Patanjali Ayurved Under MCA Lens for 'Company Law Lapses'

Our Bureau

New Delhi: The ministry of corporate affairs (MCA) has initiated the process for a probe into the affairs of Patanjali Ayurved to ascertain if there have been any corporate governance or financial lapses there, a person aware of the development said.

The ministry is learnt to have sent a notice for this purpose to the company under Section 210 of the Companies Act.

This section empowers the government to launch a probe into a company in public interest, among other conditions.

The ministry's decision, said the person cited above, follows inputs from government agencies about alleged financial irregularities at the company.

In response to ET's query, a Patanjali Ayurved spokesperson said "no communication has been received so far" from the MCA on this issue. An email sent to the ministry remained unanswered until the paper went to press. In April 2024, Patanjali Foods, the listed unit of the closely-held Patanjali Ayurved, said it had received a show-cause notice from the Directorate General of GST Intelligence in Chandigarh over a ₹27.5 crore tax claim.

Earlier, the Supreme Court had also restrained the company from putting up misleading advertisements.

The ministry has in recent years stepped up its scrutiny of corporate governance and related lapses at companies. Recently, it has launched an investigation into Gensol Engineering for alleged fraud there.

NEW DELHI: The government on Friday authorised Ayush Export Promotion Council to issue certificates of origin for non-preferential trade. This certificate is essential to prove the place of origin of goods. The council was set up to boost exports of Ayush products. "Ayush Export Promotion Council (AYUSHEXCIL) is enlisted under Appendix 2E of FTP 2023 (Foreign Trade Policy) for issuing certificate of origin (non-preferential), with immediate effect," the Directorate General of Foreign Trade (DGFT) said in a public notice.

Does vajra twist yoga reduce belly fat? Experts weigh in

Yashaswi Kochar

Yong Cun, a popular Tai Chi practitioner, has piqued curiosity with a video that's gone viral on social media. In it, he demonstrates a Vajra twist and claims that doing it 30 times a day can help reduce belly fat. But how accurate is this claim?

What is the Vajra twist?

Traditionally, Vajrasana (Thunderbolt Pose) is a meditative yoga posture. The Vajra twist appears to be a modern variation combining elements of Vajrasana and Ushtrasana (Camel Pose), creating a gentle spinal twist. The Vajra twist has become popular and several Tai Chi practitioners have been incorporating it into their wellness routine.

Vajra twist helps you strengthen your core, but that doesn't mean it will reduce your belly fat. Belly fat cannot be reduced just by doing one exercise

– Rajesh Pavar, gym trainer

Variations of (above) Vajra twist include Vajra squat, Vajra kneeling, Vajra lunge, Vajra seated twist

Fitness Fundas

'To reduce belly fat, one has to focus on diet too'

The idea of spot reduction – losing fat from a specific part of the body by exercising that area – is widely considered a myth. Fat loss is systemic and requires a caloric deficit, usually achieved through a combination of diet, exercise, and proper rest. "To reduce belly fat, one has to focus on diet. You must take in fewer carbohydrates, avoid sugar and tea, reduce rice intake, and stop eating junk food," says Vishal Vaghela, a yoga trainer.

Pankaj Pasi, founder of a Vadodara-based gym, suggests integrating Vajra twist into a broader routine. "For best results, you can add it daily after workout sessions."

Fitness enthusiasts Ekta Vaishnav, a faculty member at an interior design institute, and Tanvi Buch, a landscape designer, feel, "A combination of yoga poses like Surya Namaskar, Cat-Cow, Sphinx, and Cobra can aid in reducing belly fat, while activities like walking, running, swimming, Zumba, aerobics, or any sport can significantly boost cardiovascular health."

Belly fat cannot be reduced by just one exercise, say experts

"There is nothing like Vajra twist; someone has created a variation of Vajrasana and Ushtrasana. This twist helps you reduce love handles and belly fat, strengthens your core and back, helps in spine flexibility and improves your digestion as well," says Vishal Vaghela.

