency ambulance service for a decade, and is a supervisor of 20 of the 120 ambulances in the city.

"I first saw the watchman of the hostel injured on the road. We picked him up and dispatched him in one of the ambulances. Then, we saw one man coming out of the gate next to the burning hostel building. I approached him, but he suddenly turned around and began walking back to the crash site," Sandhu told The Indian Express, referring to Ramesh.

Sandhu said Ramesh initially resisted attempts to take him away from the site, repeatedly saying that his family member was burning in the fire.

"We thought it must be a family member inside the hostel building. We didn't know at that time that he was a passenger who had come out of the burning aircraft," said Sandhu, adding, "We finally managed to calm him down a little, seat him in one of the ambulances and send him to the hospital. He had injuries on his face, hands and legs. He had burn marks across his body, but he was able to walk with a slight limp."

It was en route to the hospital that Ramesh told paramedics he had been on the aircraft that had just crashed. He said he and his brother were going home to the UK and that he had been seated next to the emergency exit, in seat 11A. However, he did not know how he managed to exit the crashed aircraft.

Sandhu said Ramesh was in a state of shock and confusion after his ordeal. His mind was still fixed on a singular point — saving his younger brother, Ajay, from the burning plane.

Ajay was among the 241 people on board flight AI-171, and several others on the ground, to die in the crash. The Boeing 787 Dreamliner was carrying a total of 242 people.

Ramesh and his brother, who were originally from the Union Territory of Diu, were British nationals settled with their families in Leicester, England.

Sandhu said he and his fleet of ambulances were on the site of the crash by 1.41 pm, just three minutes after the crash that took place at 1.38 pm.

A firefighting team also arrived soon after and started the task of dousing the flames. It was when the heavy soot-laden smoke cleared that paramedics saw charred bodies of men, women and children strewn around. There were also bodies inside the medical college hostel compound.

Realty firms eye revenue upside, portfolio diversification from data centre boom

Realty firms eye revenue upside, portfolio diversification from data centre boom

PRACHI PISAL
Mumbai, 16 June

Data centres are increasingly becoming a key part of the real estate landscape, as reality firms — with rich expertise in land acquisition, construction and dealing with government approvals — are seeing them as opportunities to build long-term assets with continuous revenue flow.

Anant Raj, Lodha, L&T Realty, DLF, Panchshil Realty, Rustomjee, Hiranandani Group, Mindspace Reit and many more realty firms are seeing data centres as "future-proof assets" with long-term returns.

While some have been in the segment that is promising nearly 20 per cent returns on investment, more players are getting into this space as they diversify their portfolios amid a sharp upside in demand for data centres, stemming largely from global capacity centres and industry's quickened AI adoption.

"While our core strength lies in real estate development, we see data centres not only as a complementary extension of our capabilities but also as a transformative business opportunity aligned with the country's accelerating digital evolution," said Amit Sarin, managing director, Anant Raj.

Sarin's firm is targeting the development of 307 Mw of capacity across its three campuses, with an investment commitment of over ₹10,000 crore over the next four-five years.

The industry experts believe that the developers are leveraging their expertise in land acquisition, construction, dealing with government approvals, and maintaining tenant relationships.

"Real estate developers with experience in developing commercial buildings see a natural synergy for skills such as land acquisition, obtaining government permits, construction and development, and sourcing infrastructure such as fibre and power (including green power). Further, with their vast tenant relationships, they are able to tap into these networks to address such companies' data centres needs through diversification," said Devi Shankar, executive director, industrial, logistics & data centres, Anarock Capital.

Developers	Data centre services provider/Partner	Total investment amount
Adani Realty	EdgeConneX	$10 bn
Lodha Group	Amazon Web Services	$8.2 bn
Panchshil Realty	Blackstone	$2.4 bn

According to Colliers India, India's data centres capacity as of April 2025 is about 1,263 Mw with 15.9 million square feet (msf) of real estate engaged.

India's data centre capacity is set to cross 4,500 Mw by 2030, as $20-25 billion of future investments are likely to materialise, with a real estate footprint of 55 msf.

"With the rise of AI and cloud adoption, especially by global tech firms, data centres are becoming a key part of the real estate landscape," said Ramesh Nair, CEO and MD, Mindspace Reit— the only Indian Reit with a data centre portfolio.

"The post-Covid shift to hybrid work, alongside the boom in edtech, e-commerce, and digital banking, has fuelled a surge in data consumption and storage needs. In response, major domestic and international players are investing heavily in building both hyper-scale and edge data centres across the country," Shabala Shinde, partner and real estate industry leader, Grant Thornton Bharat, said.

The developers view DCs as assets that can give stable and long-term returns amid increasing usage of data, better 5G penetration, and data storage requirements.

Mumbai-based developer Niranjan Hiranandani, managing director, Hiranandani Group, said, "The rationale behind this move is multifaceted: we view data centres as future-proof assets offering stable, long-term returns, supported by the exponential rise in data consumption, accelerated adoption of cloud services, and deepening digital penetration."

Hiranandani noted that while it is a capex-heavy business, the returns are both feasible and favourable.

India's deadliest plane crash in more than decade is set to send shock waves through the aviation insurance industry and trigger one of the country's costliest claims, estimated at around $475 million.

"This aviation insurance claim could be one of the biggest in India's history," said Ramaswamy Narayanan, chairman and managing director at General Insurance Corporation of India, one of the firms that has provided coverage for Air India.

The claim for the aircraft hull and engine is estimated at around $125 million, according to Narayanan. He estimates additional liability claims for loss of life for passengers and others will be around $350 million. The sum is more than triple the annual premium for the aviation industry in India in 2023, according to GlobalData.

The financial repercussions of the crash that killed 241 people on board and others as it fell in a densely populated part of Ahmedabad in western India on Thursday will ripple through the global aviation insurance and reinsurance market.

It's also likely to make insurance costlier for airlines in India.

Insurance premiums across the aviation industry are expected to rise in India, either now or at the time of policy renewals, according to people familiar with the matter.

On the Air India insurance payout, totals could climb, since there were foreign nationals killed in the accident, and those claims will be calculated according to the rules in their respective jurisdictions, the people said, who asked not to be identified discussing private matters.

AI-171 crash: A wake-up call for urban planning around airports

AI-171 crash: A wake-up call for urban planning around airports

The Air India AI-171 crash near Ahmedabad airport has left behind more than just wreckage. It has left families devastated, careers cut short, and a city in grief. Amid all that's being said about aircraft performance, weather, and pilot decisions, a quieter but harsher truth is coming to light — this tragedy on the ground (at the medical college hostel) could have been avoided if proper building norms and smarter urban planning around airports had been followed.Past disasters have already shown how densely populated areas near runways can turn aviation accidents into large-scale tragedies. In 2020, Pakistan International Airlines Flight 8303 crashed into Karachi's Model Colony, a crowded residential area just short of the runway, killing 97 people. In 2012, Dana Air Flight 992 fell into a suburb of Lagos, wiping out entire families.

Even in New York, American Airlines Flight 587 crashed over the Belle Harbor neighbourhood in Queens. The tragic crash of Air India flight AI-171, along with the examples above, brings into sharp focus the urgent need for better urban planning - especially within the 5-kilometre radius of major airports. The 5 km radius around airports has long been considered a sensitive zone — not necessarily because buildings within it are illegal or too tall, but because it is a critical safety zone for aircraft during take-off and landing, the most vulnerable phases of flight. Traditionally in India, during British rule, airports (unlike railway stations) were built far away from populated areas. For example, when Delhi's Safdarjung Airport and Palam Airport were built, there were very few settlements nearby — only a few army barracks around Safdarjung (now known as Lodhi Colony) and the old, sparsely populated villages of Mehram Nagar and Palam around Palam Airport. In those days, air crashes were more frequent, and placing airports away from populated areas was a deliberate step to avoid ground casualties. Even today, airports in tier-II towns are located at a fair distance from cities, although the growing urban sprawl is now fast approaching them as well. After independence, as India witnessed a massive surge in population and rapid urbanisation, cities began expanding in all directions. The airports that were once located far from residential and commercial zones gradually found themselves surrounded by growing urban settlements. With the rise in land demand, areas around airports have become highly sought after due to their excellent connectivity and strategic location, significantly pushing up real estate values. This led to high-density development near airport boundaries.

AJAY S JASRA

However, this unchecked growth brought with it serious concerns like constructing buildings near active flight paths not just from a flight safety perspective, but also from a security point of view. As a result, managing construction and land use near airports became a critical issue, demanding a careful balance between urban development and the uncompromising need for aviation safety and security.Globally, aviation authorities, including India's DGCA and AAI, have issued detailed zoning maps for every major airport. There is a formal process to apply for height clearance of any structure. All international airports in India follow Obstacle Limitation Surfaces (OLS) — a set of 3D safety rules that make sure aircraft have enough space to climb and descend without danger. These OLS regulations, overseen by the Airports Authority of India (AAI) and DGCA, are not optional. They are strict safety norms. Structures within 5 km of a runway face the toughest height limits.

The hostel where the recent crash caused casualties was most likely within the permitted height as per AAI rules. But what often escapes attention is not just height, but the density of the human population in such areas. Even if buildings technically follow all safety norms, the presence of thousands of people living or working near a runway increases the risk in case of crashes, aborted landings, or engine failure during low-altitude flights. This is what makes the crash of AI-171 even more tragic. This raises a critical and timely question: Is it time to completely rethink how we plan our cities around airports — or even relocate airports themselves? Hyderabad has already done it. The old Begumpet Airport was relocated to Shamshabad, about 24 km south of the city centre, to allow for future expansion and improved safety. With urban sprawl rapidly swallowing earlier remote zones, many airports in cities like Ahmedabad, Mumbai, and Chennai now find themselves trapped amid dense residential, institutional, and commercial structures.

The AI-171 crash should serve as a wake-up call. Not necessarily because rules were violated, but because the current model of reactive urban planning — where development chases growth without long-term thinking — is failing to safeguard lives. If airports are to expand safely along with cities, we may need to reimagine their place on the map.

That means moving older airports beyond city boundaries where possible, enforcing no-build or low-density zones around newer ones, and treating the 5 km airport radius not just as a regulatory guideline, but as a life-saving buffer zone.Urban planning must take into account not just real estate needs, but safety and long-term sustainability. The tragedy of AI-171 is not just a story of an aircraft gone wrong - it's also a story of a city that grew too close to danger.

BJMC anniversary shrouded in grief

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Ahmedabad

A year ago, the mood was celebratory as the BJ Medical College and Hospital marked its foundation day. On Monday, the scene spelt devastation and despair - families awaiting identification of their kin killed when an Air India plane crashed into the complex, medics who lost their colleagues soldiering on stoically and everywhere the ruins of what once was.

This foundation day, its 146th, will forever stand out for its stark sorrow. The BJMC, one of the oldest medical colleges in India, has been the epicentre of action following the June 12 crash, which killed 241 people on board and 29 on the ground, including five MBBS students.

While families, their faces grim with grief and anxiety, waited for DNA identification so they could claim the bodies of their loved ones, the environs reflected their state of mind.

Thick layers of soot are still deposited on its buildings, damaged as a result of the crash. On June 16 last year, many of its students and alumni had taken to social media to wish their college and alma mater a "happy birthday", but grief and chaotic scenes are what is evident on the campus right now, as survivors and family members struggle to come to terms with the crash.

The London-bound flight AI171 — Boeing Dreamliner 787-8 — crashed moments after taking off from the Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport on Thursday afternoon, and fell onto the campus of the medical college in the Meghaninagar area, before going up in flames.

A total of 99 victims have so far been identified through DNA matching, and 64 bodies, including that of former Gujarat chief minister Vijay Rupani who was on board the ill-fated aircraft, have been handed over to their families, officials said on Monday.

Many medical students and resident doctors had just sat for their meal at the hostel mess when the tail-side portion of the aircraft rammed into it, turning an ordinary lunch hour into a horrific nightmare.

The images of the detached tail portion of the aircraft precariously lodged near the roof of the hostel mess building, pieces of the fuselage scattered on the ground and inside buildings, and piles of charred bodies still haunt many who have been affected by the tragedy.

A day after the crash, Arun Prashant, a Chennai native and second-year MD student at the Byramjee Jeejeebhoy Medical College (BJMC), recalled the horror and how he jumped from the first floor of a hostel building to escape.

"I came to have lunch around 1:30 pm. While having lunch, I heard a loud explosion, and suddenly there was smoke everywhere. I ran downstairs and then jumped from the first floor of the building," Prashant told reporters. "We were around 20-30 people at Atulyam (hostel)... We got to know it was a plane crash only after coming out of the building," he recalled.

Beginning its journey in 1871 as the Ahmedabad Medical School, the institute has been a cornerstone of medical education since its inception.

Initially affiliated to the Ahmedabad Civil Hospital, it began with just 14 students training as hospital assistants.

In 1879, a generous donation of ₹20,000 by Sir Byramjee Jeejeebhoy led to the school being renamed BJ Medical School, according to the institute's official website.

DNA tests identify 125 victims, 83 bodies handed over to kin: Gujarat minister

ENS & PTI
AHMEDABAD, JUNE 16

FOUR DAYS after the horrific crash of an Air India plane that claimed the lives of 241 passengers and killed multiple people on the ground, 125 victims have so far been identified through DNA matching and 83 bodies were handed over to their families, according to a post by Gujarat Health Minister Rushikesh Patel on X Monday late evening.

An official expressed hope that the DNA profiling all the victims will be completed by either Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning.

Former Gujarat chief minister Vijay Rupani was among the 242 passengers and crew members on board the London-bound Air India flight AI-171 that crashed in Ahmedabad on June 12. His mortal remains were handed over to his wife Anjali Rupani and other family members at the city civil hospital.

Authorities are carrying out DNA tests to establish the identity of the victims as many bodies were charred beyond recognition.

Speaking to the media, Medical Superintendent of Ahmedabad Civil Hospital Dr Rakesh Joshi expressed hope that the DNA profiling of all the victims will be completed by either Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning.

He urged the grief-stricken kin of the victims to not panic over the time-consuming process of matching DNA samples with mortal remains.

"We are trying our best to finish this process as soon as possible. Some are complaining that the results have not come even after 72 hours. I appeal to them not to panic because this is a very important process with legal implications. We will call them as soon as results arrive," Joshi said.

Earlier, Dr Rajnish Patel, Professor of Surgery at BJ Medical College, told mediapersons on Monday that 13 families were present at the hospital to collect the remains.

"Twelve families have opted to collect the bodies together after DNA confirmation for all their deceased members. Discussions have been completed with 11 other families, who are on their way to collect the remains," he said.

Ahmedabad Civil Hospital authorities had said on Sunday that samples of 250 victims, including persons on board the ill-fated flight as well as those killed on the ground, had been collected for identification.

The Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner with 242 persons on board crashed into a medical college complex in Ahmedabad moments after taking off from the Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport at 1.39 pm on June 12.

While 241 persons on board the London-bound aircraft died, one passenger miraculously survived.

The crash also killed multiple people on the ground, including five MBBS students.

Three India-bound 787s return mid-air

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■
New Delhi/Mumbai/Hyderabad

In a concerning turn of events, three Boeing 787 Dreamliner aircraft bound for India were forced to return mid-air within a span of just 36 hours due to a bomb threat and technical snags, raising fresh safety concerns among air passengers and authorities. The incidents involved flights heading to Delhi, Chennai, and Hyderabad, operated by Air India, British Airways, and Lufthansa respectively. These incidents comes days after an Air India Boeing 787 Dreamliner aircraft bound for London crashed in Ahmedabad, shortly after takeoff, killing 241 of the 242 passengers on board.

A Delhi-bound Air India Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner from Hong Kong returned to its airport of origin on Monday within an hour of takeoff after the pilot in command suspected a technical issue. The pilots of the Delhi-bound Air India flight, which returned to Hong Kong after nearly 90 minutes of take-off, didn't want to continue their journey after a suspected technical glitch was detected in the aircraft. The pilot could be heard telling Air Traffic Control, "We don't want to continue further." An audio of the pilot's conversation with the Air Traffic Control has emerged where they are heard saying that they don't want to continue and return to the airport.

The aircraft involved in the incident was also a Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner, the same aircraft model which crashed shortly after taking-off from Ahmedabad airport on Thursday, June 12, killing 241 out of 242 on board.

Pilots of the Air India flight, which returned to Hong Kong didn't want to continue their journey after a suspected technical glitch was detected

The flight, AI 315, landed safely in Hong Kong and all passengers have disembarked from the plane, the airline said in a statement, adding that the aircraft is undergoing inspection.

To collate final toll, police turn to all missing cases filed in city on June 12

To collate final toll, police turn to all missing cases filed in city on June 12

MOHAMED THAVER
AHMEDABAD, JUNE 16

POLICE HAVE collated all the missing persons complaints registered at stations across Ahmedabad on June 12 as they attempt to put together a final tally of people on the ground who died in the Air India crash.

While the death toll of people on the plane is known to be 241, nine DNA samples have been collected so far from the crash site and around it.

Police, however, believe there may have been more people around the BJ Medical College hostel in Meghaninagar — like those at a nearby tea stall — who may have been killed.

A senior police officer told The Indian Express that CCTV cameras that could potentially have helped them locate such people were destroyed in the crash. "While students at the hostel have been accounted for, we fear some who were passing by the hostel, or having tea at a tea stall nearby may have been a victim of the crash," the officer said, requesting anonymity.

Looking for leads, police turned to missing persons cases.

"If anyone who went missing on June 12 has not reached home, we will probe the complaint closely to rule out unrelated cases. In this manner we are hoping to zero in on missing cases linked to the crash following which we may take DNA samples from family members to match with those found from the site," the officer said

On why the scope has been widened to the entire city and not nearby police stations such as Meghaninagar and Naroda, the officer said that they may have come to the area without the knowledge of family members. "We want to rule out all possibilities," the officer said.

Among those missing are Sarlaben Thakor, a cook at the hostel mess, her granddaughter Adyaravi, music video director Mahesh Kalawadia and IT student Arshdeep Banga.

Missing persons complaints of Thakor, Adyaravi and Banga were registered with the Meghaninagar police station; Kalawadia's was registered with the Naroda police station.

DNA samples of the family members of the missing persons have been sent for checking with the DNA samples extracted from the remains found at the hostel.

Sarlaben's son, Ravi Thakor, has been trying to locate his mother and daughter. Along with his mother, he and his wife cooked meals at the mess.

Kalawadia's younger brother Kartik and his wife Hetal have been doing the rounds of hospitals but have so far not been able to trace him. Mahesh spoke to his wife at around 1.10 pm on June 12 and headed to his residence on his scooter. At around 1.40 pm, however, his phone switched off around the crash area. Even his two-wheeler has not been found.

Banga was passing by the mess on his bike around the time of the crash.

Shrugging off geopolitical concerns amid escalating tensions between Israel and Iran, stock markets rebounded by nearly 1 per cent on Monday following value buying in oil & gas and IT shares and gains in other Asian markets as Brent crude oil prices dropped.

The 30-share BSE Sensex jumped 677.55 points or 0.84 per cent to settle at 81,796.15 with 27 of its constituents ending in the green and three with losses. During the day, it surged 747.22 points or 0.92 per cent to 81,865.82. The 50-share NSE Nifty climbed 227.90 points or 0.92 per cent to 24,946.50.

Among Sensex firms, UltraTech Cement rose the most by 2.39 per cent. Tech Mahindra, HCL Tech, Tata Consultancy Services, Eternal, Asian Paints, Tata Steel and Kotak Mahindra Bank were among the gainers. Tata Motors, Adani Ports and Sun Pharma were the laggards.

"Despite ongoing geopolitical tensions between Israel and Iran, the market moved higher, supported by gains in large-cap stocks, as investors maintained their focus on long-term fundamentals in the time of volatile situations. Geopolitical developments in the Middle East are likely to influence near-term market sentiment, with any signs of de-escalation being closely monitored," Vinod Nair, Head of Research, Geojit Investments Limited, said.

"Among sectors, oil and gas recorded strong gains, while the IT sector outperformed in anticipation of the upcoming US Fed policy meeting, which is expected to provide further clarity on the interest rate outlook," Nair added. The BSE midcap gauge jumped 0.93 per cent and smallcap index climbed 0.38 per cent.

All BSE sectoral indices ended higher. IT jumped 1.50 per cent, followed by BSE Focused IT (1.50 per cent), teck (1.35 per cent), oil and gas (1.22 per cent), realty (1.21 per cent), services (1.10 per cent) and consumer durables (1.05 per cent).

In Asian markets, South Korea's Kospi, Japan's Nikkei 225 index, Shanghai's SSE Composite index and Hong Kong's Hang Seng settled in the positive territory. European markets were quoting in the green. US markets ended lower on Friday. Global oil benchmark Brent crude declined 0.81 per cent to $73.63 a barrel. Wholesale price inflation (WPI) declined to a 14-month low of 0.39 per cent in May on easing prices of food articles and fuel.

"Despite mounting global uncertainty triggered by escalating tensions in the Middle East, Indian markets remained resilient," Sundar Kewat, Technical and Derivatives Analyst, Ashika Institutional Equity — Ashika Stock Broking part of Ashika Group, said.

Air India's Black Thursday: Many questions to answer

Abhijit Bhattacharyya

Let's face the harsh reality. Mega American aviation companies are showing a serious degree of stress and strain over quality control.

The weather was clear at Ahmedabad's Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport on Thursday, June 12, as an 11-year-old Air India Boeing 787-800 (VT-ANB), with 242 people on board, was airborne after a 45-second take-off run from the 3,505-metre Runway 23/5. The temperature was 40.8 degrees Celsius, with normal breeze, humidity and visibility for an airworthy jet to cover the Ahmedabad-London distance. But just after being airborne for less than a minute, the big Boeing Dreamliner failed to climb and generate the required engine thrust and speed to reach cruising height. Instead, it crashed and all on board, except one passenger, died.

The country's aviation authorities, understandably, will thoroughly investigate the crash and offer suggestions to improve the system for future. Nevertheless, experienced air travellers will be fully justified in asking key questions and make their own independent assessment.

Any crash of this magnitude, avoidable or unavoidable, is a gross flight safety failure of/by the airline, in this case Air India, which is no longer a government corporation. It was a black day for the House of Tatas, which once had icons like pioneer aviator J.R.D. Tata and Ratan Tata.

However, in case the investigation finds any kind of man-made mischief causing this mayhem, then the responsibility will fairly and squarely fall on the state security system.

But, till now, we must regard it as a flight safety failure as even a layman will ask the first, fundamental question: Why did the aircraft, despite leaving the runway, fail to climb with full engine thrust and speed? Some are saying "bird hit". Isn't it highly unlikely? The circulating video on the Internet, by now surely seen by millions worldwide, clearly shows that Air India Flight 171 Boeing-787-800 had "stalled", which in aviation terms means "gross change in fluid flow around aerofoil... resulting in large reduction in lift". That is both surprising and shocking as the pilot-in-command had all the professional experience of thousands of flying hours and both General Electric-built engines, each generating above 66,000-pound static thrust, are time-tested technology. Plainly, however, the engine makers' reputation didn't help anyone on Black Thursday on June 12, 2025.

A disturbing feature of the ill-fated flight was: why was it flying so low, as if it was on the "approach" mode of descent, rather than ascent, and suddenly pulled up with its nose wheels showing a wider "angle-of-attack"? One felt, seeing the video, that the AI-171 pilot was desperately trying to lift his aircraft for "TOGA" (take-off and go around) exercise, when an approaching aircraft misses its landing spot by "over-shot" and ATC (air traffic control) tells the captain to go around and come back for landing.

Another bizarre scenario was that the AI-171 aircraft undercarriage wasn't retracted the moment it lifted off the ground. That is quite extraordinary, as the protruding undercarriage will only reduce the power-to-weight ratio, thereby increasing both overall drag and put pressure on power plants already burdened with the lift of the 227-ton weight of the aircraft. What happened? Did the plane's undercarriage hydraulic system malfunction the way it had happened on an Air India domestic Amritsar-Delhi flight in October 2015 when reportedly a brand-new Boeing 787-800 flew the full 400-km distance with its undercarriage jutting out of the belly of the fuselage?

There are myriad questions which cross one's mind due to several thousand hours of cockpit flying from take-off to touch down years ago, when pilots loved to invite familiar and interested passengers for full-flight duration in the flight crew cabin.

Contextually, another Air India Boeing-747-200 (VT-EBD) crash of January 1, 1978 comes to mind when AI Flight 855 took off from Mumbai's Santa Cruz airport in "calm and clear weather", only to plunge 20 seconds later into the Arabian Sea, just 3.2 km from the shore, hitting the water while descending at an "angle of attack of 35 to 40 degrees and exploding on impact". The inquiry report found that the disaster resulted from "irrational control wheel inputs" on the part of the captain "after his attitude direction indicator (ADI) malfunctioned".

One regrets to state that this author didn't have full satisfaction on a Boeing 787-800 "green aircraft" (which means flyable but still lacking interior furnishing and customer avionics) on July 14, 2011 as "cockpit passenger" for 52 minutes from Delhi and back (via the Jaipur sky) on a technical demonstration flight. This was recounted in three newspaper articles — "Romance of the maiden flight" (21 July 2011); "Failed romance of the maiden flight" (22 January 2013) and "A tale of two flights" (14 November 2013). Concern was raised "when the Boeing 787-800 was grounded for several months in early 2013" and in July 2013 when Boeing changed its 787 aircraft chief project engineer Mike Sinnett as the composite-plastic jet continued to face glitches almost two years after it first entered service.

Let's face the harsh reality. Mega American aviation companies are showing a serious degree of stress and strain over quality control. It is true that aviation tech development is no child's play, yet Boeing's vertical decline is too conspicuous to be ignored. Gone are days of its quality, credibility and consumer satisfaction. It will be fairly impossible, in the near future, for the United States to retrieve the situation. The unbridled greed of mega US corporations to capture the Chinese, and now the Indian market, is bound to boomerang. Fifty years back the US was the dominant manufacturer, and the emerging market was Asia. The roles have almost been reversed.

One has to just peruse the annual publications of Jane's All the World's Aircraft from the early 21st century to see the plight of the Boeing 787-800. Launched April 26, 2004, the first B787-800 was delivered to All Nippon September 25, 2011. In 2007 itself, Boeing's "air-worthiness (was) delayed by flight control software". "On April 2, 2009 Boeing abandoned plans to assign the first six aircraft to airlines". Boeing has been constantly plagued by delays due to its endless tech glitches. The seventh rescheduling of its test fleet grounding was due to an in-flight fire in November 2010, and a ground fire at London's Heathrow airport on July 12, 2013.

Without doubt, the Boeing 787-800 remains a chronic snag-prone aircraft. Jane's 2012-2013 revealed the truth, stating that "up to 65 per cent of the airframe (was) built by external suppliers". Japan's Kawasaki and China's Chengdu Aviation supplied the rudder. The Boeing 787-800's quality control constitutes a real challenge. One only hopes the inquiry into the Ahmedabad air disaster exposes the reality behind the shattered "American Dream" of those killed on AI Flight 171 on Black Thursday.

NEW DELHI/AHMEDABAD, JUNE 16

Investigators have found the Cockpit Voice Recorder (CVR) from the Air India Flight AI 171 crash site in Ahmedabad. The CVR, also termed as a second black box, records cockpit sounds, including the conversation and reactions of the pilots during moments of crisis, radio communications, warning alarm sounds, etc. The CVR has been sent for decoding and is expected to provide a better understanding of what happened on June 12 leading to the plane crash moments after take-off.

While the investigating agencies are probing all aspects, including the sabotage and terror angles, there is also a growing perception among aviation experts that the failure of the twin engines at the same time led to the crash. However, the role of systems like Ram Air Turbine (RAT) deployment, APU, and flap/gear configuration is also under investigation as the authorities examine the black boxes to determine the cause.

The only survivor of the crash and a pilot on the ground from a different plane reported hearing a loud boom during the AI 171 take-off, prompting some experts to suspect a possible engine failure, though several say aircraft are designed to take off safely even with an engine failure.

Amid the trauma of losing their loved ones, the family members of the crash victims are getting restless to collect the mortal remains of their kin. With most of the bodies charred beyond recognition, the government is using DNA profiling to match the bodies with that of their kin. It usually takes 72 hours for DNA matching. Till Monday evening, the Ahmedabad civil hospital authorities said 119 victims have been identified through DNA testing and 76 bodies handed over to the victims. Out of the remaining 43, the mortal remains of 14 deceased will be handed over by Tuesday.

The mortal remains of former Gujarat chief minister Vijay Rupani, who died in the plane crash, were handed over to his family members. As Mr Rupani's body was charred beyond recognition, his mortal remains were identified on Sunday after matching the DNA samples with that of his relatives. His wife, Anjali Rupani, and other family members were present at the city civil hospital on Monday when the mortal remains were handed over to them. Gujarat chief minister Bhupendra Patel and other ministers were also present. His last rites were held in his hometown Rajkot after a funeral procession and with full state honours. Union home minister Amit Shah and jal shakti minister C.R. Paatil visited Vijay Rupani's home to pay homage.

Terming the Ahmedabad accident the most "heartbreaking" crisis of his career, Tata Sons and Air India chairman N. Chandrasekaran urged Air India employees to stay on course. Addressing close to 700 employees and the leadership team across the India headquarters and Air India Training Academy in Gurgaon, Mr Chandrasekaran said the employees need to show resilience and use this incident as an act of force to build a "safer airline".

"We have to make sure that we stay the course. Be more determined in everything we do. We need to wait for the investigation to find out," Mr Chandrasekaran was quoted as saying. "I've seen a reasonable number of crises in my career, but this is the most heartbreaking one which I never thought I would see," Mr Chandrasekaran told the gathering.

Meanwhile, the Congress Party on Monday accused the Narendra Modi government of being negligent in not giving priority to aviation sector safety and said that while it awaits the investigation report on the Ahmedabad plane crash, the Centre must clarify on the "lack of action" despite a parliamentary committee report flagging concerns.

"The Modi government's negligence in not giving priority to safety in the aviation sector is worrying. It is evident from media reports that there is a huge shortage of officers and personnel in the Directorate-General of Civil Aviation (DGCA), Bureau of Civil Aviation Security (BCAS) and the Airports Authority of India (AAI)," AICC general secretary (communications) Jairam Ramesh said in a post on X in Hindi. "53% posts are vacant in DGCA; 35% posts vacant in BCAS; 17% posts vacant in AAI," said Mr Ramesh.

"Was it a maintenance failure?" CPI's D. Raja asked. "What happened in Ahmedabad was a tragic accident -- a very tragic incident involving Air India. The Dreamliner and Air India as a whole are considered the pride of the nation. How could such an accident happen? Was there a failure in aircraft maintenance, airport or runway management? The government has ordered a high-level inquiry, and that inquiry must carry out an objective investigation to find the cause -- whether it was a technical issue or a ground maintenance failure," he said.

Delhi-bound AI Dreamliner returns to HK due to snag

Smoke detected from wheels of Saudi flight landed at Lucknow airport

AGE CORRESPONDENT with agency inputs
NEW DELHI, JUNE 16

Five days after a London-bound Air India flight crashed in Ahmedabad, a Delhi-bound Air India Dreamliner Boeing 787-8 AI 315 from Hong Kong returned to its airport of origin on Monday after the pilot in command suspected a technical issue shortly after takeoff.

The pilots turned back after nearly 90 minutes of take-off saying they did not want to continue their journey after a suspected technical glitch was detected in the seven-year-old Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner, an audio of the pilot's conversation with the Air Traffic Control (ATC) revealed. The flight had departed after a delay of almost 3.5 hours.

AI 315, landed safely in Hong Kong and all passengers disembarked from the plane, Air India said in a statement, adding that the aircraft is undergoing inspection. The flight had departed from Hong Kong at 12.16 pm (local time) and was scheduled to land in Delhi at 12.20 pm IST.

"AI315 operating from Hong Kong to Delhi on 16 June 2025 returned to Hong Kong shortly after takeoff due to a technical issue. The flight landed safely at Hong Kong and is undergoing checks as a matter of abundant precaution. Alternative arrangements have been planned to fly the passengers to their destination Delhi at the earliest," Air India said adding, it was providing all necessary on-ground assistance to the passengers to minimise the inconvenience caused by this unforeseen disruption.

On Sunday, a Saudia Flight SV 3112 (Airbus A330-300) suffered a malfunction after smoke was detected from the wheels of the aircraft that landed in Lucknow airport, from Jeddah.

'Fatalities in large number delaying process'

Endless wait for victims' kin to get mortal remains

Ahmedabad, June 16: Amid the trauma of losing their loved ones, families of several Air India plane crash victims continue to camp here as they have been waiting for four days in the hope of getting the mortal remains of their kin.

They were among the first ones to submit their samples for DNA tests on June 12, the day of the horrific incident, so that they could be matched with the deceased. They were asked to wait for 72 hours, but the deadline got over on Sunday and the wait seems endless.

Health authorities here have asked the distraught family members not to panic, while experts said the DNA samples matching could take time, given the large number of fatalities in the crash.

While 241 persons on board the London-bound aircraft died after the crash, one passenger miraculously survived. Besides, 29 persons, including five MBBS students, are also reportedly died in the disaster on the ground.

"We visited the DNA collection centre yesterday, but were told that our samples had yet to be matched," Pooja Sukhadare, a relative of crew member Roshni Songhare, said on Monday.

Ms Sukhadare has been here since the day of the tragedy with the father and brother of Songhare, whose family resides at Dombivli in Maharashtra's Thane district.

Similar is the case for crew member Maithili Patil's relatives, who are residents of Nhava in Navi Mumbai, and who arrived here on June 12 after the crash.

Relatives of 32-year-old Anil Khimani, who did masonry and carpentry work in Gujarat's Kutch and was on board the ill-fated flight, have also been camping in Ahmedabad following the incident.

Since the plane crashed on June 12, his father is here, said Mansukh, who identified himself as a relative of Khimani. His father gave his sample for DNA matching on June 12. "An ambulance, assigned by the government to take back the body, has also arrived from Kutch, but we are yet to get Anil's mortal remains," Mr Mansukh said.

Even the family of Akash Patni (15) is waiting for his body. He was resting on a charpoy next to the tea stall run by his mother in the residential complex premises of the B J Medical College where the aircraft crashed.

The impact of the crash and subsequent fire was such that Patni got no time to escape and was charred.

"We got a call from the hospital yesterday that the DNA samples have matched, but we are yet to get the body," Akash's aunt Madhuben Patni said. — PTI

Ahmedabad, June 16: The family of a filmmaker has given DNA samples after he went missing following the Air India plane crash here last week and his mobile phone location was last traced to just 700 metres away from the accident site.

Naroda-resident Mahesh Kalawadia, also known as Mahesh Jirawala, directs music albums and went to meet someone in Law Garden area that afternoon, his wife Hetal said.

"My husband called me at 1.14 pm to tell me his meeting is over and that he is on his way home. However, when he did not return, I called up on his phone but it was switched off."

After police was intimated, the last location of his mobile phone showed he was 700 metres away from the crash site," Ms Hetal added. — PTI

Procedures to stop such accidents in future key focus

NEW DELHI, JUNE 16

A high-level multi-disciplinary committee led by the Union home secretary on Monday deliberated on various possible theories that could have led to the country's worst air disaster in decades.

The panel, chaired by Union home secretary Govind Mohan, listened to the opinions of various stakeholders about the possible causes of the air crash and deliberated on steps to be taken to check future occurrence of any such accident, sources said.

In the first meeting of the panel here, the focus of the participants was to analyse the possible causes of the air crash, and on how to go about in formulating "standard operating procedures" for preventing such occurrences in the future," the sources further said.

REPRESENTATIVES FROM the ministry of civil aviation, home ministry, IAF, Intelligence Bureau, Gujarat government, Directorate General of Civil Aviation, and Bureau of Civil Aviation Security attended meeting

Since a separate investigation is also being carried out by the Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB) under the civil aviation ministry, the panel discussed about the possible causes and lesson to be taken from it, the sources said.

The AAIB under the civil aviation ministry, is looking into the technical aspects of the plane crash along with other agencies into Ahmadabad plane crash .

Civil aviation minister K. Rammohan Naidu on Saturday said while the AAIB investigation will handle the technical aspects, the high-level committee will provide a holistic, policy-oriented roadmap for future safeguards.

Those who attended the meeting on Monday include representatives from the ministry of civil aviation, home ministry, Indian Air Force, Intelligence Bureau, Gujarat government, Directorate General of Civil Aviation, and Bureau of Civil Aviation Security, among others.

The committee is expected to submit its report within three months.

The black box of Air India's Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner plane that crashed on Thursday in Ahmedabad was recovered from the site on Friday evening.

This is time to be brave: Chandra to A-I staffers

DEV CHATTERJEE
Mumbai, 16 June

N Chandrasekaran (pictured), chairman of Air India (A-I) and Tata Sons, on Monday offered a message of solidarity and resolve in the wake of last week's fatal crash in Ahmedabad while addressing 700-odd employees at the airline's headquarters in Gurugram.

"I felt I had to be here and meet as many of you as possible," Chandrasekaran told the assembled staff, many of whom were part of the emergency response teams activated following the tragedy. Chandra also visited the Emergency Command Centre, the Integrated Operations Control Centre, and the Customer Service and Support to show his support for A-I.

Recalling his visit to the crash site near Ahmedabad airport, Chandra said: "It was not easy at all. I've seen a fair share of crises in my career, but nothing as heartbreaking as this. I never imagined I would face something like this."

He also acknowledged that no words or actions could bring back the 241 lives lost in the crash, but stressed the company's commitment to standing by the families affected. "We consider everyone who lost someone in this tragedy as part of our family — now and forever," he added.

Addressing the emotional toll on employees, the chairman said: "Criticism is inevitable, especially for those who care deeply and work tirelessly to build a great airline. But I want you to be strong. When you feel distraught, remember one word: determination."

"We are going to get through this. We need to show resilience. We need to use this incident as an act of force to build a safer airline," Chandra said and urged employees to use the tragedy as a catalyst to build a stronger company.

Chandrasekaran emphasised the complexity of aviation operations, saying: "It's a business with multiple redundancies, checks, certifications — systems that have evolved over decades. Yet incidents like this happen. We have to wait for the investigation to understand why."

He concluded with a call for calm and collective strength: "This is the time to be brave. To be resolute. Our job is to get A-I to where it truly belongs — the place this country and every passenger who puts their trust in us deserves."

'Crash catalyst to build safer airline'

Air India's chairman N. Chandrasekaran on Monday told staff that last week's plane crash that killed at least 271 people should be a catalyst to build a safer airline, urging employees to stay resolute amid any criticism. In a town hall held at the headquarters of the Tata Group-owned airline near New Delhi and attended by 700 staff, Chandrasekaran said the crash was the "most heartbreaking" crisis of his career, a spokesperson told Reuters.

"I've seen a reasonable number of crises in my career, but this is the most heartbreaking one," he said, as per a Tata Group spokesperson.

"We need to use this incident as an act of force to build a safer airline," Chandrasekaran said.

Adani scam probe hampered by lack of information from tax haven countries: Cong.

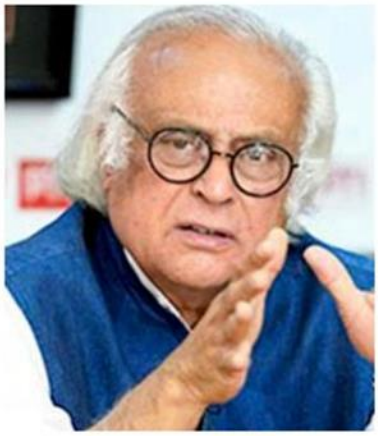
The Hindu Bureau
NEW DELHI

The Congress on Monday said that a key figure in the alleged Adani scam had Cypriot citizenship, but ongoing investigations by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) into transactions involving the Adani Group had been impacted by insufficiency in sharing of financial information by tax haven countries, and the "lack of pressure" from India.

The charge came amid Prime Minister Narendra Modi's visit to Cyprus.

"The Prime Minister is in Cyprus on his way to Canada. Of course, he would have us believe that it is a pure coincidence that a key figure in the Modani scam has Cypriot citizenship. The Cyprus-based fund New Leaina has reportedly about $420 million in Adani companies,"



Jairam Ramesh

Congress's communications chief Jairam Ramesh said in a post on social media platform X.

The "ultimate beneficial owners of this fund are linked to Amicorp, which is believed to have set up at least seven Adani promoter entities, seventeen offshore shell companies linked to Mr. Vinod Adani, and three Mauritius-based offshore investors in Adani Group stock," Mr. Ramesh said.

"All these transactions are part of the ongoing SEBI investigations which have been hampered by lack of sharing of financial information by these and other tax-haven countries and lack of pressure by India," Mr. Ramesh alleged.

There was no reaction to the latest salvo from the Congress from either the Union government or the Adani Group.

Mr. Ramesh also explained how India, under Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru in the 1950s, had rooted for Cyprus to become independent from British rule, and the island had become free on August 16, 1960.

"In the context of today's geopolitics, it is worthwhile to recall that India's championing of the independence of Cyprus in the 1950s and thereafter became a sore point in our bilateral relations with Turkiye," he said.

Tata Sons chairman exhorts employees to stay the course, build a safer airline

Chandra: AI crash my career's most heartbreaking

NITIN KUMAR
New Delhi, June 16

ADDRESSING THE EMPLOYEES of Air India following the tragic crash of a Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner in Ahmedabad last week, Tata Sons and Air India chairman N Chandrasekaran made an emotional appeal for resilience, urging the airline's staff to "stay the course" and commit to building a safer and stronger airline.

Speaking to nearly 700 employees and leadership team members at the Air India headquarters and training academy in Gurugram on Monday, Chandrasekaran acknowledged the deep pain caused by the June 12 crash that claimed over 270 lives. "I have seen a reasonable number of crises in my career, but this is the most heartbreaking one which I never thought I would see," he said, recalling his visit to the crash site and the difficult moments shared with the emergency response team.

The Air India Dreamliner took off at 1:39 pm on Thursday and within a few seconds, after reaching a height of about 650 feet, it started sinking. At 1:39 pm, the pilot gave Ahmedabad ATC a MayDay call, a code word used for emergency.

When the ATC tried to contact the aircraft, it did not receive any response. Exactly one minute later, the plane crashed in Meghaninagar, about 2 km from the airport.

Air Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB), which comes under the civil aviation ministry, is probing the accident.

Amid the shock and grief, Chandrasekaran's message to the Air India community was clear, that determination must guide the path forward. "Whatever I say and whatever we do is not going to bring the lives back. Those affected, they are going to feel the pain for a very long time. But having said that, we have got to do our very best humanly possible to help each of them," he told the employees.

He said that the airline's future depends on collective resilience and a re-dedication to safety. "We need to show resilience. We need to use this incident as an act of force to build a safer airline. So we have to make sure that we stay the course. Be more determined in everything we do. We need to wait for the investigation to find out."

Addressing the complexity of the aviation industry, Chandrasekaran noted that aircraft systems are layered with "redundancies, checks and balances, certifications perfected over years". Yet, he said, tragic failures like this still occur. "So we will figure out why it happens after the investigation," he added.

He also recognised the emotional toll on the Air India workforce and called for unity and strength in the face of public scrutiny. "Criticisms are there... but it's not easy to face criticisms when you genuinely care. If you feel distraught, the word you should remember is determination. We are going to get through this," he said.

Visiting key operations areas, including the Emergency Command Centre, the Integrated Operations Control Centre and the Customer Service and Support unit, the chairman underscored the importance of every employee's contribution. "What you do makes an airline. Big things get done by small actions. Just stay the course."

Chandrasekaran said the airline must rise above the crisis to become the airline "this country deserves".

Visiting key operations areas, including the Emergency Command Centre, the Integrated Operations Control Centre and the Customer Service and Support unit, the chairman underscored the importance of every employee's contribution. "What you do makes an airline. Big things get done by small actions. Just stay the course."

Chandrasekaran said the airline must rise above the crisis to become the airline "this country deserves".

ADDRESSING THE EMPLOYEES of Air India following the tragic crash of a Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner in Ahmedabad last week, Tata Sons and Air India chairman N Chandrasekaran made an emotional appeal for resilience, urging the airline's staff to "stay the course" and commit to building a safer and stronger airline.

Speaking to nearly 700 employees and leadership team members at the Air India headquarters and training academy in Gurugram on Monday, Chandrasekaran acknowledged the deep pain caused by the June 12 crash that claimed over 270 lives. "I have seen a reasonable number of crises in my career, but this is the most heartbreaking one which I never thought I would see," he said, recalling his visit to the crash site and the difficult moments shared with the emergency response team.

The Air India Dreamliner took off at 1:39 pm on Thursday and within a few seconds, after reaching a height of about 650 feet, it started sinking. At 1:39 pm, the pilot gave Ahmedabad ATC a MayDay call, a code word used for emergency.

When the ATC tried to contact the aircraft, it did not receive any response. Exactly one minute later, the plane crashed in Meghaninagar, about 2 km from the airport.

Air Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB), which comes under the civil aviation ministry, is probing the accident.

Amid the shock and grief, Chandrasekaran's message to the Air India community was clear, that determination must guide the path forward. "Whatever I say and whatever we do is not going to bring the lives back. Those affected, they are going to feel the pain for a very long time. But having said that, we have got to do our very best humanly possible to help each of them," he told the employees.

He said that the airline's future depends on collective resilience and a re-dedication to safety. "We need to show resilience. We need to use this incident as an act of force to build a safer airline. So we have to make sure that we stay the course. Be more determined in everything we do. We need to wait for the investigation to find out."

Addressing the complexity of the aviation industry, Chandrasekaran noted that aircraft systems are layered with "redundancies, checks and balances, certifications perfected over years". Yet, he said, tragic failures like this still occur. "So we will figure out why it happens after the investigation," he added.

He also recognised the emotional toll on the Air India workforce and called for unity and strength in the face of public scrutiny. "Criticisms are there... but it's not easy to face criticisms when you genuinely care. If you feel distraught, the word you should remember is determination. Indian trucks take hydrogen highway to future

Indian trucks take hydrogen highway to future

SHINE JACOB & SOHINI DAS
Chennai/Mumbai, 16 June

From the industrial sprawl of Reliance Industries' Jamnagar refinery to the frost-bitten heights of Leh and the traffic-choked avenues of New Delhi, a quiet shift is underway in India's commercial vehicle (CV) sector. Hydrogen-powered trucks and buses — once a speculative future — are now rolling out onto the country's roads, driven by auto giants like Ashok Leyland and Tata Motors. Others are not far behind.

While many of these efforts are aligned with the government's National Green Hydrogen Mission, original equipment manufacturers (OEMs) are also shaping their own road maps to remain future-ready. Ashok Leyland, for instance, made headlines in 2023 when it unveiled the country's first hydrogen internal combustion engine (H2-ICE) truck, developed in collaboration with Reliance Industries Ltd (RIL).

ASHOK LEYLAND HAS PARTNERED NTPC GREEN TO DEPLOY HYDROGEN FUEL CELL BUSES IN KEY LOCATIONS, INCLUDING DELHI AND LADAKH

Since then, over 20 of these heavy-duty vehicles have clocked nearly 250,000 kilometres, and have rivalled the efficiency of traditional ICE vehicles.

The firm has partnered NTPC Green to deploy hydrogen fuel cell buses in key locations, including Delhi and Ladakh.

"Among the alternative fuels, the ultimate destination of the CV market is going to be hydrogen. However, it needs the cost structure to be right," Sanjeev Kumar, president and head of the medium and heavy commercial vehicle division at Ashok Leyland, told Business Standard. "As an organisation, we are ready with technology; it is only a question of when and how, as the cost of hydrogen continues to be very high. Recently, we have also delivered one 55-tonne fuel cell vehicle to Adani (group) for its mining application in Chhattisgarh."

Tata Motors, too, is carrying out trials of hydrogen-powered CVs. Since March, the firm has been testing two trucks — one powered by H2-ICE, the other by hydrogen fuel cell — across a 24-month pilot programme. A total of 16 hydrogen-powered vehicles, with varying payloads and configurations, will ply on some of India's busiest freight routes in Mumbai, Pune, Delhi-NCR, Surat, Vadodara, Jamshedpur, and Kalinganagar.

"We've also started shipping our first hydrogen trucks, which are now going to ply on specific lanes," P B Balaji, group chief financial officer at Tata Motors, said during a recent post-earnings call.

The pilot, undertaken in partnership with Indian Oil Corporation, aims to gather on-ground data — both to finetune the vehicles and to map out hydrogen availability along key transport routes.

Govt's pilot projects to put 37 hydrogen-powered vehicles on the road

At the Bharat Mobility Global Expo earlier this year, Tata Motors Executive Director Girish Wagh signalled that the company was targeting a commercial launch window within the next 12 to 24 months. The company did not wish to share further updates at the moment.

The momentum isn't limited to Indian firms. Daimler Truck, one of the world's leading CV manufacturers, is preparing to enter the Indian hydrogen race. "On the path towards decarbonising transport, Daimler Truck is entering the next development phase of its fuel cell trucks," said Pradeep Kumar T, president of product engineering and chief technology officer, Daimler India Commercial Vehicles.

Following extensive testing, both on tracks and public roads, Daimler's Mercedes-Benz GenH2 trucks are now approaching the customer deployment phase. "We are currently evaluating customer readiness, infrastructure availability, and local operating conditions to ensure that when our hydrogen trucks enter Indian roads, it will be with full commitment to the quality, safety and reliability that define Daimler Truck worldwide," he added.

The central government, too, is ramping up its hydrogen play. Through the Ministry of New and Renewable Energy, five pilot projects have been allocated to a group of private players — Tata Motors, RIL, NTPC, Ashok Leyland, Hindustan Petroleum Corporation Ltd, Bharat Petroleum Corporation Ltd, and Indian Oil Corporation Ltd. Together, these projects will put 37 hydrogen-powered vehicles (a mix of buses and trucks) on the road, supported by nine hydrogen-refuelling stations.

The vehicles include 15 powered by hydrogen fuel cells and 22 by hydrogen ICEs. The trials will take place on 10 routes across the country — from Delhi to Thiruvananthapuram. Launched in January 2023, the National Green Hydrogen Mission has an allocated budget of ₹19,744 crore through to the end of the decade.

It is the centrepiece of India's push towards becoming aatmanirbhar (self-reliant) in clean energy and serving as an inspiration for the global clean energy transition.

അറ്റകുറ്റപ്പണികൾ കഴിഞ്ഞില്ല; ബ്രിട്ടീഷ് യുദ്ധവിമാനത്തിന്റെ തിരിച്ചുപോക്ക് വൈകും

യുദ്ധക്കപ്പലിൽ നിന്ന് പരിശീലനത്തിനായി പുറപ്പെട്ട വിമാനത്തിൽ ഇന്ധനം കുറഞ്ഞതിനെ തുടർന്നാണ് എമർജിൻസി ലാൻഡിംഗ് വേണ്ടി വന്നത്.

Rupani's last rites held with full state honours

AHMEDABAD: Former Gujarat chief minister Vijay Rupani was accorded a state funeral on Monday, four days after the 68-year-old Bharatiya Janata Party leader died in an Air India plane crash along with 270 other people, with hundreds of people, including senior politicians, paying floral tributes to him.

Union home minister Amit Shah, Gujarat governor Acharya Devvrat, chief minister Bhupendra Patel, Union Jal Shakti Minister and Gujarat BJP president CR Paatil, and other leaders offered floral tributes to Rupani at his residence.

Amid outpouring of emotions and slogan shouting, people stood on both sides of the road as Rupani's mortal remains were brought from the airport to his residence in Rajkot, a journey stretching to several kilometres, in a flower-bedecked vehicle before being taken for last rites.

Before the former CM's mortal remains, flown to Rajkot from Ahmedabad, reached his residence, people queued up on both sides of the road to pay him their last respects.

The procession started from Greenland Crossroads on the outskirts of Rajkot and reached the residence of the late BJP leader.

Rupani's supporters showered flower petals and raised the slogan, "Vijaybhai tum amar ho (Vijaybhai is immortal)," as the procession winded its way to his home before being taken to crematorium for last rites.

Earlier in the day, Rupani's mortal remains were handed over to his family members in Ahmedabad with guard of honour in the presence of CM Patel. The body was brought to Rajkot on a special plane.

Former CM Vijay Rupani's family expressed profound grief over the loss. Extending their condolences to all those affected by the tragic incident, his son Rushabh said, "This is a sad time not just for us, but for 270 families too", while expressing gratitude to those who supported them during mourning period.

Rushabh reflected on his father's political legacy, noting that Rupani had touched countless lives in his five-decade-long public life.

He added, "My father touched many lives during the 50-55 years of his political life. Today, all those people are standing by us. Many party workers from Punjab are also coming here to express their condolences."

Rupani was among the 241 who died when the London-bound Air India Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner crashed shortly after takeoff, colliding with a doctor's hostel complex near Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport on June 12.

In Ahmedabad, two more funerals were held at the Thaltej crematorium. Dilip Mahendra Patel and his wife Meena Patel, residents of the city's Himmatlal Park, were cremated on Monday.

"They were headed to London to meet their daughter," said a family friend after paying the last respects at their home.

Realty firms eye revenue upside, portfolio diversification from data centre boom

PRACHI PISAL
Mumbai, 16 June

Data centres are increasingly becoming a key part of the real estate landscape, as reality firms — with rich expertise in land acquisition, construction and dealing with government approvals — are seeing them as opportunities to build long-term assets with continuous revenue flow.

Anant Raj, Lodha, L&T Realty, DLF, Panchshil Realty, Rustomjee, Hiranandani Group, Mindspace Reit and many more realty firms are seeing data centres as "future-proof assets" with long-term returns.

While some have been in the segment that is promising nearly 20 per cent returns on investment, more players are getting into this space as they diversify their portfolios amid a sharp upside in demand for data centres, stemming largely from global capacity centres and industry's quickened AI adoption.

"While our core strength lies in real estate development, we see data centres not only as a complementary extension of our capabilities but also as a transformative business opportunity aligned with the country's accelerating digital evolution," said Amit Sarin, managing director, Anant Raj.

Sarin's firm is targeting the development of 307 Mw of capacity across its three campuses, with an investment commitment of over ₹10,000 crore over the next four-five years.

The industry experts believe that the developers are leveraging their expertise in land acquisition, construction, dealing with government approvals, and maintaining tenant relationships.

"Real estate developers with experience in developing commercial buildings see a natural synergy for skills such as land acquisition, obtaining government permits, construction and development, and sourcing infrastructure such as fibre and power (including green power). Further, with their vast tenant relationships, they are able to tap into these networks to address such companies' data centres needs through diversification," said Devi Shankar, executive director, industrial, logistics & data centres, Anarock Capital.

Developers	Data centre services provider/Partner	Total investment amount
Adani Realty	EdgeConneX	$10 bn
Lodha Group	Amazon Web Services	$8.2 bn
Panchshil Realty	Blackstone	$2.4 bn

According to Colliers India, India's data centres capacity as of April 2025 is about 1,263 Mw with 15.9 million square feet (msf) of real estate engaged.

India's data centre capacity is set to cross 4,500 Mw by 2030, as $20-25 billion of future investments are likely to materialise, with a real estate footprint of 55 msf.

"With the rise of AI and cloud adoption, especially by global tech firms, data centres are becoming a key part of the real estate landscape," said Ramesh Nair, CEO and MD, Mindspace Reit — the only Indian Reit with a data centre portfolio.

"The post-Covid shift to hybrid work, alongside the boom in edtech, e-commerce, and digital banking, has fuelled a surge in data consumption and storage needs. In response, major domestic and international players are investing heavily in building both hyper-scale and edge data centres across the country," Shabala Shinde, partner and real estate industry leader, Grant Thornton Bharat, said.

The developers view DCs as assets that can give stable and long-term returns amid increasing usage of data, better 5G penetration, and data storage requirements.

Mumbai-based developer Niranjan Hiranandani, managing director, Hiranandani Group, said, "The rationale behind this move is multifaceted: we view data centres as future-proof assets offering stable, long-term returns, supported by the exponential rise in data consumption, accelerated adoption of cloud services, and deepening digital penetration."

Hiranandani noted that while it is a capex-heavy business, the returns are both feasible and favourable.

Sensex, Nifty 50 recover sharply as IT, realty, metal, oil & gas stocks surge

STRONG SHOW. Mid-cap and small-cap indices gain 0.93% and 0.95%, respectively, in broad-base buying

Madhu Balaji
Bengaluru

Equity benchmark indices rebounded sharply close to 1 per cent on Monday after broad-based selling in the last two trading sessions amid mixed global cues.

After a muted opening, Sensex ended 677.55 points or 0.84 per cent positive at 81,796.15 and Nifty 50 settled 227.90 points or 0.92 per cent higher at 24,946.50, thanks to IT, realty, metal, oil & gas stocks

"Despite ongoing geopolitical tensions between Israel and Iran, the market moved higher, supported by gains in large-cap stocks, as investors maintained their focus on long-term fundamentals in the time of volatile situations," Vinod Nair, Head of Research, Geojit Investments, said.

WPI inflation eased further to 0.4 per cent in May, coming in below expectations and marking the lowest level since April 2024, Rajani Sinha, Chief Economist, CareEdge Ratings, said.

POSITIVE TERRITORY

Both mid-cap and small-cap indexes gained 0.93 per cent and 0.95 per cent, respectively. The volatility index was down 1.60 per cent to 14.84.

Almost all major sectoral indices ended in positive territory. IT and Tourism indices outperformed, gaining around 1.5 percent. Realty, oil & gas and metal indexes followed with over 1 per cent increase.

Bank Nifty snapped its four sessions decline and closed higher by 0.75 per cent.

Among Nifty 50 pack, shares of Bharat Electronics, HDFC Life, SBI Life, UltraTech Cement, Tech Mahindra, ONGC, Eternal and HCL Technologies emerged as major gainers, while Tata Motors, Dr Reddy's Laboratories, Sun Pharma, Adani Ports and Jio Financial were the laggards.

AT NEW HIGH

Shares of Sterlite Technologies, Cosmo First, Axiscades and Unimech featured among 85 stocks that hit upper circuit, while 80 stocks hit the lower circuit.

About 66 stocks — including Bharat Electronics, KVB, Manappuram Finance, Muthoot Finance, Nazara, Force Motors, JK Cement and Max Health — hit a 52-week high.

According to Ajit Mishra – SVP, Research, Religare Broking, market's resilience amid lingering geopolitical tensions is encouraging. "Participants should remain cautious and not get carried away by a single-day rebound, especially as the index approaches the upper band of its current consolidation range, ie, the 25,000–25,200 zone.

"We recommend maintaining a stock-specific trading approach, given the mixed trends across sectors, with a preference for relatively less volatile counters," Mishra added.

Adani scam probe hampered by lack of information from tax haven countries: Cong.

The Hindu Bureau
NEW DELHI

The Congress on Monday said that a key figure in the alleged Adani scam had Cypriot citizenship, but ongoing investigations by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) into transactions involving the Adani Group had been impacted by insufficiency in sharing of financial information by tax haven countries, and the "lack of pressure" from India.

The charge came amid Prime Minister Narendra Modi's visit to Cyprus.

"The Prime Minister is in Cyprus on his way to Canada. Of course, he would have us believe that it is a pure coincidence that a key figure in the Modani scam has Cypriot citizenship. The Cyprus-based fund New Leaina has reportedly about $420 million in Adani companies,"

Jairam Ramesh

Congress's communications chief Jairam Ramesh said in a post on social media platform X.

The "ultimate beneficial owners of this fund are linked to Amicorp, which is believed to have set up at least seven Adani promoter entities, seventeen offshore shell companies linked to Mr. Vinod Adani, and three Mauritius-based offshore investors in Adani Group stock," Mr. Ramesh said.

"All these transactions are part of the ongoing SEBI investigations which have been hampered by lack of sharing of financial information by these and other tax-haven countries and lack of pressure by India," Mr. Ramesh alleged.

There was no reaction to the latest salvo from the Congress from either the Union government or the Adani Group.

Mr. Ramesh also explained how India, under Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru in the 1950s, had rooted for Cyprus to become independent from British rule, and the island had become free on August 16, 1960.

"In the context of today's geopolitics, it is worthwhile to recall that India's championing of the independence of Cyprus in the 1950s and thereafter became a sore point in our bilateral relations with Turkiye," he said.

AHMEDABAD

Officials investigating the Air India plane crash here have confirmed the Cockpit Voice Recorder has been found, a crucial discovery to help ascertain the possible cause of the accident that killed 270 persons, including 241 on board.

Earlier, the Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB) had confirmed that only the Flight Data Recorder (FDR) of the ill-fated plane was found. The officials confirmed the recovery of black boxes to P K Mishra, the Principal Secretary to Prime Minister Narendra Modi, who on Sunday inspected the site where the Air India plane crashed in Ahmedabad on June 12 and also visited the civil hospital where the injured persons are undergoing treatment.

Mishra chaired a high-level review meeting at the Circuit House here and discussed the ongoing relief, rescue and investigation efforts with senior officials from the central and state governments, AAIB and the Airports Authority of India, an official release on Sunday said. The AAIB has launched a detailed investigation, and the US National Transportation Safety Board is conducting a parallel probe under international protocols, as the aircraft was American-made, the release stated. "Officials confirmed to Dr Mishra that the Flight Data Recorder (FDR) and Cockpit Voice Recorder (CVR) have been located and secured," it said.

With the finding of both black boxes of the plane, it would be easy for investigators to ascertain the cause of the crash. All but one of the 242 passengers and crew on board the Boeing 787-8(AI 171) and another 29 persons, including five MBBS students, on the ground were killed when the London-bound aircraft crashed into the nearby campus of a medical college in Meghaninagar area and burst into flames, moments after it took off from the Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport.

Mishra reviewed the accident site near the B J Medical College in Meghaninagar, where senior officials from the State government, AAIB and Airports Authority of India briefed him on the sequence of events and immediate response measures, the release said.

During his visit to the Ahmedabad Civil Hospital, he met the bereaved families, observed the DNA sample matching, and directed authorities to provide full assistance, ensuring a seamless and compassionate process, it said.

He also interacted with the injured persons, instructing hospital officials to prioritise their medical treatment and recovery, it said. "I am very pained by the enormity of the tragedy. Everybody is sad. It is our duty to share grief and express our feelings for the victims," Mishra told reporters.

At the Forensic Science Laboratory in Gandhinagar, he reviewed DNA sampling efforts and stressed the need to complete the identification process swiftly while maintaining scientific accuracy, the release said.

Mishra reiterated the PM's commitment to providing all possible support to victims' families and ensuring a coordinated response across all agencies involved, it said. The principal secretary was accompanied by PMO officials, advisor to the PM, Tarun Kapoor among others.

Cong claims Sebi's Adani probe hampered by lack of info

NEW DELHI: The Congress on Monday claimed that a key figure in Adani "scam" has Cypriot citizenship, and said ongoing SEBI probes into transactions involving conglomerate have been hampered by a lack of sharing of financial information by tax-haven countries and "lack of pressure" by India. The opposition party's assertions come amid ongoing visit of Prime Minister Narendra Modi to Cyprus. "The PM is in Cyprus on his way to Canada. Of course, he would have us believe that it is a pure coincidence that a key figure in Modani scam has Cypriot citizenship," Congress general secretary in-charge of communications Jairam Ramesh said. The Tata group is in talks with global consulting giant McKinsey & Co to spearhead a sweeping transformation of Air India (A-I), as the airline grapples with its gravest crisis following last week's fatal crash in Ahmedabad, people familiar with the matter said.

Tata Sons and Air India Chairman N Chandrasekaran met Vivek Pandit, a senior partner at McKinsey, in Mumbai over the weekend to chart a revival strategy for the airline, according to a person with direct knowledge.

The tragic accident, which marks one of the deadliest in India's aviation history, has placed intense scrutiny on the Tata group's turnaround plans for the former state-run carrier, which it acquired from the Indian government in 2022.

Chandrasekaran also held internal consultations with key Tata group leaders, including Noel Tata, chairman of Tata Trusts and a director on the board of Tata Sons, the person said. The discussions focused on crisis management measures, including compensation and support for the victims' families.

McKinsey declined to comment, citing client confidentiality. An email sent to Tata Sons on Monday went unanswered.

The Tata group has already merged Air India with Vistara, the airline it co-owned with Singapore Airlines, in an ambitious bid to create a world-class global carrier.

Two India-bound Boeing Dreamliners hit snags

SWARAJ BAGGONKAR

TURBULENT TIMES

- A British Airways London to Chennai Boeing 787-8 returned after its captain reported a 'flap adjustment failure'
- Another Air India 787-8 bound for Delhi developed an engine issue within 90 minutes of taking off

- Air India AI-171 from Ahmedabad to London which crashed on June 12, killing 241, is of the same make
- Owing to DGCA checks, some Air India flights are facing delays

OVER THE LAST 24 hours, two India-bound Boeing Dreamliners, with full load of passengers, developed technical snags midway into their journeys, forcing them to return to their bases.

A British Airways London (Heathrow) to Chennai Boeing 787-8 had to return to its origin after its captain reported a 'flap adjustment failure'. The crew decided to dump fuel before attempting to land. Everyone on board the BA35 landed safely.

Just hours later, another Air India 787-8 bound for Delhi, developed an engine issue within 90 minutes of taking off, forcing the pilots to return to the Hong Kong International Airport. The flight was later cancelled for the day.

"AI-315 operating from Hong Kong to Delhi on June 16 returned to Hong Kong shortly after takeoff due to a technical issue. The flight landed safely at Hong Kong and underwent checks. Alternative arrangements were planned to fly the passengers to their destination Delhi at the earliest," an Air India spokesperson said.

These two latest incidents will raise further questions about safety of the Dreamliners. Both flights are of the same make as the ill-fated Air India AI-171 from Ahmedabad to London which crashed on June 12 killing 241 of its occupants and dozens more on the ground.

The third incident involving a Boeing 787-8 emerged in Zurich where a Delhi-bound flight of Air India reportedly suffered a technical issue. However, the airline confirmed that there was no technical issue with the flight which eventually got rescheduled.

Sources said that because of the mandatory checks ordered by the Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA) on all the Boeing 787 family of aircraft operated by Air India following Thursday's crash, an Air India flight from Delhi to Zurich could not reach its destination on time on June 15 to be ready for a return flight before the night flight restrictions at the airport kicked in. This led to rescheduling of the return flight to June 16.

The DGCA order, which came into effect from June 15, seeks inspection of fuel parameter monitoring and associated system checks, inspection of cabin air compressor and associated systems, electronic engine control system test, engine fuel driven actuator-operational test and oil system check, serviceability check of hydraulic system and review of takeoff parameters.

The report of the checks needs to be submitted to DGCA for review, the order said.

Alternative arrangements were planned to fly the passengers to their destination Delhi at the earliest," an Air India spokesperson said.

These two latest incidents will raise further questions about safety of the Dreamliners. Both flights are of the same make as the ill-fated Air India AI-171 from Ahmedabad to London which crashed on June 12 killing 241 of its occupants and dozens more on the ground.

The third incident involving a Boeing 787-8 emerged in Zurich where a Delhi-bound flight of Air India reportedly suffered a technical issue. However, the airline confirmed that there was no technical issue with the flight which eventually got rescheduled.

Sources said that because of the mandatory checks ordered by the Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA) on all the Boeing 787 family of aircraft operated by Air India following Thursday's crash, an Air India flight from Delhi to Zurich could not reach its destination on time on June 15 to be ready for a return flight before the night flight restrictions at the airport kicked in. This led to rescheduling of the return flight to June 16.

The DGCA order, which came into effect from June 15, seeks inspection of fuel parameter monitoring and associated system checks, inspection of cabin air compressor and associated systems, electronic engine control system test, engine fuel driven actuator-operational test and oil system check, serviceability check of hydraulic system and review of takeoff parameters.

The report of the checks needs to be submitted to DGCA for review, the order said.

TURBULENT TIMES

- A British Airways London to Chennai Boeing 787-8 returned after its captain reported a 'flap adjustment failure'
- Another Air India 787-8 bound for Delhi developed an engine issue within 90 minutes of taking off

- Air India AI-171 from Ahmedabad to London which crashed on June 12, killing 241, is of the same make
- Owing to DGCA checks, some Air India flights are facing delays

OVER THE LAST 24 hours, two India-bound Boeing Dreamliners, with full load of passengers, developed technical snags midway into their journeys, forcing them to return to their bases.

A British Airways London (Heathrow) to Chennai Boeing 787-8 had to return to its origin after its captain reported a 'flap adjustment failure'. The crew decided to dump fuel before attempting to land. Everyone on board the BA35 landed safely.

Just hours later, another Air India 787-8 bound for Delhi, developed an engine issue within 90 minutes of taking off, forcing the pilots to return to the Hong Kong International Airport. The flight was later cancelled for the day.

"AI-315 operating from Hong Kong to Delhi on June 16 returned to Hong Kong shortly after takeoff due to a technical issue. The flight landed safely at Hong Kong and underwent checks. Alternative arrangements were planned to fly the passengers to their destination Delhi at the earliest," an Air India spokesperson said.

These two latest incidents will raise further questions about safety of the Dreamliners. Both flights are of the same make as the ill-fated Air India AI-171 from Ahmedabad to London which crashed on June 12 killing 241 of its occupants and dozens more on the ground.

हादसा-दर-हादसा, न कोई जिम्मेदार न किसी को सजा

न्याय संहिता के अनुसार एक व्यक्ति की हत्या करने पर दोषी को आजीवन कारावास अथवा फांसी की सजा होती है। इस विमान हादसे में लगभग 300 व्यक्तियों की मृत्यु हुई, किंतु किसी को दोषी मान जाकर सजा दी जाने की संभावना, पूर्व अनुभव के आधार पर नगण्य है। भारत सरकार ने इस हादसे की जांच के लिए उच्च स्तरीय समिति बना दी है जो तीन माह में अपनी रिपोर्ट देगी। ऐसा ही हर हादसे के समय होता है। जांच होती है, मुआवजा दिया जाता है, रिपोर्ट आती है, किंतु न किसी को जिम्मेदारी तय होती है और न किसी को सजा मिलती है। लोग अगले हादसे के इंतजार में लग जाते हैं।

विमान हादसे में मारे गए डॉ प्रतिक जोशी का पूरा परिवार था जो लंदन में बसने के लिए इस विमान से जा रहा था। इसी हादसे में भाई-बहन सुभ और शगुन मोदी भी मृत्यु के शिकार हो गए, जो घूमने के लिए लंदन जा रहे थे। एक व्यक्ति जिसकी कोर्ट मैरिज दो दिन पहले ही हुई थी वह भी हादसे का शिकार हो गया, जबकि उसकी शादी कुछ समय बाद समारोह पूर्वक होनी थी। मारे गए प्रत्येक परिवार की एक दर्दनाक कहानी है जिसे उनके परिजन जीवन पर्यन्त कभी भूल नहीं पाएंगे। हां, यह अवश्य है कि सरकार द्वारा इसे भी अन्य हादसों की तरह एक और हादसा साबित कर दिया जाएगा जिसके लिए कोई दोषी नहीं ठहराया जाएगा एवं न किसी को सजा दी जाएगी। यही वह कारण है जिससे ऐसे हादसे रुकते नहीं हैं।

जिम्मेदारी तय न होने वाले कुछ हादसों का उल्लेख करना उपयुक्त होगा।

मोटरसाइकिल पर जाने वाला व्यक्ति सड़क पर बैठे हुए किसी सांड से टकराकर दुर्घटनाग्रस्त हो जाए और उसकी मृत्यु हो जाए तब भी किसी को जिम्मेदार नहीं ठहराया जाएगा, न नगर निगम के किसी व्यक्ति को इसके लिए सजा मिलेगी।

सड़क पर स्ट्रीट लाइट के अभाव में प्रकाश व्यवस्था न होने से अंधेरे में वाहन चलाते हुए यदि कोई वाहन चालक खड्डे में गिरकर चोटिल हो जाए या मर जाए तो भी उसके लिए कोई जिम्मेदार नहीं है। यही कहा जाता है कि यह विधि का विधान है और परिजन भी इसे अपना भाग्य मानकर, थक- हार कर बैठ जाते हैं।

अस्पताल में किसी व्यक्ति को गलत ब्लड ग्रुप का खून चढ़ाने से उसकी मृत्यु हो जाए फिर भी डॉक्टर, कर्मचारियों या अस्पताल प्रशासन को दोषी मानकर किसी को सजा दी गई हो, ऐसी कोई जानकारी उपलब्ध नहीं है।

लगभग दो साल पहले जयपुर-अजमेर राष्ट्रीय राजमार्ग पर भांकरोटा के पास गलत कट देने के कारण टैंकर और बस में टक्कर के कारण विस्फोट होने से कई व्यक्ति झुलस कर मर गए। यह जानकारी नहीं है कि इस लापरवाही के लिए किसी को जिम्मेदारी निर्धारित की जाकर उसे दंडित किया गया हो।

कुल मिलाकर यही कहा जा सकता है कि विभिन्न हादसों में किसी उच्च अधिकारी या मंत्री की जिम्मेदारी तय न किया जाना ही इस प्रकार के हादसे को रोकने में असफल होने का प्रमुख कारण है। आशा की जानी चाहिए कि इस बार ऐसा नहीं होगा और उच्च स्तर पर बैठे दोषी व्यक्तियों की जिम्मेदारी तय की जाएगी एवं उन्हें हत्या के आरोपी की तरह दंडित किया जाएगा। जांच रिपोर्ट को सार्वजनिक किया जाएगा। यही ऐसा न हो कि फिर नई कहानी दोहराई जाए कि हादसा हुआ, जांच हुई, मुआवजा मिला और फिर उसे भुला दिया गया। यदि ऐसा हुआ तो यह उल्लेखनीय कि तीनों हादसों में मरे गए व्यक्तियों के परिजनों के साथ एक नमक छिड़कने जैसा ही होगा। यदि एक बार उच्च स्तर पर जिम्मेदार व्यक्तियों को हत्या के आरोपी की तरह सजा दे दी गई तो भविष्य में सुरक्षा के काम को अत्यंत गंभीरता से लिया जाएगा और इस प्रकार की घटनाओं की पुनरावृत्ति से भी बचा जा सकेगा। जबकि देरी की संस्कृति को बढ़ावा देना होगा ताकि विभिन्न मानव निर्मित हादसों का शिकार होकर निर्दोष लोग अपना जीवन न खोएं।

'Crash catalyst to build safer airline'

Air India's chairman N. Chandrasekaran on Monday told staff that last week's plane crash that killed at least 271 people should be a catalyst to build a safer airline, urging employees to stay resolute amid any criticism. In a town hall held at the headquarters of the Tata Group-owned airline near New Delhi and attended by 700 staff, Chandrasekaran said the crash was the "most heartbreaking" crisis of his career, a spokesperson told Reuters.

"I've seen a reasonable number of crises in my career, but this is the most heartbreaking one," he said, as per a Tata Group spokesperson.

"We need to use this incident as an act of force to build a safer airline," Chandrasekaran said.

The Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner with 242 people on board bound for London's Gatwick Airport began losing height seconds after take-off in Ahmedabad on Thursday, and erupted in a huge fireball as it hit buildings below. REUTERS

570 नए विमानों का ऑर्डर दिया था

2025 तक एअर इंडिया में सुधार का लक्ष्य तय किया था टाटा ने

एलेक्स ट्रैवेली

पिछले सप्ताह अहमदाबाद की विमान दुर्घटना एयर इंडिया के इतिहास में नाजुक मोड़ पर हुई है। 2022 में सरकार ने करीब 70 साल तक सरकारी नियंत्रण में रही एयरलाइन का निजीकरण कर दिया। टाटा ग्रुप ने उसे खरीद लिया था। एअर इंडिया की प्रतिष्ठा में लगातार गिरावट हो रही थी। उड़ानों में देर, टूटी सीटों और खराब सर्विस जैसी शिकायतें आम थीं। टाटा ग्रुप ने मैनेजमेंट में सुधार के लिए सिंगापुर में एक लो कॉस्ट एयरलाइन शुरू करने वाले कैम्पबेल विलसन की सेवाएं लीं। 570 नए एयरक्राफ्ट का ऑर्डर दिया। बोइंग और एयरबस से प्लेन लिए गए। पैसा भी खूब लगाया।

एअर इंडिया का निजीकरण परिवारिक पुनर्मिलन जैसा था। 1932 में जेआरडी टाटा ने एअर इंडिया की शुरुआत की थी। 1953 में सरकार ने कंपनी का राष्ट्रीयकरण कर दिया। इससे पहले कई देश मुनाफे के लिए नेशनल एयरलाइन कंपनियों को प्राइवेट कंपनियों में बदल चुके थे।

भार्गव का कहना है, एअर इंडिया जैसी एयरलाइन को बदलने में समय लगता है। टाटा ग्रुप ने एयरलाइंस की सेवाओं और फाइनेंशियल परफॉर्मेंस में सुधार के लिए 2025 का लक्ष्य तय किया था। ग्लोबल सप्लाई चेन की सुस्ती से बदलाव की प्रक्रिया धीमी रही हैं। फिर भी, एअर इंडिया ने कुछ काम सही किए हैं। टाटा ने चार छोटी एयरलाइंस को खरीदकर मार्केट मजबूत किया है। अब टाटा और इंडिगो मार्केट पर हावी हैं। भारत के घरेलू बाजार पर दोनों एयरलाइंस का 91 प्रतिशत नियंत्रण है। इससे लंबी अवधि में मुनाफा बढ़ेगा। © The New York Times

BOEING TEAM, AAIB OFFICIALS REACH AHMEDABAD TO INSPECT PLANE CRASH

Dreameliner crash: DNA matching of 92 victims completed, 47 bodies have been dispatched to various districts

TDG NETWORK
AHMEDABAD

A team from Boeing and the officials of the Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB), on Monday, arrived in Ahmedabad to inspect the site of the Air India plane crash.

An investigation is underway to find the reasons that led to the tragic incident on June 12.

The London-bound Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner aircraft crashed into a hostel complex shortly after take-off from Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport on June 12, killing 241 passengers and crew, including former Gujarat Chief Minister Vijay Rupani.

Earlier today, an expert from the UK who reached the Air India Plane Crash site in Ahmedabad to conduct an inspection, said, "Maybe we will be able to speak later...We saw what you guys can see... It's just the same, as you can see from here."

Meanwhile, the Additional Medical Superintendent of Ahmedabad's Civil Hospital said on Monday that the DNA sample matches in the Air India plane crash have reached 92, corresponding to 87 individuals, due to some duplication.

Speaking to the media, Dr Rajnish Patel said that 47 bodies have been dispatched to various districts so far.

"Of the bodies brought to Civil Hospital, DNA matching of 92 (body remains) is completed, of this (the number of) individuals is 87 because there is duplication. 47 bodies have been dispatched from here... Bodies have been dispatched to Kheda, Ahmedabad, Kota, Mahesana, Bharuch, Vadodara, Aravalli, Anand, Junagarh, Bhavnagar, Amreli, Mahisagar and Bhavnagar," Dr Patel said.

Meanwhile, former Gujarat Chief Minister Vijay Rupani, who lost his life in the crash, will be cremated in Rajkot later today with full state honours.

The Tricolour is being brought to the Civil Hospital mortuary in Ahmedabad to be draped over his mortal remains. Around 2,000 kilograms of flowers will be used to decorate the hearse van that will carry the body of the former Chief Minister.

The crash claimed 241 lives out of the 242 people onboard, which included 230 passengers and 12 crew members. The lone survivor, Vishwashkumar Ramesh, a British national of Indian origin, is currently undergoing treatment for his injuries.

At least 33 people, including residents on the ground and MBBS students, also lost their lives as the plane rammed into the doctor's hostel after the crash.

HOW DNA IDENTIFICATION WORKS

HOW DNA IDENTIFICATION WORKS

By Rupsa Chakraborty and Ateeq Shaikh

Doctors are working round-the-clock to identify the over 270 victims of the Air India plane crash. Over 275 samples were taken from the bodies, most of which were charred beyond recognition, prompting doctors to begin DNA identification. HT spoke to Dr Saumil P Merchant, head of Forensic Medicine at Narendra Modi Medical College; Dr HP Sanghvi, director of FSL, Dr Jayasankar P Pillai, from BJ Medical College, and Dr Rajesh Dere, head of Forensic Medicine at Lokmanya Tilak Municipal Medical College, to understand the process.

What is DNA?

DNA (Deoxyribonucleic Acid) is a genetic blueprint unique to every individual, except identical twins.

How is DNA sampling used in disaster victim identification (DVI)?

DNA is extracted from biological material — blood, bone, tooth, or tissue — and analysed to produce a profile. This is compared with DNA from biological relatives. A full 23-allele (versions of a genetic sequence) STR (short tandem repeat) match confirms identity. When bodies are burned, decomposed, or fragmented beyond recognition, DNA sampling is the only way to identify them.

What is the step-by-step process?

DNA profiling involves sample cleaning, DNA isolation, quality assessment, amplification, sequencing, and matching. Each stage relies on sensitive instruments and carries contamination risks, often requiring reprocessing.

1. Each biological sample is decontaminated. Bones are powdered, and teeth are crushed using precision grinders
   - For bones, cryogenic grinding may be used.
   - For teeth, enamel is cracked to access dentin and pulp.
2. The material is placed in isolation chambers for chemical lysis (breaking down cell membranes) followed by incubation to release DNA
3. The DNA is then tested using RT-PCR to determine quantity and integrity.
4. If viable, it proceeds to STR analysis, where genetic markers are amplified and visualized.
5. The resulting profile is compared to reference samples from relatives.

If a sufficient number of alleles are not obtained in the initial attempt, the entire procedure is repeated to ensure accuracy.

How long does it normally take?

Normally, a DNA report takes about three months due to the stepwise nature of profiling and the contamination risks involved which often requires reprocessing.

How has the administration expedited the process?

Authorities have collected 275 samples from the Ahmedabad crash victims, and the timeline has been compressed to 72 hours. A 24x7 operational system involving multiple forensic labs has been adopted. Samples are being triaged on the basis of degradation levels, and parallel workflows have been implemented to allow separate teams to handle extraction, purification, and amplification. Gujarat's Forensic Science Laboratory (FSL) in Gandhinagar is processing 130 samples at once, with around 50 scientists from FSL and the National Forensic Sciences University (NFSU) working in rotational shifts across 10 field and lab teams.

What role do Civil Hospital and mobile field teams play in this operation?

Three to four medical teams are working full-time to collect blood, verify identities, and complete paperwork. In cases where families cannot reach the hospital, mobile teams are being dispatched to collect samples at home, with police ensuring proper documentation and chain of custody.

How will the bodies be returned to families once matched?

Once a match is confirmed, families are contacted. Only the person who submitted the reference sample — or an authorized relative — can collect the body after showing valid ID and proof of relation. A control room at Civil Hospital helps coordinate paperwork. Free ambulances are available for local transfers, and Air India is helping with interstate and international repatriation. Police are also assisting with legal formalities, including post-mortem reports and handover clearance.

What if DNA analysis fails or no reference sample is available?

In such cases, other forensic techniques — like odontology, implant serial numbers, or physical markers such as tattoos and scars — are used. However, these require documentation or prior images.
Teeth remain a valuable fallback—they protect the pulp where DNA can remain intact even in high-heat or decomposed conditions.

Filmmaker Mahesh Kalawadia, also known as Mahesh Jirawala, has been missing since the London-bound Air India flight crashed in Ahmedabad (Gujarat) on June 12.

Speaking to media persons, his wife Hetal — who has anxiously been searching for him — said that the last active location on Mahesh's phone put him a mere 700 metres from the medical college hostel in Meghaninagar where the plane crashed minutes after take-off from Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport. She added that worry set in when Mahesh failed to return home after he called her to say he was on his way home.

"On June 12, Mahesh had gone to meet someone. He called me at 1.14pm to tell me his meeting was over and that he was on his way home," she told PTI, adding, "I called him again at 1.40pm, but his phone was switched off. That was just a minute after the plane took off from Ahmedabad airport."

Hetal further shared, "His scooter and mobile phone are missing. All this is unusual since he would never use that route to come home."

In a desperate bid to find Mahesh, his family have now submitted DNA samples to confirm if the filmmaker was indeed one of the ground victims of the crash.

As of Monday noon, 90 victims were identified through DNA sampling and the remains of 47 handed over to their families. The crash has claimed over 270 lives — 241 out of 242 travellers aboard the flight as well as 29 people on the ground.

NEW DELHI: The first LCA Mk-1A built at Hindustan Aeronautics Limited's new production line in Nashik is set to make its maiden flight in mid-July, and the state-owned plane maker is targeting delivery of the first LCA Mk-1A produced in Bengaluru to the Indian Air Force in July-August after a delay of almost 16 months, officials aware of the matter said on Monday.

HAL can build 16 Mk-1As every year in Bengaluru and Nashik will help boost production to 24 jets.

"The Nashik production line will roll out four to five Mk-1A fighters this year, followed by eight annually next year onwards. It will help us make up for the delay in deliveries due to factors including US firm GE Aerospace's inability to supply F404- IN20 engines on time and some pending certifications," said one of the officials. →P11

NEW DELHI: The first light combat aircraft (LCA Mk-1A) built at Hindustan Aeronautics Limited's new production line in Nashik is set to make its maiden flight in mid-July, and the state-owned plane maker is targeting delivery of the first LCA Mk-1A produced in Bengaluru to the Indian Air Force in July-August after a delay of almost 16 months, officials aware of the matter said on Monday.

HAL can build 16 Mk-1As every year in Bengaluru, and the Nashik production line will help it boost production to a total of 24 jets. To be sure, the Bengaluru-produced LCA Mk-1A flew for the first time in March 2024.

"The Nashik production line will roll out four to five Mk-1A fighters this year, followed by eight annually next year onwards. It will help us make up for the delay in deliveries due to factors including US firm GE Aerospace's inability to supply F404- IN20 engines on time and some pending certifications," said one of the officials cited above, asking not to be named.

IAF is concerned about the current pace of the LCA Mk-1A programme because of the possible risks a delay in the induction of new fighters could pose to its combat effectiveness. The air force ordered 83 Mk-1A fighters for ₹48,000 crore in February 2021 and plans to buy 97 more Mk-1As at a cost of around ₹67,000 crore.

The first of the 83 jets on order was to be delivered to the IAF by March 31, 2024. The last of the 83 jets is to be delivered by 2028-29.

"HAL has so far manufactured six LCA Mk-1As in Bengaluru to execute the 83-aircraft order. One of these, equipped with GE's F404-IN20 engine, is expected to be delivered to the IAF in July-August. We have sufficient capacity to offset the delay once the engine supplies stabilise," said a second official, who also asked not to be named.

GE Aerospace delivered the first of 99 F404-IN20 engines to HAL in March. The second engine is expected to be delivered in July, followed by two every month until December, the officials said, adding that deliveries will be accelerated next year onwards.

The US firm had then explained why the engine supply was delayed and assured HAL that production was being ramped up to execute the Indian order.

In 2004, the F404-IN20 engine was selected for the older LCA Mk-1, which has been inducted by the IAF. By 2016, GE Aerospace had delivered 65 F404-IN20 engines for the Mk-1 aircraft.

With no additional engine orders, the production line for F404-IN20 in the US was shut down. However, when HAL ordered an additional 99 engines in 2021 for the LCA Mk-1A, the US firm began the complex task of restarting the production line, which had been dormant for five years, and re-engaging the engine's global supply chain.

In May, IAF voiced its frustration over the delays in key projects.

The chief of the air staff Air Chief Marshal AP Singh then put the spotlight on the armed forces' agonising wait for new weapons and systems, saying he could not recall a single instance of a project being executed on time, in what was seen as a wake-up call for the country's defence production sector. "Timelines are a big issue," Singh said at the CII Annual Business Summit 2025. The air force is grappling with a shortage of fighter jets and operates around 30 fighter squadrons compared to an authorised 42.

The armed forces have so far not called "the black sheep" out, but their "restraint" should not be stretched to a breaking point, Singh said, issuing a veiled warning to defence public sector units including HAL and the Defence Research and Development Organisation among others.

Singh has often publicly flagged concerns about a worrying erosion of IAF's capabilities and called for urgent measures to fix it. In February, he questioned the ability of HAL to meet the air force's critical requirements in the backdrop of the lingering delay in the supply of new Mk-1A fighter jets, saying he had "no confidence" in the plane maker.

HAL chief DK Sunil then responded by saying that his company's focus is on delivering the LCA Mk-1A to the IAF at the earliest rather than spending time on countering criticism of the indigenous programme.

The LCA is set to emerge as the cornerstone of IAF's combat power as the world's fourth largest air force is expected to operate around 350 LCAs (Mk-1, Mk-1A and Mk-2 variants) in the coming decades.

The Mk-1A, a 4.5 generation fighter, will come with digital radar warning receivers, external self-protection jammer pods, superior radar, advanced beyond-visual-range (BVR) air-to-air missiles, and significantly improved maintainability.

On June 11, a top IAF officer said precision weapons, such as the ones used by IAF against Pakistan during Operation Sindoor rendered geographical barriers almost meaningless and altered the relationship between distance and vulnerability.

"Today, precision-guided munitions like Scalp and BrahMos (missiles) have rendered geographical barriers almost meaningless as strikes with beyond visual range air-to-air missiles and supersonic air-to-ground missiles have become commonplace," said Air Marshal Ashutosh Dixit, chief of integrated defence staff.

Modern warfare — thanks to technology — has fundamentally altered the relationship between distance and vulnerability, he added. In March, a top government committee recommended a raft of short and long-term measures to boost the capabilities of IAF and pointed out that it was critical to enhance self-reliance in the aerospace sector through increased participation of the private sector to fill critical gaps.

Steps are being taken to boost private participation in the aerospace sector.

Last month, India unveiled its long-awaited plan to fast-track the development of an indigenous fifth-generation stealth fighter, or the advanced medium combat aircraft (AMCA), announcing that the execution model will be competitive and provide equal opportunities to public and private sector firms to participate in one of the country's most significant military projects.

The approval of the industry partnership model by defence minister Rajnath Singh came at a critical moment as HAL — the sole manufacturer of fighter jets in the country — was till then believed to be the frontrunner for the project.

While the model unlocks new possibilities for the local aerospace industry, including firms such as Tata Advanced Systems Limited, Larsen & Toubro, Adani Defence and Aerospace and the Mahindra Group. HAL continues to remain a strong contender for the project, as earlier reported by HT.

In February, he questioned the ability of HAL to meet the air force's critical requirements in the backdrop of the lingering delay in the supply of new Mk-1A fighter jets, saying he had "no confidence" in the plane maker.

HAL chief DK Sunil then responded by saying that his company's focus is on delivering the LCA Mk-1A to the IAF at the earliest rather than spending time on countering criticism of the indigenous programme.

The LCA is set to emerge as the cornerstone of IAF's combat power as the world's fourth largest air force is expected to operate around 350 LCAs (Mk-1, Mk-1A and Mk-2 variants) in the coming decades.

The Mk-1A, a 4.5 generation fighter, will come with digital radar warning receivers, external self-protection jammer pods, superior radar, advanced beyond-visual-range (BVR) air-to-air missiles, and significantly improved maintainability.

On June 11, a top IAF officer said precision weapons, such as the ones used by IAF against Pakistan during Operation Sindoor rendered geographical barriers almost meaningless and altered the relationship between distance and vulnerability.

"Today, precision-guided munitions like Scalp and BrahMos (missiles) have rendered geographical barriers almost meaningless as strikes with beyond visual range air-to-air missiles and supersonic air-to-ground missiles have become commonplace," said Air Marshal Ashutosh Dixit, chief of integrated defence staff.

Modern warfare — thanks to technology — has fundamentally altered the relationship between distance and vulnerability, he added. In March, a top government committee recommended a raft of short and long-term measures to boost the capabilities of IAF and pointed out that it was critical to enhance self-reliance in the aerospace sector through increased participation of the private sector to fill critical gaps.

Steps are being taken to boost private participation in the aerospace sector.

Last month, India unveiled its long-awaited plan to fast-track the development of an indigenous fifth-generation stealth fighter, or the advanced medium combat aircraft (AMCA), announcing that the execution model will be competitive and provide equal opportunities to public and private sector firms to participate in one of the country's most significant military projects.

The approval of the industry partnership model by defence minister Rajnath Singh came at a critical moment as HAL — the sole manufacturer of fighter jets in the country — was till then believed to be the frontrunner for the project.

While the model unlocks new possibilities for the local aerospace industry, including firms such as Tata Advanced Systems Limited, Larsen & Toubro, Adani Defence and Aerospace and the Mahindra Group. HAL continues to remain a strong contender for the project, as earlier reported by HT.

First Nashik-produced LCA Mk-1A set for maiden flight

NEW DELHI: The first light combat aircraft (LCA Mk-1A) built at Hindustan Aeronautics Limited's new production line in Nashik is set to make its maiden flight in mid-July, and the state-owned plane maker is targeting delivery of the first LCA Mk-1A produced in Bengaluru to the Indian Air Force in July-August after a delay of almost 16 months, officials aware of the matter said on Monday.

HAL can build 16 Mk-1As every year in Bengaluru, and the Nashik production line will help it boost production to a total of 24 jets. To be sure, the Bengaluru-produced LCA Mk-1A flew for the first time in March 2024.

"The Nashik production line will roll out four to five Mk-1A fighters this year, followed by eight annually next year onwards. It will help us make up for the delay in deliveries due to factors including US firm GE Aerospace's inability to supply F404- IN20 engines on time and some pending certifications," said one of the officials cited above, asking not to be named.

IAF is concerned about the current pace of the LCA Mk-1A programme because of the possible risks a delay in the induction of new fighters could pose to its combat effectiveness. The air force ordered 83 Mk-1A fighters for ₹48,000 crore in February 2021 and plans to buy 97 more Mk-1As at a cost of around ₹67,000 crore.

The first of the 83 jets on order was to be delivered to the IAF by March 31, 2024. The last of the 83 jets is to be delivered by 2028-29.

"HAL has so far manufactured six LCA Mk-1As in Bengaluru to execute the 83-aircraft order. One of these, equipped with GE's F404-IN20 engine, is expected to be delivered to the IAF in July-August. We have sufficient capacity to offset the delay once the engine supplies stabilise," said a second official, who also asked not to be named.

GE Aerospace delivered the first of 99 F404-IN20 engines to HAL in March. The second engine is expected to be delivered in July, followed by two every month until December, the officials said, adding that deliveries will be accelerated next year onwards.

HAL can build 16 Mk-1As every year in Bengaluru, and the Nashik unit will help it boost production to a total of 24 jets. HT ARCHIVE

The US firm had then explained why the engine supply was delayed and assured HAL that production was being ramped up to execute the Indian order.

In 2004, the F404-IN20 engine was selected for the older LCA Mk-1, which has been inducted by the IAF. By 2016, GE Aerospace had delivered 65 F404-IN20 engines for the Mk-1 aircraft.

With no additional engine orders, the production line for F404-IN20 in the US was shut down. However, when HAL ordered an additional 99 engines in 2021 for the LCA Mk-1A, the US firm began the complex task of restarting the production line, which had been dormant for five years, and re-engaging the engine's global supply chain.

In May, IAF voiced its frustration over the delays in key projects.

The chief of the air staff Air Chief Marshal AP Singh then put the spotlight on the armed forces' agonising wait for new weapons and systems, saying he could not recall a single instance of a project being executed on time, in what was seen as a wake-up call for the country's defence production sector. "Timelines are a big issue," Singh said at the CII Annual Business Summit 2025. The air force is grappling with a shortage of fighter jets and operates around 30 fighter squadrons compared to an authorised 42.

The armed forces have so far not called "the black sheep" out, but their "restraint" should not be stretched to a breaking point, Singh said, issuing a veiled warning to defence public sector units including HAL and the Defence Research and Development Organisation among others.

Singh has often publicly flagged concerns about a worrying erosion of IAF's capabilities and called for urgent measures to fix it. In February, he questioned the ability of HAL to meet the air force's critical requirements in the backdrop of the lingering delay in the supply of new Mk-1A fighter jets, saying he had "no confidence" in the plane maker.

HAL chief DK Sunil then responded by saying that his company's focus is on delivering the LCA Mk-1A to the IAF at the earliest rather than spending time on countering criticism of the indigenous programme.

Indian trucks take hydrogen highway to future

SHINE JACOB & SOHINI DAS
Chennai/Mumbai, 16 June

From the industrial sprawl of Reliance Industries' Jamnagar refinery to the frost-bitten heights of Leh and the traffic-choked avenues of New Delhi, a quiet shift is underway in India's commercial vehicle (CV) sector. Hydrogen-powered trucks and buses — once a speculative future — are now rolling out onto the country's roads, driven by auto giants like Ashok Leyland and Tata Motors. Others are not far behind.

While many of these efforts are aligned with the government's National Green Hydrogen Mission, original equipment manufacturers (OEMs) are also shaping their own road maps to remain future-ready. Ashok Leyland, for instance, made headlines in 2023 when it unveiled the country's first hydrogen internal combustion engine (H2-ICE) truck, developed in collaboration with Reliance Industries Ltd (RIL).

ASHOK LEYLAND HAS PARTNERED NTPC GREEN TO DEPLOY HYDROGEN FUEL CELL BUSES IN KEY LOCATIONS, INCLUDING DELHI AND LADAKH

Since then, over 20 of these heavy-duty vehicles have clocked nearly 250,000 kilometres, and have rivalled the efficiency of traditional ICE vehicles.

The firm has partnered NTPC Green to deploy hydrogen fuel cell buses in key locations, including Delhi and Ladakh.

"Among the alternative fuels, the ultimate destination of the CV market is going to be hydrogen. However, it needs the cost structure to be right," Sanjeev Kumar, president and head of the medium and heavy commercial vehicle division at Ashok Leyland, told Business Standard. "As an organisation, we are ready with technology; it is only a question of when and how, as the cost of hydrogen continues to be very high. Recently, we have also delivered one 55-tonne fuel cell vehicle to Adani (group) for its mining application in Chhattisgarh."

Tata Motors, too, is carrying out trials of hydrogen-powered CVs. Since March, the firm has been testing two trucks — one powered by H2-ICE, the other by hydrogen fuel cell — across a 24-month pilot programme. A total of 16 hydrogen-powered vehicles, with varying payloads and configurations, will ply on some of India's busiest freight routes in Mumbai, Pune, Delhi-NCR, Surat, Vadodara, Jamshedpur, and Kalinganagar.

"We've also started shipping our first hydrogen trucks, which are now going to ply on specific lanes," P B Balaji, group chief financial officer at Tata Motors, said during a recent post-earnings call.

The pilot, undertaken in partnership with Indian Oil Corporation, aims to gather on-ground data — both to finetune the vehicles and to map out hydrogen availability along key transport routes.

Govt's pilot projects to put 37 hydrogen-powered vehicles on the road

At the Bharat Mobility Global Expo earlier this year, Tata Motors Executive Director Girish Wagh signalled that the company was targeting a commercial launch window within the next 12 to 24 months. The company did not wish to share further updates at the moment.

The momentum isn't limited to Indian firms. Daimler Truck, one of the world's leading CV manufacturers, is preparing to enter the Indian hydrogen race. "On the path towards decarbonising transport, Daimler Truck is entering the next development phase of its fuel cell trucks," said Pradeep Kumar T, president of product engineering and chief technology officer, Daimler India Commercial Vehicles.

Following extensive testing, both on tracks and public roads, Daimler's Mercedes-Benz GenH2 trucks are now approaching the customer deployment phase. "We are currently evaluating customer readiness, infrastructure availability, and local operating conditions to ensure that when our hydrogen trucks enter Indian roads, it will be with full commitment to the quality, safety and reliability that define Daimler Truck worldwide," he added.

The central government, too, is ramping up its hydrogen play. Through the Ministry of New and Renewable Energy, five pilot projects have been allocated to a group of private players — Tata Motors, RIL, NTPC, Ashok Leyland, Hindustan Petroleum Corporation Ltd, Bharat Petroleum Corporation Ltd, and Indian Oil Corporation Ltd. Together, these projects will put 37 hydrogen-powered vehicles (a mix of buses and trucks) on the road, supported by nine hydrogen-refuelling stations.

The vehicles include 15 powered by hydrogen fuel cells and 22 by hydrogen ICEs. The trials will take place on 10 routes across the country — from Delhi to Thiruvananthapuram. Launched in January 2023, the National Green Hydrogen Mission has an allocated budget of ₹19,744 crore through to the end of the decade.

It is the centrepiece of India's push towards becoming aatmanirbhar (self-reliant) in clean energy and serving as an inspiration for the global clean energy transition.

Realty firms eye revenue upside, portfolio diversification from data centre boom

PRACHI PISAL
Mumbai, 16 June

Data centres are increasingly becoming a key part of the real estate landscape, as reality firms — with rich expertise in land acquisition, construction and dealing with government approvals — are seeing them as opportunities to build long-term assets with continuous revenue flow.

Anant Raj, Lodha, L&T Realty, DLF, Panchshil Realty, Rustomjee, Hiranandani Group, Mindspace Reit and many more realty firms are seeing data centres as "future-proof assets" with long-term returns.

While some have been in the segment that is promising nearly 20 per cent returns on investment, more players are getting into this space as they diversify their portfolios amid a sharp upside in demand for data centres, stemming largely from global capacity centres and industry's quickened AI adoption.

"While our core strength lies in real estate development, we see data centres not only as a complementary extension of our capabilities but also as a transformative business opportunity aligned with the country's accelerating digital evolution," said Amit Sarin, managing director, Anant Raj.

Sarin's firm is targeting the development of 307 Mw of capacity across its three campuses, with an investment commitment of over ₹10,000 crore over the next four-five years.

The industry experts believe that the developers are leveraging their expertise in land acquisition, construction, dealing with government approvals, and maintaining tenant relationships.

"Real estate developers with experience in developing commercial buildings see a natural synergy for skills such as land acquisition, obtaining government permits, construction and development, and sourcing infrastructure such as fibre and power (including green power). Further, with their vast tenant relationships, they are able to tap into these networks to address such companies' data centres needs through diversification," said Devi Shankar, executive director, industrial, logistics & data centres, Anarock Capital.

According to Colliers India, India's data centres capacity as of April 2025 is about 1,263 Mw with 15.9 million square feet (msf) of real estate engaged.

