Reliance Withdraws 'Operation Sindoor' Trademark Request

EVOCATIVE SYMBOL Co said it has no intention to claim rights, as it symbolises Indian bravery

Our Bureau

Mumbai: Reliance Industries (RIL) has decided to withdraw its application for trademarking the phrase 'Operation Sindoor', the company said on Thursday, a day after it made the filing.

RIL was among four applicants that made separate filings with the trademark registry on Wednesday to own trademark rights over the phrase, after the government announced hitting terrorist infrastructure in Pakistan and Pakistan-occupied Jammu and Kashmir under 'Operation Sindoor'.

RIL and the others — Mukesh Chetram Agrawal, retired Group Captain Kamal Singh Oberh and Alok Kothari — filed the application for trademark under Class 41.

Class 41 covers services related to education, entertainment, sports and cultural activities, said Ashish Pyasi, partner at law firm Aendri Legal. Registration under this section helps organisations working in these areas to protect their brand and sometimes their work.

"Reliance Industries has no intention of trademarking Operation Sindoor, a phrase which is now a part of the national consciousness as an evocative symbol of Indian bravery," the company said in a news release.

"Jio Studios, a unit of Reliance Industries, has withdrawn its trademark application, which was filed inadvertently by a junior person without authorisation," it added.

"Operation Sindoor is the proud achievement of our brave armed forces in India's uncompromising fight against the evil of terrorism," the company said.

RIL was among four applicants that made separate filings with the trademark registry on Wednesday

Media houses often register such titles to restrain others from making movies or other programmes with an identical or similar title, said Rahul Dhote, partner at law firm ANM Global.

"Titles based on similar events like 'Balakot: Surgical Strikes 2', 'Pulwama: Surgical Strikes 2', 'Pahalgam Files', 'Operation Safed Sagar' and 'Operation Khukri', have been either applied for or registered," Dhote said.

"Having said that, such applications pass through a rigorous examination process and are also rejected if they do not fit within the parameters of conditions for grant, including their distinctiveness," he added.

RIL aborts Operation Sindoor trademark bid

After backlash, Reliance says filing by junior staffer was not authorized Reliance Industries Ltd (RIL) applied for but later withdrew its application for a trademark for "Operation Sindoor", the code-name for India's strike against terrorist bases in Pakistan and Pakistan-occupied Kashmir.

JioStudios, a unit of Reliance Industries, said in a statement on Thursday afternoon that the application had been filed inadvertently by a junior person without authorization. Reliance Industries has no intention of trademarking Operation Sindoor, a phrase which is now part of the national consciousness as an evocative symbol of Indian bravery.

Reliance had applied for the word-type trademark under Class-41 on 7 May, the day of the military operation, information from the commerce ministry's trademark search portal showed. The firm's media and entertainment division offers news, entertainment, sports, movies and live entertainment across content formats.

Reliance Industries and all its stakeholders are "incredibly proud" of Operation Sindoor, which came about in response to a Pakistan-sponsored terrorist attack in Pahalgam, the company said on Thursday. "Operation Sindoor is the proud achievement of our brave Armed Forces in India's uncompromising fight against the evil of terrorism," it said. "Reliance stands fully in support of our government and armed forces in this fight against terrorism. Our commitment to the motto of 'INDIA FIRST' remains unwavering."

A Class-41 trademark would provide the holder with the rights to exclusively use the word-type trademark. Reliance proposed to use it for entertainment purposes, including production, presentation and distribution of audio, video, or still and moving images and data containing the

They are Mukesh Chetram Agrawal, based in Mumbai, Group Captain Kamal Singh Oberh (Retd) in Jammu, and Alok Kothari from New Delhi. The trademark application triggered public criticism on social media. "We hereby withdraw our application no. 6994264 in class 41 filed for the mark Operation Sindoor," RIL told the registrar of trademarks. "You are requested to take the withdrawal letter on record and pass the order treating the application as withdrawn," it added.

In securing a trademark, the registry examines applications for any existing use of the trademark. The registry may raise queries regarding the mark's usage and whether there are any similar prior marks. If the queries are resolved, the registry will accept the mark.

THIS CATEGORY typically covers entertainment and media services, including film production, online content, education, and cultural programming. Reliance's application had included intentions related to entertainment, publishing, and language training. In an official statement, Reliance distanced itself from the move, stating that neither the company nor its media arm, Jio Studios, had intended to commercialise the term.

