BJP Questions Bloc's 'Double Standards'

Ranchi: A meeting over mining rights between Adani Group chairman Gautam Adani and Jharkhand CM Hemant Soren at the latter's Ranchi residence late on Friday has fuelled speculation of a rift in the INDIA bloc govt, with BJP questioning the grand old party's stand on the sudden bonhomie with the industrialist, whom it had targeted during polls. Opposition BJP asked whether the "jibes and allegations" against Adani by INDIA bloc during twin elections last year were only to score political mileage.

"The two-hour closed-door meeting centred around commercial mining in Adani's two coal blocks in Gondulpura (Hazaribag) and Godda, which is pending due to land acquisition and other mandatory statutory clearances, besides deliberations on future investment opportunities," a source said. The meeting was held a few days after Congress MLA and legislature party leader Pradip Yadav demanded a review of land acquisition by Adani for its 1,600 MW Godda thermal power plant, which is supplying power to Bangladesh.

After he claimed that it was done in "violation" of Santhal Pargana Tenancy (SPT) Act, the coalition govt led by JMM announced a special committee led by chief secretary Alka Tiwari to probe the matter. Adani was among the first companies to bag coal blocks in the state for commercial coal mining, but the projects are stuck due to pending statutory clearances. In Gondulpura, the company is also facing local resistance to land acquisition.

BJP spokesperson Pratul

Shahdeo said, "Meetings are good, but such meetings should also be taken as lessons. The way CM accorded a red carpet welcome to Gautam Adani, it seems that his and his party's jibes against the industrialist were only political to mislead people." Attacking Congress, he added, "The party whose leader Rahul Gandhi's only job day in and out is to attack Adani and Ambani must explain its stand now at the meeting."

Both JMM and Congress defended the meeting. "Our criticism wasn't person-specific but against BJP-led govt at Centre on its ways to appease a specific bunch of capitalists at the sake of countrymen, poor farmers, tribals, etc. Any right investments for the state to create jobs and development is always welcome," JMM spokesperson Manoj Pandey said.

Speaking to TOI, Congress's Yadav, who is vocal against Godda power plant for years, said Congress was never against good and positive investment. The meeting, however, raised eyebrows in state Congress camp as many said they were in dark. While the Adani Group didn't come up with any official communique, an official said the meeting was long overdue.

Gautam Adani's meeting with chief minister Hemant Soren fuels speculation

SHASHI SINGH

RANCHI, 29 MARCH

Billionaire Gautam Adani's meeting with Jharkhand Chief Minister Hemant Soren has stirred political circles in the state.

While the Chief Minister's office has described the meeting as a routine courtesy visit focused on investment-related matters, experts are offering various interpretations. The significance of this meeting lies in the fact that it marks Gautam Adani's first visit to Ranchi and his first-ever meeting with the Chief Minister since the state's formation. Sources suggest that the meeting lasted quite a while.

The Adani Group has made considerable investments in Jharkhand, with the Godda Power Plant being one of the most talked-about projects. Located in the Godda district, this plant generates electricity for Bangladesh.

It is important to highlight that the construction of the plant was marked by several disputes surrounding the land acquisition process, including protests from farmers concerning compensation matters.

The issue of the Godda-based Adani Power Plant was raised in the state assembly during the previous budget session.

Congress MLA Pradeep

Yadav brought the matter to light, alleging that the land acquisition for the power plant violated the Santhal Pargana Tenancy (SPT) Act. In response, Departmental Minister Deepak Birua announced the formation of an inquiry committee, to be led by the Chief Secretary.

The committee's mandate is to review both the land acquisition process and the Power Purchase Agreement (PPA).

Gautam Adani's meeting with Chief Minister Hemant Soren takes on significant importance, particularly because if the inquiry committee formed by the state government uncovers any irregularities in the land acquisition process, it could not only turn into a major political issue but also harm the Adani Group's reputation.

In addition to the Godda project, the Adani Group has been allocated a coal block in Gondalpur, Barkagaon, in Hazaribagh district. However, the company is facing significant challenges in land acquisition there as well.