India's data centre capacity is set to cross 4,500 Mw by 2030, as $20-25 billion of future investments are likely to materialise, with a real estate footprint of 55 msf.

"With the rise of AI and cloud adoption, especially by global tech firms, data centres are becoming a key part of the real estate landscape," said Ramesh Nair, CEO and MD, Mindspace Reit— the only Indian Reit with a data centre portfolio.

"The post-Covid shift to hybrid work, alongside the boom in edtech, e-commerce, and digital banking, has fuelled a surge in data consumption and storage needs. In response, major domestic and international players are investing heavily in building both hyper-scale and edge data centres across the country," Shabala Shinde, partner and real estate industry leader, Grant Thornton Bharat, said.

The developers view DCs as assets that can give stable and long-term returns amid increasing usage of data, better 5G penetration, and data storage requirements.

Mumbai-based developer Niranjan Hiranandani, managing director, Hiranandani Group, said, "The rationale behind this move is multifaceted: we view data centres as future-proof assets offering stable, long-term returns, supported by the exponential rise in data consumption, accelerated adoption of cloud services, and deepening digital penetration."

Hiranandani noted that while it is a capex-heavy business, the returns are both feasible and favourable.

2 Dreamliners, another plane return mid-flight

NEW DELHI: Airlines are reacting with an abundance of caution to alerts of technical snags due to increased scrutiny after the crash of an Air India Boeing Dreamliner last week in Ahmedabad that killed 241 of 242 on board.

An Air India 787-8, the same type of Boeing aircraft that crashed, returned to Hong Kong on Monday within an hour of take-off after the pilot suspected a technical snag. The flight AI-315 that was headed to Delhi had taken off with a delay.

The airline said in a statement that the flight landed safely in Hong Kong and all passengers disembarked. An inspection of the aircraft is underway, it added.

PLANES RETURN

Air India did not respond to requests for comment on the revised flight schedule.

Another Dreamliner faced a technical issue on Sunday after taking off from London's Heathrow Airport. The British Airways flight headed for Chennai returned to London, after circling over the Strait of Dover several times, before returning to Heathrow Airport, Flightradar24 showed.

"The flight landed safely with crew and customers disembarking as they normally would, and our teams are working hard to get their journeys back on track as soon as possible," British Airways said.

The Boeing 787 Dreamliner had taken off from London after a 36-minute delay .

Another Boeing aircraft, a 737 MAX, was hit by a technical snag en route to Ranchi from Delhi, on Monday, said officials.

These diversions come amid increasing scrutiny of Dreamliners after the Ahmedabad crash marked the first fatal crash of this line of aircraft. India's aviation regulator ordered enhanced safety checks of all Dreamliners in Air India's fleet; 22 out of 33 had been examined as of Monday, Air India said.

Meanwhile, the possible reasons for the 787 crash is the subject of a multi-agency probe. India's Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau is the lead agency for the investigation. Teams from the US National Transportation Safety Board and UK's Civil Aviation Authority (CAA) as well as from Boeing and engine manufacturer GE have also reached Ahmedabad.

A Reuters report said the head of Boeing Commercial Airplanes, Stephanie Pope, met the chairman of Air India N Chandrasekaran at the Indian company's headquarters in New Delhi on Monday. Boeing, in a statement to Reuters, declined to comment on Pope's visit and meeting with Air India but said it is "focused on supporting the investigation" and its customer.

India's NSG examined the crash site, a medical college near the airport, and found no traces of explosives, HT reported on Saturday.

Meanwhile, airlines and airport operators are leaving nothing to chance.

A Hyderabad-bound Lufthansa flight from Germany's Frankfurt airport was forced to turn back after a bomb threat.

Flight LH752, also a Boeing 787 Dreamliner, took off from Germany around 14:14 pm (local time) on Sunday and was scheduled to land at Hyderabad's Rajiv Gandhi International Airport in the early hours of Monday.

Lufthansa issued a statement, saying, "Out of an abundance of caution, Lufthansa flight LH752 from Frankfurt to Hyderabad returned to its point of departure after authorities were made aware of a bomb threat posted on social media."

"The safety of our passengers and crew is Lufthansa's highest priority. Affected passengers were provided with accommodation in Frankfurt and will be continuing their journey to Hyderabad today," it added.

Another alarm was triggered on Sunday after smoke was detected from the wheels of a Saudia Airlines flight from Jeddah carrying 242 Haj pilgrims that was landing at Lucknow airport.

The plane was evacuated and the fire put out before the aircraft suffered any damage, people familiar with the matter told PTI.

DNA profiling may end today, kin await results

AHMEDABAD: The painstaking process of DNA profiling of all the victims of the Air India Dreamliner crash is expected to finish by Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning, a top doctor said on Monday, potentially exacerbating the wait of scores of relatives who continue to camp in Ahmedabad.

A group of 54 experts across Forensic Science Laboratories in Gandhinagar, Ahmedabad, Vadodara, Surat, and Rajkot are working round-the-clock to carry out profiling and matching tests. But there is still no final word on the official toll on what is India's worst single-aircraft tragedy that killed all but one of the 242 on board, and at least 30 in the hostel building the AI-171 jet rammed into, or in the neighbourhood.

Dr Rakesh Joshi, superintendent of Ahmedabad Civil Hospital, said that 119 DNA samples have matched with the victims of the crash. Using these, 76 bodies have been handed over to families. Another eight bodies, which didn't require DNA sampling, were returned on Friday.

At least 14 more bodies will be returned by Tuesday morning.

"The DNA profiling all the victims will be completed by either Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning," Joshi

said. "We are trying our best to finish this process as soon as possible."

One of the people identified by DNA profiling was former chief minister Vijay Rupani, whose final rites were conducted in Rajkot on Monday.

The Air India Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner from Ahmedabad to London Gatwick crashed 33 seconds after taking off on Thursday afternoon and rammed into the medical college hostel, marking the worst air tragedy in the country in three decades.

Thick plumes of black smoke billowed from the debris of AI-171 at the crash site roughly 3km from the Ahmedabad airport premises.

The aircraft – which carried almost a full load of 125,000 litres of fuel – entered a slow descent shortly after taking off at 1.38pm, with its landing gear still extended before exploding into a huge fireball upon impact. The twin-engine plane had reached an altitude of 625 feet (190.5 meters) at a speed of 174 knots, according to data from Flightradar24.

Since Thursday, scores of relatives have trooped into Ahmedabad, their wait turning from hours into days as authorities struggled to identify charred bodies and recover samples.

At Dr Pratik Joshi's home in Ahmedabad, for example, 50-60 relatives from Rajasthan's Banswara are anxiously awaiting DNA confirmation to claim the remains of Pratik, 41, his wife Dr Komi Vyas, and their children — Miraya, 8, and twins Nakul and Pradyut, 5.

"We are caught in a nightmare, unable to sleep or stay awake," said Anil Vyas, Komi's father. "They've confirmed Pratik' identity, but we're still waiting for the others. Nothing is in our hands...Hospital authorities have promised answers by tomorrow. The wait gets heavier with time," he told HT.

Dr Pratik Joshi, a 41-year-old radiologist, was relocating his family from India to London for a new chapter. The family had captured their joy in a selfie on board, moments before the crash.

Other families grew more impatient.

"They told us 72 hours. It has been four days now. We haven't got a call from the hospital authorities yet. I don't know when I will get to see the body of my brother and his family members so we can lay them to rest," said Imtiyaz Ali, whose brother Javed Ali, sister-in-law Mariyam, and their children Aman Ali and Zayn Ali were killed in the crash.

`Javed is of Indian origin and Mariyam is of Pakistani origin. "The doctors explained to me that through DNA matching of my blood sample, they can confirm the DNA sample of my brother Javed. Then through his DNA, they can confirm the DNA samples of his two children," Imtiyaz said. Finally, the confirmed samples of the two children would be used to identify Mariyam.

Dr Joshi urged the grief-stricken kin of the victims to not panic, but acknowledged that complaints were mounting. "Some are complaining that the results have not come even after 72 hours. I appeal to them not to panic because this is a very important process with legal implications. We will call them as soon as results arrive," he said.

He underlined that delays were on various accounts.

"Two foreign nationals will arrive on Tuesday for DNA testing, ...11 families who have lost multiple relatives in crash have received one body but are still awaiting the release of others...18 other families, whose loved ones' DNA has been matched, have yet to inform authorities when they will claim the remains for final rites," he said.

Rohit Patel from Nadiad shared that hospital authorities confirmed a DNA match for his brother Anil Patel's daughter-in-law, Puja Patel, but added that he was still awaiting results for his relative Harshit Patel. "We're heartbroken and unsure what to do next. We've asked them to release both bodies together so we can perform their final rites," he said.

Doctors cautioned that the nature of the remains – many of the bodies are charred due to the intense heat of the fire that accompanied the crash – is making extraction of viable DNA challenging. A doctor from Ahmedabad's Civil Hospital told HT that often samples of multiple relatives needed to strengthen statistical certainty, especially when the DNA is degraded. "We may need to test several relatives—parents, siblings, children—and if the body is dismembered, all recovered parts are tested to confirm they belong to the same individual before release," the doctor said, requesting anonymity.

Dr Saumil P Merchant, professor and head of forensic medicine at Narendra Modi Medical College, said that under normal conditions, a DNA report takes about three months due to the stepwise nature of profiling: sample cleaning, DNA isolation, quality assessment, amplification, sequencing, and matching.

"In this case, the timeline has been compressed to just 72 hours by adopting a 24x7 operational system involving multiple forensic labs, including the Forensic Science Laboratory (FSL) in Gandhinagar—one of India's largest— that can process around 130 samples at once," Merchant told HT.

NEW DELHI: A high-level government panel led by the Union home secretary Govind Mohan met for the first time on Monday, deciding to study the country's response to air crashes in the past, as it works to prepare a standard operating procedure to respond to such accidents, officials said.

The high- level multi-disciplinary committee, formed and announced by the government on Friday, also focused on improving safety in order to avoid accidents in the future. The committee was set up after an Air India Boeing 787 crashed shortly after take-off from Ahmedabad airport on Thursday, killing 241 of the 242 on board and at least 30 in the buildings at the crash site.

"The committee revisited previous accidents in India or involved an Indian registered aircraft," one of the officials said. "Reports of all the previous accidents were analysed," the official added.

Officials said that the lead probe agency, India's Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB), with the US National Transport Safety Board (NTSB), and a team from the aircraft's manufacturer Boeing from Seattle that reached Ahmedabad on Sunday, were scheduled to extract the plane's flight data recorder by Tuesday. A Press Information Bureau release on Sunday night said the US NTSB is conducting a parallel probe under international protocols, as the aircraft is American-made.

"The committee is not going to probe the technical aspect of the accident but look into the procedures that were followed to handle it and if there is a change required in the approach towards handling accidents in the country," the official quoted above said. "Hence they discussed the accident and the way it was handled," he added.

The meeting began at 2.15pm on Monday and went on for around two hours. "While the secretary of civil aviation along with other civil aviation ministry officials, attended the meeting in person, local officials from Ahmedabad and other aviation officials investigating the Thursday crash participated virtually," a second official said.

"This was an introductory meeting and it touched upon various aspects not only including the AI 171 crash but also the response to the crash, the update on the situation at the crash site and also the need to come up with an SOP to be followed during such times," a third person said, requesting anonymity.

Officials added issues such as the time it took for local agencies to respond to the crash site at Ahmedabad were also discussed. The committee includes secretary of civil aviation SK Sinha, representatives from the Gujarat home department, the state disaster response authority, the police commissioner of Ahmedabad, the director general (DG), inspection and safety of the Indian Air Force, the DG of Bureau of Civil Aviation Security, the DG of the Directorate General of Civil Aviation, the special director of Intelligence Bureau and the director of the Directorate of Forensic Science Services.

The civil aviation ministry did not comment on the discussions held in the meeting.

The government had announced the formation of this committee on Friday to not only examine the causes leading to the crash but also to analyse the existing guidelines issued to prevent and handle such occurrences, and suggest comprehensive guidelines for dealing with such situations in the future.

Tata Sons and Air India Chairman N Chandrasekaran on Monday urged Air India employees to stay on course in the wake of the airline's plane crash in Ahmedabad last week, terming the accident the most "heartbreaking" crisis of his career, according to sources.

Addressing close to 700 employees and the leadership team across the Air India headquarters and Air India Training Academy in Gurugram, Chandrasekaran said the employees need to show resilience and use this incident as an act of force to build a "safer airline".

"We have to make sure that we stay the course. Be more determined in everything we do. We need to wait for the investigation to find out," the sources quoted Chandrasekaran as saying.

"I've seen a reasonable number of crises in my career, but this is the most heartbreaking one which I never thought I would see," Chandrasekaran said, as per the sources.

Over 270 people were killed on June 12 when a London-bound Air India -- a Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner -- carrying 242 passengers and crew crashed into a medical college complex in Ahmedabad less than a minute after takeoff.

The aircraft took off at 1:39 pm and within a few seconds, after reaching a height of about 650 feet, it started sinking. At 1:39 pm, the pilot informed Ahmedabad ATC that it was a May Day, a code word used for full emergency.When the ATC tried to contact Air India aircraft, it did not receive any response. Exactly one minute later, the plane crashed in Meghaninagar, about 2 km from the airport, Civil Aviation Secretary Samir Kumar Sinha had informed during a media briefing on Saturday.

According to him, the aircraft started losing its height after reaching 650 feet.

Air Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB), which comes under the Civil Aviation Ministry, is probing the accident.On Sunday, Civil Aviation Minister K Rammohan Naidu announced the setting up of a panel to investigate the causes of the accident.

AHMEDABAD: Former Gujarat chief minister Vijay Rupani was accorded a state funeral on Monday, four days after the 68-year-old Bharatiya Janata Party leader died in an Air India plane crash along with 270 other people, with hundreds of people, including senior politicians, paying floral tributes to him.

Union home minister Amit Shah, Gujarat governor Acharya Devvrat, chief minister Bhupendra Patel, Union Jal Shakti Minister and Gujarat BJP president CR Paatil, and other leaders offered floral tributes to Rupani at his residence.

Amid outpouring of emotions and slogan shouting, people stood on both sides of the road as Rupani's mortal remains were brought from the airport to his residence in Rajkot, a journey stretching to several kilometres, in a flower-bedecked vehicle before being taken for last rites.

Before the former CM's mortal remains, flown to Rajkot from Ahmedabad, reached his residence, people queued up on both sides of the road to pay him their last respects.

The procession started from Greenland Crossroads on the outskirts of Rajkot and reached the residence of the late BJP leader.

Rupani's supporters showered flower petals and raised the slogan, "Vijaybhai tum amar ho (Vijaybhai is immortal)," as the procession winded its way to his home before being taken to crematorium for last rites.

Earlier in the day, Rupani's mortal remains were handed over to his family members in Ahmedabad with guard of honour in the presence of CM Patel. The body was brought to Rajkot on a special plane.

Former CM Vijay Rupani's family expressed profound grief over the loss. Extending their condolences to all those affected by the tragic incident, his son Rushabh said, "This is a sad time not just for us, but for 270 families too", while expressing gratitude to those who supported them during mourning period.

Rushabh reflected on his father's political legacy, noting that Rupani had touched countless lives in his five-decade-long public life.

He added, "My father touched many lives during the 50-55 years of his political life. Today, all those people are standing by us. Many party workers from Punjab are also coming here to express their condolences."

Rupani was among the 241 who died when the London-bound Air India Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner crashed shortly after takeoff, colliding with a doctor's hostel complex near Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport on June 12.

In Ahmedabad, two more funerals were held at the Thaltej crematorium. Dilip Mahendra Patel and his wife Meena Patel, residents of the city's Himmatlal Park, were cremated on Monday.

"They were headed to London to meet their daughter," said a family friend after paying the last respects at their home.

AHMEDABAD: Former Gujarat chief minister Vijay Rupani was accorded a state funeral on Monday, four days after the 68-year-old Bharatiya Janata Party leader died in an Air India plane crash along with 270 other people, with hundreds of people, including senior politicians, paying floral tributes to him.

Union home minister Amit Shah, Gujarat governor Acharya Devvrat, chief minister Bhupendra Patel, Union Jal Shakti Minister and Gujarat BJP president CR Paatil, and other leaders offered floral tributes to Rupani at his residence.

Amid outpouring of emotions and slogan shouting, people stood on both sides of the road as Rupani's mortal remains were brought from the airport to his residence in Rajkot, a journey stretching to several kilometres, in a flower-bedecked vehicle before being taken for last rites.

Before the former CM's mortal remains, flown to Rajkot from Ahmedabad, reached his residence, people queued up on both sides of the road to pay him their last respects.

The procession started from Greenland Crossroads on the outskirts of Rajkot and reached the residence of the late BJP leader.

Rupani's supporters showered flower petals and raised the slogan, "Vijaybhai tum amar ho (Vijaybhai is immortal)," as the procession winded its way to his home before being taken to crematorium for last rites.

Earlier in the day, Rupani's mortal remains were handed over to his family members in Ahmedabad with guard of honour in the presence of CM Patel. The body was brought to Rajkot on a special plane.

Former CM Vijay Rupani's family expressed profound grief over the loss. Extending their condolences to all those affected by the tragic incident, his son Rushabh said, "This is a sad time not just for us, but for 270 families too", while expressing gratitude to those who supported them during mourning period.

Rushabh reflected on his father's political legacy, noting that Rupani had touched countless lives in his five-decade-long public life.

He added, "My father touched many lives during the 50-55 years of his political life. Today, all those people are standing by us. Many party workers from Punjab are also coming here to express their condolences."

Rupani was among the 241 who died when the London-bound Air India Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner crashed shortly after takeoff, colliding with a doctor's hostel complex near Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport on June 12.

In Ahmedabad, two more funerals were held at the Thaltej crematorium. Dilip Mahendra Patel and his wife Meena Patel, residents of the city's Himmatlal Park, were cremated on Monday.

"They were headed to London to meet their daughter," said a family friend after paying the last respects at their home.

This is time to be brave: Chandra to A-I staffers

DEV CHATTERJEE
Mumbai, 16 June

N Chandrasekaran (pictured), chairman of Air India (A-I) and Tata Sons, on Monday offered a message of solidarity and resolve in the wake of last week's fatal crash in Ahmedabad while addressing 700-odd employees at the airline's headquarters in Gurugram.

"I felt I had to be here and meet as many of you as possible," Chandrasekaran told the assembled staff, many of whom were part of the emergency response teams activated following the tragedy. Chandra also visited the Emergency Command Centre, the Integrated Operations Control Centre, and the Customer Service and Support to show his support for A-I.

Recalling his visit to the crash site near Ahmedabad airport, Chandra said: "It was not easy at all. I've seen a fair share of crises in my career, but nothing as heartbreaking as this. I never imagined I would face something like this."

He also acknowledged that no words or actions could bring back the 241 lives lost in the crash, but stressed the company's commitment to standing by the families affected. "We consider everyone who lost someone in this tragedy as part of our family — now and forever," he added.

Addressing the emotional toll on employees, the chairman said: "Criticism is inevitable, especially for those who care deeply and work tirelessly to build a great airline. But I want you to be strong. When you feel distraught, remember one word: determination."

"We are going to get through this. We need to show resilience. We need to use this incident as an act of force to build a safer airline," Chandra said and urged employees to use the tragedy as a catalyst to build a stronger company.

Chandrasekaran emphasised the complexity of aviation operations, saying: "It's a business with multiple redundancies, checks, certifications — systems that have evolved over decades. Yet incidents like this happen. We have to wait for the investigation to understand why."

He concluded with a call for calm and collective strength: "This is the time to be brave. To be resolute. Our job is to get A-I to where it truly belongs — the place this country and every passenger who puts their trust in us deserves."

Unsung heroes of Ahmedabad crash: FSL team cracks IDs in record 72 hrs

22 women among 54 DNA experts race against time, help families claim loved ones with dignity

GANDHINAGAR: In the aftermath of the Air India AI-171 crash in Ahmedabad, a silent force worked behind the scenes with unwavering commitment — Gujarat's Forensic Science Laboratory (FSL) team.

Under the direction of Chief Minister Bhupendra Patel, 54 DNA experts, including 22 women, were deployed from across the state to Gandhinagar. They worked nonstop for four days to identify the deceased using advanced DNA profiling techniques, completing a task that once took 10 days in under 72 hours.

Many of the experts made deep personal sacrifices. One scientist, whose mother required urgent heart surgery, continued work without pause. Others, including young mothers of toddlers, stayed on site, driven by a sense of duty and empathy.

"This was not just another case. It was a mission to give grieving families some closure," said Director of Forensic Science HP Sanghvi.

DNA samples from body parts recovered at the crash site were matched with those from family members at Civil Hospital, Ahmedabad. The operation allowed authorities to hand over mortal remains to families promptly and respectfully.

Minister of State for Home Harsh Sanghavi visited the lab, personally lauding the team's efforts. The FSL's swift action has helped bring a measure of peace to dozens of shattered families, making them the invisible lifeline in one of Gujarat's darkest hours.

When the sky falls

THE MODERN DAY MONK
DEEPAM CHATTERJEE

There are days when the ground beneath your feet feels steady—and yet, without warning, the sky opens.

In Ahmedabad, on what seemed like an ordinary afternoon, a tragedy unfolded that no one could have imagined. Air India Flight AI171, a Dreamliner bound for London, carrying 242 souls, fell from the sky. Pilots, cabin crew, parents, students, business travellers—all boarded the aircraft expecting nothing more than a long flight and safe arrival. They never saw the end coming.

The plane crashed into the student hostel of a medical institute. Over 50 young doctors, gathered in the mess hall for lunch, were caught completely unaware. In seconds, fire and steel tore through the building. There was no time to run. There was no warning. It was, as one survivor said, 'like the sky fell without sound.'

All but one passenger perished in the crash. How do we begin to process something like this?

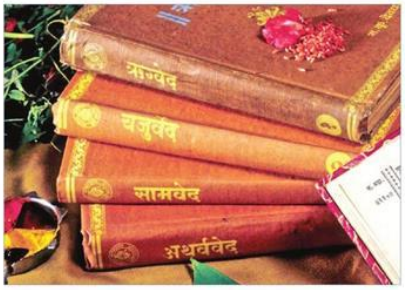
The Vedas speak of Rta—the cosmic order. A rhythm of the universe that binds every breath, every action. When that rhythm is disturbed, when the dance is broken, we are left in the dust of questions. Was this accident pure mechanical failure? A lapse of judgment? Or was it something deeper—a karmic knot being untied, witnessed by a nation?

In The Mahabharata, the yaksha of the lake asks Yudhishthira, 'What is the greatest wonder?' Yudhishthira replies, 'Day after day, countless beings die. And yet, the living behave as though they are immortal.'

There's a karmic weight to collective death. It makes us numb. It interrupts our schedules, our scrolling, our ambitions, and throws us into the arms of impermanence. This is not about fear—it is about awareness. Are we awake to the life we're living?

Boeing faces another crisis of confidence. Air India, under Tata's stewardship, must confront uncomfortable truths. But beyond the press conferences and technical assessments lies a subtler truth: karma doesn't always come knocking. Sometimes it breaks down the door.

Many young lives were lost in a place meant to nurture healing. A hospital hostel became a crematorium. And still, some lived. A few doctors were late to lunch. A power outage delayed others. Small, seemingly trivial moments that now divide life and death.



And what of the lone survivor? What story has the universe left unwritten through him?

In a bitter twist, among the victims on the ground was the son of a local street vendor who had sold snacks outside the medical institute for years.

Bhagavad Gita reminds us: 'The soul is eternal. It is not born, nor does it die. It merely passes through this life.' But in that passage, what we do, how we live, how we serve—this is what defines our debt, our dharma.

This tragedy is not just an aviation disaster. It is a karmic unfolding. And it asks of us all—not just why they died, but why we are still alive.

If today was your last day, would you be content with how you showed up in the world?

Ahmedabad police created a miracle green corridor in one hour to enable rescue operations as the Air India flight burned at 1000°C

SHIRISH VAKTANIA AND NIMESH DAVE
mailbag@mid-day.com

IN the Air India AI-171 flight crash incident, Ahmedabad police played a pivotal role by creating a green corridor within an hour to enable swift rescue operations. The police also collaborated with radio jockeys and used social media to issue traffic advisories and prevent civilian entry on the designated rescue routes, ensuring smooth passage for ambulances, fire brigades, and SDRF/NDRF teams. A total of 600 police personnel were deployed to establish a two-layered green corridor in the first critical hour.

Ahmedabad Additional Commissioner of Police (Special Branch), Vidhi Chaudhary, explained to mid-day how the team responded swiftly to the emergency. Chaudhary also confirmed that the pilots attempted an emergency landing in a green, open area to minimise casualties.

The Ahmedabad police control room received an alert about a missing aircraft at 1.43 pm on June 12. Moments later, a massive blast and fire confirmed the crash. The Meghani Nagar police team reached the site at 1.48 pm, with DCP (Crime) IPS Ajit Rajian of the Cyber Crime branch among the first responders.

"After receiving the crash alert, our priority was to immediately create a green corridor with two security layers covering a one-kilometre radius. Under the guidance of Commissioner of Police Gyanendra Singh Malik, over 600 officers — including DCPs, ACPs, senior PIs, constables, and traffic police — were deployed. We worked with the traffic department to clear all congestion," Chaudhary said.

"We barricaded the zone and collaborated with local radio jockeys to urge citizens to avoid the area. Our cyber team also used social media for real-time traffic advisories," she added.

Two mini helpline centres were established — one at the Civil Hospital and another at the crash site. An emergency helpline number was activated for families, which received 129 distress calls, mostly from people searching for loved ones. Callers were directed to the Civil Hospital, Ahmedabad.

The crash site, engulfed in flames, recorded temperatures close to 1000°C. "It was nearly impossible to enter, but within the first hour, we had deployed 10 police inspectors and 45 officers on-site. Dedicated corridors were also created for FSL (Forensic Science Laboratory) teams — to Gandhinagar for DNA samples from the deceased, and to Ahmedabad Civil Hospital for samples from family members," Chaudhary explained.

Meanwhile, the Cyber Crime Department worked to contain misinformation. Fake posts falsely claiming a terror attack were circulating online, but the cyber police acted quickly to debunk and halt the spread.

Chaudhary concluded, "Partial autopsies were conducted under the NDMA Act. The Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB) is conducting the main investigation. The flight's black box has been recovered and is in their custody."

THE four BJ Medical College hostel buildings affected by the Air India AI-171 plane crash were finally vacated by the Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation on Monday. Around 150 doctors and students were shifted to alternative hostels along with their belongings.

Shruti Parikh, a second-year MBBS student who is also practising at Civil Hospital, was seen moving her bags to another hostel on Monday.

Speaking with mid-day, Parikh said, "A total of 150 students and doctors were residing in this hostel. I am currently practising at Civil Hospital, Ahmedabad. We've been provided with new facilities after our hostel was completely burnt down. When the incident happened, I was at the hospital. All of us doctors and students are still in shock after this tragedy."

The NDRF and SDRF teams are still on site, and the search operation remains ongoing. On Monday morning, more human body parts were recovered and sent to the Civil Hospital for DNA testing. Personnel lifting the aircraft wreckage also found the body of an air hostess and two severed legs.

AHMEDABAD: The mortal remains of Saineeta Chakravarti, one of the 10 cabin crew members aboard the ill-fated Air India Flight AI-171, were handed over to her family by the Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation in the early hours of Monday. The identity of Chakravarti, a Juhu Koliwada resident, was confirmed the previous night with the help of DNA testing.

A police sub-inspector was tasked with accompanying the family to ensure the safe transport of the remains to Mumbai. Air India also arranged a special flight for this purpose.

In the aftermath of the Ahmedabad plane crash, DNA samples of 92 deceased individuals have been matched so far, and 47 bodies have been handed over to their respective families.

According to Dr Rajnish Patel, professor in the department of surgery at Ahmedabad Civil Hospital, eight more bodies will soon be handed over. The 47 bodies returned so far include victims from the districts of Kheda, Ahmedabad, Botad, Mehsana, Bharuch, Aravalli, Vadodara, Junagadh, Anand, Mahisagar, Gandhinagar and Bhavnagar in Gujarat.

The forensic team

For the past four days, the Forensic Science Laboratory (FSL) team has been working tirelessly on DNA profiling to quickly establish the identities of the deceased. The team achieved a record-breaking feat by identifying victims in less than 72 hours.

Out of the 54-member DNA specialist team, 22 are women, all of whom have been dedicatedly engaged in the complex task of DNA profiling.

Streamlined process

Acting as per the directives from the state government, the administration and the health department have accelerated the process of identifying the deceased and handing over their remains to their families. The highly sensitive task of DNA sample matching is being carried out with the utmost seriousness and efficiency, according to officials.

To streamline this process, a comprehensive system has been established by the state health department and civil hospital administration, which includes everything from contacting the relatives to the actual handover of the bodies.

Arvind Vijay, managing director of Gujarat Informatics Limited and nodal officer at Civil Hospital, stated that a verification centre had been set up at Block D2 of the Civil Hospital. Once DNA reports are received, families are verified at this site. Following verification, the post-mortem room is notified to begin preparing the remains for handover.

While this process is underway, families are seated in a designated waiting area where they are supported by a counsellor, a medical team and a public relations officer (PRO). The relatives are thoroughly briefed about the procedure and legal documents that will be provided along with the remains.

Once the post-mortem room completes the necessary steps, the family is escorted by a PRO from Block D2 to receive the remains and legal documents — which include the death certificate, accidental death report, police investigation papers, post-mortem note and forensic report mentioning the DNA match — as well as any personal belongings or ornaments recovered.

A dedicated team also assists in transporting the body to the family's residence.

A special task force has been assigned by the health department and Civil Hospital to manage each case from start to finish. This team includes a health worker, a senior officer, a police official, and a professional counsellor.

The Gujarat government has deployed 192 ambulances and 591 personnel — including doctors, assistants, and drivers — to ensure the smooth and respectful return of mortal remains.

To further assist families, a helpdesk has been set up at Kasauti Bhavan, BJ Medical College, to coordinate with the control room and manage logistical arrangements.

Gujarat mourns former CM

The Gujarat government, meanwhile, accorded a solemn farewell to former Chief Minister Vijay Rupani, honouring his legacy. In the presence of incumbent Chief Minister Bhupendra Patel, the mortal remains of the late leader were accorded a guard of honour in line with official protocol. The remains were then handed over to his family, including his wife and son, with full state honours.

At Civil Hospital, Patel was joined by Health Minister Rushikesh Patel, Minister of State for Home Harsh Sanghavi, Cooperation Minister Jagdish Vishwakarma, Rajya Sabha MP Shri Mayank Nayak, and several political leaders, senior officials, and community representatives, who gathered to pay their respects. On June 12, the state was plunged into mourning following the tragic passing of Shri Vijay Rupani in the plane crash. His final rites will be performed in Rajkot.

AHMEDABAD: You promised me on June 12 that we'd meet in the evening in London — and that evening never came," wrote a grieving daughter in a heart-wrenching letter after losing both her parents in the Air India AI 171 crash. Hiral Adheda, based in London, had been eagerly awaiting the arrival of her parents, Vinaben and Vallabhbhai Adheda, when the plane tragically went down.

Unable to come to terms with the loss, Hiral penned an emotional letter to her late parents and shared it with her sister in Vadodara, India.

The deceased, Vinaben and Vallabhbhai Adheda, were residents of Vadodara. Vallabhbhai was a retired employee of the Gujarat Electricity Board. Hiral, who has been living in London for several years, often feared the day one of her parents would pass away, and who would take care of the other. Fate cruelly answered by taking both.

While Vallabhbhai's body was identified through DNA testing, Vinaben's remains are yet to be confirmed. The couple's three daughters have decided to wait until both bodies are identified so they can bring them home together for the final rites.

In her emotional tribute, Hiral wrote:

To Mummy & Papa,

While most parents are proud of their children, I am extremely proud of my parents. What an incredible life you both lived — truly self-made.

You always said, "We will do everything by ourselves," and you did.

Your biggest worry was always, "What will happen to the other if one of us goes first?" And it seems destiny answered that by taking you both together.

But you promised me on 12th June that we would meet in the evening — and that evening never came.

I wish to have you both as my parents in all my future lives.

Your loving daughter,
Hiral Adheda.

A close relative added, "Last year, Hiral visited India and shared her fears about one parent being left alone. But fate took both of them together. The family is in deep trauma. We will wait and perform the last rites together once Vinaben's body is identified."

While Vallabhbhai's body was identified through DNA testing, Vinaben's remains are yet to be confirmed. The couple's three daughters have decided to wait until both bodies are identified so they can bring them home together for the final rites

PARAMEDIC RECALLS GUIDING LONE SURVIVOR OF AIR INDIA CRASH TO AMBULANCE

'We saw man coming out of gate... didn't know he was a passenger'

BRENDAN DABHI
AHMEDABAD, JUNE 16

LIKE THE students in the BJ Medical College hostel, Satinder Singh Sandhu was having lunch with fellow paramedics at the local GVK-EMRI ambulance office inside the 1,200-bed hospital at Medicity in Ahmedabad on June 12 when he heard a massive explosion.

Running outside, he saw a man coming out of the hostel building's gate as a massive fire raged behind him. This man was 39-year-old Viswashkumar Ramesh, the lone survivor of the London-bound Air India flight that crashed into the hostel building soon after taking off from the Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport in Ahmedabad.

Sandhu took Ramesh's hand and guided him away from the site. A video of this has since been widely shared.

"I asked my team to deploy ambulances immediately while I rushed to the spot. When I got there, I realised this was a major incident. I called my head office and asked them to inform the police and send more ambulances. Meanwhile, five ambulances under my command reached the site," Sandhu said.

The 44-year-old has been

with the GVK-EMRI emergency ambulance service for a decade, and is a supervisor who controls 20 of the 120 ambulances in the city.

"I first saw the watchman of the hostel injured on the road. We picked him up and dispatched him in one of the ambulances. Then, we saw one man coming out of the gate next to the burning hostel building. I approached him, but he suddenly turned around and began walking back to the crash site," Sandhu told The Indian Express, referring to Ramesh.

Sandhu said Ramesh initially resisted attempts to take him away from the site, repeatedly saying that his family member was burning in the fire.

"We thought it must be a family member inside the hostel building. We didn't know at that time that he was a passenger who had come out of the burning aircraft," said Sandhu, adding, "We finally managed to calm him down a little, seat him in one of the ambulances and send him to the hospital. He had injuries on his face, hands and legs. He had burn marks across his body, but he was able to walk with a slight limp."

It was en route to the hospital that Ramesh told paramedics he had been on the aircraft that had just crashed. He said he and his brother were going home to the UK and that he had been seated next to the emergency exit, in seat 11A. However, he did not know how he managed to exit the crashed aircraft.

Sandhu said Ramesh was in a state of shock and confusion after his ordeal. His mind was still fixed on a singular point — saving his younger brother, Ajay, from the burning plane.

Ajay was among the 241 people on board flight AI-171, and several others on the ground, to die in the crash. The Boeing 787 Dreamliner was carrying a total of 242 people.

Ramesh and his brother, who were originally from the Union Territory of Diu, were British nationals settled with their families in Leicester, England.

Sandhu said he and his fleet of ambulances were on the site of the crash by 1.41 pm, just three minutes after the crash that took place at 1.38 pm.

A firefighting team also arrived soon after and started the task of dousing the flames. It was when the heavy soot-laden smoke cleared that paramedics saw charred bodies of men, women and children strewn on the ground. There were also bodies inside the medical college hostel compound.

Sandhu was among the first to rush into the building to try and save anyone stuck in the rubble or stranded by the fire. He said he had no count of how many people his team managed to rescue from the hostel premises and the road in front of it, but estimated that it must have been at least 20-25.

Originally from Thaluh village in Punjab's Rupnagar district, Sandhu has lived in Gujarat since 1992.

AI-171 crash: A wake-up call for urban planning around airports

The Air India AI-171 crash near Ahmedabad airport has left behind more than just wreckage. It has left families devastated, careers cut short, and a city in grief. Amid all that's being said about aircraft performance, weather, and pilot decisions, a quieter but harsher truth is coming to light — this tragedy on the ground (at the medical college hostel) could have been avoided if proper building norms and smarter urban planning around airports had been followed.Past disasters have already shown how densely populated areas near runways can turn aviation accidents into large-scale tragedies. In 2020, Pakistan International Airlines Flight 8303 crashed into Karachi's Model Colony, a crowded residential area just short of the runway, killing 97 people. In 2012, Dana Air Flight 992 fell into a suburb of Lagos, wiping out entire families.

Even in New York, American Airlines Flight 587 crashed over the Belle Harbor neighbourhood in Queens. The tragic crash of Air India flight AI-171, along with the examples above, brings into sharp focus the urgent need for better urban planning - especially within the 5-kilometre radius of major airports. The 5 km radius around airports has long been considered a sensitive zone — not necessarily because buildings within it are illegal or too tall, but because it is a critical safety zone for aircraft during take-off and landing, the most vulnerable phases of flight. Traditionally in India, during British rule, airports (unlike railway stations) were built far away from populated areas. For example, when Delhi's Safdarjung Airport and Palam Airport were built, there were very few settlements nearby — only a few army barracks around Safdarjung (now known as Lodhi Colony) and the old, sparsely populated villages of Mehram Nagar and Palam around Palam Airport. In those days, air crashes were more frequent, and placing airports away from populated areas was a deliberate step to avoid ground casualties. Even today, airports in tier-II towns are located at a fair distance from cities, although the growing urban sprawl is now fast approaching them as well. After independence, as India witnessed a massive surge in population and rapid urbanisation, cities began expanding in all directions. The airports that were once located far from residential and commercial zones gradually found themselves surrounded by growing urban settlements. With the rise in land demand, areas around airports have become highly sought after due to their excellent connectivity and strategic location, significantly pushing up real estate values. This led to high-density development near airport boundaries.

However, this unchecked growth brought with it serious concerns like constructing buildings near active flight paths not just from a flight safety perspective, but also from a security point of view. As a result, managing construction and land use near airports became a critical issue, demanding a careful balance between urban development and the uncompromising need for aviation safety and security.Globally, aviation authorities, including India's DGCA and AAI, have issued detailed zoning maps for every major airport. There is a formal process to apply for height clearance of any structure. All international airports in India follow Obstacle Limitation Surfaces (OLS) — a set of 3D safety rules that make sure aircraft have enough space to climb and descend without danger. These OLS regulations, overseen by the Airports Authority of India (AAI) and DGCA, are not optional. They are strict safety norms. Structures within 5 km of a runway face the toughest height limits.

The hostel where the recent crash caused casualties was most likely within the permitted height as per AAI rules. But what often escapes attention is not just height, but the density of the human population in such areas. Even if buildings technically follow all safety norms, the presence of thousands of people living or working near a runway increases the risk in case of crashes, aborted landings, or engine failure during low-altitude flights. This is what makes the crash of AI-171 even more tragic. This raises a critical and timely question: Is it time to completely rethink how we plan our cities around airports — or even relocate airports themselves? Hyderabad has already done it. The old Begumpet Airport was relocated to Shamshabad, about 24 km south of the city centre, to allow for future expansion and improved safety. With urban sprawl rapidly swallowing earlier remote zones, many airports in cities like Ahmedabad, Mumbai, and Chennai now find themselves trapped amid dense residential, institutional, and commercial structures.

The AI-171 crash should serve as a wake-up call. Not necessarily because rules were violated, but because the current model of reactive urban planning — where development chases growth without long-term thinking — is failing to safeguard lives. If airports are to expand safely along with cities, we may need to reimagine their place on the map.

That means moving older airports beyond city boundaries where possible, enforcing no-build or low-density zones around newer ones, and treating the 5 km airport radius not just as a regulatory guideline, but as a life-saving buffer zone.Urban planning must take into account not just real estate needs, but safety and long-term sustainability. The tragedy of AI-171 is not just a story of an aircraft gone wrong - it's also a story of a city that grew too close to danger.

BJMC anniversary shrouded in grief

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA ■
Ahmedabad

A year ago, the mood was celebratory as the BJ Medical College and Hospital marked its foundation day. On Monday, the scene spelt devastation and despair - families awaiting identification of their kin killed when an Air India plane crashed into the complex, medics who lost their colleagues soldiering on stoically and everywhere the ruins of what once was.

This foundation day, its 146th, will forever stand out for its stark sorrow. The BJMC, one of the oldest medical colleges in India, has been the epicentre of action following the June 12 crash, which killed 241 people on board and 29 on the ground, including five MBBS students.

While families, their faces grim with grief and anxiety, waited for DNA identification so they could claim the bodies of their loved ones, the environs reflected their state of mind.

Thick layers of soot are still deposited on its buildings, damaged as a result of the crash. On June 16 last year, many of its students and alumni had taken to social media to wish their college and alma mater a "happy birthday", but grief and chaotic scenes are what is evident on the campus right now, as survivors and family members struggle to come to terms with the crash.

The London-bound flight AI171 — Boeing Dreamliner 787-8 — crashed moments after taking off from the Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport on Thursday afternoon, and fell onto the campus of the medical college in the Meghaninagar area, before going up in flames.

A total of 99 victims have so far been identified through DNA matching, and 64 bodies, including that of former Gujarat chief minister Vijay Rupani who was on board the ill-fated aircraft, have been handed over to their families, officials said on Monday.

Many medical students and resident doctors had just sat for their meal at the hostel mess when the tail-side portion of the aircraft rammed into it, turning an ordinary lunch hour into a horrific nightmare.

The images of the detached tail portion of the aircraft precariously lodged near the roof of the hostel mess building, pieces of the fuselage scattered on the ground and inside buildings, and piles of charred bodies still haunt many who have been affected by the tragedy.

A day after the crash, Arun Prashant, a Chennai native and second-year MD student at the Byramjee Jeejeebhoy Medical College (BJMC), recalled the horror and how he jumped from the first floor of a hostel building to escape.

"I came to have lunch around 1:30 pm. While having lunch, I heard a loud explosion, and suddenly there was smoke everywhere. I ran downstairs and then jumped from the first floor of the building," Prashant told reporters. "We were around 20-30 people at Atulyam (hostel)... We got to know it was a plane crash only after coming out of the building," he recalled.

Beginning its journey in 1871 as the Ahmedabad Medical School, the institute has been a cornerstone of medical education since its inception.

Initially affiliated to the Ahmedabad Civil Hospital, it began with just 14 students training as hospital assistants.

In 1879, a generous donation of ₹20,000 by Sir Byramjee Jeejeebhoy led to the school being renamed BJ Medical School, according to the institute's official website.

The institution steadily expanded, securing affiliation with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Bombay in 1917 and later with the Bombay University in 1946, earning its status as B J Medical College, "offering L C P S diplomas", the website says.

The college, which currently has several large buildings on its campus, including the main block built after Independence, has a humble origin. A bilingual — English and Gujarati — inscription on an old plaque in the institute reads, "The Byramjee Jeejeebhoy Medical School Ahmedabad, Established 16th June 1879. Like the Sister Institution at Poona, this School takes its Name from the Late Hon'ble Mr Byramjee Jeejeebhoy, CSI, who Contributed a Sum of Rs 20,000 Towards the Construction of the School Building." In the 1950s, the college affiliated its undergraduate and postgraduate courses with the Gujarat University. "Each year, 250 students secure admission through a national entrance examination, receiving world-class training in medical sciences," the BJMC website says.

Postgraduate courses are offered in 24 branches of medicine, with a total intake of 418 students annually, it says.

BJMC alumni have served various medical institutions throughout their journey, and today would have been a day for celebration and exchanging greetings, but for the air crash, one of the worst aviation disasters in recent history. Amid the tragedy, the doctors of this prestigious institution continue to serve the injured, the ailing, and the needy, living up to the pledge they took after graduation. While June 16 is already enshrined as a historic day for this institute, now June 12 too will be etched in the collective consciousness of people associated with the medical college — a day they will wish to forget.

High-level probe panel holds its first meeting

A high-level multi-disciplinary committee, set up by the government to look into the Ahmedabad plane crash, on Monday deliberated on various possible theories that could have led to the country's worst air disaster in decades.

The panel, chaired by Union Home Secretary Govind Mohan, listened to the opinions of various stakeholders about the possible causes of the air crash and deliberated on steps to be taken to check future occurrence of any such accident, sources said. In the first meeting of the panel, the focus of the participants was to analyse the possible causes of the aircrash and how to go about in "formulating Standard Operating Procedures for preventing such occurrences in the future".

Since a separate investigation is also being carried out by the Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau, the panel discussed about the possible causes and lesson to be taken from it, the sources said. PTI

Indian trucks take hydrogen highway to future

SHINE JACOB & SOHINI DAS
Chennai/Mumbai, 16 June

From the industrial sprawl of Reliance Industries' Jamnagar refinery to the frost-bitten heights of Leh and the traffic-choked avenues of New Delhi, a quiet shift is underway in India's commercial vehicle (CV) sector. Hydrogen-powered trucks and buses — once a speculative future — are now rolling out onto the country's roads, driven by auto giants like Ashok Leyland and Tata Motors. Others are not far behind.

While many of these efforts are aligned with the government's National Green Hydrogen Mission, original equipment manufacturers (OEMs) are also shaping their own road maps to remain future-ready. Ashok Leyland, for instance, made headlines in 2023 when it unveiled the country's first hydrogen internal combustion engine (H2-ICE) truck, developed in collaboration with Reliance Industries Ltd (RIL).

ASHOK LEYLAND HAS PARTNERED NTPC GREEN TO DEPLOY HYDROGEN FUEL CELL BUSES IN KEY LOCATIONS, INCLUDING DELHI AND LADAKH

Since then, over 20 of these heavy-duty vehicles have clocked nearly 250,000 kilometres, and have rivalled the efficiency of traditional ICE vehicles.

The firm has partnered NTPC Green to deploy hydrogen fuel cell buses in key locations, including Delhi and Ladakh.

"Among the alternative fuels, the ultimate destination of the CV market is going to be hydrogen. However, it needs the cost structure to be right," Sanjeev Kumar, president and head of the medium and heavy commercial vehicle division at Ashok Leyland, told Business Standard. "As an organisation, we are ready with technology; it is only a question of when and how, as the cost of hydrogen continues to be very high. Recently, we have also delivered one 55-tonne fuel cell vehicle to Adani (group) for its mining application in Chhattisgarh."

Tata Motors, too, is carrying out trials of hydrogen-powered CVs. Since March, the firm has been testing two trucks — one powered by H2-ICE, the other by hydrogen fuel cell — across a 24-month pilot programme. A total of 16 hydrogen-powered vehicles, with varying payloads and configurations, will ply on some of India's busiest freight routes in Mumbai, Pune, Delhi-NCR, Surat, Vadodara, Jamshedpur, and Kalinganagar.

"We've also started shipping our first hydrogen trucks, which are now going to ply on specific lanes," P B Balaji, group chief financial officer at Tata Motors, said during a recent post-earnings call.

The pilot, undertaken in partnership with Indian Oil Corporation, aims to gather on-ground data — both to finetune the vehicles and to map out hydrogen availability along key transport routes.

Govt's pilot projects to put 37 hydrogen-powered vehicles on the road

At the Bharat Mobility Global Expo earlier this year, Tata Motors Executive Director Girish Wagh signalled that the company was targeting a commercial launch window within the next 12 to 24 months. The company did not wish to share further updates at the moment.

The momentum isn't limited to Indian firms. Daimler Truck, one of the world's leading CV manufacturers, is preparing to enter the Indian hydrogen race. "On the path towards decarbonising transport, Daimler Truck is entering the next development phase of its fuel cell trucks," said Pradeep Kumar T, president of product engineering and chief technology officer, Daimler India Commercial Vehicles.

Following extensive testing, both on tracks and public roads, Daimler's Mercedes-Benz GenH2 trucks are now approaching the customer deployment phase. "We are currently evaluating customer readiness, infrastructure availability, and local operating conditions to ensure that when our hydrogen trucks enter Indian roads, it will be with full commitment to the quality, safety and reliability that define Daimler Truck worldwide," he added.

The central government, too, is ramping up its hydrogen play. Through the Ministry of New and Renewable Energy, five pilot projects have been allocated to a group of private players — Tata Motors, RIL, NTPC, Ashok Leyland, Hindustan Petroleum Corporation Ltd, Bharat Petroleum Corporation Ltd, and Indian Oil Corporation Ltd. Together, these projects will put 37 hydrogen-powered vehicles (a mix of buses and trucks) on the road, supported by nine hydrogen-refuelling stations.

The vehicles include 15 powered by hydrogen fuel cells and 22 by hydrogen ICEs. The trials will take place on 10 routes across the country — from Delhi to Thiruvananthapuram. Launched in January 2023, the National Green Hydrogen Mission has an allocated budget of ₹19,744 crore through to the end of the decade.

It is the centrepiece of India's push towards becoming aatmanirbhar (self-reliant) in clean energy and serving as an inspiration for the global clean energy transition.

Realty firms eye revenue upside, portfolio diversification from data centre boom

PRACHI PISAL
Mumbai, 16 June

Data centres are increasingly becoming a key part of the real estate landscape, as reality firms — with rich expertise in land acquisition, construction and dealing with government approvals — are seeing them as opportunities to build long-term assets with continuous revenue flow.

Anant Raj, Lodha, L&T Realty, DLF, Panchshil Realty, Rustomjee, Hiranandani Group, Mindspace Reit and many more realty firms are seeing data centres as "future-proof assets" with long-term returns.

While some have been in the segment that is promising nearly 20 per cent returns on investment, more players are getting into this space as they diversify their portfolios amid a sharp upside in demand for data centres, stemming largely from global capacity centres and industry's quickened AI adoption.

"While our core strength lies in real estate development, we see data centres not only as a complementary extension of our capabilities but also as a transformative business opportunity aligned with the country's accelerating digital evolution," said Amit Sarin, managing director, Anant Raj.

Sarin's firm is targeting the development of 307 Mw of capacity across its three campuses, with an investment commitment of over ₹10,000 crore over the next four-five years.

The industry experts believe that the developers are leveraging their expertise in land acquisition, construction, dealing with government approvals, and maintaining tenant relationships.

"Real estate developers with experience in developing commercial buildings see a natural synergy for skills such as land acquisition, obtaining government permits, construction and development, and sourcing infrastructure such as fibre and power (including green power). Further, with their vast tenant relationships, they are able to tap into these networks to address such companies' data centres needs through diversification," said Devi Shankar, executive director, industrial, logistics & data centres, Anarock Capital.

Developers	Data centre services provider/Partner	Total investment amount
Adani Realty	EdgeConneX	$10 bn
Lodha Group	Amazon Web Services	$8.2 bn
Panchshil Realty	Blackstone	$2.4 bn

Source: Grant Thornton Bharat

According to Colliers India, India's data centres capacity as of April 2025 is about 1,263 Mw with 15.9 million square feet (msf) of real estate engaged.

India's data centre capacity is set to cross 4,500 Mw by 2030, as $20-25 billion of future investments are likely to materialise, with a real estate footprint of 55 msf.

"With the rise of AI and cloud adoption, especially by global tech firms, data centres are becoming a key part of the real estate landscape," said Ramesh Nair, CEO and MD, Mindspace Reit— the only Indian Reit with a data centre portfolio.

"The post-Covid shift to hybrid work, alongside the boom in edtech, e-commerce, and digital banking, has fuelled a surge in data consumption and storage needs. In response, major domestic and international players are investing heavily in building both hyper-scale and edge data centres across the country," Shabala Shinde, partner and real estate industry leader, Grant Thornton Bharat, said.

The developers view DCs as assets that can give stable and long-term returns amid increasing usage of data, better 5G penetration, and data storage requirements.

Realty firms eye revenue upside, portfolio diversification from data centre boom

PRACHI PISAL
Mumbai, 16 June

Data centres are increasingly becoming a key part of the real estate landscape, as reality firms — with rich expertise in land acquisition, construction and dealing with government approvals — are seeing them as opportunities to build long-term assets with continuous revenue flow.

Anant Raj, Lodha, L&T Realty, DLF, Panchshil Realty, Rustomjee, Hiranandani Group, Mindspace Reit and many more realty firms are seeing data centres as "future-proof assets" with long-term returns.

While some have been in the segment that is promising nearly 20 per cent returns on investment, more players are getting into this space as they diversify their portfolios amid a sharp upside in demand for data centres, stemming largely from global capacity centres and industry's quickened AI adoption.

"While our core strength lies in real estate development, we see data centres not only as a complementary extension of our capabilities but also as a transformative business opportunity aligned with the country's accelerating digital evolution," said Amit Sarin, managing director, Anant Raj.

Sarin's firm is targeting the development of 307 Mw of capacity across its three campuses, with an investment commitment of over ₹10,000 crore over the next four-five years.

The industry experts believe that the developers are leveraging their expertise in land acquisition, construction, dealing with government approvals, and maintaining tenant relationships.

"Real estate developers with experience in developing commercial buildings see a natural synergy for skills such as land acquisition, obtaining government permits, construction and development, and sourcing infrastructure such as fibre and power (including green power). Further, with their vast tenant relationships, they are able to tap into these networks to address such companies' data centres needs through diversification," said Devi Shankar, executive director, industrial, logistics & data centres, Anarock Capital.

According to Colliers India, India's data centres capacity as of April 2025 is about 1,263 Mw with 15.9 million square feet (msf) of real estate engaged.

India's data centre capacity is set to cross 4,500 Mw by 2030, as $20-25 billion of future investments are likely to materialise, with a real estate footprint of 55 msf.

"With the rise of AI and cloud adoption, especially by global tech firms, data centres are becoming a key part of the real estate landscape," said Ramesh Nair, CEO and MD, Mindspace Reit— the only Indian Reit with a data centre portfolio.

"The post-Covid shift to hybrid work, alongside the boom in edtech, e-commerce, and digital banking, has fuelled a surge in data consumption and storage needs. In response, major domestic and international players are investing heavily in building both hyper-scale and edge data centres across the country," Shabala Shinde, partner and real estate industry leader, Grant Thornton Bharat, said.

Three India-bound 787s return mid-air

New Delhi/Mumbai/Hyderabad

In a concerning turn of events, three Boeing 787 Dreamliner aircraft bound for India were forced to return mid-air within a span of just 36 hours due to a bomb threat and technical snags, raising fresh safety concerns among air passengers and authorities. The incidents involved flights heading to Delhi, Chennai, and Hyderabad, operated by Air India, British Airways, and Lufthansa respectively. These incidents comes days after an Air India Boeing 787 Dreamliner aircraft bound for London crashed in Ahmedabad, shortly after takeoff, killing 241 of the 242 passengers on board.

A Delhi-bound Air India Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner from Hong Kong returned to its airport of origin on Monday within an hour of takeoff after the pilot in command suspected a technical issue. The pilots of the Delhi-bound Air India flight, which returned to Hong Kong after nearly 90 minutes of take-off, didn't want to continue their journey after a suspected technical glitch was detected in the aircraft. The pilot could be heard telling Air Traffic Control, "We don't want to continue further." An audio of the pilot's conversation with the Air Traffic Control has emerged where they are heard saying that they don't want to continue and return to the airport.

The aircraft involved in the incident was also a Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner, the same aircraft model which crashed shortly after taking-off from Ahmedabad airport on Thursday, June 12, killing 241 out of 242 on board.

Pilots of the Air India flight, which returned to Hong Kong didn't want to continue their journey after a suspected technical glitch was detected

The flight, AI 315, landed safely in Hong Kong and all passengers have disembarked from the plane, the airline said in a statement, adding that the aircraft is undergoing inspection.

Continued from >> P1 The flight departed from Hong Kong at 12.16 pm (local time) and was scheduled to land in Delhi at 12.20 pm IST. The flight had departed after a delay of almost 3.5 hours as its scheduled departure was at 8.50 am, as per flight tracking website flightradar24.Com.

"AI315 operating from Hong Kong to Delhi on 16 June 2025 returned to Hong Kong shortly after takeoff due to a technical issue. The flight landed safely at Hong Kong and is undergoing checks as a matter of abundant precaution. Alternative arrangements have been planned to fly the passengers to their destination Delhi at the earliest," Air India said.

"We are providing all necessary on-ground assistance to the passengers to minimise the inconvenience caused by this unforeseen disruption," it said. The spokesperson of Airport Authority Hong Kong said, "A passenger flight, AI315, operated by Air India from Hong Kong to New Delhi made a return to Hong Kong International Airport and requested local standby around 1pm today (Monday). The flight landed safely around 1.15 pm. The airport operations were not affected."

Prior to this, a Lufthansa flight to Hyderabad that was forced to make a U-turn and return to land at Frankfurt Airport due to a bomb threat is now en route and scheduled to land in the Telangana capital on Monday night local time. "The flight took off and is expected to land at 23:18 hrs," Lufthansa said in response to a query. Flight tracker website Flightaware.Com data shows Sunday's aborted flight was en route to Rajiv Gandhi International Airport in Hyderabad. Flight LH752 had earlier departed from Germany on Sunday afternoon local time and was scheduled to land at the Hyderabad airport in the early hours of Monday, but Lufthansa said it had to be turned around over a bomb threat, with passengers provided overnight accommodation.

"Out of an abundance of caution, Lufthansa flight LH752 from Frankfurt to Hyderabad returned to its point of departure after authorities were made aware of a bomb threat posted on social media," Lufthansa said in a statement. "The safety of our passengers and crew is Lufthansa's highest priority. Affected passengers were provided with accommodation in Frankfurt and will be continuing their journey to Hyderabad today," the statement said. In Hyderabad, airport sources on Monday said, "A bomb threat email targeting Lufthansa flight LH 752 was received at the Hyderabad airport at 18:01 hrs on 15th June 2025." They said a bomb threat assessment committee was formed and all procedures were followed as per standard operating procedure. In the interest of safety, the airline was advised to divert back to the origin or the nearest suitable airport.

Flight LH 752 — operated by a Boeing 787-9 Dreamliner aircraft — departed from Frankfurt at 14.29 hours instead of its scheduled departure time of 13.05 hours, as per flight tracking website flightradar24.Com. The aircraft was to land in Hyderabad at 1.20 hours, as per the website. In the third incident, another Boeing 787 Dreamliner, this time operated by British Airways, was forced to return to London Heathrow after facing a technical issue mid-air on Sunday. The flight had departed for Chennai following a 36-minute delay, and after takeoff, it was seen circling over the Strait of Dover multiple times before heading back to London, according to tracking data from Flightradar24. British Airways issued a statement saying, "The flight landed safely with crew and customers disembarking as they normally would. Our teams are working hard to get their journeys back on track as soon as possible."

In the fourth incident, a Saudia Airlines plane from Jeddah carrying 242 Haj pilgrims caused an alarm at the airport here on Sunday when smoke and sparks were detected from its wheels while landing. Smoke was seen emanating from the left wheel as the Saudi Arabia Airlines flight landed at Lucknow airport,prompting an immediate emergency response.

The Aircraft Rescue and Fire Fighting (ARFF) team acted swiftly to contain the smoke, preventing any damage to the aircraft. All passengers were safely deboarded and flight operations continued at the Chaudhary Charan Singh International Airport. According to sources, sparks and smoke were seen coming from the aircraft's wheel as it touched down around 6:30 am. The aircraft, flight SV 3112, had departed from Jeddah at 10:45 pm the previous night with 250 Hajj pilgrims and crew members onboard. The incident occurred while the plane was taxiing on the runway. The pilot promptly brought the aircraft to a halt, and the airport's fire and rescue team responded immediately, bringing the situation under control within 20 minutes.Preliminary investigation points to a hydraulic system leak as the cause of the malfunction. The plane, an Airbus A330-343, left Jeddah at 10:45 pm and reached Lucknow around 6:50 am, according to data from Flightradar24.

PARAMEDIC RECALLS GUIDING LONE SURVIVOR OF AIR INDIA CRASH TO AMBULANCE

'We saw man coming out of gate... didn't know he was a passenger'

BRENDAN DABHI
AHMEDABAD, JUNE 16

LIKE THE students in the BJ Medical College hostel, Satinder Singh Sandhu was having lunch with fellow paramedics at the local GVK-EMRI ambulance office inside the 1,200-bed hospital at Medicity in Ahmedabad on June 12 when he heard a massive explosion.

Running outside, he saw a man coming out of the hostel building's gate as a massive fire raged behind him. This man was 39-year-old Viswashkumar Ramesh, the lone survivor of the London-bound Air India flight that crashed into the hostel building soon after taking off from the Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport in Ahmedabad.

Sandhu took Ramesh's hand and guided him away from the site. A video of this has since been widely shared.

"I asked my team to deploy ambulances immediately while I rushed to the spot. When I got there, I realised this was a major incident. I called my head office and asked them to inform the police and send more ambulances. Meanwhile, five ambulances under my command reached the site," Sandhu said.

The 44-year-old has been

with the GVK-EMRI emergency ambulance service for a decade, and is a supervisor who controls 20 of the 120 ambulances in the city.

"I first saw the watchman of the hostel injured on the road. We picked him up and dispatched him in one of the ambulances. Then, we saw one man coming out of the gate next to the burning hostel building. I approached him, but he suddenly turned around and began walking back to the crash site," Sandhu told The Indian Express, referring to Ramesh.

Sandhu said Ramesh initially resisted attempts to take him away from the site, repeatedly saying that his family member was burning in the fire.

"We thought it must be a family member inside the hostel building. We didn't know at that time that he was a passenger who had come out of the burning aircraft," said Sandhu, adding, "We finally managed to calm him down a little, seat him in one of the ambulances and send him to the hospital. He had injuries on his face, hands and legs. He had burn marks across his body, but he was able to walk with a slight limp."

It was en route to the hospital that Ramesh told paramedics he had been on the aircraft that had just crashed. He said he and his brother were going home to the UK and that he had been seated next to the emergency exit, in seat 11A. However, he did not know how he managed to exit the crashed aircraft.

Sandhu said Ramesh was in a state of shock and confusion after his ordeal. His mind was still fixed on a singular point — saving his younger brother, Ajay, from the burning plane.

Ajay was among the 241 people on board flight AI-171, and several others on the ground, to die in the crash. The Boeing 787 Dreamliner was carrying a total of 242 people.

Ramesh and his brother, who were originally from the Union Territory of Diu, were British nationals settled with their families in Leicester, England.

Sandhu said he and his fleet of ambulances were on the site of the crash by 1.41 pm, just three minutes after the crash that took place at 1.38 pm.

A firefighting team also arrived soon after and started the task of dousing the flames. It was when the heavy soot-laden smoke cleared that paramedics saw charred bodies of men, women and children strewn on the ground. There were also bodies inside the medical college hostel compound.

Sandhu was among the first to rush into the building to try and save anyone stuck in the rubble or stranded by the fire. He said he had no count of how many people his team managed to rescue from the hostel premises and the road in front of it, but estimated that it must have been at least 20-25.

Originally from Thaluh village in Punjab's Rupnagar district, Sandhu has lived in Gujarat since 1992.

Adani's Haifa Port operations normal, no damage due to Iranian missile attack

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, 16 JUNE

The Adani Group-owned Haifa Port in Israel is fully operational and an Iranian missile attack has not caused any damages, Adani Group Chief Financial Officer (CFO) Jugeshinder Robbie Singh stated through a tweet on his X handle on Monday.

"Some missile shrapnel landed in the chemical terminal but caused no injuries. The port continues to coordinate with Israel's Ministry of Transport to meet security requirements, ensuring smooth cargo operations. This coordination is crucial as it helps maintain the port's resilience and operational integrity during such tense times. The port's ability to remain unscathed serves as a testament to the robust security measures in place," Singh stated.

A regulatory filing made to the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange added that the facilities at Haifa Port continued to operate despite a shutdown of some downstream operations — with no injuries or casualties reported.

Adani Group CFO Jugeshinder Robbie Singh issued the clarification after social media posts claimed that the cargo facility worth $4.2 billion at Haifa Port had been "destroyed by Iranian strikes, and stated that the social media post was "false ".

On Saturday night, Iran targeted Israel's Haifa port and a nearby oil refinery in response to an Israeli attack on Iranian nuclear plants as well as other targets in Iran.

Haifa Port in Israel is a vital maritime hub, which manages more than 30% of Israel's imports and it is owned by Adani Ports, which holds a 70% share. The Haifa Port is owned by Adani Ports and Special Economic Zone Ltd as well as the Israeli Gadot Group, serving as a crucial maritime hub in the Mediterranean sea.

However, the Haifa Port accounts for less than 2% of the total volume handled by Adani Ports and SEZ and contributes only about 5% to its revenue.

2 Dreamliners, another plane return mid-flight

NEW DELHI: Airlines are reacting with an abundance of caution to alerts of technical snags due to increased scrutiny after the crash of an Air India Boeing Dreamliner last week in Ahmedabad that killed 241 of 242 on board.

An Air India 787-8, the same type of Boeing aircraft that crashed, returned to Hong Kong on Monday within an hour of take-off after the pilot suspected a technical snag. The flight AI-315 that was headed to Delhi had taken off with a delay.

The airline said in a statement that the flight landed safely in Hong Kong and all passengers disembarked. An inspection of the aircraft is underway, it added.

PLANES RETURN

Air India did not respond to requests for comment on the revised flight schedule.

Another Dreamliner faced a technical issue on Sunday after taking off from London's Heathrow Airport. The British Airways flight headed for Chennai returned to London, after circling over the Strait of Dover several times, before returning to Heathrow Airport, Flightradar24 showed.

"The flight landed safely with crew and customers disembarking as they normally would, and our teams are working hard to get their journeys back on track as soon as possible," British Airways said.

The Boeing 787 Dreamliner had taken off from London after a 36-minute delay .

Another Boeing aircraft, a 737 MAX, was hit by a technical snag en route to Ranchi from Delhi, on Monday, said officials.

These diversions come amid increasing scrutiny of Dreamliners after the Ahmedabad crash marked the first fatal crash of this line of aircraft. India's aviation regulator ordered enhanced safety checks of all Dreamliners in Air India's fleet; 22 out of 33 had been examined as of Monday, Air India said.

Meanwhile, the possible reasons for the 787 crash is the subject of a multi-agency probe. India's Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau is the lead agency for the investigation. Teams from the US National Transportation Safety Board and UK's Civil Aviation Authority (CAA) as well as from Boeing and engine manufacturer GE have also reached Ahmedabad.

A Reuters report said the head of Boeing Commercial Airplanes, Stephanie Pope, met the chairman of Air India N Chandrasekaran at the Indian company's headquarters in New Delhi on Monday. Boeing, in a statement to Reuters, declined to comment on Pope's visit and meeting with Air India but said it is "focused on supporting the investigation" and its customer.

India's NSG examined the crash site, a medical college near the airport, and found no traces of explosives, HT reported on Saturday.

Meanwhile, airlines and airport operators are leaving nothing to chance.

A Hyderabad-bound Lufthansa flight from Germany's Frankfurt airport was forced to turn back after a bomb threat.

Flight LH752, also a Boeing 787 Dreamliner, took off from Germany around 14:14 pm (local time) on Sunday and was scheduled to land at Hyderabad's Rajiv Gandhi International Airport in the early hours of Monday.

Lufthansa issued a statement, saying, "Out of an abundance of caution, Lufthansa flight LH752 from Frankfurt to Hyderabad returned to its point of departure after authorities were made aware of a bomb threat posted on social media."

"The safety of our passengers and crew is Lufthansa's highest priority. Affected passengers were provided with accommodation in Frankfurt and will be continuing their journey to Hyderabad today," it added.

Another alarm was triggered on Sunday after smoke was detected from the wheels of a Saudia Airlines flight from Jeddah carrying 242 Haj pilgrims that was landing at Lucknow airport.

The plane was evacuated and the fire put out before the aircraft suffered any damage, people familiar with the matter told PTI.

Air India crash spurs safety push

New Delhi: Air India's chairman N. Chandrasekaran on Monday told staff that last week's plane crash that killed at least 274 people should be a catalyst to build a safer airline, urging employees to stay resolute amid any criticism.

In a town hall held at the headquarters of the Tata Group-owned airline near New Delhi and attended by 700 staff, Chandrasekaran said the crash was the "most heartbreaking" crisis of his career, a spokesperson told Reuters.

"We need to use this incident as an act of force to build a safer airline," Chandrasekaran told the meeting.

The Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner with 242 people on board bound for Gatwick Airport, south of London, began losing height seconds after take-off in Ahmedabad on Thursday, and erupted in a huge fireball as it hit buildings below.

All but one on board were declared dead in the world's worst aviation disaster in a decade, and over 30 people died on the ground.

The airline and the Indian government are looking at several aspects of the crash, including the plane's engine thrust, flaps, and why the landing gear remained open as the plane took off and then came down.

"We need to wait for the investigation...it's a complex machine, so a lot of redundancies, checks and balances, certifications, which have been perfected over years and years. Yet this happens, so we will figure out why it happens after the investigation," Chandrasekaran, 62, said during the staff meeting.

The crash poses a new challenge for both Air India, which has for years been trying to revamp its ageing fleet, and Boeing, which is trying to rebuild public trust following a series of safety and production crises.

After taking the carrier over from the government in 2022, the Tata group unveiled its investment plans to create a "world-class airline" after years of financial losses, persistent flight delays and poor maintenance under government ownership.

"It's not easy to face criticism," Chandrasekaran said. "We are going to get through this. We need to show resilience."

Air India likely to finish inspection of Boeing 787 fleet within two days

A FRESH BEGINNING. Enhanced inspections part of the DGCA's efforts to ensure safety of the airline's fleet

Tata Group-promoted Air India is set to complete the enhanced safety inspections of its Boeing 787 fleet by Wednesday following a directive from India's aviation safety regulator, sources told businessline.

The Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA) mandated the inspections after a tragic air crash involving the airline's Boeing 787-800 aircraft on June 12.

The DGCA has ordered Air India to conduct one-time checks on Boeing 787-8 and 787-9 aircraft, equipped with GenX engines, before departing from India.

According to the DGCA order, these checks include inspections of critical systems, such as fuel parameter monitoring, cabin air compressor, electronic engine control, engine fuel-driven actuator and hydraulic system, as well as review of take-off parameters.

AIMING HIGH. Air India operates a fleet of 26 Boeing 787-8 and seven Boeing 787-9 aircraft, inherited from Vistara BLOOMBERG

ACTION-TAKEN REPORT

Air India has completed inspection of 25 out of its 33 Dreamliner aircraft. Post the inspections, the airline will submit an action-taken report to the DGCA.

"Around 28 aircraft are likely to be inspected by Wednesday or so.

"However, five aircraft will be inspected on a later date since they are already undergoing scheduled maintenance checks," sources told businessline.

The enhanced safety inspections are part of the DGCA's efforts to ensure the airworthiness and safety of Air India's fleet.

INSPECTIONS

In addition to one-time checks, the airline will implement flight control inspections during transit until further notice, and carry out power assurance checks within two weeks.

RECURRING SNAGS

Air India will also review and address recurring snags on its B787-8 or -9 aircraft reported in the last 15 days.

At present, Air India operates a fleet of 26 Boeing 787-8 and seven Boeing 787-9 aircraft, inherited from Vistara. The airline is also expecting to receive a brand new 787-9 aircraft in October. According to industry experts, the airline might not face any major fallouts; however, flights may get delayed, especially on long-haul routes. Air India will offer refunds or rescheduling options to mitigate the inconvenience.

Reuters adds: Meanwhile, the head of Boeing Commercial Airplanes, Stephanie Pope, met Tata Sons Chairman, N Chandrasekaran, on Monday in India, two sources said, as the companies seek to find the cause of last week's fatal crash involving a Boeing 787 Dreamliner.

Pope met Chandrasekaran at the airline's headquarters in Gurugram, and was accompanied by Boeing's India President, Salil Gupte.

According to industry experts, the airline might not face any major fallouts; however, flights may get delayed, especially on long-haul routes. Air India will offer refunds or rescheduling options to mitigate the inconvenience.

Reuters adds: Meanwhile, the head of Boeing Commercial Airplanes, Stephanie Pope, met Tata Sons Chairman, N Chandrasekaran, on Monday in India, two sources said, as the companies seek to find the cause of last week's fatal crash involving a Boeing 787 Dreamliner.

Pope met Chandrasekaran at the airline's headquarters in Gurugram, and was accompanied by Boeing's India President, Salil Gupte.

Tata Group-promoted Air India is set to complete the enhanced safety inspections of its Boeing 787 fleet by Wednesday following a directive from India's aviation safety regulator, sources told businessline.

The Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA) mandated the inspections after a tragic air crash involving the airline's Boeing 787-800 aircraft on June 12.

The DGCA has ordered Air India to conduct one-time checks on Boeing 787-8 and 787-9 aircraft, equipped with GenX engines, before departing from India.

According to the DGCA order, these checks include inspections of critical systems, such as fuel parameter monitoring, cabin air compressor, electronic engine control, engine fuel-driven actuator and hydraulic system, as well as review of take-off parameters.

ACTION-TAKEN REPORT

Air India has completed inspection of 25 out of its 33 Dreamliner aircraft. Post the inspections, the airline will submit an action-taken report to the DGCA.

"Around 28 aircraft are likely to be inspected by Wednesday or so.

"However, five aircraft will be inspected on a later date since they are already undergoing scheduled maintenance checks," sources told businessline.

The enhanced safety inspections are part of the DGCA's efforts to ensure the airworthiness and safety of Air India's fleet.

INSPECTIONS

In addition to one-time checks, the airline will implement flight control inspections during transit until further notice, and carry out power assurance checks within two weeks.

RECURRING SNAGS

Air India will also review and address recurring snags on its B787-8 or -9 aircraft reported in the last 15 days.

At present, Air India operates a fleet of 26 Boeing 787-8 and seven Boeing 787-9 aircraft, inherited from Vistara. The airline is also expecting to receive a brand new 787-9 aircraft in October. According to industry experts, the airline might not face any major fallouts; however, flights may get delayed, especially on long-haul routes. Airbus dominates air show, Boeing sits out order frenzy

Bloomberg

LE BOURGET, FRANCE: Airbus kicked off the Paris Air Show with orders from Saudi Arabian customers valued at as much as $17 billion and a major purchase from Poland, building an early lead over Boeing, which scaled back its presence at the event following the Air India Boeing 787 Dreamliner crash in Ahmedabad.

Airbus first landed an order for 77 freighter and passenger aircraft from Saudi Arabian lessor AviLease, followed by a deal for 50 of its A350-1000 widebody jets from Riyadh Air. Later in the day, Poland's LOT Airlines said it would purchase 40 A220 airliners, with an option to extend the accord to 84 units.

The two announcements give Airbus a leg-up in the typically hard-fought contest for orders at the expo.

Following the crash, Boeing cancelled its senior executives' appearances at the show, and the company has also scaled back plans for any commercial announcements.

AviLease, backed by the kingdom's sovereign wealth fund, agreed to acquire 30 Airbus A321 single-aisle jets, with options for 25 more, as well as 10 A350 freighters plus 12 options. After typical industry discounts, the order could approach $8 billion in value, based on estimates from consulting firm Ishka.

The deal follows the Public Investment Fund-backed leasing firm's purchase of as many as 30 Boeing Co. 737 jets last month during US President Donald Trump's Gulf tour.

"It was a very hard-fought battle" between the A350 and Boeing's 777 freighter, AviLease CEO Edward O'Byrne said at a press event announcing the deal. "A350 came out on top."

The two announcements underscore Saudi Arabia's rising clout in the global aviation market, as the kingdom seeks to assert its presence in global trade and tourism. Riyadh Air, which plans to begin operations by the end of the year, has already purchased 60 A321 narrowbody jets from the European planemaker.

Even before the disaster set back Boeing's plans, Airbus was set to have a strong showing in Paris. A number of Boeing deals were announced during Trump's tour through the West Asia last month, leaving Airbus on the sidelines as the US president played the role of head salesman for his US rival.

"We have to be better," Airbus CEO Guillaume Faury said in a Bloomberg TV interview on Monday. "That is what we are trying to achieve with our products, making sure Airbus sells planes on the merits of the planes."AviLease was founded in 2022 and is among companies that the Saudi sovereign wealth fund has bankrolled as part of a push to turn the kingdom into a global trade, logistics and tourism hub, and pivot away from its reliance on oil.

"There is a tremendous amount of infrastructure needed in the kingdom for cargo and logistics," O'Byrne said.

The Saudi lessor purchased the aviation leasing business of Standard Chartered in 2023, and now has a portfolio of 200 owned and managed aircraft on lease to 48 airlines globally. The Polish deal gives Airbus a foothold in a market that's historically been Boeing's home turf.

'Crash catalyst to build safer airline'

Air India's chairman N. In a town hall held at the headquarters of the Tata Group-owned airline near New Delhi and attended by 700 staff, Chandrasekaran said the crash was the "most heartbreaking" crisis of his career, a spokesperson told Reuters.

"I've seen a reasonable number of crises in my career, but this is the most heartbreaking one," he said, as per a Tata Group spokesperson.

"We need to use this incident as an act of force to build a safer airline," Chandrasekaran said.

DNA profiling may end today, kin await results

AHMEDABAD: The painstaking process of DNA profiling of all the victims of the Air India Dreamliner crash is expected to finish by Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning, a top doctor said on Monday, potentially exacerbating the wait of scores of relatives who continue to camp in Ahmedabad.

A group of 54 experts across Forensic Science Laboratories in Gandhinagar, Ahmedabad, Vadodara, Surat, and Rajkot are working round-the-clock to carry out profiling and matching tests. But there is still no final word on the official toll on what is India's worst single-aircraft tragedy that killed all but one of the 242 on board, and at least 30 in the hostel building the AI-171 jet rammed into, or in the neighbourhood.

Dr Rakesh Joshi, superintendent of Ahmedabad Civil Hospital, said that 119 DNA samples have matched with the victims of the crash. Using these, 76 bodies have been handed over to families. Another eight bodies, which didn't require DNA sampling, were returned on Friday.

At least 14 more bodies will be returned by Tuesday morning.

"The DNA profiling all the victims will be completed by either Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning," Joshi

said. "We are trying our best to finish this process as soon as possible."

One of the people identified by DNA profiling was former chief minister Vijay Rupani, whose final rites were conducted in Rajkot on Monday.

The Air India Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner from Ahmedabad to London Gatwick crashed 33 seconds after taking off on Thursday afternoon and rammed into the medical college hostel, marking the worst air tragedy in the country in three decades.

Thick plumes of black smoke billowed from the debris of AI-171 at the crash site roughly 3km from the Ahmedabad airport premises.

The aircraft – which carried almost a full load of 125,000 litres of fuel – entered a slow descent shortly after taking off at 1.38pm, with its landing gear still extended before exploding into a huge fireball upon impact. The twin-engine plane had reached an altitude of 625 feet (190.5 meters) at a speed of 174 knots, according to data from Flightradar24.

Since Thursday, scores of relatives have trooped into Ahmedabad, their wait turning from hours into days as authorities struggled to identify charred bodies and recover samples.

At Dr Pratik Joshi's home in Ahmedabad, for example, 50-60 relatives from Rajasthan's Banswara are anxiously awaiting DNA confirmation to claim the remains of Pratik, 41, his wife Dr Komi Vyas, and their children — Miraya, 8, and twins Nakul and Pradyut, 5.

"We are caught in a nightmare, unable to sleep or stay awake," said Anil Vyas, Komi's father. "They've confirmed Pratik' identity, but we're still waiting for the others. Nothing is in our hands...Hospital authorities have promised answers by tomorrow. The wait gets heavier with time," he told HT.

Dr Pratik Joshi, a 41-year-old radiologist, was relocating his family from India to London for a new chapter. The family had captured their joy in a selfie on board, moments before the crash.

Other families grew more impatient.

"They told us 72 hours. It has been four days now. We haven't got a call from the hospital authorities yet. I don't know when I will get to see the body of my brother and his family members so we can lay them to rest," said Imtiyaz Ali, whose brother Javed Ali, sister-in-law Mariyam, and their children Aman Ali and Zayn Ali were killed in the crash.

'Javed is of Indian origin and Mariyam is of Pakistani origin. "The doctors explained to me that through DNA matching of my blood sample, they can confirm the DNA sample of my brother Javed. Then through his DNA, they can confirm the DNA samples of his two children," Imtiyaz said. Finally, the confirmed samples of the two children would be used to identify Mariyam.

Dr Joshi urged the grief-stricken kin of the victims to not panic, but acknowledged that complaints were mounting. "Some are complaining that the results have not come even after 72 hours. I appeal to them not to panic because this is a very important process with legal implications. We will call them as soon as results arrive," he said.

He underlined that delays were on various accounts.

"Two foreign nationals will arrive on Tuesday for DNA testing. ...11 families who have lost multiple relatives in crash have received one body but are still awaiting the release of others...18 other families, whose loved ones' DNA has been matched, have yet to inform authorities when they will claim the remains for final rites," he said.

Rohit Patel from Nadiad shared that hospital authorities confirmed a DNA match for his brother Anil Patel's daughter-in-law, Puja Patel, but added that he was still awaiting results for his relative Harshit Patel. "We're heartbroken and unsure what to do next. We've asked them to release both bodies together so we can perform their final rites," he said.

Doctors cautioned that the nature of the remains – many of the bodies are charred due to the intense heat of the fire that accompanied the crash – is making extraction of viable DNA challenging. A doctor from Ahmedabad's Civil Hospital told HT that often samples of multiple relatives needed to strengthen statistical certainty, especially when the DNA is degraded. "We may need to test several relatives—parents, siblings, children—and if the body is dismembered, all recovered parts are tested to confirm they belong to the same individual before release," the doctor said, requesting anonymity.

Dr Saumil P Merchant, professor and head of forensic medicine at Narendra Modi Medical College, said that under normal conditions, a DNA report takes about three months due to the stepwise nature of profiling: sample cleaning, DNA isolation, quality assessment, amplification, sequencing, and matching.

"In this case, the timeline has been compressed to just 72 hours by adopting a 24x7 operational system involving multiple forensic labs, including the Forensic Science Laboratory (FSL) in Gandhinagar—one of India's largest— that can process around 130 samples at once," Merchant told HT.

AIR INDIA PLANE CRASH IN AHMEDABAD

Mortal Remains of 76 Victims Handed over to Families after DNA Matching

Gujarat CM Bhupendra Patel visits Civil Hospital, holds meet to review entire relief and rescue operation

DP Bhattacharya & Forum Gandhi

Ahmedabad: The mortal remains of 76 victims of the AI-171 plane crash have been handed over to their relatives after matching their DNA samples and ascertaining their identity. Around119 samples have been matched so far even as human body parts are still being recovered from the crash site and being brought to the hospital.

Meanwhile, remains of human body parts are still being retrieved from the site. On Monday, 15 such remains were retrieved from the crash site.

The Gujarat health department has deployed an additional 855 staff, apart from the regular Civil Hospital staff, to ease and expedite the process. The district administration has appointed more than 250 nodal officers to ensure the process of handing over the mortal remains and for coordination with the families. Supervisory officers have also been designated to ensure that all proceedings are conducted properly.

TO EXPEDITE DNA MATCHING PROCESS

An additional 855 staff members deployed, apart from the regular Civil Hospital staff to expedite DNA matching process

The state government has also put in place an elaborate system to ensure assistance pertaining to any paper work for the relatives of the victims. They have also reached out to the relatives of the deceased to provide the required documents — including inheritance certificates — based on witness testimonies and verification by local committees, to ensure smooth processing with insurance companies and any government or semi-government offices.

Keeping in mind the rainy weather, a large dome with basic facilities like drinking water, fans, and coolers, mobile toilets outside the new post-mortem complex has been set up for the family members of the crash victims. Charitable organisations have been roped in to arrange for tea, snacks, water and meals for the families waiting inside the dome.

Chief minister Bhupendra Patel visited the Ahmedabad Civil Hospital on Monday and took stock of the situation. He held a meeting with the ministers and senior state officials to review the entire relief and rescue operation.

Many Air India officials, including Nipun and Rajesh Dogra, were observed visiting the families of those affected at the hospital.

Realty firms eye revenue upside, portfolio diversification from data centre boom

PRACHI PISAL
Mumbai, 16 June

Data centres are increasingly becoming a key part of the real estate landscape, as reality firms — with rich expertise in land acquisition, construction and dealing with government approvals — are seeing them as opportunities to build long-term assets with continuous revenue flow.

Anant Raj, Lodha, L&T Realty, DLF, Panchshil Realty, Rustomjee, Hiranandani Group, Mindspace Reit and many more realty firms are seeing data centres as "future-proof assets" with long-term returns.

While some have been in the segment that is promising nearly 20 per cent returns on investment, more players are getting into this space as they diversify their portfolios amid a sharp upside in demand for data centres, stemming largely from global capacity centres and industry's quickened AI adoption.

"While our core strength lies in real estate development, we see data centres not only as a complementary extension of our capabilities but also as a transformative business opportunity aligned with the country's accelerating digital evolution," said Amit Sarin, managing director, Anant Raj.

Sarin's firm is targeting the development of 307 Mw of capacity across its three campuses, with an investment commitment of over ₹10,000 crore over the next four-five years.

The industry experts believe that the developers are leveraging their expertise in land acquisition, construction, dealing with government approvals, and maintaining tenant relationships.

"Real estate developers with experience in developing commercial buildings see a natural synergy for skills such as land acquisition, obtaining government permits, construction and development, and sourcing infrastructure such as fibre and power (including green power). Further, with their vast tenant relationships, they are able to tap into these networks to address such companies' data centres needs through diversification," said Devi Shankar, executive director, industrial, logistics & data centres, Anarock Capital.

Developers	Data centre services provider/Partner	Total investment amount
Adani Realty	EdgeConneX	$10 bn
Lodha Group	Amazon Web Services	$8.2 bn
Panchshil Realty	Blackstone	$2.4 bn

According to Colliers India, India's data centres capacity as of April 2025 is about 1,263 Mw with 15.9 million square feet (msf) of real estate engaged.

India's data centre capacity is set to cross 4,500 Mw by 2030, as $20-25 billion of future investments are likely to materialise, with a real estate footprint of 55 msf.

"With the rise of AI and cloud adoption, especially by global tech firms, data centres are becoming a key part of the real estate landscape," said Ramesh Nair, CEO and MD, Mindspace Reit— the only Indian Reit with a data centre portfolio.

"The post-Covid shift to hybrid work, alongside the boom in edtech, e-commerce, and digital banking, has fuelled a surge in data consumption and storage needs. In response, major domestic and international players are investing heavily in building both hyper-scale and edge data centres across the country," Shabala Shinde, partner and real estate industry leader, Grant Thornton Bharat, said.

The developers view DCs as assets that can give stable and long-term returns amid increasing usage of data, better 5G penetration, and data storage requirements.

Mumbai-based developer Niranjan Hiranandani, managing director, Hiranandani Group, said, "The rationale behind this move is multifaceted: we view data centres as future-proof assets offering stable, long-term returns, supported by the exponential rise in data consumption, accelerated adoption of cloud services, and deepening digital penetration."

Hiranandani noted that while it is a capex-heavy business, the returns are both feasible and favourable.

Tata chief: Need to use crash as 'act of force' to build a safer A-I

SUKALP SHARMA
NEW DELHI, JUNE 16

TATA GROUP and Air India chairman N Chandrasekaran on Monday asked the airline's employees to stay strong and use last week's crash of the airline's Boeing 787-8 aircraft in Ahmedabad as "an act of force to build a safer airline", according to sources in the know. Chandrasekaran also told Air India employees that while the reasons behind the crash will be known only once the investigation is complete, they should "stay the course" and not put their "shoulders down" in the face of criticism.

Chandrasekaran addressed around 700 Air India employees and its leadership team on Monday at the company headquarters and its training academy in Gurugram. According to sources, he later met Civil Aviation Minister K Ram Mohan Naidu at the Ministry of Civil Aviation (MoCA) in the Capital, and held discussions.

"Criticisms are there, and those of us who are very passionate...who are working on making this airline a great airline, and who genuinely care about what kind of a company we want to build, but it's not easy to face criticisms. I want you to be strong. If you feel distraught, the word you should remember is determination. We are going to get through this. We need to show resilience. We need to use this incident an act of force to build a safer airline," Chandrasekaran is learnt to have said.

According to sources, the Tata group chairman told Air India staff that the Ahemdabad air crash is the "most heartbreaking crisis" he has seen in his career. All but one of the 242 people on board the doomed aircraft perished in Thursday's crash. There were a number of casualties on the ground as well. The accidents was the worst aviation disaster involving an Indian carrier in four decades. It is also the first crash of the Boeing 787 globally.

"I went to the site on that day...it was not easy at all. I know many of you here in this room are part of the emergency response team, may be even at the site or were handling all the shocks of that day...Whatever I say and whatever we do is not going to bring the lives back. Those affected, they're going to feel the pain for a very long time. But having said that, we have got to do our very best humanly possible to help each of them," Chandrasekaran said, according to sources.

"It's a very complex business...it's a complex machine, so a lot of redundancies, checks and balances, certifications, which have been perfected over years and years. Yet this happens, so we will figure out why it happens after the investigation. So we just have to stay calm and not put your shoulders down. This is the time to be brave, time to be resolute, time to know that you have the full support," he is learnt to have told employees. FULL REPORT ON www.indianexpress.com

TURNAROUND PATH

Air India, which has been on a turnaround path under the Tata leadership, has come under the scanner following last Thursday's air crash.

While the airline has been receiving flak over its product, the crash has also dented its safety record. Chandrasekaran's visit to the Gurugram HQ was to see the operations first hand, boost the employee morale, and seek their continued support to management actions.

"I want you to be strong. If you feel distraught, the word you should remember is determination.

"We are going to get through this. We need to show resilience....We need to use this incident as an act of force to build a safer airline," said Chandrasekaran, who is also the Chairman of Air India.

"We have to make sure we stay the course. Be more determined in everything we do...We will get through this.

> I want you to be strong. If you feel distraught, the word you should remember is determination.
> N CHANDRASEKARAN
> Chairman, Tata Sons

Our job is to get Air India into a better place, the place it deserves," he added. He also urged the staff to continue doing their job earnestly as their actions will determine the airline's future.

"What you do makes an airline. And the company is what its people do...Every small action that you do and is executed perfectly helps the collective thing flourish," he said.

COMMAND CENTRE

Chandrasekaran also visited the airline's emergency command centre, the integrated operations control centre, and customer service and support departments.

Earlier last week, the Tata Sons Chairman said ensuring passenger safety was the first and foremost priority for the Tata Group after it took over the reins of Air India in 2022.

ONGOING PROBE

He said the group is trying to understand what caused the air crash in Ahmedabad, and pledged support to the ongoing investigation.

The group has also already announced ₹1 crore compensation to the victims of air crash. Separately, Air India has also announced ₹25 lakh as interim payment to the kin of survivors.

Earlier last week, the Tata Sons Chairman said ensuring passenger safety was the first and foremost priority for the Tata Group after it took over the reins of Air India in 2022.

ONGOING PROBE

He said the group is trying to understand what caused the air crash in Ahmedabad, and pledged support to the ongoing investigation.

The group has also already announced ₹1 crore compensation to the victims of air crash. Separately, Air India has also announced ₹25 lakh as interim payment to the kin of survivors.

Tata Sons Chairman, N Chandrasekaran, urged Air India staff on Monday to "just stay the course", in his first direct interaction with them at the airline's Gurugram headquarters after last Thursday's air crash.

TURNAROUND PATH

Air India, which has been on a turnaround path under the Tata leadership, has come under the scanner following last Thursday's air crash.

While the airline has been receiving flak over its product, the crash has also dented its safety record. Chandrasekaran's visit to the Gurugram HQ was to see the operations first hand, boost the employee morale, and seek their continued support to management actions.

"I want you to be strong. If you feel distraught, the word you should remember is determination.

"We are going to get through this. We need to show resilience....We need to use this incident as an act of force to build a safer airline," said Chandrasekaran, who is also the Chairman of Air India.

"We have to make sure we stay the course. Be more determined in everything we do...We will get through this.

This is time to be brave: Chandra to A-I staffers

DEV CHATTERJEE
Mumbai, 16 June

N Chandrasekaran (pictured), chairman of Air India (A-I) and Tata Sons, on Monday offered a message of solidarity and resolve in the wake of last week's fatal crash in Ahmedabad while addressing 700-odd employees at the airline's headquarters in Gurugram.

"I felt I had to be here and meet as many of you as possible," Chandrasekaran told the assembled staff, many of whom were part of the emergency response teams activated following the tragedy. Chandra also visited the Emergency Command Centre, the Integrated Operations Control Centre, and the Customer Service and Support to show his support for A-I.

Recalling his visit to the crash site near Ahmedabad airport, Chandra said: "It was not easy at all. I've seen a fair share of crises in my career, but nothing as heartbreaking as this. I never imagined I would face something like this."

He also acknowledged that no words or actions could bring back the 241 lives lost in the crash, but stressed the company's commitment to standing by the families affected. "We consider everyone who lost someone in this tragedy as part of our family — now and forever," he added.

Addressing the emotional toll on employees, the chairman said: "Criticism is inevitable, especially for those who care deeply and work tirelessly to build a great airline. But I want you to be strong. When you feel distraught, remember one word: determination."

"We are going to get through this. We need to show resilience. We need to use this incident as an act of force to build a safer airline," Chandra said and urged employees to use the tragedy as a catalyst to build a stronger company.

Chandrasekaran emphasised the complexity of aviation operations, saying: "It's a business with multiple redundancies, checks, certifications — systems that have evolved over decades. Yet incidents like this happen. We have to wait for the investigation to understand why."

He concluded with a call for calm and collective strength: "This is the time to be brave. To be resolute. Our job is to get A-I to where it truly belongs — the place this country and every passenger who puts their trust in us deserves."

Govt brushes off bribery jibe to announce pension disbursal

HD Bureau
KOCHI

The LDF government's announcement that monthly welfare pensions would be disbursed on 20 June—just one day after polls in Nilambur—has provoked sharp criticism from the UDF, which accuses the ruling coalition of exploiting social welfare schemes to influence voters.

With campaigning entering its final phase, the welfare pension row has intensified. Finance Minister K N Balagopal disclosed that 62 lakh pensioners are entitled to ₹1,600 each under the current scheme, and that over the past four years the government had allocated ₹38,500 crore for welfare pensions. He defended the scheme as a landmark initiative aimed at enhancing social security and accused the opposition of blurring lines by alleging bribery.

The controversy escalated after Congress General Secretary K C Venugopal, speaking at a UDF convention in Nilambur, described the staggered release of pension arrears close to the polls as "bribery". He suggested the government was withholding payments until electoral deadlines, only to release them to secure votes. Venugopal refused to retract the remark, stating he had merely highlighted administrative delays.

In response, LDF leaders including Balagopal and CPM Politburo member A Vijayaraghavan accused Venugopal of insulting Kerala's marginalised pensioners. Balagopal demanded an apology, saying, "He implied that 62 lakh people cast their votes after accepting bribes. That's unacceptable." Vijayaraghavan stressed, "The government has maintained its commitment to providing pensions—even amid financial challenges."

Venugopal questioned why the timing of the release coincided with election campaigning

The UDF, however, has doubled down on its allegations. Venugopal highlighted significant arrears and questioned why the timing of their release coincided with election campaigning. Opposition Leader V D Satheesan further criticised the state for siphoning ₹2,500 crore from welfare boards to cover administrative costs, accusing the government of mismanaging pension funds and acting irresponsibly.

Satheesan also tied the pension dispute to broader governance issues, questioning tariff hikes by the Kerala State Electricity Board. He noted that since 2016, power tariffs have increased five times and alleged that over ₹20 crore a day in debt burden is mounting due to increased power purchases, allegedly from Adani, at ₹8–₹12 per unit, replacing earlier low-cost agreements.

The disbursement date announcement comes just a day before the last legal window for campaigning closes, limiting the UDF's capacity to counter the narrative. Some analysts anticipate this move may be legally challenged.

Adani scam probe hampered by lack of information from tax haven countries: Cong.

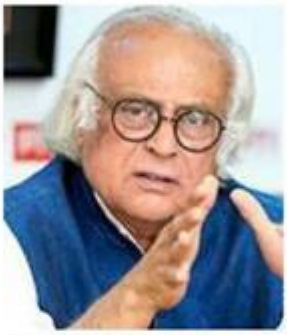
The Hindu Bureau
NEW DELHI

The Congress on Monday said that a key figure in the alleged Adani scam had Cypriot citizenship, but ongoing investigations by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) into transactions involving the Adani Group had been impacted by insufficiency in sharing of financial information by tax haven countries, and the "lack of pressure" from India.

The charge came amid Prime Minister Narendra Modi's visit to Cyprus.

"The Prime Minister is in Cyprus on his way to Canada. Of course, he would have us believe that it is a pure coincidence that a key figure in the Modani scam has Cypriot citizenship. The Cyprus-based fund New Leaina has reportedly about $420 million in Adani companies,"



Jairam Ramesh

Congress's communications chief Jairam Ramesh said in a post on social media platform X.

The "ultimate beneficial owners of this fund are linked to Amicorp, which is believed to have set up at least seven Adani promoter entities, seventeen offshore shell companies linked to Mr. Vinod Adani, and three Mauritius-based offshore investors in Adani Group stock," Mr. Ramesh said.

"All these transactions are part of the ongoing SEBI investigations which have been hampered by lack of sharing of financial information by these and other tax-haven countries and lack of pressure by India," Mr. Ramesh alleged.

There was no reaction to the latest salvo from the Congress from either the Union government or the Adani Group.

Mr. Ramesh also explained how India, under Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru in the 1950s, had rooted for Cyprus to become independent from British rule, and the island had become free on August 16, 1960.

"In the context of today's geopolitics, it is worthwhile to recall that India's championing of the independence of Cyprus in the 1950s and thereafter became a sore point in our bilateral relations with Turkiye," he said.