"Jio Studios, a unit of Reliance Industries, has withdrawn its trademark application, which was filed inadvertently by a junior person without authorisation," the company said.

The company emphasised its respect for the codename Operation Sindoor, calling it a symbol of national courage. "Reliance Industries and all its stakeholders are incredibly proud of Operation Sindoor, which came about in response to a Pakistan-sponsored terrorist attack in Pahalagam," the statement added.

The filing, though brief, drew attention due to the sensitive nature of the term. Operation Sindoor has become emblematic of India's firm stand against terrorism, following the armed forces' swift action across the border. The fact that it was being considered for entertainment branding raised criticism on social media. Reliance reaffirmed its unwavering support for India's armed forces and the government's anti-terror efforts.

Facing backlash, Reliance exits bid to trademark 'Operation Sindoor'

Withdraws application by admitting its mistake, saying it was filed inadvertently by a junior person

Abhishek Law

Operation Sindoor — with its symbolic resonance of love and bravery — has stirred emotions and hearts in India.

Which is why when companies, including Reliance Industries, tried to cash in on the evocative code name of India's retaliatory strike by trying to trademark it, it met with huge social media backlash. So much so that a red-faced Reliance quickly withdrew its trademark request.

The company said the application was "filed inadvertently", admitting that it was a mistake. Apart from Reliance's, there are five other trademark requests still pending on the site.

The Reliance statement said: "Jio Studios has withdrawn its trademark application, which was filed inadvertently by a junior person without authorisation."

6 APPLICATIONS

Reliance clarified that all its stakeholders are incredibly proud of Operation Sindoor, carried out in response to the terrorist attack in Pahalgam.

On May 7 — the very day India carried out aerial strikes on Pakistan and PoJK terror sites — four different applications were made to trademark the phrase 'Operation Sindoor' under Class 41 of the Nice Classification.

This category includes services like films, shows, online content, education, cultural events and more. It is commonly used by OTT platforms, broadcasters and film-makers.

Two other applications, under Class 41, were made

THE RACE BEGINS. On May 7, when India carried out aerial strikes on Pakistan and PoJK terror sites, four applications were made to trademark the phrase 'Operation Sindoor' under Class 41 of the Nice Classification ^{ANI} on May 8 (Thursday). The official website of the Intellectual Property India shows that apart from Reliance, the three others who filed applications on Wednesday were Mukesh Chetram Agrawal, Group Captain (retired) Kamal Singh Oberh and Alok Kothari.

The two applications made on Thursday were from Jayaraj T (who has sought trademark for Operation Sindoor — Sindoor Yuddham) and from Uttam.

Two of the applications — by Jayaraj and Agrawal — have 'Send to Vienna Codification' as their status.

In trademark parlance, this indicates that the application has been sent to the Vienna Codification branch of the Trademark Registry for classification of figurative elements, such as logos or designs.

STATUS OF PLEAS

The other applications have "Formalities Chk Pass" as their status, which means the Trademark Registry has accepted the initial documents and they meet the basic requirements of the application.

In India, military operation names are not automatically protected as intellectual property. However, the Trade Marks Act, 1999, empowers the registry to reject trademarks for being misleading, offensive or contrary to public policy.

Reliance Industries on Thursday said that the conglomerate has no intention of trademarking 'Operation Sindoor', a phrase which is now a part of the national consciousness as an evocative symbol of Indian heroism.

Reliance Industry's official statement stated that the trademark application, "Operation Sindoor", a unit of Reliance Industries, has withdrawn its trademark application, which was filed inadvertently by a junior person without authorisation," Reliance Industries added in the statement.

The statement further adds "Reliance Industries and all its stakeholders are incredibly proud of Operation Sindoor, which came about in response to a Pakistan-sponsored terrorist attack in Pabalgam. Operation Sindoor is the proud achievement of our brave Armed Forces in India's uncompromising fight against the evil of terrorism. Reliance stands fully in support of our Government and Armed Forces in this fight against terrorism. Our commitment to the method 'INDIA FIRST' remains unwavering."

Earlier on May 7 following India's previous attack on terrorist sites in Pakistan named 'Operation Sindoor', several entities had filed trademark applications. The trade mark filings happened within hours of the military operations by the Indian Army on nine terrorist sites in Pakistan and Pakistan-Occupied Kashmir.

