As the 25th International Indian Film Academy Awards (IIFA) unfolded in Jaipur, Bollywood icon Madhuri Dixit showered praise on Hrithik Roshan, calling him the "God of dance".

When asked who she considers the best dancer in Bollywood, she said, "I don't know. There are so many. In male dancers, my God, there are so many. There is Shahid, Tiger, Varun, Hrithik Roshan. I mean, he is God."

Reflecting on her long-standing association with IIFA, Madhuri shared her fond memories of the prestigious event and how it continues to grow as a grand celebration of Indian cinema.

"IIFA is like a family. We have been associated for so many years. And whenever we come here, we have a lot of fun. You know, we just celebrate each other's success."

She also spoke about the evolution of IIFA, the importance of awards, her love for performing on stage, and the recent re-release of her classic film 'Dil To Pagal Hai.' Reflecting on how IIFA has evolved over the years, she praised its global expansion and its decision to host the 25th edition in Rajasthan.