सस्ते के चक्कर में दो भाइयों ने कराये टिकट, बड़े की जान गई

- एक मात्र जिंदा बचे विमान यात्री विश्वास कुमार की मौसी ने बयां की दास्तां
- विश्वास प्रसारित एक वीडियो में राहत कर्मियों से कह रहे- मेरा भाई विमान में फंसा है

कोरोनाकाल के दौरान कपड़े का व्यापार ठप हो गया तो दीव के विश्वास व उनके बड़े भाई अजय ने लंदन में व्यापार शुरू कर दिया था। उनके माता-पिता पहले से ही लंदन में रह रहे थे। दोनों भाई छह माह लंदन तो छह माह भारत आकर दीव में रहते थे। यहां उन्होंने एक फिशिंग बोट भी ले रखी थी। उनकी मौसी रमाबेन भालिया ने बताया कि दोनों भाई दीव आए हुए थे और 12 जून को उनका लंदन जाने का कोई कार्यक्रम नहीं था। एअर इंडिया के विमान एआइ171 का टिकट करीब 40 हजार रुपये सस्ता मिल रहा था। इसलिए जब विश्वास ने टिकट बुक कराने की बात कही तो अजय ने जाने से मना कर दिया, लेकिन विश्वास के आग्रह पर अजय लंदन जाने को राजी हो गया। इस हादसे में विश्वास की जान बच गई जबकि अजय विमान हादसे का शिकार हो गए। हादसे के एक और प्रसारित वीडियो में विश्वास खुद चलते हुए दुर्घटनास्थल मेडिकल हास्टल परिसर से बाहर निकलते नजर आ रहे हैं।

संपादक : लोकमत समूह
पूर्व राज्यसभा सांसद

अहमदाबाद में विमान दुर्घटना के तत्काल बाद कई शुभचिंतकों और मित्रों ने बात करते हुए सलाह देने की मुद्रा में यह जरूर कहा कि आप बहुत ज्यादा हवाई यात्रा करते हैं। उन्होंने सीधे तो नहीं कहा लेकिन उनके कहने का मतलब विमानन सुरक्षा को लेकर ही था, मैंने उन्हें समझाया कि यह एक दुर्घटना है। वास्तव में हवाई यात्रा अब भी सबसे सुरक्षित माध्यम बना हुआ है। आंकड़ों का विश्लेषण करें तो यह पता चलता है कि दुनिया के स्तर पर हवाई यात्रा में मरने की आशंका 1 करोड़ 10 लाख यात्रियों में से केवल एक होती है जबकि सड़क दुर्घटना में मरने की आशंका अपेक्षाकृत बहुत ज्यादा होती है।

निर्माण कार्य में गड़बड़ हुई थी। इस तरह की और भी बहुत सारी घटनाएं हैं।

1978 में नए साल के पहले दिन दुबई जा रही एयर इंडिया की फ्लाइट मुंबई से उड़ान भरते ही समंदर में जा गिरी। उस बोइंग 747 विमान में सवार सभी 213 लोग मारे गए। दुर्घटना का कारण तकनीकी खराबी और पायलट के भ्रमित रिएक्शन को माना गया। अप्रैल 1993 में औरंगाबाद में उड़ान भरते समय ही रनवे पर चलते ट्रक से इंडियन एयरलाइंस का एक विमान टकरा गया था। ओवरलोडिंग और पायलट की चूक को दुर्घटना का कारण माना गया। कुछ और दुर्घटनाओं को याद कीजिए, अगस्त 2020 में कोझिकोड इंटरनेशनल एयरपोर्ट पर लैंडिंग के दौरान विमान रनवे से आगे निकल कर घाटी में गिर गया। विमान के टुकड़े हो गए, 2 पायलटों समेत 21 यात्रियों की मौत हो गई। उससे पहले 1990 में इंडियन एयरलाइंस का एक विमान बेंगलुरु एयरपोर्ट के पास गिरा और 92 यात्रियों की मौत हो गई। वहां भी पायलट की गलती सामने आई।

नई दिल्ली, (पंजाब केसरी) : अहमदाबाद विमान दुर्घटना की जांच के लिए केंद्र सरकार द्वारा गठित उच्च स्तरीय बहु-विषयक समिति ने इस हादसे के लिए जिम्मेदार विभिन्न संभावित कारणों पर सोमवार को विचार-विमर्श किया।

सूत्रों ने बताया कि केंद्रीय गृह सचिव गोविंद मोहन की अध्यक्षता वाली समिति ने विमान दुर्घटना के संभावित कारणों के बारे में विभिन्न हितधारकों की राय सुनी और भविष्य में ऐसी दुर्घटना की पुनरावृत्ति रोकने के लिए किये जाने वाले उपायों पर विचार-विमर्श किया। उन्होंने बताया कि यहां समिति की पहली बैठक में शामिल हुए लोगों का जोर विमान दुर्घटना के संभावित कारणों का विश्लेषण करने और "भविष्य में ऐसी घटनाओं को रोकने के लिए मानक संचालन प्रक्रिया (एसओपी) तैयार करने" पर था। सूत्रों ने बताया कि चूंकि वायुयान दुर्घटना अन्वेषण ब्यूरो (एएआईबी) द्वारा एक अलग जांच भी की जा रही है, जो दुर्घटना के तकनीकी पहलुओं पर गौर कर रही है, इसलिए समिति ने संभावित कारणों और इससे सबक लेने के बारे में चर्चा की। नागर विमानन मंत्री के. राममोहन नायडू ने शनिवार को कहा था कि एएआईबी जांच तकनीकी पहलुओं पर गौर करेगी, जबकि उच्चस्तरीय समिति भविष्य के सुरक्षा उपायों के लिए एक समग्र, नीति-उन्मुख रोडमैप प्रदान करेगी। सोमवार को बैठक में शामिल होने वालों में नागर विमानन मंत्रालय, गृह मंत्रालय, भारतीय वायुसेना, खुफिया ब्यूरो, गुजरात सरकार, नागर विमानन महानिदेशालय (डीजीसीए) और नागर विमानन सुरक्षा ब्यूरो के प्रतिनिधि शामिल थे। समिति के तीन महीने के भीतर अपनी रिपोर्ट सौंपने की उम्मीद है।

अमेरिकी एजेंसी भी एक्शन में

दूसरा ब्लैक बॉक्स भी बरामद

अहमदाबाद में एअर इंडिया के विमान के दुर्घटनाग्रस्त होने की घटना के चार दिन बाद, अब तक डीएनए मिलान के माध्यम से 99 मृतकों की पहचान कर ली गई है और गुजरात के पूर्व मुख्यमंत्री विजय रूपाणी समेत 64 लोगों के शव उनके परिजनों को सौंप दिये गए हैं। अधिकारियों ने सोमवार को यह जानकारी दी। इस हादसे में 270 लोगों की मौत हो गई। रूपाणी उन 242 यात्रियों और चालक दल के सदस्यों में शामिल थे, जो लंदन जाने वाली एअर इंडिया की उड़ान संख्या एआई-171 में सवार थे। यह विमान 12 जून को अहमदाबाद में दुर्घटनाग्रस्त हो गया था। उनके पार्थिव शरीर को लहर के सिविल अस्पताल में उनकी पत्नी अंजलि रूपाणी और परिवार के अन्य सदस्यों को सौंप दिया गया। अधिकारी मृतकों की पहचान करने के लिए डीएनए परीक्षण कर रहे हैं, क्योंकि 12 जून को विमान दुर्घटना में कई लोग इतनी बुरी तरह जल गए थे कि उनके शव पहचाने नहीं जा सके। सिविल अधीक्षक डॉ तरुण जोशी ने कहा, अब तक 99 मृतकों की पहचान कर ली गई है और 64 लोगों के शव उनके परिजनों को सौंप दिये गए हैं।

मुख्य पर्यवेक्षक वोहरा ने मिड-डे को बताया-मैं एएमसी के साथ कई वर्षों से काम कर रहा हूं, लेकिन यह पहली बार था जब मुझे विमान के इस विशालकाय हिस्से को उठाने की निगरानी करने का मौका मिला। टेल सेक्शन बीजे मेडिकल कालेज की बिल्डिंग के एक हिस्से में फंसा हुआ था और यह जमीन से 25 फीट ऊपर था।' उन्होंने आगे कहा कि यह कार्य हमारी टीम के लिए बेहद चुनौतीपूर्ण था। न केवल इसके वजन, बल्कि एअर इंडिया के मिले निर्देशों की वजह से भी। हमें बिना किसी नुकसान के टेल सेक्शन को निकालने के लिए कहा गया था। उन्होंने बताया कि यह कार्य बेहद सावधानीपूर्वक किया गया। 50 टन और 60 टन की क्रेनों का इस्तेमाल किया। हमने 20 मीटर लंबी नायलान रस्सियों का भी उपयोग किया। पहले हमने एक क्रेन का इस्तेमाल करके टेल सेक्शन के सामने के हिस्से को उठाया। जब यह आंशिक रूप से उठ गया तो हमने दूसरी क्रेन का इस्तेमाल करके पीछे के हिस्से को उठाया। दोनों क्रेन के समन्वय कर हमने बिना किसी और नुकसान के विमान की इस टेल को जमीन पर उतारा।

119 की डीएनए टेस्ट से शिनाख्त, 76 शव परिजनों को सौंपे जा चुके

आक्सीजन मास्क पहन अंदर गए एसडीआरएफ कर्मी, हाथों में गीले कपड़े बांधकर लाशें निकालीं

मुंबई, प्रेट्र: हांगकांग से दिल्ली आ रहा एअर इंडिया का बोइंग 787-8 ड्रीमलाइनर विमान सोमवार को उड़ान भरने के एक घंटे के भीतर ही अपने मूल हवाई अड्डे वापस लौट गया, क्योंकि पायलट को इसमें तकनीकी समस्या का संदेह था। एयरलाइन ने कहा-विमान संख्या एआइ 315 की हांगकांग में सुरक्षित लैंडिंग के बाद सभी यात्री विमान से उतर गए हैं। विमान की जांच की जा रही है। विमान हांगकांग से दोपहर 12:16 बजे (स्थानीय समय) रवाना हुआ। इसे भारतीय समयानुसार दोपहर 12:20 बजे दिल्ली में उतरना था। अहमदाबाद में एअर इंडिया के बोइंग ड्रीमलाइनर के दुर्घटनाग्रस्त होने के कुछ दिनों बाद यह घटना हुई है। उस घटना में 241 यात्री व चालक दल के सदस्य मारे गए थे।

एअर इंडिया के एक ड्रीमलाइनर बोइंग विमान के दिल्ली के लिए उड़ान भरने के कुछ ही देर बाद उसमें तकनीकी समस्या का संदेह होने के बाद सोमवार को उसे हांगकांग लौटना पड़ा।

एयरलाइन ने एक बयान में कहा कि उड़ान संख्या एआई 315 हांगकांग में सुरक्षित तरीके से उतरी और सभी यात्री भी उसमें से उतर चुके हैं। विमान का निरीक्षण किया जा रहा है। उड़ान हांगकांग से दोपहर 12.16 बजे (स्थानीय समयानुसार) रवाना हुई और इसे भारतीय समयानुसार दोपहर 12.20 बजे दिल्ली में उतरना था। फ्लाइट ट्रैकिंग वेबसाइट 'फ्लाइटरडार.कॉम' के अनुसार, यह उड़ान लगभग 3.5 घंटे की देरी से रवाना हुई थी। इसका निर्धारित प्रस्थान समय सुबह 8.50 बजे था। एअर इंडिया ने कहा, "16 जून 2025 को हांगकांग से दिल्ली के लिए प्रस्थान करने वाली उड़ान संख्या एआई315 तकनीकी समस्या के कारण उड़ान भरने के तुरंत बाद हांगकांग लौट गई। विमान हांगकांग में सुरक्षित रूप से उतरा और एहतियात के तौर पर इसकी जांच की जा रही है। यात्रियों को जल्द से जल्द उनके गंतव्य दिल्ली तक पहुंचाने के लिए वैकल्पिक व्यवस्था की योजना बनाई गई है।' रिकॉर्ड के मुताबिक यह उड़ान तीन घंटे नौ मिनट के विलंब से रवाना हुई थी। उड़ान भरने के बाद पायलट को हवा में ही तकनीकी समस्या का संदेह हुआ। इस पर पायलट ने विमान को समुद्र के ऊपर कुछ देर उड़ाया। हालांकि जब दिक्कत दूर नहीं हुई तो उसने वापस लौटने का फैसला किया। इसके बाद विमान करीब एक घंटे 19 मिनट बाद अपने मूल स्थान यानी हांगकांग हवाई अड्डे पर वापस लौट आया। विमान स्थानीय समयानुसार एक बज कर 18 मिनट पर हांगकांग हवाई अड्डे पर उतरा।

Amid Scramble to Give Victims an Identity, Tackling a Stray Threat

City police intervene as scavenging around crash site complicates identification efforts

Forum Gandhi & DP Bhattacharya

Ahmedabad: The city police have taken help from animal rescue teams to capture and relocate stray dogs from the Air India AI-171 crash site.

This follows concerns that the dogs scavenged human remains, hindering recovery and identification and compromising investigation integrity.

The May 12 crash killed all but one of the 242 people on board the London-bound Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner and at least 38 on the ground.

The dogs around the crash site are in a bad condition and they are scavenging for food, said a senior police official. "The search operation is still on, and there are several human remains still being found every day. We have noticed that the dogs on site are eating the human remains and entering the crash site," he said. "We have to rehabilitate them for their protection as well as to maintain the sanctity of the investigation."

Some of the dogs also appeared distressed, prompting authorities to act swiftly. Officials said the priority is to ensure that the animals receive proper care while also preventing any contamination of the crash site.

Naresh Rajput, head of the Cattle Nuisance Control Department of the Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation, said his department is involved. "We have so far rescued four dogs from the crash site and brought them to our shelter at Danilimda so that they don't disturb the site," Rajput told ET.

Personnel from his department have been deployed on the site since Friday.

Meanwhile, search teams continue to pull out human remains from the debris of the BJ Medical College hostel building destroyed in the crash and the surrounding areas.

FILE PHOTO

They recovered a body on Sunday, three days after the crash. On Monday, at least 15 human remains were found at the site. These discoveries highlight the challenges for search teams in ensuring complete and respectful recovery of the human remains.

Scavenging animals complicate victim identification and debris clearing. Authorities manage the cordoned-off site to facilitate recovery and maintain public health and investigative protocols.

Eerie Silence Masks the Joy of Life in a Vibrant Ecosystem

Carcasses litter lush college campus which was home to a variety of birds and animals

Forum Gandhi
& DP Bhattacharya

Ahmedabad: The Air India crash site at BJ Medical College, surrounded by lush greens on three sides, was not only home to junior resident doctors but also to a vibrant ecosystem of at least 30 peacocks, 20 dogs, and several species of birds and cows. In the days since the crash, this once-lively campus has fallen eerily silent. According to sources, the remains of at least four peacocks, five dogs, and over 50 birds have been found in the past five days.

A watchman posted at the college told ET that the days leading up to the monsoon were blissful. The cries of peacocks would echo across the campus, and the green expanse bustled with life. "Now, you can only hear a couple of them," he said. Resident doctors and the mess staff who regularly fed the stray dogs have either perished in the crash or have abandoned the college premises since the tragedy. The surviving animals now wander the site, unfed and thirsty.

On Sunday afternoon, reporters standing outside the barricaded area of the crash site heard a dog howling for more than 15 minutes.

A local NGO founder shared the ground reality: "Our NGO, along with other NGOs, got multiple calls. Over the past five days, we've recovered several remains from the site. It's been difficult."

He added, "We have to carefully move through the debris to pick up what's left. Sometimes it's hard to tell if it's animal remains or something else." "It's not easy, but we have to do it," he said. He added, the volunteers had cremated over 50 birds and five dogs charred at the site.

The task has been particularly sensitive as human body parts are still being recovered from the area. The Centre for Nurture and Care of Dogs (CNCD) has been deployed to keep carnivorous animals away from the site to prevent further contamination and to manage the risk of animals scavenging on human remains.

Sources confirmed that several dogs were killed when the London-bound Air India flight crashed into the BJ Medical College hostel last Thursday. At least one peacock also perished in the crash. "We have handed over the body of the peacock to the forest department, as it is a Schedule One protected bird," Parmar, a forest official involved in the rescue and clearance operations, said.

Emergency Workers Still Can't believe One Passenger Survived Airline Crash

DP Bhattacharya

Ahmedabad: Until they cross-checked the visuals and the flight manifest, emergency responders of the 108 Ambulance service could not believe that they had indeed rescued the sole survivor from the Air India plane that crashed in Ahmedabad Thursday.

Satinder Singh Sandhu, a 108 emergency management executive, said when they found Vishwas Kumar, the British national who survived the crash, was in confused state and wanted to walk back to the plane that was still in flames, saying he had family members travelling on the same flight. "I put him in an ambulance and sent him to hospital without knowing that he was the sole survivor of the crash," he told ET.

Sandhu said he was having lunch at his office at the 1,200-bed new complex of the Civil hospital, which is about 200 meters away from the crash site, on Thursday when he heard a loud sound. He immediately mobilised five ambulances available there and rushed to the spot. "Initially I thought it was a big accident," he said. "But the fire and the smoke there told us that it was something much bigger, and probably an air crash." Sandhu called his superior Jitendra Shahi, who rushed 25 more ambulances to the spot. "Meanwhile, we saw a wounded security guard and sent him to hospital," Sandhu said. "And then, we saw a man walking out of the building premises somewhat wounded. Initially we thought he was someone from the building who had probably jumped out of the building." As they were taking the confused-looking man to the hospital, he told the paramedic in the ambulance that he was travelling to London in that plane, said Shahi. They did not believe him initially. "Later in the evening, when we checked the visual, cross-checked his name with the flight manifest, it was only then we realised that he was indeed the sole survivor of the crash," said Shahi.

Ex-CM Rupani Cremated in Rajkot

DP Bhattacharya

Ahmedabad: The mortal remains of former Gujarat chief minister Vijay Rupani were on Monday consigned to flames at the Ramnathpara crematorium at Rajkot.

Earlier in the day, Rupani's family received his body from the Civil Hospital in Ahmedabad. His body was identified on Sunday after matching the DNA with his son Rushav Rupani, who had arrived from the US.

Apart from Gujarat CM Bhupendra Patel, several senior ministers of the BJP and others paid their last respects to Rupani at the Civil Hospital while police accorded him a guard of honour, before his body was flown to Rajkot.

Union home minister Amit Shah also reached Rajkot to lay a wreath and offer his last respects to his longtime friend and party colleague at his residence, where the body was kept for the public to pay respects. Later, the funeral procession was taken out that travelled through the major areas of the city before reaching the crematorium.

Union home minister Amit Shah also reached Rajkot to offer his last respects to Rupani

Rupani was travelling in the ill-fated Air India flight from Ahmedabad to London to meet his daughter when the plane crashed over the hostel of BJ Medical College killing all but one passenger.

Rupani shared a deep connection with Prime Minister Narendra Modi as well as Union home minister Amit Shah and was instrumental in BJP's generational transition in Saurashtra region and tightening the grip of the party there. As a matter of fact, he along with Amit Shah oversaw Prime Minister Narendra Modi's electoral debut back in February 2002 after he assumed the charge of Gujarat in September 2001.

Reach Deep Into Air India's Pockets

Ramesh V Vaidyanathan & Suyash Sarvankar

Aircraft accidents, though rare, leave a devastating impact that extends far beyond the wreckage of lives. Compensation becomes not only a matter of monetary redress, but a crucial step toward accountability, closure and rebuilding lives.

In the aftermath of last week's AI 171 tragedy, Air India offered ₹1 cr as compensation per deceased person to his or her next of kin. While this announcement was prompt and appears generous, the airline could be on the hook for a much higher amount. Families may have significant claims, depending on how the investigation unfolds.

India has ratified the 'Montreal Convention' — Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules for International Carriage by Air — by incorporating it into the Carriage by Air Act 1972. This provides for a 2-tier compensation system defined in terms of special drawing rights (SDR), an international reserve asset created by IMF to supplement official reserves of its member countries. Accordingly:

- The airline must compensate the kin of the deceased passengers up to SDR 128,821 (₹1.6 cr), regardless of any fault or wrongdoing by the airline. This compensation is the absolute minimum, without exception. Some media reports have indicated that the ₹1 cr offered by AI is separate, and in addition to the SDR amount required under the convention.
- Kin of the deceased may seek compensation over and above this SDR amount, based on actual loss. This would be calculated on lost income, and companionship of victims who sustained their families and dependents. AI could avoid higher compensation only if it proves there was no negligence, wrongful act or omission by the airline (including its servants or agents, which include various third parties engaged by the airline to service the aircraft or assist with the flight).

Alternatively, the airline could defend itself if the accident occurred solely due to wrongful acts, or omissions of a third party, such as in the case of terrorism. The legal burden is on the airline to prove that the mishap did not occur due to its conduct, or that it occurred due to the conduct of a third party.

Piecing things together

In such cases, families of Indian victims could also approach consumer fora under the Consumer Protection Act 2019. The consumer protection law is in addition to remedies available under the Montreal Convention as read with the Carriage by Air Act.

For families of foreign passengers, legal options extend beyond India. Since the convention applies almost globally, they could file lawsuits in their home countries, where compensation standards may be higher.

Air India has also offered ₹1 cr to the families of the deceased medical college students and staff, and people on the ground. Securing higher compensation is more challenging for families of victims on the ground. Both Carriage by Air Act and Consumer Protection Act are meant for passengers on the ill-fated aircraft. The next of kin of ground fatalities would have to approach a civil court in India seeking compensation under Fatal Accidents Act 1855, which provides compensation to the family of a person who dies in the case of wrongful accidents.

Another option is a tort law claim, where damages for negligence could be sought. In both these options, Air India would be liable if it's at fault — that is, if the accident was a result of its act, omission or oversight. The total compensation payout to victims could well exceed ₹1,000 cr. Beyond victim compensation, Air India also faces significant costs for property damage, aircraft loss, emergency response and disrupted flights.

Globally, the compensation payout in cases of similar incidents has touched ₹4,500 cr ($500 mn). Air India likely maintains adequate insurance coverage that would cover these costs, or at least a substantial part. But if claims exceed coverage, the financial hit could be severe.

Mumbai, 16 June

The Tata group is in talks with global consulting giant McKinsey & Co to spearhead a sweeping transformation of Air India (A-I), as the airline grapples with its gravest crisis following last week's fatal crash in Ahmedabad, people familiar with the matter said.

Tata Sons and Air India Chairman N Chandrasekaran met Vivek Pandit, a senior partner at McKinsey, in Mumbai over the weekend to chart a revival strategy for the airline, according to a person with direct knowledge.

The tragic accident, which marks one of the deadliest in India's aviation history, has placed intense scrutiny on the Tata group's turnaround plans for the former state-run carrier, which it acquired from the Indian government in 2022.

Chandrasekaran also held internal consultations with key Tata group leaders, including Noel Tata, chairman of Tata Trusts and a director on the board of Tata Sons, the person said. The discussions focused on crisis management measures, including compensation and support for the victims' families.

McKinsey declined to comment, citing client confidentiality. An email sent to Tata Sons on Monday went unanswered.

The Tata group has already merged Air India with Vistara, the airline it co-owned with Singapore Airlines, in an ambitious bid to create a world-class global carrier.

This is time to be brave: Chandra to A-I staffers

DEV CHATTERJEE
Mumbai, 16 June

N Chandrasekaran (pictured), chairman of Air India (A-I) and Tata Sons, on Monday offered a message of solidarity and resolve in the wake of last week's fatal crash in Ahmedabad while addressing 700-odd employees at the airline's headquarters in Gurugram.

"I felt I had to be here and meet as many of you as possible," Chandrasekaran told the assembled staff, many of whom were part of the emergency response teams activated following the tragedy. Chandra also visited the Emergency Command Centre, the Integrated Operations Control Centre, and the Customer Service and Support to show his support for A-I.

Recalling his visit to the crash site near Ahmedabad airport, Chandra said: "It was not easy at all. I've seen a fair share of crises in my career, but nothing as heartbreaking as this. I never imagined I would face something like this."

He also acknowledged that no words or actions could bring back the 241 lives lost in the crash, but stressed the company's commitment to standing by the families affected. "We consider everyone who lost someone in this tragedy as part of our family — now and forever," he added.

Addressing the emotional toll on employees, the chairman said: "Criticism is inevitable, especially for those who care deeply and work tirelessly to build a great airline. But I want you to be strong. When you feel distraught, remember one word: determination."

"We are going to get through this. We need to show resilience. We need to use this incident as an act of force to build a safer airline," Chandra said and urged employees to use the tragedy as a catalyst to build a stronger company.

Chandrasekaran emphasised the complexity of aviation operations, saying: "It's a business with multiple redundancies, checks, certifications — systems that have evolved over decades. Yet incidents like this happen. We have to wait for the investigation to understand why."

He concluded with a call for calm and collective strength: "This is the time to be brave. To be resolute. Our job is to get A-I to where it truly belongs — the place this country and every passenger who puts their trust in us deserves."

विमान हादसे में मृत 99 लोगों की डीएनए टेस्ट से हुई शिनाख्त, 64 शव परिजनों को सौंपे गए

अधिकांश शव बुरी तरह जल गए, इसलिए पहचान के लिए कराए जा रहे हैं डीएनए टेस्ट

विमान में सवार 242 लोगों में से 241 सहित कुल 275 लोगों की गई थी जान

परिजनों को शवों के लिए करना पड़ रहा है लंबा इंतजार

नई दिल्ली, 16 जून।

उन्हें 72 घंटे का इंतजार करने के लिए कहा गया था और यह समयसीमा रविवार को बीत गई। स्वास्थ्य अधिकारियों ने परिवारों के शोकाकुल सदस्यों से ना घबराने की अपील की है जबकि विशेषज्ञों ने कहा है कि विमान हादसे

भारी डिस्काउंट के चक्कर में दोनों भाइयों ने करा लिए टिकट, विमान हादसे में बड़े की गई जान

राज्य ब्यूरो, जागरण ● अहमदाबाद

एक मात्र जिंदा बचे विमान यात्री विश्वास कुमार की मौसी ने बयां की दास्तां

'दीव में अकेले रहकर क्या करेगा? चल मेरे साथ लंदन। चार-पांच महीने के बाद फिर वापस आ जाएंगे।' यह कहना था अहमदाबाद विमान हादसे में एकमात्र जीवित बचे विमान यात्री विश्वास कुमार रमेश का। उनके बड़े भाई लंदन जाने को तैयार नहीं थे, लेकिन 60 हजार रुपये का टिकट 20 हजार में मिलने लगा तो डिस्काउंट के चक्कर में दोनों भाइयों के टिकट करा लिए।

उनकी मौसी रमाबेन भालिया ने बताया कि दोनों भाई दीव आए हुए थे और 12 जून को उनका लंदन जाने का कोई कार्यक्रम नहीं था। एअर इंडिया के विमान

अहमदाबाद में एअर इंडिया विमान हादसे के बाद छात्रावास परिसर से बाहर निकलते विश्वास कुमार रमेश। वीडियोग्रैब

हादसाग्रस्त विमान की 25 फीट ऊंचाई पर फंसी टेल हटाई गई

मिड-डे, अहमदाबाद : एअर इंडिया के हादसाग्रस्त हुए बोइंग एआइ -171 विमान का लगभग 4,000 किलोग्राम वजनी टेल सेक्शन अहमदाबाद के बीजे मेडिकल कालेज की हास्टल बिल्डिंग से सफलतापूर्वक हटा दिया गया। यह हिस्सा इमारत की 25 फीट की ऊंचाई पर फंसा हुआ था। यह चुनौतीपूर्ण कार्य अहमदाबाद नगर निगम (एएमसी) के ठोस अपशिष्ट प्रबंधन विभाग के मोहम्मद शोएब वोहरा की देखरेख में किया गया। इसमें अनुभवी क्रेन आपरेटर ओमप्रकाश और रोहित यादव का विशेष सहयोग किया, जोकि पिछले 12 वर्षों से इस क्षेत्र में कार्यरत हैं।

मुख्य पर्यवेक्षक वोहरा ने मिड-डे को बताया- 'मैं एएमसी के साथ कई वर्षों से काम कर रहा हूं लेकिन यह पहली बार था जब मुझे विमान के इस विशालकाय हिस्से को उठाने की निगरानी करने का मौका मिला। टेल सेक्शन बीजे मेडिकल कालेज की बिल्डिंग के एक हिस्से में फंसा हुआ था और यह जमीन से 25 फीट ऊपर था।' उन्होंने आगे कहा कि यह कार्य हमारी टीम के लिए बेहद चुनौतीपूर्ण था। न केवल इसके वजन, बल्कि एअर इंडिया के मिले निर्देशों की वजह से भी। हमें बिना किसी नुकसान के टेल सेक्शन को निकालने के लिए कहा गया था।

उन्होंने बताया कि यह कार्य बेहद सावधानीपूर्वक किया गया। 50 टन और 60 टन की क्रेनों का इस्तेमाल किया।

Indian trucks take hydrogen highway to future

SHINE JACOB & SOHINI DAS
Chennai/Mumbai, 16 June

From the industrial sprawl of Reliance Industries' Jamnagar refinery to the frost-bitten heights of Leh and the traffic-choked avenues of New Delhi, a quiet shift is underway in India's commercial vehicle (CV) sector. Hydrogen-powered trucks and buses — once a speculative future — are now rolling out onto the country's roads, driven by auto giants like Ashok Leyland and Tata Motors. Others are not far behind.

While many of these efforts are aligned with the government's National Green Hydrogen Mission, original equipment manufacturers (OEMs) are also shaping their own road maps to remain future-ready. Ashok Leyland, for instance, made headlines in 2023 when it unveiled the country's first hydrogen internal combustion engine (H2-ICE) truck, developed in collaboration with Reliance Industries Ltd (RIL).

ASHOK LEYLAND HAS PARTNERED NTPC GREEN TO DEPLOY HYDROGEN FUEL CELL BUSES IN KEY LOCATIONS, INCLUDING DELHI AND LADAKH

Since then, over 20 of these heavy-duty vehicles have clocked nearly 250,000 kilometres, and have rivalled the efficiency of traditional ICE vehicles.

The firm has partnered NTPC Green to deploy hydrogen fuel cell buses in key locations, including Delhi and Ladakh.

"Among the alternative fuels, the ultimate destination of the CV market is going to be hydrogen. However, it needs the cost structure to be right," Sanjeev Kumar, president and head of the medium and heavy commercial vehicle division at Ashok Leyland, told Business Standard. "As an organisation, we are ready with technology; it is only a question of when and how, as the cost of hydrogen continues to be very high. Recently, we have also delivered one 55-tonne fuel cell vehicle to Adani (group) for its mining application in Chhattisgarh."

Tata Motors, too, is carrying out trials of hydrogen-powered CVs. Since March, the firm has been testing two trucks — one powered by H2-ICE, the other by hydrogen fuel cell — across a 24-month pilot programme. A total of 16 hydrogen-powered vehicles, with varying payloads and configurations, will ply on some of India's busiest freight routes in Mumbai, Pune, Delhi-NCR, Surat, Vadodara, Jamshedpur, and Kalinganagar.

"We've also started shipping our first hydrogen trucks, which are now going to ply on specific lanes," P B Balaji, group chief financial officer at Tata Motors, said during a recent post-earnings call.

The pilot, undertaken in partnership with Indian Oil Corporation, aims to gather on-ground data — both to finetune the vehicles and to map out hydrogen availability along key transport routes.

Govt's pilot projects to put 37 hydrogen-powered vehicles on the road

At the Bharat Mobility Global Expo earlier this year, Tata Motors Executive Director Girish Wagh signalled that the company was targeting a commercial launch window within the next 12 to 24 months. The company did not wish to share further updates at the moment.

The momentum isn't limited to Indian firms. Daimler Truck, one of the world's leading CV manufacturers, is preparing to enter the Indian hydrogen race. "On the path towards decarbonising transport, Daimler Truck is entering the next development phase of its fuel cell trucks," said Pradeep Kumar T, president of product engineering and chief technology officer, Daimler India Commercial Vehicles.

Following extensive testing, both on tracks and public roads, Daimler's Mercedes-Benz GenH2 trucks are now approaching the customer deployment phase. "We are currently evaluating customer readiness, infrastructure availability, and local operating conditions to ensure that when our hydrogen trucks enter Indian roads, it will be with full commitment to the quality, safety and reliability that define Daimler Truck worldwide," he added.

The central government, too, is ramping up its hydrogen play. Through the Ministry of New and Renewable Energy, five pilot projects have been allocated to a group of private players — Tata Motors, RIL, NTPC, Ashok Leyland, Hindustan Petroleum Corporation Ltd, Bharat Petroleum Corporation Ltd, and Indian Oil Corporation Ltd. Together, these projects will put 37 hydrogen-powered vehicles (a mix of buses and trucks) on the road, supported by nine hydrogen-refuelling stations.

The vehicles include 15 powered by hydrogen fuel cells and 22 by hydrogen ICEs. The trials will take place on 10 routes across the country — from Delhi to Thiruvananthapuram. Launched in January 2023, the National Green Hydrogen Mission has an allocated budget of ₹19,744 crore through to the end of the decade.

It is the centrepiece of India's push towards becoming aatmanirbhar (self-reliant) in clean energy and serving as an inspiration for the global clean energy transition.

McKinsey likely to aid Air India overhaul

GEORGE MATHEW
MUMBAI, JUNE 16

A top Tata Sons official met a senior partner of McKinsey in Mumbai last week to discuss a revival strategy for the carrier, according to a source

THE TATA group is exploring the possibility of a major revamp of Air India. The group is reportedly in discussions with global consulting firm McKinsey & Company to lead a comprehensive overhaul of the airline, which is currently grappling with one of the most severe crises in its recent history.

A top Tata Sons official met a senior partner of McKinsey in Mumbai last week to discuss a revival strategy for the carrier, according to a source. The meeting took place just days after a London-bound Air India Boeing Dreamliner crashed shortly after takeoff from Ahmedabad, claiming the lives of 241 passengers and crew. Only one passenger survived the crash.

"While we do not comment on or publicly discuss details of any client work, it would be inaccurate to report that McKinsey is currently serving the Tata group on a transformation project for Air India," McKinsey & Company said in a statement to The Indian Express.

However, when contacted, a Tata group official did not comment on the issue.

This isn't McKinsey's first engagement with the consulting firm. Its relationship with Air India started almost eight years ago. In 2017, Air India selected McKinsey to help develop its long-term strategic business plan — especially on cash-flow, route networks, marketing strategies and updating its loyalty program.

Watson Farley & Williams (WFW) advised multiple parties on the historic merger of Tata SIA Airlines Ltd (Vistara) with Air India, creating a unified full-service airline under the Air India brand. This followed the merger of Air India group's low-cost airlines Air India Express and AIX Connect earlier.

The combined entity is now the largest international carrier with more than 90 destinations worldwide and the second largest domestic carrier. The Indian aviation market is the third largest in the world and is one of the fastest growing.

Founded in 1932, Air India is a pioneer of India's aviation sector and has developed an extensive global network, becoming a major international carrier. The consolidation of the four Tata-owned airlines into one group is part of Air India's ongoing, five-year transformation program, Vihaan.AI which is focussed on establishing Air India Group as a world-class aviation company.

Air India reported a lower loss of Rs 4,444.10 crore for FY24, a significant decrease of 60 per cent compared to the Rs 11,388 crore loss in FY23. The airline's turnover also increased by 23.69 per cent to Rs 38,812 crore during the same period.

The Dreamliner crash has cast a spotlight on the Tata group's efforts to turn around the airline, which it acquired from the Indian government in 2022 with the goal of restoring its performance and reputation. FULL REPORT ON www.indianexpress.com

गोवा से टेकआफ के बाद नीचे आने लगा विमान, यात्रियों की अटकी सांसें

जागरण संवाददाता, लखनऊ

पायलट ने सूझबूझ से विमान को किया नियंत्रित, यात्रियों ने जताई नाराजगी

इंडिगो एयरलाइन का विमान 6ई-6811 सोमवार को आठ मिनट की देरी से गोवा से दोपहर 3:48 बजे 172 यात्रियों को लेकर लखनऊ के लिए रवाना हुआ। गोवा एयरपोर्ट से टेकआफ करने के बाद विमान पहले ऊपर गया और फिर उसकी ऊंचाई धीरे-धीरे कम होने लगी। यात्री अहमदाबाद विमान हादसे को याद कर दहशत में आने लगे। इस बीच पायलट ने सूझबूझ से स्थिति को संभाल लिया। इस विमान के यात्री जाली खान ने इंटरनेट मीडिया एक्स पर शिकायत करते हुए लिखा कि विमान के कैप्टन ने अपने साथ सभी यात्रियों की जान को जोखिम में डाल दिया। गोवा एयरपोर्ट से टेकआफ करने के बाद विमान अचानक से नीचे जाने लगा। इससे सभी यात्री घबरा गए। क्रू मेंबर ने यात्रियों को समझाया। विमान ने जैसे ही शाम 06:08 बजे लखनऊ एयरपोर्ट पर लैंडिंग की घबराए हुए यात्रियों ने राहत भरी सांस ली।

जेद्दा से 242 हज यात्रियों को ला रहे सऊदी विमान के पहिये से निकला धुआं

वडोदरा और रांची के लिए उड़ान भर चुके विमान की ऐहतियातन लैंडिंग

बम की धमकी के कारण फ्रैंकफर्ट से हैदराबाद आने वाली लुफ्थांसा की एक फ्लाइट को रविवार को वापस फ्रैंकफर्ट हवाई अड्डे पर उतरना पड़ा। यात्रियों को पहले बताया गया था कि विमान को भारत में उतरने की अनुमति नहीं दी गई है। उड़ान संख्या एलएच752 रविवार दोपहर को जर्मनी से रवाना हुई थी और इसे सोमवार तड़के हैदराबाद हवाई अड्डे पर उतरना था। लेकिन, लुफ्थांसा ने कहा कि बम की धमकी के कारण इसे वापस लौटाना पड़ा और यात्रियों को रातभर ठहरने की व्यवस्था की गई। सोमवार को यह विमान यात्रियों को लेकर फ्रैंकफर्ट से हैदराबाद के लिए उड़ान भर चुका है।

PRACHI PISAL
Mumbai, 16 June

Data centres are increasingly becoming a key part of the real estate landscape, as reality firms — with rich expertise in land acquisition, construction and dealing with government approvals — are seeing them as opportunities to build long-term assets with continuous revenue flow.

Anant Raj, Lodha, L&T Realty, DLF, Panchshil Realty, Rustomjee, Hiranandani Group, Mindspace Reit and many more realty firms are seeing data centres as "future-proof assets" with long-term returns.

While some have been in the segment that is promising nearly 20 per cent returns on investment, more players are getting into this space as they diversify their portfolios amid a sharp upside in demand for data centres, stemming largely from global capacity centres and industry's quickened AI adoption.

"While our core strength lies in real estate development, we see data centres not only as a complementary extension of our capabilities but also as a transformative business opportunity aligned with the country's accelerating digital evolution," said Amit Sarin, managing director, Anant Raj.

Sarin's firm is targeting the development of 307 Mw of capacity across its three campuses, with an investment commitment of over ₹10,000 crore over the next four-five years.

The industry experts believe that the developers are leveraging their expertise in land acquisition, construction, dealing with government approvals, and maintaining tenant relationships.

"Real estate developers with experience in developing commercial buildings see a natural synergy for skills such as land acquisition, obtaining government permits, construction and development, and sourcing infrastructure such as fibre and power (including green power). Further, with their vast tenant relationships, they are able to tap into these networks to address such companies' data centres needs through diversification," said Devi Shankar, executive director, industrial, logistics & data centres, Anarock Capital.

Developers	Data centre services provider/Partner	Total investment amount
Adani Realty	EdgeConneX	$10 bn
Lodha Group	Amazon Web Services	$8.2 bn
Panchshil Realty	Blackstone	$2.4 bn

According to Colliers India, India's data centres capacity as of April 2025 is about 1,263 Mw with 15.9 million square feet (msf) of real estate engaged.

India's data centre capacity is set to cross 4,500 Mw by 2030, as $20-25 billion of future investments are likely to materialise, with a real estate footprint of 55 msf.

"With the rise of AI and cloud adoption, especially by global tech firms, data centres are becoming a key part of the real estate landscape," said Ramesh Nair, CEO and MD, Mindspace Reit— the only Indian Reit with a data centre portfolio.

"The post-Covid shift to hybrid work, alongside the boom in edtech, e-commerce, and digital banking, has fuelled a surge in data consumption and storage needs. In response, major domestic and international players are investing heavily in building both hyper-scale and edge data centres across the country," Shabala Shinde, partner and real estate industry leader, Grant Thornton Bharat, said.

The developers view DCs as assets that can give stable and long-term returns amid increasing usage of data, better 5G penetration, and data storage requirements.

Mumbai-based developer Niranjan Hiranandani, managing director, Hiranandani Group, said, "The rationale behind this move is multifaceted: we view data centres as future-proof assets offering stable, long-term returns, supported by the exponential rise in data consumption, accelerated adoption of cloud services, and deepening digital penetration."

Hiranandani noted that while it is a capex-heavy business, the returns are both feasible and favourable.

Distraught families of flight attendant Saineeta Chakravarti of Juhu Koliwada and senior airhostess Shraddha Dhawan of Mulund laid their dear departed to rest Mumbai on Monday

Mumbai: Heartbreaking scenes unfolded as the last rites of two Air India crew members who died in the Ahmedabad air crash of June 12 were performed in Mumbai Monday. Distraught families of senior airhostess Shraddha Dhawan of Mulund and flight attendant Saineeta Chakravarti of Juhu Koliwada laid their dear departed to rest. The remains of these AI staffers were despatched to Mumbai from Ahmedabad after their families' DNA samples were matched with theirs.

The bodies of the pilot, Capt Sumeet Sabharwal of Powai, and co-pilot or first officer Clive Kunder of Goregaon are expected to be consigned to the elements on Tuesday. Clive was a member of the UBM Christa Kanthi Church in Kurla and the burial is scheduled at Sewri Cemetery. Sabharwal's remains will be flown into Mumbai from Ahmedabad on an early morning flight.

Late Monday night, deceased cabin supervisor Shraddha Dhawan, 44, who lived in Nishad Kalpnagari, Mulund, was laid to rest by her husband Rajesh. Neighbours and relatives gathered to offer condolence.

Rajesh, also an employee of Air India since 2005, is a native of Palakkad, Kerala. The couple got married in 2008 in Palakkad. He is the youngest of three children of K Narayanan, a retired officer of the Indian Air Force.

A day before the crash, Rajesh had gone to Delhi to attend a course organised by Air India. It was during his stay there that he received the news of his wife's death through an official call from the airline. During the incident, their 13-year-old daughter was with her maternal relatives in Mumbai.

Over in Juhu Koliwada, the Chakravarti family bade final farewell to their daughter Saineeta, 35, at the Hindu crematorium in Santacruz West. More than 200 mourners, including Air India colleagues, family members and neighbours from her community, gathered as her father Abin performed the last rites.

Saineeta's mother Reema wept uncontrollably while her father and sister quietly struggled to contain their grief. Everyone present mourned the loss of a bright young lady who had the drive to lift her family out of poverty by sheer dint of hard work.

Meanwhile the bodies of British passengers Javed Ali Syed, his wife Mariam and their two little children Zayn, 5, and Amani, 4, have yet to be identified, said Javed's brother Imtiaz. Imtiaz and his kin from Malad are in Ahmedabad waiting for the DNA results to arrive.

Cabin crew Deepak Pathak of Badlapur too has not been identified yet. Until Monday his DNA samples and those given by his family members were yet to be matched. A relative told TOI, "Deepak's two sisters and brothers-in-law are still in Ahmedabad and their DNA has yet not matched." Similarly, the body of Roshni Songhare, a resident of Dombivli, has also not been identified yet. Her father and brother are in Ahmedabad where they are awaiting the DNA match.

The body of 23-year-old air hostess Maithili Patil from Nhava village in Navi Mumbai will also be flown in from Ahmedabad early Tuesday morning.

Adani scam probe hampered by lack of information from tax haven countries: Cong.

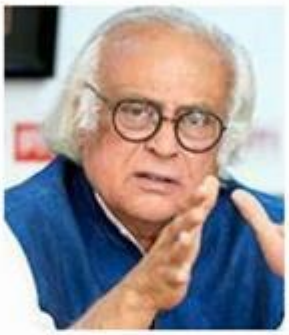
The Hindu Bureau
NEW DELHI

The Congress on Monday said that a key figure in the alleged Adani scam had Cypriot citizenship, but ongoing investigations by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) into transactions involving the Adani Group had been impacted by insufficiency in sharing of financial information by tax haven countries, and the "lack of pressure" from India.

The charge came amid Prime Minister Narendra Modi's visit to Cyprus.

"The Prime Minister is in Cyprus on his way to Canada. Of course, he would have us believe that it is a pure coincidence that a key figure in the Modani scam has Cypriot citizenship. The Cyprus-based fund New Leaina has reportedly about $420 million in Adani companies,"



Jairam Ramesh

Congress's communications chief Jairam Ramesh said in a post on social media platform X.

The "ultimate beneficial owners of this fund are linked to Amicorp, which is believed to have set up at least seven Adani promoter entities, seventeen offshore shell companies linked to Mr. Vinod Adani, and three Mauritius-based offshore investors in Adani Group stock," Mr. Ramesh said.

"All these transactions are part of the ongoing SEBI investigations which have been hampered by lack of sharing of financial information by these and other tax-haven countries and lack of pressure by India," Mr. Ramesh alleged.

There was no reaction to the latest salvo from the Congress from either the Union government or the Adani Group.

Mr. Ramesh also explained how India, under Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru in the 1950s, had rooted for Cyprus to become independent from British rule, and the island had become free on August 16, 1960.

"In the context of today's geopolitics, it is worthwhile to recall that India's championing of the independence of Cyprus in the 1950s and thereafter became a sore point in our bilateral relations with Turkiye," he said.

AI 171 flies again as 'AI 159', man who dodged tragedy on board

Niyati.Parikh@timesofindia.com

Ahmedabad: First flights are all about nervous excitement, but this one was always going to be different.

AI 159 from Ahmedabad to London Gatwick — the first on that route since the June 12 Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner crash — took off Monday on the sombre wings of remembrance and prayer, ferrying at least one passenger who might have been on the crashed aircraft four days earlier had his mother not taken ill suddenly.

Jayesh Ramji was approaching Gate 4 of Terminal 2, a hand tightly clasping his cabin bag, when his mind raced back through the surreal last few days of his trip to India. "I was to return on AI 171. I postponed my travel to June 16 because my mother was unwell. All I want is to get back home safe," said the 34-year-old London shop assistant with roots in Diu. His wasn't the only face betraying more than a trace of emotion ahead of renumbered flight AI 159's 4.30pm departure, over three hours later than scheduled.

The terminal was seemingly quieter than usual, with families clinging a little tighter, and goodbyes lasting a tad longer.

Raas Mishra, 28, had just said goodbye to his teary-eyed parents. "They were scared. I am a tad nervous, too, but I have flown Air India before. I trust their pilots," said the young man, employed with a logistics firm in London.

For 72-year-old Kokila Patel of Patan, the announcement of a delay — the Dreamliner was to take off at 1.10pm — added to what she described as "emotional exhaustion". She was scheduled to fly out on June 14, but the flight was cancelled after the crash two days earlier.

"My son said I should book another airline. But I had already confirmed my travel plans on June 16 with Air India by then," she said. "I trust God and the airline. I want to go back, not stay scared forever."

US officials and the officials of the Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau arrive to inspect the crash site in Ahmedabad on Monday

Her elder sister Pushpa, 75, said she had "begged" her sibling to change the airline, "but she wouldn't listen".

Sabina Qasmani, 21, from Veraval was heading back to the UK to join her father and siblings. Her mother, Ameena, admitted she would be anxious until she received a call from London that her daughter had reached safely. "Since the crash, I haven't been able to sleep. Sabina is flying the same route. It's hard not to worry," she said.

For Riddhi, a married woman returning to the UK after visiting her family in Ahmedabad, the journey was about managing mixed emotions. "This is my second trip home since getting married. I was happy being with my family, but I now want to get back safely to my husband."

Crash Site: Scavenging Dogs being Relocated

Ahmedabad: Police in Ahmedabad have begun relocating stray dogs from the Air India Flight AI-171 crash site. This action comes amid concerns that dogs scavenging human remains are hindering recovery efforts and compromising the investigation's integrity. The London-bound Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner crashed on June 12 shortly after takeoff from Sardar Vallabhbhai International Airport, striking the BJ Medical College hostel complex in Meghaninagar. A senior police official stated, "The dogs are in a bad condition here, they are scavenging for food."

Ex-CM Rupani Cremated in Rajkot

DP Bhattacharya

Ahmedabad: The mortal remains of former Gujarat chief minister Vijay Rupani was on Monday consigned to flames at the Ramnathpara crematorium at Rajkot.

Earlier in the day, Rupani's family received his body from the Civil Hospital in Ahmedabad. His body was identified on Sunday after matching the DNA with his son Rushav Rupani, who had arrived from the US.

Apart from Gujarat CM Bhupendra Patel, several senior ministers of the BJP and others paid their last respects to Rupani at the Civil Hospital while police accorded him a guard of honour, before his body was flown to Rajkot.

Union home minister Amit Shah also reached Rajkot to offer his last respects to Rupani

Union home minister Amit Shah also reached Rajkot to lay a wreath and offer his last respects to his longtime friend and party colleague at his residence, where the body was kept for the public to pay respects. Later, the funeral procession was taken out that travelled through the major areas of the city before reaching the crematorium.

Rupani was travelling in the ill-fated Air India flight from Ahmedabad to London to meet his daughter when the plane crashed over the hostel of BJ Medical College killing all but one passenger.

Rupani shared a deep connection with Prime Minister Narendra Modi as well as Union home minister Amit Shah and was instrumental in BJP's generational transition in Saurashtra region.

Mahesh Jirawala missing; wife claims his last known location was 700m from plane crash site

Filmmaker Mahesh Kalawadia, also known as Mahesh Jirawala, has been missing since the London-bound Air India flight crashed in Ahmedabad (Gujarat) on June 12.

Speaking to media persons, his wife Hetal — who has anxiously been searching for him — said that the last active location on Mahesh's phone put him a mere 700 metres from the medical college hostel in Meghaninagar where the plane crashed minutes after take-off from Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport. She added that worry set in when Mahesh failed to return home after he called her to say he was on his way home.

"On June 12, Mahesh had gone to meet someone. He called me at 1.14pm to tell me his meeting was over and that he was on his way home," she told PTI, adding, "I called him again at 1.40pm, but his phone was switched off. That was just a minute after the plane took off from Ahmedabad airport."

Hetal further shared, "His scooter and mobile phone are missing. All this is unusual since he would never use that route to come home."

In a desperate bid to find Mahesh, his family have now submitted DNA samples to confirm if the filmmaker was indeed one of the ground victims of the crash.

As of Monday noon, 90 victims were identified through DNA sampling and the remains of 47 handed over to their families. The crash has claimed over 270 lives — 241 out of 242 travellers aboard the flight as well as 29 people on the ground.

One Passenger Surviving Air Crash has Left Many Surprised

DP Bhattacharya

Ahmedabad: Until they cross-checked the visuals and the flight manifest, emergency responders of the 108 Ambulance service could not believe that they had indeed rescued the sole survivor from the Air India plane that crashed in Ahmedabad Thursday.

Satinder Singh Sandhu, a 108 emergency management executive, said when they found Vishwas Kumar, the British national who survived the crash, was in confused state and wanted to walk back to the plane that was still in flames, saying he had family members travelling on the same flight. "I put him in an ambulance and sent him to hospital without knowing that he was the sole survivor of the crash," he told ET.

Sandhu said he was having lunch at his office at the 1,200-bed new complex of the Civil hospital, which is about 200 meters away from the crash site, on Thursday when he heard a loud sound. He immediately mobilised five ambulances available there and rushed to the spot. "Initially I thought it was a big accident," he said. "But the fire and the smoke there told us that it was something much bigger, and probably an air crash." Sandhu called his superior Jitendra Shahi, who rushed 25 more ambulances to the spot. "Meanwhile, we saw a wounded security guard and sent him to hospital," Sandhu said. "And then, we saw a man walking out of the building premises somewhat wounded. Initially we thought he was someone from the building who had probably jumped out of the building." As they were taking the confused-looking man to the hospital, he told the paramedic in the ambulance that he was travelling to London in that plane, said Shahi. They did not believe him initially.

Reach Deep Into Air India's Pockets

Ramesh V Vaidyanathan & Suyash Sarvankar

Aircraft accidents, though rare, leave a devastating impact that extends far beyond the wreckage of lives. Compensation becomes not only a matter of monetary redress, but a crucial step toward accountability, closure and rebuilding lives.

In the aftermath of last week's AI 171 tragedy, Air India offered ₹1 cr as compensation per deceased person to his or her next of kin. While this announcement was prompt and appears generous, the airline could be on the hook for a much higher amount. Families may have significant claims, depending on how the investigation unfolds.

India has ratified the 'Montreal Convention' — Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules for International Carriage by Air — by incorporating it into the Carriage by Air Act 1972. This provides for a 2-tier compensation system defined in terms of special drawing rights (SDR), an international reserve asset created by IMF to supplement official reserves of its member countries. Accordingly:

- The airline must compensate the kin of the deceased passengers up to SDR 128,821 (₹1.6 cr), regardless of any fault or wrongdoing by the airline. This compensation is the absolute minimum, without exception. Some media reports have indicated that the ₹1 cr offered by AI is separate, and in addition to the SDR amount required under the convention.
- Kin of the deceased may seek compensation over and above this SDR amount, based on actual loss. This would be calculated on lost income, and companionship of victims who sustained their families and dependents. AI could avoid higher compensation only if it proves there was no negligence, wrongful act or omission by the airline (including its servants or agents, which include various third parties engaged by the airline to service the aircraft or assist with the flight).

Alternatively, the airline could defend itself if the accident occurred solely due to wrongful acts, or omissions of a third party, such as in the case of terrorism. The legal burden is on the airline to prove that the mishap did not occur due to its conduct, or that it occurred due to the conduct of a third party.

Piecing things together

In such cases, families of Indian victims could also approach consumer fora under the Consumer Protection Act 2019. The consumer protection law is in addition to remedies available under the Montreal Convention as read with the Carriage by Air Act.

For families of foreign passengers, legal options extend beyond India. Since the convention applies almost globally, they could file lawsuits in their home countries, where compensation standards may be higher.

Air India has also offered ₹1 cr to the families of the deceased medical college students and staff, and people on the ground. Securing higher compensation is more challenging for families of victims on the ground. Both Carriage by Air Act and Consumer Protection Act are meant for passengers on the ill-fated aircraft. The next of kin of ground fatalities would have to approach a civil court in India seeking compensation under Fatal Accidents Act 1855, which provides compensation to the family of a person who dies in the case of wrongful accidents.

Another option is a tort law claim, where damages for negligence could be sought. In both these options, Air India would be liable if it's at fault — that is, if the accident was a result of its act, omission or oversight. The total compensation payout to victims could well exceed ₹1,000 cr. Beyond victim compensation, Air India also faces significant costs for property damage, aircraft loss, emergency response and disrupted flights.

Globally, the compensation payout in cases of similar incidents has touched ₹4,500 cr ($500 mn). Air India likely maintains adequate insurance coverage that would cover these costs, or at least a substantial part. But if claims exceed coverage, the financial hit could be severe.

37 years on, families of 1988 Ahmd air crash victims await 'fair compensation'

Ahmedabad: The AI-171 plane crash, among the deadliest aviation disasters in the country, has brought renewed attention on unresolved struggles of families affected by the 1988 Ahmedabad air tragedy. An Indian Airlines flight 113 from Bombay to Ahmedabad crashed on Oct 19, 1988, killing 133 passengers and crew of the 135 on board the aircraft.

The families of the deceased were then offered Rs 2L in compensation. Today, nearly 37 years since the tragedy, around 20 families from Ahmedabad remain locked in a legal battle with authorities over what they consider "inadequate compensation" for their losses.

"There are around 20 families that are still fighting a legal battle for fair compensation. After the tragedy, the authorities had announced a compensation of Rs 2 lakh per victim. We believe the compensation should be based on the income and age of the victims. So, after the high court order, we moved Supreme Court in April 2010 for higher compensation," said Pankesh Patel, secretary of the association formed by families.

According to the case details, in 2003, the sessions court had directed Indian Airlines (IA) and Airport Authority of India (AAI) to give the petitioner families of the IA 113 victims a 6% interest on the compensation amount. In 2009, HC ordered this to be raised to 9%. However, the 20 families, organised under the Air Crash Claimants' Association, moved SC in 2010, demanding a higher compensation based on the age and earning potential of their deceased relatives.

Ushaben Patel, now 74, had lost her husband Sharad Patel, a chartered accountant and company secretary who served as finance director for a German company. Thursday's plane crash has reopened old wounds for her. "At the time of the 1988 crash, my sons Jaysheel and Milan were in Class 5 and Class 3, respectively. I raised them both with support from our families and they are both chartered accountants now, settled in Canada," she said.

Reetaben Shah, 74, remembers her husband Sunil Shah, an IIM-A graduate who worked as a management consultant. Their daughter was 12 years old when the crash occurred. "We did not accept the Rs 2 lakh compensation and initiated legal action. We finally moved SC," she said.

The families have created a memorial at the Kotarpur crash site. "We installed a marble replica of an aircraft at the site. Many families visit the site on Oct 19 every year to pay tribute to their loved ones," Ushaben Patel said.

Ushaben Patel, now 74, had lost her husband Sharad Patel, a chartered accountant and company secretary who served as finance director for a German company. Thursday's plane crash has reopened old wounds for her. "At the time of the 1988 crash, my sons Jaysheel and Milan were in Class 5 and Class 3, respectively. I raised them both with support from our families and they are both chartered accountants now, settled in Canada," she said.

Reetaben Shah, 74, remembers her husband Sunil Shah, an IIM-A graduate who worked as a management consultant. Their daughter was 12 years old when the crash occurred. "We did not accept the Rs 2 lakh compensation and initiated legal action. We finally moved SC," she said.

The families have created a memorial at the Kotarpur crash site. "We installed a marble replica of an aircraft at the site. Many families visit the site on Oct 19 every year to pay tribute to their loved ones," Ushaben Patel said.

A team from Boeing and the officials of the Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB), on Monday, arrived in Ahmedabad to inspect the site of the Air India plane crash.

An investigation is underway to find the reasons that led to the tragic incident on June 12.

The London-bound Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner aircraft crashed into a hostel complex shortly after take-off from Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport on June 12, killing 241 passengers and crew, including former Gujarat Chief Minister Vijay Rupani.

Earlier today, an expert from the UK who reached the Air India Plane Crash site in Ahmedabad to conduct an inspection, said, "Maybe we will be able to speak later...We saw what you guys can see...It's just the same, as you can see from here."

The London-bound Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner aircraft crashed into a hostel complex shortly after take-off from Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport on June 12, killing 241 passengers and crew, including former Gujarat Chief Minister Vijay Rupani.

Meanwhile, the Additional Medical Superintendent of Ahmedabad's Civil Hospital said on Monday that the DNA sample matches in the Air India plane crash have reached 92, corresponding to 87 individuals, due to some duplication.

Speaking to the media, Dr Rajnish Patel said that 47 bodies have been dispatched to various districts so far.

"Of the bodies brought to Civil Hospital, DNA matching of 92 (body remains) is completed, of this (the number of) individuals is 87 because there is duplication. 47 bodies have been dispatched from here...Bodies have been dispatched to Kheda, Ahmedabad, Kota, Mahesana, Bharuch, Vadodara, Aravalli, Anand, Junagarh, Bhavnagar, Amreli, Mahisagar and Bhavnagar," Dr Patel said.

Meanwhile, former Gujarat Chief Minister Vijay Rupani, who lost his life in the crash, will be cremated in Rajkot later today with full state honours.

The Tricolour is being brought to the Civil Hospital mortuary in Ahmedabad to be draped over his mortal remains. Around 2,000 kilograms of flowers will be used to decorate the hearse van that will carry the body of the former Chief Minister.

The crash claimed 241 lives out of the 242 people onboard, which included 230 passengers and 12 crew members. The lone survivor, Vishwashkumar Ramesh, a British national of Indian origin, is currently undergoing treatment for his injuries.

At least 33 people, including residents on the ground and MBBS students, also lost their lives as the plane rammed into the doctor's hostel after the crash.

Concerns over Scavenging: Strays Being Relocated

Forum Gandhi
& DP Bhattacharya

Ahmedabad: The city police have taken help from animal rescue teams to capture and relocate stray dogs from the Air India AI 171 crash site. This follows concerns that the dogs scavenged human remains, hindering recovery and identification and compromising investigation integrity. The May 12 crash killed all but one of the 242 people on board the London-bound Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner and at least 38 on the ground.

The dogs around the crash site are in a bad condition and they are scavenging for food, said a senior police official. "The search operation is still on, and there are several human remains still being found every day. We have noticed that the dogs on site are eating the human remains and entering the crash site," he said. "We have to rehabilitate them for their protection as well as to maintain the sanctity of the investigation."

Some of the dogs also appeared distressed, prompting authorities to act swiftly. Officials said the priority is to ensure that the animals receive proper care while also preventing any contamination of the crash site.

CHALLENGING WORK

Scavenging animals complicate victim identification and debris clearing

RESCUERS DEPLOYED SINCE FRIDAY

Naresh Rajput, head of the Cattle Nuisance Control Department of the Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation, said his department is involved. "We have so far rescued four dogs from the crash site and brought them to our shelter at Danilimda so that they don't disturb the site," Rajput told ET. Personnel from his department have been working at the site from Friday.

Meanwhile, search teams continue to pull out human remains from the debris of the BJ Medical College hostel building destroyed in the crash and the surrounding areas. They recovered a body on Sunday, three days after the crash.

On Monday, at least 15 human remains were found at the site. These discoveries highlight the challenges for search teams in ensuring complete and respectful recovery of the human remains.

Scavenging animals complicate victim identification and debris clearing. Authorities manage the cordoned-off site to facilitate recovery and maintain public health and investigative protocols.

99 SAMPLES MATCHED

As of Monday, DNA samples of 99 victims have been matched, and 64 bodies, including that of former Gujarat CM Vijay Rupani, have been handed over to their families. The process of identifying remains is painstaking, often taking up to 72 hours for DNA matching, due to their condition.

Crashed AI plane's insurance was hiked by ₹100cr in April

Kolkata: Air India had raised insurance cover on the Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner that crashed in Ahmedabad from Rs 750 crore to Rs 850 crore during its April policy renewal following an engine replacement, sources said on Monday. Total claims from the June 12 crash are expected to exceed Rs 1,500 crore.

Indian insurers led by Tata AIG will absorb only Rs 100-150 crore of the financial hit, having ceded over 90% of the risk to global reinsurers in London and Bermuda markets, including AIG and AXA XL.

The aircraft was part of a fleet-wide aviation cover worth Rs 8,000-10,000 crore, for which Air India paid an annual premium of about Rs 250 crore.

The crash of AI flight 171 to London is set to trigger compensation under the Montreal Convention, entitling families of deceased passengers to around Rs 1.8 crore each. With 241 onboard deaths — passengers and crew — liabilities under this clause alone could cross Rs 420 crore. There will be additional third-party claims as the accident also killed over 30 people on the ground and destroyed parts of a medical college hostel, experts said.

The Dreamliner — about 11.5 years old, and operated by Air India since Jan 2014 — has been declared a total loss. The hull claim alone is pegged at Rs 850 crore, based on the aircraft's age-adjusted insured value. The Ahmedabad accident is the first major crash of a wide-body aircraft in Asia in recent years and is expected to tighten the global aviation insurance market for regional carriers operating large jets.

Domestic insurers retaining only 7.5-10% of exposure include Tata AIG, GIC Re, United India, Oriental Insurance, National Insurance, and ICICI Lombard. Reinsurers are expected to bear the brunt of payouts. In a June 14 circular, Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority directed insurers to expedite settlements under life and accident policies and waive documentation requirements such as FIRs and autopsy reports. Nodal officers are to be appointed to streamline claims, with weekly updates mandated from June 16.

Emergency Workers Still Can't Believe One Passenger Survived Airline Crash

DP Bhattacharya

Ahmedabad: Until they cross-checked the visuals and the flight manifest, emergency responders of the 108 Ambulance service could not believe that they had indeed rescued the sole survivor from the Air India plane that crashed in Ahmedabad Thursday.

Satinder Singh Sandhu, a 108 emergency management executive, said when they found Vishwas Kumar, the British national who survived the crash, was in confused state and wanted to walk back to the plane that was still in flames, saying he had family members travelling on the same flight. "I put him in an ambulance and sent him to hospital without knowing that he was the sole survivor of the crash," he told ET.

Sandhu said he was having lunch at his office at the 1,200-bed new complex of the Civil hospital, which is about 200 meters away from the crash site, on Thursday when he heard a loud sound. He immediately mobilised five ambulances available there and rushed to the spot. "Initially I thought it was a big accident," he said. "But the fire and the smoke there told us that it was something much bigger, and probably an air crash." Sandhu called his superior Jitendra Shahi, who rushed 25 more ambulances to the spot. "Meanwhile, we saw a wounded security guard and sent him to hospital," Sandhu said. "And then, we saw a man walking out of the building premises somewhat wounded. Initially we thought he was someone from the building who had probably jumped out of the building." As they were taking the confused-looking man to the hospital, he told the paramedic in the ambulance that he was travelling to London in that plane, said Shahi. They did not believe him initially. "Later in the evening, when we checked the visual, cross-checked his name with the flight manifest, it was only then we realised that he was indeed the sole survivor of the crash," said Shahi.

Fauna Near Crash Site, Cared for by College Doctors & Staff, Falls Silent

Forum Gandhi & DP Bhattacharya

Ahmedabad: The crash site at BJ Medical College, surrounded by lush greens on three sides, was not only home to junior resident doctors but also to a vibrant ecosystem of at least 30 peacocks, 20 dogs, and several species of birds and cows.

In the days since the crash, this once-lively campus has fallen eerily silent. According to sources, the remains of at least four peacocks, five dogs, and more than 50 birds have been found in the past five days.

A watchman posted at the college told ET that the days leading up to the monsoon were blissful. The cries of peacocks would echo across the campus, and the green expanse bustled with life. "Now, you can only hear a couple of them," he said.

Resident doctors and the mess staff who regularly fed the stray dogs either perished in the crash or have abandoned the college premises since the tragedy. The surviving animals now wander the site, unfed and thirsty.

The Air India flight had crashed into the mess building of BJ Medical College

On Sunday afternoon, reporters standing outside the barricaded area of the crash site heard a dog howling for more than 15 minutes.

"Our NGO, along with other NGOs, got multiple calls. Over the past five days, we've recovered several remains from the site. It has been difficult," said the founder of a local NGO sharing the ground reality. "We have to carefully move through the debris to pick up what's left. Sometimes, it's hard to tell if it is animal remains or something else.

"It's not easy, but we have to do it," he said, adding that volunteers had cremated over 50 birds and five dogs charred at the site.

The task has been particularly sensitive as body parts of some of the crash victims are still being recovered from the area.

The Centre for Nurture and Care of Dogs (CNCD) has been deployed to keep carnivorous animals away from the site to prevent further contamination and to manage the risk of animals scavenging on human remains.

Sources confirmed that several dogs were killed when the London-bound Air India flight crashed into the medical college hostel last Thursday, adding that at least one peacock also perished in the crash.

"We have handed over the body of the peacock to the forest department, as it is a Schedule One protected bird," said Naresh Rajput, who serve as head of the cattle nuisance control department (CNCD) of the Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation and is also involved in the rescue and clearance operations. Even as the crash site remains under close watch, the loss of both human and animal life continues to haunt those working on the ground.

Flight ops hit due to poor visibility, winds at CSMIA

Dhairya Gajara
MUMBAI

Heavy rainfall impacted the operations at the Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj International Airport (CSMIA) on Monday. With low visibility and strong winds, the airport recorded an average delay of one hour in flight operations. The adverse weather conditions resulted in multiple flights being delayed and diverted to other cities.

The downpour in the Mumbai Metropolitan Region that started in the late hours of Sunday, continued throughout Monday, proving to be a tough day for CSMIA, which is one of the busiest airports in the country.

According to flight tracker Flightradar24, CSMIA saw an average delay of 62 minutes for departures and 55 minutes for arrivals. The airport disruption index was valued 5.0 and 4.6 for departures and arrivals, respectively, signifying major problems due to long delays and several cancellations.

All the major airlines issued travel advisories informing passengers about potential delays, cancellations and diversions due to the unfavourable weather. IndiGo, which operates the highest number of flights from CSMIA, said that waterlogging and low visibility were reported on some routes due to heavy rainfall.

Air India also issued a travel advisory informing that heavy rainfall might impact flight operations to and from Mumbai. Similarly, Akasa Air requested the travellers to plan additional travel time so that they are not late at the airport. SpiceJet announced that heavy rains had affected all departures and arrivals.

Gujarat CM Bhupendra Patel visits Civil Hospital, holds meet to review entire relief and rescue operation

Ahmedabad: The mortal remains of 76 victims of the AI-171 plane crash have been handed over to their relatives after matching their DNA samples and ascertaining their identity. Around 119 samples have been matched so far. Meanwhile, remains of human body parts are still being retrieved from the crash site. On Monday, 15 such remains were retrieved.

The Gujarat health department has deployed an additional 855 staff, apart from the regular Civil Hospital staff to ease and expedite the DNA-matching process. The district administration has appointed more than 250 nodal officers to ensure the process of handing over the mortal remains and for coordination with the families. Supervisory officers have also been designated to ensure that all proceedings are conducted properly.

The state government has also put in place an elaborate system to ensure assistance pertaining to any paper work for the relatives of the victims. They have also reached out to the relatives of the deceased to provide the required documents — including inheritance certificates — based on witness testimonies and verification by local committees, to ensure smooth processing with insurance companies and any government or semi-government offices.

Keeping in mind the rainy weather, a large dome with basic facilities like drinking water, fans, and coolers, mobile toilets outside the new post-mortem complex has been set up for the family members of the crash victims. Charitable organisations have been roped in to arrange for tea, snacks, water and meals for the families waiting inside the dome.

Chief minister Bhupendra Patel visited the Ahmedabad Civil Hospital on Monday and took stock of the situation. He held a meeting with the ministers and senior state officials to review the entire relief and rescue operation.

On Monday, June 16, Air India resumed its Ahmedabad-London flight services with Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner flight AI-159 departing at 4.30 pm from the Ahmedabad airport, three days after the mishap. After the crash of flight AI 171, the airline had decided to change the flight number to AI-159. The aircraft was scheduled for additional checks, as per a ministry of civil aviation order.

AHMEDABAD

The rescue operation following the June 12 Air India-171 plane crash in Gujarat's Ahmedabad lasted nearly four hours, involved around 650 personnel, and used approximately 7.5 lakh litres of water for firefighting and cooling, Ahmedabad Fire and Emergency Services Chief Fire Officer Amit Dongre said on Monday.

Detailing about the extensive efforts, Dongre said that over 90 ambulances and more than 100 firefighting vehicles were deployed at the crash site.

"We received a call at around 1.43 pm on June 12. It was a disaster call... We responded from all 19 fire stations... More than 100 fire vehicles were deployed to mitigate this disaster... Four teams were formed for all four buildings... Around 31 people were saved alive during this rescue operation and were shifted to the civil hospitals with the help of NDRF, police department, CISF, SDRF, other NGOs and other fire departments," Dongre told ANI.

He said the operation was carried out with support from multiple agencies, including the National Disaster Response Force (NDRF), State Disaster Response Force (SDRF), Central Industrial Security Force (CISF), local police, fire services from nearby cities, and various NGOs.

"More than 90 ambulances were arranged at the site... The operation took 4 hours, around 7.5 lakh litres of water was used for firefighting and cooling purposes, and around 650 total manpower were at work..." he added.

On June 12, the AI-171 Boeing Dreamliner 787-8 aeroplane bound for London's Gatwick had crashed shortly after it took off from the Ahmedabad International Airport. The crash claimed 241 lives out of the 242 people onboard, which included 230 passengers and 12 crew members.

The lone survivor, Vishwashkumar Ramesh, a British national of Indian origin, is currently undergoing treatment for his injuries.

Meanwhile, the Gujarat Health Department and district administration, under the direction of the state government, have expedited the process of identifying the deceased and handing over mortal remains to their family member. (ANI)

What gadgets of doomed aircraft never record

Kannan.Somasundaram@timesofindia.com

As the Air India flight taxied on the Ahmedabad runway, the jet would have gargled fuel to clear its throat, reminders to keep the seat belt fastened would have sounded like familiar chants in the pressurised cabin, a few passengers would have whispered their customary travel prayers, some would have argued that Heathrow offers better connectivity to central London than Gatwick, somebody would have recalled their last flight to Heathrow from Delhi and wondered if the Thames would appear on the Gatwick route.

The etiquette-conscious would have deliberated on the correct response to 'how do you do?' in UK, some would have joked that Brits wouldn't mind if people said 'how're ya doin'?' to the King as long as they had waited British-ly in a queue to address the monarch, some laughter would have strummed seat belts when those averse to culinary adventures relished with desi glee the prospect of ordering cholay-bhature in the former Raj HQ.

A first-time visitor to London would have shown explorational savvy and proclaimed that London Bridge has 'cliché' splashed all over it like betel-leaf stains and Charles Dickens Museum is the place for sophisticates, their seat neighbour would have commented that Delhi taxiwallahs' directional acumen is just as legendary as London's Black Cab drivers', some passengers would have started a battle of wills with time itself to hug their loved ones sooner than determined by the mundane arrival schedule, a few would have gone back in time to worry about not switching off all their home lights.

And then as the jet engine's gargling began smoothing into the war cry of human ingenuity against gravity, even some frequent fliers would have looked out of their windows to marvel at the audacity of a toothpaste-tube-shaped machine to rescue hundreds of people at once from the solidity of routines, passengers would likely not have known that the plane was losing altitude, would probably not have realised that the pilots were overriding instinctual fear with professional focus, the pilots would have been using the muscle of their conscience to strengthen their trained hands to do everything they could to save the passengers in their care and save the metrics that make us all human: love, ambition, excitement, and the faith in ourselves to plan for the next day. Black boxes don't record those metrics.

Tata in talks with McKinsey for A-I overhaul

DEV CHATTERJEE
Mumbai, 16 June

The Tata group is in talks with global consulting giant McKinsey & Co to spearhead a sweeping transformation of Air India (A-I), as the airline grapples with its gravest crisis following last week's fatal crash in Ahmedabad, people familiar with the matter said.

Tata Sons and Air India Chairman N Chandrasekaran met Vivek Pandit, a senior partner at McKinsey, in Mumbai over the weekend to chart a revival strategy for the airline, according to a person with direct knowledge.

The tragic accident, which marks one of the deadliest in India's aviation history, has placed intense scrutiny on the Tata group's turnaround plans for the former state-run carrier, which it acquired from the Indian government in 2022.

Chandrasekaran also held internal consultations with key Tata group leaders, including Noel Tata, chairman of Tata Trusts and a director on the board of Tata Sons, the person said. The discussions focused on crisis management measures, including compensation and support for the victims' families.

McKinsey declined to comment, citing client confidentiality. An email sent to Tata Sons on Monday went unanswered.

The Tata group has already merged Air India with Vistara, the airline it co-owned with Singapore Airlines, in an ambitious bid to create a world-class global carrier.

Concerns over Scavenging: Strays Being Relocated

Forum Gandhi
& DP Bhattacharya

Ahmedabad: The city police have taken help from animal rescue teams to capture and relocate stray dogs from the Air India AI 171 crash site. This follows concerns that the dogs scavenged human remains, hindering recovery and identification and compromising investigation integrity. The May 12 crash killed all but one of the 242 people on board the London-bound Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner and at least 38 on the ground.

The dogs around the crash site are in a bad condition and they are scavenging for food, said a senior police official. "The search operation is still on, and there are several human remains still being found every day. We have noticed that the dogs on site are eating the human remains and entering the crash site," he said. "We have to rehabilitate them for their protection as well as to maintain the sanctity of the investigation."

Some of the dogs also appeared distressed, prompting authorities to act swiftly. Officials said the priority is to ensure that the animals receive proper care while also preventing any contamination of the crash site.

CHALLENGING WORK

Scavenging animals complicate victim identification and debris clearing

RESCUERS DEPLOYED SINCE FRIDAY

Naresh Rajput, head of the Cattle Nuisance Control Department of the Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation, said his department is involved. "We have so far rescued four dogs from the crash site and brought them to our shelter at Danilimda so that they don't disturb the site," Rajput told ET. Personnel from his department have been working at the site from Friday.

Meanwhile, search teams continue to pull out human remains from the debris of the BJ Medical College hostel building destroyed in the crash and the surrounding areas. They recovered a body on Sunday, three days after the crash.

On Monday, at least 15 human remains were found at the site. These discoveries highlight the challenges for search teams in ensuring complete and respectful recovery of the human remains.

Scavenging animals complicate victim identification and debris clearing. Authorities manage the cordoned-off site to facilitate recovery and maintain public health and investigative protocols.

99 SAMPLES MATCHED

As of Monday, DNA samples of 99 victims have been matched, and 64 bodies, including that of former Gujarat CM Vijay Rupani, have been handed over to their families. The process of identifying remains is painstaking, often taking up to 72 hours for DNA matching, due to their condition.

अदाणी मामले में जानकारी साझा करने के लिए साइप्रस पर दबाव नहीं डाला जा रहा

■ कांग्रेस महासचिव जयराम रमेश ने कहा, जरूरी जानकारी नहीं मिलने से सेबी की जांच हो रही बाधित

इस फंड के 'अल्टीमेट बेनिफीशियल ओनर' (वास्तविक लाभार्थी) अमीकॉर्प नामक एक संस्था से जुड़े है।' उन्होंने कहा, 'यही अमीकॉर्प कम से कम सात अडानी प्रमोटर इकाइयों की स्थापना में शामिल रही है। इसके अलावा, इसका नाम विनोद अदाणी से जुड़ी 17 ऑफशोर शेल कंपनियों से भी जोड़ा गया है। अमीकॉर्प का नाम मॉरीशस स्थित उन तीन ऑफशोर निवेशकों से भी जुड़ा है, जिन्होंने अदाणी समूह के शेयरों में निवेश किया है।

DP Bhattacharya

Ahmedabad: Until they cross-checked the visuals and the flight manifest, emergency responders of the 108 Ambulance service could not believe that they had indeed rescued the sole survivor from the Air India plane that crashed in Ahmedabad Thursday.

Satinder Singh Sandhu, a 108 emergency management executive, said when they found Vishwas Kumar, the British national who survived the crash, was in confused state and wanted to walk back to the plane that was still in flames, saying he had family members travelling on the same flight. "I put him in an ambulance and sent him to hospital without knowing that he was the sole survivor of the crash," he told ET.

Sandhu said he was having lunch at his office at the 1,200-bed new complex of the Civil hospital, which is about 200 meters away from the crash site, on Thursday when he heard a loud sound. He immediately mobilised five ambulances available there and rushed to the spot. "Initially I thought it was a big accident," he said. "But the fire and the smoke there told us that it was something much bigger, and probably an air crash." Sandhu called his superior Jitendra Shahi, who rushed 25 more ambulances to the spot. "Meanwhile, we saw a wounded security guard and sent him to hospital," Sandhu said. "And then, we saw a man walking out of the building premises somewhat wounded. Initially we thought he was someone from the building who had probably jumped out of the building." As they were taking the confused-looking man to the hospital, he told the paramedic in the ambulance that he was travelling to London in that plane, said Shahi. They did not believe him initially. "Later in the evening, when we checked the visual, cross-checked his name with the flight manifest, it was only then we realised that he was indeed the sole survivor of the crash," said Shahi.

बोइंग 787-8 ड्रीमलाइनर में तकनीकी समस्या का संदेह

नई दिल्ली (एजेंसी)। हांगकांग से दिल्ली जा रही एअर इंडिया की फ्लाइट एआई 315 को बीच उड़ान में ही तकनीकी समस्या का संदेह होने के बाद वापस अपने मूल स्थान पर लौटना पड़ा। बोइंग 787-8 ड्रीमलाइनर की ओर से संचालित यह फ्लाइट एआई 315 हांगकांग से दिल्ली के लिए रवाना हुई थी। बोइंग 787-8 ड्रीमलाइनर विमान का इस्तेमाल भारत में एअर इंडिया की तरफ से किया जा रहा है। 12 जून को गुजरात के अहमदाबाद में ऐसा ही एक विमान दुर्घटनाग्रस्त हो गया। इस दौरान विमान में सवार 242 लोगों में 241 लोगों की मौत हो गई थी।

लुफ्थांसा की फ्लाइट को यू-टर्न लेकर फ्रैंकफर्ट एयरपोर्ट वापस जाना पड़ा था

बम की धमकी वाला ईमेल मिला था

लखनऊ में सऊदी के विमान के पहियों से धुआं निकलता देखा गया

AVOIDING REPUTATIONAL DAMAGE

In Geopolitical Storm, Cos Want Staff to Play Safe

Look to steer clear of controversy, issue & emphasise social media guidelines

Ratna Bhushan & Prachi Verma

New Delhi: Amid geopolitical turmoil, several companies are issuing fresh social media guidelines or reinforcing existing ones, telling employees to avoid posting personal opinions on social media, especially controversial views on wars, politics and faith-related matters. They are wary of getting caught up in the social media crossfire that invariably ensues.

Coca-Cola, for instance, has issued LinkedIn Guidelines in an internal advisory "on responsible use of social media, as the lines between personal and professional use of social media are blurred at times."

Others are investing in playbooks, escalation matrices, social audits and shadow advisers to protect reputational damage, executives said.

"Our employees have access to social media guidelines that can be referred to whenever necessary," said a spokesperson at consulting firm KPMG.

Wary of the fallout of some online opinions by staffers', India Inc is consulting legal experts

Executives at three large companies across telecom services, packaged foods and healthcare confirmed they have sent fresh guidelines and advisories to employees over the past week. They didn't want to be identified, citing political sensitivities. "We are increasingly seeing companies approach us for comprehensive social media policies," said Ankita Ray, partner at Cyril Amarchand Mangaldas.

"In the current climate, many organisations are recognising the need to establish clear boundaries around employee social media use, especially when it comes to sensitive topics such as geopolitical conflicts, political statements and controversial current affairs," said Ray of Cyril Amarchand Mangaldas.

Brands tangentially connected with posts that blow up are also getting dragged into social media wars.

A former employee of a multinational electronics company posted a reply to Congress leader Rahul Gandhi's post on X after the Ahmedabad Air India crash last week that drew the ire of a section of social media users. The company got mixed up in this because the poster mentioned the name of his former employer.

"There is reputational damage at stake," said Santosh Desai, social commentator and columnist. "There will be increasing instances of companies imposing restrictions on what employees can say or what they can't on public platforms."

A senior executive at a large cosmetics firm said clear advisories were sent out last week to staff. "There are disclosures on platforms such as X that comments are individual and not representative of the company," said the person. "But despite that, the fabric of social media is such that controversial posts end up dragging the company or brand into the picture."

One employee's casual post can spark reputational contagion and investor mistrust, pointed out Prachi Shrivastava, founder of consulting and legal firm Lawfinity Solutions.

"The last few weeks have shown a spurt of activity within our investor networks on codifying employee social media policies," she said. "A casual social media post from a junior employee can snowball into compliance queries, diplomatic risk, or even vendor escalations, especially for PE-backed or cross-border businesses."

Sportswear brand Nike's first Indian collaboration with an Indian label announced last week got caught in a social media storm over the weekend, despite it clearly being a case of mistaken identity. An Instagram account, @CuratedCultureSociety, posted that Nike's new NorBlack NorWhite campaign showed a model from Bangladesh who had allegedly been critical about India. However, this person wasn't featured in the campaign. Following widespread criticism, Curated Culture Society posted an apology on Instagram,acknowledging its mistake.

"What people say on their social media handles is an expression of their opinion as individuals, although we do have guidelines to ensure they are mindful of the sensitivity and seriousness of the situation and comment with responsibility," said Meghna Ramchandani,director, marketing and communications, at tax and advisory services company Grant Thornton Bharat.

अवधेश कुमार

अहमदाबाद हवाई दुर्घटना की तस्वीरें मजबूत हृदय वालों के अंदर भी कुछ समय के लिए भय पैदा कर देती है। दूसरी ओर ट्रैजेडी को अभिव्यक्त करने के लिए शब्द छोटे पड़ गए हैं। विमान का अगला भाग मेडिकल कॉलेज में घुसा हुआ बाहर निकला दिखता है। इससे पता चलता है कि विमान आग का गोला बना अपनी गति से जब हॉस्टल में घुसा होगा कैसी भयानक स्थिति पैदा हुई होगी। चारों तरफ जले हुए मलबे के ढेर बता रहे हैं कि विनाश की अग्नि ने वाकई तांडव मचा दिया जिसकी चपेट में आए मकान, सामान, जीव, पेड़-पौधे सभी धू-धू कर छटपटाते जलते रहे।

इसका अर्थ हुआ कि विमान का टेकऑफ सफल रहा था। टेकऑफ के ठीक बाद ही यह ज्यादा ऊंचाई हासिल नहीं कर सका। कहा गया कि एयरक्राफ्ट टेकऑफ के बाद जरूरी थ्रस्ट पैदा नहीं कर पाया और नाकाम हो गया। खैर, ब्लैक बॉक्स के विश्लेषण से दुर्घटना का कारण जाना जा सकेगा। किंतु उन कारणों के पीछे के कारण का भी पता चल जाए इसके बारे में निश्चयात्मक रूप से कहना कठिन है। यह एक सर्वमान्य सत्य है कि किसी भी घटना और दुर्घटना को टाला नहीं जा सकता। मनुष्य निर्मित जितनी व्यवस्थाएं हैं उन सबकी सीमाएं ऐसी घटनाएं स्पष्ट कर देती हैं। हम एयर इंडिया या भारत में विमान परिचालन के अनेक कमियों की ओर इशारा कर सकते हैं। किंतु ऐसी कोई व्यवस्था या परिचालन तंत्र नहीं जो दुर्घटना न होने की गारंटी दे सके।

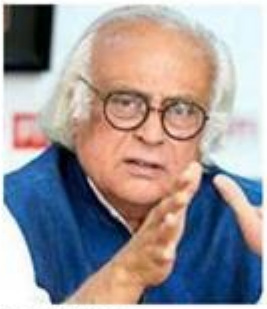
The Hindu Bureau
NEW DELHI

The Congress on Monday said that a key figure in the alleged Adani scam had Cypriot citizenship, but ongoing investigations by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) into transactions involving the Adani Group had been impacted by insufficiency in sharing of financial information by tax haven countries, and the "lack of pressure" from India.

The charge came amid Prime Minister Narendra Modi's visit to Cyprus.

"The Prime Minister is in Cyprus on his way to Canada. Of course, he would have us believe that it is a pure coincidence that a key figure in the Modani scam has Cypriot citizenship. The Cyprus-based fund New Leaina has reportedly about $420 million in Adani companies,"



Jairam Ramesh

Congress's communications chief Jairam Ramesh said in a post on social media platform X.

The "ultimate beneficial owners of this fund are linked to Amicorp, which is believed to have set up at least seven Adani promoter entities, seventeen offshore shell companies linked to Mr. Vinod Adani, and three Mauritius-based offshore investors in Adani Group stock," Mr. Ramesh said.

"All these transactions are part of the ongoing SEBI investigations which have been hampered by lack of sharing of financial information by these and other tax-haven countries and lack of pressure by India," Mr. Ramesh alleged.

There was no reaction to the latest salvo from the Congress from either the Union government or the Adani Group.

Mr. Ramesh also explained how India, under Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru in the 1950s, had rooted for Cyprus to become independent from British rule, and the island had become free on August 16, 1960.

"In the context of today's geopolitics, it is worthwhile to recall that India's championing of the independence of Cyprus in the 1950s and thereafter became a sore point in our bilateral relations with Turkiye," he said.

AVOIDING REPUTATIONAL DAMAGE

In Geopolitical Storm, Cos Want Staff to Play Safe

Look to steer clear of controversy, issue & emphasise social media guidelines

Ratna Bhushan & Prachi Verma

New Delhi: Amid geopolitical turmoil, several companies are issuing fresh social media guidelines or reinforcing existing ones, telling employees to avoid posting personal opinions on social media, especially controversial views on wars, politics and faith-related matters. They are wary of getting caught up in the social media crossfire that invariably ensues.

Coca-Cola, for instance, has issued LinkedIn Guidelines in an internal advisory "on responsible use of social media, as the lines between personal and professional use of social media are blurred at times."

Others are investing in playbooks, escalation matrices, social audits and shadow advisers to protect reputational damage, executives said.

"Our employees have access to social media guidelines that can be referred to whenever necessary," said a spokesperson at consulting firm KPMG.

Wary of the fallout of some online opinions by staffers', India Inc is consulting legal experts

Executives at three large companies across telecom services, packaged foods and healthcare confirmed they have sent fresh guidelines and advisories to employees over the past week. They didn't want to be identified, citing political sensitivities. "We are increasingly seeing companies approach us for comprehensive social media policies," said Ankita Ray, partner at Cyril Amarchand Mangaldas.

"In the current climate, many organisations are recognising the need to establish clear boundaries around employee social media use, especially when it comes to sensitive topics such as geopolitical conflicts, political statements and controversial current affairs," said Ray of Cyril Amarchand Mangaldas.

Brands tangentially connected with posts that blow up are also getting dragged into social media wars.

A former employee of a multinational electronics company posted a reply to Congress leader Rahul Gandhi's post on X after the Ahmedabad Air India crash last week that drew the ire of a section of social media users. The company got mixed up in this because the poster mentioned the name of his former employer.

"There is reputational damage at stake," said Santosh Desai, social commentator and columnist. "There will be increasing instances of companies imposing restrictions on what employees can say or what they can't on public platforms."

A senior executive at a large cosmetics firm said clear advisories were sent out last week to staff. "There are disclosures on platforms such as X that comments are individual and not representative of the company," said the person. "But despite that, the fabric of social media is such that controversial posts end up dragging the company or brand into the picture."

One employee's casual post can spark reputational contagion and investor mistrust, pointed out Prachi Shrivastava, founder of consulting and legal firm Lawfinity Solutions.

"The last few weeks have shown a spurt of activity within our investor networks on codifying employee social media policies," she said. "A casual social media post from a junior employee can snowball into compliance queries, diplomatic risk, or even vendor escalations, especially for PE-backed or cross-border businesses."

Sportswear brand Nike's first Indian collaboration with an Indian label announced last week got caught in a social media storm over the weekend, despite it clearly being a case of mistaken identity. An Instagram account, @CuratedCultureSociety, posted that Nike's new NorBlack NorWhite campaign showed a model from Bangladesh who had allegedly been critical about India. However, this person wasn't featured in the campaign. Following widespread criticism, Curated Culture Society posted an apology on Instagram,acknowledging its mistake.

"What people say on their social media handles is an expression of their opinion as individuals, although we do have guidelines to ensure they are mindful of the sensitivity and seriousness of the situation and comment with responsibility," said Meghna Ramchandani,director, marketing and communications, at tax and advisory services company Grant Thornton Bharat.

नई दिल्ली, 16 जून (देशबन्धु)। यूएई में बसे डॉक्टर और समाजसेवी डॉ. शमशीर वयालिल ने अहमदाबाद में बी.जे. मेडिकल कॉलेज पर हुए एयर इंडिया फ्लाइट 171 हादसे के पीड़ितों के लिए 6 करोड़ की आर्थिक सहायता की घोषणा की है। यह हादसा उनके अपने मेडिकल छात्र जीवन की याद दिलाने वाला था, जिसने उन्हें गहराई से झकझोर दिया। 12 जून को यह दुखद दुर्घटना उस समय घटी जब एक बोइंग 787 विमान लंच के वक्त अतुल्यम छात्रावास परिसर से टकरा गया। विमान की टक्कर से छात्रावास और मैस की इमारतें मलबे में तब्दील हो गई। हादसे में चार मेडिकल छात्रों की मौत हो गई, दर्जनों घायल हुए और परिसर में रह रहे डॉक्टरों के पांच परिजन भी जान गंवा बैठे। मारे गए छात्रों में जयप्रकाश चौधरी बाड़मेर, राजस्थान, मनव भाडू श्रीगंगानगर, राजस्थान, आर्यन राजपूत ग्वालियर, मध्य प्रदेश, और राकेश दियोरा भावनगर, गुजरात शामिल थे। ये सभी छात्र अपने चिकित्सा करियर की शुरुआती राह पर थे और उनके सपने अभी आकार ले ही रहे थे। बुर्जील होल्डिंग्स के संस्थापक व चेयरमैन और वीपीएस हेल्थ के मैनेजिंग डायरेक्टर डॉ. शमशीर वयालिल ने अबू धाबी से सहायता की घोषणा करते हुए कहा कि जब उन्होंने हादसे के दृश्य देखे तो वे भीतर तक हिल गए। उन्होंने कहा कि यह दृश्य उन्हें उनके अपने छात्रावास के दिनों की याद दिलाते हैं-वह गलियां, वे बेड, परीक्षा की तैयारी में बिताई रातें, मैस की टेबल पर दोस्तों के साथ हँसी-मजाक, और घर से आने वाले फोन का बेसब्री से इंतजार। उन्होंने कहा कि कोई भी यह कल्पना नहीं करता कि एक यात्री विमान उस सुरक्षित और सपनों से भरी दुनिया में तबाही मचा देगा। घोषित राहत राशि में प्रत्येक मृत छात्र के परिवार को 1 करोड़, गंभीर रूप से घायल पांच छात्रों को 20 लाख और डॉक्टरों के उन परिवारों को 20 लाख की सहायता दी जाएगी, जिन्होंने हादसे में अपनों को खोया। यह सहायता बी.जे. मेडिकल कॉलेज की जूनियर डॉक्टर्स एसोसिएशन के माध्यम से प्रभावित लोगों तक पहुंचाई जाएगी। डॉ. शमशीर की मानवीय सहायता का यह पहला उदाहरण नहीं है।

Mortal remains of Saineeta Chakravarty, a cabin crew member of the Air India plane crash, arrived in Mumbai on Monday. Apart from the last rites of former Gujarat CM Vijay Rupani, two funerals were held in the Ahmedabad. PTI

AHMEDABAD: Former Gujarat chief minister Vijay Rupani was accorded a state funeral on Monday, four days after the 68-year-old Bharatiya Janata Party leader died in an Air India plane crash along with 270 other people, with hundreds of people, including senior politicians, paying floral tributes to him.

Union home minister Amit Shah, Gujarat governor Acharya Devvrat, chief minister Bhupendra Patel, Union Jal Shakti Minister and Gujarat BJP president CR Paatil, and other leaders offered floral tributes to Rupani at his residence.

Amid outpouring of emotions and slogan shouting, people stood on both sides of the road as Rupani's mortal remains were brought from the airport to his residence in Rajkot, a journey stretching to several kilometres, in a flower-bedecked vehicle before being taken for last rites.

Before the former CM's mortal remains, flown to Rajkot from Ahmedabad, reached his residence, people queued up on both sides of the road to pay him their last respects.

The procession started from Greenland Crossroads on the outskirts of Rajkot and reached the residence of the late BJP leader.

Rupani's supporters showered flower petals and raised the slogan, "Vijaybhai tum amar ho (Vijaybhai is immortal)," as the procession winded its way to his home before being taken to crematorium for last rites.

Earlier in the day, Rupani's mortal remains were handed over to his family members in Ahmedabad with guard of honour in the presence of CM Patel. The body was brought to Rajkot on a special plane.

Former CM Vijay Rupani's family expressed profound grief over the loss. Extending their condolences to all those affected by the tragic incident, his son Rushabh said, "This is a sad time not just for us, but for 270 families too", while expressing gratitude to those who supported them during mourning period.

Rushabh reflected on his father's political legacy, noting that Rupani had touched countless lives in his five-decade-long public life.

He added, "My father touched many lives during the 50-55 years of his political life. Today, all those people are standing by us. Many party workers from Punjab are also coming here to express their condolences."

Rupani was among the 241 who died when the London-bound Air India Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner crashed shortly after takeoff, colliding with a doctor's hostel complex near Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport on June 12.

In Ahmedabad, two more funerals were held at the Thaltej crematorium. Dilip Mahendra Patel and his wife Meena Patel, residents of the city's Himmatlal Park, were cremated on Monday.

"They were headed to London to meet their daughter," said a family friend after paying the last respects at their home.

2 Dreamliners, another plane return mid-flight

NEW DELHI: Airlines are reacting with an abundance of caution to alerts of technical snags due to increased scrutiny after the crash of an Air India Boeing Dreamliner last week in Ahmedabad that killed 241 of 242 on board.

An Air India 787-8, the same type of Boeing aircraft that crashed, returned to Hong Kong on Monday within an hour of take-off after the pilot suspected a technical snag. The flight AI-315 that was headed to Delhi had taken off with a delay.

The airline said in a statement that the flight landed safely in Hong Kong and all passengers disembarked. An inspection of the aircraft is underway, it added.

Air India did not respond to requests for comment on the revised flight schedule.

Another Dreamliner faced a technical issue on Sunday after taking off from London's Heathrow Airport. The British Airways flight headed for Chennai returned to London, after circling over the Strait of Dover several times, before returning to Heathrow Airport, Flightradar24 showed.

"The flight landed safely with crew and customers disembarking as they normally would, and our teams are working hard to get their journeys back on track as soon as possible," British Airways said.

The Boeing 787 Dreamliner had taken off from London after a 36-minute delay.

Another Boeing aircraft, a 737 MAX, was hit by a technical snag en route to Ranchi from Delhi, on Monday, said officials.

These diversions come amid increasing scrutiny of Dreamliners after the Ahmedabad crash marked the first fatal crash of this line of aircraft. India's aviation regulator ordered enhanced safety checks of all Dreamliners in Air India's fleet; 22 out of 33 had been examined as of Monday, Air India said.

Meanwhile, the possible reasons for the 787 crash is the subject of a multi-agency probe.

India's Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau is the lead agency for the probe.

आसमान में दहशत

अहमदाबाद में एअर इंडिया के बोइंग ड्रीमलाइनर के दुर्घटनाग्रस्त होने के बाद से ही विमानों पर संकट छाया हुआ है। आसमान में विमान यात्री दहशत में हैं। अहमदाबाद में हुए हादसे में विमान में सवार 241 यात्री तथा चालक दल के सदस्य मारे गए थे। इस घटना के कुछ दिनों बाद दो ड्रीमलाइनर विमानों को तकनीकी गड़बड़ियों से हांगकांग और लंदन वापस लौटना पड़ा। इस तरह लखनऊ आ रहा इंडिगो एयरलाइन विमान टेकआफ के बाद नीचे आने लगा तो यात्री घबरा गए। सुरक्षित लैंडिंग के बाद यात्रियों को राहत की सांस मिली।

दिल्ली आने वाली एअर इंडिया की फ्लाइट हांगकांग लौटी

विचारणीय यह है कि अतीत में जिन हेलीकॉप्टर हादसों की जांच हुई, उनकी रिपोर्टें फाइलों में धूल फांक रही हैं। न तो उन पर संजीदगी से अमल हुआ और न ही किसी स्तर पर जवाबदेही तय की गई। इससे यह स्पष्ट होता है कि सुरक्षा उपायों को व्यवहार में उतारने में गंभीर लापरवाही बरती जा रही है। कई बार देखा गया है कि विमानन कंपनियां अधिक से अधिक लाभ कमाने के लिए सुरक्षा मानकों की अनदेखी करती हैं। जरूरी है कि पायलटों की योग्यता, थकान प्रबंधन और मौसम की स्थिति की उपेक्षा जैसे पहलुओं की कठोर निगरानी हो। सरकार और नागर विमानन महानिदेशालय को हर हवाई हादसे की रिपोर्ट को सार्वजनिक करना चाहिए। दोषियों पर कार्रवाई हो और सुधार के कदम फौरन उठाए जाएं। जब तक सुरक्षा को प्राथमिकता नहीं दी जाएगी, हवाई यात्रा का भरोसा केवल एक भ्रम बना रहेगा।

इससे पहले भी 2020 में विमान हादसा हुआ था और उसमें भी कुछ यात्रियों की मौत हुई थी तथा 2017 में भी विमान हादसे में कई यात्रियों ने अपनी जान गंवाई। हादसों के बाद सरकार द्वारा जांच बैठा दी जाती है, मगर जांच रिपोर्ट कब आती है और इन पर क्या कार्रवाई होती है, इसके बारे में लोगों को बहुत कुछ पता नहीं चल पाता है। लेकिन इन हादसों से विमानन कंपनियों और सरकार की सुरक्षा एजेंसियों को जो सबक लेना चाहिए, वह सबक एजेंसियां नहीं ले रही हैं। सवाल इस बात का उठता है कि समय-समय पर विमानों में विभिन्न प्रकार की खामियों को देखने के पश्चात भी उनको नजरअंदाज क्यों किया जाता है? क्यों नहीं सुरक्षा एजेंसियां और उड़ान प्राधिकरण इन जांच रिपोर्टों के आधार पर आगे के लिए सतर्कता बरतती हैं और सुरक्षा के उपाय करती हैं?

बड़े विमान हादसों की याद में बने स्मारकों का संदेश

दरअसल, यह कब्र उन बदनसीब मुसाफिरों की याद दिलाती है, जो 14 जून, 1972 को हुए जापान एयरलाइंस के विमान हादसे में मारे गए थे। वह विमान बैंकॉक से दिल्ली आ रहा था। यह उसी जगह पर गिरा था, जहां अब साउथ दिल्ली का वसंत कुंज इलाका आबाद है। उस विमान हादसे में क्रू मेंबर समेत 82 मुसाफिर मारे गए थे। इनमें ये ज्यादातर यात्री अमेरिका व ब्राजील के नागरिक थे। इनमें ब्राजील की मशहूर फिल्मी हस्ती लैला डिंज और भारत के नामवर कृषि वैज्ञानिक डॉ के के पी नरसिंह राव भी सवार थे। इसके अलावा, विमान के गिरने से जमीन पर चार लोगों की जान चली गई थी। अहमदाबाद के विमान हादसे में भी मुसाफिरों और केबिन क्रू के सदस्यों के अलावा ऐसे लोग भी मारे गए हैं, जिन पर विमान के टुकड़े गिरे।

इस भयंकर हादसे के पीड़ितों की याद में दो स्मारक बनाए गए। हादसे की पहली बरसी पर 1986 में आयरलैंड में एक स्मारक का अनावरण किया गया। यह स्मारक उस स्थान के पास है, जहां विमान समुद्र में गिरा था। यह पीड़ितों को श्रद्धांजलि देने और इस दुखद घटना को याद रखने का प्रतीक है। उधर, कनाडा में भी इस हादसे के पीड़ितों की याद में स्मारक बना। वर्ष 2015 में जब प्रधानमंत्री नरेंद्र मोदी कनाडा गए थे, तब उन्होंने टोरंटो में इस स्मारक का दौरा किया था। इन दोनों स्मारकों पर पीड़ितों के परिवार आते-जाते रहते हैं। निस्संदेह, ऐसे स्मारक महत्वपूर्ण हैं, क्योंकि वे भविष्य में ऐसी त्रासदियों को रोकने के लिए आगाह करते रहते हैं व आतंकवाद-रोधी उपायों पर ध्यान केंद्रित करने की अहमियत जताते हैं। ये आतंकी घटनाओं के प्रति आम लोगों को भी जागरूक करते हैं। हालांकि, इन्हें बनाते समय पीड़ित परिवारों की भावनाओं और सहमति का ध्यान रखना जरूरी है। अगर अहमदाबाद में भी विमान हादसे के शिकार यात्रियों की याद में स्मारक बनाया जाए, तो इसमें बुराई नहीं होगी। मगर स्मारक बनाना ही पर्याप्त नहीं होगा। उसकी कायदे से देखरेख भी करनी होगी।

बहरहाल, रॉयल सिमिट्री की उस कब्र को देखकर समझ आ जाता है कि अब इधर फूल चढ़ाने के लिए कभी-कभार ही कोई आता होगा। इस पर अंकित शब्द भी अब मिटने लगे हैं। हां, इतना जरूर है कि हर साल क्रिसमस पर दिल्ली ब्रदरहुड सोसायटी से जुड़े हुए फादर सोलोमन जॉर्ज यहां फूल अवश्य चढ़ाते हैं।

NEW DELHI: Air India chairman N Chandrasekaran on Monday urged employees to channel criticism over the crash of AI Flight 171 in Ahmedabad last week into building a safer and better airline even as he met a top Boeing executive and Union aviation minister Ram Mohan Naidu to discuss the accident and its aftermath.

Describing the crash as the "most heartbreaking" crisis of his career, Chandrasekaran told the company's employees at the airline's headquarters that "we must wait for the outcome of the investigation before drawing conclusions," an airline official said. Addressing the criticism the airline has faced, Chandrasekaran acknowledged that it is difficult for those who care deeply about their work and the future of the airline.

"We need to show resilience. We need to use this incident as an act of force to build a safer airline," news agency PTI quoted him as saying.

The Air India chairman said that the airline was doing its best to help the victims' families.

चार विमानों में यात्रियों की सांसें अटकीं

नई दिल्ली, विशेष संवाददाता। चार विमानों में आई तकनीकी खराबी से यात्रियों की सांसें अटकी रहीं। इनमें एअर इंडिया, एअर इंडिया एक्सप्रेस, ब्रिटिश एयरवेज, सऊदिया एयरलाइंस के विमान शामिल हैं।

हांगकांग से सोमवार को दिल्ली आ रहे एअर इंडिया के विमान में उड़ान के दौरान तकनीकी खराबी का संदेह हुआ। इसके बाद उसे वापस हांगकांग भेजा गया। इससे पहले रविवार को लंदन से चेन्नई आ रहे ब्रिटिश एयरवेज के विमान को तकनीकी खराब के चलते लौटना पड़ा।

DNA profiling may end today, kin await results

AHMEDABAD: The painstaking process of DNA profiling of all the victims of the Air India Dreamliner crash is expected to finish by Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning, a top doctor said on Monday, potentially exacerbating the wait of scores of relatives who continue to camp in Ahmedabad.

A group of 54 experts across Forensic Science Laboratories in Gandhinagar, Ahmedabad, Vadodara, Surat, and Rajkot are working round-the-clock to carry out profiling and matching tests. But there is still no final word on the official toll on what is India's worst single-aircraft tragedy that killed all but one of the 242 on board, and at least 30 in the hostel building the AI-171 jet rammed into, or in the neighbourhood.