All big hospitals in city to come under Ayushman scheme, says Delhi Govt

ANKITA UPADHYAY
NEW DELHI, MAY 30

ALL THE “big hospitals” of Delhi will now be brought under the Ayushman Bharat insurance umbrella in the next “20-25 days”, Health Minister Pankaj Singh told The Indian Express as the Rekha Gupta-led BJP government in the Capital completed 100 days in power Friday.

Singh’s remarks are significant because major private hospital groups in Delhi, such as Max, Fortis and Apollo, have not yet come on board the Ayushman Bharat Pradhan Mantri Jan Arogya Yojana (PM-JAY) — the scheme’s dashboard currently includes 82 other private hospitals, apart from 11 government facilities.

According to Singh, private hospitals in Delhi were hesitant to sign up because the previous AAP government did not clear pending payments under other schemes. “They did not make the payment on time from Delhi Arogya Nidhi (the financial assistance scheme run by the Directorate General of Health Services). Now I ensure that in the next 20-25 days, all the big hospitals will be empanelled under Ayushman Bharat. I will talk to them soon,” the Health Minister said.

Under Ayushman Bharat PMJAY, patients from poor households get health insurance of up to Rs 5 lakh, and Rs 5 lakh for patients above the age of 70. While Centre offers a cover of Rs 5 lakh, Chief Minister Rekha Gupta had said after her Cabinet’s first meeting that the Delhi government would provide an additional top-up of Rs 5 lakh to beneficiaries.

Records show that more than 3.16 lakh beneficiaries have been registered so far from poor households, and 30,000 above the age of 70. Beneficiaries for the scheme are selected on the basis of National Food Security Act (NFSA) data, and Socio Economic and Caste Census 2011. So far, 601 beneficiaries have availed services under the scheme, Singh said.

Healthcare representatives in Delhi, however, have called for a “reality check” before the scheme is expanded. Currently, of 62 private hospitals under Ayushman Bharat for which details are publicly available, nine are eyecare facilities while others offer services related to general medicine, general surgery, obstetrics and gynaecology, and cardiology.

Representing the Association of Healthcare Providers India (APHI), Dr Vipender Sabherwal, convenor for Ayushman Bharat, said, “We have been in touch with the Union Health Ministry and government officials on pricing and rates, which do not match the requirements of good hospitals with all facilities. The amount being offered is meagre and not practical. Even our payments were not made on time under Ayushman Bharat.”

Sabherwal said doctors’ associations would get in touch with the Delhi government for further discussions. AHPI represents about 15,000 private hospitals, including Fortis, Max Healthcare, Manipal, Medanta, Narayana and Apollo.

Meanwhile, the Delhi government is expected to launch 33 Jan Arogya Mandirs in place of AAP’s mohalla clinics and government dispensaries on Saturday under the Centre’s Pradhan Mantri Ayushman Bharat Health Infrastructure Mission scheme (PM-ABHIM).

Health Minister Singh had earlier said the government would open 200 such centres. Each Arogya Mandir is expected to provide 12 service packages, including maternal and child healthcare, vaccinations, mental health services, elderly care, and treatment for communicable diseases. Each facility is mandated to maintain an essential drug list of 256 medicines, with in-house tests for blood sugar, haemoglobin, blood group, urine and pregnancy, among others — 90 other tests will be outsourced to Agilus Lab.

Ayush Suraksha Portal launched to handle misleading advertisements

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ New Delhi

In a landmark step toward strengthening consumer protection and regulatory oversight in the field of traditional medicine, the Union Minister of Ayush Prataprao Jadhav, on Friday launched the Ayush Suraksha Portal at Ayush Bhawan. The portal was unveiled marking a significant moment in the Ministry's efforts to enhance accountability and transparency across the Ayush sector.