The phrase "Operation Sindoor" quickly gained international traction, with "Sindoor" symbolising sacrifice, valour, and deeply rooted cultural sentiment.

Reliance backtracks on Op Sindoor trademark

Reeba.Zachariah

Mumbai: Reliance Industries withdrew its application to trademark “Operation Sindoor” — the code-name for India’s military strikes on terrorist infrastructure in Pakistan — on Thursday after facing social media outrage.

On Wednesday, RIL filed an application with India’s patent registry under class 41, seeking to use the phrase for entertainment services like content creation, sporting activities, and live performances, shortly after India launched Operation Sindoor.

The company blamed a junior executive from Jio Studios, its entertainment arm, for inadvertently filing the application without authorisation. RIL said it has no intention to trademark Operation Sindoor.

The Communist Party of India posted on X: “After massive criticism and pressure, Reliance withdraws its application for the Operation Sindoor trademark. But why blame a junior functionary for what is the trademark of profit before all else?”

After RIL’s initial move, three more parties also filed for registration of the term on Wednesday. Mumbai resident Mukesh Chetram Agrawal, retired Air Force captain Kamal Singh Oberh, and Delhi-based lawyer Alok Kothari. The applications indicated they want to use the phrase commercially.

“Registering event terms as trademarks is not uncommon, but the number of such precedents is very low,” said Aendri Legal’s partner Ashish Pyasi. “Operation Sindoor as a trademark may not be granted by the patent registry because the event is now a historical event that occurred due to govt actions, not on account of any private person who can claim exclusivity,” Pyasi said.

In India, code names for military operations are not automatically protected. Govt does not register or sell these names.

Trademark rush after 'Op Sindoor': Reliance withdraws application; five still in race

SOHINI GHOSH
NEW DELHI, MAY 8

RELiance INDUSTRIES Ltd's (RIL) film studio arm sought to trademark the codename for India's strikes against Pakistan, 'Operation Sindoor', before withdrawing its application.

The conglomerate said in a statement Thursday: "Jio Studios, a unit of Reliance Industries, has withdrawn its trademark application, which was filed inadvertently by a junior person without authorisation".

It said: "Reliance Industries has no intention of trademarking Operation Sindoor, a phrase which is now a part of the national consciousness as an evocative symbol of Indian bravery".

But it's not just Jio Studios that attempted to trademark the codename. Five other people have filed trademark applications — a Mumbai resident, a retired Air Force officer, a Delhi-based advocate, a Kochi resident and an ad filmmaker.

A trademark would give its owner the rights to monopolise the name for movies and TV shows, among other forms of content. Section 11 of the Trademark Act also states that the first to use or the first to file for registration will be granted the trademark.

On May 7, four applications, including the one by Jio Studios, were filed before the Controller General of Patents, Designs and Trademarks.

Jio Studios' application was filed at 10.42 am — just hours after the Indian strikes — under Class 41 (trademark pertaining to education, providing of training, entertainment, sporting and cultural activities).

The second application was filed at 11.25 am by Mumbai-based Mukesh Chetram Agrawal. He sought registration of the wordmark, as well as the image, under Class 41 for a range of uses — including musical and cultural events, TV programmes and entertainment services.

It was filed through his advocate Ramchandra Mandhane. Mandhane said: "He is an industrialist, and this is the first time he is claiming a trademark in his personal name. I'm not aware of why he has filed, but maybe he wants to make a movie in the future. I'm not aware if he is already associated with the film industry."

At 12.16 pm, Retired Group Captain and Air Force Officer Kamal Singh Oberoi, a resident of Jammu & Kashmir, claimed a trademark on the word as a whole. His application details the use of the mark for "entertainment, film production, cultural activities, web series production".

The fourth application was filed at 6.27 pm by Delhi-based advocate Alok Kumar Kothari. He, too, sought the use of the wordmark for "education, providing of training; entertainment; sporting and cultural activities".

Kothari, who has been practicing at the Delhi High Court and trial courts since 2015, told The Indian Express: "This was a very instantaneous decision. I thought a movie would obviously be made on this. And I wondered when such movies are made, if profits really go to widows of paramilitary forces or the war widows. I want to make sure a part of it goes for their welfare. I will not keep a penny with me. My purpose is not at all commercial."