Dr Rakesh Joshi, superintendent of Ahmedabad Civil Hospital, said that 119 DNA samples have matched with the victims of the crash. Using these, 76 bodies have been handed over to families. Another eight bodies, which didn't require DNA sampling, were returned on Friday.

At least 14 more bodies will be returned by Tuesday morning. "The DNA profiling all the victims will be completed by either Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning," Joshi said. "We are trying our best to finish this process as soon as possible."

One of the people identified by DNA profiling was former chief minister Vijay Rupani, whose final rites were conducted in Rajkot on Monday.

The Air India Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner from Ahmedabad to London Gatwick crashed 33 seconds after taking off on Thursday afternoon and rammed into the medical college hostel, marking the worst air tragedy in the country in three decades.

Thick plumes of black smoke billowed from the debris of AI-171 at the crash site roughly 3km from the Ahmedabad airport premises. The aircraft – which carried almost a full load of 125,000 litres of fuel – entered a slow descent shortly after taking off at 1.38pm, with its landing gear still extended before exploding into a huge fireball upon impact.

Emergency Workers Still Can't believe One Passenger Survived Airline Crash

DP Bhattacharya

Ahmedabad: Until they cross-checked the visuals and the flight manifest, emergency responders of the 108 Ambulance service could not believe that they had indeed rescued the sole survivor from the Air India plane that crashed in Ahmedabad Thursday.

Satinder Singh Sandhu, a 108 emergency management executive, said when they found Vishwas Kumar, the British national who survived the crash, was in confused state and wanted to walk back to the plane that was still in flames, saying he had family members travelling on the same flight. "I put him in an ambulance and sent him to hospital without knowing that he was the sole survivor of the crash," he told ET.

Sandhu said he was having lunch at his office at the 1,200-bed new complex of the Civil hospital, which is about 200 meters away from the crash site, on Thursday when he heard a loud sound. He immediately mobilised five ambulances available there and rushed to the spot. "Initially I thought it was a big accident," he said. "But the fire and the smoke there told us that it was something much bigger, and probably an air crash." Sandhu called his superior Jitendra Shahi, who rushed 25 more ambulances to the spot. "Meanwhile, we saw a wounded security guard and sent him to hospital," Sandhu said. "And then, we saw a man walking out of the building premises somewhat wounded. Initially we thought he was someone from the building who had probably jumped out of the building." As they were taking the confused-looking man to the hospital, he told the paramedic in the ambulance that he was travelling to London in that plane, said Shahi. They did not believe him initially. "Later in the evening, when we checked the visual, cross-checked his name with the flight manifest, it was only then we realised that he was indeed the sole survivor of the crash," said Shahi.

Ex-CM Rupani Cremated in Rajkot

Ahmedabad: The mortal remains of former Gujarat chief minister Vijay Rupani was on Monday consigned to flames at the Ramnathpara crematorium at Rajkot.

Earlier in the day, Rupani's family received his body from the Civil Hospital in Ahmedabad. His body was identified on Sunday after matching the DNA with his son Rushav Rupani, who had arrived from the US.

Apart from Gujarat CM Bhupendra Patel, several senior ministers of the BJP and others paid their last respects to Rupani at the Civil Hospital while police accorded him a guard of honour, before his body was flown to Rajkot.

Union home minister Amit Shah also reached Rajkot to lay a wreath and offer his last respects to his long-time friend and party colleague at his residence, where the body was kept for the public to pay respects. Later, the funeral procession was taken out that travelled through the major areas of the city before reaching the crematorium.

Rupani was travelling in the ill-fated Air India flight from Ahmedabad to London to meet his daughter when the plane crashed over the hostel of BJ Medical College killing all but one passenger.

Rupani shared a deep connection with Prime Minister Narendra Modi as well as Union home minister Amit Shah and was instrumental in BJP's generational transition in Saurashtra region and tightening the grip of the party there. As a matter of fact, he along with Amit Shah oversaw Prime Minister Narendra Modi's electoral debut back in February 2002 after he assumed the charge of Gujarat in September 2001.

Govt panel to study response to past air accidents, prepare SoPs

NEW DELHI: A high-level government panel led by the Union home secretary Govind Mohan met for the first time on Monday, deciding to study the country's response to air crashes in the past, as it works to prepare a standard operating procedure to respond to such accidents, officials said.

The high- level multi-disciplinary committee, formed and announced by the government on Friday, also focused on improving safety in order to avoid accidents in the future. The committee was set up after an Air India Boeing 787 crashed shortly after take-off from Ahmedabad airport on Thursday, killing 241 of the 242 on board and at least 30 in the buildings at the crash site.

"The committee revisited previous accidents in India or involved an Indian registered aircraft," one of the officials said. "Reports of all the previous accidents were analysed," the official added.

Officials said that the lead probe agency, India's Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB), with the US National Transport Safety Board (NTSB), and a team from the aircraft's manufacturer Boeing from Seattle that reached Ahmedabad on Sunday, were scheduled to extract the plane's flight data recorder by Tuesday. A Press Information Bureau release on Sunday night said the US NTSB is conducting a parallel probe under international protocols, as the aircraft is American-made.

"The committee is not going to probe the technical aspect of the accident but look into the procedures that were followed to handle it and if there is a change required in the approach towards handling accidents in the country," the official quoted above said.

"Hence they discussed the accident and the way it was handled," he added.

The meeting began at 2.15pm on Monday and went on for around two hours. "While the secretary of civil aviation along with other civil aviation ministry officials, attended the meeting in person, local officials from Ahmedabad and other aviation officials investigating the Thursday crash participated virtually," a second official said.

"This was an introductory meeting and it touched upon various aspects not only including the AI 171 crash but also the response to the crash, the update on the situation at the crash site and also the need to come up with an SOP to be followed during such times," a third person said, requesting anonymity.

Officials added issues such as the time it took for local agencies to respond to the crash site at Ahmedabad was also discussed.

The committee includes secretary of civil aviation SK Sinha, representatives from the Gujarat home department, the state disaster response authority, the police commissioner of Ahmedabad, the director general (DG), inspection and safety of the Indian Air Force, the DG of Bureau of Civil Aviation Security, the DG of the Directorate General of Civil Aviation, the special director of Intelligence Bureau and the director of the Directorate of Forensic Science Services.

The civil aviation ministry did not comment on the discussions held in the meeting.

Indian trucks take hydrogen highway to future

SHINE JACOB & SOHINI DAS
Chennai/Mumbai, 16 June

From the industrial sprawl of Reliance Industries' Jamnagar refinery to the frost-bitten heights of Leh and the traffic-choked avenues of New Delhi, a quiet shift is underway in India's commercial vehicle (CV) sector. Hydrogen-powered trucks and buses — once a speculative future — are now rolling out onto the country's roads, driven by auto giants like Ashok Leyland and Tata Motors. Others are not far behind.

While many of these efforts are aligned with the government's National Green Hydrogen Mission, original equipment manufacturers (OEMs) are also shaping their own road maps to remain future-ready. Ashok Leyland, for instance, made headlines in 2023 when it unveiled the country's first hydrogen internal combustion engine (H2-ICE) truck, developed in collaboration with Reliance Industries Ltd (RIL).

ASHOK LEYLAND HAS PARTNERED NTPC GREEN TO DEPLOY HYDROGEN FUEL CELL BUSES IN KEY LOCATIONS, INCLUDING DELHI AND LADAKH

Since then, over 20 of these heavy-duty vehicles have clocked nearly 250,000 kilometres, and have rivalled the efficiency of traditional ICE vehicles.

The firm has partnered NTPC Green to deploy hydrogen fuel cell buses in key locations, including Delhi and Ladakh.

"Among the alternative fuels, the ultimate destination of the CV market is going to be hydrogen. However, it needs the cost structure to be right," Sanjeev Kumar, president and head of the medium and heavy commercial vehicle division at Ashok Leyland, told Business Standard. "As an organisation, we are ready with technology; it is only a question of when and how, as the cost of hydrogen continues to be very high. Recently, we have also delivered one 55-tonne fuel cell vehicle to Adani (group) for its mining application in Chhattisgarh."

Tata Motors, too, is carrying out trials of hydrogen-powered CVs. Since March, the firm has been testing two trucks — one powered by H2-ICE, the other by hydrogen fuel cell — across a 24-month pilot programme. A total of 16 hydrogen-powered vehicles, with varying payloads and configurations, will ply on some of India's busiest freight routes in Mumbai, Pune, Delhi-NCR, Surat, Vadodara, Jamshedpur, and Kalinganagar.

"We've also started shipping our first hydrogen trucks, which are now going to ply on specific lanes," P B Balaji, group chief financial officer at Tata Motors, said during a recent post-earnings call.

The pilot, undertaken in partnership with Indian Oil Corporation, aims to gather on-ground data — both to finetune the vehicles and to map out hydrogen availability along key transport routes.

Govt's pilot projects to put 37 hydrogen-powered vehicles on the road

At the Bharat Mobility Global Expo earlier this year, Tata Motors Executive Director Girish Wagh signalled that the company was targeting a commercial launch window within the next 12 to 24 months. The company did not wish to share further updates at the moment.

The momentum isn't limited to Indian firms. Daimler Truck, one of the world's leading CV manufacturers, is preparing to enter the Indian hydrogen race. "On the path towards decarbonising transport, Daimler Truck is entering the next development phase of its fuel cell trucks," said Pradeep Kumar T, president of product engineering and chief technology officer, Daimler India Commercial Vehicles.

Following extensive testing, both on tracks and public roads, Daimler's Mercedes-Benz GenH2 trucks are now approaching the customer deployment phase. "We are currently evaluating customer readiness, infrastructure availability, and local operating conditions to ensure that when our hydrogen trucks enter Indian roads, it will be with full commitment to the quality, safety and reliability that define Daimler Truck worldwide," he added.

The central government, too, is ramping up its hydrogen play. Through the Ministry of New and Renewable Energy, five pilot projects have been allocated to a group of private players — Tata Motors, RIL, NTPC, Ashok Leyland, Hindustan Petroleum Corporation Ltd, Bharat Petroleum Corporation Ltd, and Indian Oil Corporation Ltd. Together, these projects will put 37 hydrogen-powered vehicles (a mix of buses and trucks) on the road, supported by nine hydrogen-refuelling stations.

The vehicles include 15 powered by hydrogen fuel cells and 22 by hydrogen ICEs. The trials will take place on 10 routes across the country — from Delhi to Thiruvananthapuram. Launched in January 2023, the National Green Hydrogen Mission has an allocated budget of ₹19,744 crore through to the end of the decade.

It is the centrepiece of India's push towards becoming aatmanirbhar (self-reliant) in clean energy and serving as an inspiration for the global clean energy transition.

Indian trucks take hydrogen highway to future

SHINE JACOB & SOHINI DAS
Chennai/Mumbai, 16 June

From the industrial sprawl of Reliance Industries' Jamnagar refinery to the frost-bitten heights of Leh and the traffic-choked avenues of New Delhi, a quiet shift is underway in India's commercial vehicle (CV) sector. Hydrogen-powered trucks and buses — once a speculative future — are now rolling out onto the country's roads, driven by auto giants like Ashok Leyland and Tata Motors. Others are not far behind.

While many of these efforts are aligned with the government's National Green Hydrogen Mission, original equipment manufacturers (OEMs) are also shaping their own road maps to remain future-ready. Ashok Leyland, for instance, made headlines in 2023 when it unveiled the country's first hydrogen internal combustion engine (H2-ICE) truck, developed in collaboration with Reliance Industries Ltd (RIL).

ASHOK LEYLAND HAS PARTNERED NTPC GREEN TO DEPLOY HYDROGEN FUEL CELL BUSES IN KEY LOCATIONS, INCLUDING DELHI AND LADAKH

Since then, over 20 of these heavy-duty vehicles have clocked nearly 250,000 kilometres, and have rivalled the efficiency of traditional ICE vehicles.

The firm has partnered NTPC Green to deploy hydrogen fuel cell buses in key locations, including Delhi and Ladakh.

"Among the alternative fuels, the ultimate destination of the CV market is going to be hydrogen. However, it needs the cost structure to be right," Sanjeev Kumar, president and head of the medium and heavy commercial vehicle division at Ashok Leyland, told Business Standard. "As an organisation, we are ready with technology; it is only a question of when and how, as the cost of hydrogen continues to be very high. Recently, we have also delivered one 55-tonne fuel cell vehicle to Adani (group) for its mining application in Chhattisgarh."

Tata Motors, too, is carrying out trials of hydrogen-powered CVs. Since March, the firm has been testing two trucks — one powered by H2-ICE, the other by hydrogen fuel cell — across a 24-month pilot programme. A total of 16 hydrogen-powered vehicles, with varying payloads and configurations, will ply on some of India's busiest freight routes in Mumbai, Pune, Delhi-NCR, Surat, Vadodara, Jamshedpur, and Kalinganagar.

"We've also started shipping our first hydrogen trucks, which are now going to ply on specific lanes," P B Balaji, group chief financial officer at Tata Motors, said during a recent post-earnings call.

The pilot, undertaken in partnership with Indian Oil Corporation, aims to gather on-ground data — both to finetune the vehicles and to map out hydrogen availability along key transport routes.

Govt's pilot projects to put 37 hydrogen-powered vehicles on the road

At the Bharat Mobility Global Expo earlier this year, Tata Motors Executive Director Girish Wagh signalled that the company was targeting a commercial launch window within the next 12 to 24 months. The company did not wish to share further updates at the moment.

The momentum isn't limited to Indian firms. Daimler Truck, one of the world's leading CV manufacturers, is preparing to enter the Indian hydrogen race. "On the path towards decarbonising transport, Daimler Truck is entering the next development phase of its fuel cell trucks," said Pradeep Kumar T, president of product engineering and chief technology officer, Daimler India Commercial Vehicles.

Following extensive testing, both on tracks and public roads, Daimler's Mercedes-Benz GenH2 trucks are now approaching the customer deployment phase. तेल अवीव, रायटर : ईरान ने इजरायली डिफेंस सिस्टम को भेदते हुए सोमवार को राजधानी तेल अवीव और बंदरगाह शहर हाइफा पर बड़े हमले किए। इन हमलों में आठ लोग मारे गए और करीब 100 लोग घायल हुए हैं। हमलों में इजरायल के कई अपार्टमेंट और मकान बर्बाद हो गए हैं। इजरायल के रक्षा मंत्री इजरायल काट्ज ने चेतावनी दी है कि जल्द ही तेहरान के निवासी इस हमले की सजा भुगतेंगे। जबकि इजरायल के प्रधानमंत्री बेंजामिन नेतन्याहू ने कहा है कि हम ईरान की परमाणु चुनौती खत्म करने की राह पर हैं, इसे खत्म करके ही रुकेंगे। इस बीच कनाडा में मिल रहे जी 7 देशों के नेताओं के सम्मेलन में इजरायल-ईरान संघर्ष का मुद्दा शीर्ष पर रहने का संकेत है।

अमेरिका-इजरायल नहीं रोक पा रहे ईरान की मिसाइलें

बचाव के लिए इजरायल के लगाए सारे अवरोधों को धता बताते हुए ईरान की मिसाइलें इजरायली शहरों पर कहर बरपा रही हैं। ईरान की बैलेस्टिक मिसाइलें केवल इजरायली डिफेंस सिस्टम को ही विफल नहीं कर रहीं बल्कि इराक और जार्डन में तैनात अमेरिकी डिफेंस सिस्टम को भी चकमा दे रही हैं। अमेरिका और उसके मित्र देशों के लिए चिंता की बात यह है कि सर्वोत्तम समझा जाने वाले अमेरिकी थाड एयर डिफेंस सिस्टम ईरानी मिसाइलों को नहीं रोक पा रहा है। ईरानी मिसाइलें दो हजार किलोमीटर दूर तेल अवीव समेत कई इजरायली शहरों को बर्बाद कर रही हैं। ईरान के रिवोल्यूशनरी गार्ड कार्प्स ने कहा है कि इजरायल के डिफेंस सिस्टम के गच्चा देने के लिए खास तरह से मिसाइल हमले किए जा रहे हैं लेकिन किस तरह से यह हमला हो रहा है यह कार्प्स ने बताने से इन्कार कर दिया है।

Filmmaker Mahesh Kalawadia, also known as Mahesh Jirawala, has been missing since the London-bound Air India flight crashed in Ahmedabad (Gujarat) on June 12.

Speaking to media persons, his wife Hetal — who has anxiously been searching for him — said that the last active location on Mahesh's phone put him a mere 700 metres from the medical college hostel in Meghaninagar where the plane crashed minutes after take-off from Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport. She added that worry set in when Mahesh failed to return home after he called her to say he was on his way home.

"On June 12, Mahesh had gone to meet someone. He called me at 1.14pm to tell me his meeting was over and that he was on his way home," she told PTI, adding, "I called him again at 1.40pm, but his phone was switched off. That was just a minute after the plane took off from Ahmedabad airport."

Hetal further shared, "His scooter and mobile phone are missing. All this is unusual since he would never use that route to come home."

In a desperate bid to find Mahesh, his family have now submitted DNA samples to confirm if the filmmaker was indeed one of the ground victims of the crash.

As of Monday noon, 90 victims were identified through DNA sampling and the remains of 47 handed over to their families. The crash has claimed over 270 lives — 241 out of 242 travellers aboard the flight as well as 29 people on the ground.

AIR INDIA PLANE CRASH IN AHMEDABAD

Mortal Remains of 76 Victims Handed over to Families after DNA Matching

Gujarat CM Bhupendra Patel visits Civil Hospital, holds meet to review entire relief and rescue operation

DP Bhattacharya & Forum Gandhi

Ahmedabad: The mortal remains of 76 victims of the AI-171 plane crash have been handed over to their relatives after matching their DNA samples and ascertaining their identity. Around119 samples have been matched so far even as human body parts are still being recovered from the crash site and being brought to the hospital.

Meanwhile, remains of human body parts are still being retrieved from the site. On Monday, 15 such remains were retrieved from the crash site.

On Monday, June 16, 2025, Air India resumed its Ahmedabad-London flight services with Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner flight A159 departing at 4.30 pm from Ahmedabad airport, three days after the mishap. After the crash of flight AI 171, the airline had decided to change the flight number to AI159. The aircraft was scheduled for additional checks, as per a Ministry of Civil Aviation order. The Gujarat health department has deployed an additional 855 staff, apart from the regular Civil Hospital staff, to ease and expedite the process. The district administration has appointed more than 250 nodal officers to ensure the process of handing over the mortal remains and for coordination with the families. Supervisory officers have also been designated to ensure that all proceedings are conducted properly. The state government has also put in place an elaborate system to ensure assistance pertaining to any paper work for the relatives of the victims. They have also reached out to the relatives of the deceased to provide the required documents — including inheritance certificates — based on witness testimonies and verification by local committees, to ensure smooth processing with insurance companies and any government or semi-government offices.

Keeping in mind the rainy weather, a large dome with basic facilities like drinking water, fans, and coolers, mobile toilets outside the new post-mortem complex has been set up for the family members of the crash victims. Charitable organisations have been roped in to arrange for tea, snacks, water and meals for the families waiting inside the dome.

Chief minister Bhupendra Patel visited the Ahmedabad Civil Hospital on Monday and took stock of the situation. He held a meeting with the ministers and senior state officials to review the entire relief and rescue operation.

Reach Deep Into Air India's Pockets

Ramesh V Vaidyanathan & Suyash Sarvankar

Aircraft accidents, though rare, leave a devastating impact that extends far beyond the wreckage of lives. Compensation becomes not only a matter of monetary redress, but a crucial step toward accountability, closure and rebuilding lives.

In the aftermath of last week's AI 171 tragedy, Air India offered ₹1 cr as compensation per deceased person to his or her next of kin. While this announcement was prompt and appears generous, the airline could be on the hook for a much higher amount. Families may have significant claims, depending on how the investigation unfolds.

India has ratified the 'Montreal Convention' — Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules for International Carriage by Air — by incorporating it into the Carriage by Air Act 1972. This provides for a 2-tier compensation system defined in terms of special drawing rights (SDR), an international reserve asset created by IMF to supplement official reserves of its member countries. Accordingly:

- The airline must compensate the kin of the deceased passengers up to SDR 128,821 (₹1.6 cr), regardless of any fault or wrongdoing by the airline. This compensation is the absolute minimum, without exception. Some media reports have indicated that the ₹1 cr offered by AI is separate, and in addition to the SDR amount required under the convention.
- Kin of the deceased may seek compensation over and above this SDR amount, based on actual loss. This would be calculated on lost income, and companionship of victims who sustained their families and dependents. AI could avoid higher compensation only if it proves there was no negligence, wrongful act or omission by the airline (including its servants or agents, which include various third parties engaged by the airline to service the aircraft or assist with the flight).

Alternatively, the airline could defend itself if the accident occurred solely due to wrongful acts, or omissions of a third party, such as in the case of terrorism. The legal burden is on the airline to prove that the mishap did not occur due to its conduct, or that it occurred due to the conduct of a third party.

Piecing things together

In such cases, families of Indian victims could also approach consumer fora under the Consumer Protection Act 2019. The consumer protection law is in addition to remedies available under the Montreal Convention as read with the Carriage by Air Act.

For families of foreign passengers, legal options extend beyond India. Since the convention applies almost globally, they could file lawsuits in their home countries, where compensation standards may be higher.

Air India has also offered ₹1 cr to the families of the deceased medical college students and staff, and people on the ground. Securing higher compensation is more challenging for families of victims on the ground. Both Carriage by Air Act and Consumer Protection Act are meant for passengers on the ill-fated aircraft. The next of kin of ground fatalities would have to approach a civil court in India seeking compensation under Fatal Accidents Act 1855, which provides compensation to the family of a person who dies in the case of wrongful accidents.

Another option is a tort law claim, where damages for negligence could be sought. In both these options, Air India would be liable if it's at fault — that is, if the accident was a result of its act, omission or oversight. The total compensation payout to victims could well exceed ₹1,000 cr. Beyond victim compensation, Air India also faces significant costs for property damage, aircraft loss, emergency response and disrupted flights.

Globally, the compensation payout in cases of similar incidents has touched ₹4,500 cr ($500 mn). Air India likely maintains adequate insurance coverage that would cover these costs, or at least a substantial part. But if claims exceed coverage, the financial hit could be severe.

नई दिल्ली, एजेंसी। अहमदाबाद विमान हादसे की जांच के लिए केंद्र सरकार द्वारा गठित उच्च स्तरीय बहु-विषयक समिति ने इस हादसे के लिए जिम्मेदार विभिन्न संभावित कारणों पर सोमवार को विचार-विमर्श किया।

नई दिल्ली ■ नया इंडिया ब्यूरो

शवों के लिए करना पड़ रहा इंतजार

इनमें वह लोग भी शामिल हैं, जिन्होंने 12 जून को हादसे वाले दिन ही डीएनए जांच के लिए अपना नमूना दे दिया था ताकि उसका मिलान कर मृतक की शिनाख्त की जा सके। उन्हें 72 घंटे का इंतजार करने के लिए कहा गया था और यह समयसीमा रविवार को बीत गई तथा ऐसा लगता है कि इंतजार अंतहीन है। स्वास्थ्य अधिकारियों ने परिवारों के शोकाकुल सदस्यों से ना घबराने की अपील की है, जबकि विशेषज्ञों ने कहा है कि विमान हादसे में इतनी बड़ी संख्या में लोगों की जान जाने के मद्देनजर डीएनए के नमूनों के मिलान में वक्त लग सकता है।

आकाश का परिवार भी इधर-उधर भटक रहा

वैश्विक शेयरों में तेजी से 677 अंक बढ़ा सेंसेक्स

सेंसेक्स में अल्ट्राटेक सीमेंट में सबसे ज्यादा 2.39 प्रतिशत की तेजी रही। इसके अलावा टेक महिंद्रा, एचसीएल टेक, टीसीएस, एटरनल, एशियन पेंट्स, टाटा स्टील और कोटक महिंद्रा भी बढ़कर बंद हुए। टाटा मोटर्स, अदाणी पोर्ट्स और सनफार्मा में गिरावट दर्ज की गई। जियोजित इन्वेस्टमेंट लिमिटेड के शोध प्रमुख विनोद नायर ने कहा कि इजरायल और ईरान के बीच भू-राजनीतिक तनावों के बावजूद बाजार ने बढ़त दर्ज की है। इसमें कच्चे तेल की कीमतों में कमी का प्रमुख योगदान रहा है।

37 years on, families of 1988 Ahmd air crash victims await 'fair compensation'

Ahmedabad: The AI-171 plane crash, among the deadliest aviation disasters in the country, has brought renewed attention on unresolved struggles of families affected by the 1988 Ahmedabad air tragedy. An Indian Airlines flight 113 from Bombay to Ahmedabad crashed on Oct 19, 1988, killing 133 passengers and crew of the 135 on board the aircraft. The families of the deceased were then offered Rs 2L in compensation.

Today, nearly 37 years since the tragedy, around 20 families from Ahmedabad remain locked in a legal battle with authorities over what they consider "inadequate compensation" for their losses.

83 bodies handed over to relatives

Mortal remains of 83 passengers on board the flight AI 171 were handed over to families after DNA matching, Gujarat health minister Rishikesh Patel said late Monday.

So far, 125 DNA samples have been matched with those given by relatives, and the families of 124 victims have been informed, he said in a post on X. TNN

"There are around 20 families that are still fighting a legal battle for fair compensation. After the tragedy, the authorities had announced a compensation of Rs 2 lakh per victim. We believe the compensation should be based on the income and age of the victims. So, after the high court order, we moved Supreme Court in April 2010 for higher compensation," said Pankesh Patel, secretary of the association formed by families.

According to the case details, in 2003, the sessions court had directed Indian Airlines (IA) and Airport Authority of India (AAI) to give the petitioner families of the IA 113 victims a 6% interest on the compensation amount. In 2009, HC ordered this to be raised to 9%. However, the 20 families, organised under the Air Crash Claimants' Association, moved SC in 2010, demanding a higher compensation based on the age and earning potential of their deceased relatives.

Ushaben Patel, now 74, had lost her husband Sharad Patel, a chartered accountant and company secretary who served as finance director for a German company. Thursday's plane crash has reopened old wounds for her. "At the time of the 1988 crash, my sons Jayshreel and Milan were in Class 5 & Class 3, respectively. I raised them both with support from our families and they are both chartered accountants now, settled in Canada," she said. "The compensation offered in the aftermath of the AI 171 tragedy is better than what we were offered," she added.

Reetaben Shah, 74, remembers her husband Sunil Shah, an IIM-A graduate who worked as a management consultant. Their daughter was 12 years old when the crash occurred. "We did not accept the Rs 2 lakh compensation and initiated legal action. We finally moved SC," she said.

Ketan Patel, now 63, lost his father Ranjitbhai Patel, a 48-year-old chartered accountant, to the tragedy. "We had demanded compensation based on his age and income, which was around Rs 1.25 lakh per annum at that time. It has been 37 years since the legal battle began and we are awaiting justice," he said.

The families have created a lasting memorial at the Kotarpur crash site. "We installed a marble replica of an aircraft at the site," Ushaben Patel said. "Many families visit the site on Oct 19 every year to pay tribute to their loved ones." Along with the Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation, the families also set up the Shantivan, a memorial garden featuring 133 trees in remembrance of the 133 people who lost their lives in the crash.

Gandhinagar: A plume of smoke rose above BJ Medical College on the sunny afternoon of June 12. Flames licked the crumpled fuselage of a jumbo jet. Screams pierced the air. Raju Patel, 56, didn't stop to think. When the sky fell, he stood up.

Just minutes away, the construction businessman raced to the AI 171 crash site with his crew, arriving within five minutes of impact. "For the first 15 to 20 minutes, we could barely get close. The fire was too intense," Patel said. "But once the first fire brigade and 108 ambulances arrived, we jumped in to help."

With no stretchers in sight, they used sarees and bedsheets to carry the injured. "We did what we could," he said. Authorities allowed Patel's team to stay on-site until 9pm.

As emergency services took control, Patel's team turned to what came next — combing the wreckage. Burned luggage lay scattered across the charred grounds. From the debris, they retrieved 70 tolas (over 800 grams) of gold jewellery, Rs 80,000 in cash, passports, and a Bhagawad Gita. All were handed over to police.

Minister of state for home Harsh Sanghavi said Sunday all salvaged personal belongings are being documented and will be returned to next of kin.

"I'm just grateful we could do something," said Patel, whose volunteering history includes the 2008 Ahmedabad serial blasts. "I was just 100m from the civil hospital when a bomb went off. But the destruction here... the flames... I will never forget this," he added.

Air India chairman urges staff to build safer airline after crash

New Delhi/Ahmedabad

Tata Sons and Air India Chairman N Chandrasekaran on Monday told the airline staff to use the plane crash in Ahmedabad as an "act of force" to build a "safer airline", as a high-level Government panel held its first meeting to probe the possible causes of the air disaster.

Meanwhile Four days after the deadliest crash in the country in three decades claimed 270 lives, 119 victims have so far been identified through DNA matching with their family members, authorities said, adding mortal remains of 76 of them including that of former Gujarat chief minister Vijay Rupani were handed over to their families.

Addressing close to 700 employees and the leadership team across the Air India headquarters and Air India Training Academy in Gurugram, Chandrasekaran urged them to stay on course, terming the accident the most "heartbreaking" crisis of his career.

"We need to show resilience. We need to use this incident as an act of force to build a safer airline," he said, urging the employees to be "strong". "So we have to make sure that we stay the course. Be more determined in everything we do. We need to wait for the investigation to find out (the cause)," the Tata Sons chief said.

"I've seen a reasonable number of crises in my career, but this is the most heartbreaking one which I never thought I would see," sources quoted Chandrasekaran as having told the meeting.

As grief-stricken families endure an agonising wait for bodies of the victims, Ahmedabad Civil Hospital Medical Superintendent Dr Rakesh Joshi appealed to them not to panic over the time consuming process of matching the DNA samples of relatives with the remains of the deceased. He expressed the hope that the DNA profiling all the victims will be completed by either Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning.

"We visited the DNA collection centre yesterday but were told that our samples were yet to be matched," Pooja Sukhadare, a relative of crew member Roshni Songhare, told PTI.

Sukhadare has been camping in Ahmedabad since the day of the disaster with the father and brother of Songhare, whose family resides at Dombivli in Maharashtra's Thane district.

The high-level panel, chaired by Union Home Secretary Govind Mohan, deliberated on various possibilities that could have led to the Ahmedabad crash at its first meeting in Delhi.

It was set up by the government on Saturday to ascertain the "root cause" of the accident and assess any contributing factors including mechanical failure, human error and regulatory compliances.

The panel heard the opinion of various stake-holders about the possible causes and deliberated on steps to be taken to check future occurrence of such accidents by formulating Standard Operating Procedures(SOPs).

Since a separate investigation is also being carried out by the Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB), which is looking into the technical aspects of the crash, the panel discussed about the possible causes and lesson to be taken from it, sources said.

Probe agencies were looking into all possible causes for the crash, including loss of thrust in both engines of the aircraft, multiple bird strikes, or a potential wing flap issue. The doomed aircraft's black box — which includes the Flight Data Recorder and Cockpit Voice Recorder — has already been recovered and may hold vital clues to understanding what led to the disaster.

The United States' National Transportation Safety Board (NTSB) has also launched a parallel probe into the crash, drawing several international experts to the accident site.

The NTSB is conducting a parallel probe under international protocols, as the aircraft is American-made, an official release said.

AI Dreamliner returns to HK due to 'technical issue'

An AI Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner plane bound for Delhi returned to its origin of Hong Kong shortly after takeoff Monday as a precautionary measure following a technical issue. The same type of Boeing aircraft had crashed in Ahmedabad last week.

Air India said in a statement that flight AI 315 returned to Hong Kong because of "a technical issue", without giving more details. The airline said the flight landed safely and was undergoing checks "as a matter of abundant precaution".

According to recordings posted on LiveATC.net, and reviewed by Reuters, one of the pilots told air traffic controllers 15 mins after takeoff that "for technical reasons, sir, we would like to stay closer to Hong Kong, maybe we will come back and land back into Hong Kong once we sort out the problem."

"We don't want to continue further," the pilot is heard saying, before returning. REUTERS

मुंबई, 16 जून

अहमदाबाद में पिछले सप्ताह हुई विमान दुर्घटना के मद्देनजर एयर इंडिया और टाटा संस के चेयरमैन एन चंद्रशेखरन ने गुरुग्राम में कंपनी के मुख्यालय और प्रशिक्षण अकादमी में करीब 700 से कर्मचारियों को संबोधित करते हुए उन्हें एकजुटता और दृढ़ संकल्प का संदेश दिया।

चंद्रशेखरन ने उपस्थित कर्मचारियों से कहा, 'मुझे लगा कि मुझे यहां आना चाहिए और यथासंभव आप लोगों से मिलना चाहिए।' इनमें से कई कर्मचारी उस आपातकालीन प्रतिक्रिया दल का हिस्सा थे, जिसे इस त्रासदी के बाद सक्रिय किया गया था। चंद्रा ने

Crash victim's sister dies of heart attack

Ahmedabad: The AI 171 crash claimed the lives of two members of the Parmar family from Rakhiyana in Ahmedabad district—Bhogilal and his wife Hansa. But even before the family could recover from the blow, they received more heart-breaking news: Bhogilal's elder sister Gomti, 65, unable to process the grief, collapsed and died.

Bhogilal and Hansa were on their first-ever trip abroad to visit their son and daughter-in-law, who are expecting their first child this week.

As their relatives gathered to mourn, the shock of the tragedy proved too much for Gomti. Her son Sagar said she collapsed during the gathering and died on the spot. "She was very close to my mama (uncle)," he said. "When she heard about the crash, she couldn't bear the grief." Gomti's final rites were performed Friday — even before those of her brother, whose mortal remains are to be identified. TNN

This Followed An Engine Replacement

Kolkata: Air India had raised insurance cover on the Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner that crashed in Ahmedabad from Rs 750 crore to Rs 850 crore during its April policy renewal following an engine replacement, sources said Monday. Total claims from the June 12 crash are expected to exceed Rs 1,500 crore.

Indian insurers led by Tata AIG will absorb only Rs 100–150 crore of the financial hit, having ceded over 90% of the risk to global reinsurers in London and Bermuda markets, including AIG and AXA XL.

The aircraft was part of a fleet-wide aviation cover worth Rs 8,000–10,000 crore, for which AI paid an annual premium of about Rs 250 crore.

Home minister Amit Shah pays respects to Vijay Rupani in Rajkot Monday

The crash is set to trigger compensation under the Montreal Convention, entitling families of deceased passengers to around Rs 1.8 crore each. With 241 onboard deaths liabilities under this clause alone could cross Rs 420 crore. There will be additional third-party claims as the accident also killed over 30 people on the ground and destroyed a medical college hostel, experts said.

The Dreamliner — about 11.5 years old, and operated by AI since Jan 2014 — has been declared a total loss. The hull claim alone is pegged at Rs 850 crore, based on the aircraft's age-adjusted insured value.

The Ahmedabad accident is the first major crash of a wide-body aircraft in Asia in recent years and is expected to tighten the global aviation insurance market for regional carriers operating large jets.

Domestic insurers retaining only 7.5–10% of exposure include Tata AIG, GIC Re, United India, Oriental Insurance, National Insurance, and ICICI Lombard. Reinsurers are expected to bear brunt of payouts.

In a June 14 circular, IRDA directed insurers to expedite settlements under life and accident policies and waive documentation requirements such as FIRs and autopsy reports.

Total claims could hit $475m: GIC Re

Total claims from the crash could touch $475 million, driven by liability payouts that are expected to be over 2.5 times the aircraft value, said Ramaswamy Narayanan, chairman and MD of GIC Re.

"The way we see it, the hull will be around $125 million and liability claims on account of passenger liability, third-party liability and other PA and travel policies in vogue should work out to $350 million," he said. "The estimate is on the higher side since passengers from the West are also involved." TNN

Ahmedabad: Until they cross-checked the visuals and the flight manifest, emergency responders of the 108 Ambulance service could not believe that they had indeed rescued the sole survivor from the Air India plane that crashed in Ahmedabad Thursday.

Satinder Singh Sandhu, a 108 emergency management executive, said when they found Vishwas Kumar, the British national who survived the crash, was in confused state and wanted to walk back to the plane that was still in flames, saying he had family members travelling on the same flight. "I put him in an ambulance and sent him to hospital without knowing that he was the sole survivor of the crash," he told ET.

Sandhu said he was having lunch at his office at the 1,200-bed new complex of the Civil hospital, which is about 200 meters away from the crash site, on Thursday when he heard a loud sound. He immediately mobilised five ambulances available there and rushed to the spot. "Initially I thought it was a big accident," he said. "But the fire and the smoke there told us that it was something much bigger, and probably an air crash." Sandhu called his superior Jitendra Shahi, who rushed 25 more ambulances to the spot. "Meanwhile, we saw a wounded security guard and sent him to hospital," Sandhu said. "And then, we saw a man walking out of the building premises somewhat wounded. Initially we thought he was someone from the building who had probably jumped out of the building." As they were taking the confused-looking man to the hospital, he told the paramedic in the ambulance that he was travelling to London in that plane, said Shahi. They did not believe him initially. "Later in the evening, when we checked the visual, cross-checked his name with the flight manifest, it was only then we realised that he was indeed the sole survivor of the crash," said Shahi.

Ahmedabad: The mortal remains of former Gujarat chief minister Vijay Rupani was on Monday consigned to flames at the Ramnathpara crematorium at Rajkot.

Earlier in the day, Rupani's family received his body from the Civil Hospital in Ahmedabad. His body was identified on Sunday after matching the DNA with his son Rushav Rupani, who had arrived from the US.

Apart from Gujarat CM Bhupendra Patel, several senior ministers of the BJP and others paid their last respects to Rupani at the Civil Hospital while police accorded him a guard of honour, before his body was flown to Rajkot.

Union home minister Amit Shah also reached Rajkot to lay a wreath and offer his last respects to his longtime friend and party colleague at his residence, where the body was kept for the public to pay respects. Later, the funeral procession was taken out that travelled through the major areas of the city before reaching the crematorium.

Rupani was travelling in the ill-fated Air India flight from Ahmedabad to London to meet his daughter when the plane crashed over the hostel of BJ Medical College killing all but one passenger.

Rupani shared a deep connection with Prime Minister Narendra Modi as well as Union home minister Amit Shah and was instrumental in BJP's generational transition in Saurashtra region and tightening the grip of the party there. As a matter of fact, he along with Amit Shah oversaw Prime Minister Narendra Modi's electoral debut back in February 2002 after he assumed the charge of Gujarat in September 2001.

First Nashik-produced LCA Mk-1A set for maiden flight

Rahul Singh
letters@hindustantimes.com

NEW DELHI: The first light combat aircraft (LCA Mk-1A) built at Hindustan Aeronautics Limited's new production line in Nashik is set to make its maiden flight in mid-July, and the state-owned plane maker is targeting delivery of the first LCA Mk-1A produced in Bengaluru to the Indian Air Force in July-August after a delay of almost 16 months, officials aware of the matter said on Monday.

HAL can build 16 Mk-1As every year in Bengaluru, and the Nashik production line will help it boost production to a total of 24 jets. To be sure, the Bengaluru-produced LCA Mk-1A flew for the first time in March 2024.

"The Nashik production line will roll out four to five Mk-1A fighters this year, followed by eight annually next year onwards. It will help us make up for the delay in deliveries due to factors including US firm GE Aerospace's inability to supply F404- IN20 engines on time and some pending certifications," said one of the officials cited above, asking not to be named.

IAF is concerned about the current pace of the LCA Mk-1A programme because of the possible risks a delay in the induction of new fighters could pose to its combat effectiveness.

The air force ordered 83 Mk-1A fighters for ₹48,000 crore in February 2021 and plans to buy 97 more Mk-1As at a cost of around ₹67,000 crore.

The first of the 83 jets on order was to be delivered to the IAF by March 31, 2024. The last of the 83 jets is to be delivered by 2028-29.

"HAL has so far manufactured six LCA Mk-1As in Bengaluru to execute the 83-aircraft order. One of these, equipped with GE's F404-IN20 engine, is expected to be delivered to the IAF in July-August. We have sufficient capacity to offset the delay once the engine supplies stabilise," said a second official, who also asked not to be named.

GE Aerospace delivered the first of 99 F404-IN20 engines to HAL in March. The second engine is expected to be delivered in July, followed by two every month until December, the officials said, adding that deliveries will be accelerated next year onwards.

HAL can build 16 Mk-1As every year in Bengaluru, and the Nashik unit will help it boost production to a total of 24 jets. HT ARCHIVE

The US firm had then explained why the engine supply was delayed and assured HAL that production was being ramped up to execute the Indian order.

In 2004, the F404-IN20 engine was selected for the older LCA Mk-1, which has been inducted by the IAF. By 2016, GE Aerospace had delivered 65 F404-IN20 engines for the Mk-1 aircraft.

With no additional engine orders, the production line for F404-IN20 in the US was shut down. However, when HAL ordered an additional 99 engines in 2021 for the LCA Mk-1A, the US firm began the complex task of restarting the production line, which had been dormant for five years, and re-engaging the engine's global supply chain.

In May, IAF voiced its frustration over the delays in key projects.

The chief of the air staff Air Chief Marshal AP Singh then put the spotlight on the armed forces' agonising wait for new weapons and systems, saying he could not recall a single instance of a project being executed on time, in what was seen as a wake-up call for the country's defence production sector.

"Timelines are a big issue," Singh said at the CII Annual Business Summit 2025. The air force is grappling with a shortage of fighter jets and operates around 30 fighter squadrons compared to an authorised 42.

The armed forces have so far not called "the black sheep" out, but their "restraint" should not be stretched to a breaking point, Singh said, issuing a veiled warning to defence public sector units including HAL and the Defence Research and Development Organisation among others.

Singh has often publicly flagged concerns about a worrying erosion of IAF's capabilities and called for urgent measures to fix it. In February, he questioned the ability of HAL to meet the air force's critical requirements in the backdrop of the lingering delay in the supply of new Mk-1A fighter jets, saying he had "no confidence" in the plane maker.

HAL chief DK Sunil then responded by saying that his company's focus is on delivering the LCA Mk-1A to the IAF at the earliest rather than spending time on countering criticism of the indigenous programme.

The LCA is set to emerge as the cornerstone of IAF's combat power as the world's fourth largest air force is expected to operate around 350 LCAs (Mk-1, Mk-1A and Mk-2 variants) in the coming decades.

The Mk-1A, a 4.5 generation fighter, will come with digital radar warning receivers, external self-protection jammer pods, superior radar, advanced beyond-visual-range (BVR) air-to-air missiles, and significantly improved maintainability.

On June 11, a top IAF officer said precision weapons, such as the ones used by IAF against Pakistan during Operation Sindoor rendered geographical barriers almost meaningless and altered the relationship between distance and vulnerability.

"Today, precision-guided munitions like Scalp and BrahMos (missiles) have rendered geographical barriers almost meaningless as strikes with beyond visual range air-to-air missiles and supersonic air-to-ground missiles have become commonplace," said Air Marshal Ashutosh Dixit, chief of integrated defence staff.

Modern warfare — thanks to technology — has fundamentally altered the relationship between distance and vulnerability, he added. In March, a top government committee recommended a raft of short and long-term measures to boost the capabilities of IAF and pointed out that it was critical to enhance self-reliance in the aerospace sector through increased participation of the private sector to fill critical gaps.

Steps are being taken to boost private participation in the aerospace sector.

Last month, India unveiled its long-awaited plan to fast-track the development of an indigenous fifth-generation stealth fighter, or the advanced medium combat aircraft (AMCA), announcing that the execution model will be competitive and provide equal opportunities to public and private sector firms to participate in one of the country's most significant military projects.

The approval of the industry partnership model by defence minister Rajnath Singh came at a critical moment as HAL — the sole manufacturer of fighter jets in the country — was till then believed to be the frontrunner for the project.

While the model unlocks new possibilities for the local aerospace industry, including firms such as Tata Advanced Systems Limited, Larsen & Toubro, Adani Defence and Aerospace and the Mahindra Group. HAL continues to remain a strong contender for the project, as earlier reported by HT.

Have seen several crises, this one's most heartbreaking: AI chairman

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Mumbai: Air India chairman N Chandrasekaran on Monday called the June 12 crash of Air India flight 171 the most tragic he has seen.

"I have seen a reasonable number of crises in my career, but this (crash) is the most heartbreaking one, which I never thought I would see," Chandrasekaran said in his address to the airline's 700 staff at its headquarters in Gurugram.

He encouraged employees to stay strong amid criticism and emotional stress. "Those of us who are very passionate, emotional, and give our best to the job...it's not easy to handle criticism," he said. "I want you to be strong. If you feel distraught, remember the word 'determination'. This is the time to show resilience. We need to use this incident as a driving force to create a safer airline."

"It's not easy to handle criticism... This is the time to show resilience. We need to use this incident as a driving force to create a safer airline... Our goal is to rebuild trust, raise standards, and restore pride in Air India

Chandrasekaran emphasised the complexity of aviation systems and the need to wait for all facts before making judgements. "Airplanes are highly complex, with many layers of checks and balances, and certifications built over years. Yet, this happens," he said. "We will figure out why it happened after the investigation."

He also acknowledged the pain caused by the crash and offered solidarity to the staff who responded with courage and calmness. Over 140 employees, including 40 engineers, are in Ahmedabad-helping families affected by the tragedy. "Nothing I say or do will bring back the lost lives," Chandrasekaran admitted. "People will feel this pain for a long time. Still, we must do everything possible to support them."

In closing, he urged unity and focus. "A company is what its people do. Big things happen through small actions. Every well-done task helps us flourish stronger. That's why we stay committed to doing our jobs well," Chandrasekaran said. "Our goal is to rebuild trust, raise standards, and restore pride in Air India."

High-level probe panel holds its first meeting

A high-level multi-disciplinary committee, set up by the government to look into the Ahmedabad plane crash, on Monday deliberated on various possible theories that could have led to the country's worst air disaster in decades.

The panel, chaired by Union Home Secretary Govind Mohan, listened to the opinions of various stakeholders about the possible causes of the air crash and deliberated on steps to be taken to check future occurrence of any such accident, sources said. In the first meeting of the panel, the focus of the participants was to analyse the possible causes of the aircrash and how to go about in "formulating Standard Operating Procedures for preventing such occurrences in the future".

Since a separate investigation is also being carried out by the Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau, the panel discussed about the possible causes and lesson to be taken from it, the sources said. PTI

McKinsey likely to aid Air India overhaul

GEORGE MATHEW
MUMBAI, JUNE 16

A top Tata Sons official met a senior partner of McKinsey in Mumbai last week to discuss a revival strategy for the carrier, according to a source

THE TATA group is exploring the possibility of a major revamp of Air India. The group is reportedly in discussions with global consulting firm McKinsey & Company to lead a comprehensive overhaul of the airline, which is currently grappling with one of the most severe crises in its recent history.

A top Tata Sons official met a senior partner of McKinsey in Mumbai last week to discuss a revival strategy for the carrier, according to a source. The meeting took place just days after a London-bound Air India Boeing Dreamliner crashed shortly after takeoff from Ahmedabad, claiming the lives of 241 passengers and crew. Only one passenger survived the crash.

"While we do not comment on or publicly discuss details of any client work, it would be inaccurate to report that McKinsey is currently serving the Tata group on a transformation project for Air India," McKinsey & Company said in a statement to The Indian Express.

However, when contacted, a Tata group official did not comment on the issue.

This isn't McKinsey's first engagement with the consulting firm. Its relationship with Air India started almost eight years ago. In 2017, Air India selected McKinsey to help develop its long-term strategic business plan — especially on cash-flow, route networks, marketing strategies and updating its loyalty program.

Watson Farley & Williams (WFW) advised multiple parties on the historic merger of Tata SIA Airlines Ltd (Vistara) with Air India, creating a unified full-service airline under the Air India brand. This followed the merger of Air India group's low-cost airlines Air India Express and AIX Connect earlier.

The combined entity is now the largest international carrier with more than 90 destinations worldwide and the second largest domestic carrier. The Indian aviation market is the third largest in the world and is one of the fastest growing.

Founded in 1932, Air India is a pioneer of India's aviation sector and has developed an extensive global network, becoming a major international carrier. The consolidation of the four Tata-owned airlines into one group is part of Air India's ongoing, five-year transformation program, Vihaan.AI which is focussed on establishing Air India Group as a world-class aviation company.

Air India reported a lower loss of Rs 4,444.10 crore for FY24, a significant decrease of 60 per cent compared to the Rs 11,388 crore loss in FY23. The airline's turnover also increased by 23.69 per cent to Rs 38,812 crore during the same period.

The Dreamliner crash has cast a spotlight on the Tata group's efforts to turn around the airline, which it acquired from the Indian government in 2022 with the goal of restoring its performance and reputation. FULL REPORT ON www.indianexpress.com

Ramesh V Vaidyanathan & Suyash Sarvankar

Aircraft accidents, though rare, leave a devastating impact that extends far beyond the wreckage of lives. Compensation becomes not only a matter of monetary redress, but a crucial step toward accountability, closure and rebuilding lives.

In the aftermath of last week's AI 171 tragedy, Air India offered ₹1 cr as compensation per deceased person to his or her next of kin. While this announcement was prompt and appears generous, the airline could be on the hook for a much higher amount. Families may have significant claims, depending on how the investigation unfolds.

India has ratified the 'Montreal Convention' — Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules for International Carriage by Air — by incorporating it into the Carriage by Air Act 1972. This provides for a 2-tier compensation system defined in terms of special drawing rights (SDR), an international reserve asset created by IMF to supplement official reserves of its member countries. Accordingly:

- The airline must compensate the kin of the deceased passengers up to SDR 128,821 (₹1.6 cr), regardless of any fault or wrongdoing by the airline. This compensation is the absolute minimum, without exception. Some media reports have indicated that the ₹1 cr offered by AI is separate, and in addition to the SDR amount required under the convention.
- Kin of the deceased may seek compensation over and above this SDR amount, based on actual loss. This would be calculated on lost income, and companionship of victims who sustained their families and dependents. AI could avoid higher compensation only if it proves there was no negligence, wrongful act or omission by the airline (including its servants or agents, which include various third parties engaged by the airline to service the aircraft or assist with the flight).

Alternatively, the airline could defend itself if the accident occurred solely due to wrongful acts, or omissions of a third party, such as in the case of terrorism. The legal burden is on the airline to prove that the mishap did not occur due to its conduct, or that it occurred due to the conduct of a third party.

Piecing things together

In such cases, families of Indian victims could also approach consumer fora under the Consumer Protection Act 2019. The consumer protection law is in addition to remedies available under the Montreal Convention as read with the Carriage by Air Act.

For families of foreign passengers, legal options extend beyond India. Since the convention applies almost globally, they could file lawsuits in their home countries, where compensation standards may be higher.

Air India has also offered ₹1 cr to the families of the deceased medical college students and staff, and people on the ground. Securing higher compensation is more challenging for families of victims on the ground. Both Carriage by Air Act and Consumer Protection Act are meant for passengers on the ill-fated aircraft. The next of kin of ground fatalities would have to approach a civil court in India seeking compensation under Fatal Accidents Act 1855, which provides compensation to the family of a person who dies in the case of wrongful accidents.

Another option is a tort law claim, where damages for negligence could be sought. In both these options, Air India would be liable if it's at fault — that is, if the accident was a result of its act, omission or oversight. The total compensation payout to victims could well exceed ₹1,000 cr. Beyond victim compensation, Air India also faces significant costs for property damage, aircraft loss, emergency response and disrupted flights.

Globally, the compensation payout in cases of similar incidents has touched ₹4,500 cr ($500 mn). Air India likely maintains adequate insurance coverage that would cover these costs, or at least a substantial part. But if claims exceed coverage, the financial hit could be severe.

New Delhi | Mumbai: Tata Sons chairman N Chandrasekaran met Air India's leadership team for a complete safety review of the airline at its headquarters in Gurgaon. Chandrasekaran, who is also chairman of the airline, said the crash was the most heart-breaking crisis of his career and that it was an opportunity to build a safer airline.

A Boeing 787 plane crashed last week seconds after taking off, killing 241 passengers and 33 on the ground in Ahmedabad.

"Aviation is a very complex business, it's a complex machine, so there are a lot of redundancies, checks and balances, certifications, which have been perfected over years and years. Yet this happened, so we will figure out why it happened after the investigation is complete," said Chandrasekaran, according to a recording of the speech he gave at the airline's headquarters.

People in the know said he visited the Emergency Command Centre, the Integrated Operations Control Centre and the Customer Service and Support of Air India.

In the speech he said that while nothing can undo the tragedy, Air India must extend unwavering support to affected families, whom he described as part of the airline's family forever.

"Criticism is there, but it's not easy to face it. Especially for those of us who are very passionate, emotional, and who are working on making Air India a great airline, and who genuinely care about what kind of a company we want to build. We are getting more determined," he said.

The top leadership of Boeing led by Stephanie Pope also met the senior leadership of Air India. "Our technical team has joined the US delegation led by National Transport Safety Board (NTSB)- that is assisting Indian authorities with their investigation," Pope, president and CEO of Boeing Commercial Airplanes, said.

However, experts closely following Air India's turnaround under the ownership of Tatas, said that it will be a Herculean task and that the airline would need a complete overhaul of its structure. After taking over Air India in 2022, the Tatas embarked on ambitious turnaround plan, ordering a record 470 aircraft and investing crores to upgrade existing planes. The airline intends to compete against global majors, CEO Campbell Wilson had told ET in an interview, a few days before the crash.

"A lot needs to be done. They need to go back to the drawing board and see if the fast pace of expansion was stretching the safety, and also improve the culture," a consultant who worked with Air India said.

This is time to be brave: Chandra to A-I staffers

DEV CHATTERJEE
Mumbai, 16 June

N Chandrasekaran (pictured), chairman of Air India (A-I) and Tata Sons, on Monday offered a message of solidarity and resolve in the wake of last week's fatal crash in Ahmedabad while addressing 700-odd employees at the airline's headquarters in Gurugram.

"I felt I had to be here and meet as many of you as possible," Chandrasekaran told the assembled staff, many of whom were part of the emergency response teams activated following the tragedy. Chandra also visited the Emergency Command Centre, the Integrated Operations Control Centre, and the Customer Service and Support to show his support for A-I.

Recalling his visit to the crash site near Ahmedabad airport, Chandra said: "It was not easy at all. I've seen a fair share of crises in my career, but nothing as heartbreaking as this. I never imagined I would face something like this."

He also acknowledged that no words or actions could bring back the 241 lives lost in the crash, but stressed the company's commitment to standing by the families affected. "We consider everyone who lost someone in this tragedy as part of our family — now and forever," he added.

Addressing the emotional toll on employees, the chairman said: "Criticism is inevitable, especially for those who care deeply and work tirelessly to build a great airline. But I want you to be strong. When you feel distraught, remember one word: determination."

"We are going to get through this. We need to show resilience. We need to use this incident as an act of force to build a safer airline," Chandra said and urged employees to use the tragedy as a catalyst to build a stronger company.

Chandrasekaran emphasised the complexity of aviation operations, saying: "It's a business with multiple redundancies, checks, certifications — systems that have evolved over decades. Yet incidents like this happen. We have to wait for the investigation to understand why."

He concluded with a call for calm and collective strength: "This is the time to be brave. To be resolute. Our job is to get A-I to where it truly belongs — the place this country and every passenger who puts their trust in us deserves."

570 नए विमानों का ऑर्डर दिया था

2025 तक एअर इंडिया में सुधार का लक्ष्य तय किया था टाटा ने

एक्सप्लेनर्स ट्रैवेली

पिछले सप्ताह अहमदाबाद की विमान दुर्घटना एयर इंडिया के इतिहास में नाजुक मोड़ पर हुई है। 2022 में सरकार ने करीब 70 साल तक सरकारी नियंत्रण में रही एयरलाइन का निजीकरण कर दिया। टाटा ग्रुप ने उसे खरीद लिया था। एअर इंडिया की प्रतिष्ठा में लगातार गिरावट हो रही थी। उड़ानों में देर, टूटी सीटों और खराब सर्विस जैसी शिकायतें आम थीं। टाटा ग्रुप ने मैनेजमेंट में सुधार के लिए सिंगापुर में एक लो कॉस्ट एयरलाइन शुरू करने वाले कैम्पबेल विलसन की सेवाएं लीं। 570 नए एयरक्राफ्ट का ऑर्डर दिया। बोइंग और एयरबस से प्लेन लिए गए। पैसा भी खूब लगाया।

एअर इंडिया का निजीकरण परिवारिक पुनर्मिलन जैसा था। 1932 में जेआरडी टाटा ने एअर इंडिया की शुरुआत की थी। 1953 में सरकार ने कंपनी का राष्ट्रीयकरण कर दिया। इससे पहले कई देश मुनाफे के लिए नेशनल एयरलाइन कंपनियों को प्राइवेट कंपनियों में बदल चुके थे।

New Delhi | Mumbai: Tata Sons chairman N Chandrasekaran met the company's leadership team for a complete safety review of the airline at its headquarters in Gurugram. Chandrasekaran, who is also the chairman of the airline, said the fatal crash is the most heart-breaking crisis in his career and this accident should be used to build a safer airline.

A Boeing 787 aircraft crashed last week seconds after taking off, killing 241 passengers and 33 on the ground in Ahmedabad.

"Aviation is a very complex business, it's a complex machine, so there are a lot of redundancies, checks and balances, certifications, which have been perfected over years and years. In the speech he said that while nothing can undo the tragedy, Air India must extend unwavering support to affected families, whom he described as part of the airline's family forever.

"Criticism is there, but it's not easy to face it. After taking over Air India in 2022, the Tatas embarked on an ambitious turnaround plan, ordering a record 470 aircraft and investing crores to upgrade existing planes.

The airline intends to compete against global majors like Singapore Airlines, Emirates and Lufthansa, CEO Campbell Wilson had told ET in an interview, a few days before the crash.

"A lot needs to be done. They need to go back to the drawing board and see if the fast pace of expansion was stretching the safety, and also improve the culture," a consultant who worked with Air India said.

A travel agent said it will take a massive effort to win the trust of customers outside India. "International routes are their bread and butter, and we are seeing bookings being cancelled after the crash," he said.

The Air India crash is the worst civil aviation disaster by number of fatalities since 2014, when Russia-backed forces in Ukraine shot down a Malaysia Airlines flight from Amsterdam to Kuala Lumpur, killing all 298 people on board, according to Aviation Safety Network.

AHMEDABAD: A team from Boeing and the officials of the Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB), on Monday, arrived in Ahmedabad to inspect the site of the Air India plane crash.

An investigation is underway to find the reasons that led to the tragic incident on June 12.

The London-bound Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner aircraft crashed into a hostel complex shortly after takeoff from Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport on June 12, killing 241 passengers and crew, including former Gujarat chief minister Vijay Rupani.

Earlier on Monday, an expert from the UK who reached the crash site in Ahmedabad to conduct an inspection, said: "Maybe we will be able to speak later...We saw what you guys can see...It's just the same, as you can see from here."

Meanwhile, the additional medical superintendent of Ahmedabad's Civil Hospital said on Monday that the DNA sample matches in the Air India plane crash reached 92, (at the time of going to print) corresponding to 87 individuals, due to some duplication.

Speaking to the media, Dr Rajnish Patel said that 47 bodies have been dispatched to various districts so far.

"Of the bodies brought to Civil Hospital, DNA matching of 92 (body remains) is completed, of this (the number of) individuals is 87 because there is duplication. 47 bodies have been dispatched from here...Bodies have been dispatched to Kheda, Ahmedabad, Kota, Mahesana, Bharuch, Vadodara, Aravalli, Anand, Junagarh, Bhavnagar, Amreli, Mahisagar and Bhavnagar," Dr Patel said.

Meanwhile, former Gujarat Chief Minister Vijay Rupani, who lost his life in the crash, will be cremated in Rajkot later today with full state honours.

The Tricolour is being brought to the Civil Hospital mortuary in Ahmedabad to be draped over his mortal remains. Around 2,000kg of flowers will be used to decorate the hearse van that will carry the body of the former Chief Minister.

The crash claimed 241 lives out of the 242 people onboard, which included 230 passengers and 12 crew members. The lone survivor, Vishwashkumar Ramesh, a British national of Indian origin, is currently undergoing treatment for his injuries.

At least 33 people, including residents on the ground and MBBS students, also lost their lives as the plane rammed into the doctor's hostel after the crash.

Delhi-bound Dreamliner returns to Hong Kong after technical snag

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Mumbai, 16 June

A Delhi-bound Air India Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner from Hong Kong returned to its airport of origin on Monday within an hour of takeoff after the pilot in command suspected a technical issue.

The flight, AI 315, landed safely in Hong Kong and all passengers have disembarked from the plane, the airline said in a statement, adding that the aircraft was undergoing inspection.

The flight departed from Hong Kong at 12:16 pm (local time) and was scheduled to land in Delhi at 12:20 pm IST.

The flight had departed after a delay of almost 3.5 hours from its scheduled departure was at 8:50 am. "AI315 operating from Hong Kong to Delhi on 16 June 2025 returned to Hong Kong shortly after takeoff due to a technical issue.

The flight landed safely at Hong Kong and is undergoing checks as a matter of abundant precaution. Alternative arrangements have been planned to fly the passengers to their destination Delhi at the earliest," Air India said.

"We are providing all necessary on-ground assistance to the passengers to minimise the inconvenience caused by this unforeseen disruption," it said.

The spokesperson of Airport Authority Hong Kong said: "A passenger flight, AI315, operated by Air India from Hong Kong to New Delhi made a return to Hong Kong International Airport and requested local standby around 1pm today (Monday). The flight landed safely around 1:15 pm. The airport operations were not affected."

AFTERMATH OF AIR INDIA 171 BOEING DREAMLINER 787-8 CRASH IN AHMEDABAD

DNA experts help bring closure to the families

Specialists working non-stop to establish identities of victims

22 women scientists and technicians, many juggling personal challenges of their own, are part of the team

Saurabh Vaktania

A group of 54 DNA specialists, including 22 women, is working relentlessly in labs to help bring closure to the families of those killed in the devastating Air India AI-171 crash.

Over 100 hours now, Gujarat's Forensic Science Laboratory (FSL) has established the identity of many victims through DNA profiling — a feat of both science and human will.

FSL experts from Gandhinagar, Ahmedabad, Vadodara, Surat and Rajkot were called to action immediately following the June 12 crash. With the remains of victims arriving at Ahmedabad Civil Hospital, the situation was grim. Many bodies were unrecognisable, making DNA testing the only reliable method for identification.

FSL Director HP Sanghvi said, "This is not just another forensic case. It is about the hopes and heartbreak of countless families. That's why all five city teams [five zones] were urgently summoned to Gandhinagar within hours of the crash."

Samples from the wreckage were transported to the FSL-Gandhinagar lab, while DNA from relatives was collected directly at the Civil Hospital. The complex cross-matching was carried out by 54 specialists working day and night — among them, 22 women scientists, technicians and assistants, many juggling personal challenges of their own.

One of the female DNA experts, despite her mother needing emergency heart surgery with just 20% cardiac function, chose to stay at the lab. Others, mothers themselves, left behind young children under the age of three at home to remain at work for four consecutive days.

Officials have not yet disclosed identities of DNA experts team.

One of the experts, despite her mother needing emergency heart surgery, chose to stay at the lab

"There is no sleep, no rest, no home," said a senior official. "These women scientists stay focused on a mission far bigger than themselves — to give grieving families the chance to identify their loved ones and perform the last rites. The are working extra hours and refused to go home until work is over, ie the last DNA matching is done. Their only hope is relatives perform last rites."

"Till the work is not over they will stay here. They hardly got time to speak to their families, including small kids," the official said.

As of June 16, FSL's painstaking work has yielded 119 confirmed DNA matches, out of which 76 mortal remains have been returned to the families.

The identification process, once expected to take 5 to 10 days, has been shortened to less than 72 hours, thanks to Gujarat's modernised DNA testing infrastructure and the dedication of FSL staff. Samples from even the most degraded remains were successfully processed, reflecting the advancement in forensic technology and the extraordinary focus of the team.

The testing involved high-pressure tasks: extracting viable genetic material from heavily damaged remains, coordinating with hospital staff, and verifying matches against relatives' samples — all while ensuring absolute accuracy.

Gujarat's Minister of State for Home, Harsh Sanghavi, visited the FSL lab to review the progress and personally praised the team's selfless efforts, particularly the unwavering commitment of the women scientists. "They've shown what it means to serve beyond duty," he said.

"Every test was more than just data," said one young female technician. "It was a name, a story, someone's son, someone's mother. And we had a duty to speak for them — through science. Families could not say final goodbye but at least respectfully final rites can be done and they can be at peace."

The identification process, once expected to take 5 to 10 days, has been shortened to less than 72 hours, thanks to Gujarat's modernised DNA testing infrastructure and the dedication of FSL staff. Samples from even the most degraded remains were successfully processed, reflecting the advancement in forensic technology and the extraordinary focus of the team.

The testing involved high-pressure tasks: extracting viable genetic material from heavily damaged remains, coordinating with hospital staff, and verifying matches against relatives' samples — all while ensuring absolute accuracy.

Gujarat's Minister of State for Home, Harsh Sanghavi, visited the FSL lab to review the progress and personally praised the team's selfless efforts, particularly the unwavering commitment of the women scientists. "They've shown what it means to serve beyond duty," he said.

"Every test was more than just data," said one young female technician. "It was a name, a story, someone's son, someone's mother. And we had a duty to speak for them — through science. Families could not say final goodbye but at least respectfully final rites can be done and they can be at peace."

DNA tests identify 125 victims, 83 bodies handed over to kin: Gujarat minister

AHMEDABAD, JUNE 16

FOUR DAYS after the horrific crash of an Air India plane that claimed the lives of 241 passengers and killed multiple people on the ground, 125 victims have so far been identified through DNA matching and 83 bodies were handed over to their families, according to a post by Gujarat Health Minister Rushikesh Patel on X Monday late evening.

An official expressed hope that the DNA profiling all the victims will be completed by either Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning.

Former Gujarat chief minister Vijay Rupani was among the 242 passengers and crew members on board the London-bound Air India flight AI-171 that crashed in Ahmedabad on June 12. His mortal remains were handed over to his wife Anjali Rupani and other family members at the city civil hospital.

Authorities are carrying out DNA tests to establish the identity of the victims as many bodies were charred beyond recognition.

Speaking to the media, Medical Superintendent of Ahmedabad Civil Hospital Dr Rakesh Joshi expressed hope that the DNA profiling of all the victims will be completed by either Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning.

He urged the grief-stricken kin of the victims to not panic over the time-consuming process of matching DNA samples with mortal remains.

"We are trying our best to finish this process as soon as possible. Some are complaining that the results have not come even after 72 hours. I appeal to them not to panic because this is a very important process with legal implications. We will call them as soon as results arrive," Joshi said.

Earlier, Dr Rajnish Patel, Professor of Surgery at BJ Medical College, told mediapersons on Monday that 13 families were present at the hospital to collect the remains.

"Twelve families have opted to collect the bodies together after DNA confirmation for all their deceased members. Discussions have been completed with 11 other families, who are on their way to collect the remains," he said.

Ahmedabad Civil Hospital authorities had said on Sunday that samples of 250 victims, including persons on board the ill-fated flight as well as those killed on the ground, had been collected for identification.

The Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner with 242 persons on board crashed into a medical college complex in Ahmedabad moments after taking off from the Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport at 1.39 pm on June 12.

While 241 persons on board the London-bound aircraft died, one passenger miraculously survived.

The crash also killed multiple people on the ground, including five MBBS students.

{ INTERVIEW } DR MINAKSHI PAREKH, DEAN OF THE BJ MEDICAL COLLEGE

'Every agency stepped in to support students'

Prawesh Lama

AHMEDABAD: Dr Minakshi Parekh, dean of the BJ Medical College in Ahmedabad that lost at least four students in the Air India flight 171 crash, shares details of the ground situation, ongoing relief efforts, and the emotional toll on students and families in an interview to Prawesh Lama.

The Boeing 787 Dreamliner hit the medical college's hostel buildings and dining halls on June 12, leaving four hostel buildings' facade charred, and the two mess buildings partially collapsed. Edited excerpts:

What is the current situation at the college?

Every agency has stepped in to support the affected students. Rooms have been arranged for all students, while food is now being provided at the postgraduate mess since the undergraduate mess was destroyed. Resident doctors have been moved to vacant flats and temporary accommodations, including those provided by the Lions Club.

NGOs and private hospitals, too, have come forward offering free treatment to injured students

. Every student and resident doctor has been accommodated, and our medical students are actively helping families—providing counselling and assisting with blood sample collection.

There were reports of a scarcity of rooms at the hospital. How is that being handled?

There is no scarcity of rooms. In fact, government officials and foreign embassy representatives visiting the crash site are also staying in our rooms.The Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB) officers are also working from the hospital complex since it is located close to the crash site.

One of our rooms has been converted into a main office for AAIB, equipped with everything they need. A second office has also been set up at the hostel. We've repurposed spaces originally meant for other functions to ensure the investigators can work efficiently.

How are you dealing with student deaths, injuries, and grieving families?

More than us, it is the most challenging time for the families. However, one case that has stayed with me is from the first day — when a man insisted on seeing the bodies of his three family members in the postmortem room.

He was inconsolable. Despite our best efforts to comfort him, protocol didn't allow us to let him in. It took time, but around 12.30 am, he finally agreed to wait outside.

Have grief counsellors been engaged at the hospital?

We've deployed trained counsellors at three key points — the blood sample collection centre, the control room in the superintendent's office (where families are informed once DNA results are confirmed), and the postmortem room where bodies are handed over.

Our MD psychiatrists are conducting live sessions with families even now (she points towards a live CCTV feed showing ongoing counselling sessions at the hospital).

Can you explain the DNA collection and reporting process?

We're collecting DNA samples from all relatives on-site. Testing is being done by the Forensic Science Laboratory (FSL), which is part of the National Forensic Science University. The FSL team is working around the clock. Once analysis is complete, reports are sent to the superintendent's office at Civil Hospital. Families are then contacted with the results.

Fauna Near Crash Site, Cared for by College Doctors & Staff, Falls Silent

Forum Gandhi & DP Bhattacharya

Ahmedabad: The crash site at BJ Medical College, surrounded by lush greens on three sides, was not only home to junior resident doctors but also to a vibrant ecosystem of at least 30 peacocks, 20 dogs, and several species of birds and cows.

In the days since the crash, this once-lively campus has fallen eerily silent. According to sources, the remains of at least four peacocks, five dogs, and more than 50 birds have been found in the past five days.

A watchman posted at the college told ET that the days leading up to the monsoon were blissful. The cries of peacocks would echo across the campus, and the green expanse bustled with life. "Now, you can only hear a couple of them," he said.

Resident doctors and the mess staff who regularly fed the stray dogs either perished in the crash or have abandoned the college premises since the tragedy. The surviving animals now wander the site, unfed and thirsty.

On Sunday afternoon, reporters standing outside the barricaded area of the crash site heard a dog howling for more than 15 minutes.

"Our NGO, along with other NGOs, got multiple calls. Over the past five days, we've recovered several remains from the site. It has been difficult," said the founder of a local NGO sharing the ground reality. "We have to carefully move through the debris to pick up what's left. Sometimes, it's hard to tell if it is animal remains or something else.

"It's not easy, but we have to do it," he said, adding that volunteers had cremated over 50 birds and five dogs charred at the site.

The task has been particularly sensitive as body parts of some of the crash victims are still being recovered from the area.

The Centre for Nurture and Care of Dogs (CNCD) has been deployed to keep carnivorous animals away from the site to prevent further contamination and to manage the risk of animals scavenging on human remains.

Sources confirmed that several dogs were killed when the London-bound Air India flight crashed into the medical college hostel last Thursday, adding that at least one peacock also perished in the crash.

"We have handed over the body of the peacock to the forest department, as it is a Schedule One protected bird," said Naresh Rajput, who serve as head of the cattle nuisance control department (CNCD) of the Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation and is also involved in the rescue and clearance operations. Even as the crash site remains under close watch, the loss of both human and animal life continues to haunt those working on the ground.

'HER MOTHER'S WISH WAS TO GET COFFIN HOME BEFORE RITES'

The mortal remains of Shraddha Dhavan, 44, one of those killed in the Air India 171 Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner crash last week, reached her residence in Mulund late on Monday night.

Dhavan was one of the 12 cabin crew members on the flight that crashed immediately after taking off from the Ahmedabad airport on Thursday. She is survived by her parents and daughter.

The Ahmedabad Civil Hospital had, earlier in the day, handed over her body to her family after the DNA sampling matched. The body was flown to Mumbai and brought to her residence late on Monday night.

"Her mother's last wish was to get the coffin at her home, so the coffin was taken to the 6th floor via the stairs," said a neighbour speaking on condition of anonymity. "The family bid a final farewell and then the coffin was brought back to the ground floor for the last rites. The family is devastated."

AIR INDIA PLANE CRASH IN AHMEDABAD

Mortal Remains of 76 Victims Handed over to Families after DNA Matching

Gujarat CM Bhupendra Patel visits Civil Hospital, holds meet to review entire relief and rescue operation

DP Bhattacharya & Forum Gandhi

Ahmedabad: The mortal remains of 76 victims of the AI-171 plane crash have been handed over to their relatives after matching their DNA samples and ascertaining their identity. Around119 samples have been matched so far even as human body parts are still being recovered from the crash site and being brought to the hospital.

Meanwhile, remains of human body parts are still being retrieved from the site. On Monday, 15 such remains were retrieved from the crash site.

On Monday, June 16, 2025, Air India resumed its Ahmedabad-London flight services with Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner flight A159 departing at 4.30 pm from Ahmedabad airport, three days after the mishap. After the crash of flight AI 171, the airline had decided to change the flight number to AI159. The aircraft was scheduled for additional checks, as per a Ministry of Civil Aviation order. The Gujarat health department has deployed an additional 855 staff, apart from the regular Civil Hospital staff, to ease and expedite the process. The district administration has appointed more than 250 nodal officers to ensure the process of handing over the mortal remains and for coordination with the families. Supervisory officers have also been designated to ensure that all proceedings are conducted properly. The state government has also put in place an elaborate system to ensure assistance pertaining to any paper work for the relatives of the victims. They have also reached out to the relatives of the deceased to provide the required documents — including inheritance certificates — based on witness testimonies and verification by local committees, to ensure smooth processing with insurance companies and any government or semi-government offices.

Keeping in mind the rainy weather, a large dome with basic facilities like drinking water, fans, and coolers, mobile toilets outside the new post-mortem complex has been set up for the family members of the crash victims. Charitable organisations have been roped in to arrange for tea, snacks, water and meals for the families waiting inside the dome.

Chief minister Bhupendra Patel visited the Ahmedabad Civil Hospital on Monday and took stock of the situation. He held a meeting with the ministers and senior state officials to review the entire relief and rescue operation.

To collate final toll, police turn to all missing cases filed in city on June 12

MOHAMED THAVER
AHMEDABAD, JUNE 16

POLICE HAVE collated all the missing persons complaints registered at stations across Ahmedabad on June 12 as they attempt to put together a final tally of people on the ground who died in the Air India crash.

While the death toll of people on the plane is known to be 241, nine DNA samples have been collected so far from the crash site and around it.

Police, however, believe there may have been more people around the BJ Medical College hostel in Meghaninagar — like those at a nearby tea stall — who may have been killed.

A senior police officer told The Indian Express that CCTV cameras that could potentially have helped them locate such people were destroyed in the crash. "While students at the hostel have been accounted for, we fear some who were passing by the hostel, or having tea at a tea stall nearby may have been a victim of the crash," the officer said, requesting anonymity.

Looking for leads, police turned to missing persons cases.

"If anyone who went missing on June 12 has not reached home, we will probe the complaint closely to rule out unrelated cases. In this manner we are hoping to zero in on missing cases linked to the crash following which we may take DNA samples from family members to match with those found from the site," the officer said

On why the scope has been widened to the entire city and not nearby police stations such as Meghaninagar and Naroda, the officer said that they may have come to the area without the knowledge of family members. "We want to rule out all possibilities," the officer said.

Among those missing are Sarlaben Thakor, a cook at the hostel mess, her granddaughter Adyaravi, music video director Mahesh Kalawadia and IT student Arshdeep Banga.

Missing persons complaints of Thakor, Adyaravi and Banga were registered with the Meghaninagar police station; Kalawadia's was registered with the Naroda police station.

DNA samples of the family members of the missing persons have been sent for checking with the DNA samples extracted from the remains found at the hostel.

Sarlaben's son, Ravi Thakor, has been trying to locate his mother and daughter. Along with his mother, he and his wife cooked meals at the mess.

Kalawadia's younger brother Kartik and his wife Hetal have been doing the rounds of hospitals but have so far not been able to trace him. Mahesh spoke to his wife at around 1.10 pm on June 12 and headed to his residence on his scooter. At around 1.40 pm, however, his phone switched off around the crash area. Even his two-wheeler has not been found.

Banga was passing by the mess on his bike around the time of the crash.

PARAMEDIC RECALLS GUIDING LONE SURVIVOR OF AIR INDIA CRASH TO AMBULANCE

'We saw man coming out of gate... didn't know he was a passenger'

BRENDAN DABHI
AHMEDABAD, JUNE 16

LIKE THE students in the BJ Medical College hostel, Satinder Singh Sandhu was having lunch with fellow paramedics at the local GVK-EMRI ambulance office inside the 1,200-bed hospital at Medicity in Ahmedabad on June 12 when he heard a massive explosion.

Running outside, he saw a man coming out of the hostel building's gate as a massive fire raged behind him. This man was 39-year-old Viswashkumar Ramesh, the lone survivor of the London-bound Air India flight that crashed into the hostel building soon after taking off from the Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport in Ahmedabad.

Sandhu took Ramesh's hand and guided him away from the site. A video of this has since been widely shared.

"I asked my team to deploy ambulances immediately while I rushed to the spot. When I got there, I realised this was a major incident. I called my head office and asked them to inform the police and send more ambulances. Meanwhile, five ambulances under my command reached the site," Sandhu said.

The 44-year-old has been

with the GVK-EMRI emergency ambulance service for a decade, and is a supervisor who controls 20 of the 120 ambulances in the city.

"I first saw the watchman of the hostel injured on the road. We picked him up and dispatched him in one of the ambulances. Then, we saw one man coming out of the gate next to the burning hostel building. I approached him, but he suddenly turned around and began walking back to the crash site," Sandhu told The Indian Express, referring to Ramesh.

Sandhu said Ramesh initially resisted attempts to take him away from the site, repeatedly saying that his family member was burning in the fire.

"We thought it must be a family member inside the hostel building. We didn't know at that time that he was a passenger who had come out of the burning aircraft," said Sandhu, adding, "We finally managed to calm him down a little, seat him in one of the ambulances and send him to the hospital. He had injuries on his face, hands and legs. He had burn marks across his body, but he was able to walk with a slight limp."

It was en route to the hospital that Ramesh told paramedics he had been on the aircraft that had just crashed. He said he and his brother were going home to the UK and that he had been seated next to the emergency exit, in seat 11A. However, he did not know how he managed to exit the crashed aircraft.

Sandhu said Ramesh was in a state of shock and confusion after his ordeal. His mind was still fixed on a singular point — saving his younger brother, Ajay, from the burning plane.

Ajay was among the 241 people on board flight AI-171, and several others on the ground, to die in the crash. The Boeing 787 Dreamliner was carrying a total of 242 people.

Ramesh and his brother, who were originally from the Union Territory of Diu, were British nationals settled with their families in Leicester, England.

Sandhu said he and his fleet of ambulances were on the site of the crash by 1.41 pm, just three minutes after the crash that took place at 1.38 pm.

A firefighting team also arrived soon after and started the task of dousing the flames. It was when the heavy soot-laden smoke cleared that paramedics saw charred bodies of men, women and children strewn on the ground. There were also bodies inside the medical college hostel compound.

Sandhu was among the first to rush into the building to try and save anyone stuck in the rubble or stranded by the fire. He said he had no count of how many people his team managed to rescue from the hostel premises and the road in front of it, but estimated that it must have been at least 20-25.

Originally from Thaluh village in Punjab's Rupnagar district, Sandhu has lived in Gujarat since 1992.

AI-171 crash: DNA tests identify 119 victims, including ex-Gujarat CM

Authorities hope to complete process by Tuesday or Wednesday, says official

Four days after the horrific crash of an Air India plane claimed 270 lives, 119 victims have so far been identified through DNA matching and 76 bodies, including that of former Gujarat chief minister Vijay Rupani, were handed over to their families, officials said on Monday. An official expressed hope that the DNA profiling all the victims will be completed by either Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning. Rupani was among the 242 passengers and crew members on board the London-bound Air India flight AI-171 that crashed in Ahmedabad on June 12. His mortal remains were handed over to his wife Anjali Rupani and other family members at the city civil hospital.

Authorities are carrying out DNA tests to establish the identity of the victims as many bodies were charred beyond recognition or damaged.

"Till Monday evening, 119 DNA samples have been matched, and 76 bodies have already been handed over to the respective families. These deceased were from different parts of Gujarat and Rajasthan," Medical Superintendent of Ahmedabad Civil Hospital Dr Rakesh Joshi told reporters. He expressed hope that the DNA profiling all the victims will be completed by either Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning. He urged the grief-stricken kin of the victims to not panic over the time-consuming process of matching DNA samples with mortal remains. "We are trying our best to finish this process as soon as possible. Some are complaining that the results have not come even after 72 hours. I appeal to them not to panic because this is a very important process with legal implications. We will call them as soon as results arrive," Joshi asserted.

Concerns over Scavenging: Strays Being Relocated

Forum Gandhi
& DP Bhattacharya

Ahmedabad: The city police have taken help from animal rescue teams to capture and relocate stray dogs from the Air India AI 171 crash site. This follows concerns that the dogs scavenged human remains, hindering recovery and identification and compromising investigation integrity. The May 12 crash killed all but one of the 242 people on board the London-bound Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner and at least 38 on the ground.

The dogs around the crash site are in a bad condition and they are scavenging for food, said a senior police official. "The search operation is still on, and there are several human remains still being found every day. We have noticed that the dogs on site are eating the human remains and entering the crash site," he said. "We have to rehabilitate them for their protection as well as to maintain the sanctity of the investigation."

Some of the dogs also appeared distressed, prompting authorities to act swiftly. Officials said the priority is to ensure that the animals receive proper care while also preventing any contamination of the crash site.

CHALLENGING WORK

Scavenging animals complicate victim identification and debris clearing

RESCUERS DEPLOYED SINCE FRIDAY

Naresh Rajput, head of the Cattle Nuisance Control Department of the Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation, said his department is involved. "We have so far rescued four dogs from the crash site and brought them to our shelter at Danilimda so that they don't disturb the site," Rajput told ET. Personnel from his department have been working at the site from Friday.

Meanwhile, search teams continue to pull out human remains from the debris of the BJ Medical College hostel building destroyed in the crash and the surrounding areas. They recovered a body on Sunday, three days after the crash.

On Monday, at least 15 human remains were found at the site. These discoveries highlight the challenges for search teams in ensuring complete and respectful recovery of the human remains.

Scavenging animals complicate victim identification and debris clearing. Authorities manage the cordoned-off site to facilitate recovery and maintain public health and investigative protocols.

99 SAMPLES MATCHED

As of Monday, DNA samples of 99 victims have been matched, and 64 bodies, including that of former Gujarat CM Vijay Rupani, have been handed over to their families. The process of identifying remains is painstaking, often taking up to 72 hours for DNA matching, due to their condition.

Counsellors help AI crash victims

letters@hindustantimes.com

AHMEDABAD: When the London Gatwick-bound Air India flight 171 crashed into the hostel buildings of Ahmedabad's BJ Medical College in the afternoon of June 12, Dr Urveki Parekh was at her house in the nearby residential quarters that the Boeing 787 Dreamliner narrowly missed.

By 7pm, Parekh, an assistant professor at the same college with a Doctor of Medicine (MD) in Psychiatry, was counselling relatives of passengers on board the flight at the medical college.

The 32-year-old is now among the group of grief counsellors roped in by the state health department for counselling families affected by the crash.

The Gujarat government, on Saturday, announced that grief counsellors have been assigned to families to help them deal with the mental trauma. The move comes two days after AI-171 crashed seconds after taking off from the Sardar Vallabhbhai International Airport in Ahmedabad on June 12, killing 241 out of 242 people on board, marking India's worst single-aircraft tragedy.

More than 72 hours after the crash, even as officials of the Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB) are conducting a probe into the crash; forensic expert are working to match over 200 DNA samples from the bodies of the deceased; and crematoriums are being readied for mass funeral, the grief counsellors are at work in different locations within the BJ Medical College complex.

Parekh spoke to HT about the counselling sessions that more than 1,000 relatives affected by the tragedy are taking while they wait for the authorities to identify the charred bodies, allowing them to conduct the final rites. Until Sunday evening, authorities identified 86 bodies.

"There are five stages of grief: denial, anger, bargain, depression and acceptance. The accident has roiled the lives of so many people. In this case, there are videos circulated everywhere. This makes it even more difficult for the families," Parekh, who was among the first responders at the crash site on the day of the tragedy, said.

In the aftermath of the crash, relatives of the deceased were unable to accept what had happened for the first two days, Parekh shared.

"They wanted to see the bodies for themselves. They had hope that their relatives might have survived. That hope and anger must be managed professionally," she said, adding that over a dozen psychiatrists have been roped in for counselling.

Parekh said that grief counsellors like her are stationed at three locations: The first is where relatives provide blood samples for DNA matching with the remains found from the crash site; the second is the hospital superintendent's office where relatives are informed after a DNA match is confirmed; and the third is the mortuary, where authorities hand over the body.

The doctor underscored the need for counselling during the various stages of recovering the victims' bodies.

"We have seen that the families are tired and want the bodies at the earliest. Professional counselling is needed when families are told that the DNA samples matched and they have to come and receive the confirmation papers. It is also needed before the body is finally handed to them. During the time when authorities are preparing the body for handing it over, the grief counsellors are counselling the families," she added.

While recounting her experiences, Parekh said she faced her most challenging counselling session on Sunday morning. "How do you break the news to a 7-year-old that his DNA has matched with his father and that his father is no more?" she said. "I am also worried about those who have now developed a fear of flying because of what they have seen."

Ahmedabad: Until they cross-checked the visuals and the flight manifest, emergency responders of the 108 Ambulance service could not believe that they had indeed rescued the sole survivor from the Air India plane that crashed in Ahmedabad Thursday.

Satinder Singh Sandhu, a 108 emergency management executive, said when they found Vishwas Kumar, the British national who survived the crash, was in confused state and wanted to walk back to the plane that was still in flames, saying he had family members travelling on the same flight. "I put him in an ambulance and sent him to hospital without knowing that he was the sole survivor of the crash," he told ET.

Sandhu said he was having lunch at his office at the 1,200-bed new complex of the Civil hospital, which is about 200 meters away from the crash site, on Thursday when he heard a loud sound. He immediately mobilised five ambulances available there and rushed to the spot. "Initially I thought it was a big accident," he said. "But the fire and the smoke there told us that it was something much bigger, and probably an air crash." Sandhu called his superior Jitendra Shahi, who rushed 25 more ambulances to the spot. "Meanwhile, we saw a wounded security guard and sent him to hospital," Sandhu said. "And then, we saw a man walking out of the building premises somewhat wounded. Initially we thought he was someone from the building who had probably jumped out of the building." As they were taking the confused-looking man to the hospital, he told the paramedic in the ambulance that he was travelling to London in that plane, said Shahi. They did not believe him initially. "Later in the evening, when we checked the visual, cross-checked his name with the flight manifest, it was only then we realised that he was indeed the sole survivor of the crash," said Shahi.

Ahmedabad: The mortal remains of former Gujarat chief minister Vijay Rupani was on Monday consigned to flames at the Ramnathpara crematorium at Rajkot.

Earlier in the day, Rupani's family received his body from the Civil Hospital in Ahmedabad. His body was identified on Sunday after matching the DNA with his son Rushav Rupani, who had arrived from the US.

Apart from Gujarat CM Bhupendra Patel, several senior ministers of the BJP and others paid their last respects to Rupani at the Civil Hospital while police accorded him a guard of honour, before his body was flown to Rajkot.

Union home minister Amit Shah also reached Rajkot to lay a wreath and offer his last respects to his longtime friend and party colleague at his residence, where the body was kept for the public to pay respects. Later, the funeral procession was taken out that travelled through the major areas of the city before reaching the crematorium.

Rupani was travelling in the ill-fated Air India flight from Ahmedabad to London to meet his daughter when the plane crashed over the hostel of BJ Medical College killing all but one passenger.

Rupani shared a deep connection with Prime Minister Narendra Modi as well as Union home minister Amit Shah and was instrumental in BJP's generational transition in Saurashtra region and tightening the grip of the party there. As a matter of fact, he along with Amit Shah oversaw Prime Minister Narendra Modi's electoral debut back in February 2002 after he assumed the charge of Gujarat in September 2001.

AIR INDIA DREAMLINER CRASH IN AHMEDABAD

Govt panel discusses possible causes, SOPs at first meeting

SUKALP SHARMA
NEW DELHI, JUNE 16

THE GOVERNMENT'S high-level multi-disciplinary committee on Thursday's crash of Air India flight AI-171 in Ahmedabad held its first meeting on Monday and discussed various possible causes and theories pertaining to the deadly aviation accident, the worst for an Indian airline in four decades.

Deliberations were also held on identifying areas of improvement and creating a roadmap to formulate standard operating procedures (SOPs) to prevent such disasters. Records pertaining to earlier aviation disasters in India, like the 2010 Mangaluru crash and 2020 Kozhikode accident of Air India Express aircraft, and how they were handled by various stakeholders were also shared in the meeting that lasted around two hours, it is learnt.

The committee is headed by the Home Secretary Govind Mohan and includes senior officials from the civil aviation ministry, home ministry, Gujarat government, the Indian Air Force, and various other departments and agencies including the Intelligence Bureau, Bureau of Civil Aviation Security, and Directorate General of Civil Aviation, among others. It is expected to submit its report within three months.

The technical investigation into the crash of Air India's Boeing 787-8 aircraft operating flight AI-171 from Ahmedabad to London Gatwick is being conducted by the Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB). On being asked why a government committee has been constituted when the AAIB-led probe is already on, Naidu had said on Saturday that the AAIB investigation is technical and specific to the tragic plane crash in Ahmedabad, while the government's high-level committee will take a more holistic approach and look at further strengthening of the aviation safety ecosystem.

"The Committee will examine the existing Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) and guidelines issued to prevent and handle such occurrences and suggest comprehensive guidelines for dealing with such instances in the future. The Committee will not be a substitute to other enquiries being conducted by relevant organisations but will focus on formulating SOPs for preventing and handling such occurrences in the future," the civil aviation ministry had said late Friday while notifying the constitution of the high-level committee.

The objective and scope of the committee also includes ascertaining the root cause of the crash, including assessment of possible contributory factors like mechanical failure, human error, weather conditions, and regulatory compliance-related issues, among others. It is also tasked with assessing the emergency response of various stakeholders—both Central and State governments.

The committee will formulate comprehensive SOPs and suggest the roles of various Central and State government organisations to deal with post-crash incident handling and management. It will also suggest policy changes, operational improvements, and training enhancements required to prevent such accidents in future, and handle the situation in the event of a crash.

Thursday's crash claimed the lives of 241 of the 242 people on board the Boeing 787-8 aircraft—bearing registration VT-ANB. Lives were also lost on the ground as the plane crashed into a medical college hostel mess close to the Ahmedabad airport.

As for the technical probe into the accident, the AAIB is being assisted in the probe by the US National Transportation Safety Board given that the aircraft was manufactured by an American company—Boeing—and was made in the US. A UK AAIB team is also going to help with the investigation, and so are Boeing and other major component manufacturers like GE (engine manufacturer). According to aircraft accident investigation protocol, the probe report should be finalised within a year. The world has its eyes set on the probe as scores of Boeing 787 aircraft are operating all over the globe, and this was the first-ever crash involving the 787.

AVOIDING REPUTATIONAL DAMAGE

In Geopolitical Storm, Cos Want Staff to Play Safe

Look to steer clear of controversy, issue & emphasise social media guidelines

Ratna Bhushan & Prachi Verma

New Delhi: Amid geopolitical turmoil, several companies are issuing fresh social media guidelines or reinforcing existing ones, telling employees to avoid posting personal opinions on social media, especially controversial views on wars, politics and faith-related matters. They are wary of getting caught up in the social media crossfire that invariably ensues.

Coca-Cola, for instance, has issued LinkedIn Guidelines in an internal advisory "on responsible use of social media, as the lines between personal and professional use of social media are blurred at times."

Others are investing in playbooks, escalation matrices, social audits and shadow advisers to protect reputational damage, executives said.

"Our employees have access to social media guidelines that can be referred to whenever necessary," said a spokesperson at consulting firm KPMG.

Wary of the fallout of some online opinions by staffers', India Inc is consulting legal experts

Executives at three large companies across telecom services, packaged foods and healthcare confirmed they have sent fresh guidelines and advisories to employees over the past week. They didn't want to be identified, citing political sensitivities. "We are increasingly seeing companies approach us for comprehensive social media policies," said Ankita Ray, partner at Cyril Amarchand Mangaldas.

"In the current climate, many organisations are recognising the need to establish clear boundaries around employee social media use, especially when it comes to sensitive topics such as geopolitical conflicts, political statements and controversial current affairs," said Ray of Cyril Amarchand Mangaldas.

Brands tangentially connected with posts that blow up are also getting dragged into social media wars.

A former employee of a multinational electronics company posted a reply to Congress leader Rahul Gandhi's post on X after the Ahmedabad Air India crash last week that drew the ire of a section of social media users. The company got mixed up in this because the poster mentioned the name of his former employer.

"There is reputational damage at stake," said Santosh Desai, social commentator and columnist. "There will be increasing instances of companies imposing restrictions on what employees can say or what they can't on public platforms."

A senior executive at a large cosmetics firm said clear advisories were sent out last week to staff. "There are disclosures on platforms such as X that comments are individual and not representative of the company," said the person. "But despite that, the fabric of social media is such that controversial posts end up dragging the company or brand into the picture."

One employee's casual post can spark reputational contagion and investor mistrust, pointed out Prachi Shrivastava, founder of consulting and legal firm Lawfinity Solutions.

"The last few weeks have shown a spurt of activity within our investor networks on codifying employee social media policies," she said. "A casual social media post from a junior employee can snowball into compliance queries, diplomatic risk, or even vendor escalations, especially for PE-backed or cross-border businesses."

Sportswear brand Nike's first Indian collaboration with an Indian label announced last week got caught in a social media storm over the weekend, despite it clearly being a case of mistaken identity. An Instagram account, @CuratedCultureSociety, posted that Nike's new NorBlack NorWhite campaign showed a model from Bangladesh who had allegedly been critical about India. However, this person wasn't featured in the campaign. Following widespread criticism, Curated Culture Society posted an apology on Instagram,acknowledging its mistake.

"What people say on their social media handles is an expression of their opinion as individuals, although we do have guidelines to ensure they are mindful of the sensitivity and seriousness of the situation and comment with responsibility," said Meghna Ramchandani,director, marketing and communications, at tax and advisory services company Grant Thornton Bharat.

Israel furious as France shuts four weapons stands at Paris Airshow

PARIS/JERUSALEM: France shut down the four main Israeli company stands at the Paris Airshow for refusing to remove offensive weapons from display, in a move condemned by Israel and highlighting tensions between the traditional allies.

A source familiar with the matter said on Monday that the instruction came from French authorities after Israeli firms failed to comply with a direction from a French security agency to remove offensive or kinetic weapons from the stands.

The stands were those being used by Elbit Systems , Rafael, IAI and Uvision. Three smaller Israeli stands, which didn't have hardware on display, and an Israeli Ministry of Defence stand, remain open.

TEL AVIV/DUBAI: Iran called on US President Donald Trump on Monday to force Israel to cease fire as the only way to end the four-day-old aerial war, while Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu said his country was on the "path to victory".

Israeli forces stepped up their bombardment of Iranian cities, while Iran proved capable of piercing Israeli air defences with one of its most successful volleys yet of retaliatory missile strikes. "If President Trump is genuine about diplomacy and interested in stopping this war, next steps are consequential," Iran's Foreign Minister Abbas Araqchi said on X.

"Israel must halt its aggression, and absent a total cessation of military aggression against us, our responses will continue. It takes one phone call from Washington to muzzle someone like Netanyahu. That may pave the way for a return to diplomacy."

Sources told Reuters that Tehran had asked Qatar, Saudi Arabia and Oman to press Trump to use his influence on Israel to agree to an immediate ceasefire. In return, Iran would show flexibility in nuclear negotiations, said the two Iranian and three regional sources.

Netanyahu told Israeli troops at an air base that Israel was on its way to achieving its two main aims: wiping out Iran's nuclear programme and destroying its missiles.

"We are on the path to victory," he said. "We are telling the citizens of Tehran: 'Evacuate'—and we are taking action."

Israel launched its air war on Friday with a surprise attack that killed nearly the entire top echelon of Iran's military commanders and its leading nuclear scientists. It has said it now has control of Iranian airspace and intends to escalate its campaign in coming days.

Iran said more than 224 Iranians have been killed, most of them civilians.

In Israel, 24 people have been killed so far in Iran's missile attacks, all of them civilians. Round the clock television images showed rescuers working in ruins of flattened homes.

Israel strikes Iranian state television

An Iranian state television reporter had to stop a live broadcast on Monday when an explosion occurred an hour after Israel issued a warning to evacuate the area of Tehran where the TV studios are located.

The reporter for the Islamic Republic of Iran News Network said the studio was filling with dust after "the sound of aggression against the homeland, the sound of aggression against truth and righteousness".

Anchor Sahar Emami rushed off-camera as the screen behind her cut out, and people were heard saying "Allahu akbar," the Arabic phrase for God is great.

Killing Khamenei would end the conflict: Israeli PM

WASHINGTON: Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu suggested on Monday that assassinating Iran's supreme leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei would "end the conflict" between the two arch-foes.

"It's not going to escalate the conflict, it's going to end the conflict," Netanyahu told ABC News in an interview. AFP

IAEA warns of contamination inside Iran's Natanz nuke site

Associated Press
letters@hindustantimes.com

VIENNA: The head of the UN nuclear watchdog agency said on Monday that there is a possibility of both radiological and chemical contamination within Iran's main nuclear enrichment facility in Natanz following Israeli strikes, although radiation levels outside the complex are presently normal.

The radiation poses a significant danger if uranium is inhaled or ingested, International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) director-general Rafael Mariano Grossi said.

The risk can be effectively managed with appropriate protective measures, such as using respiratory protection devices while inside the facilities, Grossi said.

"The level of radioactivity outside the Natanz site has remained unchanged and at normal levels, indicating no external radiological impact to the population or the environment from this event," he said.

A closeup view of the damaged Natanz nuclear facilities near Ahmadabad in Iran after an Israeli strike taken on June 14 AFP

Grossi was addressing an urgent session of the IAEA's board in Vienna that was convened at the request of Russia to discuss Israeli attacks against Iranian nuclear facilities. He said that there apparently was no additional damage at Natanz and the Isfahan nuclear research site since Saturday.

He said that the main concern inside the Natanz facility is the chemical toxicity of a gas called uranium hexafluoride, which is the result of fluorine mixed with the uranium during enrichment. It's extremely volatile, will quickly corrode, can burn the skin and is especially deadly if inhaled, experts say.

"Amid theses challenging and complex circumstances, it is crucial that the IAEA receives timely and regular technical information about the facilities and their respective sites," Grossi said.

Mahesh Jirawala missing; wife claims his last known location was 700m from plane crash site

Filmmaker Mahesh Kalawadia, also known as Mahesh Jirawala, has been missing since the London-bound Air India flight crashed in Ahmedabad (Gujarat) on June 12.

Speaking to media persons, his wife Hetal — who has anxiously been searching for him — said that the last active location on Mahesh's phone put him a mere 700 metres from the medical college hostel in Meghaninagar where the plane crashed minutes after take-off from Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport. She added that worry set in when Mahesh failed to return home after he called her to say he was on his way home.

"On June 12, Mahesh had gone to meet someone. He called me at 1.14pm to tell me his meeting was over and that he was on his way home," she told PTI, adding, "I called him again at 1.40pm, but his phone was switched off. That was just a minute after the plane took off from Ahmedabad airport."

Hetal further shared, "His scooter and mobile phone are missing. All this is unusual since he would never use that route to come home."

In a desperate bid to find Mahesh, his family have now submitted DNA samples to confirm if the filmmaker was indeed one of the ground victims of the crash.

As of Monday noon, 90 victims were identified through DNA sampling and the remains of 47 handed over to their families. The crash has claimed over 270 lives — 241 out of 242 travellers aboard the flight as well as 29 people on the ground.

Miracles Are Beyond Causality And Human Knowledge

Vijay Hashia

Miracle, also known as 'chamatkar', is a complex phenomenon beyond human understanding in relation to causality and human knowledge. In philosophy and theology, it is often debated and generally understood as an event that defies natural laws or exceeds known powers of nature.

The survival of lone passenger, Vishwash Kumar Ramesh, in the recent Air India plane tragedy that took 241 lives, is a miracle. The survivor revealed, "I opened my eyes, unfastened seat belt, escaped through a small space on my left and walked up to an ambulance...don't know how I survived?"

A 10-minute delay due to a traffic jam made Bhoomi Chauhan miss the flight from Ahmedabad to London. She believed that the delay and missed flight were due to divine intervention and considers her survival a miracle.

Such tales defy or interrupt the standard chain of cause and effect that one typically expects in such a catastrophic event. It is a moment when the ordinary flow of events diverges and cannot be explained by physical factors or statistical probability. The incident compels one to ask a much deeper question: Is a miracle something entirely unknown and beyond the perception of the human mind?