Speaking at the event, the Minister stated, "with the launch of the AyushSuraksha Portal, we are empowering citizens and professionals alike to become active participants in safeguarding the integrity of Ayush systems. This platform will serve as a vigilant watchtower against misleading advertisements and ensure that only safe and credible products reach the people." "The AyushSuraksha Portal represents a significant advancement in pharmacovigilance and regulatory convergence within the Ayush ecosystem. By integrating data from State Licensing Authorities, national pharmacovigilance centres, and key regulatory stakeholders, the portal facilitates real-time monitoring, systematic analysis and coordinated action on misleading advertisements and adverse drug reactions.

We have made it accessible to the public so that any citizen can directly report misleading ads or ADRs via the portal," said Vaidya Rajesh Kotecha, Secretary, Ministry of Ayush. The Ayush Suraksha Portal has been developed in accordance with the Supreme Court's order in 2024, emphasized the need for a centralised dashboard for monitoring and publishing data related to misleading advertisements and adverse drug reactions.

The Court directed the Union of India to ensure that such a system is established to allow State Licensing Authorities to report complaints, share inter-state referrals and update the status of actions taken.

The portal, developed with the technical support of the Central Council for Research in Siddha (CCRS) and aligned with the National Pharmacovigilance Program, allows consumers, healthcare professionals and regulatory authorities to report and monitor misleading advertisements and adverse drug reactions through a seamless digital process. A pre-launch training session for nodal officers from these organisations was successfully conducted on April 9, 2025, under the chairmanship of Dr Kousthubha Upadhyaya, Advisor, Ministry of Ayush.

Ayushman Aarogya Mandir funds diverted in Siddipet?

PNS ■ SIDDIPET

Funds allocated for public hygiene awareness are reportedly being misappropriated in Siddipet. Allegations have emerged that money intended for promoting the Ayushman Aarogya Mandir scheme is being diverted with the help of middlemen.

Fake bills are allegedly being generated in the name of mere formal advertisements, while the allocated funds are being siphoned off.

There are serious accusations against a senior official who is said to be harassing medical officers if money is not transferred to the accounts of these intermediaries.

The behaviour of the senior health officer in Siddipet seems to echo the old saying — "Who will guard the guards?" Instead of punishing lower-level officers for wrongdoing, he is allegedly committing the misdeeds.

It appears he operates under the assumption that no one dares to question his actions.

Critics claim that while officials show great enthusiasm for misusing public funds, they show little concern for actual public health.

One such misused programme is the Ayushman Aarogya Mandir, designed to raise awareness among rural populations about personal hygiene.

Under this scheme, posters, pamphlets, and patient registration materials were to be distributed at primary health centres across villages. For this purpose, the government allocated Rs 30 lakhs to 108 sub-centres in Siddipet district.

However, instead of reaching the intended centres, these funds reportedly ended up in the bank accounts of middlemen in Hyderabad, allegedly facilitated by the interference of senior officials.

Fake bills were created to show full-scale advertisement campaigns, while in reality, only token efforts were made.

When local medical officers were questioned, they distanced themselves from the issue, saying, "We're only following orders from the district-level authority."

SQUAT POSE

This pose may seem similar to Malasana (Garland Pose), but it is not. In this pose, the hips move internally, unlike the external rotation of the hips in Malasana. The squeezing of the arms around the knees puts pressure on the hips to move internally while flexing them, here. Those with tight hips, weak knees and ankles, and a big stomach may find Squat Pose more challenging than Malasana. It puts pressure on the hips, knees, and ankles, but with additional pressure on the abdominal muscles.