On May 8, two more applications for the trademark were filed.

The first one was at 1.11 pm by Kochi resident Jayaraj T. He sought the trademark registration under Class 9 (for protection for brand names, logos, and slogans used on electronic and scientific products) as well as under Class 41.

Under Class 9, Jayaraj sought branding rights over a range of instruments, including fire extinguishers, diving apparatus and scientific instruments. He is also seeking rights for the wordmark 'Operation Sindoor — Sindoor Yuddham' as well as a modified version of the military operation's logo that has the additional text 'Sindoor Yuddham'.

The last application, by Surat-based ad filmmaker Uttam Jaju, was filed minutes later, at 1.29 pm. He, too, sought registration under Class 41 for use of the wordmark in entertainment content, arranging "award ceremonies and gala evenings" for entertainment purposes, as well as for major corporations and individuals "who have made significant charitable contributions".

Jaju says he is "already in talks for a Hindi feature film".

Deeksha Anand, partner, and Ayush Dixit, senior associate, at Sujata Chaudhri IP Attorneys said India, like the US, uses the 'first-to-use' principle in trademarks. "If, say, four people are claiming the right over one mark, the law has been developed such that the person who has evidence to show use of the mark for their goods and services will have superior rights."

It said: "Reliance Industries has no intention of trademarking Operation Sindoor, a phrase which is now a part of the national consciousness as an evocative symbol of Indian bravery".

But it's not just Jio Studios that attempted to trademark the codename. Five other people have filed trademark applications — a Mumbai resident, a retired Air Force officer, a Delhi-based advocate, a Kochi resident and an ad filmmaker.

A trademark would give its owner the rights to monopolise the name for movies and TV shows, among other forms of content. Section 11 of the Trademark Act also states that the first to use or the first to file for registration will be granted the trademark.

On May 7, four applications, including the one by Jio Studios, were filed before the Controller General of Patents, Designs and Trademarks.

Jio Studios' application was filed at 10.42 am — just hours after the Indian strikes — under Class 41 (trademark pertaining to education, providing of training, entertainment, sporting and cultural activities).

The second application was filed at 11.25 am by Mumbai-based Mukesh Chetram Agrawal. He sought registration of the wordmark, as well as the image, under Class 41 for a range of uses — including musical and cultural events, TV programmes and entertainment services.

It was filed through his advocate Ramchandra Mandhane. Mandhane said: "He is an industrialist, and this is the first time he is claiming a trademark in his personal name. I'm not aware of why he has filed, but maybe he wants to make a movie in the future. I'm not aware if he is already associated with the film industry."

At 12.16 pm, Retired Group Captain and Air Force Officer Kamal Singh Oberoi, a resident of Jammu & Kashmir, claimed a trademark on the word as a whole. His application details the use of the mark for "entertainment, film production, cultural activities, web series production".

The fourth application was filed at 6.27 pm by Delhi-based advocate Alok Kumar Kothari. He, too, sought the use of the wordmark for "education, providing of training; entertainment; sporting and cultural activities".

Kothari, who has been practicing at the Delhi High Court and trial courts since 2015, told The Indian Express: "This was a very instantaneous decision. I thought a movie would obviously be made on this. And I wondered when such movies are made, if profits really go to the war widows. I want to make sure a part of it goes for their welfare. I will not keep a penny with me. My purpose is not at all commercial."

On May 8, two more applications for the trademark were filed.

The first one was at 1.11 pm by Kochi resident Jayaraj T. He sought the trademark registration under Class 9 (for protection for brand names, logos, and slogans used on electronic and scientific products) as well as under Class 41.

Under Class 9, Jayaraj sought branding rights over a range of instruments, including fire extinguishers, diving apparatus and scientific instruments. He is also seeking rights for the wordmark 'Operation Sindoor' — Sindoor as 'Yuddham' as well as a modified version of the military operation's logo that has the additional text 'Sindoor Yuddham'.

The last application, by Surat-based ad filmmaker Uttam Jaju, was filed minutes later, at 1.29 pm. He, too, sought registration under Class 41 for use of the wordmark in entertainment content, arranging "award ceremonies and gala evenings" for entertainment purposes, as well as for major corporations and individuals "who have made significant charitable contributions".