The human mind, conditioned by habit, empirical observation, and specific situations, typically interprets events within a framework of cause and effect. However, the causal framework does not account for such an anomaly in catastrophic events where a lone survivor has emerged unscathed against all odds. Lone survivors: Juliane Koepcke (Dec 24, 1971), Vesna Vulovic (Jan 26, 1972), Cecelia Cichan (Aug 16, 1987), Bahia Bakari (June 30, 2009), Ruben Van Assouw (May 12, 2010), and now Vishwash Kumar Ramesh (June 12, 2025), underline limits of human knowledge and understanding pointing towards a hidden depth of reality yet to be fully comprehended by humans.

Philosophers have different perspectives. For example, Spinoza insists that nature operates according to eternal universal laws, a deterministic system. To him, 'miracle' would violate these natural laws, which is impossible because God and nature are the same – Deus sive Natura. David Hume is sceptical and views 'miracles' as improbable, irrational or unknowable. However, Thomas Aquinas and Leibniz have different perspectives and view 'miracle' as a purposeful intervention by a higher principle, a manifestation of God's will.

This point is in accordance with traditional Hinduism, which views the universe not as a closed, mechanical system but as an expression of Brahmn, the ultimate reality. Naturally, the will of this Supreme principle can interrupt ordinary causality to produce what we call a chamatkar – an improbable event. Therefore, surviving a serious accident is a blessing in the ordinary sense.

Such phenomena consider the possibility of hidden causal orders, subtler than physical laws, which govern extraordinary events. The survival of the lone individual against all odds may be a manifestation of these hidden dimensions. This resonates that the ordinary world we experience is only a surface phenomenon, a visible ripple, while the true depth of reality lies in a more unified whole. Miracles, therefore, are not violations of nature but revelations of their greater potential than the physical, measurable world. Here, the Supreme principle can interrupt ordinary causality to produce a wonder beyond human knowledge and causal explanations.

AIR INDIA PLANE CRASH IN AHMEDABAD

Mortal Remains of 76 Victims Handed over to Families after DNA Matching

Ahmedabad: The mortal remains of 76 victims of the AI-171 plane crash have been handed over to their relatives after matching their DNA samples and ascertaining their identity. Around119 samples have been matched so far even as human body parts are still being recovered from the crash site and being brought to the hospital.

Meanwhile, remains of human body parts are still being retrieved from the site. On Monday, 15 such remains were retrieved from the crash site.

On Monday, June 16, 2025, Air India resumed its Ahmedabad-London flight services with Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner flight A159 departing at 4.30 pm from Ahmedabad airport, three days after the mishap. After the crash of flight AI 171, the airline had decided to change the flight number to AI159. The aircraft was scheduled for additional checks, as per a Ministry of Civil Aviation order. The Gujarat health department has deployed an additional 855 staff, apart from the regular Civil Hospital staff, to ease and expedite the process. The district administration has appointed more than 250 nodal officers to ensure the process of handing over the mortal remains and for coordination with the families. Supervisory officers have also been designated to ensure that all proceedings are conducted properly. The state government has also put in place an elaborate system to ensure assistance pertaining to any paper work for the relatives of the victims. They have also reached out to the relatives of the deceased to provide the required documents — including inheritance certificates — based on witness testimonies and verification by local committees, to ensure smooth processing with insurance companies and any government or semi-government offices.

Keeping in mind the rainy weather, a large dome with basic facilities like drinking water, fans, and coolers, mobile toilets outside the new post-mortem complex has been set up for the family members of the crash victims. Charitable organisations have been roped in to arrange for tea, snacks, water and meals for the families waiting inside the dome.

Chief minister Bhupendra Patel visited the Ahmedabad Civil Hospital on Monday and took stock of the situation. He held a meeting with the ministers and senior state officials to review the entire relief and rescue operation.

Around119 samples have been matched so far even as human body parts are still being recovered from the crash site and being brought to the hospital.

Meanwhile, remains of human body parts are still being retrieved from the site. On Monday, 15 such remains were retrieved from the crash site.

On Monday, June 16, 2025, Air India resumed its Ahmedabad-London flight services with Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner flight A159 departing at 4.30 pm from Ahmedabad airport, three days after the mishap. After the crash of flight AI 171, the airline had decided to change the flight number to AI159. The aircraft was scheduled for additional checks, as per a Ministry of Civil Aviation order. The Gujarat health department has deployed an additional 855 staff, apart from the regular Civil Hospital staff, to ease and expedite the process. The district administration has appointed more than 250 nodal officers to ensure the process of handing over the mortal remains and for coordination with the families. Supervisory officers have also been designated to ensure that all proceedings are conducted properly. The state government has also put in place an elaborate system to ensure assistance pertaining to any paper work for the relatives of the victims. They have also reached out to the relatives of the deceased to provide the required documents — including inheritance certificates — based on witness testimonies and verification by local committees, to ensure smooth processing with insurance companies and any government or semi-government offices.

Keeping in mind the rainy weather, a large dome with basic facilities like drinking water, fans, and coolers, mobile toilets outside the new post-mortem complex has been set up for the family members of the crash victims. Charitable organisations have been roped in to arrange for tea, snacks, water and meals for the families waiting inside the dome.

Chief minister Bhupendra Patel visited the Ahmedabad Civil Hospital on Monday and took stock of the situation. He held a meeting with the ministers and senior state officials to review the entire relief and rescue operation.

Reach Deep Into Air India's Pockets

Ramesh V Vaidyanathan & Suyash Sarvankar

Aircraft accidents, though rare, leave a devastating impact that extends far beyond the wreckage of lives. Compensation becomes not only a matter of monetary redress, but a crucial step toward accountability, closure and rebuilding lives.

In the aftermath of last week's AI 171 tragedy, Air India offered ₹1 cr as compensation per deceased person to his or her next of kin. While this announcement was prompt and appears generous, the airline could be on the hook for a much higher amount. Families may have significant claims, depending on how the investigation unfolds.

India has ratified the 'Montreal Convention' — Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules for International Carriage by Air — by incorporating it into the Carriage by Air Act 1972. This provides for a 2-tier compensation system defined in terms of special drawing rights (SDR), an international reserve asset created by IMF to supplement official reserves of its member countries. Accordingly:

- The airline must compensate the kin of the deceased passengers up to SDR 128,821 (₹1.6 cr), regardless of any fault or wrongdoing by the airline. This compensation is the absolute minimum, without exception. Some media reports have indicated that the ₹1 cr offered by AI is separate, and in addition to the SDR amount required under the convention.
- Kin of the deceased may seek compensation over and above this SDR amount, based on actual loss. This would be calculated on lost income, and companionship of victims who sustained their families and dependents. AI could avoid higher compensation only if it proves there was no negligence, wrongful act or omission by the airline (including its servants or agents, which include various third parties engaged by the airline to service the aircraft or assist with the flight).

Alternatively, the airline could defend itself if the accident occurred solely due to wrongful acts, or omissions of a third party, such as in the case of terrorism. The legal burden is on the airline to prove that the mishap did not occur due to its conduct, or that it occurred due to the conduct of a third party.

Piecing things together

In such cases, families of Indian victims could also approach consumer fora under the Consumer Protection Act 2019. The consumer protection law is in addition to remedies available under the Montreal Convention as read with the Carriage by Air Act.

For families of foreign passengers, legal options extend beyond India. Since the convention applies almost globally, they could file lawsuits in their home countries, where compensation standards may be higher.

Air India has also offered ₹1 cr to the families of the deceased medical college students and staff, and people on the ground. Securing higher compensation is more challenging for families of victims on the ground. Both Carriage by Air Act and Consumer Protection Act are meant for passengers on the ill-fated aircraft. The next of kin of ground fatalities would have to approach a civil court in India seeking compensation under Fatal Accidents Act 1855, which provides compensation to the family of a person who dies in the case of wrongful accidents.

Another option is a tort law claim, where damages for negligence could be sought. In both these options, Air India would be liable if it's at fault — that is, if the accident was a result of its act, omission or oversight. The total compensation payout to victims could well exceed ₹1,000 cr. Beyond victim compensation, Air India also faces significant costs for property damage, aircraft loss, emergency response and disrupted flights.

Globally, the compensation payout in cases of similar incidents has touched ₹4,500 cr ($500 mn). Air India likely maintains adequate insurance coverage that would cover these costs, or at least a substantial part. But if claims exceed coverage, the financial hit could be severe.

New Delhi | Mumbai: Tata Sons chairman N Chandrasekaran met Air India's leadership team for a complete safety review of the airline at its headquarters in Gurgaon. Chandrasekaran, who is also chairman of the airline, said the crash was the most heart-breaking crisis of his career and that it was an opportunity to build a safer airline.

A Boeing 787 plane crashed last week seconds after taking off, killing 241 passengers and 33 on the ground in Ahmedabad.

"Aviation is a very complex business, it's a complex machine, so there are a lot of redundancies, checks and balances, certifications, which have been perfected over years and years. Yet this happened, so we will figure out why it happened after the investigation is complete," said Chandrasekaran, according to a recording of the speech he gave at the airline's headquarters.

People in the know said he visited the Emergency Command Centre, the Integrated Operations Control Centre and the Customer Service and Support of Air India.

In the speech he said that while nothing can undo the tragedy, Air India must extend unwavering support to affected families, whom he described as part of the airline's family forever.

"Criticism is there, but it's not easy to face it. Especially for those of us who are very passionate, emotional, and who are working on making Air India a great airline, and who genuinely care about what kind of a company we want to build. We are getting more determined," he said.

The top leadership of Boeing led by Stephanie Pope also met the senior leadership of Air India. "Our technical team has joined the US delegation led by National Transport Safety Board (NTSB)- that is assisting Indian authorities with their investigation," Pope, president and CEO of Boeing Commercial Airplanes, said.

However, experts closely following Air India's turnaround under the ownership of Tatas, said that it will be a Herculean task and that the airline would need a complete overhaul of its structure. After taking over Air India in 2022, the Tatas embarked on ambitious turnaround plan, ordering a record 470 aircraft and investing crores to upgrade existing planes. The airline intends to compete against global majors, CEO Campbell Wilson had told ET in an interview, a few days before the crash.

"A lot needs to be done. They need to go back to the drawing board and see if the fast pace of expansion was stretching the safety, and also improve the culture," a consultant who worked with Air India said.

Silent Black Box

What gadgets of doomed aircraft never record

Kannan.Somasundaram@timesofindia.com

As the Air India flight taxied on the Ahmedabad runway, the jet would have gargled fuel to clear its throat, reminders to keep the seat belt fastened would have sounded like familiar chants in the pressurised cabin, a few passengers would have whispered their customary travel prayers, some would have argued that Heathrow offers better connectivity to central London than Gatwick, somebody would have recalled their last flight to Heathrow from Delhi and wondered if the Thames would appear on the Gatwick route.

The etiquette-conscious would have deliberated on the correct response to 'how do you do?' in UK, some would have joked that Brits wouldn't mind if people said 'how're ya doin'?' to the King as long as they had waited British-ly in a queue to address the monarch, some laughter would have strummed seat belts when those averse to culinary adventures relished with desi glee the prospect of ordering cholay-bhature in the former Raj HQ.

A first-time visitor to London would have shown explorational savvy and proclaimed that London Bridge has 'cliché' splashed all over it like betel-leaf stains and Charles Dickens Museum is the place for sophisticates, their seat neighbour would have commented that Delhi taxiwallahs' directional acumen is just as legendary as London's Black Cab drivers', some passengers would have started a battle of wills with time itself to hug their loved ones sooner than determined by the mundane arrival schedule, a few would have gone back in time to worry about not switching off all their home lights.

And then as the jet engine's gargling began smoothing into the war cry of human ingenuity against gravity, even some frequent fliers would have looked out of their windows to marvel at the audacity of a toothpaste-tube-shaped machine to rescue hundreds of people at once from the solidity of routines, passengers would likely not have known that the plane was losing altitude, would probably not have realised that the pilots were overriding instinctual fear with professional focus, the pilots would have been using the muscle of their conscience to strengthen their trained hands to do everything they could to save the passengers in their care and save the metrics that make us all human: love, ambition, excitement, and the faith in ourselves to plan for the next day. Black boxes don't record those metrics.

South Delhi India's capital for FMCG consumption

South Delhi India's capital for FMCG consumption

New Delhi: When it comes to quantity (volume), South Delhi, associated with affluence, is India's unrivalled consumption capital for fast-moving consumer goods. But west Delhi is the top spender on these goods, not only in the capital, but also in the country, reports Rupali Mukherjee. What's common: both prefer good old home-cooked meals, and bottled cold drinks.

A household in the West Delhi cluster — Tilak Nagar, Janakpuri, Sagarpur, and Vikaspuri — spends Rs 39,325 a year on average, which is more than twice the national average, show figures compiled by data and consulting firm Kantar's FMCG Pulse.

On the other hand, a household in South Delhi — Okhla, Kalkaji, Lajpat Nagar, and Bhogal — consumes 240kg of FMCG annually, again, two times the average national consumption.

▶Related report, P 11

WHO EATS WHAT

- S Delhi not keen on snacking, but each household consumes 45 litres of oil a year

- 17kg of salt/year, 1.4 times the average for cities; basmati consumption 2x city-level avg
- West Delhiites snack more, but like in south Delhi, prefer to eat at home. Big on ketchup

B'luru tops in purchase of premium products

When it comes to premium products, it is Bengaluru which comes out on top with an average city-level spend of Rs 211 for every kilo of FMCG, surpassing all other cities, none of which exceed Rs 195 per kg.

The report also said that Mumbai's Greater Dharavi Santacruz Cluster (GDSC) cluster — comprising Dharavi, Bandra East, Khar East, Santacruz East, Dawri Nagar, and Prabhat Colony — is home to the hyper-frequent shopper with each household making 233 visits to shop for FMCG products, which means once every 37 hours. In contrast, an average urban household in the country makes 128 visits a year to buy items other than atta. An average Mumbai household makes 135 visits.

Each visit in the GDSC corridor involves a spend of only Rs 93 and a purchase of just 541g, the lowest among metro clusters.

Only two other metro clusters, Surat and Kolkata, average less than Rs 100 per visit. The lower average spend may be linked to the small size of dwelling units.

The insights, which study the consumption pattern of metros, breaking them down into 157 micro-clusters, have excluded a regionally skewed category of atta.

Among Delhi clusters, the South Delhi cluster purchases the least quantity of snacking products, but consumes 45 litres of edible oil annually, slightly above the city average, and 17kg of salt per annum, approximately 1.4x the city-level average.

Additionally, this cluster is a heavy consumer of basmati rice, twice the city-level average. Its low interest in snacking, paired with high consumption of staples, suggests a preference for home-cooked meals.

However, its consumption of 20 litres of bottled soft drinks annually, 1.3 times the city average, suggests that it may be driven more by taste than health concerns, according to Kantar.

The United States' National Transportation Safety Board (NTSB) has launched a parallel probe into the Air India plane crash here, drawing several international experts to the accident site.

The Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB) of India had earlier launched a detailed probe to get to the bottom of the cause of the deadly crash last week.

A total of 241 people on board the aircraft and were killed when the London-bound Boeing 787-8 (AI 171) crashed into a building of a medical college and burst into flames moments after it took off from the Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel international airport.

Several foreign experts were seen scouting the crash site for the last two days, checking the debris to find clues

The US NTSB is conducting a parallel probe under international protocols as the aircraft is American-made, an official release said.

The NTSB is an independent federal agency of the US tasked with investigating every civil aviation accident. They determine the probable causes of accidents and events and investigate and issue safety recommendations aimed at preventing future occurrences.

Several foreign experts were seen scouting the crash site for the last two days, checking the debris to find clues.

Airbus kicks off Paris Air Show with sale to AviLease

Wins up to 50 widebody jets order from Riyadh Air

REUTERS
16 June

Airbus bagged $8 billion in aircraft orders from Saudi Arabia's wealth fund on an opening day of the Paris Airshow clouded by a separate diplomatic dispute over France's decision to shut down four Israeli stands for displaying deadly weapons.

Delegates expect this year's iteration of the world's biggest aviation trade show to see less business than usual, partly due to last week's fatal crash of an Air India Boeing 787 and also because Boeing racked up huge deals during US President Donald Trump's recent tour of the West Asia.

But Airbus looks set to close a series of sales on its home turf, and interest in the defence side of the show is high as Europe ramps up military spending and conflict between Israel and Iran escalates.

Tensions between long-standing allies France and Israel flared up as the show was getting underway, when Paris ordered the main four Israeli company stands to be closed down when they refused to remove weapons from display.

Israel's ministry of defence condemned the move as "outrageous and unprecedented" and accused France of trying to shield its companies from Israeli competition.

Speaking to reporters by the black partitions erected to block off the Israeli stands, US Republican Governor Sarah Huckabee Sanders described the French move as "pretty absurd".

Show organisers said they were holding talks to try to "find a favourable outcome".

Boeing's Chief Executive Officer Kelly Ortberg and Commercial Airplanes boss Stephanie Pope have cancelled their trip to Paris and the US company is scaling back its schedule at the event as it focuses on supporting the probe into last week's Air India crash that killed more than 240 people in the first fatal 787 accident. But Airbus was busy at the show working on deals.

Saudi leasing company AviLease said on Monday it had ordered 30 Airbus A320neo single-aisle jets and 10 A350 freighters in its first direct deal with the European planemaker.

That would be worth around $3.5 billion, according to estimated prices from analysts Cirium Ascend.

Saudi Arabia is spending big on becoming a new regional aviation hub, seeking to catch up with Dubai and Qatar by launching new airline Riyadh Air and announcing a massive six-runway airport.

Riyadh Air also signed a deal with Airbus for 25 A350-1000 long-haul jets.

Two people familiar with the matter said earlier that Polish airline LOT was poised to announce an order for 40 Airbus A220 plus options for a further 44 aircraft — seen as a part of a broader reset of relations with France.

Cockpit Voice Recorder from Air India plane crash found

AHMEDABAD

Officials investigating the Air India plane crash here have confirmed the Cockpit Voice Recorder has been found, a crucial discovery to help ascertain the possible cause of the accident that killed 270 persons, including 241 on board.

Earlier, the Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB) had confirmed that only the Flight Data Recorder (FDR) of the ill-fated plane was found.

The officials confirmed the recovery of black boxes to P K Mishra, the Principal Secretary to Prime Minister Narendra Modi, who on Sunday inspected the site where the Air India plane crashed in Ahmedabad on June 12 and also visited the civil hospital where the injured persons are undergoing treatment.

Mishra chaired a high-level review meeting at the Circuit House here and discussed the ongoing relief, rescue and investigation efforts with senior officials from the central and state governments, AAIB and the Airports Authority of India, an official release on Sunday said.

The AAIB has launched a detailed investigation, and the US National Transportation Safety Board is conducting a parallel probe under international protocols, as the aircraft was American-made, the release stated.

"Officials confirmed to Dr Mishra that the Flight Data Recorder (FDR) and Cockpit Voice Recorder (CVR) have been located and secured," it said.

With the finding of both black boxes of the plane, it would be easy for investigators to ascertain the cause of the crash.

All but one of the 242 passengers and crew on board the Boeing 787-8(AI 171) and another 29 persons, including five MBBS students, on the ground were killed when the London-bound aircraft crashed into the nearby campus of a medical college in Meghaninagar area and burst into flames, moments after it took off from the Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport.

Mishra reviewed the accident site near the B J Medical College in Meghaninagar, where senior officials from the state government, AAIB and Airports Authority of India briefed him on the sequence of events and immediate response measures, the release said.

During his visit to the Ahmedabad Civil Hospital, he met the bereaved families, observed the DNA sample matching, and directed authorities to provide full assistance, ensuring a seamless and compassionate process, it said.

He also interacted with the injured persons, instructing hospital officials to prioritise their medical treatment and recovery, it said.

"I am very pained by the enormity of the tragedy. Everybody is sad. It is our duty to share grief and express our feelings for the victims," Mishra told reporters.

At the Forensic Science Laboratory in Gandhinagar, he reviewed DNA sampling efforts and stressed the need to complete the identification process swiftly while maintaining scientific accuracy, the release said.

Mishra reiterated the PM's commitment to providing all possible support to victims' families and ensuring a coordinated response across all agencies involved, it said.

The principal secretary was accompanied by PMO officials, advisor to the PM, Tarun Kapoor, and Deputy Secretary, PMO Mangesh Ghildiyal, the release said.

High-level probe panel holds its first meeting

A high-level multi-disciplinary committee, set up by the government to look into the Ahmedabad plane crash, on Monday deliberated on various possible theories that could have led to the country's worst air disaster in decades.

The panel, chaired by Union Home Secretary Govind Mohan, listened to the opinions of various stakeholders about the possible causes of the air crash and deliberated on steps to be taken to check future occurrence of any such accident, sources said. In the first meeting of the panel, the focus of the participants was to analyse the possible causes of the aircrash and how to go about in "formulating Standard Operating Procedures for preventing such occurrences in the future".

Since a separate investigation is also being carried out by the Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau, the panel discussed about the possible causes and lesson to be taken from it, the sources said. PTI

Global carrier's senior mgmt team reviews facilities

Panaji/Vasco

In a step forward for resumption of sea-based container cargo movement from the state, officials of Ocean Network Express (ONE), a Japanese container transportation and shipping company, visited the Mormugao Port on Monday to review the port's facilities for likely starting of services.

The senior management team of the global carrier evinced interest in calling at the Vasco port for transportation of containers.

The ONE delegation, led by managing director Masahiro Sakikubo, made a comprehensive tour of the terminal before meeting with officials of Mormugao Port Authority (MPA) and Delta Port Mormugao Terminal – the company operating berth 10 and 11, allocated for container traffic.

A leader in container shipping, ONE operates a fleet of 260 vessels having a total capacity of over 2 million TEU. The company is interested in offering its container services to Goa's export-import trade once the logistic system is in place.

A leader in container shipping, ONE operates a fleet of 260 vessels having a total capacity of over 2 million TEU. The company is interested in offering its container services to Goa's export-import trade once the logistic system is in place.

During the meeting, Delta Port officials said they are in talks with Unifeeder, a feeder vessel service company, about including Goa in its network. Further talks are also ongoing with other shipping companies such as CMA CGM, Maersk, MSC, and HMM to secure container volumes post-monsoon.

Delta Ports plans to have feeder vessels carrying containers from Mormugao to Mundra Port, Gujarat, and from there the cargo will be transported to the final destination by respective liners.

MPA chairman Dr N Vinodkumar, who was present at the meeting, assured full support to facilitate container cargo movement from Vasco.

Delta Ports' managing director Ahmed Mohidun said it is actively engaging with the Shipping Corporation of India (SCI) to include Goa in the Sci-Middle-East-India-Liner-Express (SMILE) service adding, "The SMILE service will reduce road transport dependency and support cargo movement for salt, industrial salt, tiles, bentonite, and manufactured goods, benefitting local industries."

Mohidun said Delta Ports aims to offer Goa's exporters and importers seamless global connectivity "directly from their hometown port and with lower logistics costs".

Container movement at the Mormugao Port stopped in 2020 due to the breakdown of mobile cranes at the port.

एअर इंडियाच्या विमानात पुन्हा तांत्रिक बिघाड

▸▸ उड्डाणानंतर काही मिनिटांनी हाँगकाँग विमानतळावर परतलं

नवी दिल्ली : गेल्या काही दिवसांपासून बोइंग कंपनीच्या विमानांमधील तांत्रिक बिघाडाच्या बातम्या, सुरक्षेसंबंधी चिंता व्यक्त करणारे अहवाल समोर येत आहेत. तसेच अहमदाबादमध्ये नुकतीच एक मोठी विमान दुर्घटना देखील घडली आहे. दरम्यान, आता एअर इंडियाच्या फ्लाइट एआय-३१५ मध्ये तांत्रिक बिघाड झाल्याचं वृत्त समोर आलं आहे. हाँगकाँग विमानतळावरून उड्डाण केलेलं हे विमान तांत्रिक बिघाडामुळे माघारी परतलं आहे. हे देखील बोइंग ७८७-८ ड्रीमलायनर विमान आहे.

दरम्यान, १५ जून रोजी सकाळी जेद्दाहवरून लखनौला जाणाऱ्या सौदी अरबच्या एका विमानाच्या चाकांमधून धूर निघताना दिसला. त्यानंतर विमानतळावरील बचाव पथक व अग्निशमन दलाची पथकं धावट्टीवर गेली आणि त्यांनी धूर नियंत्रित केला. विमानतळावरील अधिकाऱ्यांनी सांगितलं की प्रवाशांना सुरक्षितपणे उतरवण्यात आलं आहे. या घटनेचा विमानतळावरील विमानांच्या संचालनावर कोणताही परिणाम झालेला नाही. दरम्यान, विमानाच्या चाकांमधून धूर येण्याचं कारण अद्याप सांगण्यात आलेलं नाही. विमानतळ प्रशासन किंवा विमान कंपनीने यावर कोणतीही प्रतिक्रिया दिलेली नाही.

Review heli services on Char Dham route

THE helicopter crash that killed all seven persons on board in Uttarakhand on June 15 was avoidable, had the authorities gone beyond piecemeal measures in response to the telltale warning signs. Four incidents in four weeks — one fatal crash that claimed six lives and three cases of emergency landing — had made it obvious that travelling by air on the Char Dham Yatra route was hazardous. Chief Minister Pushkar Singh Dhami told heli service operators on June 11 that any compromise with safety standards would not be tolerated; he also ordered an audit of recent helicopter accidents to prevent their recurrence. The Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA), the nation's aviation safety regulator, was in the thick of things as well. On June 9, it ordered special audits and enhanced surveillance of helicopter operators providing shuttle and charter services during the ongoing yatra. Surely nothing could go wrong amid such intense scrutiny, but it did.

It was crystal clear that course correction would not happen overnight, yet the chopper operations were only scaled down, not suspended, before the latest mishap. This was a recipe for disaster, especially when the visibility was poor, and the inevitable happened — a helicopter carrying pilgrims from the Kedarnath shrine fell in a forest.

Greater caution should have been exercised not only in the wake of previous local incidents but also last week's colossal air tragedy in Ahmedabad. However, it was treated as a routine chopper flight, and even the adverse weather conditions were not taken seriously. Going forward, the state government and the DGCA need to do a holistic review of the heli services. Enhancing aerial connectivity in hilly areas is a good initiative, but compromising the safety of passengers threatens to defeat its purpose.

Crashed AI plane's insurance was hiked by ₹100cr in April

This Followed An Engine Replacement

Uditprasanna.Mukherjee
@timesofindia.com

Kolkata: Air India had raised insurance cover on the Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner that crashed in Ahmedabad from Rs 750 crore to Rs 850 crore during its April policy renewal following an engine replacement, sources said on Monday. Total claims from the June 12 crash are expected to exceed Rs 1,500 crore.

Indian insurers led by Tata AIG will absorb only Rs 100–150 crore of the financial hit, having ceded over 90% of the risk to global reinsurers in London and Bermuda markets, including AIG and AXA XL.

The aircraft was part of a fleet-wide aviation cover worth Rs 8,000–10,000 crore, for which Air India paid an annual premium of about Rs 250 crore.

Home minister Amit Shah pays his last respects to former Gujarat CM Vijay Rupani, who lost his life in the AI-171 crash, in Rajkot on Monday

The crash of AI flight 171 to London is set to trigger compensation under the Montreal Convention, entitling families of deceased passengers to around Rs 1.8 crore each. With 241 onboard deaths — passengers and crew — liabilities under this clause alone could cross Rs 420 crore. There will be additional third-party claims as the accident also killed over 30 people on the ground and destroyed parts of a medical college hostel, experts said.

The Dreamliner — about 11.5 years old, and operated by Air India since Jan 2014 — has been declared a total loss. The hull claim alone is pegged at Rs 850 crore, based on the aircraft's age-adjusted insured value.

The Ahmedabad accident is the first major crash of a wide-body aircraft in Asia in recent years and is expected to tighten the global aviation insurance market for regional carriers operating large jets.

Domestic insurers retaining only 7.5–10% of exposure include Tata AIG, GIC Re, United India, Oriental Insurance, National Insurance, and ICICI Lombard. Reinsurers are expected to bear the brunt of payouts.

In a June 14 circular, Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority (IRDA) directed insurers to expedite settlements under life and accident policies and waive documentation requirements such as FIRs and autopsy reports. Nodal officers are to be appointed to streamline claims, with weekly updates mandated from June 16.

DNA tests identify 125 victims, 83 bodies handed over to kin: Gujarat minister

AHMEDABAD, JUNE 16

FOUR DAYS after the horrific crash of an Air India plane that claimed the lives of 241 passengers and killed multiple people on the ground, 125 victims have so far been identified through DNA matching and 83 bodies were handed over to their families, according to a post by Gujarat Health Minister Rushikesh Patel on X Monday late evening.

An official expressed hope that the DNA profiling all the victims will be completed by either Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning.

Former Gujarat chief minister Vijay Rupani was among the 242 passengers and crew members on board the London-bound Air India flight AI-171 that crashed in Ahmedabad on June 12. His mortal remains were handed over to his wife Anjali Rupani and other family members at the city civil hospital.

Authorities are carrying out DNA tests to establish the identity of the victims as many bodies were charred beyond recognition.

Speaking to the media, Medical Superintendent of Ahmedabad Civil Hospital Dr Rakesh Joshi expressed hope that the DNA profiling of all the victims will be completed by either Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning.

He urged the grief-stricken kin of the victims to not panic over the time-consuming process of matching DNA samples with mortal remains.

"We are trying our best to finish this process as soon as possible. Some are complaining that the results have not come even after 72 hours. I appeal to them not to panic because this is a very important process with legal implications. We will call them as soon as results arrive," Joshi said.

Earlier, Dr Rajnish Patel, Professor of Surgery at BJ Medical College, told mediapersons on Monday that 13 families were present at the hospital to collect the remains.

"Twelve families have opted to collect the bodies together after DNA confirmation for all their deceased members. Discussions have been completed with 11 other families, who are on their way to collect the remains," he said.

Ahmedabad Civil Hospital authorities had said on Sunday that samples of 250 victims, including persons on board the ill-fated flight as well as those killed on the ground, had been collected for identification.

The Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner with 242 persons on board crashed into a medical college complex in Ahmedabad moments after taking off from the Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport at 1.39 pm on June 12.

While 241 persons on board the London-bound aircraft died, one passenger miraculously survived.

The crash also killed multiple people on the ground, including five MBBS students.

THE GOVERNMENT'S high-level multi-disciplinary committee on Thursday's crash of Air India flight AI-171 in Ahmedabad held its first meeting on Monday and discussed various possible causes and theories pertaining to the deadly aviation accident, the worst for an Indian airline in four decades.

Deliberations were also held on identifying areas of improvement and creating a roadmap to formulate standard operating procedures (SOPs) to prevent such disasters. Records pertaining to earlier aviation disasters in India, like the 2010 Mangaluru crash and 2020 Kozhikode accident of Air India Express aircraft, and how they were handled by various stakeholders were also shared in the meeting that lasted around two hours, it is learnt.

The committee is headed by the Home Secretary Govind Mohan and includes senior officials from the civil aviation ministry, home ministry, Gujarat government, the Indian Air Force, and various other departments and agencies including the Intelligence Bureau, Bureau of Civil Aviation Security, and Directorate General of Civil Aviation, among others. It is expected to submit its report within three months.

The technical investigation into the crash of Air India's Boeing 787-8 aircraft operating flight AI-171 from Ahmedabad to London Gatwick is being conducted by the Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB). On being asked why a government committee has been constituted when the AAIB-led probe is already on, Naidu had said on Saturday that the AAIB investigation is technical and specific to the tragic plane crash in Ahmedabad, while the government's high-level committee will take a more holistic approach and look at further strengthening of the aviation safety ecosystem.

"The Committee will examine the existing Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) and guidelines issued to prevent and handle such occurrences and suggest comprehensive guidelines for dealing with such instances in the future. The Committee will not be a substitute to other enquiries being conducted by relevant organisations but will focus on formulating SOPs for preventing and handling such occurrences in the future," the civil aviation ministry had said late Friday while notifying the constitution of the high-level committee.

The objective and scope of the committee also includes ascertaining the root cause of the crash, including assessment of possible contributory factors like mechanical failure, human error, weather conditions, and regulatory compliance-related issues, among others. It is also tasked with assessing the emergency response of various stakeholders—both Central and State governments.

The committee will formulate comprehensive SOPs and suggest the roles of various Central and State government organisations to deal with post-crash incident handling and management. It will also suggest policy changes, operational improvements, and training enhancements required to prevent such accidents in future, and handle the situation in the event of a crash.

Thursday's crash claimed the lives of 241 of the 242 people on board the Boeing 787-8 aircraft—bearing registration VT-ANB. Lives were also lost on the ground as the plane crashed into a medical college hostel mess close to the Ahmedabad airport.

As for the technical probe into the accident, the AAIB is being assisted in the probe by the US National Transportation Safety Board given that the aircraft was manufactured by an American company—Boeing—and was made in the US. A UK AAIB team is also going to help with the investigation, and so are Boeing and other major component manufacturers like GE (engine manufacturer). According to aircraft accident investigation protocol, the probe report should be finalised within a year. The world has its eyes set on the probe as scores of Boeing 787 aircraft are operating all over the globe, and this was the first-ever crash involving the 787.

Indian trucks take hydrogen highway to future

SHINE JACOB & SOHINI DAS
Chennai/Mumbai, 16 June

From the industrial sprawl of Reliance Industries' Jamnagar refinery to the frost-bitten heights of Leh and the traffic-choked avenues of New Delhi, a quiet shift is underway in India's commercial vehicle (CV) sector. Hydrogen-powered trucks and buses — once a speculative future — are now rolling out onto the country's roads, driven by auto giants like Ashok Leyland and Tata Motors. Others are not far behind.

While many of these efforts are aligned with the government's National Green Hydrogen Mission, original equipment manufacturers (OEMs) are also shaping their own road maps to remain future-ready. Ashok Leyland, for instance, made headlines in 2023 when it unveiled the country's first hydrogen internal combustion engine (H2-ICE) truck, developed in collaboration with Reliance Industries Ltd (RIL).

ASHOK LEYLAND HAS PARTNERED NTPC GREEN TO DEPLOY HYDROGEN FUEL CELL BUSES IN KEY LOCATIONS, INCLUDING DELHI AND LADAKH

Since then, over 20 of these heavy-duty vehicles have clocked nearly 250,000 kilometres, and have rivalled the efficiency of traditional ICE vehicles.

The firm has partnered NTPC Green to deploy hydrogen fuel cell buses in key locations, including Delhi and Ladakh.

"Among the alternative fuels, the ultimate destination of the CV market is going to be hydrogen. However, it needs the cost structure to be right," Sanjeev Kumar, president and head of the medium and heavy commercial vehicle division at Ashok Leyland, told Business Standard. "As an organisation, we are ready with technology; it is only a question of when and how, as the cost of hydrogen continues to be very high. Recently, we have also delivered one 55-tonne fuel cell vehicle to Adani (group) for its mining application in Chhattisgarh."

Tata Motors, too, is carrying out trials of hydrogen-powered CVs. Since March, the firm has been testing two trucks — one powered by H2-ICE, the other by hydrogen fuel cell — across a 24-month pilot programme. A total of 16 hydrogen-powered vehicles, with varying payloads and configurations, will ply on some of India's busiest freight routes in Mumbai, Pune, Delhi-NCR, Surat, Vadodara, Jamshedpur, and Kalinganagar.

"We've also started shipping our first hydrogen trucks, which are now going to ply on specific lanes," P B Balaji, group chief financial officer at Tata Motors, said during a recent post-earnings call.

The pilot, undertaken in partnership with Indian Oil Corporation, aims to gather on-ground data — both to finetune the vehicles and to map out hydrogen availability along key transport routes.

Govt's pilot projects to put 37 hydrogen-powered vehicles on the road

At the Bharat Mobility Global Expo earlier this year, Tata Motors Executive Director Girish Wagh signalled that the company was targeting a commercial launch window within the next 12 to 24 months. The company did not wish to share further updates at the moment.

The momentum isn't limited to Indian firms. Daimler Truck, one of the world's leading CV manufacturers, is preparing to enter the Indian hydrogen race. "On the path towards decarbonising transport, Daimler Truck is entering the next development phase of its fuel cell trucks," said Pradeep Kumar T, president of product engineering and chief technology officer, Daimler India Commercial Vehicles.

Following extensive testing, both on tracks and public roads, Daimler's Mercedes-Benz GenH2 trucks are now approaching the customer deployment phase. "We are currently evaluating customer readiness, infrastructure availability, and local operating conditions to ensure that when our hydrogen trucks enter Indian roads, it will be with full commitment to the quality, safety and reliability that define Daimler Truck worldwide," he added.

The central government, too, is ramping up its hydrogen play. Through the Ministry of New and Renewable Energy, five pilot projects have been allocated to a group of private players — Tata Motors, RIL, NTPC, Ashok Leyland, Hindustan Petroleum Corporation Ltd, Bharat Petroleum Corporation Ltd, and Indian Oil Corporation Ltd. Together, these projects will put 37 hydrogen-powered vehicles (a mix of buses and trucks) on the road, supported by nine hydrogen-refuelling stations.

The vehicles include 15 powered by hydrogen fuel cells and 22 by hydrogen ICEs. The trials will take place on 10 routes across the country — from Delhi to Thiruvananthapuram. Launched in January 2023, the National Green Hydrogen Mission has an allocated budget of ₹19,744 crore through to the end of the decade.

It is the centrepiece of India's push towards becoming aatmanirbhar (self-reliant) in clean energy and serving as an inspiration for the global clean energy transition.

J&K on the right track

Refer to 'Reviving J&K tourism'; the tourism industry in Kashmir has been hit badly following the Pahalgam massacre that led to immense fear in the minds of prospective tourists. Many livelihoods in the Valley have been impacted adversely. The Centre's decision to reopen important tourist spots in a phased manner is a good initiative towards the revival of tourism. However, the Centre and the state government will have to bear the heavy burden of ensuring their safety. The infra push in J&K has made it clear to the hostile neighbour that its nefarious designs are not going to work anymore. The people of J&K have already expressed their support to the Centre by condemning the Pahalgam act vociferously. The PM, too, has rightly sent a very stern message to Pakistan that the unhindered era of progress in J&K will not stop.

Wake-up call for aviation industry

Refer to 'After the crash', the Ahmedabad air disaster should serve as a wake-up call and must draw attention to the structural problems that afflict India's aviation sector. With the Air India group being a dominant player in the market, it must live up to the expectations of the teeming millions who criss-cross the globe using its aircraft. It may take months before the causes of the Ahmedabad crash come to the fore, but all the airlines must act with due diligence and transparency in maintaining their aircraft and training their manpower, leaving no scope for a mishap.

SK SINGH, BY MAIL

Human concerns more important

Apropos of 'After the crash'; the editorial brings to the fore the need for a focus on safety standards. There is a rat race and undue emphasis on economic growth and less concern for human aspects. Business interests have become so important that all other values seem to have become subservient to it. Manufacturers, service providers and pilots — everybody plays an important role in safe and secure air travel which brooks no error of judgement at any level. The AI-171 crash is a huge tragedy which must be considered as a wake-up call for ensuring the highest standards wherever human safety and security are concerned.

JAGVINDER SINGH BRAR, PATIALA

No sign of end to hostilities

The escalating tensions between Israel and Iran have again raised serious concerns for the whole world. Both Tel Aviv and Tehran are attacking each other's assets and critical infrastructure with missiles, drones and other weapons. The extent of outright hostilities is seeing no sign of ebbing and will have a cascading impact on geopolitics. Israel is bent on the annihilation of Iran and Palestine. It is important for Israel to understand the relevance of global peace. For India, the priority should be to safely evacuate Indian nationals stuck in the war zone. From the diplomatic point of view, New Delhi needs to be highly vigilant, as India's strategic interests lie in Iran as well as Israel.

KIRTI WADHAWAN, KANPUR

Get rid of freebie culture

When elections are around the corner, political parties often begin offering freebies to attract voters. These promises, which entice the common man, can become a heavy burden on the exchequer. Instead, the focus should be on job creation and sustainable development. Generating employment opportunities will keep the youth engaged and keep them away from crime. It's time to bid farewell to the culture of freebies and promote responsible governance and an empowered citizenry. To curb this dangerous trend, the Election Commission must enforce strict regulations.

BANSI RAM, HOSHIARPUR

Promote generic medicines

The middle class and the poor are forced to buy branded medicines at exorbitant prices because our pharmacies do not sell generic medicines. The government, doctors and the healthcare industry must actively promote generic drugs through public awareness campaigns, advertisements and inclusion of generic medicines in prescriptions. This would lead to significant savings in healthcare costs and improve access to essential treatment.

Man who dodged AI 171 crash boards AI 159 with prayers

With Fear And Hope, 200-Plus Passengers Get Onboard Renamed A'bad-Gatwick Flight

Niyati.Parikh@timesofindia.com

Ahmedabad: Just four days after cheating death, Jayesh Ramji stood quietly at Gate 4 of Terminal 2 of SVPI airport, hands clasped tightly around his bag. A shop assistant in London, the 34-year-old was supposed to be on AI 171: the Air India flight that crashed shortly after take-off from Ahmedabad on June 12, killing 241 of the 242 passengers and crew on board along with many others on the ground. A last-minute change to stay with his ailing mother saved his life.

On Monday, he stood at the airport again, about to board AI 159 — the renumbered version of the same Ahmedabad-Gatwick flight. Ramji, originally from Diu and living in London for the past seven years, said: "I pushed my travel to June 16 as my mother was unwell. Now, I just hope to get home safe." He wasn't alone in carrying quiet fear. The terminal was quieter than usual, with families clinging a little tighter, goodbyes turning a little longer. Everyone knew the significance of this flight: same city, same sky, but with prayers for a different outcome.

The flight, scheduled to depart at 1.10pm, was delayed by over three hours and eventually departed at 4.30pm.

In line was Raas Mishra, 28, who works with the operations team of a logistics firm in London. His parents had hugged him goodbye; their eyes moist with tears. "They were scared. I am nervous too, but I have flown Air India before and while the ride is not always the most comfortable, I trust their pilots," Mishra told TOI.

The flight, scheduled to depart at 1.10pm, was delayed and eventually departed at 4.30pm

For 72-year-old Kokila Patel of Patan, the delay brought emotional exhaustion. Her original flight was scheduled for June 14, but it was cancelled after the tragedy. "My son said I should book another airline. But I'd already confirmed June 16 when Air India called me," she said. "I trust God and the airline. I want to go back, not stay scared forever."

Her older sister, Pushpa Patel, 75, who came to see her off, looked worried. "I begged her to change the airline, but she wouldn't listen," she said.

Meanwhile, 21-year-old Sabina Qasmani from Veraval was heading back to the UK to join her father and siblings. Her mother, Ameena, remained anxious. "Since the crash, I have not been able to sleep. She is flying the same route."

For Riddhi, another young woman heading to her husband in the UK after visiting family in Ahmedabad, the moment was bittersweet. "This is my second trip after getting married. I was happy being with my family, but I just want to get back safely to him now."

Despite the weight of recent memories, there was a quiet strength in the air. At the boarding gate, passengers glanced skyward and whispered prayers. And when AI159 finally lifted off, every passenger carried one common wish: that the flight would be just another flight, and not a headline.

Miracles Are Beyond Causality And Human Knowledge

Vijay Hashia

Miracle, also known as 'chamatkar', is a complex phenomenon beyond human understanding in relation to causality and human knowledge. In philosophy and theology, it is often debated and generally understood as an event that defies natural laws or exceeds known powers of nature.

The survival of lone passenger, Vishwash Kumar Ramesh, in the recent Air India plane tragedy that took 241 lives, is a miracle. The survivor revealed, "I opened my eyes, unfastened seat belt, escaped through a small space on my left and walked up to an ambulance...don't know how I survived?"

A 10-minute delay due to a traffic jam made Bhoomi Chauhan miss the flight from Ahmedabad to London. She believed that the delay and missed flight were due to divine intervention and considers her survival a miracle.

Such tales defy or interrupt the standard chain of cause and effect that one typically expects in such a catastrophic event. It is a moment when the ordinary flow of events diverges and cannot be explained by physical factors or statistical probability. The incident compels one to ask a much deeper question: Is a miracle something entirely unknown and beyond the perception of the human mind?

The human mind, conditioned by habit, empirical observation, and specific situations, typically interprets events within a framework of cause and effect. However, the causal framework does not account for such an anomaly in catastrophic events where a lone survivor has emerged unscathed against all odds. Lone survivors: Juliane Koepcke (Dec 24, 1971), Vesna Vulovic (Jan 26, 1972), Cecelia Cichan (Aug 16, 1987), Bahia Bakari (June 30, 2009), Ruben Van Assouw (May 12, 2010), and now Vishwash Kumar Ramesh (June 12, 2025), underline limits of human knowledge and understanding pointing towards a hidden depth of reality yet to be fully comprehended by humans.

Philosophers have different perspectives. For example, Spinoza insists that nature operates according to eternal universal laws, a deterministic system. To him, 'miracle' would violate these natural laws, which is impossible because God and nature are the same – Deus sive Natura. David Hume is sceptical and views 'miracles' as improbable, irrational or unknowable. However, Thomas Aquinas and Leibniz have different perspectives and view 'miracle' as a purposeful intervention by a higher principle, a manifestation of God's will.

This point is in accordance with traditional Hinduism, which views the universe not as a closed, mechanical system but as an expression of Brahmn, the ultimate reality. Naturally, the will of this Supreme principle can interrupt ordinary causality to produce what we call a chamatkar – an improbable event. Therefore, surviving a serious accident is a blessing in the ordinary sense.

Such phenomena consider the possibility of hidden causal orders, subtler than physical laws, which govern extraordinary events. The survival of the lone individual against all odds may be a manifestation of these hidden dimensions. This resonates that the ordinary world we experience is only a surface phenomenon, a visible ripple, while the true depth of reality lies in a more unified whole. Miracles, therefore, are not violations of nature but revelations of their greater potential than the physical, measurable world. Here, the Supreme principle can interrupt ordinary causality to produce a wonder beyond human knowledge and causal explanations.

वृत्तसंस्था, नवी दिल्ली

अहमदाबादला झालेल्या एअर इंडियाच्या ड्रीमलायनर विमानाच्या अपघाताला चार दिवस उलटत नाहीत, तोच ड्रीमलायनर विमानांत तांत्रिक बिघाड झाल्याच्या दोन घटना समोर आल्या. लंडनहून चेन्नईला जाणारे ब्रिटिश एअरवेजचे बोईंग ड्रीमलायनर विमान रविवारी रात्री तांत्रिक बिघाडामुळे लंडनला परतले. तर हाँगकाँगहून दिल्लीला येण्यासाठी निघालेल्या एअर इंडियाच्या बोईंग ७८७-८ ड्रीमलायनर या प्रवासी विमानाने सोमवारी उड्डाण केल्यानंतर त्यात तांत्रिक बिघाड झाल्याचा संशय प्रमुख वैमानिकाला आला. त्यामुळे हे विमान उड्डाणानंतर तासाभरातच पुन्हा हाँगकाँगला परतले.

एअर इंडियाच्या 'एआय ३१५' या विमानाने हाँगकाँग विमानतळावर सुरक्षित लँडिंग केल्यानंतर सर्व प्रवाशांना तत्काळ विमानाबाहेर काढण्यात आले. त्यानंतर संपूर्ण

To collate final toll, police turn to all missing cases filed in city on June 12

MOHAMED THAVER
AHMEDABAD, JUNE 16

POLICE HAVE collated all the missing persons complaints registered at stations across Ahmedabad on June 12 as they attempt to put together a final tally of people on the ground who died in the Air India crash.

While the death toll of people on the plane is known to be 241, nine DNA samples have been collected so far from the crash site and around it.

Police, however, believe there may have been more people around the BJ Medical College hostel in Meghaninagar — like those at a nearby tea stall — who may have been killed.

A senior police officer told The Indian Express that CCTV cameras that could potentially have helped them locate such people were destroyed in the crash. "While students at the hostel have been accounted for, we fear some who were passing by the hostel, or having tea at a tea stall nearby may have been a victim of the crash," the officer said, requesting anonymity.

Looking for leads, police turned to missing persons cases.

"If anyone who went missing on June 12 has not reached home, we will probe the complaint closely to rule out unrelated cases. In this manner we are hoping to zero in on missing cases linked to the crash following which we may take DNA samples from family members to match with those found from the site," the officer said

On why the scope has been widened to the entire city and not nearby police stations such as Meghaninagar and Naroda, the officer said that they may have come to the area without the knowledge of family members. "We want to rule out all possibilities," the officer said.

Among those missing are Sarlaben Thakor, a cook at the hostel mess, her granddaughter Adyaravi, music video director Mahesh Kalawadia and IT student Arshdeep Banga.

Missing persons complaints of Thakor, Adyaravi and Banga were registered with the Meghaninagar police station; Kalawadia's was registered with the Naroda police station.

DNA samples of the family members of the missing persons have been sent for checking with the DNA samples extracted from the remains found at the hostel.

Sarlaben's son, Ravi Thakor, has been trying to locate his mother and daughter. Along with his mother, he and his wife cooked meals at the mess.

Kalawadia's younger brother Kartik and his wife Hetal have been doing the rounds of hospitals but have so far not been able to trace him. Mahesh spoke to his wife at around 1.10 pm on June 12 and headed to his residence on his scooter. At around 1.40 pm, however, his phone switched off around the crash area. Even his two-wheeler has not been found.

Banga was passing by the mess on his bike around the time of the crash.

Air crash in the hills

Review heli services on Char Dham route

THE helicopter crash that killed all seven persons on board in Uttarakhand on June 15 was avoidable, had the authorities gone beyond piecemeal measures in response to the telltale warning signs. Four incidents in four weeks — one fatal crash that claimed six lives and three cases of emergency landing — had made it obvious that travelling by air on the Char Dham Yatra route was hazardous. Chief Minister Pushkar Singh Dhami told heli service operators on June 11 that any compromise with safety standards would not be tolerated; he also ordered an audit of recent helicopter accidents to prevent their recurrence. The Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA), the nation's aviation safety regulator, was in the thick of things as well. On June 9, it ordered special audits and enhanced surveillance of helicopter operators providing shuttle and charter services during the ongoing yatra. Surely nothing could go wrong amid such intense scrutiny, but it did.

It was crystal clear that course correction would not happen overnight, yet the chopper operations were only scaled down, not suspended, before the latest mishap. This was a recipe for disaster, especially when the visibility was poor, and the inevitable happened — a helicopter carrying pilgrims from the Kedarnath shrine fell in a forest.

Greater caution should have been exercised not only in the wake of previous local incidents but also last week's colossal air tragedy in Ahmedabad. However, it was treated as a routine chopper flight, and even the adverse weather conditions were not taken seriously. Going forward, the state government and the DGCA need to do a holistic review of the heli services. Enhancing aerial connectivity in hilly areas is a good initiative, but compromising the safety of passengers threatens to defeat its purpose.

AI 171 flies again as AI 159: Among passengers, man who skipped tragic flight

Niyati.Parikh@timesofindia.com

Ahmedabad: First flights are all about nervous excitement, but this one was always going to be different.

AI 159 from Ahmedabad to London Gatwick – the first on that route since the June 12 Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner crash, renumbered from AI 171– took off Monday on the sombre wings of remembrance and prayer, ferrying at least one passenger who might have been on the crashed aircraft four days earlier had his mother not taken ill suddenly.

▶Crashed plane's insurance hiked by ₹100cr in April, P 10

Jayesh Ramji was approaching Gate 4 of Terminal 2, tightly clasping his cabin bag, when his mind raced back through the surreal last few days of his trip to India. "I was to return on AI 171. I postponed my travel to June 16 because my mother was unwell. All I want is to get back home safe," said the 34-year-old London shop assistant with roots in Diu.

'I trust God & AI. I want to go back, not stay scared forever'

Passenger Jayesh Ramji wasn't the only face betraying more than a trace of emotion ahead of renumbered flight AI 159's 4.30pm departure, over three hours later than scheduled. The terminal was seemingly quieter than usual, with families clinging a little tighter, and goodbyes lasting a tad longer.

Raas Mishra, 28, had just said goodbye to his teary-eyed parents. "They were scared. I am a tad nervous, too, but I have flown Air India before. I trust their pilots," said the young man, employed with a logistics firm in London.

For 72-year-old Kokila Patel of Patan, the announcement of a delay — the Dreamliner was to take off at 1.10pm — added to what she described as "emotional exhaustion". She was scheduled to fly out on June 14, but the flight was cancelled after the crash two days earlier.

US officials and the officials of the Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau arrive to inspect the crash site in Ahmedabad on Monday

"My son said I should book another airline. But I had already confirmed my travel on June 16 with Air India by then," she said. "I trust God and the airline. I want to go back, not stay scared forever."

Her elder sister Pushpa, 75, said she had "begged" her sibling to change the airline, "but she wouldn't listen".

Sabina Qasmani, 21, from Veraval was heading back to the UK to join her father and siblings. Her mother, Ameena, admitted she would be anxious until she received a call from London that her daughter had reached safely. "Since the crash, I haven't been able to sleep. Sabina is flying the same route. It's hard not to worry," she said.

For Riddhi, a young married woman returning to the UK after visiting her family in Ahmedabad, the journey was about managing mixed emotions. "This is my second trip home since getting married. I was happy being with my family, but I now want to get back safely to my husband."

AI Dreamliner returns to Hong Kong due to 'technical issue'

An AI Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner plane bound for Delhi returned to its origin of Hong Kong shortly after takeoff Monday as a precautionary measure following a technical issue. The same type of Boeing aircraft had crashed in Ahmedabad last week. Air India said in a statement that flight AI 315 returned to Hong Kong because of "a technical issue", without giving more details. The airline said the flight landed safely and was undergoing checks "as a matter of abundant precaution". REUTERS

हवा में उठते ही गोता खा गया विमान, दहशत में आए यात्री

इंडिगो की फ्लाइट 6ई 6811 गोवा से दिन में 03:40 बजे उड़ान भरने के बाद लखनऊ में शाम 6:15 बजे उतरती है। सोमवार को इसने करीब आठ मिनट की देरी से 03:48 बजे उड़ान भरी। विमान में सवार जॉली खान ने सोशल मीडिया पर घटना को साझा करते हुए लिखा कि विमान ने जैसे ही टेकऑफ किया, वह अचानक से नीचे आ गया। ऐसे में विमान में बैठे यात्री दहशत में आ गए। पायलट ने तत्काल ही स्थिति संभाल ली। इसके बाद भी यात्री सवाल करते रहे कि आखिर किसकी गलती है।

विमान के पहियों से उठा धुआं, रिपोर्ट तलब

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

NEW DELHI, JUNE 16

A high-level committee constituted by the Centre to probe the Ahmedabad plane crash held its first meeting on Monday and considered various theories that might have caused the mishap. It also deliberated on formulating rules that may help prevent such incidents in future.

The panel, which is headed by Union Home Secretary Govind Mohan, heard the views of various stakeholders about the possible causes and the remedial steps, said sources. A separate investigation is being conducted by the Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB), which is looking into the technical aspects of the crash. Civil Aviation Minister K Rammohan Naidu had said on Saturday that while the AAIB investigation

Refer to 'Reviving J&K tourism'; the tourism industry in Kashmir has been hit badly following the Pahalgam massacre that led to immense fear in the minds of prospective tourists. Many livelihoods in the Valley have been impacted adversely. The Centre's decision to reopen important tourist spots in a phased manner is a good initiative towards the revival of tourism. However, the Centre and the state government will have to bear the heavy burden of ensuring their safety. The infra push in J&K has made it clear to the hostile neighbour that its nefarious designs are not going to work anymore. The people of J&K have already expressed their support to the Centre by condemning the Pahalgam act vociferously. The PM, too, has rightly sent a very stern message to Pakistan that the unhindered era of progress in J&K will not stop.

RAVI SHARMA, DHARIWAL

Wake-up call for aviation industry

Refer to 'After the crash', the Ahmedabad air disaster should serve as a wake-up call and must draw attention to the structural problems that afflict India's aviation sector. With the Air India group being a dominant player in the market, it must live up to the expectations of the teeming millions who criss-cross the globe using its aircraft. It may take months before the causes of the Ahmedabad crash come to the fore, but all the airlines must act with due diligence and transparency in maintaining their aircraft and training their manpower, leaving no scope for a mishap.

SK SINGH, BY MAIL

Human concerns more important

Apropos of 'After the crash'; the editorial brings to the fore the need for a focus on safety standards. There is a rat race and undue emphasis on economic growth and less concern for human aspects. Business interests have become so important that all other values seem to have become subservient to it. Manufacturers, service providers and pilots — everybody plays an important role in safe and secure air travel which brooks no error of judgement at any level. The AI-171 crash is a huge tragedy which must be considered as a wake-up call for ensuring the highest standards wherever human safety and security are concerned.

JAGVINDER SINGH BRAR, PATIALA

No sign of end to hostilities

The escalating tensions between Israel and Iran have again raised serious concerns for the whole world. Both Tel Aviv and Tehran are attacking each other's assets and critical infrastructure with missiles, drones and other weapons. The extent of outright hostilities is seeing no sign of ebbing and will have a cascading impact on geopolitics. Israel is bent on the annihilation of Iran and Palestine. It is important for Israel to understand the relevance of global peace. For India, the priority should be to safely evacuate Indian nationals stuck in the war zone. From the diplomatic point of view, New Delhi needs to be highly vigilant, as India's strategic interests lie in Iran as well as Israel.

KIRTI WADHAWAN, KANPUR

Get rid of freebie culture

When elections are around the corner, political parties often begin offering freebies to attract voters. These promises, which entice the common man, can become a heavy burden on the exchequer. Instead, the focus should be on job creation and sustainable development. Generating employment opportunities will keep the youth engaged and keep them away from crime. It's time to bid farewell to the culture of freebies and promote responsible governance and an empowered citizenry. To curb this dangerous trend, the Election Commission must enforce strict regulations.

BANSI RAM, HOSHIARPUR

Promote generic medicines

The middle class and the poor are forced to buy branded medicines at exorbitant prices because our pharmacies do not sell generic medicines. The government, doctors and the healthcare industry must actively promote generic drugs through public awareness campaigns, advertisements and inclusion of generic medicines in prescriptions. This would lead to significant savings in healthcare costs and improve access to essential treatment.

McKinsey likely to aid Air India overhaul

GEORGE MATHEW
MUMBAI, JUNE 16

A top Tata Sons official met a senior partner of McKinsey in Mumbai last week to discuss a revival strategy for the carrier, according to a source

THE TATA group is exploring the possibility of a major revamp of Air India. The group is reportedly in discussions with global consulting firm McKinsey & Company to lead a comprehensive overhaul of the airline, which is currently grappling with one of the most severe crises in its recent history.

A top Tata Sons official met a senior partner of McKinsey in Mumbai last week to discuss a revival strategy for the carrier, according to a source. The meeting took place just days after a London-bound Air India Boeing Dreamliner crashed shortly after takeoff from Ahmedabad, claiming the lives of 241 passengers and crew. Only one passenger survived the crash.

"While we do not comment on or publicly discuss details of any client work, it would be inaccurate to report that McKinsey is currently serving the Tata group on a transformation project for Air India," McKinsey & Company said in a statement to The Indian Express.

However, when contacted, a Tata group official did not comment on the issue.

This isn't McKinsey's first engagement with the consulting firm. Its relationship with Air India started almost eight years ago. In 2017, Air India selected McKinsey to help develop its long-term strategic business plan — especially on cash-flow, route networks, marketing strategies and updating its loyalty program.

Watson Farley & Williams (WFW) advised multiple parties on the historic merger of Tata SIA Airlines Ltd (Vistara) with Air India, creating a unified full-service airline under the Air India brand. This followed the merger of Air India group's low-cost airlines Air India Express and AIX Connect earlier.

The combined entity is now the largest international carrier with more than 90 destinations worldwide and the second largest domestic carrier. The Indian aviation market is the third largest in the world and is one of the fastest growing.

Founded in 1932, Air India is a pioneer of India's aviation sector and has developed an extensive global network, becoming a major international carrier. The consolidation of the four Tata-owned airlines into one group is part of Air India's ongoing, five-year transformation program, Vihaan.AI which is focussed on establishing Air India Group as a world-class aviation company.

Air India reported a lower loss of Rs 4,444.10 crore for FY24, a significant decrease of 60 per cent compared to the Rs 11,388 crore loss in FY23. The airline's turnover also increased by 23.69 per cent to Rs 38,812 crore during the same period.

The Dreamliner crash has cast a spotlight on the Tata group's efforts to turn around the airline, which it acquired from the Indian government in 2022 with the goal of restoring its performance and reputation. FULL REPORT ON www.indianexpress.com

PRACHI PISAL
Mumbai, 16 June

Data centres are increasingly becoming a key part of the real estate landscape, as reality firms — with rich expertise in land acquisition, construction and dealing with government approvals — are seeing them as opportunities to build long-term assets with continuous revenue flow.

Anant Raj, Lodha, L&T Realty, DLF, Panchshil Realty, Rustomjee, Hiranandani Group, Mindspace Reit and many more realty firms are seeing data centres as "future-proof assets" with long-term returns.

While some have been in the segment that is promising nearly 20 per cent returns on investment, more players are getting into this space as they diversify their portfolios amid a sharp upside in demand for data centres, stemming largely from global capacity centres and industry's quickened AI adoption.

"While our core strength lies in real estate development, we see data centres not only as a complementary extension of our capabilities but also as a transformative business opportunity aligned with the country's accelerating digital evolution," said Amit Sarin, managing director, Anant Raj.

Sarin's firm is targeting the development of 307 Mw of capacity across its three campuses, with an investment commitment of over ₹10,000 crore over the next four-five years.

The industry experts believe that the developers are leveraging their expertise in land acquisition, construction, dealing with government approvals, and maintaining tenant relationships.

"Real estate developers with experience in developing commercial buildings see a natural synergy for skills such as land acquisition, obtaining government permits, construction and development, and sourcing infrastructure such as fibre and power (including green power). Further, with their vast tenant relationships, they are able to tap into these networks to address such companies' data centres needs through diversification," said Devi Shankar, executive director, industrial, logistics & data centres, Anarock Capital.

Developers	Data centre services provider/Partner	Total investment amount
Adani Realty	EdgeConneX	$10 bn
Lodha Group	Amazon Web Services	$8.2 bn
Panchshil Realty	Blackstone	$2.4 bn

Source: Grant Thornton Bharat

According to Colliers India, India's data centres capacity as of April 2025 is about 1,263 Mw with 15.9 million square feet (msf) of real estate engaged.

India's data centre capacity is set to cross 4,500 Mw by 2030, as $20-25 billion of future investments are likely to materialise, with a real estate footprint of 55 msf.

"With the rise of AI and cloud adoption, especially by global tech firms, data centres are becoming a key part of the real estate landscape," said Ramesh Nair, CEO and MD, Mindspace Reit— the only Indian Reit with a data centre portfolio.

"The post-Covid shift to hybrid work, alongside the boom in edtech, e-commerce, and digital banking, has fuelled a surge in data consumption and storage needs. In response, major domestic and international players are investing heavily in building both hyper-scale and edge data centres across the country," Shabala Shinde, partner and real estate industry leader, Grant Thornton Bharat, said.

The developers view DCs as assets that can give stable and long-term returns amid increasing usage of data, better 5G penetration, and data storage requirements.

Mumbai-based developer Niranjan Hiranandani, managing director, Hiranandani Group, said, "The rationale behind this move is multifaceted: we view data centres as future-proof assets offering stable, long-term returns, supported by the exponential rise in data consumption, accelerated adoption of cloud services, and deepening digital penetration."

Hiranandani noted that while it is a capex-heavy business, the returns are both feasible and favourable.

What gadgets of doomed aircraft never record

Kannan.Somasundaram@timesofindia.com

As the Air India flight taxied on the Ahmedabad runway, the jet would have gargled fuel to clear its throat, reminders to keep the seat belt fastened would have sounded like familiar chants in the pressurised cabin, a few passengers would have whispered their customary travel prayers, some would have argued that Heathrow offers better connectivity to central London than Gatwick, somebody would have recalled their last flight to Heathrow from Delhi and wondered if the Thames would appear on the Gatwick route.

The etiquette-conscious would have deliberated on the correct response to 'how do you do?' in UK, some would have joked that Brits wouldn't mind if people said 'how're ya doin'?' to the King as long as they had waited British-ly in a queue to address the monarch, some laughter would have strummed seat belts when those averse to culinary adventures relished with desi glee the prospect of ordering cholay-bhature in the former Raj HQ.

A first-time visitor to London would have shown explorational savvy and proclaimed that London Bridge has 'cliché' splashed all over it like betel-leaf stains and Charles Dickens Museum is the place for sophisticates, their seat neighbour would have commented that Delhi taxiwallahs' directional acumen is just as legendary as London's Black Cab drivers', some passengers would have started a battle of wills with time itself to hug their loved ones sooner than determined by the mundane arrival schedule, a few would have gone back in time to worry about not switching off all their home lights.

And then as the jet engine's gargling began smoothing into the war cry of human ingenuity against gravity, even some frequent fliers would have looked out of their windows to marvel at the audacity of a toothpaste-tube-shaped machine to rescue hundreds of people at once from the solidity of routines, passengers would likely not have known that the plane was losing altitude, would probably not have realised that the pilots were overriding instinctual fear with professional focus, the pilots would have been using the muscle of their conscience to strengthen their trained hands to do everything they could to save the passengers in their care and save the metrics that make us all human: love, ambition, excitement, and the faith in ourselves to plan for the next day. Black boxes don't record those metrics.

Tata chief: Need to use crash as 'act of force' to build a safer A-I

NEW DELHI, JUNE 16

TATA GROUP and Air India chairman N Chandrasekaran on Monday asked the airline's employees to stay strong and use last week's crash of the airline's Boeing 787-8 aircraft in Ahmedabad as "an act of force to build a safer airline", according to sources in the know. Chandrasekaran also told Air India employees that while the reasons behind the crash will be known only once the investigation is complete, they should "stay the course" and not put their "shoulders down" in the face of criticism.

Chandrasekaran addressed around 700 Air India employees and its leadership team on Monday at the company headquarters and its training academy in Gurugram. According to sources, he later met Civil Aviation Minister K Ram Mohan Naidu at the Ministry of Civil Aviation (MoCA) in the Capital, and held discussions.

"Criticisms are there, and those of us who are very passionate...who are working on making this airline a great airline, and who genuinely care about what kind of a company we want to build, but it's not easy to face criticisms. I want you to be strong. If you feel distraught, the word you should remember is determination. We are going to get through this. We need to show resilience. We need to use this incident an act of force to build a safer airline," Chandrasekaran is learnt to have said.

According to sources, the Tata group chairman told Air India staff that the Ahemdabad air crash is the "most heartbreaking crisis" he has seen in his career. All but one of the 242 people on board the doomed aircraft perished in Thursday's crash. There were a number of casualties on the ground as well. The accidents was the worst aviation disaster involving an Indian carrier in four decades. It is also the first crash of the Boeing 787 globally.

"I went to the site on that day...it was not easy at all. I know many of you here in this room are part of the emergency response team, may be even at the site or were handling all the shocks of that day...Whatever I say and whatever we do is not going to bring the lives back. Those affected, they're going to feel the pain for a very long time. But having said that, we have got to do our very best humanly possible to help each of them," Chandrasekaran said, according to sources.

"It's a very complex business...it's a complex machine, so a lot of redundancies, checks and balances, certifications, which have been perfected over years and years. Yet this happens, so we will figure out why it happens after the investigation. So we just have to stay calm and not put your shoulders down. This is the time to be brave, time to be resolute, time to know that you have the full support," he is learnt to have told employees. FULL REPORT ON www.indianexpress.com

'We saw man coming out of gate... didn't know he was a passenger'

BRENDAN DABHI
AHMEDABAD, JUNE 16

LIKE THE students in the BJ Medical College hostel, Satinder Singh Sandhu was having lunch with fellow paramedics at the local GVK-EMRI ambulance office inside the 1,200-bed hospital at Medicity in Ahmedabad on June 12 when he heard a massive explosion.

Running outside, he saw a man coming out of the hostel building's gate as a massive fire raged behind him. This man was 39-year-old Viswashkumar Ramesh, the lone survivor of the London-bound Air India flight that crashed into the hostel building soon after taking off from the Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport in Ahmedabad.

Sandhu took Ramesh's hand and guided him away from the site. A video of this has since been widely shared.

"I asked my team to deploy ambulances immediately while I rushed to the spot. When I got there, I realised this was a major incident. I called my head office and asked them to inform the police and send more ambulances. Meanwhile, five ambulances under my command reached the site," Sandhu said.

The 44-year-old has been

with the GVK-EMRI emergency ambulance service for a decade, and is a supervisor who controls 20 of the 120 ambulances in the city.

"I first saw the watchman of the hostel injured on the road. We picked him up and dispatched him in one of the ambulances. Then, we saw one man coming out of the gate next to the burning hostel building. I approached him, but he suddenly turned around and began walking back to the crash site," Sandhu told The Indian Express, referring to Ramesh.

Sandhu said Ramesh initially resisted attempts to take him away from the site, repeatedly saying that his family member was burning in the fire.

"We thought it must be a family member inside the hostel building. We didn't know at that time that he was a passenger who had come out of the burning aircraft," said Sandhu, adding, "We finally managed to calm him down a little, seat him in one of the ambulances and send him to the hospital. He had injuries on his face, hands and legs. He had burn marks across his body, but he was able to walk with a slight limp."

It was en route to the hospital that Ramesh told paramedics he had been on the aircraft that had just crashed. He said he and his brother were going home to the UK and that he had been seated next to the emergency exit, in seat 11A. However, he did not know how he managed to exit the crashed aircraft.

Sandhu said Ramesh was in a state of shock and confusion after his ordeal. His mind was still fixed on a singular point — saving his younger brother, Ajay, from the burning plane.

Ajay was among the 241 people on board flight AI-171, and several others on the ground, to die in the crash. The Boeing 787 Dreamliner was carrying a total of 242 people.

Ramesh and his brother, who were originally from the Union Territory of Diu, were British nationals settled with their families in Leicester, England.

Sandhu said he and his fleet of ambulances were on the site of the crash by 1.41 pm, just three minutes after the crash that took place at 1.38 pm.

A firefighting team also arrived soon after and started the task of dousing the flames. It was when the heavy soot-laden smoke cleared that paramedics saw charred bodies of men, women and children strewn on the ground. There were also bodies inside the medical college hostel compound.

Sandhu was among the first to rush into the building to try and save anyone stuck in the rubble or stranded by the fire. He said he had no count of how many people his team managed to rescue from the hostel premises and the road in front of it, but estimated that it must have been at least 20-25.

Originally from Thaluh village in Punjab's Rupnagar district, Sandhu has lived in Gujarat since 1992.

Air India Dreamliner returns to Hong Kong mid-air due to suspected tech issue

MPOST BUREAU

MUMBAI: An Air India Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner en route to New Delhi was forced to return to Hong Kong on Monday, less than an hour after departure, due to a suspected technical problem, the airline confirmed. Flight AI315 took off from Hong Kong International Airport at 12:16 pm local time but soon turned back after the pilot in command reported a potential issue. The aircraft landed safely around 1:15 pm and all passengers disembarked without incident.

"AI315 operating from Hong Kong to Delhi on 16 June 2025 returned to Hong Kong shortly after takeoff due to a technical issue," Air India said in a statement.

Air India

"The flight landed safely at Hong Kong and is undergoing checks as a matter of abundant precaution."

The carrier said it was making alternative arrangements to transport the passengers to Delhi. "We are providing all necessary on-ground assistance to the passengers to minimise the inconvenience caused by this unforeseen disruption," the airline added.

The Airport Authority Hong Kong confirmed the incident. "A passenger flight, AI315, operated by Air India from Hong Kong to New Delhi made a return to Hong Kong International Airport and requested local standby around 1 pm. The flight landed safely at 1.15 pm. Airport operations were not affected," a spokesperson stated.

The aircraft had originally been scheduled to depart at 8:50 am but faced a delay of over three hours before taking off, according to data from Flightradar24.

The incident occurred just a day after a similar mid-air turnaround involving a British Airways Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner. Flight BA35 to Chennai returned to London Heathrow nearly two hours into its journey due to a technical fault. The aircraft, which departed at 1:16 pm after a delay, landed safely and all passengers were deplaned normally.

As of 2025, Air India operates 33 Boeing 787 aircraft, making it India's largest operator of the widebody Dreamliner jet. Currently, only Air India and IndiGo deploy this aircraft type on international routes.

Crashed AI plane's insurance was hiked by ₹100cr in April

This Followed An Engine Replacement

Kolkata: Air India had raised insurance cover on the Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner that crashed in Ahmedabad from ₹750 crore to ₹850 crore during its April policy renewal following an engine replacement, sources said on Monday. Total claims from the June 12 crash are expected to exceed ₹1,500 crore.

Indian insurers led by Tata AIG will absorb only ₹100-150 crore of the financial hit, having ceded more than 90% of the risk to global reinsurers in London and Bermuda markets, including AIG and AXA XL.

The aircraft was part of a fleet-wide aviation cover worth ₹8,000-₹10,000 crore, for which Air India paid an annual premium of about ₹250 crore.

Home minister Amit Shah pays his last respects to former Gujarat CM Vijay Rupani, who lost his life in the AI 171 crash, in Rajkot on Monday

The crash of AI Flight 171 to London is set to trigger compensation under the Montreal Convention, entitling families of deceased passengers to around ₹1.8 crore each. With 241 onboard deaths — passengers and crew — liabilities under this clause alone could cross ₹420 crore. There will be additional third-party claims as the accident also killed more than 30 people on the ground and destroyed parts of a medical college hostel, experts said.

The Dreamliner — about 11.5 years old, and operated by Air India since Jan 2014 — has been declared a total loss. The hull claim alone is pegged at ₹850 crore, based on the aircraft's age-adjusted insured value.

The Ahmedabad accident is the first major crash of a wide-body aircraft in Asia in recent years and is expected to tighten the global aviation insurance market for regional carriers operating large jets.

Domestic insurers retaining only 7.5-10% of exposure include Tata AIG, GIC Re, United India, Oriental Insurance, National Insurance, and ICICI Lombard. Reinsurers are expected to bear the brunt of payouts.

In a June 14 circular, Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority (IRDA) directed insurers to expedite settlements under life and accident policies and waive documentation requirements such as FIRs and autopsy reports. Nodal officers are to be appointed to streamline claims, with weekly updates mandated from June 16.

काँग्रेसचा जातीय जनगणेवरून आरोप; सायप्रस दौरा, अहमदाबाद अपघातावरून टीका

अदाणींवर साधला निशाणा

■ जेव्हा विमान वाहतूक सुरक्षा, तपासणी, नियमन आणि ऑपरेशन्सशी संबंधित प्रमुख विभाग निम्म्याहून कमी कर्मचाऱ्यांसह काम करत आहेत, तेव्हा सुरक्षित उड्डाणे कशी सुनिश्चित केली जातील. अहमदाबादमधील विमान अपघाताच्या चौकशी अहवालाची आम्ही वाट पाहत आहोत, परंतु संसदीय समितीच्या अहवालानंतरही कारवाई न होणे ही गंभीर बाब आहे. आम्ही सरकारला यावर परिस्थिती स्पष्ट करण्याची आणि आवश्यक पावले उचलण्याची मागणी करतो.

DNA tests identify 119 victims

MPOST BUREAU

AHMEDABAD: Four days after the devastating crash of Air India flight AI-171 claimed 270 lives, authorities confirmed on Monday that the identities of 119 victims have been established through DNA matching, and the remains of 76 have been returned to their families.

The Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner, bound for London, crashed on June 12 shortly after taking off from Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport. The aircraft went down near a medical college complex in Ahmedabad, killing 241 of the 242 people on board and 29 individuals on the ground.

Among those confirmed dead is former Gujarat Chief Minister Vijay Rupani. His remains were handed over to his wife Anjali Rupani and close family members at the Ahmedabad Civil Hospital.

Authorities are continuing the painstaking process of DNA testing to confirm the identities of the deceased. Many of the bodies were severely charred or damaged in the blaze that followed the crash.

"Till Monday evening, 119 DNA samples have matched. Seventy-six bodies have been handed over to families so far," Dr. Rakesh Joshi, Medical Superintendent Continued on P6 at Ahmedabad Civil Hospital, told reporters. "The victims belonged to various regions of Gujarat and Rajasthan."

Dr. Joshi said the process of DNA profiling for the remaining victims is likely to conclude by Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning. He appealed to families waiting for confirmation to remain patient.

"Some people are anxious because results are taking time. But this is a sensitive procedure with legal consequences. As soon as we receive confirmation, we are informing the respective families," he added.

Samples were collected from 250 individuals, comprising victims on the aircraft and those killed on the ground, according to hospital authorities.

Meanwhile, the central government's high-level multi-disciplinary committee convened on Monday to deliberate on the potential causes of the country's worst aviation disaster in recent memory. Chaired by Union Home Secretary Govind Mohan, the panel reviewed initial findings and discussed strategies to prevent similar tragedies in the future.

"The committee is considering all possible angles, including mechanical failure, human error, and other operational issues," a senior government official familiar with the meeting said. "This is in addition to the ongoing technical investigation by the Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB)."

Participants in the panel's first meeting included representatives from the Ministries of Civil Aviation and Home Affairs, the Indian Air Force, the Intelligence Bureau, the Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA), Bureau of Civil Aviation Security, and the Gujarat government.

Civil Aviation Minister K Rammohan Naidu had earlier stated that while the AAIB would examine the technical aspects, the committee would focus on crafting policy measures and long-term safeguards. The committee is expected to submit its findings within three months.

The recovery of crucial flight data has added momentum to the investigation. Officials confirmed that both the Flight Data Recorder (FDR) and the Cockpit Voice Recorder (CVR) have been secured from the crash site.

"The presence of both the FDR and CVR will be essential in establishing the chain of events that led to the disaster," said an aviation official.

Dr. P K Mishra, Principal Secretary to Prime Minister Narendra Modi, was briefed on the development during his visit to the crash site on Sunday. He also met with injured victims being treated at the Civil Hospital.

In line with international protocols, the United States' National Transportation Safety Board (NTSB) has launched a parallel investigation, as the aircraft involved was manufactured by American company Boeing. Several international aviation experts, including representatives from Boeing and Air India, have been inspecting the debris at the site.

A British aviation specialist present at the scene said, "We're coordinating with Indian authorities and collecting whatever data we can. It's too early to conclude anything definitive."

The lone survivor of the crash, whose identity has not been made public, remains under medical observation. The person's testimony may offer critical insight into what transpired during the final moments before the plane went down.

Investigators continue to examine every detail — from maintenance records and air traffic control logs to pilot communications — to determine the exact sequence of events.

'सीव्हीआर'वर मदार

दुसरा 'ब्लॅक बॉक्स'ही सापडल्याने विमान दुर्घटनेचे गूढ उलगडणार

वृत्तसंस्था, अहमदाबाद

अहमदाबादजवळ कोसळलेल्या एअर इंडियाच्या विमानातील 'कॉकपीट व्हाइस रेकॉर्डर' (सीव्हीआर) असलेला दुसरा 'ब्लॅक बॉक्स'ही सापडला असून, त्यातील माहितीकडे तपास यंत्रणांचे लक्ष लागले आहे. विमानातील २४१ जणांसह एकूण २७० जणांच्या मृत्यूला कारणीभूत ठरलेल्या या विमान दुर्घटनेचे गूढ त्यातून उकलण्यास मदत होणार आहे.

विमानातील फक्त 'फ्लाइट डेटा रेकॉर्डर' (एफडीआर) सापडल्याची माहिती 'अॅक्सिडेंट इन्व्हेस्टिगेशन ब्युरो'ने (एएआयबी) आधी दिली होती. मात्र, 'कॉकपीट व्हाइस रेकॉर्डर'ही सापडल्याची माहिती तपासाधिकाऱ्यांनी दिली. विमानातील दुसरा 'ब्लॅक बॉक्स' साडपडल्याची माहिती अधिकाऱ्यांनी पंतप्रधानांचे प्रधान सचिव पी. के. मिश्रा यांना दिली आहे. मिश्रा यांनी रविवारी दुर्घटनास्थळी पाहणी केली. त्यांनी मदतकार्य, तपासाबाबत केंद्रीय आणि राज्यातील अधिकाऱ्यांची रविवारी बैठक घेतली. त्यात 'फ्लाइट डेटा रेकॉर्डर'बरोबरच 'कॉकपीट व्हाइस रेकॉर्डर'ही मिळाल्याची माहिती देण्यात आल्याचे सरकारने निवेदनात म्हटले आहे. या दुर्घटनेप्रकरणी 'एएआयबी'ने सखोल तपास सुरू केला आहे. तसेच, दुर्घटनाग्रस्त विमान अमेरिकी बनावटीचे असल्याने अमेरिकेच्या 'नॅशनल ट्रान्सपोर्टेशन सेफ्टी बोर्ड'ने समांतर तपास सुरू केला आहे. विमानातील दोन्ही 'ब्लॅक बॉक्स' सापडल्याने दुर्घटनेच्या नेमक्या कारणांचा शोध घेणे तपासाधिकाऱ्यांना सोपे ठरणार आहे.

रूपाणी यांच्या पार्थिवावर अंत्यसंस्कार

■ ९९ मृतांची ओळख पटली

■ एअर इंडियाची इम्फाळ सेवा बंद

इम्फाळ : एअर इंडियाने इम्फाळ इंटरनॅशनल एअरपोर्टवरील सेवा १५ जूनपासून बंद केली आहे. मात्र, तिथे एअर इंडिया एक्स्प्रेस या कंपनीची सेवा सुरूच राहील, असे अधिकाऱ्यांनी सांगितले. या निर्णयाचा नुकत्याच झालेल्या दुर्घटनेशी कोणताही संबंध नसून, पूर्वनियोजनानुसार हे पाऊल उचलण्यात आले आहे, असे त्यांनी स्पष्ट केले.

■ अमेरिकेकडून चौकशी

अहमदाबाद दुर्घटनेनंतर चित्रपट निर्माता बेपत्ता

शेवटचे लोकेशन फक्त ७०० मीटर अंतरावर

अहमदाबाद, नवराष्ट्र न्यूज नेटवर्क. अहमदाबाद येथे गेल्या गुरूवारी एअर इंडियाचे विमान कोसळून मोठी दुर्घटना घडली, या घटनेने संपूर्ण देश हादरला. यावेळी वल्लभभाई पटेल आंतरराष्ट्रीय विमानतळाच्या परिसरात असलेला एक चित्रपट निर्माता अचानक गूढपणे बेपत्ता झाला आहे. महेश कलावाडिया असे या व्यक्तीचे नाव असून ते नरोडा येथील रहिवासी आहेत. सध्या त्यांचा सर्वत्र शोध घेतला जात आहे. त्यांच्या कुटुंबाने अशी भीती व्यक्त केली आहे की त्यांचा अपघातात जमिनीवरील बळी गेला जाऊ शकतो. म्हणून त्यांच्या कुटुंबियांनी त्यांच्या डिएनएचे नमूने देखील प्रशासनाकडे दिले आहेत. त्याच्या मोबाईल फोनचे शेवटचे लोकेशन अपघातस्थळापासून फक्त ७०० मीटर अंतरावर होते.

बनावट व्हिसावर आखाती देशात प्रवास करणाऱ्याला अटक

मुंबई : युएईचा बनावट व्हिसा तयार करून परदेशात प्रवास करणाऱ्या एका इसमाला सहार पोलिसांनी अटक केली. त्याने पाच वर्षांपूर्वी कॅनडाचा बनावट व्हिसा तयार केला होता. तसमलीदरम्यान या व्हिसाकडे अधिकाऱ्यांचे लक्ष गेले आणि त्यामुळे तो पकडला गेला. सद्यस्थिती मंडल हा प्रवासी आबुधाबी येथून मुंबईच्या छत्रपती शिवाजी महाराज आंतरराष्ट्रीय विमानतळावर आला होता. इमिग्रेशन अधिकारी गणेश गवळी (४२) त्यांची कागदपत्रे तपासत होते. त्याच्या पारपत्रामध्ये (पासपोर्ट) त्यांना कॅनडाचा व्हिसा दिसला. या व्हिसाचे बारकाईने निरीक्षण केले असता तो बनावट असल्याचा संशय आला. सद्यस्थिती फाला विंग प्रमुख अर्जुन बाबू यांच्याकडे हजर केले. अधिक चौकशीत हा व्हिसा बनावट असल्याचे उघडकीस आले. व्हिसावर कुठल्याही प्रकारचे सुरक्षेचे फिचर आणि होलोग्राम नव्हते. तसेच व्हिसा स्टीकरही कलर कॉपी होती. त्याने २०२० मध्ये उत्तराखंड येथील एका दलालाकडून कॅनडाचा बनावट व्हिसा बनवून घेतला होता.

McKinsey likely to aid Air India overhaul

GEORGE MATHEW
MUMBAI, JUNE 16

A top Tata Sons official met a senior partner of McKinsey in Mumbai last week to discuss a revival strategy for the carrier, according to a source

THE TATA group is exploring the possibility of a major revamp of Air India. The group is reportedly in discussions with global consulting firm McKinsey & Company to lead a comprehensive overhaul of the airline, which is currently grappling with one of the most severe crises in its recent history.

A top Tata Sons official met a senior partner of McKinsey in Mumbai last week to discuss a revival strategy for the carrier, according to a source. The meeting took place just days after a London-bound Air India Boeing Dreamliner crashed shortly after takeoff from Ahmedabad, claiming the lives of 241 passengers and crew. Only one passenger survived the crash.

"While we do not comment on or publicly discuss details of any client work, it would be inaccurate to report that McKinsey is currently serving the Tata group on a transformation project for Air India," McKinsey & Company said in a statement to The Indian Express.

However, when contacted, a Tata group official did not comment on the issue.

This isn't McKinsey's first engagement with the consulting firm. Its relationship with Air India started almost eight years ago. In 2017, Air India selected McKinsey to help develop its long-term strategic business plan — especially on cash-flow, route networks, marketing strategies and updating its loyalty program.

Watson Farley & Williams (WFW) advised multiple parties on the historic merger of Tata SIA Airlines Ltd (Vistara) with Air India, creating a unified full-service airline under the Air India brand. This followed the merger of Air India group's low-cost airlines Air India Express and AIX Connect earlier.

The combined entity is now the largest international carrier with more than 90 destinations worldwide and the second largest domestic carrier. The Indian aviation market is the third largest in the world and is one of the fastest growing.

Founded in 1932, Air India is a pioneer of India's aviation sector and has developed an extensive global network, becoming a major international carrier. The consolidation of the four Tata-owned airlines into one group is part of Air India's ongoing, five-year transformation program, Vihaan.AI which is focussed on establishing Air India Group as a world-class aviation company.

Air India reported a lower loss of Rs 4,444.10 crore for FY24, a significant decrease of 60 per cent compared to the Rs 11,388 crore loss in FY23. The airline's turnover also increased by 23.69 per cent to Rs 38,812 crore during the same period.

The Dreamliner crash has cast a spotlight on the Tata group's efforts to turn around the airline, which it acquired from the Indian government in 2022 with the goal of restoring its performance and reputation. FULL REPORT ON www.indianexpress.com

तकनीकी पहलू

यहीं हुई साजिश

5-6 दिन में तस्वीर कुछ होगी साफ

37 years on, families of 1988 crash victims await 'fair compensation'

Ahmedabad: The AI 171 plane crash, among the deadliest aviation disasters in the country, has brought renewed attention on unresolved struggles of families affected by the 1988 Ahmedabad air tragedy. An Indian Airlines flight 113 from Bombay to Ahmedabad crashed on Oct 19, 1988, killing 133 passengers and crew of the 135 on board the aircraft. The families of the deceased were then offered Rs 2L in compensation.

Today, nearly 37 years since the tragedy, around 20 families from Ahmedabad remain locked in a legal battle with authorities over what they consider "inadequate compensation" for their losses.

"There are around 20 families that are still fighting a legal battle for fair compensation. After the tragedy, the authorities had announced a compensation of Rs 2 lakh per victim. We believe the compensation should be based on the income and age of the victims. So, after HC order, we moved Supreme Court in April 2010 for higher compensation," said Pankesh Patel, secretary of the association formed by families.

According to the case details, in 2003, the sessions court had directed Indian Airlines (IA) and Airport Authority of India (AAI) to give the petitioner families of the IA 113 victims a six per cent interest on the compensation amount. In 2009, the high court ordered this to be raised to nine per cent. However, the 20 families, organised under the Air Crash Claimants' Association, moved the Supreme Court in 2010, demanding a higher compensation based on the age and earning potential of their deceased relatives.

Ushaben Patel, now 74, had lost her husband Sharad Patel, a chartered accountant and company secretary who served as finance director for a German company. Thursday's plane crash has reopened old wounds for her. "At the time of the 1988 crash, my sons Jaysheel and Milan were in Class 5 and Class 3 respectively. I raised them both with support from our families and they are both chartered accountants now, settled in Canada," she said. "The compensation offered in the aftermath of the AI 171 tragedy is better than what we were offered," she added.

Reetaben Shah, 74, remembers her husband Sunil Shah, an IIM-A graduate who worked as a management consultant. Their daughter was just 12 years old when the crash occurred. "We did not accept the Rs 2 lakh compensation and initiated legal action. We finally moved the Supreme Court," she said.

Adani scam probe hampered by lack of information from tax haven countries: Cong.

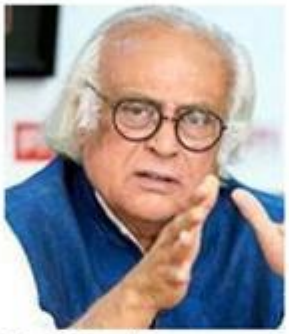
The Hindu Bureau
NEW DELHI

The Congress on Monday said that a key figure in the alleged Adani scam had Cypriot citizenship, but ongoing investigations by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) into transactions involving the Adani Group had been impacted by insufficiency in sharing of financial information by tax haven countries, and the "lack of pressure" from India.

The charge came amid Prime Minister Narendra Modi's visit to Cyprus.

"The Prime Minister is in Cyprus on his way to Canada. Of course, he would have us believe that it is a pure coincidence that a key figure in the Modani scam has Cypriot citizenship. The Cyprus-based fund New Leaina has reportedly about $420 million in Adani companies,"



Jairam Ramesh

Congress's communications chief Jairam Ramesh said in a post on social media platform X.

The "ultimate beneficial owners of this fund are linked to Amicorp, which is believed to have set up at least seven Adani promoter entities, seventeen offshore shell companies linked to Mr. Vinod Adani, and three Mauritius-based offshore investors in Adani Group stock," Mr. Ramesh said.

"All these transactions are part of the ongoing SEBI investigations which have been hampered by lack of sharing of financial information by these and other tax-haven countries and lack of pressure by India," Mr. Ramesh alleged.

There was no reaction to the latest salvo from the Congress from either the Union government or the Adani Group.

Mr. Ramesh also explained how India, under Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru in the 1950s, had rooted for Cyprus to become independent from British rule, and the island had become free on August 16, 1960.

"In the context of today's geopolitics, it is worthwhile to recall that India's championing of the independence of Cyprus in the 1950s and thereafter became a sore point in our bilateral relations with Turkiye," he said.

विचारणीय यह है कि अतीत में जिन हेलीकॉप्टर हादसों की जांच हुई, उनकी रिपोर्टें फाइलों में धूल फांक रही हैं। न तो उन पर संजीदगी से अमल हुआ और न ही किसी स्तर पर जवाबदेही तय की गई। इससे यह स्पष्ट होता है कि सुरक्षा उपायों को व्यवहार में उतारने में गंभीर लापरवाही बरती जा रही है। कई बार देखा गया है कि विमानन कंपनियां अधिक से अधिक लाभ कमाने के लिए सुरक्षा मानकों की अनदेखी करती हैं। जरूरी है कि पायलटों की योग्यता, थकान प्रबंधन और मौसम की स्थिति की उपेक्षा जैसे पहलुओं की कठोर निगरानी हो। सरकार और नागर विमानन महानिदेशालय को हर हवाई हादसे की रिपोर्ट को सार्वजनिक करना चाहिए। दोषियों पर कार्रवाई हो और सुधार के कदम फौरन उठाए जाएं। जब तक सुरक्षा को प्राथमिकता नहीं दी जाएगी, हवाई यात्रा का भरोसा केवल एक भ्रम बना रहेगा।

इससे पहले भी 2020 में विमान हादसा हुआ था और उसमें भी कुछ यात्रियों की मौत हुई थी तथा 2017 में भी विमान हादसे में कई यात्रियों ने अपनी जान गंवाई। हादसों के बाद सरकार द्वारा जांच बैठा दी जाती है, मगर जांच रिपोर्ट कब आती है और इन पर क्या कार्रवाई होती है, इसके बारे में लोगों को बहुत कुछ पता नहीं चल पाता है। लेकिन इन हादसों से विमानन कंपनियों और सरकार की सुरक्षा एजेंसियों को जो सबक लेना चाहिए, वह सबक एजेंसियां नहीं ले रही हैं। सवाल इस बात का उठता है कि समय-समय पर विमानों में विभिन्न प्रकार की खामियों को देखने के पश्चात भी उनको नजरअंदाज क्यों किया जाता है? क्यों नहीं सुरक्षा एजेंसियां और उड़ान प्राधिकरण इन जांच रिपोर्टों के आधार पर आगे के लिए सतर्कता बरतती हैं और सुरक्षा के उपाय करती हैं?

बड़े विमान हादसों की याद में बने स्मारकों का संदेश

दरअसल, यह कब्र उन बदनसीब मुसाफिरों की याद दिलाती है, जो 14 जून, 1972 को हुए जापान एयरलाइंस के विमान हादसे में मारे गए थे। वह विमान बैंकॉक से दिल्ली आ रहा था। यह उसी जगह पर गिरा था, जहां अब साउथ दिल्ली का वसंत कुंज इलाका आबाद है। उस विमान हादसे में क्रू मेंबर समेत 82 मुसाफिर मारे गए थे। इनमें ये ज्यादातर यात्री अमेरिका व ब्राजील के नागरिक थे। इनमें ब्राजील की मशहूर फिल्मी हस्ती लैला डिंज और भारत के नामवर कृषि वैज्ञानिक डॉ के के पी नरसिंह राव भी सवार थे। इसके अलावा, विमान के गिरने से जमीन पर चार लोगों की जान चली गई थी। अहमदाबाद के विमान हादसे में भी मुसाफिरों और केबिन क्रू के सदस्यों के अलावा ऐसे लोग भी मारे गए हैं, जिन पर विमान के टुकड़े गिरे।

इस भयंकर हादसे के पीड़ितों की याद में दो स्मारक बनाए गए। हादसे की पहली बरसी पर 1986 में आयरलैंड में एक स्मारक का अनावरण किया गया। यह स्मारक उस स्थान के पास है, जहां विमान समुद्र में गिरा था। यह पीड़ितों को श्रद्धांजलि देने और इस दुखद घटना को याद रखने का प्रतीक है। उधर, कनाडा में भी इस हादसे के पीड़ितों की याद में स्मारक बना। वर्ष 2015 में जब प्रधानमंत्री नरेंद्र मोदी कनाडा गए थे, तब उन्होंने टोरंटो में इस स्मारक का दौरा किया था। इन दोनों स्मारकों पर पीड़ितों के परिवार आते-जाते रहते हैं। निस्संदेह, ऐसे स्मारक महत्वपूर्ण हैं, क्योंकि वे भविष्य में ऐसी त्रासदियों को रोकने के लिए आगाह करते रहते हैं व आतंकवाद-रोधी उपायों पर ध्यान केंद्रित करने की अहमियत जताते हैं। ये आतंकी घटनाओं के प्रति आम लोगों को भी जागरूक करते हैं। हालांकि, इन्हें बनाते समय पीड़ित परिवारों की भावनाओं और सहमति का ध्यान रखना जरूरी है। अगर अहमदाबाद में भी विमान हादसे के शिकार यात्रियों की याद में स्मारक बनाया जाए, तो इसमें बुराई नहीं होगी। मगर स्मारक बनाना ही पर्याप्त नहीं होगा। उसकी कायदे से देखरेख भी करनी होगी।

Bodies of 119 crash victims identified after DNA profiling

Official death toll yet to be announced; bodies of 76 victims, including former CM Rupani, handed over; hospital urges families to remain patient; Gujarat CM tells officials to speed up identification

Abhinay Deshpande
AHMEDABAD

The Gujarat government on Monday said that DNA profiling has helped identify 119 victims of the June 12 Air India plane crash in Ahmedabad.

The official death toll, however, has yet to be formally announced, even as the Tata-owned Air India has said that 241 of the 242 people aboard the aircraft were killed in the accident. Several others on the ground were also killed or injured when the plane crashed into a residential locality after take-off.

The delay in officially declaring the total number of casualties has caused concern among local people and inmates of the hostel where the aircraft crashed, especially as several people were killed or critically injured on the ground.

Gujarat Minister of State for Home Harsh Sanghavi said the "identification process is still under way", indicating the scale and complexity of the forensic effort.

Hospital authorities confirmed that 76 bodies – including that of former Gujarat Chief Minister Vijay Rupani – have been handed over to the families of victims.

Solemn affair: Family members of former Gujarat Chief Minister Vijay Rupani pay respects after receiving his body at the Civil Hospital in Ahmedabad on Monday. VIJAY SONEJI

Rupani, who was among the passengers aboard the ill-fated London-bound flight, was travelling to visit his family in the U.K. His remains were received by his wife, Anjali Rupani, and other family members at Ahmedabad's Civil Hospital before being taken to Rajkot, his hometown, for final rites.

'Ensure dignity'

Chief Minister Bhupendra Patel visited the hospital on Monday, where many families have been camping for days to collect the mortal remains of their loved ones. He offered condolences and instructed officials to speed up the identification process while ensuring dignity in the handover.

With the bodies of the victims charred and mutilated, the authorities are relying on DNA testing for positive identification.

Rakesh Joshi, superintendent of the Civil Hospital, said, "Some families are anxious, understandably. But DNA matching is a legally binding procedure. We urge them to bear with us as we complete this with care and urgency."

He said the deceased whose bodies have been handed over to their families were from different parts of Gujarat and Rajasthan.

"We are trying our best to finish this process as soon as possible. Some are complaining that the results have not come even after 72 hours. We're aiming to complete the DNA identification process for all victims by late Tuesday or early Wednesday," Dr. Joshi added.

चार विमानों में यात्रियों की सांसें अटकीं

नई दिल्ली, विशेष संवाददाता। चार विमानों में आई तकनीकी खराबी से यात्रियों की सांसें अटकी रहीं। इनमें एअर इंडिया, एअर इंडिया एक्सप्रेस, ब्रिटिश एयरवेज, सऊदिया एयरलाइंस के विमान शामिल हैं।

हांगकांग से सोमवार को दिल्ली आ रहे एअर इंडिया के विमान में उड़ान के दौरान तकनीकी खराबी का संदेह हुआ। इसके बाद उसे वापस हांगकांग भेजा गया। इससे पहले रविवार को लंदन से चेन्नई आ रहे ब्रिटिश एयरवेज के विमान को तकनीकी खराब के चलते लौटना पड़ा।

वहीं, लखनऊ में रविवार को सऊदिया एयरलाइंस के विमान के पहियों से धुआं उठने का वीडियो वायरल होने पर डीजीसीए ने रिपोर्ट तलब की है। घटना 15 जून की है।

GIC: Claims could reach $475 million

Total claims from the Air India crash in Ahmedabad could touch $475 million, driven by liability payouts that are expected to be over 2.5 times the aircraft value, said Ramaswamy Narayanan, chairman and managing director of GIC Re. In rupee terms, the claims could exceed Rs 4,000 crore.

"The way we see it, the hull will be around $125 million and the liability claims on account of passenger liability, third-party liability and other PA and travel policies in vogue should work out to $350 million," said Narayanan.

Although GIC Re is not a direct insurer, it has exposure to the Air India fleet through reinsurance. As the national reinsurer, it also bears part of the loss incurred by every domestic non-life company, which is mandated to cede a portion of the risks it underwrites. TNN

Former Gujarat CM Vijay Rupani was cremated with state honours on Monday, with thousands bidding him a teary-eyed farewell.

The state government has announced a day of mourning in Gujarat in honour of the former leader. His mortal remains were handed over to his family members on Monday. Rupani's family members, along with Gujarat Chief Minister Bhupendra Patel, and Ahmedabad state officials were present at the hospital to receive the mortal remains.

Home Minister Amit Shah, Union Health Minister JP Nadda, Patel and Governor Acharya Devvrat paid their last respects ahead of Rupani's last rites in Rajkot.

Gujarat BJP unit workers escorted the body to the Ahmedabad airport, from where it was taken to Rajkot, his home town.

Rupani, who served as the Gujarat Chief Minister from 2016 to 2021, was flying to London to meet his wife and daughter.

Rupani's son, Rushabh Rupani said : "This is a sad time not just for our family, but also for the other 270 families. TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

NEW DELHI, JUNE 16

A high-level committee constituted by the Centre to probe the Ahmedabad plane crash held its first meeting on Monday and considered various theories that might have caused the mishap. It also deliberated on formulating rules that may help prevent such incidents in future.

The panel, which is headed by Union Home Secretary Govind Mohan, heard the views of various stakeholders about the possible causes and the remedial steps, said sources. A separate investigation is being conducted by the Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB), which is looking into the technical aspects of the crash. Civil Aviation Minister K Rammohan Naidu had said on Saturday that while the AAIB investigation

The black box of Air India's Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner plane that crashed on Thursday was recovered from the site on June 14 while officials also confirmed the cockpit voice recorder had been found. It is a crucial discovery to help ascertain the possible cause of the accident.

A Boeing team and AAIB officials arrived in Ahmedabad to inspect the crash site. The London-bound plane went down soon after take-off from Ahmedabad, killing all but one of the 242 on board.

Realty firms eye revenue upside, portfolio diversification from data centre boom

PRACHI PISAL
Mumbai, 16 June

Data centres are increasingly becoming a key part of the real estate landscape, as reality firms — with rich expertise in land acquisition, construction and dealing with government approvals — are seeing them as opportunities to build long-term assets with continuous revenue flow.