STEPS

- Stand in Mountain Pose Variation Feet Hip-Wide with the toes pointing outward.
- Keep your weight evenly distributed on both feet, the chest lifted and your spine in a neutral position.
- Begin to squat down, inhale, and lengthen your spine. Exhale, bend your knees and sit on the feet and soles. Maintain a controlled descent, avoiding any sudden or jerky movements.
- Keep your knees in line with the toes. Once are balanced, inhale and bring your arms around your legs and join your palms in Prayer Pose in front of the chest. Your elbows are wrapped around the knees and in line with the forearms parallel to the floor.
- Stay here in Squat Pose for about six breaths or as per the body's capacity. Soften your gaze and take slow-soft-smooth deep breaths.
- To release, inhale and bring your hands on the floor in front to slowly lift your hips up. Rise and align back in Tadasana Variation Feet Hips Wide. Or else you can sit down, lowering your hips on the floor. Gently straighten your legs out in front of you in Dandasana.
- Finally, relax in Staff Pose Hands Back Knees Bent.
- Tip: If your heels are off the floor, use a folded blanket/pillow/rolled mat under them.

BENEFITS

- Strengthens the muscles and ligaments involved in this contraction.
- Helps strengthen the muscles of the lower back, pelvis, abdomen, and legs.
- Lengthening of the spine helps to keep the hips neutral to a bit of internal rotation.
- Helps to reduce the weight on the knees and the ankles.
- Various muscles and joints involved gain strength, improve in the range of motion.
- It can be a counter pose after the practice of deep hip-opening yoga sequences, involving the core muscles.
- Helps relax the overstretched gluteus, hamstrings, and hip flexors in the yoga poses for external rotation of the hips.
- Helps in shaping the involved muscles related to the buttocks, thighs, and even the back.
- Can be included in postnatal yoga sequences.
- Included in yoga for feet and ankles, preparing the legs for deeper squats.
- Builds strength in the hips.
- Helps build strong, stable, and flexible hips, knees, and back.
- Good for a hunchback and stimulates internal organs.

LIMITATIONS

- Practitioners with very tight hips, weak knees and ankles, and pregnant women, peptic ulcers, abdominal hernia, and weak joints must avoid this pose.

आयुर्वेदिक दवाओं के भ्रामक विज्ञापन से निपटने के लिए पोर्टल किया लांच

जागरण ब्यूरो, नई दिल्ली

आयुर्वेदिक दवाओं के भ्रामक विज्ञापन के खिलाफ कार्रवाई सुनिश्चित करने के लिए आयुष मंत्रालय ने नया पोर्टल लांच किया है। इस पोर्टल पर कोई भी व्यक्ति भ्रामक विज्ञापन के खिलाफ शिकायत कर सकेगा और उस पर होने वाली कार्रवाई को मानिटर भी कर सकेगा। पोर्टल के साथ सभी नियामक एजेंसियों को भी जोड़ा गया है ताकि सभी एजेंसियां समन्वित तरीके से कार्रवाई कर सकें।

'आयुष सुरक्षा पोर्टल' लांच करते हुए आयुष मंत्री प्रताप राव जाधव ने कहा कि इससे आयुष क्षेत्र में जवाबदेही के साथ-साथ पारदर्शिता भी बढ़ेगी। आयुष सचिव वैद्य राजेश कोटेचा के अनुसार पोर्टल में फार्मा के विजलेंस और नियामक एजेंसियों को एक साथ लाया जाना सबसे अहम है। इससे भ्रामक विज्ञापन की जानकारी भी मिलेगी और उसके खिलाफ कार्रवाई भी सुनिश्चित होगी। पोर्टल में जनता की शिकायतों के लिए विशेष प्रबंध किया गया है ताकि भ्रामक विज्ञापनों के बारे में अधिक-अधिक जानकारी भी मिले और कार्रवाई भी हो।

उन्होंने कहा कि यह पोर्टल आयुर्वेदिक दवाओं के भ्रामक विज्ञापनों से जुड़े मामलों में राष्ट्रीय डैश बोर्ड का काम करेगा, जिसमें सभी शिकायतों और उनके खिलाफ कार्रवाई का डाटा एक जगह उपलब्ध होगा। ध्यान देने की बात