Jaju says he is "already in talks for a Hindi feature film".

Deeksha Anand, partner, and Ayush Dixit, senior associate, at Sujata Chaudhri IP Attorneys said India, like the US, uses the 'first-to-use' principle in trademarks. "If, say, four people are claiming the right over one mark, the law has been developed such that the person who has evidence to show use of the mark for their goods and services will have superior rights."

In the case of 'Operation Sindoor', however, the applications have been filed for the 'propose to be used' basis.

Anand and Dixit said: "This is an event in history and thus one cannot claim exclusive rights, the mark may not be capable of protection for exclusive rights."

As Section 9 of the Trademark Act, 1999 notes, a trademark cannot be registered only if "it is of such nature as to deceive the public or cause confusion; contains or comprises of any matter likely to hurt the religious susceptibilities of any class or section of the citizens of India; comprises or contains scandalous or obscene matter; or if its use is prohibited under the Emblems and Names (Prevention of Improper Use) Act, 1950 (12 of 1950)."

RIL withdraws trademark for Operation Sindoor

On May 7, Reliance Industries Ltd (RIL) applied to the Controller General of Designs and Trademarks to register the workmark 'Operation Sindoor', the name of the mission undertaken by the Indian armed forces during the night of May 6 and 7 to hit terrorist infrastructure in Pakistan and Pakistan-occupied Kashmir. However, they withdrew it within hours.

OPERATION SINDOOR, Mission Sindoor and Sindoor: The Revenge... Bollywood filmmakers and actors are in a rush to register film titles inspired by the codename for India's military strikes in Pakistan, submitting over 30 applications in just two days.

India carried out the targeted strikes on terror sites in Pakistan and Pakistan-occupied Kashmir early Wednesday under Operation Sindoor, two weeks after the massacre of 26 people, mostly tourists, in Jammu and Kashmir's Pahalgam.

Since the strikes, the Indian Motion Picture Producers Association (IMPPA), Indian Film and Television Producers Council (IPTPC) and Western India Film Producers' Association (WIFPA) have witnessed a surge in applications for registration of film titles related to Operation Sindoor.

"The three bodies have received over 30 title applications via email related to Operation Sindoor. The numbers will go up to 50-60. This is not something new. Most people have applied for the title Operation Sindoor and

Pay ₹3,000 plus GST and register the name of the next Bollywood blockbuster — Operation Sindoor, Mission Sindoor, Sindoor Ka Badla... Bollywood filmmakers line up to secure titles relating to the ongoing operation

Mission Sindoor.

"One person can apply for any number of titles but the title will be allotted to the person who has first applied for it. Any producer who wants to make a film looks for what is in the news. This is something India is proud of. So, filmmakers want to bring this story," Anil Nagrath, Secretary, IMPPA, said.

Nagrath said in the past, they had received title applications for Kargil, Uri, Kumbh and others.

The titles being applied for also include Hin- dustan Ka Sindoor, Mission Operation Sindoor and Sindoor Ka Badla. The applications have also been received for titles in the name of Pahalgam — Pahalgam: The Terror Attack, Pahalgam Attack and others.

According to sources, Aditya Dhar, who directed the 2019 film Uri: The Surgical Strike, based on the 2016 Uri attack and India's retaliatory strikes, as well as actor Suniel Shetty, filmmaker Madhur Bhandarkar, Vivek Agnihotri, Ashok Pandit, production banner T-Series are among those who have applied for the above mentioned titles.

"Once, the title is applied, a committee consisting of members IMPPA, IPTPC or WIFPA, and Producers Guild of India decides who should get the title purely on the basis of who registered it first. There's no favouritism in this process," Nagrath said.

The application fee for the registration of a title is set at Rs 300 plus GST and if it is on an urgent basis then it is Rs 3,000 plus GST.

"There's a timeline of three years. For instance, if the film is not ready within three years with the title, then the title will be taken away," Nagrath said.

Earlier in the day, it was reported that Reliance Industries Limited and five others had approached the Controller General of Patents Design and TradeMarks for the registration of term Operation Sindoor, seeking to use the phrase for entertainment-related services like audio and video content.