Anant Raj, Lodha, L&T Realty, DLF, Panchshil Realty, Rustomjee, Hiranandani Group, Mindspace Reit and many more realty firms are seeing data centres as "future-proof assets" with long-term returns.

While some have been in the segment that is promising nearly 20 per cent returns on investment, more players are getting into this space as they diversify their portfolios amid a sharp upside in demand for data centres, stemming largely from global capacity centres and industry's quickened AI adoption.

"While our core strength lies in real estate development, we see data centres not only as a complementary extension of our capabilities but also as a transformative business opportunity aligned with the country's accelerating digital evolution," said Amit Sarin, managing director, Anant Raj.

Sarin's firm is targeting the development of 307 Mw of capacity across its three campuses, with an investment commitment of over ₹10,000 crore over the next four-five years.

The industry experts believe that the developers are leveraging their expertise in land acquisition, construction, dealing with government approvals, and maintaining tenant relationships.

"Real estate developers with experience in developing commercial buildings see a natural synergy for skills such as land acquisition, obtaining government permits, construction and development, and sourcing infrastructure such as fibre and power (including green power). Further, with their vast tenant relationships, they are able to tap into these networks to address such companies' data centres needs through diversification," said Devi Shankar, executive director, industrial, logistics & data centres, Anarock Capital.

According to Colliers India, India's data centres capacity as of April 2025 is about 1,263 Mw with 15.9 million square feet (msf) of real estate engaged.

India's data centre capacity is set to cross 4,500 Mw by 2030, as $20-25 billion of future investments are likely to materialise, with a real estate footprint of 55 msf.

"With the rise of AI and cloud adoption, especially by global tech firms, data centres are becoming a key part of the real estate landscape," said Ramesh Nair, CEO and MD, Mindspace Reit— the only Indian Reit with a data centre portfolio.

"The post-Covid shift to hybrid work, alongside the boom in edtech, e-commerce, and digital banking, has fuelled a surge in data consumption and storage needs. In response, major domestic and international players are investing heavily in building both hyper-scale and edge data centres across the country," Shabala Shinde, partner and real estate industry leader, Grant Thornton Bharat, said.

The developers view DCs as assets that can give stable and long-term returns amid increasing usage of data, better 5G penetration, and data storage requirements.

Mumbai-based developer Niranjan Hiranandani, managing director, Hiranandani Group, said, "The rationale behind this move is multifaceted: we view data centres as future-proof assets offering stable, long-term returns, supported by the exponential rise in data consumption, accelerated adoption of cloud services, and deepening digital penetration."

Hiranandani noted that while it is a capex-heavy business, the returns are both feasible and favourable.

सूत्रों ने बताया कि केंद्रीय गृह सचिव गोविंद मोहन की अध्यक्षता वाली समिति ने हादसे के संभावित कारणों के बारे में विभिन्न हितधारकों की राय सुनी और भविष्य में ऐसी दुर्घटना को रोकने के लिए किए जाने वाले उपायों पर विमर्श किया।

दिल्ली में समिति की पहली बैठक में शामिल हुए लोगों का जोर विमान दुर्घटना के संभावित कारणों का विश्लेषण करने और भविष्य में ऐसी घटनाओं को रोकने के लिए मानक संचालन प्रक्रिया (एसओपी) तैयार करने पर था। बैठक में शामिल होने वालों में नागर विमानन मंत्रालय, गृह मंत्रालय, भारतीय वायुसेना, खुफिया ब्यूरो, गुजरात सरकार, नागर विमानन महानिदेशालय (डीजीसीए) और नागर विमानन सुरक्षा ब्यूरो के प्रतिनिधि शामिल थे।

इनमें वह लोग भी शामिल हैं, जिन्होंने 12 जून को हादसे वाले दिन ही डीएनए जांच के लिए अपना नमूना दे दिया था ताकि उसका मिलान कर मृतक की शिनाख्त की जा सके। उन्हें 72 घंटे का इंतजार करने के लिए कहा गया था और यह समयसीमा रविवार को बीत गई तथा ऐसा लगता है कि इंतजार अंतहीन है। स्वास्थ्य अधिकारियों ने परिवारों के शोकाकुल सदस्यों से ना घबराने की अपील की है, जबकि विशेषज्ञों ने कहा है कि विमान हादसे में इतनी बड़ी संख्या में लोगों की जान जाने के मद्देनजर डीएनए के नमूनों के मिलान में वक्त लग सकता है।

चालक दल की सदस्य रोशनी सोंघारे की रिश्तेदार पूजा सुखदरे ने सोमवार को कहा कि हम रविवार को डीएनए संग्रह केंद्र गए थे, लेकिन हमें बताया गया कि हमारे नमूने का अभी मिलान नहीं किया गया है। सुखदरे, सोंघारे के पिता और भाई के साथ त्रासदी के बाद से यहां हैं। सोंघारे का परिवार महाराष्ट्र के ठाणे जिले के डोंबिवली में रहता है। यही स्थिति चालक दल की सदस्य मैथिली पाटिल के रिश्तेदारों की भी है, जो नवी मुंबई के न्हावा के निवासी हैं और दुर्घटना के बाद 12 जून को यहां पहुंचे थे।

आकाश का परिवार भी इधर-उधर भटक रहा

15 वर्षीय आकाश पटानी का परिवार भी उसके शव के लिए इंतजार कर रहा है। विमान हादसे के समय वह बी जे मेडिकल कॉलेज के आवासीय परिसर में अपनी मां की चाय की दुकान के बगल में चारपाई पर आराम कर रहा था। दुर्घटना और उसके बाद लगी आग का प्रभाव इतना भयानक था कि पटानी को भागने का मौका ही नहीं मिला और उसकी जलने से मौत हो गई थी।

Tata in talks with McKinsey for A-I overhaul

DEV CHATTERJEE
Mumbai, 16 June

The Tata group is in talks with global consulting giant McKinsey & Co to spearhead a sweeping transformation of Air India (A-I), as the airline grapples with its gravest crisis following last week's fatal crash in Ahmedabad, people familiar with the matter said.

Tata Sons and Air India Chairman N Chandrasekaran met Vivek Pandit, a senior partner at McKinsey, in Mumbai over the weekend to chart a revival strategy for the airline, according to a person with direct knowledge.

The tragic accident, which marks one of the deadliest in India's aviation history, has placed intense scrutiny on the Tata group's turnaround plans for the former state-run carrier, which it acquired from the Indian government in 2022.

Chandrasekaran also held internal consultations with key Tata group leaders, including Noel Tata, chairman of Tata Trusts and a director on the board of Tata Sons, the person said. The discussions focused on crisis management measures, including compensation and support for the victims' families.

McKinsey declined to comment, citing client confidentiality. An email sent to Tata Sons on Monday went unanswered.

The Tata group has already merged Air India with Vistara, the airline it co-owned with Singapore Airlines, in an ambitious bid to create a world-class global carrier.

Grief And Farewells Mark Rites

Shourya Avankhedkar & Mrinalini Singh | TNN

Mumbai: Heartbreaking scenes unfolded as the last rites of two Air India crew members who died in the Ahmedabad air crash of June 12 were performed in Mumbai Monday. Distraught families of senior airhostess Shraddha Dhawan of Mulund and flight attendant Saineeta Chakravarti of Juhu Koliwada laid their dear departed to rest. The remains of these AI staffers were despatched to Mumbai from Ahmedabad after their families' DNA samples were matched with theirs.

The bodies of the pilot, Capt Sumeet Sabharwal of Powai, and co-pilot or first officer Clive Kunder of Goregaon are expected to be consigned to the elements on Tuesday. Clive was a member of the UBM Christa Kanthi Church in Kurla and the burial is scheduled at Sewri Cemetery. Sabharwal's remains will be flown into Mumbai from Ahmedabad on an early morning flight.

Late Monday night, deceased cabin supervisor Shraddha Dhawan, 44, who lived in Nishad Kalpnagari, Mulund, was laid to rest by her husband Rajesh. Neighbours and relatives gathered to offer condolence.

Rajesh, also an employee of Air India since 2005, is a native of Palakkad, Kerala. The couple got married in 2008 in Palakkad. He is the youngest of three children of K Narayanan, a retired officer of the Indian Air Force.

A day before the crash, Rajesh had gone to Delhi to attend a course organised by Air India. It was during his stay there that he received the news of his wife's death through an official call from the airline. During the incident, their 13-year-old daughter was with her maternal relatives in Mumbai.

Over in Juhu Koliwada, the Chakravarti family bade final farewell to their daughter Saineeta, 35, at the Hindu crematorium in Santacruz West. More than 200 mourners, including Air India colleagues, family members and neighbours from her community, gathered as her father Abin performed the last rites.

Saineeta's mother Reema was inconsolable while her father and sister quietly struggled to contain their grief.

AI 171 flies again as AI 159: Among passengers, man who skipped tragic flight

Niyati.Parikh@timesofindia.com

Ahmedabad: First flights are all about nervous excitement, but this one was always going to be different.

AI 159 from Ahmedabad to London Gatwick – the first on that route since the June 12 Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner crash, renumbered from AI 171– took off Monday on the sombre wings of remembrance and prayer, ferrying at least one passenger who might have been on the crashed aircraft four days earlier had his mother not taken ill suddenly.

Jayesh Ramji was approaching Gate 4 of Terminal 2, tightly clasping his cabin bag, when his mind raced back through the surreal last few days of his trip to India. "I was to return on AI 171. I postponed my travel to June 16 because my mother was unwell. All I want is to get back home safe," said the 34-year-old London shop assistant with roots in Diu.

Heavy hearts board delayed flight with quiet resolve

His wasn't the only face betraying more than a trace of emotion ahead of renumbered flight AI 159's 4.30pm departure, over three hours later than scheduled.

The terminal was seemingly quieter than usual, with families clinging a little tighter, and goodbyes lasting a tad longer.

Raas Mishra, 28, had just said goodbye to his teary-eyed parents. "They were scared. I am a tad nervous, too, but I have flown Air India before. I trust their pilots," said the young man, employed with a logistics firm in London.

For 72-year-old Kokila Patel of Patan, the announcement of a delay – the Dreamliner was to take off at 1.10pm – added to what she described as "emotional exhaustion". She was scheduled to fly out on June 14, but the flight was cancelled after the crash two days earlier.

"My son said I should book another airline. But I had already confirmed my travel on June 16 with Air India by then," she said. "I trust God and the airline. I want to go back, not stay scared forever."

Her elder sister Pushpa, 75, said she had "begged" her sibling to change the airline, "but she wouldn't listen". Sabina Qasmani, 21, from Veraval was heading back to the UK to join her father and siblings. Her mother, Ameena, admitted she would be anxious until she received a call from London that her daughter had reached safely. "Since the crash, I haven't been able to sleep. Sabina is flying the same route. It's hard not to worry," she said.

For Riddhi, a young married woman returning to the UK after visiting her family in Ahmedabad, the journey was about managing mixed emotions. "This is my second trip home since getting married. I was happy being with my family, but I now want to get back safely to my husband."

Smoke from wheels stalls Haj flight

A Saudia Airlines plane from Jeddah carrying 242 Haj pilgrims caused an alarm at the airport in Lucknow on Sunday when smoke and sparks were detected from its wheels while landing, according to sources. The Aircraft Rescue and Fire Fighting (ARFF) team acted swiftly to contain the smoke, preventing any damage to the aircraft. All passengers were safely deboarded and flight operations continued at the Chaudhary Charan Singh International Airport. UP's Minister of State for Minority Welfare and Chairman of the Haj Committee said on Monday that there was a "slight technical problem as some sparks were noticed from the wheel of the aircraft after landing." "There was no problem during the journey," he said. PTI

Thousands turn up for Rupani's last journey

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Rajkot: There was an outpouring of grief as thousands of people gathered to bid adieu to former Gujarat CM Vijay Rupani in Rajkot on Monday despite the pouring rain. The mortal remains of Rupani, who was onboard the ill-fated AI 171 London-bound flight, were flown from Ahmedabad to Rajkot for his last rites.

Earlier, CM Bhupendra Patel and other state ministers paid their last respects to the 68-year-old departed leader at Ahmedabad Civil Hospital as his remains were handed over with state honours to his wife Anjali and children Rushabh and Radhika, who broke down as they received the coffin. People lined the route from the hospital to Ahmedabad airport and showered petals on the ambulance carrying Rupani's remains.

In Rajkot, huge crowds waited for the flight from Ahmedabad to touch down at Hirasar airport.

Despite continuous rain, thousands of people, including BJP ministers and party workers, joined the funeral procession. Union home minister Amit Shah, CM Patel, governor Acharya Devvrat, Union minister C R Paatil, and former deputy CM Nitin Patel were among the dignitaries who paid tributes to Rupani and consoled the family.

Like the bodies of most passengers on AI 171 flight, Rupani's body could not be visually identified. His remains were identified after DNA samples from his family members were matched with DNA from the remains.

कॉकपिट व्हॉइस रेकॉर्डर सापडला

अहमदाबाद विमान दुर्घटना; ९९ मृतदेहांची ओळख पटविली

एअर इंडिया विमान दुर्घटनेचा तपास करणाऱ्या अधिकाऱ्यांनी कॉकपिट व्हॉइस रेकॉर्डर ब्लॅक बॉक्स सापडल्याचे काल सांगितले. व्हॉईस रेकार्डर हे एक महत्त्वाचे उपकरण असून त्यामुळे अपघाताचे कारण समजण्यास मदत मिळणार आहे. या विमान अपघातात २७४ जणांचा मृत्यू झाला आणि यात २४१ प्रवासी होते. केवळ एकाचाच जीव वाचला होता. पंतप्रधान नरेंद्र मोदी यांचे मुख्य सचिव पी. के. मिश्रा यांनी काल अहमदाबादला भेट दिली असता तपास अधिकाऱ्यांनी त्यांना व्हॉइस रेकॉर्डर सापडल्याची माहिती दिली. यादरम्यान, त्यांनी रुग्णालयात जाऊन जखमींची विचारपूसही केली. या भेटीदरम्यान त्यांनी संबंधितांना तातडीने मदत करण्याची सूचनाही दिल्या. यावेळी त्यांनी मेघानीनगर येथे बी. जे. मेडिकल कॉलेजजवळील दुर्घटनास्थळाची पाहणी केली. यानंतर पत्रकारांशी बोलताना मिश्रा म्हणाले, विमान अपघाताची घटना दुर्दैवी असून या घटनेने अतीव दु:ख झाले आहे. पीडित लोकांचे दु:ख कमी करणे आणि त्यांच्या भावना जाणून घेणे आपले कर्तव्य आहे. यादरम्यान गांधीनगर येथील न्यायवैद्यक प्रयोगशाळेत वेगाने डीएनए चाचणी करणे आणि अचूकतेवर भर देण्याचे मिश्रा यांनी आवाहन केले. यानंतर सर्किट हाउस येथे त्यांनी एक उच्चस्तरीय आढावा बैठक घेतली. तसेच अपघातग्रस्त विमानाची निर्मिती अमेरिकेत झाल्याने अमेरिकी राष्ट्रीय परिवहन संरक्षण मंडळाचे पथक (एनटीएसबी) आंतरराष्ट्रीय निकषानुसार या घटनेची समांतर चौकशी करत आहे.

અમદાવાદમાં ક્રેશ થયેલા વિમાનના કોકપીટનો વોઈસ રેકોર્ડર મળી આવ્યો

અમદાવાદ, તા. ૧૬ : અમદાવાદથી લંડન જતી એર ઇન્ડિયાની ફ્લાઇટ કેમ ક્રેશ થઈ તે પ્રશ્ન હજુ પણ વણઉકેલાયેલો છે. આ પ્રશ્નનો જવાબ આપવા માટે જરૂરી બ્લેક બૉક્સ પહેલાથી જ મળી ગયું હતું. હવે કોકપીટ વોઈસ રેકોર્ડર પણ મળી આવ્યું છે. આ તપાસ માટે ખૂબ જ મહત્ત્વપૂર્ણ બની શકે છે.

ખરેખર, કોકપીટ વોઈસ રેકોર્ડર ફ્લૂ મેમ્બર્સના અવાજને રેકોર્ડ કરે છે. ઉપરાંત, કોકપીટની અંદરના અવાજો પણ તેમાં રેકોર્ડ કરવામાં આવે છે. આ ઉપકરણ વિમાનમાં હાજર બન્ને પાઇલટ્સના કપાળની ઉપર સ્થાપિત થયેલ છે. એન્જિનના અવાજો, લેન્ડિંગ, સિસ્ટમ નિષ્ફળતા, વિમાનની ગતિ અને ક્યા સમયે કોઈ ખાસ નોંધપાત્ર પ્રવૃત્તિ થઈ, આ બધા અવાજો તેમાં રેકોર્ડ કરવામાં આવે છે. આવી સ્થિતિમાં, આ અવાજો દ્વારા, તે સ્પષ્ટ થઈ શકે છે કે પાઇલટે મેડે કોલ આપ્યો ત્યારે છેલ્લી થોડી મિનિટો કે સેકન્ડોમાં વિમાનમાં કેવા પ્રકારની પ્રવૃત્તિઓ થઈ હતી. ક્યા સંજોગોને કારણે વિમાન ક્રેશ થયું, તેના જવાબો અહીં મળી શકે છે.

ભલે કરોડ રૂપિયા મળે પણ વિમાન અકસ્માતે મને રોટલો આપનાર રોડ અને દીકરો ભરખી ગયા; માતાની વ્યથા

ઝૂંપડા અને લારી સાથે આધાર કાર્ડના કાગળો પણ બળી ગયા, પુત્ર કે પુત્રવધૂનો પતો નથી, સહાય તો છોડો આધાર કોર્ડ વિના પૌત્રના અગ્નિ સંસ્કાર કેવી રીતે થશે? બબીબેનની વ્યથા

ભાર્ગવ પરીખ તરફથી

બબીબહેન વર્ષોથી મેડિકલ કૉલેજની હૉસ્ટેલની બહાર આવેલા કોટ પાછળ ઝૂંપડામાં રહે છે, એમના બે દીકરા બીજું કોઈ કામ નહિ મળતાં અહીં ચાની લારી ચલાવતા હતા. એમના બે પુત્રોમાંથી એક મેઘાણીનગરમાં મેડિકલ હૉસ્ટેલની દીવાલ બહાર ચાની લારી ચલાવે છે. તો બીજો દીકરો ૧૨૦૦ બેડની સિવિલ હૉસ્પિટલ પાસે ચાની લારી ચલાવે છે.

હતી, મારો પૌત્ર સળગી રહ્યો હતો. હું બચાવવા માટે ચીસો પડતી હતી, ત્યાં જ મારા ખોળામાં પૌત્રે જીવ છોડી દીધો.

મેઘાણીનગરમાં માર્યા ગયેલાના પરિવારને તાતા ગ્રુપ આપશે રૂા. એક કરોડનું વળતર

વિમાન તૂટી પડવાને કારણે માર્યા ગયેલાઓમાં ડૉક્ટરો, વિદ્યાર્થીઓ અને હૉસ્પિટલના કર્મચારીઓ તથા મેઘાણીનગરમાં રહેતા લોકોનો સમાવેશ થાય છે. તાતા ગ્રુપ બીજે મેડીકલ કૉલેજ હૉસ્ટેલને ફરી બાંધવામાં પણ સહાય કરશે. જેને બહુ મોટું નુકશાન થયું છે.

અમદાવાદમાં થયેલા ભયાનક એર ઇન્ડિયા વિમાન દુર્ઘટના બાદ એક ફિલ્મ નિર્માતા ગુમ

પરિવારે આશંકા વ્યક્ત કરી છે કે તે અકસ્માત દરમિયાન જમીન પર રહેલા પીડિતોમાં હોઈ શકે

અમારા પ્રતિનિધિ તરફથી

બપોરે એકથી ચાર રેડ અલર્ટ

વિજયભાઈના પાર્થિવ દેહને અમદાવાદથી રાજકોટ લાવવામાં આવતો હતો એ દરમ્યાન રાજકોટમાં ગાજવીજ શરૂ થઈ ગઈ હતી. હવામાન વિભાગે પણ બપોરે એકથી ચાર વાગ્યાનો સમય વરસાદ માટે રેડ અલર્ટ જાહેર કરી હતી અને સાંજે પાંચથી આઠના સમયે ઑરેન્જ અલર્ટની અનાઉન્સમેન્ટ કરી હતી, જેને કારણે BJPના કાર્યકરોમાં ટેન્શન હતું. બપોરે દોઢ વાગ્યે જ્યારે રાજકોટના રસ્તાઓ પર વિજયભાઈનાં અંતિમ દર્શન માટે લોકો રાહ જોતા ઊભા હતા ત્યારે કાર્યકરોએ વ્યક્તિગત રીતે તેમને મળીને વિનંતી કરી હતી કે વરસાદી વાતાવરણ વચ્ચે જો ઘરે જવું હોય તો જઈ શકો છો પણ લોકો રસ્તો ખાલી કરવા રાજી નહોતા. કુદરત જાણે વિજયભાઈના મૃત્યુનો

અમદાવાદમાં મૃતદેહ સોંપાયો ત્યારે ભાંગી પડ્યાં મા-દીકરો

વેકેશનના સાથીઓ જ અંતિમ સફરમાં

અમદાવાદથી વિજયભાઈને રાજકોટ લાવવામાં આવ્યા એ પ્લેનમાં વિજયભાઈની સાથે તેમનાં પત્ની અંજલિબહેન, દીકરો રુષભ, દીકરી રાધિકા હતાં. એ ઉપરાંત વિજયભાઈ જેમની સાથે વેકેશન પર જવાના હતા એ નીતિન ભારદ્વાજ અને ઘનશ્યામ ભંડેરી અમદાવાદથી વિજયભાઈની આ અંતિમ હવાઈ સફરમાં જોડાયા હતા.

હતો. લોકોને રડતા જોઈને વિજયભાઈનાં વાઇફ અંજલિબહેન પણ અંતિમયાત્રા દરમ્યાન સમગ્ર રસ્તા પર ભાવુક રહ્યાં હતાં.

કોઈ અંતિમ દર્શન નહીં

DNA મૅચ થયા પછી ગઈ કાલે સવારે વિજયભાઈનો પાર્થિવ દેહ સોંપાયા પછી તેમનો ચહેરો પરિવારને જોવા નહોતો મળ્યો. અકસ્માતની ભયાનકતા જોયા પછી સરકારનો આદેશ હતો કે જેમાં મૃતદેહ આપવામાં આવ્યો હોય એ કૉફિન સહિત જ અંતિમ સંસ્કાર કરવાના રહેશે. નિયમ અનુસાર રૂપાણી-પરિવારના કોઈ સભ્યને વિજયભાઈનો ચહેરો જોવા નહોતો મળ્યો.

આજે રાજકોટમાં રાખવામાં આવેલી પ્રાર્થનાસભામાં ૨૫,૦૦૦થી વધારે લોકો એકત્રિત થાય એવી શક્યતા છે. વિજયભાઈની લોકપ્રિયતાને જોતાં આજે ભારે વરસાદની આગાહી હોવા છતાં લોકો પ્રાર્થનાસભામાં ભાગ લેશે એ વિનાસંકોચ કહી શકાય.

एयर इंडिया के ड्रीमलाइनर में फिर तकनीकी खराबी, उड़ान के कुछ मिनट बाद लौटना पड़ा हांगकांग

नई दिल्ली: ऐसा लगता है कि एयर इंडिया ड्रीमलाइनर के लिए मुश्किलें खत्म नहीं हो रही हैं।

ने विमान को समुद्र के ऊपर कुछ देर उड़ाया। हालांकि जब दिक्कत दूर नहीं हुई तो उसने वापस लौटने का फैसला किया। इसके बाद विमान करीब एक घंटे 19 मिनट बाद अपने मूल स्थान यानी हांगकांग हवाई अड्डे पर वापस लौट आया। विमान स्थानीय समयानुसार एक बज कर 18 मिनट पर हांगकांग हवाई अड्डे पर उतरा। जहां उसकी गहन तकनीकी जांच की जाएगी। गौरतलब है कि 12 जून को एयर इंडिया का बोइंग 787-8 ड्रीमलाइनर अहमदाबाद से लंदन जा रहा था, जब हवाई अड्डे से उड़ान भरने के कुछ ही देर बाद यह दुर्घटनाग्रस्त हो गया और गुजरात के अहमदाबाद में बीजे मेडिकल कॉलेज के डॉक्टरों के छात्रावास से जा टकराया। विमान में 230 यात्री और 12 चालक दल के सदस्य सहित 242 लोग सवार थे। दुर्घटना में 241 यात्रियों की मौत हो गई। एकमात्र जीवित बचे व्यक्ति की पहचान भारतीय मूल के ब्रिटिश नागरिक विश्वाश कुमार रमेश के रूप में हुई है, जो घायल हो गया है और उसका इलाज चल रहा है।

DEV CHATTERJEE
Mumbai, 16 June

N Chandrasekaran (pictured), chairman of Air India (A-I) and Tata Sons, on Monday offered a message of solidarity and resolve in the wake of last week's fatal crash in Ahmedabad while addressing 700-odd employees at the airline's headquarters in Gurugram.

"I felt I had to be here and meet as many of you as possible," Chandrasekaran told the assembled staff, many of whom were part of the emergency response teams activated following the tragedy. Chandra also visited the Emergency Command Centre, the Integrated Operations Control Centre, and the Customer Service and Support to show his support for A-I.

Recalling his visit to the crash site near Ahmedabad airport, Chandra said: "It was not easy at all. I've seen a fair share of crises in my career, but nothing as heartbreaking as this. I never imagined I would face something like this."

He also acknowledged that no words or actions could bring back the 241 lives lost in the crash, but stressed the company's commitment to standing by the families affected. "We consider everyone who lost someone in this tragedy as part of our family — now and forever," he added.

Addressing the emotional toll on employees, the chairman said: "Criticism is inevitable, especially for those who care deeply and work tirelessly to build a great airline. But I want you to be strong. When you feel distraught, remember one word: determination."

"We are going to get through this. We need to show resilience. We need to use this incident as an act of force to build a safer airline," Chandra said and urged employees to use the tragedy as a catalyst to build a stronger company.

Chandrasekaran emphasised the complexity of aviation operations, saying: "It's a business with multiple redundancies, checks, certifications — systems that have evolved over decades. Yet incidents like this happen. We have to wait for the investigation to understand why."

He concluded with a call for calm and collective strength: "This is the time to be brave. To be resolute. Our job is to get A-I to where it truly belongs — the place this country and every passenger who puts their trust in us deserves."

Mahesh Jirawala missing; wife claims his last known location was 700m from plane crash site

Filmmaker Mahesh Kalawadia, also known as Mahesh Jirawala, has been missing since the London-bound Air India flight crashed in Ahmedabad (Gujarat) on June 12.

Speaking to media persons, his wife Hetal — who has anxiously been searching for him — said that the last active location on Mahesh's phone put him a mere 700 metres from the medical college hostel in Meghaninagar where the plane crashed minutes after take-off from Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport. She added that worry set in when Mahesh failed to return home after he called her to say he was on his way home.

"On June 12, Mahesh had gone to meet someone. He called me at 1.14pm to tell me his meeting was over and that he was on his way home," she told PTI, adding, "I called him again at 1.40pm, but his phone was switched off. That was just a minute after the plane took off from Ahmedabad airport."

Hetal further shared, "His scooter and mobile phone are missing. All this is unusual since he would never use that route to come home."

In a desperate bid to find Mahesh, his family have now submitted DNA samples to confirm if the filmmaker was indeed one of the ground victims of the crash.

As of Monday noon, 90 victims were identified through DNA sampling and the remains of 47 handed over to their families. The crash has claimed over 270 lives — 241 out of 242 travellers aboard the flight as well as 29 people on the ground.

Tata in talks with McKinsey for A-I overhaul

DEV CHATTERJEE
Mumbai, 16 June

The Tata group is in talks with global consulting giant McKinsey & Co to spearhead a sweeping transformation of Air India (A-I), as the airline grapples with its gravest crisis following last week's fatal crash in Ahmedabad, people familiar with the matter said.

Tata Sons and Air India Chairman N Chandrasekaran met Vivek Pandit, a senior partner at McKinsey, in Mumbai over the weekend to chart a revival strategy for the airline, according to a person with direct knowledge.

The tragic accident, which marks one of the deadliest in India's aviation history, has placed intense scrutiny on the Tata group's turnaround plans for the former state-run carrier, which it acquired from the Indian government in 2022.

Chandrasekaran also held internal consultations with key Tata group leaders, including Noel Tata, chairman of Tata Trusts and a director on the board of Tata Sons, the person said. The discussions focused on crisis management measures, including compensation and support for the victims' families.

McKinsey declined to comment, citing client confidentiality. An email sent to Tata Sons on Monday went unanswered.

The Tata group has already merged Air India with Vistara, the airline it co-owned with Singapore Airlines, in an ambitious bid to create a world-class global carrier.

अहमदाबाद विमान हादसे में जिंदा बचे विश्वास रमेश ने कहा, मुझे यकीन ही नहीं हुआ कि मैं जिंदा हूं

-अहमदाबाद: अहमदाबाद प्लेन हादसे में जिंदा बचे एक मात्र शख्स विश्वाश कुमार रमेश का नया वीडियो सामने आया है जिसमें वह उसी तरफ से बाहर निकलता देखा जा सकता है जहां से विमान हादसे के बाद आग धुएं का गुबार निकल रहा है। वहीं उसके चारों तरफ अफरा तफरी मची हुई है। 40 साल के भारतीय-ब्रिटिश नागरिक विश्वास कुमार उन 242 लोगों में से एक थे जो हादसे के वक्त विमान में सवार थे। हालांकि इस दर्दनाक हादसे में सभी लोगों की मौत हो गई सिर्फ विश्वास कुमार बच गए। प्रधानमंत्री नरेंद्र मोदी ने भी अस्पताल में उनसे मुलाकात की थी। सोशल मीडिया पर वायरल हो रहे वीडियो में एक जगह पर विमान क्रैश होने के बाद आग की लपटें और काले धुएं का गुबार निकलता दिखाई दे रहा है। रमेश ने कहा, यह सब मेरी आंखों के सामने हुआ। मुझे विश्वास नहीं हो रहा कि मैं कैसे बच गया। उन्होंने कहा, एक पल के लिए मुझे लगा कि मैं मरने वाला हूं, लेकिन जब मेरी आंखें खुलीं तो मैं जीवित था। मैंने सीट से अपनी बेल्ट खोली और बाहर निकल आया। रमेश ने कहा, मेरी आंखों के सामने एयरहोस्टेस

AI 171 flies again as AI 159: Among passengers, man who skipped tragic flight

Niyati.Parikh@timesofindia.com

Ahmedabad: First flights are all about nervous excitement, but this one was always going to be different.

AI 159 from Ahmedabad to London Gatwick – the first on that route since the June 12 Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner crash, renumbered from AI 171– took off Monday on the sombre wings of remembrance and prayer, ferrying at least one passenger who might have been on the crashed aircraft four days earlier had his mother not taken ill suddenly.

Jayesh Ramji was approaching Gate 4 of Terminal 2, tightly clasping his cabin bag, when his mind raced back through the surreal last few days of his trip to India. "I was to return on AI 171. I postponed my travel to June 16 because my mother was unwell. All I want is to get back home safe," said the 34-year-old London shop assistant with roots in Diu.

Passenger Jayesh Ramji wasn't the only face betraying more than a trace of emotion ahead of renumbered flight AI 159's 4.30pm departure, over three hours later than scheduled. The terminal was seemingly quieter than usual, with families clinging a little tighter, and goodbyes lasting a tad longer.

Raas Mishra, 28, had just said goodbye to his teary-eyed parents. "They were scared. I am a tad nervous, too, but I have flown Air India before. I trust their pilots," said the young man, employed with a logistics firm in London.

For 72-year-old Kokila Patel of Patan, the announcement of a delay — the Dreamliner was to take off at 1.10pm — added to what she described as "emotional exhaustion". She was scheduled to fly out on June 14, but the flight was cancelled after the crash two days earlier.

"My son said I should book another airline. But I had already confirmed my travel on June 16 with Air India by then," she said. "I trust God and the airline. I want to go back, not stay scared forever."

Her elder sister Pushpa, 75, said she had "begged" her sibling to change the airline, "but she wouldn't listen".

Sabina Qasmani, 21, from Veraval was heading back to the UK to join her father and siblings. Her mother, Ameena, admitted she would be anxious until she received a call from London that her daughter had reached safely. "Since the crash, I haven't been able to sleep. Sabina is flying the same route. It's hard not to worry," she said.

For Riddhi, a young married woman returning to the UK after visiting her family in Ahmedabad, the journey was about managing mixed emotions. "This is my second trip home since getting married. I was happy being with my family, but I now want to get back safely to my husband."

DNA tests identify 125 victims, 83 bodies handed over to kin: Gujarat minister

ENS & PTI
AHMEDABAD, JUNE 16

FOUR DAYS after the horrific crash of an Air India plane that claimed the lives of 241 passengers and killed multiple people on the ground, 125 victims have so far been identified through DNA matching and 83 bodies were handed over to their families, according to a post by Gujarat Health Minister Rushikesh Patel on X Monday late evening.

An official expressed hope that the DNA profiling all the victims will be completed by either Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning.

Former Gujarat chief minister Vijay Rupani was among the 242 passengers and crew members on board the London-bound Air India flight AI-171 that crashed in Ahmedabad on June 12. His mortal remains were handed over to his wife Anjali Rupani and other family members at the city civil hospital.

Authorities are carrying out DNA tests to establish the identity of the victims as many bodies were charred beyond recognition.

Speaking to the media, Medical Superintendent of Ahmedabad Civil Hospital Dr Rakesh Joshi expressed hope that the DNA profiling of all the victims will be completed by either Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning.

He urged the grief-stricken kin of the victims to not panic over the time-consuming process of matching DNA samples with mortal remains.

"We are trying our best to finish this process as soon as possible. Some are complaining that the results have not come even after 72 hours. I appeal to them not to panic because this is a very important process with legal implications. We will call them as soon as results arrive," Joshi said.

Earlier, Dr Rajnish Patel, Professor of Surgery at BJ Medical College, told mediapersons on Monday that 13 families were present at the hospital to collect the remains.

"Twelve families have opted to collect the bodies together after DNA confirmation for all their deceased members. Discussions have been completed with 11 other families, who are on their way to collect the remains," he said.

Ahmedabad Civil Hospital authorities had said on Sunday that samples of 250 victims, including persons on board the ill-fated flight as well as those killed on the ground, had been collected for identification.

The Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner with 242 persons on board crashed into a medical college complex in Ahmedabad moments after taking off from the Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport at 1.39 pm on June 12.

While 241 persons on board the London-bound aircraft died, one passenger miraculously survived.

The crash also killed multiple people on the ground, including five MBBS students.

Govt panel discusses possible causes, SOPs at first meeting

THE GOVERNMENT'S high-level multi-disciplinary committee on Thursday's crash of Air India flight AI-171 in Ahmedabad held its first meeting on Monday and discussed various possible causes and theories pertaining to the deadly aviation accident, the worst for an Indian airline in four decades.

Deliberations were also held on identifying areas of improvement and creating a roadmap to formulate standard operating procedures (SOPs) to prevent such disasters. Records pertaining to earlier aviation disasters in India, like the 2010 Mangaluru crash and 2020 Kozhikode accident of Air India Express aircraft, and how they were handled by various stakeholders were also shared in the meeting that lasted around two hours, it is learnt.

The committee is headed by the Home Secretary Govind Mohan and includes senior officials from the civil aviation ministry, home ministry, Gujarat government, the Indian Air Force, and various other departments and agencies including the Intelligence Bureau, Bureau of Civil Aviation Security, and Directorate General of Civil Aviation, among others. It is expected to submit its report within three months.

The technical investigation into the crash of Air India's Boeing 787-8 aircraft operating flight AI-171 from Ahmedabad to London Gatwick is being conducted by the Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau (AAIB). On being asked why a government committee has been constituted when the AAIB-led probe is already on, Naidu had said on Saturday that the AAIB investigation is technical and specific to the tragic plane crash in Ahmedabad, while the government's high-level committee will take a more holistic approach and look at further strengthening of the aviation safety ecosystem.

"The Committee will examine the existing Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) and guidelines issued to prevent and handle such occurrences and suggest comprehensive guidelines for dealing with such instances in the future. The Committee will not be a substitute to other enquiries being conducted by relevant organisations but will focus on formulating SOPs for preventing and handling such occurrences in the future," the civil aviation ministry had said late Friday while notifying the constitution of the high-level committee.

The objective and scope of the committee also includes ascertaining the root cause of the crash, including assessment of possible contributory factors like mechanical failure, human error, weather conditions, and regulatory compliance-related issues, among others. It is also tasked with assessing the emergency response of various stakeholders—both Central and State governments.

The committee will formulate comprehensive SOPs and suggest the roles of various Central and State government organisations to deal with post-crash incident handling and management. It will also suggest policy changes, operational improvements, and training enhancements required to prevent such accidents in future, and handle the situation in the event of a crash.

Thursday's crash claimed the lives of 241 of the 242 people on board the Boeing 787-8 aircraft—bearing registration VT-ANB. Lives were also lost on the ground as the plane crashed into a medical college hostel mess close to the Ahmedabad airport.

As for the technical probe into the accident, the AAIB is being assisted in the probe by the US National Transportation Safety Board given that the aircraft was manufactured by an American company—Boeing—and was made in the US. A UK AAIB team is also going to help with the investigation, and so are Boeing and other major component manufacturers like GE (engine manufacturer). According to aircraft accident investigation protocol, the probe report should be finalised within a year. The world has its eyes set on the probe as scores of Boeing 787 aircraft are operating all over the globe, and this was the first-ever crash involving the 787.

To collate final toll, police turn to all missing cases filed in city on June 12

To collate final toll, police turn to all missing cases filed in city on June 12

MOHAMED THAVER
AHMEDABAD, JUNE 16

POLICE HAVE collated all the missing persons complaints registered at stations across Ahmedabad on June 12 as they attempt to put together a final tally of people on the ground who died in the Air India crash.

While the death toll of people on the plane is known to be 241, nine DNA samples have been collected so far from the crash site and around it.

Police, however, believe there may have been more people around the BJ Medical College hostel in Meghaninagar — like those at a nearby tea stall — who may have been killed.

A senior police officer told The Indian Express that CCTV cameras that could potentially have helped them locate such people were destroyed in the crash. "While students at the hostel have been accounted for, we fear some who were passing by the hostel, or having tea at a tea stall nearby may have been a victim of the crash," the officer said, requesting anonymity.

Looking for leads, police turned to missing persons cases.

"If anyone who went missing on June 12 has not reached home, we will probe the complaint closely to rule out unrelated cases. In this manner we are hoping to zero in on missing cases linked to the crash following which we may take DNA samples from family members to match with those found from the site," the officer said

On why the scope has been widened to the entire city and not nearby police stations such as Meghaninagar and Naroda, the officer said that they may have come to the area without the knowledge of family members. "We want to rule out all possibilities," the officer said.

Among those missing are Sarlaben Thakor, a cook at the hostel mess, her granddaughter Adyaravi, music video director Mahesh Kalawadia and IT student Arshdeep Banga.

Missing persons complaints of Thakor, Adyaravi and Banga were registered with the Meghaninagar police station; Kalawadia's was registered with the Naroda police station.

DNA samples of the family members of the missing persons have been sent for checking with the DNA samples extracted from the remains found at the hostel.

Sarlaben's son, Ravi Thakor, has been trying to locate his mother and daughter. Along with his mother, he and his wife cooked meals at the mess.

Kalawadia's younger brother Kartik and his wife Hetal have been doing the rounds of hospitals but have so far not been able to trace him. Mahesh spoke to his wife at around 1.10 pm on June 12 and headed to his residence on his scooter. At around 1.40 pm, however, his phone switched off around the crash area. Even his two-wheeler has not been found.

Banga was passing by the mess on his bike around the time of the crash.

PARAMEDIC RECALLS GUIDING LONE SURVIVOR OF AIR INDIA CRASH TO AMBULANCE

'We saw man coming out of gate... didn't know he was a passenger'

BRENDAN DABHI
AHMEDABAD, JUNE 16

LIKE THE students in the BJ Medical College hostel, Satinder Singh Sandhu was having lunch with fellow paramedics at the local GVK-EMRI ambulance office inside the 1,200-bed hospital at Medicity in Ahmedabad on June 12 when he heard a massive explosion.

Running outside, he saw a man coming out of the hostel building's gate as a massive fire raged behind him. This man was 39-year-old Viswashkumar Ramesh, the lone survivor of the London-bound Air India flight that crashed into the hostel building soon after taking off from the Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport in Ahmedabad.

Sandhu took Ramesh's hand and guided him away from the site. A video of this has since been widely shared.

"I asked my team to deploy ambulances immediately while I rushed to the spot. When I got there, I realised this was a major incident. I called my head office and asked them to inform the police and send more ambulances. Meanwhile, five ambulances under my command reached the site," Sandhu said.

The 44-year-old has been

with the GVK-EMRI emergency ambulance service for a decade, and is a supervisor who controls 20 of the 120 ambulances in the city.

"I first saw the watchman of the hostel injured on the road. We picked him up and dispatched him in one of the ambulances. Then, we saw one man coming out of the gate next to the burning hostel building. I approached him, but he suddenly turned around and began walking back to the crash site," Sandhu told The Indian Express, referring to Ramesh.

Sandhu said Ramesh initially resisted attempts to take him away from the site, repeatedly saying that his family member was burning in the fire.

"We thought it must be a family member inside the hostel building. We didn't know at that time that he was a passenger who had come out of the burning aircraft," said Sandhu, adding, "We finally managed to calm him down a little, seat him in one of the ambulances and send him to the hospital. He had injuries on his face, hands and legs. He had burn marks across his body, but he was able to walk with a slight limp."

It was en route to the hospital that Ramesh told paramedics he had been on the aircraft that had just crashed. He said he and his brother were going home to the UK and that he had been seated next to the emergency exit, in seat 11A. However, he did not know how he managed to exit the crashed aircraft.

Sandhu said Ramesh was in a state of shock and confusion after his ordeal. His mind was still fixed on a singular point — saving his younger brother, Ajay, from the burning plane.

Ajay was among the 241 people on board flight AI-171, and several others on the ground, to die in the crash. The Boeing 787 Dreamliner was carrying a total of 242 people.

Ramesh and his brother, who were originally from the Union Territory of Diu, were British nationals settled with their families in Leicester, England.

Sandhu said he and his fleet of ambulances were on the site of the crash by 1.41 pm, just three minutes after the crash that took place at 1.38 pm.

A firefighting team also arrived soon after and started the task of dousing the flames. It was when the heavy soot-laden smoke cleared that paramedics saw charred bodies of men, women and children strewn on the ground. There were also bodies inside the medical college hostel compound.

Sandhu was among the first to rush into the building to try and save anyone stuck in the rubble or stranded by the fire. He said he had no count of how many people his team managed to rescue from the hostel premises and the road in front of it, but estimated that it must have been at least 20-25.

Originally from Thaluh village in Punjab's Rupnagar district, Sandhu has lived in Gujarat since 1992.

अहमदाबाद. अहमदाबाद में एअर इंडिया विमान दुर्घटना के चार दिन बाद, अब तक डीएनए मिलान के जरिये 119 मृतकों की पहचान कर ली गई है और गुजरात के पूर्व मुख्यमंत्री विजय रूपाणी समेत 64 लोगों के शव उनके परिजनों को सौंप दिये गए हैं। अधिकारियों ने सोमवार को यह जानकारी दी।

इस हादसे में 270 लोगों की जान चली गई। एक अधिकारी ने उम्मीद जताई कि सभी मृतकों के डीएनए मिलान की प्रक्रिया मंगलवार शाम या बुधवार सुबह तक पूरी हो जाएगी। रूपाणी उन 242 लोगों में शामिल थे, जो बृहस्पतिवार दोपहर लंदन जा रही

अहमदाबाद सिविल अस्पताल के चिकित्सा अधीक्षक डॉ राकेश जोशी ने संवाददाताओं से कहा, ''अब तक 119 मृतकों की पहचान कर ली गई है और 76 लोगों के शव उनके परिजनों को सौंप दिये गए हैं। हादसे में जान गंवाने वाले लोग गुजरात और राजस्थान के विभिन्न हिस्सों के रहने वाले थे।'' उन्होंने उम्मीद जताई कि सभी मृतकों की 'डीएनए प्रोफाइल' का काम मंगलवार शाम या बुधवार सुबह तक पूरा हो जाएगा। उन्होंने शोक-संतप्त परिजनों से अपील की कि शवों के अवशेषों से डीएनए मिलान की लंबी प्रक्रिया को लेकर परेशान नहीं हों। उन्होंने कहा, ''हम इस प्रक्रिया को जल्द से जल्द पूरा करने की पूरी कोशिश कर रहे हैं।

गत बृहस्पतिवार को अपराह्न 1.39 बजे सरदार वल्लभभाई पटेल अंतरराष्ट्रीय हवाई अड्डा से उड़ान भरने के कुछ ही देर बाद बोइंग 787-8 ड्रीमलाइनर विमान अहमदाबाद के एक मेडिकल कॉलेज परिसर में दुर्घटनाग्रस्त हो गया था।

लंदन जा रहे इस विमान में सवार 242 लोगों में केवल एक यात्री जीवित बचा। इसके अलावा, दुर्घटना स्थल पर 29 अन्य लोग भी मारे गए थे, जिनमें से पांच एमबीबीएस छात्र थे।

संपादकीय

यह एक राष्ट्रीय त्रासदी है, ऐसा हादसा फिर से ना हो, इसकी जिम्मेदारी विमान कंपनियों, एयरवेज कंपनियों और सरकार तीनों को लेनी होगी

यह सुनिश्चित किया जाना चाहिए कि अहमदाबाद जैसा हादसा फिर ना हो

अहमदाबाद में हाल ही में हुई हवाई दुर्घटना ने हमारे दिलों को झकझोर दिया है और हवाई यात्रा की सुरक्षा पर गंभीर प्रश्न चिन्ह लगा दिए हैं। इस अत्यंत दुखद घटना में जान गंवाने वाले लोगों के प्रति प्रधानमंत्री नरेन्द्र मोदी ने बिल्कुल सही कहा कि संवेदना व्यक्त करने के लिए उनके पास शब्द नहीं है। केंद्रीय गृहमंत्री अमित शाह ने भी गुरुवार की रात को लगभग यही बात कही। दरअसल अब समय आ गया है कि हम इन हादसों के मूल कारणों का गहन विश्लेषण करें। और भविष्य में ऐसी त्रासदियों को रोकने के लिए ठोस कदम उठाएं। दरअसल मानवीय चूक अक्सर विमान दुर्घटनाओं का एक प्रमुख कारण होता है। इसमें पायलटों की थकान, अपर्याप्त प्रशिक्षण, गलत निर्णय लेना या वायु यातायात नियंत्रण की त्रुटियां भी शामिल हो सकती है। दबाव में गलतियां होने की संभावना बढ़ जाती है। खासकर जब पायलटों को अचानक या अप्रत्याशित परिस्थितियों का सामना करना पड़ता है। विमानों में यांत्रिक विफलताएं या प्रणाली (सिस्टम) की खराबी भी दुर्घटनाओं का कारण बन सकती है। इसमें इंजन का खराब होना, लैंडिंग गियर की समस्या या विमान के विमानन इलेक्ट्रोनिक चैनल का खराब होना शामिल हो सकती है। नियंत्रित रखरखाव की कमी या घटिया पूर्जों का उपयोग भी इस जोखिम को बढ़ा सकता है। अत्यधिक खराब मौसम की स्थिति जैसे भारी बारिश, घना कोहरा, तेज हवाएं या बिजली गिरने से भी विमान का नियंत्रण खो सकता है जिससे दुर्घटना हो सकती है। मौसम पूर्वानुमान की गलत व्याख्या या जोखिम भरे मौसम में उड़ान भरने का निर्णय भी घातक साबित हो सकता है। गलत निर्देश, संचार में कमी या हवाई क्षेत्र के अनुचित प्रबंधन में भी विमानों के बीच टकराव या अन्य दुर्घटनाएं हो सकती है। पायलटों के लिए कठोर और नियमित प्रशिक्षण अनिवार्य है। जिसमें आपातकालीन प्रक्रियाओं और दबाव में निर्णय लेने का अभ्यास शामिल हो। उनकी थकान को कम करने के लिए पर्याप्त आराम के घंटे और मानसिक स्वास्थ्य सहायता भी महत्वपूर्व है। विमानों का नियमित और

व्यापक रखरखाव सुनिश्चित किया जाना चाहिए और प्रत्येक उड़ान से पहले और बाद में गहन जांच होनी चाहिए और किसी भी संदिग्ध हिस्से को तुरंत बदला जाना चाहिए और गुणवता नियंत्रण पर कोई समझौता नहीं होना चाहिए। बेहतर और अधिक सटीक मौसम पूर्वानुमान प्रणालिया विकसित की जानी चाहिए और पायलटों को वास्तविक समय में अद्यतन जानकारी प्रदान की जानी चाहिए। खराब मौसम में उड़ान भरने के लिए सख्त नियमों का पालन किया जाना चाहिए। एटीसी प्रणालियों का आधुनिकीकरण किया जाना चाहिए और कर्मियों को नवीनतम तकनीकी और आपातकालीन प्रबंधन प्रक्रियाओं में प्रशिक्षित किया जाना चाहिए। संचार में स्पष्टता और त्रुटिहीन समन्वय सुनिश्चित किया जाना चाहिए। विमानन इलेक्ट्रोनिक्स और सुरक्षा प्रणालियों का उपयोग बढ़ाना चाहिए जो पायलटों को खतरों की प्रारंभिक चेतावनी दे सके और आपातकालीन स्थितियों में सहायता कर सके। प्रत्येक दुर्घटना की एक स्वतंत्र और निष्पक्ष जांच होनी चाहिए। जिसके निष्कर्षों को सार्वजनिक किया जाना चाहिए। इससे न केवल जवाबदेही सुनिश्चित होगी, बल्कि भविष्य में ऐसी गलतियों से सीखने का अवसर भी मिलेगा। दरअसल अत्याधुनिक तकनीक के कारण भारत सहित पूरी दुनिया में विमान दुर्घटनाओं में कमी आई है। अब यह यदाकदा होती है। पर अहमदाबाद जैसा भयावह हादसा दुर्लभ है। बहरहाल एक बार सुविधाओं में कमी की अनदेखी की जा सकती है, पर हवाई यात्रियों की सुरक्षा में तो कोई समझौता हो ही नहीं सकता। यह एक राष्ट्रीय त्रासदी है, ऐसा हादसा फिर ना हो, इसकी जिम्मेदारी विमान कंपनियों, एयरवेज कंपनियों और सरकार तीनों को लेनी होगी।

दिल्ली के लिए उड़ान भरने वाला विमान तकनीकी समस्या के बाद एक घंटे में हांगकांग लौटा

फ्लाइट ट्रैकिंग वेबसाइट फ्लाइटरडार.कॉम के अनुसार, यह उड़ान लगभग 3.5 घंटे की देरी से रवाना हुई थी। इसका निर्धारित प्रस्थान समय सुबह 8.50 बजे था। एअर इंडिया ने कहा, सोलह जून 2025 को हांगकांग से दिल्ली के लिए प्रस्थान करने वाली उड़ान संख्या एआई315 तकनीकी समस्या के कारण उड़ान भरने के कुछ समय बाद हांगकांग लौट गई। विमान हांगकांग में सुरक्षित रूप से उतरा और एहतियात के तौर पर इसकी जांच की जा रही है। यात्रियों को जल्द से जल्द उनके गंतव्य दिल्ली तक पहुंचाने के लिए वैकल्पिक व्यवस्था की योजना बनाई गई है। उसने कहा, हम इस अप्रत्याशित व्यवधान के कारण होने वाली असुविधा को कम करने के लिए यात्रियों को सभी आवश्यक सहायता प्रदान कर रहे हैं।

शाइन जैकब और सोहिनी दास
चेन्नई/मुंबई, 16 जून

रिलायंस इंडस्ट्रीज की जामनगर इकाई से लेकर लेह के ठंडे इलाकों अथवा नई दिल्ली की भीड़भाड़ वाली सड़कों तक भारत का वाणिज्यिक वाहन उद्योग हाइड्रोजन से चलने वाले वाहनों के जरिये ईंधन में बदलाव को चुपचाप रफ्तार दे रहा है। ईंधन में बदलाव की इस क्रांति का नेतृत्व अशोक लीलैंड और टाटा मोटर्स जैसी प्रमुख वाहन कंपनियां कर रही हैं। उद्योग के अन्य दिग्गज भी इस ओर छलांग लगाने की तैयारी में हैं।

हालांकि ऐसे कुछ कार्यक्रम राष्ट्रीय ग्रीन हाइड्रोजन मिशन के विस्तार हैं, लेकिन मूल उपकरण विनिर्माता (ओईएम) भी भविष्य की तैयारी के लिए रणनीतिक तौर पर कदम बढ़ा रहे हैं। उदाहरण के लिए अशोक लीलैंड को ही लेते हैं। उसने 2023 में रिलायंस इंडस्ट्रीज से साझेदारी के तहत हाइड्रोजन ईंधन से चलने वाला देश का पहला ट्रक उतारा था। फिलहाल 20 से अधिक ऐसे वाहन सड़कों पर दौड़ रहे हैं और दो साल में ही इन वाहनों ने करीब 2.5 लाख किलोमीटर नाप लिए हैं। हाइड्रोजन से चलने वाले ये वाहन दक्षता के मामले में भी डीजल वाहनों के बराबर हैं। इतना ही नहीं, कंपनी ने दिल्ली, लेह एवं लद्दाख में हाइड्रोजन फ्यूल सेल वाली बसें तैनात करने के लिए एनटीपीसी ग्रीन के साथ करार भी किया है।

अशोक लीलैंड और टाटा मोटर्स जैसी प्रमुख भारतीय वाहन कंपनियां हाइड्रोन बसों व ट्रकों को दे रहीं रफ्तार, देश की सड़कों पर फिलहाल 20 से अधिक वाहन फर्राटा भर रहे हैं

अशोक लीलैंड के अध्यक्ष और प्रमुख (एमएचसीवी कारोबार) संजीव कुमार ने बिज़नेस स्टैंडर्ड से कहा, 'वैकल्पिक ईंधनों में वाणिज्यिक वाहन बाजार का अंतिम पड़ाव हाइड्रोजन होने जा रही है। मगर इसके लिए लागत ढांचे को सही रखना जरूरी है।'

कुमार ने कहा, 'एक संगठन के तौर पर हम प्रौद्योगिकी के साथ तैयार हैं। इसलिए सवाल केवल कब और कैसे का है क्योंकि हाइड्रोजन की लागत अभी भी काफी अधिक है। हाल में हमने अदाणी को छत्तीसगढ़ में उनके खनन कार्यों के लिए 55 टन का फ्यूल सेल वाहन दिया है।'

टाटा मोटर्स ने हाइड्रोजन इंजन और फ्यूल सेल वाले दो ट्रकों का परीक्षण शुरू कर दिया है। परीक्षण मार्च में शुरू हुआ था जो अगले 24 महीनों तक चलेगा। इसमें विभिन्न भार क्षमता वाले 16 हाइड्रोजन ईंधन वाले वाहनों को शामिल किया जाएगा। (शेष पृष्ठ 2 पर)

वाहन में हाइड्रोजन क्रांति को रफ्तार

पृष्ठ 1 का शेष

इन ट्रकों का परीक्षण प्रमुख मार्गों पर किया जाएगा जिनमें मुंबई, पुणे, दिल्ली एनसीआर, सूरत, वडोदरा, जमशेदपुर और कलिंगनगर शामिल हैं। टाटा मोटर्स के ग्रुप सीएफओ पीबी बालाजी ने हाल में कहा था, 'हमने अपने पहले हाइड्रोजन ट्रकों की शिपिंग भी शुरू कर दी है।'

कंपनी ने राष्ट्रीय ग्रीन हाइड्रोजन मिशन के तहत इंडियन ऑयल के साथ करार किया है। परीक्षण के तौर पर शुरू की गई परियोजना से आंकड़े प्राप्त होंगे जिनका उपयोग वाहन को बेहतर बनाने और विभिन्न मार्गों पर हाइड्रोजन की उपलब्धता में सुधार करने के लिए किया जाएगा। टाटा मोटर्स के कार्यकारी निदेशक गिरीश वाघ ने जनवरी में आयोजित भारत मोबिलिटी ग्लोबल एक्सपो 2025 में संकेत दिया था कि कंपनी दो साल के भीतर वाणिज्यिक तौर पर वाहन को उतारने के लिए तैयार है। मगर फिलहाल वह कोई जानकारी साझा नहीं करना चाहती है।

Saudia flight smoke triggers rescue at Lucknow airport

Firefighters' swift action prevented a plane tragedy at Lucknow airport when they doused smoke billowing from the wheels of an Airbus A300-343 flight from Jeddah taxiing at Chaudhary Charan Singh International Airport on Sunday morning.

The Saudia — Jeddah-based flag carrier of Saudi Arabia — flight carrying 289 passengers, mostly Haj pilgrims, had just touched down when a ground handling crew noticed wisps of smoke curling from the left-side wheels.

Technical assessment identified a hydraulic fluid leak in the landing gear system, a common issue affecting older aircraft. Based on data in the public domain, the aircraft is about 15 years old.

"The aircraft has been grounded and is expected to take off for Jeddah by Tuesday morning after thorough inspections by engineers and technicians," said a source. TNN

मुंबई, 16 जून (एजेंसियां)। विश्व बाजार की तेजी के बीच स्थानीय स्तर पर नीचे भाव पर हुई चौतरफा लिवाली की बदौलत पिछले लगातार दो दिन की गिरावट से उबरकर आज शेयर बाजार मजबूती के साथ बंद हुआ।

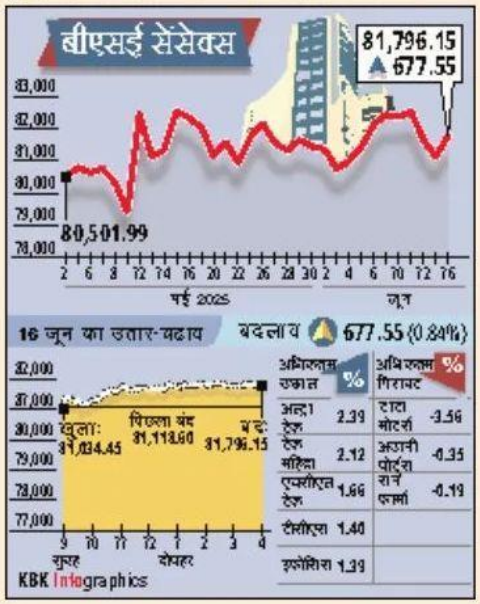
इस दौरान बीएसई में कुल 4253 कंपनियों के शेयरों में कारोबार हुआ, जिनमें से 1976 में तेजी जबकि 2108 में गिरावट रही वहीं 169 में कोई बदलाव नहीं हुआ। इसी तरह एनएसई में कारोबार के लिए रखी गई कुल 3021 कंपनियों के शेयरों में से 1483 में लिवाली जबकि 1448 बिकवाली हुई वहीं 90 में टिकाव रहा।

विश्लेषकों के अनुसार, इज़राइल और ईरान के बीच जारी भू-राजनीतिक तनाव के बावजूद, बाजार में तेजी देखने को मिली, जिसे प्रमुख रूप से लार्जकैप शेयरों में



मजबूती ने सहारा दिया। अनिश्चित माहौल में भी निवेशकों ने दीर्घकालिक बुनियादी कारकों पर भरोसा बनाए रखा। मध्य पश्चिम में जारी तनाव निकट भविष्य में बाजार की धारणा को प्रभावित कर सकता है और किसी भी तरह के तनाव में ढील के संकेतों पर निवेशक करीबी नजर बनाए हुए हैं।

वहीं, निफ्टी 14 अंक बढ़कर 24,732.35 अंक पर खुला और सत्र के दौरान 24,703.60 अंक के निचले जबकि 24,967.10 अंक के उच्चतम स्तर पर पहुंच गया। अंत में पिछले सत्र के 24,718.60 अंक की तुलना में 0.92 प्रतिशत की बढ़ोतरी लेकर 24,946.50 अंक पर बंद हुआ। इस दौरान सेंसेक्स की मुनाफा कमाने वाली कंपनियों में अल्ट्रासिम्को 2.39, टेक महिंद्रा 2.12, एचसीएल टेक 1.66, टीसीएस 1.40, इंफ़ोसिस 1.39, एशियन पेंट 1.28, कोटक बैंक 1.25, टाटा स्टील 1.25, इटरनल 1.20, एलटी 1.15, आईटीसी 1.08, भारती एयरटेल 1.04, मारुति 1.04, पावरग्रिड 1.03, एचडीएफसी बैंक 0.93, बजाज फिनसर्व 0.86, रिलायंस 0.76, आईसीआईसीआई बैंक 0.75, इंडसइंड बैंक 0.36 प्रतिशत शामिल रही। वहीं, टाटा मोटर्स 3.56, अडानी पोर्ट्स 0.35 और सन फार्मा के शेयर 0.19 प्रतिशत नुकसान में रहे।

ബ്രിട്ടീഷ് യുദ്ധ വിമാനം

ഇന്ത്യയ്ക്കും സ്വന്തമാവും

- ലോകത്തെ ഏറ്റവും അത്യാധുനിക യുദ്ധവിമാനങ്ങളിലൊന്നായ എഫ്-35 ഉടൻ അമേരിക്ക ഇന്ത്യയ്ക്ക് കൈമാറും. ഇതോടെ ഇന്ത്യൻ വ്യോമസേനയുടെ പ്രഹരശേഷി വർദ്ധിക്കും.
- റഷ്യയുടെ അഞ്ചാം തലമുറ യുദ്ധവിമാനമായ എസ്.യു 57നോട് കിടപിടിക്കുന്നതാണ് എഫ്35. എസ്.യു 57 തരാൻ റഷ്യയും തയ്യാറാണ്. ഫ്രാൻസിന്റെ റാഫേൽ ഇന്ത്യൻ സേനയുടെ ഭാഗമാണ്.
- ശബ്ദത്തേക്കാൾ വേഗത്തിൽ സഞ്ചരിക്കാൻ കഴിയുന്ന ഈ യുദ്ധ വിമാനങ്ങൾക്ക് 50,000 അടി ഉയരത്തിൽ വരെ പറക്കാനാവും.

आखिर अहमदाबाद में क्या गलत हुआ

सरकारी स्वामित्व से अब टाटा समूह के नियंत्रण में आने के बाद एअर इंडिया के किसी विमान के साथ पहली बार ऐसा हादसा हुआ है। लगातार घाटा उठाने, सेवा, गुणवत्ता एवं मानकों के साथ समझौते और कर्मचारी संघों के खराब रवैये के चलते लोग सरकार से निरंतर सवाल करते आ रहे थे कि वह इसे क्यों ढो रही है। इस सबके बावजूद तथ्य यह है कि सरकारी स्वामित्व के दौरान एअर इंडिया किसी हादसे का शिकार नहीं हुई, सिवाय तबके, जब जून 1985 में उसका विमान-कनिष्क वैश्विक आतंकवाद का शिकार बना था। कनाडा से भारत आ रही एअर इंडिया की फ्लाइट 182 को खालिस्तानी आतंकियों ने बम विस्फोट करके आसमान में ही उड़ा दिया गया था। विमान में विस्फोट के कारण उसमें सवार सभी 329 लोग मारे गए थे। विमान का मलबा आयरलैंड के समीप अटलांटिक महासागर में गिरा था।

एअर इंडिया के बेड़े में 95 प्रतिशत विमान औसतन 18 से 20 साल पुराने हैं तो देर-सबेर

हादसे की पड़ताल के साथ ही जवाबदेही सुनिश्चित किया जाना भी आवश्यक है। अब एअर इंडिया का स्वामित्व सरकारी नहीं, बल्कि टाटा समूह और सिंगापुर एयरलाइंस के पास है। यह प्रबंधन को और जवाबदेह बनाए जाने का एकदम सही समय है। इसमें किसी जुगाड़ वाली कामचलाऊ व्यवस्था के बजाय स्थायी उपायों पर ध्यान दिया जाए। जांच में चाहे जो निष्कर्ष निकलें, उन पर तत्काल अमल करना होगा। इन निष्कर्षों पर विश्व को भी ध्यान देना होगा। यदि रखरखाव से जुड़ी कमियां या लचर मेंटेनेंस ढांचे की गलती सामने आती है तो उसे तत्काल सुधारा जाए। इन कमियों ने कंपनी को अर्से से जकड़ा हुआ है। अगर विमानों का बेड़ा पुराना पड़ रहा है तो उसे बदला जाए। कंपनी नए विमानों की आवक से पहले अपना समूचा तंत्र सुधारे।

हमें कई चीजें ठीक करनी होंगी। भारत में दिल्ली, मुंबई, बेंगलुरु, हैदराबाद, कोलकाता और बेंगलुरु समेत तमाम अन्य एयरपोर्ट की लोकेशन चिंता का विषय है। आपात स्थिति में जोखिम कहीं ज्यादा बढ़ जाता है। हर भारतीय हवाई अड्डा आधुनिक शहरीकरण से घिरा हुआ है। उनके आसपास आवासीय अपार्टमेंट, कार्यालय, कालेज, अस्पताल और माल आदि हैं। इसके चलते हवाई अड्डों के आसपास खाली जगह नहीं बची। इमरजेंसी लैंडिंग की स्थिति में खाली पड़ी जमीन के चलते विमान तक सहायता पहुंचाने में आसानी होती है। यदि नीची उड़ान में इंजन फेल हो जाए तो पायलट विमान संभाल सकता है और दुर्घटना से बच सकता है। अभी तो ऐसा होने की शून्य संभावना है। देश को अपने सभी हवाई अड्डों की लोकेशन पर पुनर्विचार करना चाहिए। हवाई अड्डों को घनी शहरी बस्तियों से दूर स्थानांतरित करने की योजना बनानी चाहिए। यह एक लंबी, धीमी और कष्टकारी प्रक्रिया होगी, लेकिन इसे करना आवश्यक है।

Silent Black Box

What gadgets of doomed aircraft never record

Kannan.Somasundaram@timesofindia.com

As the Air India flight taxied on the Ahmedabad runway, the jet would have gargled fuel to clear its throat, reminders to keep the seat belt fastened would have sounded like familiar chants in the pressurised cabin, a few passengers would have whispered their customary travel prayers, some would have argued that Heathrow offers better connectivity to central London than Gatwick, somebody would have recalled their last flight to Heathrow from Delhi and wondered if the Thames would appear on the Gatwick route.

The etiquette-conscious would have deliberated on the correct response to 'how do you do?' in UK, some would have joked that Brits wouldn't mind if people said 'how're ya doin'?' to the King as long as they had waited British-ly in a queue to address the monarch, some laughter would have strummed seat belts when those averse to culinary adventures relished with desi glee the prospect of ordering cholay-bhature in the former Raj HQ.

A first-time visitor to London would have shown explorational savvy and proclaimed that London Bridge has 'cliché' splashed all over it like betel-leaf stains and Charles Dickens Museum is the place for sophisticates, their seat neighbour would have commented that Delhi taxiwallahs' directional acumen is just as legendary as London's Black Cab drivers', some passengers would have started a battle of wills with time itself to hug their loved ones sooner than determined by the mundane arrival schedule, a few would have gone back in time to worry about not switching off all their home lights.

And then as the jet engine's gargling began smoothing into the war cry of human ingenuity against gravity, even some frequent fliers would have looked out of their windows to marvel at the audacity of a toothpaste-tube-shaped machine to rescue hundreds of people at once from the solidity of routines, passengers would likely not have known that the plane was losing altitude, would probably not have realised that the pilots were overriding instinctual fear with professional focus, the pilots would have been using the muscle of their conscience to strengthen their trained hands to do everything they could to save the passengers in their care and save the metrics that make us all human: love, ambition, excitement, and the faith in ourselves to plan for the next day. Black boxes don't record those metrics.

Funerals Of Pilot & Co-Pilot Of Ill-Fated Air India Flight To Take Place Today

Shourya Avankhedkar & Mrinalini Singh | TNN

Mumbai: Heartbreaking scenes unfolded as the last rites of two Air India crew members who died in the Ahmedabad air crash of June 12 were performed in Mumbai on Monday. Distraught families of senior airhostess Shraddha Dhawan of Mulund and flight attendant Saineeta Chakravarti of Juhu Koliwada laid their dear departed to rest. The remains of these AI staffers were despatched to Mumbai from Ahmedabad after their families' DNA samples matched with theirs.

The bodies of the pilot, Capt Sumeet Sabharwal of Powai, and co-pilot or first officer Clive Kunder of Goregaon are expected to be consigned to the elements on Tuesday. Clive was a member of the UBM Christa Kanthi Church in Kurla and the burial is scheduled at Sewri Cemetery. Sabharwal's remains will be flown into Mumbai from Ahmedabad on an early morning flight.

Distraught kith and kin of senior airhostess Shraddha Dhawan of Mulund lay her to rest

Late Monday night, deceased cabin supervisor Shraddha Dhawan, 44, who lived in Nishad Kalpnagari, Mulund, was laid to rest by her husband Rajesh. Neighbours and relatives gathered to offer condolence.

Rajesh, also an employee of Air India since 2005, is a native of Palakkad, Kerala. The couple got married in 2006 in Palakkad. He is the youngest of three children of K Narayanan, a retired officer of the Indian Air Force.

A day before the crash, Rajesh had gone to Delhi to attend a course organised by Air India. It was during his stay there that he received the news of his wife's death through an official call from the airline. During the incident, their 13-year-old daughter was with her maternal relatives in Mumbai.

In Juhu Koliwada, the Chakravarti family bade farewell to their daughter Saineeta, 35, at the Hindu crematorium in Santacruz West. Over 200 mourners, including Air India colleagues, family and neighbours from her community, gathered as her father Abin performed the last rites.

Saineeta's mother Reema wept uncontrollably while her father and sister quietly struggled to contain their grief. Everyone present mourned the loss of a bright young lady who had the drive to lift her family out of poverty by sheer dint of hard work.

AI 171 flies again as AI 159: Among passengers, man who skipped tragic flight

Niyati.Parikh

Ahmedabad: First flights are all about nervous excitement, but this one was always going to be different.

AI 159 from Ahmedabad to London Gatwick — the first on that route since the June 12 Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner crash, renumbered from AI 171 — took off on Monday on the sombre wings of remembrance and prayer, ferrying at least one passenger who might have been on the crashed aircraft four days earlier had his mother not taken ill suddenly.

Jayesh Ramji was approaching Gate 4 of Terminal 2, tightly clasping his cabin bag, when his mind raced back through the surreal last few days of his trip to India. "I was to return on AI 171. I postponed my travel to June 16 because my mother was unwell. All I want is to get back home safe," said the 34-year-old London shop assistant with roots in Diu.

His wasn't the only face betraying more than a trace of emotion ahead of renumbered flight AI 159's 4.30pm departure, over three hours later than scheduled.

The terminal was seemingly quieter than usual, with families clinging a little tighter, and goodbyes lasting a tad longer.

Raas Mishra, 28, had just said goodbye to his teary-eyed parents. "They were scared. I am a tad nervous, too, but I have flown Air India before. I trust their pilots," said the young man, employed with a logistics firm in London.

For 72-year-old Kokila Patel of Patan, the announcement of a delay – the Dreamliner was to take off at 1.10pm – added to what she described as "emotional exhaustion".

Her elder sister Pushpa, 75, said she had "begged" her sibling to change the airline, "but she wouldn't listen"

She was scheduled to fly out on June 14, but the flight was cancelled after the crash two days earlier.

"My son said I should book another airline. But I had already confirmed my travel on June 16 with Air India by then," she said. "I trust God and the airline. I want to go back, not stay scared forever."

Her elder sister Pushpa, 75, said she had "begged" her sibling to change the airline, "but she wouldn't listen".

Sabina Qasmani, 21, from Veraval was heading back to the UK to join her father and siblings. Her mother, Ameena, admitted she would be anxious until she received a call from London that her daughter had reached safely. "Since the crash, I haven't been able to sleep. Sabina is flying the same route. It's hard not to worry," she said.

For Riddhi, a young married woman returning to the UK after visiting her family in Ahmedabad, the journey was about managing mixed emotions. "This is my second trip home since getting married. I was happy being with my family, but I now want to get back safely to my husband."

Flight smoke while landing at Lucknow airport triggers rescue

Lucknow: Firefighters' swift action prevented a plane tragedy at Lucknow airport when they doused smoke billowing from the wheels of an Airbus A300-343 flight from Jeddah taxiing at Chaudhary Charan Singh International Airport on Sunday morning. The Saudia — Jeddah-based flag carrier of Saudi Arabia — flight carrying 289 passengers, mostly Haj pilgrims, had just touched down when a ground handling crew noticed wisps of smoke.

Technical assessment identified a hydraulic fluid leak in the landing gear system, a common issue affecting older aircraft. "The aircraft has been grounded and is expected to take off for Jeddah by Tuesday morning after thorough inspections by engineers," said a source. TNN

Indian trucks take hydrogen highway to future

SHINE JACOB & SOHINI DAS
Chennai/Mumbai, 16 June

From the industrial sprawl of Reliance Industries' Jamnagar refinery to the frost-bitten heights of Leh and the traffic-choked avenues of New Delhi, a quiet shift is underway in India's commercial vehicle (CV) sector. Hydrogen-powered trucks and buses — once a speculative future — are now rolling out onto the country's roads, driven by auto giants like Ashok Leyland and Tata Motors. Others are not far behind.

While many of these efforts are aligned with the government's National Green Hydrogen Mission, original equipment manufacturers (OEMs) are also shaping their own road maps to remain future-ready. Ashok Leyland, for instance, made headlines in 2023 when it unveiled the country's first hydrogen internal combustion engine (H2-ICE) truck, developed in collaboration with Reliance Industries Ltd (RIL).

ASHOK LEYLAND HAS PARTNERED NTPC GREEN TO DEPLOY HYDROGEN FUEL CELL BUSES IN KEY LOCATIONS, INCLUDING DELHI AND LADAKH

Since then, over 20 of these heavy-duty vehicles have clocked nearly 250,000 kilometres, and have rivalled the efficiency of traditional ICE vehicles.

The firm has partnered NTPC Green to deploy hydrogen fuel cell buses in key locations, including Delhi and Ladakh.

"Among the alternative fuels, the ultimate destination of the CV market is going to be hydrogen. However, it needs the cost structure to be right," Sanjeev Kumar, president and head of the medium and heavy commercial vehicle division at Ashok Leyland, told Business Standard. "As an organisation, we are ready with technology; it is only a question of when and how, as the cost of hydrogen continues to be very high. Recently, we have also delivered one 55-tonne fuel cell vehicle to Adani (group) for its mining application in Chhattisgarh."

Tata Motors, too, is carrying out trials of hydrogen-powered CVs. Since March, the firm has been testing two trucks — one powered by H2-ICE, the other by hydrogen fuel cell — across a 24-month pilot programme. A total of 16 hydrogen-powered vehicles, with varying payloads and configurations, will ply on some of India's busiest freight routes in Mumbai, Pune, Delhi-NCR, Surat, Vadodara, Jamshedpur, and Kalinganagar.

"We've also started shipping our first hydrogen trucks, which are now going to ply on specific lanes," P B Balaji, group chief financial officer at Tata Motors, said during a recent post-earnings call.

The pilot, undertaken in partnership with Indian Oil Corporation, aims to gather on-ground data — both to finetune the vehicles and to map out hydrogen availability along key transport routes.

Govt's pilot projects to put 37 hydrogen-powered vehicles on the road

At the Bharat Mobility Global Expo earlier this year, Tata Motors Executive Director Girish Wagh signalled that the company was targeting a commercial launch window within the next 12 to 24 months. The company did not wish to share further updates at the moment.

The momentum isn't limited to Indian firms. Daimler Truck, one of the world's leading CV manufacturers, is preparing to enter the Indian hydrogen race. "On the path towards decarbonising transport, Daimler Truck is entering the next development phase of its fuel cell trucks," said Pradeep Kumar T, president of product engineering and chief technology officer, Daimler India Commercial Vehicles.

Following extensive testing, both on tracks and public roads, Daimler's Mercedes-Benz GenH2 trucks are now approaching the customer deployment phase. "We are currently evaluating customer readiness, infrastructure availability, and local operating conditions to ensure that when our hydrogen trucks enter Indian roads, it will be with full commitment to the quality, safety and reliability that define Daimler Truck worldwide," he added.

The central government, too, is ramping up its hydrogen play. Through the Ministry of New and Renewable Energy, five pilot projects have been allocated to a group of private players — Tata Motors, RIL, NTPC, Ashok Leyland, Hindustan Petroleum Corporation Ltd, Bharat Petroleum Corporation Ltd, and Indian Oil Corporation Ltd. Together, these projects will put 37 hydrogen-powered vehicles (a mix of buses and trucks) on the road, supported by nine hydrogen-refuelling stations.

The vehicles include 15 powered by hydrogen fuel cells and 22 by hydrogen ICEs. The trials will take place on 10 routes across the country — from Delhi to Thiruvananthapuram. Launched in January 2023, the National Green Hydrogen Mission has an allocated budget of ₹19,744 crore through to the end of the decade.

It is the centrepiece of India's push towards becoming aatmanirbhar (self-reliant) in clean energy and serving as an inspiration for the global clean energy transition.

जयपुर एयरपोर्ट: 180 यात्री परेशान होते रहे

ईरानी एयरस्पेस बंद, शारजाह फ्लाइट देरी से आई, वापसी में भी 3:15 घंटे लेट

जयपुर | जयपुर एयरपोर्ट पर सोमवार को शारजाह जा रही एक इंटरनेशनल फ्लाइट में तकनीकी खराबी के चलते यात्रियों को तीन घंटे तक परेशानी का सामना करना पड़ा। ये सूचना दिनभर सोशल मीडिया, न्यूज पोर्टल पर चलती रही। इसमें फ्लाइट में खराबी की वजह से परेशान यात्रियों की पुरानी फोटो, वीडियो क्लिप चलती रही। जब इस बारे में एयर अरेबिया एयरलाइंस और एयरपोर्ट प्रबंधन से बात की तो उन्होंने बताया कि ऐसा कुछ नहीं हुआ। हालांकि फ्लाइट करीब सवा तीन घंटे देरी से रवाना हुई है।

दरअसल एयरपोर्ट प्रबंधन ने बताया कि ईरानी एयरस्पेस बंद होने से की वजह से एयर अरेबिया एयरलाइंस की फ्लाइट में देरी हुई थी। ईरान ने अलसुबह एयर स्पेस बंद कर दिया था। ऐसे में इनकमिंग फ्लाइट के आने में देरी हुई। इससे जयपुर से जाते समय फ्लाइट जी9-436 सुबह 4:45 बजे की बजाय सवा तीन घंटे की देरी से करीब सवा आठ बजे रवाना हुई।

दिनभर खबर चली, तकनीकी खराबी आने से फ्लाइट रनवे से वापस लौटी

एक्सट्रा बूस्ट • बैंकों ने ब्याज दरें 0.5% तक घटाईं, इससे रियल्टी, ऑटोमोबाइल जैसे सेक्टरों के शेयर चढ़े

क्रूड 2% सस्ता होने से 677 अंक चढ़ा सेंसेक्स, आईटी इंडेक्स 1.5% और रियल्टी 1.3% उछला

बिजनेस संवाददाता | मुंबई

ईरान और इजराइल लगातार चौथे दिन जारी रहने के बावजूद सोमवार को कमोबेश दुनियाभर के शेयर बाजारों में तेजी रही। भारत में भी सेंसेक्स 677 अंक से ज्यादा चढ़ गया। कच्चे तेल की कीमतों में करीब 2% गिरावट इसकी सबसे बड़ी वजह बताई गई। आईटी शेयरों में 1.50% से ज्यादा तेजी से बाजार को अतिरिक्त सपोर्ट मिला। ये शेयर लंबे समय से बिकवाली के दबाव में थे। सेंसेक्स 677.55 अंक (0.84%) चढ़कर 81,796 पर और निफ्टी 228 अंकों (0.92%) की बढ़त लेकर 24,946.50 पर बंद हुआ। अच्छी बात ये रही कि तेजी सिर्फ बड़ी कंपनियों के शेयरों तक सीमित नहीं रही।

ट्रेंड: एनएसई के चार सेक्टोरल इंडेक्स में निफ्टी से ज्यादा तेजी

सेक्टर	तेजी
आईटी	1.57%
रियल्टी	1.32%
ऑयल-गैस	1.11%
मेटल	1.07%
प्राइवेट बैंक	0.86%

(एनएसई के सभी सेक्टोरल इंडेक्स बढ़त पर बंद हुए)

- निफ्टी के मिडकैप100 इंडेक्स और स्मॉलकैप100 इंडेक्स भी करीब 1% बढ़त पर बंद हुए।
- कच्चे तेल के बेंचमार्क ब्रेंट क्रूड का भाव 1.74% गिरकर 73 डॉलर/बैरल से नीचे रहा।

टर्नअराउंड: सेंसेक्स के टॉप-5 गेनर में से 4 आईटी कंपनियों के शेयर

- बेंचमार्क इंडेक्स सेंसेक्स के 30 में से सिर्फ तीन शेयरों- टाटा मोटर्स, अदाणी पोर्ट्स और सन फार्मा में क्रमशः 3.56%, 0.35% और 0.2% गिरावट आई। बाकी चढ़े।
- अल्ट्राटेक सीमेंट में सर्वाधिक 2.5% उछाल आया। टॉप-5 गेनर में 4 आईटी शेयर- टेक महिंद्रा, एचसीएल टेक, टीसीएस और इन्फोसिस रहे। इनमें 1.3-2% तेजी रही।
- बीएसई पर सोमवार को कुल 4,253 शेयरों की ट्रेडिंग हुई। इनमें से 1,944 शेयरों में तेजी और 2,151 शेयरों में गिरावट आई। 158 शेयर स्थिर रहे।
- किसी भी शेयर पर अपर सर्किट नहीं लगा। हालांकि 7 शेयरों पर लोअर सर्किट लगा।

ईरान-इजराइल तनाव लंबा खिंचने की आशंका कम, सस्ते लोन से ट्रिगर मिला

भास्कर एक्सपर्ट

सनी अग्रवाल
डीवीपी, फंडामेंटल रिसर्च, एसबीआई सिक्युरिटीज

बाजार में आज की उछाल का सबसे बड़ा क्रेडिट कच्चे तेल में गिरावट को जाता है। दरअसल पेट्रोलियम निर्यातक देशों का संगठन ओपेक सीमित मांग के चलते क्रूड का प्रोडक्शन घटा रहा है। हो सकता है कि इसका फायदा उठाने के लिए कई देशों ने प्रोडक्शन बढ़ाना शुरू कर दिया हो। इस बीच इजराइल की कार्रवाई में ईरान के बड़े लीडर्स मारे गए। इससे तनाव लंबा खिंचने की आशंका कम रह गई। सप्लाई चेन बाधित होने को लेकर भी कोई बाधा अब तक नहीं दिखी। इसके साथ ही एसबीआई समेत कई बैंकों ने ब्याज दरों में 0.5% कटौती की। नया लोन सस्ता होने से रियल्टी और ऑटोमोबाइल जैसे सेक्टरों के शेयरों में तेजी आई। आगे अगर मौजूदा तनाव के बीच कोई निगेटिव खबर आती है तो बाजार भी निगेटिव प्रतिक्रिया दे सकता है। अमेरिकी टैरिफ में छूट की डेडलाइन जुलाई में खत्म हो रही है। अगर ये तनाव फिर ट्रिगर होता है तो बाजार दबाव में आ सकता है।

DP Bhattacharya

Ahmedabad: Until they cross-checked the visuals and the flight manifest, emergency responders of the 108 Ambulance service could not believe that they had indeed rescued the sole survivor from the Air India plane that crashed in Ahmedabad Thursday.

Satinder Singh Sandhu, a 108 emergency management executive, said when they found Vishwas Kumar, the British national who survived the crash, was in confused state and wanted to walk back to the plane that was still in flames, saying he had family members travelling on the same flight. "I put him in an ambulance and sent him to hospital without knowing that he was the sole survivor of the crash," he told ET.

Sandhu said he was having lunch at his office at the 1,200-bed new complex of the Civil hospital, which is about 200 meters away from the crash site, on Thursday when he heard a loud sound. He immediately mobilised five ambulances available there and rushed to the spot. "Initially I thought it was a big accident," he said. "But the fire and the smoke there told us that it was something much bigger, and probably an air crash." Sandhu called his superior Jitendra Shahi, who rushed 25 more ambulances to the spot. "Meanwhile, we saw a wounded security guard and sent him to hospital," Sandhu said. "And then, we saw a man walking out of the building premises somewhat wounded. Initially we thought he was someone from the building who had probably jumped out of the building." As they were taking the confused-looking man to the hospital, he told the paramedic in the ambulance that he was travelling to London in that plane, said Shahi. They did not believe him initially. "Later in the evening, when we checked the visual, cross-checked his name with the flight manifest, it was only then we realised that he was indeed the sole survivor of the crash," said Shahi.

मुसळधार पावसामुळे विमान सेवा उशिराने

धैर्य गजारा / मुंबई

सोमवारी झालेल्या मुसळधार पावसाचा परिणाम शहरातील छत्रपती शिवाजी महाराज आंतरराष्ट्रीय विमानतळाच्या कामकाजावर झाला. कमी दृश्यमानता आणि जोरदार वाऱ्यांमुळे विमान सेवा सरासरी एक तास उशिराने सुरू झाली.

रविवार उशिरा सुरू झालेल्या पावसाने सोमवारभर मुसळधार स्वरूप घेतले आणि देशातील सर्वाधिक वर्दळीच्या विमानतळांपैकी एक असलेल्या मुंबई विमानतळासाठी हा दिवस कठीण ठरला. खराब हवामानामुळे अनेक विमानांची विलंब, तसेच इतर शहरांकडे वळविण्याची वेळ आली.

नवी मुंबई विमानतळाला मांसविक्री दुकानांचा धोका

तक्रारीवर कारवाई होत नसल्याचा आरोप

मुंबई । अहमदाबादमधील विमान दुर्घटना ही नवी मुंबई आंतरराष्ट्रीय विमानतळासाठी मोठा धडा देणारी आहे. येत्या ऑगस्टपासून नवी मुंबई विमानतळाची सेवा सुरू होण्याची शक्यता असून, त्याच्या नजीक असलेली मांसविक्रीची बेकायदा दुकाने आता पुन्हा चर्चेत आली आहेत.

नागरी हवाई वाहतूक महासंचालनालयाच्या (डीजीसीए) महासंचालकांनी या बेकायदा मांसविक्री दुकानांबाबत चिंता व्यक्त केल्यानंतरही त्यांचा व्यवसाय बिनदिक्कत सुरू आहे, अशी माहिती सामाजिक कार्यकर्ते बी. एन. कुमार यांनी दिली. विमानतळाच्या धावपट्टीच्या अवघ्या तीन किलोमीटरच्या परिघात उलवे येथे पशुंची कत्तल करून उघड्यावर मांसविक्री होत असल्याचा आरोप नॅटकनेक्ट या स्वयंसेवी संस्थेने केला होता. हाच प्रश्न त्यांनी अहमदाबाद दुर्घटनेनंतर पुन्हा उपस्थित केला आहे. या संस्थेचे संचालक बी. एन. कुमार यांनी निवेदनात म्हटले आहे की, हा प्रश्न स्थानिक प्राधिकरणांकडे गांभीर्याने मांडला जावा, असे आपण डीजीसीएला कळविले आहे. कारण जनावरांच्या कत्तलीमुळे या ठिकाणी घारीसारखे मोठे पक्षी येऊ शकतात. त्यामुळे विमानांच्या उड्डाणात बाधा येऊ शकते.

विमान दुर्घटना : दुसरा ब्लॅक बॉक्सही सापडला

अहमदाबाद - एअर इंडियाच्या भीषण विमान दुर्घटनेतील दुसरा ब्लॅक बॉक्स सापडल्यानंतर तपासकर्त्यांनी तपासाचा वेग वाढवला आहे. दुर्घटनेच्या चार दिवसांनंतर ११९ मृतांची डीएनए चाचणीद्वारे ओळख पटविण्यात आली असून, सोमवार (१६ जून) पर्यंत ७६ जणांचे (पान ६ वर)

विमान दुर्घटना : दुसरा ब्लॅक बॉक्सही सापडला

नागरी उड्डाण महासंचालनालय अर्थात डीजीसीए, एएआयबी, राष्ट्रीय तपास संस्था (एनआयए), गुजरात एटीएस, अहमदाबाद गुन्हे शाखा, स्थानिक पोलिसांकडून या दुर्घटनेचा विविध अंगांनी तपास केला जात आहे. तर अपघातातील मृतांची ओळख डीएनए चाचण्यांद्वारे पटविण्याचे काम अविरतपणे सुरू आहे. डीएनए चाचणीद्वारे आतापर्यंत ११९ मृतांची ओळख पटविण्यात आली आहे. सर्व पीडित गुजरात आणि राजस्थानच्या विविध भागांतील होते. डीएनएद्वारे ओळख पटविण्याच्या प्रक्रियेला बराच वेळ लागत असल्याची तक्रार काही शोक-संतप्त नातेवाईकांनी केली आहे. त्यानंतर शासकीय रुग्णालयाचे अधीक्षक डॉ. राकेश जोशी यांनी याबाबत स्पष्टीकरण देत, प्रक्रियेमुळे त्रस्त न होण्याचे आवाहन केले आहे. ही प्रक्रिया लवकरात-लवकर पूर्ण करण्यासाठी व्यापक पातळीवर काम केले जात असल्याचे त्यांनी म्हटले.

हवाई सुरक्षा में भारत इतना फिसड्डी क्यों ?

अहमदाबाद में विमान दुर्घटना के तत्काल बाद कई शुभचिंतकों और मित्रों ने बात करते हुए सलाह देने की मुद्रा में यह जरूर कहा कि आप बहुत ज्यादा हवाई यात्रा करते हैं! उन्होंने सीधे तो नहीं कहा लेकिन उनके कहने का मतलब विमानन सुरक्षा को लेकर ही था! मैंने उन्हें समझाया कि यह एक दुर्घटना है. वास्तव में हवाई यात्रा अब भी सबसे सुरक्षित माध्यम बना हुआ है. आंकड़ों का विश्लेषण करें तो यह पता चलता है कि दुनिया के स्तर पर हवाई यात्रा में मरने की आशंका 1 करोड़ 10 लाख यात्रियों में से केवल एक होती है जबकि सड़क दुर्घटना में मरने की आशंका अपेक्षाकृत बहुत ज्यादा होती है! हवाई यात्रा के सुरक्षित होने को लेकर मैंने उन्हें कई और आंकड़े दिए. मसलन, भारत में सड़क दुर्घटनाओं में पिछले साल 1 लाख 80 हजार लोगों की मौत हुई. भारत में ट्रेन यात्राओं में भी औसतन हर साल 20 हजार लोगों की मौतें होती हैं. इन आंकड़ों को देखें तो हवाई यात्रा बिल्कुल महफूज नजर आती है लेकिन कुछ सवाल मेरे मन को लगातार मथते रहते हैं. अहमदाबाद की हवाई दुर्घटना के बाद तो सवालों ने और भी उधम मचाना शुरू कर दिया है. विमान यात्रियों के आंकड़ों के पैमाने पर देखें तो भारत इस समय दुनिया में तीसरे नंबर पर है. सबसे ज्यादा यात्री अमेरिका में उड़ान भरते हैं और दूसरे क्रम पर चीन है. तीसरे नंबर पर भारत है. मार्च 2025 में खत्म हुए वित्तीय वर्ष में डोमेस्टिक यानी देश के अंदर हवाई यात्रा करने वालों की संख्या 16 करोड़ 54 लाख तक पहुंच चुकी थी. वर्ष 2023-24 की तुलना में यह आंकड़ा 7.6 प्रतिशत ज्यादा है. यह आंकड़ा साल-दर-साल बढ़ते ही जाना है क्योंकि बहुत सारे छोटे शहरों में एयरपोर्ट होने के बावजूद विमान सेवाएं शुरू होने का इंतजार है. तो फिर हवाई यात्रा की सुरक्षा के मामले में भारत अभी भी इतना फिसड्डी क्यों है? मैं फिसड्डी इसलिए कह रहा हूं क्योंकि हम 48 वें नंबर पर हैं. सामान्य रूप से इस बात पर हम भारतीय सुकून व्यक्त कर सकते हैं कि 2018 में हम 102 नंबर पर थे और 2022 में 48 वें नंबर पर आ गए थे. लेकिन मेरा सवाल है कि जब हम हवाई यात्रियों की संख्या में इतना ऊपर हैं तो हमें सुरक्षा के मामले में भी उतना ही चाक-चौबंद होना चाहिए. बहुत पुराने नियमों को भारत सरकार ने 2024 में बदल दिया था. उससे बहुत फर्क पड़ने की संभावना है लेकिन छोटी-छोटी बातें बड़ी आशंकाओं को जन्म देती हैं. मैं नागपुर एयरपोर्ट का ही एक उदाहरण देता हूं. छत की सीलिंग का एक हिस्सा अचानक एक दिन गिर गया. सौभाग्य से कोई बड़ा हादसा नहीं हुआ लेकिन कुछ यात्रियों को चोटें जरूर आईं. विमानन क्षेत्र के बारे में कहा जाता है कि वहां हर चीज के लिए जीरो टॉलरेंस की नीति अपनाई जाती है. तो फिर छत की सीलिंग कैसे गिरी? कहीं न कहीं निर्माण कार्य में गड़बड़ हुई थी! इस तरह की और भी बहुत सारी घटनाएं हैं. अभी एयर इंडिया का जो विमान अहमदाबाद से उड़ान भरते ही दुर्घटना का शिकार हो गया था उसके कारण तो अभी सामने आना बाकी हैं कि वास्तव में हुआ क्या? मगर उसी दिन, उसी विमान में दिल्ली से अहमदाबाद की यात्रा के दौरान एक यात्री ने जो वीडियो बनाया वह खतरनाक था. वीडियो में दिख रहा है कि कोई भी बटन काम नहीं कर रहा है. एसी नहीं चलने से यात्री परेशान हैं. अहमदाबाद पहुंचने के बाद क्या उसकी जांच की गई थी? यदि कहीं कोई विमान दुर्घटनाग्रस्त होता है तो मतलब साफ है कि कहीं न कहीं कोई चूक तो हुई है! एविएशन क्षेत्र में चूक के कई बड़े उदाहरण इतिहास में दर्ज हैं. भारत में हुई कुछ विमान दुर्घटनाओं की मैं आपको याद दिलाता हूं ताकि आप स्थिति को समझ सकें. 1978 में नए साल के पहले दिन दुबई जा रही एयर इंडिया की फ्लाइट मुंबई से उड़ान भरते ही समंदर में जा गिरी. उस बोइंग 747 विमान में सवार सभी 213 लोग मारे गए. दुर्घटना का कारण तकनीकी खराबी और पायलट के भ्रमित रिएक्शन को माना गया. अप्रैल 1993 में औरंगाबाद में उड़ान भरते समय ही रनवे पर चलते ट्रक से इंडियन एयरलाइंस का एक विमान टकरा गया था. ओवरलोडिंग और पायलट की चूक को दुर्घटना का कारण माना गया. कुछ और दुर्घटनाओं को याद कीजिए. अगस्त 2020 में कोझिकोड इंटरनेशनल एयरपोर्ट पर लैंडिंग के दौरान विमान रनवे से आगे निकल कर घाटी में गिर गया. विमान के टुकड़े हो गए. 2 पायलटों समेत 21 यात्रियों की मौत हो गई. उससे पहले 1990 में इंडियन एयरलाइंस का एक विमान बेंगलुरु एयरपोर्ट के पास गिरा और 92 यात्रियों की मौत हो गई. वहां भी पायलट की गलती सामने आई. मैं फ्रीक्वेंट फ्लायर हूं. अपने अनुभव के आधार पर कह सकता हूं कि हमारे देश में हवाई यात्राएं उतनी ज्यादा सुखद और आरामदायक नहीं होतीं जितना कि विदेशी एयरलाइंस की यात्राओं में होती हैं. एयर टरब्युलेंस की बात तो छोड़ दीजिए, कई बार इतनी रफ लैंडिंग होती है कि यात्रियों का कलेजा मुंह को आ जाता है. बातें बहुत सारी हैं लेकिन संक्षेप में कहना चाहूंगा कि भारत में एविएशन इंडस्ट्री में कई बातों पर वास्तविक रूप से जीरो टॉलरेंस नीति के तहत ध्यान देने की जरूरत है. क्या यह शर्मनाक नहीं है कि हमारा एक भी एयरपोर्ट टॉप 25 में नहीं है. व्यस्तता की दृष्टि से इंदिरा गांधी इंटरनेशनल एयरपोर्ट, दिल्ली दुनिया में 9 वें नंबर पर है लेकिन यह भी बेहतरीन एयरपोर्ट्स की सूची में 32 वें नंबर पर है! और अंतिम सवाल कि भारत में 2006 से 2024 के बीच दस एयरलाइंस बंद क्यों हो गईं? ऐसी बहुत सारी बातें हैं, बहुत सारे सवाल हैं लेकिन आप तो बगैर चिंता के हवाई यात्राएं कीजिए. यह सबसे तेज भी है और सबसे सुरक्षित भी है...!

यात्रियों की संख्या के मामले में दुनिया में तीसरे नंबर पर और सुरक्षा में अब भी 48 वें पायदान पर !

एआई 315 फ्लाइट सुरक्षित रूप से हुई लैंड, सभी यात्रियों को दी जा रही सहायता : एयर इंडिया

आज समाज नेटवर्क

नई दिल्ली। एयर इंडिया के बोइंग 787-8 ड्रीमलाइनर में तकनीकी खराबी आने के कारण एआई 315 फ्लाइट को सोमवार को दिल्ली के लिए उड़ान भरने के तुरंत बाद आधे रास्ते से ही हांगकांग वापस लौटना पड़ा, जिसके बाद इस विमान की तकनीकी जांच की जा रही है। एयरलाइन ने एक बयान में कहा कि एआई 315 फ्लाइट सुरक्षित रूप से लैंड कर चुकी है और सभी यात्रियों को सहायता प्रदान की जा रही है। एयर इंडिया के प्रवक्ता के अनुसार, पायलट द्वारा बीच हवा में ही संभावित समस्या का पता लगाने के बाद एहतियात के तौर पर विमान को वापस लौटा दिया गया।

प्रवक्ता ने कहा, "विमान हांगकांग में सुरक्षित तरीके से उतर गया है और एहतियात के तौर पर इसकी जांच की जा रही है।" एयरलाइन ने कहा, "यात्रियों को जल्द से जल्द दिल्ली पहुंचाने के लिए वैकल्पिक व्यवस्था की जा रही है।" एयर इंडिया ने यह भी पुष्टि की कि अप्रत्याशित व्यवधान के कारण होने वाली असुविधा को कम करने के लिए सभी आवश्यक सहायता प्रदान की जा रही है। यह घटना पिछले सप्ताह विमान एआई 171 की दुखद घटना के बाद सामने आई है। यह विमान भी बोइंग 787-8 ड्रीमलाइनर द्वारा संचालित था, जो अहमदाबाद से लंदन जा रहा था। विमान उड़ान भरने के कुछ ही समय बाद दुर्घटनाग्रस्त हो गया। यह विमान अहमदाबाद के बीजे मेडिकल कॉलेज में डॉक्टरों के छात्रावास से टकरा गया, जिसके परिणामस्वरूप विमान में सवार 242 लोगों में से 241 की मौत हो गई, साथ ही जमीन पर भी कई लोग हताहत हुए।

पिछले हफ्ते, एयर इंडिया ने अहमदाबाद में दुखद एआई171 विमान दुर्घटना में जान गंवाने वाले प्रत्येक व्यक्ति के परिवारों के लिए 25 लाख रुपए के अंतरिम मुआवजे की भी घोषणा की। यही राशि एकमात्र जीवित बचे व्यक्ति को भी दी जाएगी। यह मुआवजा टाटा संस द्वारा पहले से दी गई 1 करोड़ रुपए की वित्तीय सहायता के अतिरिक्त है।

AI Dreamliner goes back to Hong Kong

An Air India Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner plane bound for New Delhi returned to its origin of Hong Kong as a precautionary measure on Monday after a technical issue was suspected mid-air, the latest incident affecting the airline in recent days.

AI315 "returned to Hong Kong shortly after take-off due to a technical issue. The flight landed safely ... and is undergoing checks as a matter of abundant precaution," Air India said in a statement.

The incident comes days after an Air India flight to London, using the same type of Boeing aircraft, crashed in Ahmedabad moments after take-off, killing 241 of the 242 people on board.

