In an outpouring of grief on social media, many celebrities condemned the targeted killing of innocent tourists in the terror attack on Tuesday.

"Words fail to express the sadness and anger at the treachery and inhumane act of violence that has occurred in Pahalgam. In times like these, one can only turn to God and say a prayer for the families that suffered and express my deepest condolences. May we as a Nation, stand united, strong and get justice against this heinous act," Shah Rukh posted on X.

Salman wrote, "Kashmir, heaven on planet earth turning into hell. Innocent people being targeted, my heart goes out to their families. Ek bhi innocent ko marna puri kainath ko marne ke barabar hai (Killing even one innocent person is equivalent to killing the whole universe)."

"Innocent lives lost. Tourists, families, people who were just...living. Seeking beauty. Seeking peace. And now there's only grief. And the unbearable weight of it. Every time something like this happens, it chips away at our shared humanity. May

Kalki Koechlin would love to make a film about 'ZNMD' character Natasha

Actress Kalki Koechlin, who was loved for playing Natasha Arora in the 2011 blockbuster Zindagi Na Milegi Dobara, said that she would love to make a film just about the character. Asked if she agrees that the character Natasha Arora, who was emotionally sensitive and caring, was also controlling and insecure deserves a stand-alone movie, Kalki told IANS: "In terms of Natasha, I would love to make a film just about her. I wonder what would happen to her."

Kalki believes that Natasha should focus on improving her mental health. She added: "I think maybe she should work on her mental health a little bit and find someone who genuinely cares about her." Talking about the sequel to Zindagi Na Milegi Dobara Kalki said: "I don't know if there's a part two of 'Zindagi Na Milegi Dobara.' I haven't heard about it personally, and I haven't received a script or anything yet. 'Zindagi Na Milegi Dobara' is a road comedy drama directed by Zoya Akhtar.

Apart from Kalki, the film also stars Hrithik Roshan, Abhay Deol, Farhan Akhtar and Katrina Kaif.

The film's story follows three childhood friends, Arjun, Kabir, and Imran, who reunite for a three-week road trip. They set off to Spain and meet Laila, who falls in love with Arjun and helps him overcome his compulsion to work.