Air India has also discontinued the operation of its full-service carrier at the Imphal International Airport from 15 June, but the airline's low-cost subsidiary AI Express will continue services there, AAI officials said on Monday. The decision was part of the airline's "long-standing and pre-planned" strategy, they said. "It is part of a long-standing, pre-planned strategic decision by the airline, and is in no way related to any recent incident," one of the airport officials said. AGENCIES

जहां-जहां हादसे हुए वहां भाजपा की सरकार, इनके मंत्री-विधायकों के बयान से देशवासी दुखी : प्रमोद तिवारी

आज समाज नेटवर्क

नई दिल्ली। अहमदाबाद एयर इंडिया विमान हादसा, केदारनाथ हेलीकॉप्टर क्रैश और पुणे पुल हादसे को लेकर कांग्रेस सांसद प्रमोद तिवारी ने केंद्र सरकार पर जोरदार निशाना साधा है। कांग्रेस सांसद ने कहा कि इस सरकार में जिस तरह से निजीकरण हुआ आज इसी का खामियाजा भुगतना पड़ा है। कांग्रेस सांसद ने सोमवार को समाचार एजेंसी आईएएनएस से बातचीत के दौरान कहा कि एक बार जब बंगाल में पुल गिरा था तो पीएम मोदी ने कहा था कि बंगाल से ममता बनर्जी की सरकार जाने वाली है। हाल की घटनाओं पर गौर करें तो अहमदाबाद, उत्तराखंड और पुणे में जो हादसे हुए, वहां प्रदेश में भाजपा की सरकार है। केंद्र में भी इनकी सरकार है, तो क्या मान लें कि इनकी सरकार जाने वाली है।

कांग्रेस सांसद ने कहा कि पुणे पुल हादसे में जान गंवाने वाले मृतकों के प्रति हमारी संवेदना है।

तकनीकी खराबी बताई गई, शनिवार को भी दो एयरलाइंस की उड़ानें लौटी थीं; तीनों बोइंग ड्रीमलाइनर

महानगर नेटवर्क

नई दिल्ली

हांगकांग से दिल्ली आ रही एअर इंडिया की फ्लाइट (नंबर AI315) सोमवार को वापस लौट गई। इसमें तकनीकी खराबी की बात सामने आई है। यह उड़ान बोइंग 787-8 ड्रीमलाइनर की थी।

वहीं, रविवार को भारत आ रहे बोइंग के दो ड्रीमलाइनर प्लेन भी बीच रास्ते से लौट गए थे। इनमें से एक फ्लाइट लंदन से चेन्नई और दूसरी जर्मनी के फ्रैंकफर्ट से हैदराबाद आ रही थी। दोनों की सोमवार को लैंडिंग होनी थी।

ब्रिटिश एयरवेज के चेन्नई आ रहे बोइंग 787-8 ड्रीमलाइनर को तकनीकी खराबी के चलते लौटना पड़ा। लुफ्थांसा एयरलाइन (जर्मनी) के बोइंग 787-9 ड्रीमलाइनर को बम से उड़ाने की धमकी मिली थी। इसके चलते प्लेन को लैंडिंग की परमिशन नहीं मिली और लौटना पड़ा।

अहमदाबाद में 12 जून बोइंग 787-8 ड्रीमलाइनर विमान दो मिनट में क्रैश हो गया था। इसमें पायलट-क्रू समेत 242 लोगों में से 241 की जान चली गई थी। हादसे में सिर्फ एक पैसेंजर बचा।

अंबुजा सीमेंट्स ने संकरैल की महिला किसान को बहु-आय वाला उद्यम बनाने में सक्षम बनाया

बिज़नेस रेमेडीज/प.बंगाल

विविधीकृत अदाणी पोर्टफोलियो की सीमेंट और निर्माण सामग्री कंपनी अंबुजा सीमेंट्स, अपनी सीएसआर पहलों के तहत, पश्चिम बंगाल के संकरैल ब्लॉक के मोहिसगोट गांव की एक गृहिणी से उद्यमी बनी कृष्णा बोडोक की प्रेरक यात्रा को बताते हुए गर्व महसूस करती है। एक सामुदायिक बैठक से शुरू हुई उनकी आजीविका एक विविध कृषि उद्यम में बदल गई, जिससे सालाना 2.5-3 लाख रुपये की आय होती है।

ਸਸਤੀ ਦੇ ਚੱਕਰ 'ਚ ਵਿਸ਼ਵਾਸ ਨੇ ਲਈ ਸੀ ਟਿਕਟ

- ਇਕਲੌਤੇ ਜਿੰਦਾ ਬਚੇ ਵਿਸ਼ਵਾਸ ਦੀ ਮਾਸੀ ਨੇ ਦੱਸੀ ਕਹਾਨੀ
- ਵਿਸ਼ਵਾਸ ਦੇ ਜਹਾਜ਼ 'ਚੋਂ ਬਾਹਰ ਆਉਣ ਦਾ ਵੀਡੀਓ ਦਿਸਿਆ

ਕੋਰੋਨਾ ਕਾਲ ਦੌਰਾਨ ਕਪੜੇ ਦਾ ਵਪਾਰ ਠੱਪ ਹੋ ਗਿਆ ਸੀ, ਇਸ ਲਈ ਦੀਵ ਦੇ ਵਿਸ਼ਵਾਸ ਅਤੇ ਉਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਦੇ ਵੱਡੇ ਭਰਾ ਅਜੈ ਨੇ ਲੰਡਨ ਵਿਚ ਵਪਾਰ ਸ਼ੁਰੂ ਕਰ ਦਿੱਤਾ ਸੀ। ਉਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਦੇ ਮਾਤਾ-ਪਿਤਾ ਪਹਿਲਾਂ ਹੀ ਲੰਡਨ ਵਿਚ ਰਹਿ ਰਹੇ ਸਨ। ਦੋਵੇਂ ਭਰਾ ਛੇ ਮਹੀਨੇ ਲੰਡਨ ਅਤੇ ਛੇ ਮਹੀਨੇ ਭਾਰਤ ਵਿਚ ਰਹਿੰਦੇ ਸਨ। ਇਥੇ ਉਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਨੇ ਇਕ ਮੱਛੀ ਫੜਨ ਵਾਲੀ ਬੋਟ ਵੀ ਖਰੀਦ ਰੱਖੀ ਸੀ।

ਉਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਦੀ ਮਾਸੀ ਰਮਾਬੇਨ ਭਾਲੀਆ ਨੇ ਦੱਸਿਆ ਕਿ ਦੋਵੇਂ ਭਰਾ ਦੀਵ ਆਏ ਹੋਏ ਸਨ ਅਤੇ 12 ਜੂਨ ਨੂੰ ਉਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਦਾ ਲੰਡਨ ਜਾਣ ਦਾ ਕੋਈ ਪ੍ਰੋਗਰਾਮ ਨਹੀਂ ਸੀ। ਏਅਰ ਇੰਡੀਆ ਦੇ ਹਵਾਈ ਜਹਾਜ਼ ਏਆਈ171 ਦੀ ਟਿਕਟ ਲਗਪਗ 40 ਹਜ਼ਾਰ ਰੁਪਏ ਸਸਤੀ ਮਿਲ ਰਹੀ ਸੀ। ਇਸ ਲਈ ਜਦੋਂ ਵਿਸ਼ਵਾਸ ਨੇ ਟਿਕਟ ਬੁੱਕ ਕਰਨ ਦੀ ਗੱਲ ਕੀਤੀ, ਤਾਂ ਅਜੈ ਨੇ ਜਾਣ ਤੋਂ ਮਨਾ ਕਰ ਦਿੱਤਾ, ਪਰ ਵਿਸ਼ਵਾਸ ਨੇ ਉਸ ਨੂੰ ਕਿਹਾ ਕਿ "ਦੀਵ ਵਿਚ ਇਕੱਲੇ ਰਹਿ ਕੇ ਕੀ ਕਰੇਂਗਾ, ਮੇਰੇ ਨਾਲ ਲੰਡਨ ਚੱਲ।" ਇਸ ਤੋਂ ਬਾਅਦ ਅਜੈ ਲੰਡਨ ਜਾਣ ਲਈ ਰਾਜ਼ੀ ਹੋ ਗਿਆ। ਯਾਦ ਰਹੇ ਕਿ ਇਸ ਹਾਦਸੇ ਵਿਚ ਵਿਸ਼ਵਾਸ ਦੀ ਜਾਨ ਬਚ ਗਈ, ਜਦੋਂ ਕਿ ਅਜੈ ਹਵਾਈ ਹਾਦਸੇ ਦਾ ਸ਼ਿਕਾਰ ਹੋ ਗਿਆ।

ਵਿਆਹ ਦੇ ਦੋ ਦਿਨ ਬਾਅਦ ਹੀ ਹਵਾਈ ਹਾਦਸੇ ਦਾ ਸ਼ਿਕਾਰ ਬਣਿਆ ਭਾਵਿਕ : ਵਡੋਦਰਾ ਦੇ ਵਾਡੀ ਇਲਾਕੇ ਵਿਚ ਰਹਿਣ ਵਾਲੇ ਮਾਹੇਸ਼ਵਰੀ ਪਰਿਵਾਰ 'ਤੇ ਦੁੱਖਾਂ ਦਾ ਪਹਾੜ ਟੁੱਟ ਚੁੱਕਾ ਹੈ। ਦੋ ਦਿਨ ਪਹਿਲਾਂ ਜਿਸ ਪੁੱਤਰ ਦਾ ਪ੍ਰੇਮ ਵਿਆਹ ਕਰਵਾ ਕੇ ਉਸ ਨੂੰ ਲੰਡਨ ਲਈ ਵਿਦਾ ਕੀਤਾ ਗਿਆ ਸੀ, ਹੁਣ ਉਹ ਇਸ ਦੁਨੀਆ ਵਿਚ ਨਹੀਂ ਰਿਹਾ। ਵਡੋਦਰਾ ਦੇ ਭਾਵਿਕ ਮਾਹੇਸ਼ਵਰੀ ਲੰਡਨ ਵਿਚ ਨੌਕਰੀ ਕਰਦੇ ਸਨ।

ਉਹ ਹਰ ਸਾਲ ਦੋ ਹਫ਼ਤੇ ਲਈ ਆਪਣੇ ਮਾਤਾ-ਪਿਤਾ ਨੂੰ ਮਿਲਣ ਇਥੇ ਆਉਂਦੇ ਸਨ। ਵਡੋਦਰਾ ਦੀ ਇਕ ਲੜਕੀ ਨਾਲ ਉਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਦੀ ਮੰਗਨੀ ਹੋ ਚੁੱਕੀ ਸੀ। ਇਸ ਵਾਰ ਭਾਵਿਕ ਵਡੋਦਰਾ ਆਏ ਤਾਂ ਉਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਦੇ ਘਰਵਾਲਿਆਂ ਨੇ ਵਿਆਹ ਕਰਕੇ ਹੀ ਵਾਪਸ ਜਾਣ ਦੀ ਜ਼ਿੱਦ ਕੀਤੀ। ਇਸ 'ਤੇ ਭਾਵਿਕ ਨੇ ਆਪਣੀ ਮੰਗੇਤਰ ਨਾਲ 10 ਜੂਨ ਨੂੰ ਕੋਰਟ ਮੈਰਿਜ ਕਰ ਲਈ।

12 ਜੂਨ ਨੂੰ ਪਤਨੀ ਅਤੇ ਪਰਿਵਾਰ ਦੇ ਮੈਂਬਰਾਂ ਨੇ ਉਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਨੂੰ ਜਲਦੀ ਵਾਪਸ ਆਉਣ ਦੇ ਵਾਅਦੇ ਨਾਲ ਖੁਸ਼ੀ-ਖੁਸ਼ੀ ਵਿਦਾ ਕੀਤਾ। ਏਅਰਪੋਰਟ ਤੋਂ ਨਿਕਲਣ ਦੇ ਚੰਦ ਮਿੰਟਾਂ ਬਾਅਦ ਹੀ ਉਨ੍ਹਾਂ ਨੂੰ ਖ਼ਬਰ ਮਿਲੀ ਕਿ ਹਵਾਈ ਜਹਾਜ਼ ਕ੍ਰੈਸ਼ ਹੋ ਗਿਆ ਹੈ। ਇਕ ਸ਼ਖ਼ਸ ਵਿਸ਼ਵਾਸ ਕੁਮਾਰ ਨੂੰ ਛੱਡ ਕੇ ਹਵਾਈ ਜਹਾਜ਼ ਸਵਾਰ ਸਾਰੇ ਯਾਤਰੀਆਂ ਦੀ ਹਾਦਸੇ ਵਿਚ ਜਾਨ ਚਲੀ ਗਈ ਹੈ।

लखनऊ एयरपोर्ट पर लैंडिंग में विमान के टायर से निकली चिंगारी

महानगर संवाददाता

लखनऊ

लखनऊ अमौसी एयरपोर्ट पर रविवार सुबह लैंडिंग के बाद टैक्सी-वे पर जाते वक्त सऊदी अरबिया एयरलाइंस के विमान के बाएं पहिये से चिंगारी और तेज धुआं उठने लगा। सोशल मीडिया पर सऊदी की फ्लाइट के पहियों से धुआं निकलने और 250 यात्रियों के बाल-बाल बचने की वीडियो वायरल हो रहा है। हालांकि बताया जा रहा है कि रनवे भीगा हो तो अक्सर पायलट एक्वा मैनेममेंट प्लान लैंडिंग कराते हैं। यह हार्ड लैंडिंग होती है जिसमें पहिये को रनवे की सतह पर रगड़ खाने दिया जाता है ताकि प्लेन स्केट न करे। यह सामान्य घटना है लेकिन किसी यात्री ने वीडियो बना ली तो उस पर पोस्ट होते जा रहे हैं। अभी तक सऊदी अरबिया एयरलाइंस की ग्राउंड टीम ने कोई इंसिडेंट रिपोर्ट ही नहीं किया है।

बताया जा रहा है कि सऊदी अरबिया एयरलाइंस के विमान एसवी 3112 ने शनिवार रात करीब 11:30 बजे जेद्दा एयरपोर्ट से लखनऊ के लिए उड़ान भरी थी। इस विमान में कुल 242 हज यात्री सवार थे। यह विमान रविवार सुबह करीब 6:30 बजे लखनऊ अमौसी एयरपोर्ट पहुंचा। रन-वे पर लैंडिंग के बाद विमान टैक्सी-वे पर आ रहा था। तभी इसके बाएं पहिए के पास से धुएं के साथ चिंगारी उठने लगी। इसका किसी ने वीडियो बना लिया और वायरल कर दिया।

कॉकपिट वॉयस रिकॉर्डर मिला, तस्वीर आई सामने

फ्लाइट डेटा रिकॉर्डर पहले ही मिल चुका है

विमान के दोनों ब्लैक बॉक्स मिलने से जांचकर्ताओं को दुर्घटना का कारण पता लगाने में आसानी होगी। बोइंग 787-8 (AI 171) में सवार 242 यात्रियों और चालक दल में से एक को छोड़कर बाकी सभी की मौत हो गई। इसके अलावा, विमान हादसे की चपेट में आने से अन्य 29 लोगों की भी मौत हो गई, जिनमें पांच MBBS के छात्र भी शामिल है। लंदन जाने वाला यह विमान सरदार वल्लभभाई पटेल अंतर्राष्ट्रीय हवाई अड्डे से उड़ान भरने के तुरंत बाद मेघानीनगर इलाके में एक मेडिकल कॉलेज के पास दुर्घटनाग्रस्त हो गया और उसमें आग लग गई।

क्या होता है सीवीआर

CVR कॉकपिट में होने वाली रेडियो ट्रांसमिशन और अन्य आवाजों को रिकॉर्ड करता है। इसमें पायलटों की बातचीत और इंजन की आवाजें शामिल होती हैं। संभावित कारण का पता लगाने में मदद कर सकता है। इस हादसे में 241 यात्रियों सहित 270 लोगों की जान चली गई थी। बहरहाल CVR मिलने से अब जांच और तेजी से आगे बढ़ सकेगी। इससे पता चल सकेगा कि हादसे के समय पायलटों के बीच क्या बात हुई थी और विमान के इंजन की क्या स्थिति थी। यह जानकारी हादसे मददगार साबित होगी।

हवा में उठते ही गोता खा गया विमान, दहशत में आए यात्री

लखनऊ, प्रमुख संवाददाता। गोवा से लखनऊ आ रही फ्लाइट हवा में ऊपर उठते ही गोता खा गई। इससे यात्री सहम गए। हालांकि तुरंत पायलट ने स्थिति संभाल ली और विमान को नियंत्रित किया।

इंडिगो की फ्लाइट 6ई 6811 गोवा से दिन में 03:40 बजे उड़ान भरने के बाद लखनऊ में शाम 6:15 बजे उतरती है। सोमवार को इसने करीब आठ मिनट की देरी से 03:48 बजे उड़ान भरी। विमान में सवार जॉली खान ने सोशल मीडिया पर घटना को साझा करते हुए लिखा कि विमान ने जैसे ही टेकऑफ किया, वह अचानक से नीचे आ गया। ऐसे में विमान में बैठे यात्री दहशत में आ गए। पायलट ने तत्काल ही स्थिति संभाल ली। इसके बाद भी यात्री सवाल करते रहे कि आखिर किसकी गलती है।

विमान के पहियों से उठा धुआं, रिपोर्ट तलब

धारावीतील अनेक कुटुंबांना आर्थिक अडचणीमुळे खासगी डॉक्टरकडे जाणे परवडत नाही. त्यामुळे असे रहिवासी पालिकेच्या दवाखान्यात येतात. पालिकेच्या दवाखान्यातील उपचारामुळे रुग्णाला फरक पडतो, असा विश्वास असल्याने स्थानिक रहिवासी पालिकेच्या दवाखान्याला मोठ्या प्रमाणावर पसंती देतात. परंतु, शनिवारी (ता:१४) धारावी मुख्य रस्त्यावरील (बडी मशिदीसमोरील) पालिकेच्या दवाखान्यात रुग्ण विविध समस्या घेऊन येतात. मात्र, दवाखान्यात डॉक्टरच हजर नसल्याने रुग्ण व त्यांचे नातेवाईक परत जात होते. पालिकेच्या या भोंगळ कारभारावर रुग्ण व त्यांचे नातेवाईक संताप व्यक्त करत आहेत.

धारावी : येथे मुख्य रस्त्यावर पालिकेचा दवाखाना आहे.

चौकशी करण्याचे आदेश

दवाखान्याबाबत पालिका माहिती घेण्यात येईल आणि पुढील कार्यवाही होईल. यासाठी मी माझ्या सहाय्यक आरोग्य अधिकारी यांना चौकशी करण्यास सांगितले आहे, असे ग/उत्तर पालिका आरोग्य अधिकारी डॉ. बाळासाहेब कवळे यांनी सांगितले आहे.

पालिका प्रशासनाने अनुपस्थित डॉक्टरच्या जागी दुसरा उपलब्ध करून देणे हे गरजेचे असताना असे होत नाही, असा सवाल स्थानिक रहिवासी व समाजसेवक पारी राजन यांनी केला आहे.

धारावी : पादचारी पुलालगत खोदकाम केले जात आहे.

माहीम स्थानकातील पादचारी पुलाला धोका

दुर्घटना घडण्याची नागरिकांना भीती

खोदकाम चालू असलेल्या ठिकाणी पुलाला धोका निर्माण होऊ नये यासाठी कोणतीही काळजी घेतलेली दिसत नाही. खोदकामा ठिकाणी कोणते काम चालू आहे याची कोणतीही माहिती फलक लावलेला नाही. त्यामुळे हे काम रेल्वे प्रशासन करत आहे की पालिका हे समजत नाही. मात्र, या कामामुळे पादचारी पुलाला काही धोका निर्माण झाल्यास याची जबाबदारी कोण घेणार, असा प्रश्न निर्माण झाला आहे.

पादचारी पुलाला अपघात झाला तरच रेल्वे व अन्य प्रशासन लक्ष देणार का, असा प्रश्न नागरिकांनी उपस्थित केला आहे. यामुळे रेल्वे प्रशासनाने याप्रकरणी वेळीच लक्ष घालून योग्य ती काळजी घेणे आवश्यक आहे.

Realty firms eye revenue upside, portfolio diversification from data centre boom

PRACHI PISAL
Mumbai, 16 June

Data centres are increasingly becoming a key part of the real estate landscape, as reality firms — with rich expertise in land acquisition, construction and dealing with government approvals — are seeing them as opportunities to build long-term assets with continuous revenue flow.

Anant Raj, Lodha, L&T Realty, DLF, Panchshil Realty, Rustomjee, Hiranandani Group, Mindspace Reit and many more realty firms are seeing data centres as "future-proof assets" with long-term returns.

While some have been in the segment that is promising nearly 20 per cent returns on investment, more players are getting into this space as they diversify their portfolios amid a sharp upside in demand for data centres, stemming largely from global capacity centres and industry's quickened AI adoption.

"While our core strength lies in real estate development, we see data centres not only as a complementary extension of our capabilities but also as a transformative business opportunity aligned with the country's accelerating digital evolution," said Amit Sarin, managing director, Anant Raj.

Sarin's firm is targeting the development of 307 Mw of capacity across its three campuses, with an investment commitment of over ₹10,000 crore over the next four-five years.

The industry experts believe that the developers are leveraging their expertise in land acquisition, construction, dealing with government approvals, and maintaining tenant relationships.

"Real estate developers with experience in developing commercial buildings see a natural synergy for skills such as land acquisition, obtaining government permits, construction and development, and sourcing infrastructure such as fibre and power (including green power). Further, with their vast tenant relationships, they are able to tap into these networks to address such companies' data centres needs through diversification," said Devi Shankar, executive director, industrial, logistics & data centres, Anarock Capital.

Developers	Data centre services provider/Partner	Total investment amount
Adani Realty	EdgeConneX	$10 bn
Lodha Group	Amazon Web Services	$8.2 bn
Panchshil Realty	Blackstone	$2.4 bn

Source: Grant Thornton Bharat

According to Colliers India, India's data centres capacity as of April 2025 is about 1,263 Mw with 15.9 million square feet (msf) of real estate engaged.

India's data centre capacity is set to cross 4,500 Mw by 2030, as $20-25 billion of future investments are likely to materialise, with a real estate footprint of 55 msf.

"With the rise of AI and cloud adoption, especially by global tech firms, data centres are becoming a key part of the real estate landscape," said Ramesh Nair, CEO and MD, Mindspace Reit— the only Indian Reit with a data centre portfolio.

"The post-Covid shift to hybrid work, alongside the boom in edtech, e-commerce, and digital banking, has fuelled a surge in data consumption and storage needs. In response, major domestic and international players are investing heavily in building both hyper-scale and edge data centres across the country," Shabala Shinde, partner and real estate industry leader, Grant Thornton Bharat, said.

The developers view DCs as assets that can give stable and long-term returns amid increasing usage of data, better 5G penetration, and data storage requirements.

Mumbai-based developer Niranjan Hiranandani, managing director, Hiranandani Group, said, "The rationale behind this move is multifaceted: we view data centres as future-proof assets offering stable, long-term returns, supported by the exponential rise in data consumption, accelerated adoption of cloud services, and deepening digital penetration."

Hiranandani noted that while it is a capex-heavy business, the returns are both feasible and favourable.

22 हजार फीट की ऊंचाई पर एअर इंडिया के विमान में आई गड़बड़ी, हांगकांग लौटा

नई दिल्ली। हांगकांग से दिल्ली आ रहे एअर इंडिया के बोइंग 787-8 ड्रीमलाइनर विमान में 22 हजार फीट की ऊंचाई पर तकनीकी खराबी आ गई। उड़ान भरने के आधे घंटे के भीतर ही आई गड़बड़ी की वजह से विमान अचानक नीचे आने लगा। तब उसे हांगकांग लौटना पड़ा। विमान में सवार सभी यात्री सुरक्षित हैं। अहमदाबाद में ड्रीमलाइनर विमान हादसे के सप्ताह भर के अंदर यह घटना हुई है। 36 घंटे में चार विमानों को ऐसी आपात स्थिति का सामना करना पड़ा।

हांगकांग हवाईअड्डे के प्रवक्ता ने बताया, एअर इंडिया की उड़ान संख्या एआई 315 ने स्थानीय समयानुसार दोपहर 12:16 बजे उड़ान भरी थी। पायलट ने एयर ट्रैफिक कंट्रोलर से उड़ान भरने के 15 मिनट बाद कहा कि तकनीकी समस्या के चलते उड़ान जारी नहीं रख सकते। एअर इंडिया ने कहा, विमान की जांच चल रही है। ब्यूरो

विमान हादसा: डीएनए मिलान से 99 मृतकों की पहचान हुई, 64 लोगों के शव परिजनों को सौंपे

⇨ हादसे में 270 लोगों की मौत हुई

एजेंसी

अहमदाबाद। अहमदाबाद में एअर इंडिया के विमान के दुर्घटनाग्रस्त होने की घटना के चार दिन बाद, अब तक डीएनए मिलान के माध्यम से 99 मृतकों की पहचान कर ली गई है और गुजरात के पूर्व मुख्यमंत्री विजय रूपाणी समेत 64 लोगों के शव उनके परिजनों को सौंप दिये गए हैं। अधिकारियों ने सोमवार को यह जानकारी दी।

इस हादसे में 270 लोगों की मौत हो गई। रूपाणी उन 242 यात्रियों और चालक दल के सदस्यों में शामिल थे, जो लंदन जाने वाली एअर इंडिया की उड़ान संख्या एआई-171 में सवार थे। यह विमान 12 जून को अहमदाबाद में दुर्घटनाग्रस्त हो गया था। उनके पार्थिव शरीर को शहर के सिविल अस्पताल में उनकी पत्नी अंजलि रूपाणी और परिवार के अन्य सदस्यों को सौंप दिया गया। अधिकारी मृतकों की पहचान करने के लिए डीएनए परीक्षण कर रहे हैं, क्योंकि 12 जून को विमान दुर्घटना में कई लोग इतनी बुरी तरह जल गए थे कि उनके शव पहचाने नहीं जा सके। सिविल अधीक्षक डॉ राकेश जोशी ने संवाददाताओं से कहा, ''अब तक 99 मृतकों की पहचान कर ली गई है और 64 लोगों के शव उनके परिजनों को सौंप दिये गए हैं। ये मृतक गुजरात और राजस्थान के विभिन्न हिस्सों के

रहने वाले थे।' उन्होंने मृतकों के शोक-संतप्त परिजनों से अपील की कि शवों के अवशेषों से डीएनए मिलान की लंबी प्रक्रिया को लेकर परेशान नहीं हों। उन्होंने कहा, ''हम इस प्रक्रिया को जल्द से जल्द पूरा करने की भरपूर कोशिश कर रहे हैं। कुछ लोग शिकायत कर रहे हैं कि 72 घंटे बाद भी नतीजे नहीं आए हैं। मैं उनसे अपील करता हूं कि वे घबराएं नहीं, क्योंकि यह एक बहुत ही महत्वपूर्ण प्रक्रिया है, जिसके कानूनी निहितार्थ हैं। जैसे ही नतीजे आएंगे, हम उन्हें बुला लेंगे।'इससे पहले, रविवार को अहमदाबाद सिविल अस्पताल के अधिकारियों ने कहा था कि 250 मृतकों के नमूने डीएनए मिलान के लिए एकत्रित कर लिए गए हैं। मृतकों में विमान में सवार यात्री और चालक दल के सदस्यों के साथ दुर्घटना स्थल पर मारे गए अन्य लोग भी शामिल हैं।

ವಿಮಾನ ಅಪಘಾತದ ನಂತರ ಅನೇಕ ದೇಹಗಳು ಗುರುತಿಸಲಾಗದಷ್ಟು ಸುಟ್ಟುಹೋಗಿವೆ ಅಥವಾ ಹಾನಿಗೊಳಗಾದ ಕಾರಣ ಬಲಿಪಶುಗಳ ಗುರುತನ್ನು ಸ್ಥಾಪಿಸಲು ಅಧಿಕಾರಿಗಳು ಡಿಎನ್‌ಎ ಪರೀಕ್ಷೆಗಳನ್ನು ನಡೆಸುತ್ತಿದ್ದಾರೆ ಎಂದು ಅಧಿಕಾರಿಗಳು ತಿಳಿಸಿದ್ದಾರೆ.

ಇಲ್ಲಿಯವರೆಗೆ 87 ಡಿಎನ್‌ಎ ಮಾದರಿಗಳನ್ನು ಹೊಂದಿಸಲಾಗಿದೆ ಮತ್ತು 47 ದೇಹಗಳನ್ನು ಈಗಾಗಲೇ ಆಯಾ ಕುಟುಂಬಗಳಿಗೆ ಹಸ್ತಾಂತರಿಸಲಾಗಿದೆ. ಈ ಮೃತರು ಗುಜರಾತ್‌ನ ವಿವಿಧ ಭಾಗಗಳಾದ ಭರೂಚ್, ಆನಂದ್, ಜುನಾಗಢ, ಭಾವನಗರ, ವಡೋದರಾ, ಜೇಡಾ, ಮೆಹ್ಸಾನಾ, ಅರವಲ್ಲಿ ಮತ್ತು ಅಹಮದಾಬಾದ್ ಜಿಲ್ಲೆಗಳಿಂದ ಬಂದವರು ಎಂದು ಹೆಚ್ಚುವರಿ ಸಿವಿಲ್ ಸೂಪರಿಂಟೆಂಡೆಂಟ್ ಡಾ ರಜನೀಶ್ ಪಟೇಲ್ ಸುದ್ದಿಗಾರರಿಗೆ ತಿಳಿಸಿದರು.

ಜೂನ್ 12 ರಂದು ಮಧ್ಯಾಹ್ನ 1.39ಕ್ಕೆ ಸರ್ದಾರ್ ವಲ್ಲಭಭಾಯಿ ಪಟೇಲ್ ಅಂತಾರಾಷ್ಟ್ರೀಯ ವಿಮಾನ ನಿಲ್ದಾಣದಿಂದ ಟೇಕಾಫ್ ಆದ ಕೆಲವೇ ಕ್ಷಣಗಳಲ್ಲಿ 242 ಜನರೊಂದಿಗೆ ಬೋಯಿಂಗ್ 787-8 ಡ್ರೀಮ್‌ಲೈನರ್ ಅಹಮದಾಬಾದ್‌ನ ವೈದ್ಯಕೀಯ ಕಾಲೇಜು ಸಂಕೀರ್ಣಕ್ಕೆ ಅಪ್ಪಳಿಸಿತ್ತು.

ಲಂಡನ್‌ಗೆ ತೆರಳುತ್ತಿದ್ದ ವಿಮಾನದಲ್ಲಿದ್ದ 241 ಮಂದಿ ಸಾವನ್ನಪ್ಪಿದ್ದರೆ, ಓರ್ವ ಪ್ರಯಾಣಿಕ ಪವಾಡ ಸದೃಶ ರೀತಿಯಲ್ಲಿ ಬದುಕುಳಿದಿದ್ದಾರೆ. ಅಲ್ಲದೆ ಐವರು ಎಂಬಿಬಿಎಸ್ ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿಗಳು ಸೇರಿದಂತೆ ನೆಲದ ಮೇಲಿನ ದುರಂತದಲ್ಲಿ 29 ಜನರು ಸಾವನ್ನಪ್ಪಿದ್ದಾರೆ ಎಂದು ವರದಿಯಾಗಿದೆ.

ಬಹುತೇಕ ಮೃತದೇಹಗಳು ತೀವ್ರ ಸ್ವರೂಪದಲ್ಲಿ ಸುಟ್ಟು ಹೋಗಿದ್ದು, ಗುರುತು ಸಿಗುತ್ತಿಲ್ಲ. ಹೀಗಾಗಿ, ಅಧಿಕಾರಿಗಳು ಡಿಎನ್‌ಎ ಪರೀಕ್ಷೆ ನಡೆಸುತ್ತಿದ್ದಾರೆ.ಮೃತರ ಸಂಬಂಧಿಕರಿಂದ ಸಂಗ್ರಹಿಸಿದ ಡಿಎನ್‌ಎಯನ್ನು ಮೃತರ ಡಿಎನ್‌ಎ ಜೊತೆ ಹೊಂದಾಣಿ ಮಾಡಲಾಗುತ್ತಿದೆ. ದುರ್ಮರಣಕ್ಕೀಡಾದ 270 ಜನರ ಪೈಕಿ 35 ಮಂದಿಯನ್ನು ಗುರುತಿಸಲಾಗಿದೆ. ಇನ್ನಷ್ಟು ಶವಗಳ ಪತ್ತೆ ಕಾರ್ಯ ಮುಂದುವರೆದಿದ್ದು, ಗುರುತು ಸಿಕ್ಕ ಬಳಿಕ ಕುಟುಂಬಸ್ಥರಿಗೆ ನೀಡಲಾಗುವುದು ಎಂದು ಹೇಳಿದ್ದಾರೆ.

ದುರಂತ ನಡೆದಿದ್ದು ಹೀಗೆ?:

ಜೂನ್ 12ರಂದು ಏರ್ ಇಂಡಿಯಾಗೆ ಸೇರಿದ ಬೋಯಿಂಗ್ 787-8 ಡ್ರೀಮ್‌ಲೈನರ್ ವಿಮಾನವು 12 ಸಿಬ್ಬಂದಿ ಸೇರಿ 242 ಜನರನ್ನು ಹೊತ್ತು ಲಂಡನ್‌ನ ಗ್ಯಾಟ್‌ವಿಕ್‌ಗೆ ತೆರಳುತ್ತಿತ್ತು. ಅಹಮದಾಬಾದ್ ಅಂತಾರಾಷ್ಟ್ರೀಯ ವಿಮಾನ ನಿಲ್ದಾಣದಿಂದ ಹಾರಿದ ಕೆಲವೇ ಕ್ಷಣಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ನಿಯಂತ್ರಣ ಕಳೆದುಕೊಂಡು ನಿಲ್ದಾಣದ ಪಕ್ಕದ ಮೇಘನಿ ನಗರದಲ್ಲಿನ ಬಿಜೆ ವೈದ್ಯಕೀಯ ಕಾಲೇಜಿನ ಹಾಸ್ಟೆಲ್ ಮೇಲೆ ಬಿದ್ದು ಪತನವಾಯಿತು.

ಬಿದ್ದ ರಭಸಕ್ಕೆ ಸಾವಿರಾರು ಲೀಟರ್ ಇಂಧನ ತುಂಬಿದ್ ಟ್ಯಾಂಕ್ ಸ್ಫೋಟಗೊಂಡು ಬೆಂಕಿ ಹೊತ್ತಿಕೊಂಡಿತು. ಇದರಿಂದ ಸುತ್ತಲಿನ ಕಟ್ಟಡವೂ ಅಗ್ನಿಗಾಹುತಿಯಾಗಿದೆ. ವಿಮಾನದಲ್ಲಿ 242 ಪ್ರಯಾಣಿಕರ ಪೈಕಿ ಓರ್ವ ಬದುಕುಳಿದರೆ, ಹಾಸ್ಟೆಲ್‌ನಲ್ಲಿ ಊಟ ಮಾಡುತ್ತಿದ್ದ ಐವರು ವೈದ್ಯ ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿಗಳು, ಕಟ್ಟಡದ ಸುತ್ತಲಿನ ನಿವಾಸಿಗಳು ಸೇರಿದಂತೆ 270 ಮಂದಿ ಪ್ರಾಣ ಕಳೆದುಕೊಂಡರು.

ದುರಂತಕ್ಕೆ ಮಿಡಿದಿರುವ ಏರ್ ಇಂಡಿಯಾ ವಿಮಾನಯಾನ ಸಂಸ್ಥೆ ಮೃತ ಕುಟುಂಬಗಳಿಗೆ ತಲಾ 1 ಕೋಟಿ ರೂ. ಪರಿಹಾರ ನೀಡುವುದಾಗಿ ಘೋಷಿಸಿದೆ.

ದುರಂತಕ್ಕೆ ಮುನ್ನುಡಿಯಾದ ಡಬಲ್ ಎಂಜಿನ್ ವೈಫಲ್ಯ?

ಅಹಮದಾಬಾದ್: ಏರ್ ಇಂಡಿಯಾದ ಡ್ರೀಮ್‌ಲೈನರ್ 787 ವಿಮಾನ ಪತನಕ್ಕೆ ಎರಡು ಎಂಜಿನ್‌ಗಳ ವೈಫಲ್ಯ ಕಾರಣ ಎಂಬ ಅಂಶ ಹೊರ ಬಿದ್ದಿದೆ. ವಿಮಾನ ಟೇಕಾಫ್ ಆದ ಕೂಡಲೇ ಸಕ್ರಿಯಗೊಂಡಿದ್ದ ತುರ್ತು ಇಂಧನ ಶಕ್ತಿ ಉತ್ಪಾದಿಸುವ ರ್ಯಾಮ್ ಏರ್ ಟರ್ಬೈನ್ (ಆರ್‌ಎಟಿ-ರ್ಯಾಟ್) ಸಕ್ರಿಯವಾಗಿರುವುದು ಡಬಲ್ ಎಂಜಿನ್ ವೈಫಲ್ಯದ ಸೂಚನೆ ಯಾಗಿದೆ ಎಂದು ತಜ್ಞರು ಅಭಿಪ್ರಾಯಪಟ್ಟಿದ್ದಾರೆ.

ತನಿಖೆಗೆ ಅಮೆರಿಕದಿಂದ 8, ಬ್ರಿಟನ್‌ನಿಂದ 4 ತಂಡ ಆಗಮನ

ತನಿಖೆ ಆರಂಭಿಸಿದ ಕೇಂದ್ರ ಸರಕಾರದ ಉನ್ನತ ಮಟ್ಟದ ಸಮಿತಿ

ಅಹಮದಾಬಾದ್ ನಿಲ್ದಾಣದಿಂದ ಟೇಕಾಫ್ ಆಗಿದ್ದ ಏಐ-171 ಸಂಖ್ಯೆಯ ವಿಮಾನ ಮೇಲಕ್ಕೇರಿದ 59 ಸೆಕೆಂಡ್‌ಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಮೇಘನಿನಗರ ಪ್ರದೇಶದಲ್ಲಿ ಕಟ್ಟಡಕ್ಕೆ ಅಪ್ಪಳಿಸಿ ಪತನವಾಗಿತ್ತು. 241 ಪ್ರಯಾಣಿಕರು ಸೇರಿ 274 ಜನ ಮೃತಪಟ್ಟಿದ್ದರು.

ವಾಯುಯಾನ ತಜ್ಞರ ಪ್ರಕಾರ ವಿಮಾನ ಟೇಕಾಫ್ ಆದ ಕೂಡಲೇ ತುರ್ತು ವ್ಯವಸ್ಥೆ (ರ್ಯಾಟ್) ಸಕ್ರಿಯವಾಗಿರುವುದು ಡಬಲ್ ಎಂಜಿನ್ ವೈಫಲ್ಯಕ್ಕೆ ಕನ್ನಡಿಯಾಗಿದೆ ಎಂದು ವಿಶ್ಲೇಷಿಸಿದ್ದಾರೆ.

ವಿಡಿಯೊ ವೈರಲ್: ದುರಂತಕ್ಕೀಡಾದ ವಿಮಾನವನ್ನು ಚಿತ್ರೀಕರಿಸಿದ್ದ ವಿಡಿಯೊದಲ್ಲಿ ಬಲಭಾಗದ ರೆಕ್ಕೆಯ ಕೆಳಗೆ ಗೋಚರಿಸಿರುವ ಚಿಕ್ಕ ಆಕೃತಿಯೇ ರ್ಯಾಟ್ ಸಿಸ್ಟಮ್. ಟೇಕಾಫ್ ಆದ ಕೂಡಲೇ ರ್ಯಾಟ್ ಸಕ್ರಿಯವಾಗಿರುವುದು ಡಬಲ್ ಎಂಜಿನ್ ವೈಫಲ್ಯದ ಗುರುತಾಗಿದೆ ಎಂದು ತಜ್ಞರು ಹೇಳಿದ್ದಾರೆ.

76 ಶವಗಳ ಹಸ್ತಾಂತರ: ''ಡಿಎನ್‌ಎ ಪರೀಕ್ಷೆ ಮೂಲಕ ವಿಮಾನ ದುರಂತದಲ್ಲಿ ಮೃತಪಟ್ಟವರಲ್ಲಿ 119 ಶವಗಳ ಗುರುತು ಪತ್ತೆ ಮಾಡಲಾಗಿದೆ. ಈ ಪೈಕಿ 76 ಮೃತ ದೇಹಗಳನ್ನು ಸಂಬಂಧಿಕರಿಗೆ ಹಸ್ತಾಂತರಿಸಲಾಗಿದೆ. ಉಳಿದ ದೇಹಗಳ ಡಿಎನ್‌ಎ ಪರೀಕ್ಷೆ ನಡೆಸಲಾಗುತ್ತಿದೆ.'' ಎಂದು ಅಹಮದಾಬಾದ್ ಸರಕಾರಿ ಆಸ್ಪತ್ರೆ ಅಧೀಕ್ಷಕ ಡಾ. ರಾಕೇಶ್ ಜೋಶಿ ತಿಳಿಸಿದ್ದಾರೆ.

ಮೂರು ಸಂದರ್ಭದಲ್ಲಿ ರ್ಯಾಟ್ ಗೋಚರ

1. ವಿಮಾನದಲ್ಲಿ ವಿದ್ಯುತ್ ವಿಫಲವಾದಾಗ ಸಕ್ರಿಯ
2. ಹೈಡ್ರಾಲಿಕ್ ವ್ಯವಸ್ಥೆ ವೈಫಲ್ಯಕ್ಕೀಡಾದ ವೇಳೆ ಕಾರ್ಯ
3. ಎರಡು ಎಂಜಿನ್‌ಗಳು ವಿಫಲಗೊಂಡಾಗ ಚಾಲನೆ

ಟೇಕಾಫ್ ಆದ ಕೂಡಲೇ ರ್ಯಾಟ್ ಗೋಚರಿಸಿರುವುದು ಮೇಲೆ ತಿಳಿಸಿದ ಮೂರು ಕಾರಣಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಒಂದು ದುರಂತಕ್ಕೆ ಕಾರಣವಾಗಿರಬಹುದು ಎಂದು ತಜ್ಞರು ಹೇಳಿದ್ದಾರೆ.

ಏನಿದು RAT?

- ವಿಮಾನಗಳಿಗೆ ತುರ್ತು ಇಂಧನ ಶಕ್ತಿ ಪೂರೈಸುವ ವ್ಯವಸ್ಥೆಯೇ ರ್ಯಾಮ್ ಏರ್ ಟರ್ಬೈನ್ (RAT).
- ಪ್ರಾಥಮಿಕ ಎಂಜಿನ್ ವಿಫಲ ಅಥವಾ ತಾಂತ್ರಿಕ ಅಡಚಣೆಯಾದ ಕೂಡಲೇ ರ್ಯಾಟ್ ಸಕ್ರಿಯ
- ವಿಮಾನಕ್ಕೆ ತುರ್ತು ಇಂಧನ ಶಕ್ತಿಯನ್ನು ಪೂರೈಸುತ್ತದೆ
- ವಿಮಾನ ಹಾಗೂ ಹೈಡ್ರಾಲಿಕ್ ವ್ಯವಸ್ಥೆಯ ಮೇಲೆ ನಿಯಂತ್ರಣ ಸಾಧಿಸಲು ಪೈಲಟ್‌ಗೆ ನೆರವು ನೀಡುತ್ತದೆ
- ವಿಮಾನದ ರಚನೆ ಆಧರಿಸಿ ನಿಯಂತ್ರಣ ವ್ಯವಸ್ಥೆ, ಉಪಕರಣಗಳ ಸಕ್ರಿಯತೆ, ಸಂವಹನ ವ್ಯವಸ್ಥೆ, ಹೈಡ್ರಾಲಿಕ್ ವ್ಯವಸ್ಥೆಗಳಿಗೆ ರ್ಯಾಟ್ ಶಕ್ತಿ ಒದಗಿಸುತ್ತದೆ.

Most 'heartbreaking' crisis of my career, use it as an act of force to build a 'safer airline': Air India Chairman

MUMBAI, JUNE 16

Tata Sons and Air India Chairman N Chandrasekaran on Monday urged Air India employees to stay on course in the wake of the airline's plane crash in Ahmedabad last week, terming the accident the most "heartbreaking" crisis of his career, according to sources.

Addressing close to 700 employees and the leadership team across the Air India headquarters and Air India Training Academy in Gurugram, Chandrasekaran said the employees need to show resilience and use this incident as an act of force to build a "safer airline".

"We have to make sure that we stay the course. Be more determined in everything we do. We need to wait for the investigation to find out," sources quoted Chandrasekaran as saying.

"I've seen a reasonable number of crises in my career, but this is the most heartbreaking one which I never thought I would see," Chandrasekaran said, as per sources.

Over 270 people were killed on June 12 when a London-bound Air India plane -- a Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner -- carrying 242 passengers and crew crashed into a medical college complex in Ahmedabad less than a minute after takeoff. PTI

૧૨ જૂને અમદાવાદમાં તૂટી પડેલા બોઈંગ ૭૮૭ ડ્રીમલાઈનરની ઘટના પછી પણ આ વિમાનો માથાનો દુઃખાવો બની રહ્યા છે

ડ્રીમલાઈનર બન્યા દુઃસ્વપ્ન

૩૬ કલાકમાં ત્રણ બોઈંગ પાછા ફર્યા

નવી દિલ્હી : અમદાવાદમાં ગત ૧૨ જૂને બોઈંગ કંપનીનું ડ્રીમલાઈનર સીરીઝનું વિમાન ક્રેશ થયું ત્યારથી આ સિરીઝના વિમાન સતિષ્ણનીય કારણોસર ચર્ચામાં છે. ડ્રીમલાઈનર સિરીઝના બે પ્લેન ટેકનિકલ ખામીને કારણે જર્મનીથી ઉપડ્યા હતા તે એરપોર્ટ્સ પર પરત ફર્યાના જવાર એક પ્લેન બોમ્બની ધમકીને કારણે પરત ફર્યાના અહેવાલ છે. લંડનના હીથ્રો એરપોર્ટ પરથી ચેન્નઈ આવી રહેલા બ્રિટિશ એરવેઝના બોઈંગ ૭૮૭-૮ ડ્રીમલાઈનર વિમાનમાં રવિવારે ટેકનિકલ ખામી સર્જાતાં તેને ફ્રાન્કોર્ટ ઉપડ્યાના પોણા બે કલાક બાદ હીથ્રો પરત લઈ જવાયું હતું જ્યારે લોસએંજલીસથી દિલ્હી આવી રહેલા એર ઇન્ડિયાના બોઈંગ ૭૮૭-૮ ડ્રીમલાઈનર વિમાનમાં પણ ટેકનિકલ ખામીને પગલે તેને લોસએંજલીસ પરત ઉતારવાની ફરજ પડી હતી. બીજી તરફ જર્મનીથી હૈદરાબાદ આવતા લુફ્થાન્સાના વિમાનમાં બોમ્બ હોવાની ધમકી મળ્યા પછી વિમાન પરત ફર્યું હતું. ધમકીના પગલે હૈદરાબાદમાં ઉતારવાની મંજૂરી ન મળતાં વિમાનને જર્મનીના ફ્રેન્કફર્ટ એરપોર્ટ પર પરત લઈ જવાયું હતું.

AIની હોંગકોંગ-દિલ્હી ફ્લાઈટ ટેકઓફના એક કલાકમાં જ પરત

નવી દિલ્હી : એવું લાગે છે કે, એર ઇન્ડિયા ડ્રીમલાઈનરની મુશ્કેલીઓનો હજુ અંત નથી આવ્યો. દોઢ મહિનાથી દિલ્હી તરફ આવી રહેલા એર ઇન્ડિયાના એક વધુ બોઈંગ-૭૮૭-૮ ડ્રીમલાઈનર વિમાનમાં તકનીકી ખરાબી સર્જાતાં તેને દોઢ કલાક પરત ઉડાવવાની ફરજ પડી હતી. વિમાને દોઢ મહિનાથી ઉડાન અંગેની ગણતરીની મિનિટોમાં જ વિમાનમાં તકનીકી સમસ્યા હોવાનું સામે આવ્યું હતું. હાલ આ દિવસ બોઈંગ જ અમદાવાદથી લંડન માટે રવાના થયેલું એર ઇન્ડિયાનું વિમાન દુર્ઘટનાનો શિકાર બન્યું હતું. તે વિમાન દુર્ઘટનાનો ૧૨૧ કલાકોના જૂનો થયો હતો. જે એરપોર્ટ પર વિમાન તૂટી પડ્યું હતું ત્યાં રહેલા કેટલાક પેસેન્જર્સ પણ જૂનુ થયા હતા. મુસાફર જણાવ્યા મુજબ દોઢ કલાકથી દિલ્હી આવવાની એર ઇન્ડિયાની ફ્લાઈટ એઆઈ-૩૧૬ ગઈ રાતે ૧૧:૫૦-૧૨ મુજબ દોઢમીન માટે રવાના થયું હતું. વિમાન ત્રણ કલાક ૧૫ મિનિટ મોડું રવાના થયું હતું. ઉડાન બાદ પાઈલટને તકનીકી સમસ્યા હોવાની કોક જાણ પાઈલટે વિમાનને થોડો સમય આકાશ ઉપર ઉડાડ્યું, પરંતુ તકનીકી સમસ્યા દૂર ન થતાં વિમાનને પરત એરપોર્ટ પર લઈ જવા નિર્ણય કર્યો હતો. એરપોર્ટ પરત વિમાનની ચકાસણી પૂર્ણ કરાયા બાદમાં આવી હતી. જો કે કોઈ ખામી નથી આવી જાણીને.

બ્રિટિશ એરવેઝની લંડન-ચેન્નઈ ફ્લાઈટ હીથ્રો ખાતે પરત ફરી

ક્લેપ સિસ્ટમમાં ખામીને કારણે ઉડાન ભર્યાના પોણા બે કલાક બાદ ચેન્નઈ જવાનું પડતું મૂકયું, તમામ પેસેન્જર્સ અને ક્રૂ સુરક્ષિત

અમદાવાદમાં એર ઇન્ડિયાનું બોઈંગ ડ્રીમલાઈનર વિમાન ક્રેશ થયાની ઘટના હજુ તાજી છે ત્યાં લંડનના હીથ્રો એરપોર્ટ પરથી ચેન્નઈ આવવા ઉપડેલા બોઈંગ ૭૮૭-૮ ડ્રીમલાઈનર વિમાનમાં રવિવારે ટેકનિકલ ખામી સર્જાતાં તેને ફ્રાન્કોર્ટ ઉપડ્યાના પોણા બે કલાક બાદ હીથ્રો એરપોર્ટ પર પરત લઈ જવાયું હતું અને મુસાફરોને પ્લેનનું ત્યારબાદ ચેકિંગ કરી લેવામાં આવ્યું હતું. બોઈંગ ૭૮૭-૮ ડ્રીમલાઈનરે હીથ્રો એરપોર્ટના રનવે ૨૭૨ પરથી ઉડાન ભરી હતી પરંતુ ૧૫,૦૦૦ ફૂટની ઊંચાઈ પર પહોંચ્યા બાદ પાઈલટને પ્લેનમાં ક્લેપ સિસ્ટમમાં ટેકનિકલ ખામી જણાઈ હતી. બ્રિટિશ એરવેઝે પાછળથી પુષ્ટિ કરતા એક સ્ટેટમેન્ટમાં જણાવ્યું હતું કે ફ્લાઈટ BA૩૫૧ ટેકનિકલ ખામીના પગલે પ્લેન ૨૦૦૬ બિઝનેસ ક્લાસ પુરુષ હીથ્રો એરપોર્ટ ખાતે પરત ફર્યું હતું. એરલાઈને તમામ પેસેન્જર્સ અને ક્રૂ મેમ્બર્સને પ્લેનમાંથી સુરક્ષિત રીતે ઉતારી લેવાયા હોવાનું કહ્યું હતું પરંતુ પેસેન્જર્સની કુલ સંખ્યા કે પ્લેનમાં બિઝનેસ ક્લાસની ટેકનિકલ ખામી અંગે વિગતો આપવાનું ટાળ્યું હતું. ફ્લાઈટ BA૩૫૧ બપોરે ૧૨.૪૦ વાગ્યે હીથ્રો એરપોર્ટથી ચેન્નઈ માટે ઉડાન ભરવાની હતી પરંતુ ચોક્કસ સમયે ૧.૧૬ વાગ્યે ઉપડી હતી. હીથ્રો એરપોર્ટ પર પરત ફરવાનો પહેલો પ્લેન ટેકઓફના અત્યંત ઉપર ૩૦ મિનિટ પછી આકાશમાં વિવિધ હોલિડે પેકેજ્સ

લુફ્થાન્સાની હૈદરાબાદ જતી ફ્લાઈટને બોમ્બની ધમકી મળી

જર્મનીથી હૈદરાબાદ આવી રહેલી ફ્લાઈટને ધમકીને પગલે લેન્ડિંગની પરમિશન ન અપાઈ, ફ્લાઈટ ફ્રેન્કફર્ટ પરત ફરી

હૈદરાબાદ : જર્મનીથી હૈદરાબાદ આવી રહેલા લુફ્થાન્સાના વિમાનમાં બોમ્બ હોવાની ધમકી મળ્યા પછી હવામાં જ ફ્યુલ બર્નિંગ પાછા વાળવું પડ્યું હતું. ધમકીના પગલે આ વિમાનને હૈદરાબાદમાં ઉતારવાની મંજૂરી ન મળી. આ વિમાન ૨૭૦ સીટો ધરાવે છે પરંતુ તેમાં ફક્ત ૧૪૦ પેસેન્જર્સ હતા. વિમાનને જર્મનીના ફ્રેન્કફર્ટ એરપોર્ટ પર લેન્ડ કરાવવામાં આવ્યું હતું. લુફ્થાન્સા એરલાઈન્સની ફ્લાઈટ નંબર LH752 હૈદરાબાદમાં લગભગ ૦૫:૫૨ વાગ્યે ઉતરવાની હતી પરંતુ ચોક્કસ સમયે ૧૦:૫૨ વાગ્યે ઉપડી હતી. હૈદરાબાદ એરપોર્ટના ડાયરેક્ટર જનરલ વી. સુરેશે જણાવ્યું હતું કે, ધમકી મળ્યા પછી વિમાનને ફ્રેન્કફર્ટ એરપોર્ટ પર પરત મોકલવામાં આવ્યું હતું. લુફ્થાન્સા એરલાઈન્સની ફ્લાઈટ નંબર LH752 ધમકી મળી હોવાના કારણે તેને લેન્ડિંગની પરમિશન આપવામાં ન આવી. આ કારણે ફ્લાઈટ જર્મની પાછી વળી ગઈ હતી.

લખનઉ એરપોર્ટ પર સાઉદી એરલાઈન્સના પૈડામાં ભડકા જોવા મળ્યા

લખનઉ : મોડી રાત્રિએ એરપોર્ટ પર લેન્ડિંગ દરમિયાન સાઉદી એરલાઈન્સના એક વિમાનના વ્હિલમાં ટેકનિકલ ખામી આવી હતી. પૈડામાં ભારેખમ ભડકા અને ધુમાડો જોવા મળતા ૨૫૦ યાત્રાળુઓ સાથે આ વિમાનને આકસ્મિક ઇમરજન્સી જાહેર કરવી પડી. તમામ પ્રવાસીઓને સુરક્ષિતરૂપે ઉતારી લેવાયા હતા. વિમાનને ટેક્નીકલ ચેક માટે જવાયું હતું અને રવાનગીનો સમય આગળ નિર્ધારણ કરવો પડ્યો. હાલ્ટિકિટના વિકલ્પમાં વિકેરને કરવો સમયસર જાહેર કરી.

मुंबई/भाषा। टाटा संस और एयर इंडिया के चेयरमैन एन. चंद्रशेखरन ने एयर इंडिया के कर्मचारियों से सोमवार को कहा कि उन्हें आगे बढ़ते रहना चाहिए और जो कुछ भी हम करते हैं, उसमें दृढ़ निश्चयी होना चाहिए। सूत्रों ने यह जानकारी दी।

एयर इंडिया के एक विमान के अहमदाबाद में पिछले सप्ताह दुर्घटनाग्रस्त होने के मद्देनजर उन्होंने यह बात कही और इस दुर्घटना को अपने 'करियर' का सबसे दिल दहला देने वाला संकट बताया।

चंद्रशेखरन ने गुरुग्राम स्थित एयर इंडिया मुख्यालय एवं एयर इंडिया प्रशिक्षण अकादमी में करीब 700 कर्मचारियों व नेतृत्व दल को संबोधित करते हुए कहा कि कर्मचारियों को दृढ़ता दिखाने की जरूरत है और इस घटना से सबक लेते हुए एक 'सुरक्षित विमानन कंपनी' बनाने की राह पर बढ़ना चाहिए। सूत्रों ने चंद्रशेखरन के हवाले से कहा, ''हमें यह सुनिश्चित करना होगा कि हम आगे बढ़ते रहें। हम जो भी करें, उसमें और दृढ़ निश्चयी रहें। हमें जांच के पूरी होने का इंतजार करना होगा, ताकि घटना के कारणों का पता चल सके।''

सूत्रों के अनुसार उन्होंने कहा, ''मैंने अपने करियर में काफी संकट देखे हैं, लेकिन यह सबसे दुखद घटना है। मैंने कभी नहीं सोचा था कि मुझे ऐसा दिन देखना पड़ेगा।'' एयर इंडिया का विमान – बोइंग 787-8 ड्रीमलाइनर 12 जून को लंदन के लिए उड़ान भरते ही दुर्घटनाग्रस्त हो गया था, जिसमें 270 से अधिक लोगों की मौत हो गई। नागर विमानन मंत्री के राममोहन नायडू ने रविवार को दुर्घटना के कारणों की जांच के लिए एक समिति गठित करने की घोषणा की थी।

एक्सट्रा बूस्ट • बैंकों ने ब्याज दरें 0.5% तक घटाईं, इससे रियल्टी, ऑटोमोबाइल जैसे सेक्टरों के शेयर चढ़े

क्रूड 2% सस्ता होने से 677 अंक चढ़ा सेंसेक्स, आईटी इंडेक्स 1.5% और रियल्टी 1.3% उछला

बिजनेस संवाददाता | मुंबई

ईरान और इजराइल लगातार चौथे दिन जारी रहने के बावजूद सोमवार को कमोबेश दुनियाभर के शेयर बाजारों में तेजी रही। भारत में भी सेंसेक्स 677 अंक से ज्यादा चढ़ गया। कच्चे तेल की कीमतों में करीब 2% गिरावट इसकी सबसे बड़ी वजह बताई गई। आईटी शेयरों में 1.50% से ज्यादा तेजी से बाजार को अतिरिक्त सपोर्ट मिला। ये शेयर लंबे समय से बिकवाली के दबाव में थे। सेंसेक्स 677.55 अंक (0.84%) चढ़कर 81,796 पर और निफ्टी 228 अंकों (0.92%) की बढ़त लेकर 24,946.50 पर बंद हुआ। अच्छी बात ये रही कि तेजी सिर्फ बड़ी कंपनियों के शेयरों तक सीमित नहीं रही।

ट्रेंड: एनएसई के चार सेक्टोरल इंडेक्स में निफ्टी से ज्यादा तेजी

सेक्टर	तेजी
आईटी	1.57%
रियल्टी	1.32%
ऑयल-गैस	1.11%
मेटल	1.07%
प्राइवेट बैंक	0.86%

(एनएसई के सभी सेक्टोरल इंडेक्स बढ़त पर बंद हुए)

- निफ्टी के मिडकैप100 इंडेक्स और स्मॉलकैप100 इंडेक्स भी करीब 1% बढ़त पर बंद हुए।
- कच्चे तेल के बेंचमार्क ब्रेंट क्रूड का भाव 1.74% गिरकर 73 डॉलर/बैरल से नीचे रहा।

टर्नअराउंड: सेंसेक्स के टॉप-5 गेनर में से 4 आईटी कंपनियों के शेयर

- अल्ट्राटेक सीमेंट में सर्वाधिक 2.5% उछाल आया। टॉप-5 गेनर में 4 आईटी शेयर- टेक महिंद्रा, एचसीएल टेक, टीसीएस और इन्फोसिस रहे। इनमें 1.3-2% तेजी रही।
- बीएसई पर सोमवार को कुल 4,253 शेयरों की ट्रेडिंग हुई। इनमें से 1,944 शेयरों में तेजी और 2,151 शेयरों में गिरावट आई। 158 शेयर स्थिर रहे।

ईरान-इजराइल तनाव लंबा खिंचने की आशंका कम, सस्ते लोन से ट्रिगर मिला

बाजार में आज की उछाल का सबसे बड़ा क्रेडिट कच्चे तेल में गिरावट को जाता है। दरअसल पेट्रोलियम निर्यातक देशों का संगठन ओपेक सीमित मांग के चलते क्रूड का प्रोडक्शन घटा रहा है। हो सकता है कि इसका फायदा उठाने के लिए कई देशों ने प्रोडक्शन बढ़ाना शुरू कर दिया हो। इस बीच इजराइल की कार्रवाई में ईरान के बड़े लीडर्स मारे गए। इससे तनाव लंबा खिंचने की आशंका कम रह गई। सप्लाई चेन बाधित होने को लेकर भी कोई बाधा अब तक नहीं दिखी। इसके साथ ही एसबीआई समेत कई बैंकों ने ब्याज दरों में 0.5% कटौती की। नया लोन सस्ता होने से रियल्टी और ऑटोमोबाइल जैसे सेक्टरों के शेयरों में तेजी आई। आगे अगर मौजूदा तनाव के बीच कोई निगेटिव खबर आती है तो बाजार भी निगेटिव प्रतिक्रिया दे सकता है। अमेरिकी टैरिफ में छूट की डेडलाइन जुलाई में खत्म हो रही है। अगर ये तनाव फिर ट्रिगर होता है तो बाजार दबाव में आ सकता है।

570 नए विमानों का ऑर्डर दिया था

2025 तक एअर इंडिया में सुधार का लक्ष्य तय किया था टाटा ने

एलेक्सट्रैवेली

पिछले सप्ताह अहमदाबाद की विमान दुर्घटना एयर इंडिया के इतिहास में नाजुक मोड़ पर हुई है। 2022 में सरकार ने करीब 70 साल तक सरकारी नियंत्रण में रही एयरलाइन का निजीकरण कर दिया। टाटा ग्रुप ने उसे खरीद लिया था। एअर इंडिया की प्रतिष्ठा में लगातार गिरावट हो रही थी। उड़ानों में देर, टूटी सीटों और खराब सर्विस जैसी शिकायतें आम थीं। टाटा ग्रुप ने मैनेजमेंट में सुधार के लिए सिंगापुर में एक लो कॉस्ट एयरलाइन शुरू करने वाले कैम्पबेल विलसन की सेवाएं लीं। 570 नए एयरक्राफ्ट का ऑर्डर दिया। बोइंग और एयरबस से प्लेन लिए गए। पैसा भी खूब लगाया।

एअर इंडिया का निजीकरण परिवारिक पुनर्मिलन जैसा था। 1932 में जेआरडी टाटा ने एअर इंडिया की शुरुआत की थी। 1953 में सरकार ने कंपनी का राष्ट्रीयकरण कर दिया। इससे पहले कई देश मुनाफे के लिए नेशनल एयरलाइन कंपनियों को प्राइवेट कंपनियों में बदल चुके थे।

टाटा के कंपनी खरीदने के बाद अहमदाबाद दुर्घटना से पहले एअर इंडिया का सेफ्टी रिकॉर्ड बेदाग रहा है। कंपनी के पूर्व सीईओ जीतेंदर भार्गव का कहना है, एअर इंडिया जैसी एयरलाइन को बदलने में समय लगता है। टाटा ग्रुप ने एयरलाइंस की सेवाओं और फाइनेंशियल परफॉर्मेंस में सुधार के लिए 2025 का लक्ष्य तय किया था। ग्लोबल सप्लाई चेन की सुस्ती से बदलाव की प्रक्रिया धीमी रही हैं। फिर भी, एअर इंडिया ने कुछ काम सही किए हैं। टाटा ने चार छोटी एयरलाइंस को खरीदकर मार्केट मजबूत किया है। अब टाटा और इंडिगो मार्केट पर हावी हैं। भारत के घरेलू बाजार पर दोनों एयरलाइंस का 91 प्रतिशत नियंत्रण है। इससे लंबी अवधि में मुनाफा बढ़ेगा। © The New York Times

22 साल तक एअर इंडिया के एक्जीक्यूटिव डायरेक्टर रहे जीतेंदर भार्गव कहते हैं कि 1978 के आसपास फाइनेंशियल मैनेजमेंट बिगड़ने से एअर इंडिया के स्टैंडर्ड में गिरावट की शुरुआत हुई थी। उन्होंने कहा, मैं 25 वर्षों से ऐसा कह रहा हूं। लीडरशिप और कार्यसंस्कृति पर सरकार और यूनियन का खासा प्रभाव है। आप एयरलाइन जैसे प्रतिस्पर्धी क्षेत्र में इस तरह से नहीं चल सकते हैं।

146वीं वर्षगांठ के दिन भी बीजेएमसी में गमगीन माहौल

अहमदाबाद के बीजे मेडिकल कॉलेज एवं अस्पताल के परिसर में सोमवार को भी मातम पसरा रहा। विमान हादसे में मारे गये अपने प्रियजनों के शवों की शिनाख्त का इंतजार कर रहे परिजन शोक में डूबे रहे। वहीं, अपने सहकर्मियों को खोने वाले चिकित्सक बहादुरी दिखाते हुए मरीजों के इलाज में जुटे रहे। इस चिकित्सा संस्थान का सोमवार को 146वां स्थापना दिवस था। लेकिन, वहां जश्न के बजाय विलाप करते परिजनों को देखा गया।

तकनीकी खराबी के चलते एयर इंडिया की दो उड़ानें वापस लौटी

उड़ान पर संकट : 36 घंटे में तीन बोइंग सहित चार उड़ानों में गड़बड़ी

नई दिल्ली. अहमदाबाद विमान हादसे के बाद पिछले दो दिन में बोइंग787 के तीन विमानों सहित चार उड़ानों में गड़बड़ी मिलने से हवाई यात्रा की सुरक्षा सवालों के घेरे में है। सोमवार को तकनीकी खराबी के कारण एयर इंडिया की दो उड़ानों को लौटना पड़ा। दिल्ली से रांची जाने वाली फ्लाइट एआइ9695 को शाम 6.20 बजे बिरसा मुंडा एयरपोर्ट पर उतरना था, लेकिन तकनीकी कारणों से इसे वापस दिल्ली के लिए मोड़ दिया गया। यह घटना एयर इंडिया की हांगकांग से दिल्ली आ रही उड़ान संख्या एआइ315 में तकनीकी खराबी के कारण वापस लौटने के कुछ घंटों बाद हुई। विमान में खराबी का पता चलने के बाद पायलटों ने इसे उड़ान के 90 मिनट बाद ही वापस हांगकांग ले जाने का निर्णय लिया। एयर इंडिया का ने बताया, हांगकांग उतरने के बाद विमान के सभी यात्री सुरक्षित हैं। इससे पहले रविवार को भी दो उड़ानों में तकनीकी गड़बड़ी देखी गई। लंदन के हीथ्रो एयरपोर्ट से चेन्नई के लिए रवाना हुई ब्रिटिश एयरवेज के विमान को कुछ ही मिनटों बाद हीथ्रो पर लाया गया। बोइंग 787-8 ड्रीमलाइनर जब 15 हजार फीट की ऊंचाई पर था, तब फ्लैप सिस्टम में गड़बड़ी के संकेत मिले थे। रविवार को ही सुबह जेद्दा से लखनऊ एयरपोर्ट पर उतरे सऊदी अरब के एक विमान के पहियों से धुआं निकलता हुआ देखा गया। विमान बचाव और अग्निशमन (एआरएफएफ) की टीम मौके पर पहुंची और सऊदी अरब की टीम के साथ मिलकर धुएं को नियंत्रित किया। सभी यात्रियों को सुरक्षित उतार लिया गया।

Ahmedabad airport sees sharp spurt in wildlife-aircraft collisions; worrisome surge in Calcutta

Bird hits on the rise: Govt data

JAYANTA BASU

New Delhi: The number of incidents of animal and bird hits has doubled in the country between 2019 and 2023, civil aviation ministry data have revealed at a time a probe is underway to ascertain the cause behind the plane crash in Ahmedabad.

Besides birds, mammals such as bats, stray dogs and pigs can pose a serious risk to aircraft.

WATCH OUT!

While Delhi was the most affected airport followed by Mumbai in gross number of strikes, the rise in hits in recent years was the steepest at Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport, from where the London-bound flight took off on Thursday before barreling into the residential complex of a medical college.

Calcutta has witnessed fewer hits compared with other metros, but is the only one showing an increasing trend among such cities in recent years.

"The analysis of data of wildlife (bird/animal) strikes indicates that the maximum number of strikes to the airplanes occurs during the landing and takeoff phases," a document of the civil aviation ministry stated.

Senior officials of the Airports Authority of India (AAI) say that the norms and standard operating procedure (SOP) to reduce such collisions have largely remained on paper.

According to the data tabled in the Rajya Sabha in end-2023 by then junior civil aviation minister V.K. Singh, the total number of animal hits to flights in the country stood at 535 in 2019, or around 1.5 hits per day. The number increased nearly 100 per cent in five years by October 31, 2023, to 1,123, or over three hits per day.

The data reveal that Ahmedabad airport ranked third in the country in terms of animal strikes from 2019 to 2023, with 266 hits, behind table-topper Delhi with 609 hits and Mumbai with 295 hits. However, the rise in the number of bird hits at Ahmedabad airport between 2022 and 2023 was the highest among major Indian airports. Ahmedabad had 39 hits in 2022 and 81 in 2023.

Calcutta, with 154 hits between 2019 and 2023, is seventh on the list of "most-hit airports" but is the only major metro with a rising trend in bird hits, which stood at 45 in 2023 against 31 in 2022.

"Bird strikes are a serious aviation safety concern, and the Directorate General of Civil Aviation has taken steps to address this issue. We take multiple steps like cutting grasses, using bird catchers and blasting fireworks to prevent bird incursion, but can hardly do anything to stop the menace beyond the airport areas," said Kalyan Choudhury, retired executive director of air traffic control in India.

A senior AAI official at Calcutta airport said guidelines and SOPs were in place, but they had little control beyond airport areas. "While there should have been at least 1km of buffer zone after the dedicated airport area, neither the government nor the local administration has promulgated any specific norm to control birds in the vicinity," the official said.

He said shops and markets close to airports and the dumping of waste in the vicinity attracted birds. The Belgharia waste dump site and tall trees close to Calcutta airport play a major role in attracting birds close to the runways, he said.

सुरक्षा जांच ज़रूरी

एयर इंडिया की लंदन जा रही बोइंग 787-8 फ्लाइट का अहमदाबाद में हुआ हादसा गंभीर त्रासदी है। 270 मौतें केवल आंकड़ा नहीं, बल्कि परिवारों का टूटना है। यह हादसा तकनीकी विफलता और विमानन प्रणाली की कमजोरी को उजागर करता है। सभी विमानों की सुरक्षा जांच जरूरी है। जवाबदेही, पारदर्शिता, संवेदनशीलता, सुधारात्मक कार्रवाई, सतर्कता और दृढ़ संकल्प अब अनिवार्य हो गई है।

Surviving doctors rushed to save lives

Navin Chaudhary in Ahmedabad on Monday. (AP)

Ahmedabad: Navin Chaudhary had just begun eating his meal when a loud bang startled him. He turned back to see a massive fire taking over the dining area where he and other trainee doctors had assembled for lunch.

The blaze approaching him, he rushed towards a window and jumped.

From the ground, looking upwards, the sight of the Air India plane's tail cone hanging from the burning building propelled Chaudhary and fellow medical students into action.

"There was fire and many were injured," said Chaudhary.

He said he felt lucky to survive but knew he had a task at hand. He rushed to the hospital's intensive care unit, where the injured, most of whom had burns, were wheeled in on stretchers.

"I felt that as a doctor I could save someone's life," he said. "I was safe. So I thought, whatever I can do, I should."

At least 274 died when the Air India flight crashed into the campus of a medical college in Ahmedabad shortly after takeoff on Thursday. Only one passenger among the 242 aboard survived. Over 30 others on the ground, including five medical students inside the hostel, were also killed.

Many believe that the death toll would have been higher if it had not been for the intervention of the trainee doctors and students who emerged from the smouldering hostel and rushed to save their colleagues.

Akshay Zala, a senior medical student, said the crash felt "like an earthquake".

"I could hardly see anything as thick plumes of smoke and dust engulfed everything. I was barely able to breathe," he said.

Zala rushed to safety, running through dust and smoke. He cleaned and bandaged a wound on his left leg, then joined others at the medical college's trauma centre to treat the injured.

On Monday, the crash site teemed with excavators and workers clearing the debris.

Barely a kilometre away, trainee doctors who survived one of India's worst aviation disasters were still working to identify the victims through DNA testing.

College dean Minakshi Parikh said that many of the doctors who pulled their colleagues out of the debris, later that day went back to their duties to save as many lives as they could. "They did that and that spirit has continued till this moment," Parikh said.

Images of the hostel's dining area shortly after the crash showed parts of the aircraft and pieces of luggage strewn on the floor. Dining plates still containing food lay on the few dusty tables that were left intact by the impact.

"So that is human nature, isn't it? When our own people are injured, our first response is to help them," Parikh said. "So the doctors who managed to escape... the first thing that they did was they went back in and dug out their colleagues who were trapped inside."

"They might not even have survived because the rescue teams take time coming," she added. AP

Another AI Dreamliner develops snag mid-air

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

Mumbai, June 16: A Delhi-bound Air India Dreamliner Boeing 787-8 from Hong Kong returned to its airport of origin Monday after the pilot in command suspected a technical issue shortly after takeoff.

The flight, AI 315, landed safely in Hong Kong and all passengers have disembarked from the plane, the airline said in a statement, adding that the aircraft is undergoing inspection.

The flight departed from Hong Kong at 12:16pm (local time) and was scheduled to land in Delhi at 12:20pm IST.

The flight had departed after a delay of almost 3.5 hours as its scheduled departure was at 8:50am, as per flight tracking website flightradar24.com.

"AI315 operating from Hong Kong to Delhi June 16, 2025 returned to Hong Kong shortly after takeoff due to a technical issue. The flight landed safely at Hong Kong and is undergoing checks as a matter of abundant precaution. Alternative arrangements have been planned to fly the passengers to their destination Delhi at the earliest," Air India said.

Over 270 people were killed June 12 when a London-bound Air India plane -- a Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner -- carrying 242 passengers and crew crashed into a medical college complex in Ahmedabad and crashed less than a minute after takeoff.

Meanwhile, a Ranchi-bound Air India Express flight was diverted back to Delhi Monday after technical issue was suspected.

SMOKE IN FLIGHT TRIGGERS ALARM

Lucknow: A Saudia Airlines plane from Jeddah carrying 242 Haj pilgrims caused an alarm at the airport here in UP Sunday when smoke and sparks were detected from its wheels while landing, according to sources. The Aircraft Rescue and Fire Fighting team acted swiftly to contain the smoke, preventing any damage to the aircraft. All passengers were safely deboarded and flight operations continued at the Chaudhary Charan Singh International Airport.

अतिशय वेदनादायी विमान अपघात

काही दिवसांपूर्वीच अहमदाबाद विमानतळावर अतिशय वेदनादायी विमान अपघात झाला. प्रवासी व कर्मचारी मिळून २४०हून अधिक मृत्यू; शिवाय ज्या मेडिकल महाविद्यालयामध्ये ते कोसळले, तेथील मृतांची संख्या अद्याप जाहीर करण्यात आली नाही. यातून प्रवाशांचे नातेवाईक यांच्या दुःखाची कल्पनाही करवत नाही. या विमान दुर्घटनेवरून मला सन १९७६-७७च्या सांताक्रुझ येथील विमानतळावर घडलेल्या तत्कालीन विमान दुर्घटनेची आठवण झाली. त्या दुर्घटनेत ४५० आसन क्षमतेचे 'बोईंग ७४७' विमान काही तांत्रिक अडचणींमुळे ऐनवेळी रद्द करण्यात येऊन त्याऐवजी ३२५ आसन क्षमतेचे बोईंग ४३७ विमान तयार करून त्यावेळी १२५ प्रवाशांना विमानात प्रवेश मिळाला नाही. त्यामुळे ते प्रवेश न मिळालेले प्रवासी भाग्यशाली ठरले. परंतु, त्या प्रवाशांतील काहींची कायमची ताटातूट झाली; तर वाचले त्यांच्या चमत्कारिक घटना दुसऱ्या दिवशी वर्तमानपत्रात वाचायला मिळाल्या. तेव्हा एका दैनिकात 'नियत नसलेली नियती' हा अग्रलेख छापून आला होता. त्यात कायमची ताटातूट झालेल्या प्रवाशांच्या हृदयद्रावक कथा नमूद करून वाचवलेल्या प्रवाशांचे पूर्ण व्हावयाचे मनसुबेही नियतीला कसे मान्य होते, ते संपादकांनी त्यांच्या खास शैलीत लिहिले होते. अहमदाबादच्या विमान दुर्घटनेची अशीच काहीशी वर्तने वर्तमानपत्रांमध्ये वाचायला मिळाली. काहीही असो, झालेली घटना अतिशय वेदनादायी असून, अशी वेळ कोणावरही येऊ नये, हीच परमेश्वरास विनंती. वरील विमान दुर्घटनेत मृत्युमुखी पडलेल्या सर्व प्रवाशांना भावपूर्ण श्रद्धांजली. ॐ शांती शांती.

বিমান দুর্ঘটনার পর থেকে নিখোঁজ পরিচালক, নিহত হওয়ার আশঙ্কা

মহলে কালাওয়াদিয়া ওরফে মহেশ জিরাওয়ালা মিউজ়িকি ভিডিয়ো পরিচালনা করতেন। তাঁর স্ত্রী হেতাল জানিয়েছেন, গত বৃহস্পতিবার দুপুরে কাজের সূত্রেই ল গার্ডেনে এক জনের সঙ্গে দেখা করতে গিয়েছিলেন মহেশ। তাঁর পর আর ঘরে ফেরেননি। হেতালের কথায়, "বৃহস্পতিবার দুপুর ১টা ১৪ মিনিটে ফোন করেছিলেন মহেশ। আমাকে জানিয়েছিলেন, ওঁর কাজ হয়ে গিয়েছে। বাড়ি ফিরছেন। কিন্তু বাড়ি না ফেরায় ওঁকে ফোন করি। ওঁর মোবাইল সুইচ্‌ড অফ বলে। এর পর পুলিশ খোঁজ নিয়ে জানতে পারে, দুর্ঘটনাস্থলের ৭০০ মিটার দূরে শেষ বার ওঁর মোবাইলের অবস্থান ধরা পড়েছিল।" হেতাল জানিয়েছেন, গত বৃহস্পতিবার দুপুর ১টা ৪০ মিনিট নাগাদ সুইচ্‌ড অফ হয়ে গিয়েছিল মহেশের মোবাইল। প্রসঙ্গত, ১টা ৩৮ মিনিটে অহমদাবাদের সর্দার বল্লভভাই পটেল বিমানবন্দর থেকে উড়েছিল এয়ার ইন্ডিয়ার সেই বিমান। ওড়ার কয়েক সেকেন্ডের মধ্যেই মেঘানিনগরে ভেঙে পড়ে সেটি। হেতালের দাবি, মেঘানিনগর হয়ে কখনওই বাড়ি ফিরতেন না মহেশ। তাঁর কথায়, "মহেশের স্কুটার এবং মোবাইল ফোনের হদিস মেলেনি। অদ্ভুত হচ্ছে, ওই পথে (যেখানে মহেশের মোবাইলের টাওয়ারের শেষ অবস্থান ধরা পড়ে) ও বাড়ি ফিরত না। বিমান ভেঙে পড়ে ওঁর মৃত্যু হয়েছে কি না নিশ্চিত হতে আমরা ডিএনএ নমুনা দিয়ে এসেছি হাসপাতালে।"

এই বিমান দুর্ঘটনায় ২৭০ জনের মৃত্যু হয়েছে। তাঁদের মধ্যে ২৪১ জন বিমানের আরোহী। বাকিরা মেঘানিনগরে দুর্ঘটনার সময়ে উপস্থিত ছিলেন। বেশির ভাগ দেহ পুড়ে যাওয়ার কারণে শনাক্ত করতে সমস্যায় পড়তে হচ্ছে। সে কারণে নিহতদের স্বজনদের ডিএনএ নমুনা সংগ্রহ করা হচ্ছে। এ বার ডিএনএ নমুনা দিয়ে এল পরিচালকের পরিবার।

एक्सट्रा बूस्ट • बैंकों ने ब्याज दरें 0.5% तक घटाईं, इससे रियल्टी, ऑटोमोबाइल जैसे सेक्टरों के शेयर चढ़े

क्रूड 2% सस्ता होने से 677 अंक चढ़ा सेंसेक्स आईटी इंडेक्स 1.5% और रियल्टी 1.3% उछला

बिजनेस संवाददाता | मुंबई

ईरान और इजराइल लगातार चौथे दिन जारी रहने के बावजूद सोमवार को कमोबेश दुनियाभर के शेयर बाजारों में तेजी रही। भारत में भी सेंसेक्स 677 अंक से ज्यादा चढ़ गया। कच्चे तेल की कीमतों में करीब 2% गिरावट इसकी सबसे बड़ी वजह बताई गई। आईटी शेयरों में 1.50% से ज्यादा तेजी से बाजार को अतिरिक्त सपोर्ट मिला। ये शेयर लंबे समय से बिकवाली के दबाव में थे। सेंसेक्स 677.55 अंक (0.84%) चढ़कर 81,796 पर और निफ्टी 228 अंकों (0.92%) की बढ़त लेकर 24,946.50 पर बंद हुआ। अच्छी बात ये रही कि तेजी सिर्फ बड़ी कंपनियों के शेयरों तक सीमित नहीं रही।

ट्रेंड: एनएसई के चार सेक्टोरल इंडेक्स में निफ्टी से ज्यादा तेजी

सेक्टर	तेजी
आईटी	1.57%
रियल्टी	1.32%
ऑयल-गैस	1.11%
मेटल	1.07%
प्राइवेट बैंक	0.86%

(इनमें से सभी सेक्टोरल इंडेक्स बढ़त पर बंद हुए)

- निफ्टी के मिडकैप100 इंडेक्स और स्मॉलकैप100 इंडेक्स भी करीब 1% बढ़त पर बंद हुए।
- कच्चे तेल के बेंचमार्क ब्रेंट क्रूड का भाव 1.74% गिरकर 73 डॉलर/बैरल से नीचे रहा।

टर्नअराउंड: सेंसेक्स के टॉप-5 गेनर में से 4 आईटी कंपनियों के शेयर

- बेंचमार्क इंडेक्स सेंसेक्स के 30 में से सिर्फ तीन शेयरों- टाटा मोटर्स, अडाणी पोर्ट्स और सन फार्मा में क्रमशः 3.56%, 0.35% और 0.2% गिरावट आई। बाकी चढ़े।
- अल्ट्राटेक सीमेंट में सर्वाधिक 2.5% उछाल आया। टॉप-5 गेनर में 4 आईटी शेयर- टेक महिंद्रा, एचसीएल टेक, टीसीएस और इन्फोसिस रहे। इनमें 1.3-2% तेजी रही।
- बीएसई पर सोमवार को कुल 4,253 शेयरों की ट्रेडिंग हुई। इनमें से 1,944 शेयरों में तेजी और 2,151 शेयरों में गिरावट आई। 158 शेयर स्थिर रहे।
- किसी भी शेयर पर अपर सर्किट नहीं लगा। हालांकि 7 शेयरों पर लोअर सर्किट लगा।

ईरान-इजराइल तनाव लंबा खिंचने की आशंका कम, सस्ते लोन से ट्रिगर मिला

भास्कर एक्सपर्ट

सनी अग्रवाल
डीवीपी, फंडामेंटल रिसर्च, एसबीआई सिक्योरिटीज

बाजार में आज की उछाल का सबसे बड़ा क्रेडिट कच्चे तेल में गिरावट को जाता है। दरअसल पेट्रोलियम निर्यातक देशों का संगठन ओपेक सीमित मांग के चलते क्रूड का प्रोडक्शन घटा रहा है। हो सकता है कि इसका फायदा उठाने के लिए कई देशों ने प्रोडक्शन बढ़ाना शुरू कर दिया हो। इस बीच इजराइल की कार्रवाई में ईरान के बड़े लीडर्स मारे गए। इससे तनाव लंबा खिंचने की आशंका कम रह गई। सप्लाई चेन बाधित होने को लेकर भी कोई बाधा अब तक नहीं दिखी। इसके साथ ही एसबीआई समेत कई बैंकों ने ब्याज दरों में 0.5% कटौती की। नया लोन सस्ता होने से रियल्टी और ऑटोमोबाइल जैसे सेक्टरों के शेयरों में तेजी आई। आगे अगर मौजूदा तनाव के बीच कोई निगेटिव खबर आती है तो बाजार भी निगेटिव प्रतिक्रिया दे सकता है। अमेरिकी टैरिफ में छूट की डेडलाइन जुलाई में खत्म हो रही है। अगर ये तनाव फिर ट्रिगर होता है तो बाजार दबाव में आ सकता है।

Sensex, Nifty rebound nearly 1 per cent on value buying

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA ■
Mumbai

Shrugging off geopolitical concerns amid escalating tensions between Israel and Iran, stock markets rebounded by nearly 1 per cent on Monday following value buying in oil & gas and IT shares and gains in other Asian markets as Brent crude oil prices dropped.

The 30-share BSE Sensex jumped 677.55 points or 0.84 per cent to settle at 81,796.15 with 27 of its constituents ending in the green and three with losses. During the day, it surged 747.22 points or 0.92 per cent to 81,865.82. The 50-share NSE Nifty climbed 227.90 points or 0.92 per cent to 24,946.50.

Among Sensex firms, UltraTech Cement rose the most by 2.39 per cent. Tech Mahindra, HCL Tech, Tata Consultancy Services, Eternal, Asian Paints, Tata Steel and Kotak Mahindra Bank were among the gainers. Tata Motors, Adani Ports and Sun Pharma were the laggards.

"Despite ongoing geopolitical tensions between Israel and Iran, the market moved higher, supported by gains in large-cap stocks, as investors maintained their focus on long-term fundamentals in the time of volatile situations. Geopolitical developments in the Middle East are likely to influence near-term market sentiment, with any signs of de-escalation being closely monitored," Vinod Nair, Head of Research, Geojit Investments Limited, said.

"Among sectors, oil and gas recorded strong gains, while the IT sector outperformed in anticipation of the upcoming US Fed policy meeting, which is expected to provide further clarity on the interest rate outlook," Nair added. The BSE midcap gauge jumped 0.93 per cent and smallcap index climbed 0.38 per cent.

All BSE sectoral indices ended higher. IT jumped 1.50 per cent, followed by BSE Focused IT (1.50 per cent), teck (1.35 per cent), oil and gas (1.22 per cent), realty (1.21 per cent), services (1.10 per cent) and consumer durables (1.05 per cent).

In Asian markets, South Korea's Kospi, Japan's Nikkei 225 index, Shanghai's SSE Composite index and Hong Kong's Hang Seng settled in the positive territory. European markets were quoting in the green. US markets ended lower on Friday. Global oil benchmark Brent crude declined 0.81 per cent to $73.63 a barrel. Wholesale price inflation (WPI) declined to a 14-month low of 0.39 per cent in May on easing prices of food articles and fuel.

"Despite mounting global uncertainty triggered by escalating tensions in the Middle East, Indian markets remained resilient," Sundar Kewat, Technical and Derivatives Analyst, Ashika Institutional Equity — Ashika Stock Broking part of Ashika Group, said.

ವಿಮಾನ ಪ್ರಯಾಣದ ಅನುಭವ ಹಂಚಿಕೊಂಡ ನಟಿ ಮಾಲಾಶ್ರೀ

ಅಹಮದಾಬಾದ್‌ನಲ್ಲಿ ನಡೆದ ಏರ್ ಇಂಡಿಯಾ ವಿಮಾನ ಪತನ ದುರಂತದ ಬಳಿಕ ಅನೇಕ ಜನರು ತಮಗಾದ ಕೆಲವು ಅನುಭವಗಳನ್ನು ಹಂಚಿಕೊಳ್ಳುತ್ತಿದ್ದಾರೆ. ಮೂವತ್ತು ವರ್ಷಗಳ ಹಿಂದೆ ಅಂದರೆ 1993 ರಲ್ಲಿ 260 ಜನ ಪ್ರಯಾಣಿಕರಿದ್ದ ಇಂಡಿಯನ್ ಏರ್ ಲೈನ್ಸ್ ವಿಮಾನವು ಕೂಡ ಎಮರ್ಜೆನ್ಸಿ ಲ್ಯಾಂಡಿಂಗ್ ಆಗಿದ್ದ ಪ್ರಕರಣವನ್ನು ನಟಿ ಮಾಲಾಶ್ರೀ ಅವರ ಹಂಚಿಕೊಂಡಿದ್ದಾರೆ.

ಇಂಡಿಯನ್ ಏರ್‌ಲೈನ್ಸ್ ಸಂಸ್ಥೆಗೆ ಸೇರಿದ್ದ ಈ ವಿಮಾನದಲ್ಲಿ ನಟಿ ಮಾಲಾಶ್ರೀ ಅವರೂ ಸೇರಿದಂತೆ ಚಿತ್ರರಂಗದ ದೊಡ್ಡ ದೊಡ್ಡ ಸೆಲಿಬ್ರಿಟಿಗಳೇ ಇದ್ದರು. ಚೆನ್ನೈನಿಂದ ಹೈದರಾಬಾದ್‌ಗೆ ಹೊರಟಿದ್ದ ಈ ವಿಮಾನ ತುರ್ತು ಭೂಸ್ಪರ್ಶವಾಗಿ ಬಹುದೊಡ್ಡ ಅನಾಹುತವೊಂದು ತಪ್ಪಿತ್ತು. ಪೈಲೆಟ್ ಉಪಯೋಗಿಸಿದ ಸಮಯಪ್ರಜ್ಞೆ ಹಾಗೂ ಚಾಕಚಕ್ಯತೆಯಿಂದ ಆಗಬೇಕಾಗಿದ್ದ ಭಾರೀ ದುರಂತವೊಂದು ತಪ್ಪಿ ನೂರಾರು ಜನರ ಪ್ರಾಣ ಉಳಿದಿತ್ತು. ಆ ವಿಮಾನದಲ್ಲಿ ತೆಲುಗಿನ ಖ್ಯಾತ ನಟರಾದ ಚಿರಂಜೀವಿ, ನಂದಮೂರಿ ಬಾಲಕೃಷ್ಣ, ನಟಿ ವಿಜಯಶಾಂತಿ, ಬ್ರಹ್ಮಾನಂದಂ ಹಾಗೂ ನಟಿ ಮಾಲಾಶ್ರೀ ಸೇರಿದಂತೆ ಹಲವಾರು ಸಿನಿಮಾ ಸೆಲಬ್ರಿಟಿಗಳು ತಮ್ಮ ಫ್ಯಾಮಿಲಿ ಸಮೇತ ಪ್ರಯಾಣಿಸುತ್ತಿದ್ದರು.

ಅನಂತರ ಬಹಳ ಹೊತ್ತು ನಾವಿದ್ದ ವಿಮಾನವನ್ನು ಆಗಸದಲ್ಲಿ ಸುತ್ತಾಡಿಸಿದರು. ನಂತರ ಏಕಾಏಕಿ ಎಮರ್ಜೆನ್ಸಿ ಲ್ಯಾಂಡಿಂಗ್ ಎಂದು ಹೇಳಿ ಬಿಟ್ಟರು. ಎಲ್ಲರೂ ಗಟ್ಟಿಯಾಗಿ ಹಿಡಿದುಕೊಳ್ಳಿ ಎಂದರು. ನಾವು ಎಲ್ಲೋ ನೆಲದ ಮೇಲೆ ಇಳಿಸುತ್ತಾರೆ ಎಂದು ತಿಳಿದುಕೊಂಡಿದ್ದೆವು. ಕೊನೆಗೆ ಒಂದು ಗದ್ದೆಯ ಮೇಲೆ ನಮ್ಮ ವಿಮಾನವನ್ನು ಇಳಿಸಿದ್ದರು. ಪುಣ್ಯಕ್ಕೆ ಯಾರಿಗೂ ಏನೂ ಆಗಲಿಲ್ಲ, ಅವರು ವಿಮಾನದಲ್ಲಿದ್ದ ಇಂಧನವನ್ನೆಲ್ಲಾ ಖಾಲಿ ಮಾಡಿ ಬಳಿಕ ಬ್ಲಾಸ್ಟ್ ಆಗದಂತೆ ತುಂಬಾ ಕೇರ್ ಫುಲ್ ಆಗಿ ನೆಲಕ್ಕೆ ಇಳಿಸಿದ್ದರು. ಇವತ್ತಿಗೂ ಅದಕ್ಕೆ ಕಾರಣ ಏನು ಎಂಬ ಬಗ್ಗೆ ನಾನು ಯಾರನ್ನು ಕೇಳಲಿಲ್ಲ ಎಂದು ಮಾಲಾಶ್ರೀ ಅವರು ಹೇಳಿದ್ದಾರೆ.

ಮತ್ತೆ ವಿಮಾನ ಟೇಕ್ ಆಫ್ ಆಗಬೇಕಾದರೆ ಭಯವಾಗುತ್ತದೆ ಎಂದು ನಾನು ಆ ಘಟನೆ ಬಗ್ಗೆ ಹೆಚ್ಚು ಮಾತನಾಡಲಿಲ್ಲ, ಹೆಚ್ಚು ತಿಳಿದುಕೊಳ್ಳಲು ಸಹ ಹೋಗಲಿಲ್ಲ, ಆ ಘಟನೆ ಬಳಿಕ ವಿಮಾನದಲ್ಲಿ ಓಡಾಡಲು ನನಗೆ ತುಂಬಾ ಭಯವಾಗುತ್ತದೆ. ಟೇಕಾಫ್ ಹಾಗೂ ಲ್ಯಾಂಡಿಂಗ್ ವೇಳೆ ಎಲ್ಲಾ ದೇವರನ್ನು ಇಂದಿಗೂ ಪ್ರಾರ್ಥಿಸುತ್ತೇನೆ ಎಂದಿದ್ದಾರೆ.

ಆ ವಿಮಾನದಿಂದ ಇಳಿದು ಹೊರ ಬಂದಾಗ ನಮ್ಮೆಲ್ಲರಿಗೂ ಜೀವ ಉಳಿಯಿತು ಎಂದು ಸಮಾಧಾನವಾಗಿ ಕಣ್ಣಲ್ಲಿ ನೀರು ತುಂಬಿತ್ತು. ಕ್ಯಾಪ್ಟನ್ ಭಲ್ಲಾ ಅವರು ಬಹಳ ಶ್ರಮವಹಿಸಿ ನಮ್ಮನ್ನೆಲ್ಲಾ ದೊಡ್ಡ ದುರಂತದಿಂದ ರಕ್ಷಿಸಿದರು. ಆ ಕ್ಯಾಪ್ಟನ್‌ಗೆ ಧನ್ಯವಾದ ಸಲ್ಲಿಸಲು ನಾವೆಲ್ಲ ಸೇರಿ ಒಂದು ಕಾರ್ಯಕ್ರಮ ಆಯೋಜಿಸಿದ್ದೆವು. ಎಂದು ಮಾಲಾಶ್ರೀ ಅವರು ಆ ಘಟನೆಯನ್ನು ಈಗ ನೆನಪಿಸಿಕೊಂಡಿದ್ದಾರೆ.

ईरान और इजराइल लगातार चौथे दिन जारी रहने के बावजूद सोमवार को कमोबेश दुनियाभर के शेयर बाजारों में तेजी रही। भारत में भी सेंसेक्स 677 अंक से ज्यादा चढ़ गया। कच्चे तेल की कीमतों में करीब 2% गिरावट इसकी सबसे बड़ी वजह बताई गई। आईटी शेयरों में 1.50% से ज्यादा तेजी से बाजार को अतिरिक्त सपोर्ट मिला। ये शेयर लंबे समय से बिकवाली के दबाव में थे। सेंसेक्स 677.55 अंक (0.84%) चढ़कर 81,796 पर और निफ्टी 228 अंकों (0.92%) की बढ़त लेकर 24,946.50 पर बंद हुआ। अच्छी बात ये रही कि तेजी सिर्फ बड़ी कंपनियों के शेयरों तक सीमित नहीं रही।

ट्रेंड: एनएसई के चार सेक्टोरल इंडेक्स में निफ्टी से ज्यादा तेजी

सेक्टर	तेजी
आईटी	1.57%
रियल्टी	1.32%
ऑयल-गैस	1.11%
मेटल	1.07%
प्राइवेट बैंक	0.86%

(सभी के सभी सेक्टोरल इंडेक्स बढ़त पर बंद हुए)

- निफ्टी के मिडकैप100 इंडेक्स और स्मॉलकैप100 इंडेक्स भी करीब 1% बढ़त पर बंद हुए।
- कच्चे तेल के बेंचमार्क ब्रेंट क्रूड का भाव 1.74% गिरकर 73 डॉलर/बैरल से नीचे रहा।

टर्नअराउंड: सेंसेक्स के टॉप-5 गेनर में से 4 आईटी कंपनियों के शेयर

- बेंचमार्क इंडेक्स सेंसेक्स के 30 में से सिर्फ तीन शेयरों- टाटा मोटर्स, अडाणी पोर्ट्स और सन फार्मा में क्रमशः 3.56%, 0.35% और 0.2% गिरावट आई। बाकी चढ़े।
- अल्ट्राटेक सीमेंट में सर्वाधिक 2.5% उछाल आया। टॉप-5 गेनर में 4 आईटी शेयर- टेक महिंद्रा, एचसीएल टेक, टीसीएस और इन्फोसिस रहे। इनमें 1.3-2% तेजी रही।
- बीएसई पर सोमवार को कुल 4,253 शेयरों की ट्रेडिंग हुई। इनमें से 1,944 शेयरों में तेजी और 2,151 शेयरों में गिरावट आई। 158 शेयर स्थिर रहे।

ईरान-इजराइल तनाव लंबा खिंचने की आशंका कम, सस्ते लोन से ट्रिगर मिला

बाजार में आज की उछाल का सबसे बड़ा क्रेडिट कच्चे तेल में गिरावट को जाता है। दरअसल पेट्रोलियम निर्यातक देशों का संगठन ओपेक सीमित मांग के चलते क्रूड का प्रोडक्शन घटा रहा है। हो सकता है कि इसका फायदा उठाने के लिए कई देशों ने प्रोडक्शन बढ़ाना शुरू कर दिया हो। इस बीच इजराइल की कार्रवाई में ईरान के बड़े लीडर्स मारे गए। इससे तनाव लंबा खिंचने की आशंका कम रह गई। सप्लाई चेन बाधित होने को लेकर भी कोई बाधा अब तक नहीं दिखी। इसके साथ ही एसबीआई समेत कई बैंकों ने ब्याज दरों में 0.5% कटौती की। नया लोन सस्ता होने से रियल्टी और ऑटोमोबाइल जैसे सेक्टरों के शेयरों में तेजी आई। आगे अगर मौजूदा तनाव के बीच कोई निगेटिव खबर आती है तो बाजार भी निगेटिव प्रतिक्रिया दे सकता है। अमेरिकी टैरिफ में छूट की डेडलाइन जुलाई में खत्म हो रही है। अगर ये तनाव फिर ट्रिगर होता है तो बाजार दबाव में आ सकता है।

વેલ્યૂ બાઇંગઃ મિડલ-ઇસ્ટ કોન્ફ્લિક્ટની અસરો અવગણી બંને બેન્ચમાર્ક વિશ્વબજાર પાછળ એક ટકા જેવા ઊછળ્યાં

(વાણિજ્ય પ્રતિનિધિ તરફથી)

મુંબઈઃ ઇઝરાયલ અને ઇરાનની લશ્કરી અથડામણને ચોથા દિવસ થવા સાથે તેનો વહેલી તકે અંત દેખાતો ના હોવા છતાં અશ્ચર્યજનક રીતે ઇક્વિટી માર્કેટમાં સુધારો જોવા મળ્યો હતો. વિશ્વબજારમાંથી તેજીના સંકેત સાથે બ્રેન્ટ ક્રૂડ ઓઇલના ભાવમાં ઘટાડા વચ્ચે ખાસ કરીને આઇટી અને ઓઇલ શેરોમાં વેલ્યુ બાઇંગને આધારે સોમવારે બેન્ચમાર્ક સ્ટોક ઇન્ડેક્સ સેન્સેક્સ અને નિફ્ટી લગભગ એક ટકા વધ્યા હતા.

મધ્યપૂર્વના દેસોમાં ચાલી રહેલા યુદ્ધને કારણે વિશ્વના ક્રૂડ ઓઇલના સૌથી મોટા નિકાસકાર ઇરાનની સપ્લાઇમાં ઘટાડો થવાની ભીતિને કારણે તાર્કિક રીતે આ જણસના ભાવ વધવા જોઇએ તેને સ્થાને ગ્લોબલ ક્રૂડ ઓઇલ બેન્ચમાર્ક બ્રેન્ટ ક્રૂડ ૦.૮૧ ટકા ઘટીને ૭૩.૬૩ પ્રતિ બેરલ બોલાયું હોવાથી વૈશ્વિક ઇક્વિટી માર્કેટ પર તેની સકારાત્મક અસર જોવા મળી હતી સ્થાનિક સ્તરે ખાદ્ય પદાર્થો અને ઇંધણના ભાવમાં ઘટાડો થવાને કારણે મે મહિનામાં જથ્થાબંધ ભાવ ફુગાવો (સીપીઆઇ) ઘટીને ૦.૩૯ ટકાના ૧૪ મહિનાના નીચલા સ્તરે પહોંચી ગયો છે. આ ઉપરાંત રિઝર્વ બેન્ક તાજેતરમાં લીધેલા પગલાંને કારણે સિસ્ટમમાં ભરપૂર પ્રવાહિતા છે. એ જ સાથે જ ડોલરમાં પણ ઘટાડો થઇ હોવાથી બજારને ટેકો મળ્યો છે. બજારના સાધનોએ જણાવ્યું હતું કે, વૈશ્વિક બજારો ઘણીવાર અપેક્ષાઓથી વિપરીત વર્તન કરે છે. ઇઝરાયલ અને ઈરાન વચ્ચેના તણાવને કારણે શરૂઆતમાં ક્રૂડ ઓઇલ અને સેફ હેવન એસેટની ખરીદી તથા ભાવમાં વધારો થયો હતો. જોકે, ખાસ કરીને હોર્મુઝ સ્ટ્રેટ દ્વારા સીધા પુરવઠામાં વિક્ષેપના અભાવે ક્રૂડ ઓઇલના ભાવ સ્થિર કરવામાં મદદ કરી હતી.

ફુગાવાનો ભય ઓછો થયો છે અને રોકાણકારો સ્થાનિક આર્થિક મૂળભૂત બાબતો પર ફરીથી ધ્યાન કેન્દ્રિત કરી રહ્યા છે. રોકાણકારો ઊર્જા, શક્તિ, સંરક્ષણ અને મૂડી ખર્ચ જેવા સ્થાનિક ક્ષેત્રોમાં મૂડી ફેરવી રહ્યા છે જે માળખાકીય રીતે મજબૂત રહે છે અને બાહ્ય આંચકાઓનો સામનો ઓછો કરે છે. કોર્પોરેટ કમાણી સ્થિર રહી છે, મંદીની ચિંતા ઓછી થઈ છે અને યુએસ ફેડરલ રિઝર્વ સહિત વૈશ્વિક કેન્દ્રીય બેંકો સ્થિર દર વલણ જાળવી રહી છે. આનાથી રોકાણકારોમાં ઘટાડે લેવાલીનો અભિગમ મજબૂત બન્યો છે.

જોકે, ઇઝરાયલ-ઈરાન સંઘર્ષ વ્યાપક પ્રાદેશિક યુદ્ધમાં ફેરવાય છે કે કેમ તે મુખ્ય જોખમ રહેલું છે. જો સંઘર્ષ મર્યાદિત રહેશે, તો બજાર આગળ વધશે અને મૂળભૂત આર્થિક બાબતો પર ધ્યાન કેન્દ્રિત કરશે. પાછલા કેટલાક વર્ષોમાં આપણે આ પેટર્ન જોઈ છે. જો અન્ય દેશ પણ યુદ્ધમાં જોડાશે તો મોટા યુદ્ધના ભય વચ્ચે બજારનું મોરલ ખખડી જશે અને ઇક્વિટી એસેટમાં વ્યાપક ધોવાણ જોવા મળશે. આ સપ્તાહમાં પ્રાથમિક બજારમાં પ્રવૃત્તિ મજબૂત રહેશે, એકંદરે, ભૌગોલિક રાજકીય તણાવ છતાં ઇક્વિટી બજારોમાં સકારાત્મક વલણ જળવાઈ રહેશે. કુલ છ આઇપીઓ દલાલ સ્ટ્રીટ પર આવવાના છે, જેમાં મેઇનબોર્ડ સેગમેન્ટમાંથી એકનો સમાવેશ થાય છે, અને પાંચ કંપનીઓ શેરબજારમાં લિસ્ટેડ થશે.

મૂડીબજારમાં પ્રવેશનારી કંપનીઓના જાહેર ભરણાંમાં એકમાત્ર મેઇનબોર્ડ સેગમેન્ટનો ઇશ્યુ છે. એરિસઇન્ફ્રા સોલ્યુશન્સનું જાહેર ભરણું ૨૦ જૂને ત્રણ દિવસ માટે ખુલશે. મૂડીબજારના એસએમઇ સેગમેન્ટમાં પાટિલ ઓટોમેશન અને સમય પ્રોજેક્ટના પબ્લિક ઇશ્યૂ ખૂલી ગયા છે, ઇન્ફ્લક્સ ૧૮મીએ ખૂલશે અને માયાશીલ વીસમીએ ખૂલશે. મોનોલિથીશ ૧૬મી જૂને અને એટેન પેપરનું ભરણું ૧૭મીએ બંધ થશે. જેનિક પાવર ૧૭મીએ અને મોનોલિથિશ ૧૯મીએ એક્સચેન્જની યાદી પર મૂકાશે. એટેન પેપર વીસમીએ લિસ્ટ થશે. બજારના નિષ્ણાત અભ્યાસુઓ જણાવે છે કે, જો ઇઝરાયલ અને ઇરાન વચ્ચે લશ્કરી અથડામણોનો વહેલો અંત નહીં આવે તો ગ્લોબલ ઇક્વિટી માર્કેટ પાછળ સ્થાનિક સેકન્ડરી માર્કેટની દશા બગડશે અને તેની અસર પ્રાઇમરી માર્કેટ પર પણ જોવા મળશે.

AI 171 flies again as AI 159: Among passengers, man who skipped tragic flight

Niyati.Parikh@timesofindia.com

Ahmedabad: First flights are all about nervous excitement, but this one was always going to be different.

AI 159 from Ahmedabad to London Gatwick — the first on that route since the June 12 Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner crash — took off on Monday on the sombre wings of remembrance and prayer, ferrying at least one passenger who might have been on the crashed aircraft four days earlier had his mother not taken ill suddenly.

Jayesh Ramji was approaching Gate 4 of Terminal 2, a hand tightly clasping his cabin bag, when his mind raced back through the surreal last few days of his trip to India. "I was to return on AI 171. I postponed my travel to June 16 because my mother was unwell. All I want is to get back home safe," said the 34-year-old London shop assistant with roots in Diu.

Passenger Jayesh Ramji wasn't the only face betraying more than a trace of emotion ahead of renumbered flight AI 159's 4.30pm departure, over three hours later than scheduled. The terminal was seemingly quieter than usual, with families clinging a little tighter, and goodbyes lasting a tad longer. Raas Mishra, 28, had just said goodbye to his teary-eyed parents.

"They were scared. I am a tad nervous, too, but I have flown Air India before. I trust their pilots," said the young man, employed with a logistics firm in London.

For 72-year-old Kokila Patel of Patan, the announcement of a delay – the Dreamliner was to take off at 1.10pm – added to what she described as "emotional exhaustion". She was scheduled to fly out on June 14, but the flight was cancelled after the crash two days earlier. "My son said I should book another airline. But I had already confirmed my travel on June 16 with Air India by then," she said. "I trust God and the airline. I want to go back, not stay scared forever." Her elder sister Pushpa, 75, said she had "begged" her sibling to change the airline, "but she wouldn't listen". Sabina Qasmani, 21, from Veraval was heading back to the UK to join her father and siblings.

US officials and Aircraft Accident Investigation Bureau officials in Ahmedabad on Monday

Her mother, Ameena, said she would be anxious until she received a call her daughter had reached safely. "Since the crash, I haven't been able to sleep. Sabina is flying the same route. It's hard not to worry," she said. For Riddhi, returning to the UK after visiting her family, the journey was about managing mixed emotions. "This is my second trip home since getting married. I was happy being with my family, but I want to get back safely to my husband."

Day after tech glitch, war delays flight at Kol airport

Tamaghna.Banerjee
@timesofindia.com

Kolkata: A day after a technical snag grounded an Air India Express flight, hundreds of passengers at Kolkata airport were left stranded on Monday — this time due to geopolitical turbulence in West Asia. A Qatar Airways Boeing 787-8 flight to Doha arrived at Kolkata hours behind schedule, resulting in nearly five hours' delayed departure from the city, triggering panic among passengers already jittery after the Ahmedabad plane crash last week.

Flight QR541, scheduled to take off at 3.50 am, finally departed at 8.56 am, with over 200 passengers having had a tense wait. Many feared they would miss connecting flights from Doha, especially as there was no early word from the airline on the delay. "Almost 5 hours of delay in Qatar Airways Kolkata to Doha flight. No SMS, email, or any sort of communication from the authority... isn't it unacceptable?" wrote Pritam Singha Roy, a paediatric hemato-oncologist from Tata Medical Centre, who was headed to Cairo via Doha to attend a medical workshop.

Speaking to TOI, Roy said the airline's website continued to show the flight as "on time" even after midnight. "We checked in, thinking all was well. But once inside the terminal, the display boards showed a four-hour delay. There was no staff to explain anything," he said.

The delay, coupled with the fact that it was a Boeing Dreamliner — the same aircraft model involved in the recent Ahmedabad crash — sparked nervousness among passengers. As speculation mounted, many turned to the internet for answers, only to be greeted with headlines on airspace tensions and Boeing troubles, which fuelled panic.

Airport sources confirmed that Qatar Airways' inbound aircraft was delayed in Doha, owing to rerouting triggered by airspace restrictions over parts of the Middle East. It was after repeated requests that airline officials clarified the reason for the delay and assured passengers of rescheduled connections. "I was worried about missing my 8.30 am flight to Cairo. Thankfully, they moved me to a 2.30 pm flight and I reached safely," Roy added.

Qatar Airways, however, didn't issue a statement regarding the delay despite TOI reaching out to the airlines with the query.

The conflict in the Middle East — marked by missile exchanges between Israel and Iran — has forced several carriers to cancel or reroute flights. " Passengers read up everything instantly. Any lack of communication only worsens the situation," an airport official said.

- Final departure time 8.56 am
- Scheduled time of arrival at Doha | 6.20 am local time

- Possible reason behind delay | Delayed departure from Doha owing to airlines maintaining caution due to rising hostilities between Israel and Iran

Smoke scare on Saudia Haj flight at Lko airport

Lucknow: Firefighters' swift action prevented a plane tragedy at Lucknow airport when they doused smoke billowing from the wheels of an Airbus A300-343 flight from Jeddah taxiing at Chaudhary Charan Singh International Airport on Sunday morning.

The Saudia flight carrying 289 passengers, mostly Haj pilgrims, had just touched down when a ground crew noticed smoke curling from the left-side wheels. Technical assessment identified a hydraulic fluid leak in the landing gear system. "The aircraft has been grounded and is expected to take by Tuesday morning after thorough inspections," said a source. TNN

South Delhi emerges India's capital for FMCG consumption

South Delhi emerges India's capital for FMCG consumption

New Delhi: When it comes to quantity (volume), South Delhi, associated with affluence, is India's unrivalled consumption capital for fast-moving consumer goods. But West Delhi is the top spender on these goods, not only in the capital, but also in the country, reports Rupali Mukherjee. What's common: both prefer good old home-cooked meals, and bottled cold drinks.

A household in West Delhi spends Rs 39,325 a year on average, which is more than twice the national average, show figures compiled by data and consulting firm Kantar's FMCG Pulse.

WHO EATS WHAT

- S Delhi not keen on snacking, but each household consumes 45 litres of oil a year

- 17kg of salt/year, 1.4 times the average for cities; basmati consumption 2x city-level avg
- West Delhiites snack more, but like in south Delhi, prefer to eat at home. Big on ketchup

On the other hand, a household in South Delhi consumes 240kg of FMCG annually, again, two times the average national consumption.

When it comes to premium products, however, Bengaluru comes out on top with an average city-level spend of Rs 211 for every kilo of FMCG, surpassing all other cities, none of which exceed Rs 195 per kg.

The report also said Mumbai's Greater Dharavi Santacruz Cluster is home to the hyper-frequent shopper, with each household making 233 visits to shop for FMCG products, which means once every 37 hours.

S Delhi cluster purchases least quantity of snacking products

In contrast, an average urban household in the country makes 128 visits a year to buy items other than atta. An average Mumbai household makes 135 visits.

Each visit in the GDSC corridor involves a spend of only Rs 93 and a purchase of just 541g, the lowest among metro clusters. Only two other metro clusters, Surat and Kolkata, average less than Rs 100 per visit. The lower average spend may be linked to the small size of dwelling units. The insights, which study the consumption pattern of metros, breaking them down into 157 micro-clusters, have excluded a regionally skewed category of atta.

Among Delhi clusters, the South Delhi cluster purchases the least quantity of snacking products, but consumes 45 litres of edible oil annually, slightly above the city average, and 17kg of salt per annum, approximately 1.4x the city-level average.

FOOD HABITS

Additionally, this cluster is a heavy consumer of basmati rice, twice the city-level average. Its low interest in snacking, paired with high consumption of staples, suggests a preference for home-cooked meals. However, its consumption of 20 litres of bottled soft drinks annually, 1.3 times the city average, suggests that it may be driven more by taste than health concerns, according to Kantar.

In contrast, the West Delhi cluster is a major market for salty snacks, with households spending approximately Rs 1,700 annually on these products, 1.3 times the city average. Further, significant spending on spices and basmati rice suggests that, like the South Delhi cluster, West Delhi households prefer home-cooked meals.

शेयर बाजार में लौटी तेजी

यशोभूमि/भाषा

मुंबई। मजबूत वैश्विक संकेतों के बीच सूचना प्रौद्योगिकी (आईटी) एवं पेट्रोलियम शेयरों में खरीदारी और कच्चे तेल की कीमतों में नरमी आने से सोमवार को स्थानीय शेयर बाजारों में तेजी लौट आई। मानक सूचकांक सेंसेक्स में करीब 678 अंक और

1,263.52 करोड़ रुपए मूल्य के शेयर बिके

निफ्टी में 228 अंक की बढ़त दर्ज की गई। विश्लेषकों ने कहा कि ईरान और इजराइल के बीच सैन्य संघर्ष तेज होने के बावजूद स्थानीय बाजार में तेल एवं गैस और आईटी शेयरों को कम मूल्य पर खरीदने का रुझान देखा गया। बीएसई का 30 शेयरों पर आधारित सूचकांक सेंसेक्स 677.55 अंक यानी 0.84 प्रतिशत उछलकर 81,796.15 अंक पर बंद हुआ। कारोबार के दौरान एक समय यह 747.22 अंक बढ़कर 81,865.82 अंक पर पहुंच गया था। नेशनल स्टॉक एक्सचेंज (एनएसई) का 50 शेयरों वाला सूचकांक निफ्टी 227.90 अंक यानी 0.92 प्रतिशत चढ़कर 24,946.50 अंक पर बंद हुआ। इसके साथ ही शेयर बाजारों में दो दिन के अंतराल के बाद तेजी लौट आई। ईरान-इजराइल संघर्ष छिड़ने से पिछले दो सत्रों में सेंसेक्स 1,396.54 अंक और निफ्टी 422.8 अंक गिर गया था। सेंसेक्स के समूह में शामिल कंपनियों में से अल्ट्राटेक सीमेंट, टेक महिंद्रा, एचसीएल टेक, टाटा कंसल्टेंसी सर्विसेज, इटर्नल (पूर्व में जोमैटो), एशियन पेंट्स, टाटा स्टील और कोटक महिंद्रा बैंक के शेयर बढ़त के साथ बंद हुए। दूसरी तरफ, टाटा मोटर्स, अदाणी पोर्ट्स और सन फार्मा के शेयरों में गिरावट दर्ज की गई। जियोजीत इन्वेस्टमेंट लिमिटेड के शोध प्रमुख विनोद नायर ने कहा, 'ईरान-इजराइल संघर्ष से भू-राजनीतिक तनाव बढ़ने के बावजूद भारतीय बाजार दिग्गज शेयरों के दम पर बढ़त लेने में सफल रहे। निवेशकों ने उतार-चढ़ाव भरे समय में दीर्घकालिक बुनियादी पहलुओं पर अपनी स्थिति बरकरार रखी। हालांकि निकट अवधि में इस तनाव का बाजार की धारणा पर असर पड़ने की आशंका है। मझोली कंपनियों से संबंधित बीएसई मिडकैप सूचकांक में 0.93 प्रतिशत की तेजी रही जबकि छोटी कंपनियों से जुड़ा स्मालकैप सूचकांक 0.38 प्रतिशत चढ़ गया। तेजी के बीच सभी क्षेत्रवार सूचकांकों में तेजी देखी गई। सर्वाधिक 1.50 प्रतिशत की बढ़त आईटी खंड में दर्ज की गई जबकि प्रौद्योगिकी खंड में 1.35 प्रतिशत और तेल एवं गैस खंड में 1.22 प्रतिशत की तेजी रही।

एशिया के अन्य बाजारों में दक्षिण कोरिया का कॉस्पी, जापान का निक्की, चीन का शंघाई कंपोजिट और हांगकांग का हैंग सेंग सकारात्मक दायरे में बंद हुए। यूरोपीय बाजार बढ़त के साथ कारोबार कर रहे थे।

भारतीय बाजारों ने दिखाया जुझारूपन

आशिका स्टॉक ब्रोकिंग में तकनीकी एवं डेरिवेटिव विश्लेषक सुंदर केवट ने कहा, 'पश्चिम एशिया में बढ़ते तनाव के बीच वैश्विक अनिश्चितता बढ़ने के बावजूद भारतीय बाजारों ने जुझारूपन दिखाया।' शेयर बाजार के आंकड़ों के मुताबिक, विदेशी संस्थागत निवेशकों (एफआईआई) ने शुक्रवार को 1,263.52 करोड़ रुपये मूल्य के शेयरों की शुद्ध बिकवाली की थी। शुक्रवार को सेंसेक्स 573.38 अंक गिरकर 81,118.60 अंक और निफ्टी 169.60 अंक गिरकर 24,718.60 अंक पर बंद हुआ था।

114 bodies of AI crash victims identified after DNA profiling

Official death toll yet to be announced; bodies of 64 victims, including former CM Rupani, handed over; hospital urges families to remain patient; Gujarat CM tells officials to speed up identification

Abhinay Deshpande
AHMEDABAD

The Gujarat government on Monday said that DNA profiling has helped identify 114 victims of the June 12 Air India plane crash in Ahmedabad.

The official death toll, however, has yet to be formally announced, even as the Tata-owned Air India has said that 241 of the 242 people aboard the aircraft were killed in the accident. Several others on the ground were also killed or injured when the plane crashed into a residential locality after take-off.

The delay in officially declaring the total number of casualties has caused concern among local people and inmates of the hostel where the aircraft crashed, especially as several people were killed or critically injured on the ground.

Gujarat Minister of State for Home Harsh Sanghavi said the "identification process is still under way", indicating the scale and complexity of the forensic effort.

Hospital authorities confirmed that 64 bodies – including that of former Gujarat Chief Minister Vijay Rupani – have been handed over to the families of victims. Rupani, who was among the passengers aboard the ill-fated London-bound flight, was travelling to visit his family in the U.K. His remains were received by his wife, Anjali Rupani, and other family members at Ahmedabad's Civil Hospital before being taken to Rajkot, his hometown, for final rites.

'Ensure dignity'

Chief Minister Bhupendra Patel visited the hospital on Monday, where many families have been camping for days to collect the mortal remains of their loved ones. He offered condolences and instructed officials to speed up the identification process while ensuring dignity in the handover.

With the bodies of the victims charred and mutilated, the authorities are relying on DNA testing for positive identification. Rakesh Joshi, superintendent of the Civil Hospital, said, "Some families are anxious, understandably. But DNA matching is a legally binding procedure. We urge them to bear with us as we complete this with care and urgency."

He said the deceased whose bodies have been handed over to their families were from different parts of Gujarat and Rajasthan.

"We are trying our best to finish this process as soon as possible. Some are complaining that the results have not come even after 72 hours. I appeal to them not to panic because this is a very important process with legal implications. We will call them as soon as results arrive," Dr. Joshi added.

అదానీ కుంభకోణంలోని కీలక వ్యక్తికి సైప్రస్ పౌరసత్వం

• కాంగ్రెస్ ఆరోపణ

దిల్లీ: అదానీ కుంభకోణంలోని ఓ కీలక వ్యక్తికి సైప్రస్ దేశ పౌరసత్వం ఉందని కాంగ్రెస్ ఆరోపించింది. అదానీ గ్రూప్‌తో ముడి పడిన లావాదేవీలపై స్టాక్ మార్కెట్ నియంత్రణ సంస్థ 'సెబీ' జరుపుతున్న దర్యాప్తులో వేగం మందగించడానికి రెండు కారణాలున్నాయని పేర్కొంది. ఆదాయపు పన్ను లేని, చాలా తక్కువగా ఉన్న దేశాలు తగిన సమాచారాన్ని ఇవ్వకపోవడం.. వాటిపై భారత్ ఒత్తిడిని పెంచకపోవడం ఆ రెండు కారణాలని తెలిపింది. ప్రధాని మోదీ సైప్రస్ పర్యటన నేపథ్యంలో ఈ మేరకు వివరాలతో కాంగ్రెస్ ప్రధాన కార్యదర్శి జైరాం రమేశ్ 'ఎక్స్' వేదికగా ఒక పోస్టు పెట్టారు. సైప్రస్ కేంద్రంగా నడిచే న్యూ లియైనా అనే ఫండ్ అదానీ కంపెనీల్లో దాదాపు రూ.3,613 కోట్లు పెట్టుబడులు పెట్టిందని అందులో పేర్కొన్నారు. 'న్యూ లియైనా ఫండ్‌వల్ల అమీకార్ప్‌కు చెందిన యజమానులు అంతిమంగా లబ్ధి పొందుతున్నారు. అదానీ ప్రమోటర్‌గా ఉన్న దాదాపు 7 సంస్థలు, వినోద్ అదానీతో లింకులున్న విదేశాల్లోని 17 డొల్ల కంపెనీలు, అదానీ గ్రూప్ వాటాలను కలిగిన 3 మారిషస్ సంస్థలకు అమీకార్ప్‌తో సంబంధాలున్నాయి' జైరాం రమేశ్ ఆరోపించారు. ప్రస్తుతం జరుగుతున్న సెబీ దర్యాప్తులో ఈ లావాదేవీలన్నీ భాగంగా ఉన్నాయని పేర్కొన్నారు.

અદાણી સિમેન્ટ અને કેડાઇ ટકાઉ શહેરી બાંધકામને પ્રોત્સાહન આપશે

અમદાવાદ, સોમવાર

અદાણી સિમેન્ટ અને કેડાઈ એ ભારતમાં ટકાઉ અને ઉચ્ચ-ગુણવત્તાવાળા બાંધકામને ઉત્તેજન આપવા માટે એક વિશિષ્ટ પસંદગીની ભાગીદારી કરી છે.

ગોવાના મુખ્યમંત્રી પ્રમોદ સાવંતની ઉપસ્થિતિમાં પણજીમાં યોજાયેલી કેડાઈ ગવર્નિંગ કાઉન્સિલની બેઠકમાં આ ભાગીદારી ઉપર હસ્તાક્ષર થયા હતા, જેમાં દેશભરના ઉદ્યોગ સંગઠનના પદાધિકારીઓ અને અગ્રણી વિકાસકારોએ હાજરી આપી હતી.આ વ્યૂહાત્મક સહયોગથી અદાણી સિમેન્ટ અને દેશના ખાનગી રિયલ એસ્ટેટ ડેવલપર્સની સર્વોચ્ચ સંસ્થા એક મંચ ઉપર આવી છે, જેનો હેતુ બંને સંસ્થાઓ અને વિસ્તરી રહેલા બાંધકામ ક્ષેત્રને લાભ આપવાનો છે.

આ સહયોગ અંતર્ગત અદાણી સિમેન્ટ કેડાઈના ૧૩,૦૦૦થી વધુ વિકાસકારોના દેશવ્યાપી નેટવર્કનો ઉપયોગ તેના બિઝનેસ ટુ બિઝનેસની પહોંચને મજબૂત બનાવવા માટે કરશે, જ્યારે કેડાઈના સભ્યોને અદાણી સિમેન્ટના ઉદ્યોગલક્ષી અભિગમના ઉકેલોનો લાભ મળશે.

અદાણી સમૂહના સિમેન્ટ બિઝનેસના સીઈઓ વિનોદ બાહેટીએ જણાવ્યું હતું કે, કેડાઈ સાથેનો અમારો આ વિશિષ્ટ સહયોગ લાંબા ગાળાના અને નવ નિર્માણ મારફત રાષ્ટ્ર નિર્માણ પ્રત્યેની અદાણી સિમેન્ટની પ્રતિબદ્ધતાનો પુરાવો છે.

અમે ભારતના રિયલ એસ્ટેટ ક્ષેત્રમાં વિશ્વ-કક્ષાના સિમેન્ટ ઉત્પાદનો અને ગ્રીન કોંક્રિટ સોલ્યુશન્સને અપનાવવાની પ્રક્રિયાને કેડાઈ સાથે સહયોગ સાધીને વેગ આપવાનું લક્ષ્ય રાખીએ છીએ.

આ સહયોગ હરિત, સ્માર્ટ શહેરી ભવિષ્યના નિર્માણના અમારા વિઝન સાથે સંપૂર્ણ રીતે સુસંગત છે કે જેમાં અદાણી સિમેન્ટની ટેકનિકલ કુશળતા અને કેડાઈનો જમીન પરનો અનુભવ મજબૂત, સુરક્ષિત અને વધુ ટકાઉ માળખું બનાવવા માટે એક સાથે જોડાયા છે.

આ સહયોગનો સીધો લાભ ઘરમાલિકોને તેના રોકાણનું શ્રેષ્ઠ મૂલ્ય પહોંચાડી ભારતની વિકાસ ગાથામાં યોગદાન આપવા માટે અમે કેડાઈના સભ્યો સાથે નજીકથી કામ કરી અમારી શ્રેષ્ઠ સામગ્રી અને R&Dની ક્ષમતાઓ સાથે તેમને ટેકો આપવા માટે ઉત્સાહિત છીએ.

આ સહયોગથી બાંધકામ ઉદ્યોગની સંસ્થાના સભ્યોને વિવિધ પરિમાણોમાં તેમના પ્રકલ્પોની ગુણવત્તામાં વધારો કરવાનો ફાયદો મળશે, જેમાં મુખ્યત્વે અદાણી સિમેન્ટના નવા કોંક્રિટ ઉપાયોમાં અદાણીના વૈવિધ્યસભર રેડી-મિક્સ કોંક્રિટ અને વિવિધ જરૂરિયાતો અનુસાર કસ્ટમાઈઝ્ડ અદ્યતન કોંક્રિટ સોલ્યુશન્સના પ્રમાણભૂત ગ્રેડથી લઈને વિશિષ્ટ મિશ્રણ સુધીની સરળ ઉપલબ્ધિ ઉપરાંત તેમાં નોંધપાત્ર અદાણી સિમેન્ટની ECOMaxX અલ્ટ્રા હાઈ-પર્ફોર્મન્સ કોંક્રિટ (UHPC) જેવી ગ્રીન ઈસ્ટ શ્રેણીનો સમાવેશ થાય છે, જે પરંપરાગત કોંક્રિટની તુલનામાં ૩૦-૧૦૦% ઓછી એમ્બોડેડ કાર્બન સામગ્રી સાથે ઉદ્યોગની ગ્રીન કોંક્રિટની સૌથી વ્યાપક શ્રેણી પ્રસ્તુત કરે છે.

Kin of 1988 crash victims await 'fair compensation'

Parag.Dave@timesofindia.com

Ahmedabad: The AI 171 crash has renewed attention on unresolved struggles of families affected by the 1988 Ahmedabad air tragedy. An Indian Airlines flight 113 from Mumbai (then Bombay) to Ahmedabad crashed on Oct 19, 1988, killing 133 passengers and crew of the 135 on board the aircraft. The families of the deceased were then offered Rs 2 lakh in compensation.

Nearly 37 years since the tragedy, around 20 families from Ahmedabad remain locked in a legal battle with authorities over what they consider "inadequate compensation" for their losses.

"There are around 20 families that are still fighting a legal battle for fair compensation. After the tragedy, the authorities had announced a compensation of Rs 2 lakh per victim. We believe the compensation should be based on the income and age of the victims. So, after the high court order, we moved the Supreme Court in April 2010 for higher compensation," said Pankesh Patel, secretary of the association formed by families.

Mother of Saineeta Chakravarty, a crew member on AI 171, breaks down as her remains are brought home, in Mumbai's Juhu on Monday. The last rites of Saineeta and Shraddha Dhawan, also part of the crew, were performed in the city on Monday

According to case details, in 2003, the sessions court had directed Indian Airlines and Airport Authority of India to give the petitioner families of the IA 113 victims a 6% interest on the compensation amount.

In 2009, HC ordered this to be raised to 9%. However, the 20 families moved SC in 2010, demanding a higher compensation based on age and earning potential of their deceased relatives.

Ushaben Patel, now 74, had lost her husband Sharad Patel, a chartered accountant and company secretary who served as finance director for a German company. "At the time of the 1988 crash, my sons Jaysheel and Milan were in Class 5 and Class 3, respectively. I raised them both with support from our families and they are both chartered accountants now," she said. "The compensation offered in the aftermath of the AI 171 tragedy is better than what we were offered," she added.

Reetaben Shah, 74, remembers her husband Sunil Shah, an IIM-A graduate who worked as a management consultant. Their daughter was 12 years old when the crash occurred. "We did not accept the Rs 2 lakh compensation and initiated legal action. We finally moved SC," she said.

After engine change, AI Dreamliner's insurance cover was hiked by Rs 100cr

After engine change, AI Dreamliner's insurance cover was hiked by ₹100cr

@timesofindia.com

Kolkata: Air India had enhanced the insurance cover for the Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner that crashed in Ahmedabad, from Rs 750 crore to Rs 850 crore, during its renewal in April 2025. This came following an engine replacement on the plane, say sources.

Total insurance claims from the crash are expected to be around Rs 1,500 crore. Indian insurers led by Tata AIG are likely to bear only Rs 100-150 crore of the payout, having ceded most of the risk to global reinsurers. The AI flight to London's Gatwick crashed last week, killing as many as 270 people, including 241 on board.

The crash is expected to trigger passenger compensation under the Montreal Convention, which means families of deceased passengers are entitled to about Rs 1.8 crore each, pushing the total liability above Rs 420 crore. The crash may also result in significant third-party claims. Experts said this is likely to harden the global aviation insurance market, especially for wide-body aircraft operators in Asia. This was the first major crash involving a wide-body aircraft in the region.

The Boeing aircraft's insurance was part of a fleet-wide cover of Rs 8,000-10,000 crore, for which Air India paid an annual premium of around Rs 250 crore.

Crashed Dreamliner: Hull loss pegged at ₹850 crore

The aviation policy is led by Tata AIG General Insurance, with participation from Indian co-insurers like GIC Re, United India, Oriental Insurance, National Insurance and ICICI Lombard. Over 90% of the risk is re-insured with global players, including AIG, AXA XL and others in London and Bermuda markets.

INSURERS TO GIVE WEEKLY UPDATES

Sources said Indian insurers have retained only about 7.5%-10% of the exposure, translating to Rs 100 crore-Rs 150 crore. The hull loss alone — based on the aircraft's age-adjusted insured value — is pegged at Rs 850 crore, as the Dreamliner has been declared a total loss.

Meanwhile, IRDA has directed all insurers involved in the matter to submit weekly updates on claim settlements starting June 16.

In a circular issued on June 14, the regulator also asked companies to expedite payouts under life and personal accident policies, and to waive requirements like FIRs and post-mortem reports. Insurers have been instructed to appoint nodal officers to handle claims.

अहमदाबाद : एअर इंडिया विमान अपघाताची चौकशी करणाऱ्या अधिकाऱ्यांनी रविवारी कॉकपिट व्हॉइस रेकॉर्डरचा (सीव्हीआर)ब्लॅक बॉक्स सापडल्यास दुजोरा दिला आहे. त्यामुळे नेमका अपघात का आणि कसा झाला? याचा उलगडा होणार आहे.

अहमदाबादहून लंडनकडे २३० प्रवासी आणि १२ कर्मचाऱ्यांना घेऊन जाणारे एअर इंडियाचे विमान गुरुवारी उड्डाणानंतर अवघ्या काही क्षणात

कोसळले होते. यामध्ये केवळ एक प्रवासी आश्चर्यकारकरित्या बचावला होता. मात्र, हे विमान वैद्यकीय महाविद्यालयाच्या संकुलावर कोसळल्याने तेथील २९ जणांनादेखील यात प्राण गमवावे लागले होते. घटनेच्या दुसऱ्या दिवशी ब्लॅक बॉक्स सापडला होता. आता कॉकपिट व्हॉइस रेकॉर्डर (सीव्हीआर) सापडला आहे. या दुर्घटनेचा तपास नागरी हवाई सचिव समीर कुमार सिन्हा यांच्या नेतृत्वाखाली विमान अपघात संस्थेकडून (एएआयबी) सुरू आहे. यापूर्वी, एएआयबीने फक्त फ्लाइट डेटा रेकॉर्डर (एफडीआर) सापडला असल्याचे म्हटले होते. दरम्यान, पंतप्रधान नरेंद्र मोदी यांचे प्रधान सचिव पी.के. मिश्रा यांनी रविवारी घटनास्थळाची पाहणी केली. त्यानंतर, जखमींची रुग्णालयात भेट घेतली. या भेटीनंतर उच्च स्तरीय अधिकाऱ्यांची बैठक घेतली. या बैठकीत मदत आणि बचाव कार्य तसेच तपासाच्या प्रगतीसंदर्भात चर्चा झाली. फ्लाइट डेटा रेकॉर्डर (एफडीआर) आणि कॉकपिट व्हॉइस रेकॉर्डर (सीव्हीआर) सापडले असून ते सुरक्षित आहेत, असे अधिकाऱ्यांनी सांगितले. दोन्ही ब्लॅक बॉक्स सापडल्याने अपघाताचे कारण शोधणे सोपे जाईल, असेही ते म्हणाले.

एक साथ इतने इत्तेफाक नहीं होते

AI प्लेन क्रैश में बढ़ती जा रही साजिश की बू

■ निहार रंजन सक्सेना
@नवभारत

दिल्ली. एयर इंडिया के बोइंग ड्रीमलाइनर विमान के अहमदाबाद में टेकऑफ के तुरंत बाद क्रैश होने की जांच शुरू हो चुकी है. जांच के निष्कर्ष सामने आते-आते कुछ समय लगेगा, लेकिन सोशल मीडिया पर इसके पीछे संभावित साजिशों की भी बाढ़ सी आई हुई है. इनमें उठाए गए बिंदुओं को सिलसिलेवार ढंग से जोड़ने पर टेकऑफ से पहले ऑन ग्राउंड छेड़छाड़ की आशंका खारिज नहीं की जा सकती. अन्य विशेषज्ञ भी ऐसे ही निष्कर्ष निकाल रहे हैं. पहलगाम आतंकी हमले के बाद भारतीय सेना के ऑपरेशन सिंदूर, तुर्किए का पाकिस्तान के साथ आना, जमात-ए-इस्लामी की टाटा समूह के खिलाफ अपील और गुरपतवंत सिंह पन्नू की जी7 बैठक के दौरान पीएम नरेंद्र मोदी की हत्या का संदेश बदलते भू-राजनैतिक समीकरणों में आग से पहले उठती चिंगारी हो सकती है विमान क्रैश होने जैसी साजिश.

एयर इंडिया क्रैश के सार्वजनिक पहलू

तकनीकी पहलू

फ्यूलटैंक विमान के दाएं-बाएं या मध्य में होते हैं. फिर पंप का क्रॉस फीड वॉल्व ईंधन की इंजन तक पहुंच के बीच संतुलन रखता है. इन सभी को कॉकपिट के भीतर फ्लाइट डेक से कंट्रोल किया जाता है. अगर मेन फ्यूल वॉल्व को बंद किया जाए, तो इंजन तक सक्शन लायक ईंधन नहीं पहुंचेगा और सीमित ईंधन में वह हद से हद 40-45 सेकंड की उड़ान भर 700 फीट तक की ऊंचाई प्राप्त कर सकेगा. इसके बाद इंजन बंद होने से पावर कट होगा और विमान गिर जाएगा.

यहीं हुई साजिश

हादसे में यहां यह जांच का विषय होगा कि आखिर किसने ऑन ग्राउंड विमान के इन तकनीकी पहलुओं की जांच की और फिर अंततः किसने साइन किए. मेन फ्यूल वॉल्व के साथ ही छेड़छाड़ हुई, जिसने सभी यात्रियों और क्रू सदस्यों की जान ली. इसमें तुर्किए की फर्म, जिसका सिक्योरिटी क्लीयरेंस गुजरात हाई कोर्ट ने रद्द कर दिया. जमात-ए-इस्लामी की टाटा समूह के खिलाफ अपील, भारत के कुछ प्रमुख एयरपोर्ट पर तुर्किए एयरलाइंस के विमानों में एक्सप्लोसिव पाया जाना शामिल है.

5-6 दिन में तस्वीर कुछ होगी साफ

पिछले सप्ताह एयर इंडिया बोइंग 787 दुर्घटना की जांच के लिए भारत की शीर्ष संस्था विमान दुर्घटना जांच ब्यूरो की सहायता के लिए कई अंतरराष्ट्रीय जांच एजेंसियां अहमदाबाद पहुंच गई हैं. इनमें परिवहन दुर्घटनाओं के लिए अमेरिका की शीर्ष जांच एजेंसी राष्ट्रीय परिवहन सुरक्षा बोर्ड ; अमेरिका के नागरिक उड्डयन निगरानीकर्ता संघीय उड्डयन प्रशासन और यूके के नागरिक उड्डयन प्राधिकरण के प्रतिनिधि शामिल हैं. एयरोस्पेस निर्माता बोइंग की एक टीम भी जांच में शामिल होगी. एएआईबी ने दुर्घटना के एक दिन बाद 12 जून की दुर्घटना स्थल यानी बीजे मेडिकल कॉलेज हॉस्टल परिसर से ब्लैक बॉक्स बरामद कर लिया था. अगले चरण में कॉकपिट

वॉयस रिकॉर्डर और डिजिटल फ्लाइट डेटा रिकॉर्डर से डेटा की मिलिंकंग शामिल है. इसके बाद डेटा का विश्लेषण उड़ान मापदंडों जैसे गति, क्रैश का कोण आदि की व्याख्या करने के लिए किया जाएगा. एएआईबी के एक पूर्व वरिष्ठ जांचकर्ता ने कहा कि इन सबमें चार से पांच दिन लग सकते हैं.

‘টেক অফের’ আগে সমস্যা দেখছেন না বিশেষজ্ঞেরা

ফিরোজ ইসলাম

বোয়িং সংস্থার ড্রিমলাইনারের মতো আধুনিক উড়ান নিয়ে আকাশে ওড়ার আগে বিমানচালকদের প্রায় ১৪ দফা ‘চেকলিস্ট’ বা বিষয় যাচাই করে দেখতে হয়। তার মধ্যে বিমানের কন্ট্রোল, অগজ়িলিয়ারি ফুয়েল পাম্প, ইঞ্জিন, প্রপেলার, রেডিয়ো, ফিল্টার, ফ্ল্যাপ, ট্রিম-সহ নানা বিষয় থাকে। ট্রিমের মধ্যে আবার বিমানের এলিভেটর, রেডার, ভরকেন্দ্র ঠিক রাখার যন্ত্র উপযুক্ত অবস্থানে আনার মতো বিষয়ও থাকে। এমনকি, বিমানটি ওড়ানোর উপযুক্ত কি না, সে সম্পর্কে নিশ্চিত হতে রক্ষণাবেক্ষণের বিস্তৃত বিবরণ দেওয়া লগবুকও খতিয়ে দেখতে হয়।

আমদাবাদের ড্রিমলাইনার দুর্ঘটনার প্রেক্ষিতে বিমান ওড়ার আগে ওই ‘ডিজিটাল চেকলিস্ট’ বিমানচালকরা খতিয়ে দেখেননি, এমনটা হতে পারে না— বলছেন বিমান পরিবহণের সঙ্গে যুক্ত সংশ্লিষ্টেরা। বস্তুত, বহু ক্ষেত্রে নির্দিষ্ট শর্ত পূরণ না করলে বিমান নড়ানো সম্ভব নয়, বলছেন তাঁরা। তাই দুর্ঘটনার দিন ড্রিমলাইনার বিমানটির ‘টেক অফের’ ক্ষেত্রে কোনও সমস্যা থাকার কথা নয় বলেই মনে করছেন বিমানচালক ও বিশেষজ্ঞদের একাংশ।

বিমানের ‘ল্যান্ডিং’ এবং ‘টেক অফ’ করার সময় ইঞ্জিনে জ্বালানির প্রবাহ ঠিক রাখতে দু’টি আলাদা পাম্প কাজ করে। দু’টি ইঞ্জিনও কাজ করে স্বতন্ত্র ভাবে। ওই পাম্পে সমস্যা হলে ইঞ্জিন জ্বালানি সরবরাহের জন্য অতিরিক্ত পাম্প থাকে, যাতে সবসময় জ্বালানির প্রবাহ ঠিক রেখে ইঞ্জিন থেকে উপযুক্ত জোর মেলে।

ড্রিমলাইনার বিমানে সুরক্ষার নিখুঁত ব্যবস্থা থাকা স্বত্ত্বেও দু’টি ইঞ্জিন কেন এবং কোন পরিস্থিতিতে আচমকা সম্পূর্ণ বিকল হল, তা ভাবাচ্ছে সব মহলকে। একই সঙ্গে বিমানের উন্নত কম্পিউটার এবং বৈদ্যুতিন ব্যবস্থার সমস্যা এ ক্ষেত্রে কোনও অন্তরায় হল কি না, সে প্রশ্নও উঠছে।

বিমানের বৈদ্যুতিন ব্যবস্থা মূলত ইঞ্জিনের সচল থাকার উপর নির্ভরশীল। সেখানে আচমকা যে ভাবে র‍্যাম এয়ার টার্বাইন খুলে সচল হয়েছে, তাতে অন্য কোনও কারণে ইঞ্জিন বিকল হওয়ার তত্ত্বও সামনে আসছে। এ ক্ষেত্রে ওই টার্বাইন নিজে থেকে চালু হয়ে গেলেও চালকরা পরিস্থিতি সামলানোর সময় পাননি বলে মনে করা হচ্ছে। সব কিছু দেখে শুনে ‘টেক অফ’ করার পরেও শুরুতেই এই ভাবে ইঞ্জিনের বিকল হওয়া এই প্রথম, বলছেন বিমানচালকদের বড় অংশ।

ড্রিমলাইনার উড়ানের বৈদ্যুতিন ব্যবস্থার নানা সমস্যা নিয়ে বিভিন্ন সময়ে একাধিক অভিযোগ উঠেছে। গত, ২৯ মে এয়ার ইন্ডিয়ার ফ্রাঙ্কফুর্ট থেকে মুম্বইগামী ড্রিমলাইনার উড়তে প্রায় ২৮ ঘণ্টা দেরি হয়। উড়ানের সময়ে যাত্রীদের একাংশ বিমানের কেবিনে মধ্যে বৈদ্যুতিক তারের পোড়া গন্ধ পান বলে অভিযোগ। তখন উড়ান মুলতুবি রেখে তা পরীক্ষা করে, সমস্যার হদিশ পান কর্তৃপক্ষ। তা মেরামত করে পরের দিন বিমানটি মুম্বই রওনা হয়। যাত্রীদের এ জন্য ক্ষতিপূরণও দেন কর্তৃপক্ষ।

এ দিন বিমানের ককপিট ভয়েস রেকর্ডার উদ্ধার হয়েছে। ওই যন্ত্রের তথ্য যাচাই করলে ককপিটের মধ্যে অস্বাভাবিক শব্দ, বিমানের ঝাঁকুনি, বিভিন্ন অ্যালার্ম, চালকদের কথাবার্তা সংক্রান্ত তথ্য থেকে দুর্ঘটনার আসল কারণ জানা যাবে বলে মনে করা হচ্ছে।

এ দিন বোয়িং কর্তৃপক্ষ দুর্ঘটনাস্থল পরিদর্শনে যান। বিমান মন্ত্রকের পৃথক তদন্তকারী কমিটিও এ দিন বৈঠক করেছে বলে খবর। তবে ব্ল্যাকবক্স উদ্ধারের পর দুই যন্ত্রের তথ্য যাচাই করতে অন্তত ২০ দিন লাগতে পারে বলে সূত্রের দাবি।

‘প্লেনে কোনও দিন চড়তে পারব না’

সংবাদ সংস্থা

আমেদাবাদ, ১৬ জুন

‘প্লেনে আর চড়তে পারব না’— এমনই বলছে আমেদাবাদের ভয়ঙ্কর বিমান দুর্ঘটনার প্রত্যক্ষদর্শী ১৭ বছরের নাবালক। আমেদাবাদের সর্দার বল্লভভাই প্যাটেল আন্তর্জাতিক বিমানবন্দর থেকে মাত্র দু’ই কিলোমিটার দূরেই সরস্বতীনগর। সেখানে পৌঁছে এক ঘণ্টা কাটতে না কাটতেই দেশের সাম্প্রতিক ইতিহাসের সবচেয়ে ভয়াবহ বিমান দুর্ঘটনার প্রত্যক্ষদর্শী হয় সে। অতি কাছ থেকে বিমান দেখতে পেয়ে সোৎসাহে দ্বাদশ শ্রেণির ওই ছাত্র ফোনে ভিডিও তুলছিল। ভেবেছিল গ্রামের বন্ধুদের দেখাবে। কিন্তু কয়েক সেকেন্ডের মধ্যেই চার দিক ভয়াবহ বিস্ফোরণে কেঁপে ওঠে। তাই সেই ঘটনা দেখার পর থেকেই তাকে আতঙ্ক তাড়া করে বেড়াচ্ছে। কিশোরের বাড়ি গুজরাটের আরাবল্লি জেলার শ্যালমাজি তালুকে। বাবা সেনাবাহিনী থেকে সদ্য অবসর নিয়েছেন। আমেদাবাদ মেট্রোতে নিরাপত্তারক্ষীর কাজ করেন ইদানীং। দুর্ঘটনার আগের দিন ১১ জুন বিমানবন্দর এবং দুর্ঘটনাস্থলের মাঝামাঝি একটি ছোট বাড়ি ভাড়া নেন। সেখানেই অস্বাভাবিক নিচ দিয়ে বিমান উড়তে দেখে ভিডিও করতে গিয়েছিল কিশোর। ভিডিওটি দ্রুত ভাইরাল হয়ে যাওয়ার কারণে আমেদাবাদ ক্রাইম ব্রাঞ্চ শনিবার তার জবানবন্দি রেকর্ড করে। বাবার সঙ্গে সাক্ষী হিসেবে জবানবন্দি দিতে গিয়েছিল সে। আটক করা হয়নি। রবিবার সকালে বাড়ির মালিক কৈলাসবেন ঠাকুর সংবাদমাধ্যমকে বলেন, ‘ছেলেটা এখানে প্রথম এসেছিল। এক ঘণ্টার মধ্যেই সে এমন কিছু দেখল যা কারও দেখা উচিত নয়। ভয় পেয়ে পড়াশোনার জন্য গ্রামে ফেরার সিদ্ধান্ত নিয়েছে সে।’

ফের বিপত্তি বোয়িং ড্রিমলাইনারে

নয়াদিল্লি, ১৬ জুন : ফের বিপত্তি দেখা দিল এয়ার ইন্ডিয়ার বোয়িং ৭৮৭-৮ ড্রিমলাইনার বিমানে। এবার হংকং থেকে দিল্লিমুখী উড়ানে। সোমবার সকালে ফ্লাইট নম্বর এআই৩১৫ বোয়িং ৭৮৭-৮ ড্রিমলাইনার বিমানটি হংকং থেকে ছাড়ে। বিমানটি দিল্লি আসছিল। কিন্তু, মাঝ আকাশে যান্ত্রিক ত্রুটি ধরা পড়ায় সাধারণ যাত্রীদের মধ্যে আহমেদাবাদের স্মৃতি ফিরে এসে শ্বাস রোধকারী আতংক ছড়িয়ে পড়ে। তবে নিরাপত্তা প্রটোকল মেনে পাইলট বিমানটিকে ফের হংকংয়ে ফেরত নিয়ে যান। বিমান ফিরতে শুরু করার সময় যাত্রীদের মধ্যে আতঙ্কের সৃষ্টি হয়। গত বৃহস্পতিবার আহমেদাবাদ থেকে লন্ডনগামী এয়ার ইন্ডিয়ার ৭৮৭-৮ ড্রিমলাইনার বিমানটি ওড়ার পরপরই ভেঙে পড়ে। সেই আতঙ্কে এদিনও যাত্রীদের মধ্যে প্রবল ভয় চেপে ধরে। বিমান ফিরে যাওয়ার ঘোষণায় তাঁদের মধ্যে চাপা ভয় ও উত্তেজনা দেখা দেয়।

এআই ৩১৫ বোয়িং ৭৮৭-৮ ড্রিমলাইনার বিমানটি ওড়ার পরপর মধ্য আকাশে যান্ত্রিক গোলযোগের বিষয়টি বুঝতে পারেন পাইলট তাই তৎক্ষণাৎ তিনি বিমানটি ঘুরিয়ে ফের হংকংয়ে অবতরণ করান। হংকংয়েও বিমানটি নিরাপদে অবতরণ করায় কারও জখম হওয়ার খবর নেই। ফ্লাইটরাডার ২৪ নামের উড়ানের অনলাইন ট্র্যাকারে দেখা গিয়েছে, হংকং থেকে ওড়ার ৯০ মিনিট পর যাত্রীবাহী জেট বিমানটি মুখ ঘুরিয়ে মূল বিমানবন্দরের দিকে এগোচ্ছে।

সৌদিয়া এয়ারলাইন্সে আগুনের ফুলকি : এদিকে, ২৫০ জন হজযাত্রী নিয়ে অবতরণের সময় সৌদিয়া এয়ারলাইন্সের একটি বিমানে দেখা দেয় যান্ত্রিক ত্রুটি। অবতরণের পরই বিমানের বাঁ দিকের চাকা থেকে ধোঁয়া বের হতে শুরু করে। দেখা যায় আগুনের ফুলকি। পাইলটের তৎপরতায় নিরাপদে ২৫০ জনকে নামানো হয় লখনউয়ে। ঘটনাটি ঘটেছে রবিবার ভোরে। সৌদিয়া এয়ারলাইন্সের ফ্লাইট এসভি ৩১১২ শনিবার রাত ১০টা ৪৫ মিনিটে জেদ্দা থেকে রওনা দেয়। রবিবার সকাল সাড়ে ৬টা নাগাদ সেটি নামে লখনউয়ের চৌধুরি চরণ সিং আন্তর্জাতিক বিমানবন্দরে। বিমানবন্দরের আধিকারিকরা জানান, অবতরণের ঠিক পরপরই বিমানের বাঁ দিকের চাকায় ধোঁয়া এবং আগুনের ফুলকি দেখা যায়। সঙ্গে সঙ্গে পাইলট বিপদের সংকেত পাঠান কন্ট্রোল রুমে। কোনও ঝুঁকি না নিয়ে বিমানটিকে রানওয়ে থেকে সরিয়ে আনা হয় ট্যাক্সিওয়েতে।

ডিএনএ-র নমুনা মিলল ১১৯ জনের

পরিজনদের হাতে ৬৪ দেহ

সংবাদ সংস্থা

আমেদাবাদ, ১৬ জুন

আমেদাবাদ বিমান দুর্ঘটনার চার দিনের মাথায় আজ নিহত ২৪১ বিমানযাত্রী এবং আরও ২৯ জনের মধ্যে ১১৯ জনের ডিএনএ-র নমুনা মিলিয়ে তাঁদের শনাক্ত করা সম্ভব হয়েছে। আমেদাবাদ সিভিল হাসপাতাল থেকে ৬৪টি মৃতদেহ পরিজনদের হাতে তুলে দেওয়া হয়েছে। ১২ জুন দুর্ঘটনাগ্রস্ত আমেদাবাদ-লন্ডনগামী এয়ার ইন্ডিয়া বিমানে গুজরাটের প্রাক্তন মুখ্যমন্ত্রী বিজয় রুপানিও ছিলেন। গতকালই তাঁর ছেলের ডিএনএ নমুনার সঙ্গে মিলিয়ে তাঁর দেহ শনাক্ত করার পর আজ স্ত্রী অঞ্জলি রুপানির হাতে তুলে দেওয়া হয়েছে প্রাক্তন মুখ্যমন্ত্রীর দেহ। সে-সময় হাসপাতালে উপস্থিত ছিলেন গুজরাটের মুখ্যমন্ত্রী ভূপেন্দ্র প্যাটেল। সোমবার বিকেলে রাজকোটে প্রাক্তন মুখ্যমন্ত্রীর পৈতৃক আবাসের কাছে তাঁর শেষকৃত্য সম্পন্ন হয়েছে। উপস্থিতি ছিলেন কেন্দ্রীয় স্বরাষ্ট্রমন্ত্রী অমিত শাহ। রুপানির প্রতি শ্রদ্ধা জানাতে এক দিনের শোক ঘোষণা করেছে গুজরাট সরকার। ২০১৬ সালের আগস্ট থেকে ২০২১ সালের সেপ্টেম্বর পর্যন্ত গুজরাটের মুখ্যমন্ত্রী ছিলেন রুপানি।

বাকি দেহের শনাক্তকরণের প্রক্রিয়া চলছে। সিভিল হাসপাতালের সুপারিনটেন্ডেন্ট ডাঃ রাকেশ যোশি জানিয়েছেন, যে ৬৪ জনের দেহ পরিবার-পরিজনদের হাতে তুলে দেওয়া হয়েছে, তাঁরা গুজরাট এবং রাজস্থানের বিভিন্ন জেলার বাসিন্দা ছিলেন। অধিকাংশ দেহ এত ভয়ঙ্কর ভাবে পুড়ে গিয়েছে যে, এ কাজে বেশ সময় লাগছে। সে-বিষয়ে জোর দিয়ে ডাঃ যোশি বলেন, 'যত দ্রুত সম্ভব, আমরা ডিএনএ নমুনা সংগ্রহ করে মিলিয়ে দেখছি। অনেকেই অভিযোগ করছেন, ৭২ ঘণ্টা হয়ে গেল, এখনও কেন সব দেহ শনাক্ত করা গেল না। তাঁদের বলব, চিন্তা করবেন না। এটা খুবই গুরুত্বপূর্ণ কাজ। কিছু আইনি প্রক্রিয়াও আছে। ডিএনএ টেস্টের ফল বেরোলেই সবাইকে জানানো হবে। মঙ্গলবার রাতে বা বুধবার সকালের মধ্যেই এ কাজ সেরে ফেলার হবে বলে আমরা আশাবাদী।' সআমেদাবাদ সিভিল হাসপাতাল সূত্রে গতকালই জানানো হয়েছিল, দুর্ঘটনাগ্রস্ত বিমানযাত্রী এবং স্থানীয়দের মিলিয়ে নিহত ২৫০ জনের ডিএনএ নমুনা সংগ্রহ করা হয়েছে।

গত বৃহস্পতিবার আমেদাবাদের সর্দার বল্লভভাই প্যাটেল আন্তর্জাতিক বিমানবন্দর থেকে টেক-অফের ২৩ সেকেন্ডের মধ্যে মেঘানিনগর এলাকার বি জে মেডিক্যাল কলেজের মেসে ভেঙে পড়ে লন্ডনগামী এয়ার ইন্ডিয়া বিমান। তখন দুপুরের খাওয়াদাওয়া সারছিলেন চিকিৎসকেরা। ঘটনার অভিঘাতে ৪ জন চিকিৎসকের মৃত্যু হয় ঘটনাস্থলেই। মেসের কয়েকজন কর্মীও বেঘোরে প্রাণ হারান। দেশের অন্যতম প্রাচীন মেডিক্যাল কলেজ, বি জে মেডিক্যাল কলেজের ১৪৬তম প্রতিষ্ঠা দিবস স্বভাবতই শোকের দিন। তদন্তের স্বার্থে আগেই খালি হয়েছে মেস ও চিকিৎসকদের কোয়ার্টার। মেসের চত্বর-লাগোয়া মেডিক্যাল কলেজ হাসপাতালে দিন-রাত বিমান দুর্ঘটনায় নিহতদের পরিবারের আনাগোনা। ক্ষতিগ্রস্ত কলেজ, মেস, চিকিৎসকদের ভবন পুড়ে নিকষ কালো, যা সেদিনের ভয়াবহতার জবানবন্দি দিয়ে চলেছে।

এদিকে দুর্ঘটনার তদন্ত করছে এয়ারক্র্যাফ্ট অ্যাক্সিডেন্ট ইনভেস্টিগেশন ব্যুরো (এএআইবি)-ও। তারা যান্ত্রিক ত্রুটির বিষয়টি খতিয়ে দেখছে। কেন্দ্রীয় অসামরিক বিমান পরিষেবামন্ত্রী কে রামমোহন নাইডু আগেই বলেছেন, স্রেফ যান্ত্রিক ত্রুটির বিষয়টি দেখছে এএআইবি। ভবিষ্যতে এ ধরনের দুর্ঘটনা থেকে কীভাবে শিক্ষা নেওয়া যায়, এ বিষয়ে নীতি নির্ধারণ করবে কেন্দ্রের বিশেষ মাল্টি ডিসিপ্লিনারি কমিটি। আজকের বৈঠকে ছিলেন অসামরিক বিমান পরিষেবা মন্ত্রক, স্বরাষ্ট্র মন্ত্রক, বায়ুসেনা, ইনটেলিজেন্স ব্যুরো, গুজরাট সরকার, ডিরেক্টোরেট অফ সিভিল এভিয়েশন এবং ব্যুরো অফ সিভিল এভিয়েশন সিকিওরিটির প্রতিনিধিরা। আগামী তিন মাসের মধ্যে এ নিয়ে রিপোর্ট জমা দেবে কমিটি।

আজ আমেরিকার ন্যাশনাল ট্রান্সপোর্ট সেফটি বোর্ডও (এনটিএসবি) আলাদা করে তদন্ত শুরু করেছে। আজ আমেদাবাদে দুর্ঘটনাস্থলে যান এনটিএসবি-র সদস্যরা।

যান্ত্রিক ত্রুটি! ৩৬ ঘণ্টায় ভোগান্তি পাঁচটি ফ্লাইটে

এই সময়: গত ১২ জুন আমেদাবাদ থেকে লন্ডনগামী এয়ার ইন্ডিয়ার বিমান ভেঙে পড়ার নেপথ্যে যান্ত্রিক ত্রুটি নাকি অন্য কারণ— স্পষ্ট হয়নি এখনও। তার মধ্যেই যান্ত্রিক ত্রুটির কারণে মাঝপথ থেকে ফিরে গেল বা ডিলেড হলো একাধিক উড়ান। ৩৬ ঘণ্টার মধ্যে এমন ঘটনা ঘটল অন্তত পাঁচটি ফ্লাইটে!

সোমবার হংকং থেকে দিল্লিগামী এয়ার ইন্ডিয়ার ফ্লাইট টেকনিক্যাল সমস্যার কারণে মাঝ-আকাশ থেকে ফিরে যেতে বাধ্য হয়। এয়ার ইন্ডিয়া জানিয়েছে, টেক-অফের পরে যান্ত্রিক সমস্যা ধরা পড়তেই মাঝপথ থেকে বিমানটি হংকংয়ে ফিরিয়ে আনতে বাধ্য হন পাইলট। হংকংয়ে ল্যান্ডিংয়ের পরে বিমানের চেকিং চলে। যাত্রীদের যত শীঘ্র সম্ভব দিল্লি পৌঁছে দিতে বিকল্প ব্যবস্থা করা হচ্ছে বলেও জানান এয়ার ইন্ডিয়া কর্তৃপক্ষ।

এর আগে হায়দরাবাদগামী লুফথহানসার একটি বিমান রবিবার সন্ধ্যায় প্রায় মাঝআকাশ থেকে ফ্র্যাঙ্কফুর্ট বিমানবন্দরে ফিরে যেতে বাধ্য হয়েছে। রবিবার স্থানীয় সময় দুপুর ২.১৪ নাগাদ ফ্র্যাঙ্কফুর্ট থেকে রওনা দিয়েছিল লুফথহানসার বিমানটি। সোমবার ভোরে হায়দরাবাদের রাজীব গান্ধী ইন্টারন্যাশনাল এয়ারপোর্টে নামার কথা ছিল। সূত্রের খবর, রওনা দেওয়ার ঘণ্টা দু'য়েকের মধ্যেই ফ্লাইটে বোমা থাকার হুমকি আসে। ৫.৩০ নাগাদ ফ্র্যাঙ্কফুর্টে ফিরিয়ে আনা হয় বিমানটিকে। লুফথহানসার অবশ্য দাবি, হায়দরাবাদে নামার পারমিট পায়নি বলে ফ্লাইট ফিরিয়ে আনতে হয়েছে তাদের। সোমবার ভোরে রি-শিডিউল করা হয় উড়ানটি।

সোমবার বিকেলে আবার এয়ার ইন্ডিয়ার দিল্লি থেকে রাঁচিগামী বিমান যান্ত্রিক ত্রুটির কারণে দিল্লি ফিরে যেতে বাধ্য হয়েছে। ৪.২৫-এ দিল্লি বিমানবন্দর থেকে রওনা দেওয়া উড়ানটির রাঁচিতে বীরসা মুন্ডা বিমানবন্দরে নামার কথা ছিল ৬.২০ নাগাদ। কিন্তু যান্ত্রিক সমস্যার কারণে মাঝপথ থেকেই দিল্লি ফিরিয়ে নিয়ে যাওয়া হয় বিমানটিকে।

শনিবার রাত ১.০৫-এ গোয়া থেকে দুবাই যাওয়ার কথা ছিল এয়ার ইন্ডিয়ার ফ্লাইটের। টেকনিক্যাল সমস্যার কারণে তা বাতিল করা হয়। যাত্রীদের আগে কিছু না জানানোয় চূড়ান্ত ভোগান্তির মুখে পড়েন তাঁরা। রবিবার আবার দিল্লি থেকে জুরিখগামী এয়ার ইন্ডিয়ার বিমান, বোয়িং ৭৮৭-৮ চেকিংয়ের কারণে অনেক দেরিতে টেক-অফ করে। যান্ত্রিক সমস্যার কারণেই দেরি।

अमेरिकी एजंसी ने विमान हादसे की समानांतर जांच शुरू की

जनसत्ता ब्यूरो
नई दिल्ली, 16 जून।

अमेरिका के राष्ट्रीय परिवहन सुरक्षा बोर्ड (एनटीएसबी) ने यहां एअर इंडिया विमान दुर्घटना की समानांतर जांच शुरू की है, जिसके तहत कई अंतरराष्ट्रीय विशेषज्ञों को दुर्घटना स्थल पर बुलाया गया है।

वायुयान दुर्घटना जांच ब्यूरो (एएआइबी) ने पिछले सप्ताह भीषण दुर्घटना के कारणों की तह तक जाने के लिए विस्तृत जांच शुरू की थी। लंदन जा रहा एअर इंडिया का बोइंग 787-8 (एआइ 171) विमान सरदार वल्लभभाई पटेल अंतरराष्ट्रीय हवाई अड्डे से उड़ान भरने के बाकी पेज 8 पर

अधिकारियों ने बताया कि जांच को लेकर कई अंतरराष्ट्रीय विशेषज्ञों को दुर्घटनास्थल पर बुलाया गया है।

अमेरिकी एजंसी ने विमान हादसे की समानांतर जांच शुरू की

कुछ ही क्षण बाद एक मेडिकल कालेज की इमारत से टकरा गया और उसमें आग लग गई, जिससे विमान में सवार कुल 241 लोग और जमीन पर मौजूद 29 लोग मारे गए। एक आधिकारिक विज्ञप्ति में कहा गया है कि चूंकि विमान अमेरिका में निर्मित है, इसलिए अमेरिकी एनटीएसबी अंतरराष्ट्रीय प्रोटोकाल के तहत समानांतर जांच कर रहा है।

एनटीएसबी अमेरिका की एक स्वतंत्र संघीय एजंसी है, जिसका काम हर नागरिक विमानन दुर्घटना की जांच करना है। वे दुर्घटनाओं और घटनाओं के संभावित कारणों का पता लगाते हैं और भविष्य में ऐसी घटनाओं को रोकने के उद्देश्य से जांच करते हैं और सुरक्षा संबंधी सिफारिशें जारी करते हैं। पिछले दो दिनों से कई विदेशी विशेषज्ञ दुर्घटना स्थल पर सुराग खोजने के लिए मलबे की जांच करते देखे गए। ब्रिटेन के एक विशेषज्ञ ने दुर्घटना स्थल के बारे में पूछे जाने पर ज्यादा जानकारी दिए बिना कहा कि हमने वही देखा, जो आप लोग देख सकते हैं...यह बिल्कुल वैसा ही है, जैसा आप यहां से देख सकते हैं। सूत्रों के अनुसार, बोइंग और एअर इंडिया की टीम भी जांच में एजंसियों की सहायता कर रही हैं। एअर इंडिया विमान दुर्घटना की जांच कर रहे अधिकारियों ने भी पुष्टि की है कि काकपिट वायस रिकार्डर मिल गया है।

इससे पहले, एएआइबी ने कहा था कि दुर्घटनाग्रस्त विमान का केवल फ्लाइट डेटा रिकार्डर (एफडीआर) ही बरामद किया जा सका है। अधिकारियों ने प्रधानमंत्री नरेंद्र मोदी के प्रधान सचिव पीके मिश्रा को सीवीआर बरामद होने की पुष्टि की, जिन्होंने रविवार को दुर्घटनास्थल का निरीक्षण किया और सिविल अस्पताल में घायलों से मुलाकात की। अधिकारियों ने मिश्रा को बताया कि फ्लाइट डेटा रिकार्डर (एफडीआर) और काकपिट वायस रिकार्डर (सीवीआर) का पता लगा लिया गया है और उन्हें सुरक्षित कर लिया गया है।

ગૌતમ અદાણીના નેતૃત્વ હેઠળનું અદાણી ગ્રુપ આગામી 6 વર્ષમાં $100 બિલિયન એટલે કે લગભગ રૂ. 8.3 લાખ કરોડનું રોકાણ કરવા જઈ રહ્યું છે. અદાણી ગ્રુપના પ્રવક્તાએ એક વિશિષ્ટ મુલાકાતમાં જણાવ્યું હતું દેશના કોઈપણ ખાનગી જૂથની અત્યાર સુધીનીતે સૌથી મોટી રોકાણની યોજના છે.

અદાણી ગ્રુપ હવે દર વર્ષે રૂ.1.5 થી 1.6 લાખ કરોડ ખર્ચ કરશે, જે ગત વર્ષના રૂ.1.1 થી 1.2 લાખ કરોડ કરતા ઘણો વધારે છે.અદાણી ગ્રુપ સૌથી વધુરોકાણ ઉર્જા ક્ષેત્રમાં કરશે જેમાં લગભગ 83% થી 85%.નવીનીકરણીય ઉર્જા અને સંગ્રહ પર રહેશે, જે અદાણી ગ્રીનની નવીનીકરણીય ક્ષમતામાં 7 ગણો વધારો કરશે અને પરંપરાગત વીજ ઉત્પાદન ક્ષમતાને બમણી કરશે.

બાકીના રોકાણની વાત કરીએ તોલગભગ 10% બાંધકામ સામગ્રીમાં, 6-7% ખાણકામ અને ધાતુ ક્ષેત્રમાં રહોશે. ઉલ્લેખનીય છે કે માર્ચ 2025 સુધીમાંઅદાણી ગ્રીન એનર્જીની ક્ષમતા 14.2 GW હતી અને અદાણી પાવરની ક્ષમતા 16.54 GW હતી.

ભંડોળ ક્યાંથી એકત્ર કરાશે?: દર વર્ષે લગભગ રૂ.24,000 કરોડનું દેવું ચૂકવવામાં આવશે, જેના કારણે નેટ દેવું માત્ર રૂ.25,000 કરોડ વધશે.અદાણી ગ્રુપનુંનેટ દેવુ અને EBITDA ગુણોત્તર મૂડીખર્ચના દરેક તબક્કામાં 2.5 થી 3 ની વચ્ચે રહેશે અને 2028 માં ટોચ પર પહોંચશે. ત્યારબાદબાંધવામાં આવેલા પ્રોજેક્ટ્સમાંથી થતી કમાણીમાંથી વધુ રોકાણ કરવામાં આવશે.

વાર્ષિક રોકાણમાંથી, 80,000 કરોડ રૂપિયા ગ્રુપ દ્વારા પોતાના નફામાંથી, ૧૫,૦૦૦ કરોડ રૂપિયા સેટલમેન્ટ પેમેન્ટમાંથી અને 12,000 થી 14,000 કરોડ રૂપિયા EPC નફામાંથી એકત્ર કરવામાં આવશે. બાકીના 40,000-50,000 કરોડ રૂપિયા માટે ગ્રુપને બાહ્ય ભંડોળની જરૂર પડશે.

રોકાણ યોજનાનું લક્ષ્ય શું છે?: આ માસ્ટર પ્લાનનો ઉદ્દેશ્ય જૂથની સંગઠનાત્મક ક્ષમતા વધારવા, ટેકનોલોજીમાં સુધારો કરવા અને સપ્લાય ચેઈન એટલે કે વેન્ડર ઈકો-સિસ્ટમને મજબૂત બનાવવાનો છે. અદાણી ગ્રુપને આ મોટા રોકાણ યોજનામાંથી મોટી કમાણીની અપેક્ષા છે. અદાણી ગ્રુપનો અંદાજ છે કે આ રોકાણથી $16 બિલિયનની કમાણી થશે.

विमान हादसा : डीएनए मिलान से 119 मृतकों की पहचान हुई

दो दिन में प्रक्रिया पूरी होने की उम्मीद

अहमदाबाद : अहमदाबाद में एअर इंडिया विमान दुर्घटना के चार दिन बाद, अब तक डीएनए मिलान के जरिये 119 मृतकों की पहचान कर ली गई है और गुजरात के पूर्व मुख्यमंत्री विजय रूपाणी समेत 64 लोगों के शव उनके परिजनों को सौंप दिये गए हैं। अधिकारियों ने सोमवार को यह जानकारी दी। इस हादसे में 270 लोगों की जान चली गई। एक अधिकारी ने उम्मीद जताई की कि सभी मृतकों के डीएनए मिलान की प्रक्रिया मंगलवार शाम या बुधवार सुबह तक पूरी हो जाएगी। रूपाणी उन 242 लोगों में शामिल थे, जो बृहस्पतिवार दोपहर लंदन जा रही एअर इंडिया की उड़ान एआई-171 में सवार थे। यह विमान 12 जून को अहमदाबाद हवाई अड्डे से उड़ान भरने के कुछ ही मिनट बाद एक मेडिकल कॉलेज परिसर में दुर्घटनाग्रस्त हो गया था। पूर्व मुख्यमंत्री रुपाणी के पार्थिव शरीर को शहर के सिविल अस्पताल में उनकी पत्नी अंजलि रुपाणी और परिवार के अन्य सदस्यों को सौंप दिया गया। अधिकारी मृतकों की पहचान करने के लिए डीएनए जांच कर रहे हैं, क्योंकि 12 जून को विमान दुर्घटना में कई लोग इस कदर झुलस गए कि उनके शव पहचाने नहीं जा सके। अहमदाबाद सिविल अस्पताल के चिकित्सा अधीक्षक डॉ राकेश जोशी ने संवाददाताओं से कहा, "अब तक 119 मृतकों की पहचान कर ली गई है और 76 लोगों के शव उनके परिजनों को सौंप दिये गए हैं। हादसे में जान गंवाने वाले लोग गुजरात और राजस्थान के विभिन्न हिस्सों के रहने वाले थे।" उन्होंने उम्मीद जताई कि सभी मृतकों की 'डीएनए प्रोफाइल' का काम मंगलवार शाम या बुधवार सुबह तक पूरा हो जाएगा। उन्होंने शोक-संतप्त परिजनों से अपील की कि शवों के अवशेषों से डीएनए मिलान की लंबी प्रक्रिया को लेकर परेशान नहीं हों। उन्होंने कहा, "हम इस प्रक्रिया को जल्द से जल्द पूरा करने की पूरी कोशिश कर रहे हैं। कुछ लोग शिकायत कर रहे हैं कि 72 घंटे बाद भी नतीजे नहीं आए हैं। मैं उनसे अपील करता हूं कि वे घबराएं नहीं, क्योंकि यह एक बहुत ही महत्वपूर्ण प्रक्रिया है, जिसके कानूनी निहितार्थ हैं।

अमेरिकी एजेंसी ने एअर इंडिया विमान दुर्घटना की समानांतर जांच शुरू की

अमेरिका के राष्ट्रीय परिवहन सुरक्षा बोर्ड (एनटीएसबी) ने यहां एअर इंडिया विमान दुर्घटना की समानांतर जांच शुरू की है, जिसके तहत कई अंतरराष्ट्रीय विशेषज्ञों को दुर्घटना स्थल पर बुलाया गया है। वायुयान दुर्घटना अन्वेषण ब्यूरो (एएआईबी) ने पिछले सप्ताह भीषण दुर्घटना के कारणों की तह तक जाने के लिए विस्तृत जांच शुरू की थी। एक आधिकारिक विज्ञप्ति में कहा गया है कि चूंकि विमान अमेरिका में निर्मित है, इसलिए अमेरिकी एनटीएसबी अंतरराष्ट्रीय प्रोटोकॉल के तहत समानांतर जांच कर रहा है।

गेल्या काही दिवसांमध्ये दुर्घटनांचे सत्रच सुरू आहे. एका दुर्घटनेने हबकून जावे तोवर पुढची त्याहून भीषण दुर्घटना घडताना दिसत आहे. अहमदाबादमध्ये एअर - इंडियाचे विमान कोसळून २७० पेक्षा अधिक लोक दगावण्याच्या घटनेचे गांभीर्य कोणाच्याच मनातून अजून ओसरलेले नसताना पुणे जिल्ह्यातील मावळ तालुक्यातील कुंडमळा येथे इंद्रायणी नदीवरील पूल कोसळून चौघांचा मृत्यू तर २० पेक्षा अधिक जखमी झाले आहेत. केदारनाथजवळ हेलिकॉप्टर कोसळून सात जणांचा मृत्यू झाला आहे. माथेरानमध्ये शार्लेट तलावात पोहण्यासाठी उतरलेल्या तिघांचा तर बुलढाण्यात दोघींचा (मायलेकी) बुडून मृत्यू झाला आहे.

अशा दुर्घटना घडतात तेव्हा सगळ्यात पहिली प्रतिक्रिया असते, ती जगणे मरणे कोणाच्या हातात आहे अशी. त्यानंतर पुढचा दोष ताबडतोब शासकीय यंत्रणांना दिला जातो. आपल्याकडच्या बहुतेक सगळ्याच सरकारी व्यवस्था या 'रामभरोसे' चालत असल्यामुळे त्यांच्यावर ठपका ठेवला जाणे समजण्यासारखे आहे. पण ते करताना आपण दुसऱ्यावर आपले एक बोट रोखले तर चार बोटे आपल्याकडे वळलेली असतात हे कधी लक्षात येणार? रेल्वे अपघातामध्ये शासकीय यंत्रणांना आपली जबाबदारी टाळता येणार नाही, हे बरोबरच आहे. पण 'हा पूल रहदारीसाठी धोकादायक झाला असून इथून ये-जा करू नये' अशी पाटी लावलेली असताना त्या पुलावर दुचाकी वाहनांसह जाऊन गर्दी करणाऱ्या लोकांचा या अपघातात काहीच दोष नाही का? संबंधित पूल धोकादायक झाला आहे, हे माहीत असेल तर तातडीने त्याची डागडुजी करायला घेणे, लोकांना पर्याय उपलब्ध करून देणे ही शासकीय यंत्रणेची जबाबदारी आहेच. पण ते होत नाही तोपर्यंत बेजबाबदारपणे वागण्याचा परवाना सामान्य लोकांना मिळतो की काय? अपघात झाला तेव्हा पावसातील रिल्स आणि सेल्फीसाठी या पुलावर १०० पेक्षा अधिक पर्यटक जमले होते, असे समोर आले आहे.

सरकारने त्या पुलावर पोलीसही ठेवलेले नव्हते, असा आरोप अतिउत्साही वृत्तवाहिन्यांचे पत्रकार करताना दिसले. पण सरकारने नेमके कुठेकुठे आणि किती ठिकाणी पोलीस नेमायचे आहेत? पावसाळ्यात ५०० पेक्षा अधिक पर्यटनस्थळी पाण्याचा आनंद लुटण्यासाठी लोक जमतात, अशी माहिती मुख्यमंत्री देवेंद्र फडणवीस यांनीच दिली आहे. अशा सर्वच पर्यटनस्थळी वा धबधब्यांच्या ठिकाणी पोलीस तैनात करणे शक्यच नाही. कुणीही, कुठेही जाऊन पावसाळ्याचा आनंद लुटावा, पण तो लुटताना आपल्या जिवाची काळजी घेणे ही त्या त्या व्यक्तीची जबाबदारी नाही का? पावसाच्या काळात ज्या जागेचा अंदाज नाही तिथे जाणे, ज्या पाण्याचा अंदाज नाही तिथे पोहायला उतरणे या सगळ्यामागे अतिउत्साहापलीकडे काय असते?

उत्साह हे तरुणाईचे व्यवच्छेदक लक्षण असते हे खरे, पण अलीकडच्या काळात रिल्स आणि सेल्फीसाठी तरुण-तरुणी कोणताही धोका पत्करताना मागेपुढे पाहात नाहीत आणि मग एखादी दुर्दैवी घटना घडली की सरकारला दोष दिला जातो. माथेरानमध्ये सहलीसाठी आलेल्या तीन तरुणांचा तलावात बुडून मृत्यू झाला. वास्तविक या तलावात पोहण्यासाठी उतरण्यास बंदी होती. पण त्याकडे दुर्लक्ष करून हे तरुण पाण्यात उतरले आणि वाहून गेले. त्यांनीही जबाबदारीने वागणे अपेक्षित नव्हते का?

उत्तराखंडमधील केदारनाथजवळ हेलिकॉप्टर कोसळून सात जणांचा मृत्यू ही आणखी एक दुर्दैवी घटना. चारधाम यात्रा मार्गावर गेल्या ३९ दिवसांत हेलिकॉप्टरला झालेला हा पाचवा अपघात. या सर्व अपघातांमध्ये मिळून १३ जणांचा बळी गेला. हा मात्र यंत्रणांचा दोष. २०१७ पासून या परिसरात हेलिकॉप्टरचे ११ अपघात झाले आहेत. चारधाम यात्रा परिसर हा हवामानाच्या दृष्टीने कायमच संवेदनशील. तिथे हेलिकॉप्टर सेवा अतिशय काटेकोरपणे चालवली जाणे आवश्यक आहे. पण हेलिकॉप्टरसाठी वाहतूक नियंत्रण कक्ष नाही, अत्याधुनिक रडार यंत्रणा नाही. अनेक नियम पाळले जात नाहीत, अशी परिस्थिती आहे. एवढे अपघात झाल्यावर तरी उत्तराखंड सरकारचे डोळे उघडावेत ही अपेक्षा. मुंब्र्यात रेल्वे अपघात होऊन आठवडा उलटला तरी तो नेमका कसा झाला हेच अद्याप स्पष्ट झालेले नाही. वळणावर दोन गाड्या एकमेकांना घासल्याची शक्यता रेल्वेने फेटाळली आहे. मग प्रवासी गाडीतून पडले कसे? मुंबईकडून रेल्वेला प्रचंड महसूल मिळून त्याचा मुंबईला काहीच उपयोग होत नाही. दुसरीकडे उपनगरीय रेल्वे सेवेवर एवढा भार आहे की त्यात सुधारणांनाही फारसा वाव राहिलेला नाही. स्वयंचलित दरवाजांच्या किंवा वातानुकूलित गाड्या चालवून प्रश्न सुटणार नाहीत. गर्दीचे नियोजन करण्याकरिता कार्यालयांच्या वेळा बदलण्याची चर्चा नुसती होत राहते. पण त्यावर तोडगा काहीच काढला जात नाही. किमान सरकारी कार्यालयांच्या वेळा बदलून त्याची सुरुवात मुख्यमंत्र्यांनी तरी करावी.

हे अपघात आणि दुर्घटना म्हणजे लोकांच्या बेजबाबदारपणाचे आणि यंत्रणांच्या बजबजपुरीचे लक्षण आहे.

'डीएनए'द्वारे ११९ जणांची ओळख पटविण्यात यश

विमान दुर्घटनेतील ७६ जणांचे मृतदेह सुपूर्द

पीटीआय, अहमदाबाद

अहमदाबाद येथील भीषण विमान दुर्घटनेतील मृत २७० पैकी ११९ जणांची 'डीएनए' चाचणीतून ओळख पटविण्यात यश आले आहे. यापैकी गुजरातचे माजी मुख्यमंत्री विजय रुपानी यांच्यासह ७६ जणांचे मृतदेह कुटुंबीयांकडे सुपूर्द करण्यात आल्याची माहिती अधिकाऱ्यांनी सोमवारी दिली.

अहमदाबाद येथून गुरुवार, १२ जून रोजी लंडनला जाणाऱ्या एअर इंडियाच्या विमानाला उड्डाण केल्यानंतर काही सेकंदात भीषण अपघात झाला. यात विमान कर्मचाऱ्यांसह २४२ प्रवासी आणि डॉक्टरांच्या वसतिगृहातील तसेच अन्य अशा २७० जणांचा मृत्यू झाला होता. 'अनेक मृतदेह ओळखण्यापलीकडे असल्याने, पीडितांची ओळख पटविण्यासाठी 'डीएनए' चाचणी करण्यात आली. आतापर्यंत ११९ जणांची डीएनए चाचणीद्वारे ओळख पटविण्यात यश आले. तर ७६ जणांचे मृतदेह आधीच त्यांच्या कुटुंबीयांकडे सोपविण्यात आले. या मृत व्यक्ती गुजरात आणि राजस्थानच्या विविध भागांतील होत्या,' असे सिव्हिल रुग्णालयाचे अधीक्षक डॉ. राकेश जोशी यांनी पत्रकारांना सांगितले.

विजय रुपानी यांच्यावर अंत्यसंस्कार

विमान दुर्घटनेत मृत पावलेले गुजरातचे माजी मुख्यमंत्री विजय रुपानी यांच्या पार्थिवावर सोमवारी सायंकाळी राजकोटच्या रामनाथपारा स्मशानभूमीत शासकीय इतमामामध्ये अंत्यसंस्कार करण्यात आले. डीएनए चाचणीत ओळख पटल्यानंतर रुपाणी यांचे पार्थिक दुपारीच कुटुंबीयांकडे सुपूर्द करण्यात आले होते. गृहमंत्री अमित शहा, मुख्यमंत्री भुपेंद्र पटेल यांच्यासह अनेक मान्यवरांनी रुपानी यांच्या पार्थिवाचे दर्शन घेतले.

बोईंगसह 'एएआयबी'चे पथक अहमदाबादमध्ये

अपघाताच्या जागेची पाहणी करण्यासाठी 'बोईंग'चे एक पथक आणि 'एअरक्राफ्ट ॲक्सिडेंट इन्व्हेस्टिगेशन ब्युरो'चे (एएआयबी) पथक सोमवारी अहमदाबादमध्ये दाखल झाले. यामुळे विमान अपघाताच्या तपासाला वेग येणार आहे. तत्पूर्वी सोमवारी सकाळी अपघातस्थळाची ब्रिटनमधील एका तज्ज्ञाने पाहणी केली.

विमान दुर्घटनेच्या तपासाला गती

पीटीआय, अहमदाबाद/ नवी दिल्ली

अहमदाबाद येथील 'एअर इंडिया'च्या अपघातग्रस्त विमानाचा 'कॉकपिट व्हॉइस रेकॉर्डर' (सीव्हीआर) हा दुसरा 'ब्लॅकबॉक्स' सोमवारी सापडला. यामुळे आता तपासाला अधिक वेग येणार आहे. त्याच वेळी केंद्र सरकारने स्थापन केलेल्या उच्चस्तरीय समितीची पहिली बैठक सोमवारी नवी दिल्लीत झाली. यात अपघाताची संभाव्य कारणे आणि भविष्यातील उपाययोजनांबाबत चर्चा झाल्याची माहिती आहे.

गुरुवारी विमानाची भीषण दुर्घटना घडल्याच्या दुसऱ्या दिवशी 'फ्लाइट डेटा रेकॉर्डर' (एफडीआर) हा पहिला 'ब्लॅक बॉक्स' सापडला होता. याच्या आधारे 'एअरक्राफ्ट ॲक्सिडेंट इन्व्हेस्टिगेशन ब्युरो'ने (एएआयबी) तपास सुरू केला असताना सोमवारी 'सीव्हीआर'ही हाती आल्यामुळे आता अपघातापूर्वी वैमानिक आणि 'एटीसी', तसेच दोन वैमानिकांमध्ये आपापसात नेमके काय संभाषण झाले, हे समजणे शक्य होईल. पंतप्रधानांचे प्रधान सचिव पी.के. मिश्रा यांनी सोमवारी अहमदाबादेत उच्चस्तरीय आढावा बैठक घेतली. या वेळी केंद्र आणि राज्य सरकार, 'एएआयबी' आणि भारतीय विमानतळ प्राधिकरणाच्या वरिष्ठ अधिकाऱ्यांकडून सुरू असलेल्या मदतकार्य तसेच अपघाताच्या तपासाबाबत चर्चा झाल्याचे प्रसिद्धीपत्रकात म्हटले आहे. दरम्यान केंद्र सरकारने नेमलेल्या उच्चस्तरीय समितीची पहिली बैठक नवी दिल्लीत झाली. केंद्रीय गृहसचिव गोविंद मोहन यांच्या अध्यक्षतेखालील या बैठकीला नागरी हवाई वाहतूक मंत्रालय, गृह मंत्रालय, हवाई दल, गुप्तचर विभाग, गुजरात सरकार, डीजीसीए, हवाई सुरक्षा कार्यालय यांचे अधिकारी उपस्थित होते. सूत्रांनी दिलेल्या माहितीनुसार यावेळी अपघाताची सर्व संभाव्य कारणांवर उहापोह करण्यात आला. ही समिती भविष्यात अपघात टाळण्यासाठी नवी प्रमाणित कार्यपद्धत (स्टँडर्ड ऑपरेटिंग प्रोसिजर) निश्चित करण्याचे काम करणार आहे. त्याच वेळी अपघातग्रस्त विमान अमेरिकेच्या 'बोइंग' कंपनीचे असल्याने आंतरराष्ट्रीय नियमानुसार 'यूएस नॅशनल ट्रान्सपोर्टेशन सेफ्टी बोर्ड'नेही समांतर चौकशी सुरू केली आहे.

अमेरिकी एजंसी ने विमान हादसे की समानांतर जांच शुरू की

जनसत्ता ब्यूरो
नई दिल्ली, 16 जून।

अमेरिका के राष्ट्रीय परिवहन सुरक्षा बोर्ड (एनटीएसबी) ने यहां एअर इंडिया विमान दुर्घटना की समानांतर जांच शुरू की है, जिसके तहत कई अंतरराष्ट्रीय विशेषज्ञों को दुर्घटना स्थल पर बुलाया गया है।

वायुयान दुर्घटना जांच ब्यूरो (एएआइबी) ने पिछले सप्ताह भीषण दुर्घटना के कारणों की तह तक जाने के लिए विस्तृत जांच शुरू की थी। लंदन जा रहा एअर इंडिया का बोइंग 787-8 (एआइ 171) विमान सरदार वल्लभभाई पटेल अंतरराष्ट्रीय हवाई अड्डे से उड़ान भरने के बाकी पेज 8 पर

अधिकारियों ने बताया कि जांच को लेकर कई अंतरराष्ट्रीय विशेषज्ञों को दुर्घटनास्थल पर बुलाया गया है।

अमेरिकी एजंसी ने विमान हादसे की समानांतर जांच शुरू की

कुछ ही क्षण बाद एक मेडिकल कालेज की इमारत से टकरा गया और उसमें आग लग गई, जिससे विमान में सवार कुल 241 लोग और जमीन पर मौजूद 29 लोग मारे गए। एक आधिकारिक विज्ञप्ति में कहा गया है कि चूंकि विमान अमेरिका में निर्मित है, इसलिए अमेरिकी एनटीएसबी अंतरराष्ट्रीय प्रोटोकाल के तहत समानांतर जांच कर रहा है।

एनटीएसबी अमेरिका की एक स्वतंत्र संघीय एजंसी है, जिसका काम हर नागरिक विमानन दुर्घटना की जांच करना है। वे दुर्घटनाओं और घटनाओं के संभावित कारणों का पता लगाते हैं और भविष्य में ऐसी घटनाओं को रोकने के उद्देश्य से जांच करते हैं और सुरक्षा संबंधी सिफारिशें जारी करते हैं। पिछले दो दिनों से कई विदेशी विशेषज्ञ दुर्घटना स्थल पर सुराग खोजने के लिए मलबे की जांच करते देखे गए। ब्रिटेन के एक विशेषज्ञ ने दुर्घटना स्थल के बारे में पूछे जाने पर ज्यादा जानकारी दिए बिना कहा कि हमने वही देखा, जो आप लोग देख सकते हैं...यह बिल्कुल वैसा ही है, जैसा आप यहां से देख सकते हैं। सूत्रों के अनुसार, बोइंग और एअर इंडिया की टीम भी जांच में एजंसियों की सहायता कर रही हैं। एअर इंडिया विमान दुर्घटना की जांच कर रहे अधिकारियों ने भी पुष्टि की है कि काकपिट वायस रिकार्डर मिल गया है।

इससे पहले, एएआइबी ने कहा था कि दुर्घटनाग्रस्त विमान का केवल फ्लाइट डेटा रिकार्डर (एफडीआर) ही बरामद किया जा सका है। अधिकारियों ने प्रधानमंत्री नरेंद्र मोदी के प्रधान सचिव पीके मिश्रा को सीवीआर बरामद होने की पुष्टि की, जिन्होंने रविवार को दुर्घटनास्थल का निरीक्षण किया और सिविल अस्पताल में घायलों से मुलाकात की। अधिकारियों ने मिश्रा को बताया कि फ्लाइट डेटा रिकार्डर (एफडीआर) और काकपिट वायस रिकार्डर (सीवीआर) का पता लगा लिया गया है और उन्हें सुरक्षित कर लिया गया है।

সুতীর্থ চক্রবর্তী

দুর্ঘটনা থেকে কোনও শিক্ষাই যে সরকার নেয় না, তার প্রমাণ আহমেদাবাদের বিমান দুর্ঘটনার ৭২ ঘণ্টার মধ্যে গুপ্তকাশীগামী হেলিকপ্টার এবং পুনেতে সেতু ভেঙে পড়া। আমাদের দুর্ভাগ্য যে, দুর্ঘটনার পরই ত্রুটিগুলিকে আড়াল এবং দোষীদের বাঁচানোর চেষ্টা শুরু হয়ে যায়। এই প্রশাসনিক গাফিলতির জবাব দেবে কে?

দায় নেবে কে?

আহমেদাবাদ সিভিল হাসপাতালের বেডে শুয়ে বি. জে. মেডিক্যাল কলেজের ডাক্তারি পড়ুয়া ধ্রুবিন কাপাডিয়া প্রধানমন্ত্রী নরেন্দ্র মোদিকে বলেছেন, 'যা করতে হয় করুন, আর যেন এমন না ঘটে।' এয়ার ইন্ডিয়ার লন্ডনগামী ড্রিমলাইনার ৭৮৭-৮ আহমেদাবাদের মেঘানিনগরে বি. জে. মেডিক্যাল কলেজের পড়ুয়াদের মেসের ছাদে আছড়ে পড়ার পর গুরুতর জখম হয়েছেন ধ্রুবিন। দুর্ঘটনার বীভৎসতায় সম্পূর্ণ বিধ্বস্ত ওই যুবক ডাক্তারি পড়ুয়া হাসপাতালের বিছানায় শুয়ে অস্ফুট স্বরে প্রধানমন্ত্রীকে যে-কথাটা বলতে পেরেছেন, সেটাই এখন সারা দেশের আওয়াজ। বারবার ঘটে চলা এই দুর্ঘটনা, এই মৃত্যুমিছিল ঠেকাতে যা-যা করা দরকার, সেটা আগে সরকার করুক।

একটা দুর্ঘটনা থেকে শিক্ষা নিয়ে যে সরকার কিছুই করে না, তার জলজ্যান্ত প্রমাণ তো আহমেদাবাদের বিমান দুর্ঘটনার ৭২ ঘণ্টার মধ্যেই মিলল। কেদারনাথ থেকে গুপ্তকাশী যাওয়ার পথে পর্যটক বোঝাই বেল ৪০৭ হেলিকপ্টারটি তো গৌরীকুণ্ডের জঙ্গলের উপর ভেঙে পড়ল প্রশাসনের গাফিলতিতেই। যেখানে আবহাওয়া খুব খারাপ ছিল, ঘন মেঘের জালে দৃশ্যমানতা ছিল না বললেই হয়, সেখানে কপ্টারটিকে ওড়ার অনুমতি দেওয়া হল কেন? ২০০১ সালে ঠিক এভাবেই খারাপ আবহাওয়ার মধ্যে ও দৃশ্যমানতা শূন্য থাকা সত্ত্বেও প্রাক্তন কেন্দ্রীয় মন্ত্রী ও কংগ্রেস নেতা মাধবরাও সিন্ধিয়ার ছোট বিমান ওড়ার অনুমতি দেওয়া হয়েছিল। শেষ পর্যন্ত যেটি দুর্ঘটনায় পড়ে। মাধবরাও নিজেই এক সময় দেশের বিমানমন্ত্রী ছিলেন। গত ৩০ এপ্রিল চারধাম যাত্রা শুরু হওয়ার পর নাকি এটি পঞ্চম হেলিকপ্টার দুর্ঘটনা! পঞ্চম দুর্ঘটনায় এক শিশু-সহ ছয় পর্যটক এবং পাইলটের মৃত্যুর পর এখন উত্তরাখণ্ডের সরকার বলছে আপাতত ওই এলাকায় হেলিকপ্টার পরিষেবা বন্ধ থাকবে। কেন্দ্রীয় বিমান মন্ত্রক সুরক্ষা ব্যবস্থা খতিয়ে দেখার পর ছাড়পত্র দিলেই ফের হেলিকপ্টার পরিষেবা চালু হবে। অর্থাৎ, এতদিন পর্যাপ্ত সুরক্ষা ছাড়াই ওই দুর্গম এলাকায় হেলিকপ্টার চলছিল! এই প্রশাসনিক গাফিলতির জবাব দেবে কে? ঘটনাচক্রে গুজরাতের মতো উত্তরাখণ্ডেও মোদির দলেরই সরকার।

পুনের পিম্পড়ি-চিঞ্চওয়াড় এলাকায় খরস্রোতা ইন্দ্রায়নী নদীর উপর পর্যটক বোঝাই সেতু ভেঙে পড়ার পর প্রায় তিন বছর আগে গুজরাতের মোরবিতে মাচ্ছু নদীর উপর সেতু ভেঙে পড়ার স্মৃতি ফিরে আসছে। ঠিক একই ভাবে প্রশাসনের চরম উদাসীনতায় মোরবি সেতুর উপর নিয়ন্ত্রণহীন ভিড় হয়ে গিয়েছিল পর্যটকদের। সেতু ভেঙে মৃত্যু হয়েছিল কমপক্ষে ১৪১ জনের। ব্রিটিশ আমলের সেতুটি ঘটনার কিছুদিন আগেই মেরামত করা হয়েছিল। ত্রুটি ছিল মেরামতেই। পুনেতে ব্রিটিশ আমলের সেতুটি মেরামতই করা হয়নি। 'বিপজ্জনক সেতু' লিখে একটি বোর্ড টাঙিয়ে দায় সেরেছিল প্রশাসন। যদিও লোনাভলায় বেড়াতে আসা পর্যটকরা নিয়মিত ভিড় করেন ওই সেতুতে। দুর্ঘটনার সময় ভিড়টা অতিরিক্ত হয়ে গিয়েছিল। মহারাষ্ট্রেও 'ডাবল ইঞ্জিনের' সরকার চলছে। প্রতিবেশী গুজরাতের মোরবি সেতু ভাঙার ঘটনা থেকে যে, কোনও শিক্ষাই মহারাষ্ট্র প্রশাসন গ্রহণ করেনি, তা বলা বাহুল্য।

আহমেদাবাদের বিমান দুর্ঘটনার তদন্তের দায়িত্ব পেয়েছে কেন্দ্রীয় বিমান মন্ত্রকের সংস্থা 'এয়ারক্রাফ্ট অ্যাক্সিডেন্ট ইনভেস্টিগেশন ব্যুরো' (এএআইবি)। 'ইন্টারন্যাশনাল সিভিল অ্যাভিয়েশন অর্গানাইজেশন'-এর প্রোটোকল এবং ২০১৭ সালের বিমান দুর্ঘটনার তদন্ত সংক্রান্ত বিধি মেনে এই তদন্ত হচ্ছে বলে কেন্দ্র জানিয়েছে। কিন্তু এই তদন্তের বিশ্বাসযোগ্যতা নিয়েই প্রশ্ন উঠেছে। কারণ কেন্দ্রীয় বিমান মন্ত্রকের অধীন সংস্থা 'এএআইবি' কীভাবে মন্ত্রকের গাফিলতির কথা বলবে, সেই প্রশ্ন রয়েছে। দেশে বিমান চলাচল এবং এয়ারলাইন্স সংস্থাগুলিকে নিয়ন্ত্রণ করে 'ডাইরেক্টরেট জেনারেল অফ সিভিল এভিয়েশন' (ডিজিসিএ)। এই 'ডিজিসিএ'-ও কেন্দ্রীয় বিমান মন্ত্রকের অধীন। ফলে 'ডিজিসিএ'-এর বিরুদ্ধেও এএআইবি-র মুখ খোলার সম্ভাবনা খুবই কম। অতীতেও একই ঘটনা দেখা গিয়েছে। স্বচ্ছ তদন্তের স্বার্থে 'এএআইবি'-কে কেন্দ্রীয় বিমান মন্ত্রকের অধীনে না-রেখে সম্পূর্ণ স্বাধীন একটি সংস্থায় কেন পরিণত করা হয় না, সেই জবাব পাওয়া যায় না।

আহমেদাবাদের ক্ষেত্রে যে বিমান রক্ষণাবেক্ষণের কাজে বড় ত্রুটি ছিল, তা বিশেষজ্ঞদের ঘটনার প্রাথমিক বিশ্লেষণে উঠে আসছে। সমগ্র ঘটনায় নাশকতাও থাকতে পারে। কিন্তু নাশকতার কারণটি বিশেষ গুরুত্ব পাচ্ছে না। পাইলট বা কো-পাইলটের ভুলের জেরে দুর্ঘটনা বলে একটি মহলের অভিমত রয়েছে। কেন ৬২৫ ফুট ওঠার পরেও বিমানের ল্যান্ডিং গিয়ার উঠল না এবং ডানার ফ্ল্যাপ খুলল না, সেই প্রশ্ন তুলছে এই মহলটি। বিমান দুর্ঘটনার পর সম্পূর্ণ দায় পাইলটদের উপর চাপিয়ে দেওয়া খুবই চিরাচরিত প্রথা। তাহলে অন্য সব গাফিলতি আড়ালে চলে যায়। তদন্তও তাড়াতাড়ি শেষ হয়। সাম্প্রতিক, কয়েকটি ট্রেন দুর্ঘটনার ক্ষেত্রেও দেখা গিয়েছে যে, চালকের মৃত্যু হলেই তাঁর ঘাড়ে সব দায় চাপিয়ে দেওয়ার একটা প্রবণতা। গত কয়েক বছরে আমরা দেশে অনেক বড়-বড় ট্রেন দুর্ঘটনাও প্রত্যক্ষ করেছি। এর মধ্যে করমণ্ডল এক্সপ্রেসের দুর্ঘটনাটি সবচেয়ে ভয়াবহ ছিল। এক্ষেত্রেও রেল কর্মী ও রেল প্রশাসনের গাফিলতির বিষয়টি সামনে এসেছিল। আহমেদাবাদে গাফিলতির বিষয়টি খুঁজতে গেলে আঙুল উঠবে ডিজিসিএ ও বিমান মন্ত্রকের দিকেও। সেটি কি মোদি প্রশাসন করতে দেবে?

মোদ্দাকথা, প্রশাসনিক শৈথিল্য ও গাফিলতি দূর করা না-গেলে দেশে রেল, ট্রেন, সেতু দুর্ঘটনা এড়ানো যাবে না। এক্ষেত্রে যে নিয়ন্ত্রক সংস্থাগুলি রয়েছে— সেগুলি ক্রমশ দুর্বল করে ফেলা হচ্ছে। গত কয়েক বছর ধরে এই প্রবণতা আগের চেয়ে বেশি। সংস্থাগুলিতে নতুন কর্মী নিয়োগ করা হচ্ছে না বললেই হয়। কিছু ক্ষেত্রে অর্ধেকের বেশি পদ শূন্য। সর্বত্র বেসরকারিকরণের প্রচেষ্টা চলছে। বেসরকারি সংস্থাগুলি মুনাফা সর্বোচ্চ করার জন্য কাজের গুণমান রক্ষায় আপস করে। যে অভিযোগ এয়ার ইন্ডিয়ার বেসরকারিকরণের পরেও উঠেছে। কিন্তু এয়ারলাইন্সের ক্ষেত্রে গুণমানের সঙ্গে সামান্য আপসের পরিণতি ভয়াবহ হতে বাধ্য।

আহমেদাবাদের দুর্ঘটনার পিছনে কী-কী প্রশাসনিক গাফিলতি ও প্রাতিষ্ঠানিক ত্রুটি সক্রিয় ছিল, তা খুঁজে বের করা প্রয়োজন। কিন্তু আমাদের দুর্ভাগ্য যে, দুর্ঘটনার পরই ত্রুটিগুলিকে আড়াল করার মরিয়া চেষ্টা শুরু হয়ে যায়। দোষীদের বাঁচানোর চেষ্টা শুরু হয়। তদন্ত সৎ ও আন্তরিকভাবে করা না-গেলে, দোষীদের চিহ্নিত না করা গেলে, ত্রুটিগুলি সংশোধন করার চেষ্টা না-হলে দুর্ঘটনার পুনরাবৃত্তি ঠেকানো যাবে না। ঘটনাক্রম থেকে স্পষ্ট যে, দেশে রেল, বিমান সফর ক্রমশ অনিশ্চিত হয়ে পড়ছে। রাস্তাঘাটে চলাফেরা এখন প্রাণ হাতে নিয়ে করতে হয়। দুর্ঘটনা ঘটলে মৃত্যুর সংখ্যা চেপে দেশের অগ্রগতি জাহির করে কাজের কাজ যে কিছুই হয় না, এই সত্যটা রাজনৈতিক কারণেই বোঝার চেষ্টা হয় না। মৃত্যুর সংখ্যা চেপে, প্রশাসনিক গাফিলতি আড়াল করে শুধু ভাবমূর্তি নির্মাণের চেষ্টা চললে কখনওই দুর্ঘটনা বন্ধ করা যাবে না। সাধারণ মানুষকে সেই তিমিরেই থাকতে হবে।