Reliance Industries Ltd later withdrew its application, stating that it was inadvertently filed by a junior employee without authorisation. —PTI

NEW DELHI, MAY 8

Reliance Industries on Thursday withdrew its application to register Operation Sindoor as a trademark, a day after submitting the request with the Office of the Controller General of Patents, Designs & Trade Marks.

The company clarified that the application was filed “inadvertently” by a junior employee without authorisation. “Reliance Industries has no intention of trademarking Operation Sindoor, a phrase that has become a part of the national consciousness as a symbol of India’s bravery,” it said.

Notably, four applications were filed to trademark the term — one by Reliance and three others by a Mumbai resident, a retired IAF officer and a Delhi-based lawyer. The requests sought to use the phrase for entertainment services, including audio-video content, education and training, film and media production, live events, digital content distribution, publishing and cultural or sporting activities.

This category is typically used by OTT platforms, production houses, broadcasters and event organisers, indicating potential interest in using Operation Sindoor as a title for films, web series, documentaries or other media projects. Reliance’s application specifically covered entertainment, publishing and language training services, as per details on the patent office’s website.

On a second thought and probable advise, Reliance Industries Ltd. (RIL) on Thursday withdrew its application for a patent on wordmark “Operation Sindoor” – the codename of India’s “precision strike” military action on terrorist infrastructure in Pakistan and PoK – a day after applying for it.

The Mukesh Ambani-led company said it had no intonation of trademarking the phrase and abided by its “India First commitment”.

“Reliance Industries has no intention of trademarking Operation Sindoor, a phrase which is now a part of the national consciousness as an evocative symbol of Indian bravery,” RIL said in a statement.

“Jio Studios, a unit of Reliance Industries, has withdrawn its trademark application, which was filed inadvertently by a junior person without authorisation,” it said. “Reliance Industries and all its stakeholders are incredibly proud of Operation Sindoor, which came about in response to a Pakistan-sponsored terrorist attack in Pahalgam,” it added.

“Operation Sindoor is the proud achievement of our brave Armed Forces in India’s uncompromising fight against the evil of terrorism,” the company stated. “Reliance stands fully in support of our government and armed forces in this fight against terrorism. Our commitment to the motto of ‘India First’ remains unwavering,” it added. Hours after news broke about the bombings in Pakistan and PoK, RIL and five others applied for trademarking the term on Wednesday. They had applied to the Office of the Controller General of Patents, Designs & Trade Marks, seeking to use the phrase in entertainment-related services, including audio and video content which could be produced as movies, documentaries and serials.

A retired Air Force officer, Group Captain Kamal Singh Oberh, and Alok Kothari, a Delhi High Court lawyer, are among the contenders after RIL pulled out. The others include Mukesh Chetram Agarwal and Jayaraj T.

While Mr. Kothari told The Hindu that he would give away all the profits from the movie to war widows, the retired Air Force officer said as someone who had worked in the forces and participated in operations, he would do justice to the title.

Reliance Industries on Thursday said that the conglomerate has no intention of trademarking ‘Operation Sindoor’, a phrase which is now a part of the national consciousness as an evocative symbol of Indian bravery.

Reliance Industry’s official statement stated that Jio Studios has withdrawn its trademark application.

“Jio Studios, a unit of Reliance Industries, has withdrawn its trademark application, which was filed inadvertently by a junior person without authorisation,” Reliance Industries added in the statement.

The statement further adds “Reliance Industries and all its stakeholders are incredibly proud of Operation Sindoor, which came about in response to a Pakistan-sponsored terrorist attack in Pahalgam. Reliance stands fully in support of our Government and Armed Forces in this fight against terrorism. Our commitment to the motto of ‘INDIA FIRST’ remains unwavering.”

Earlier on May 7 following India’s precision attack on terrorist sites in Pakistan named ‘Operation Sindoor’, several entities, had filed trademark applications. The trade mark filings happened within hours of the military operations by the Indian Army on nine terrorist sites in Pakistan and Pakistan-Occupied Kashmir.

The phrase “Operation Sindoor” quickly gained international traction, with “Sindoor” symbolising sacrifice, valour, and deeply rooted cultural sentiment.

The intellectual property of India application website of the commerce and Industry ministry shows four applications were filed between 10:42 am and 6:27 pm on May 7, 2025, for trademark applications under Class 41 of the Nice Classification, which covers education, entertainment, media, and cultural services.

Trademark rush for 'Operation Sindoor'; RIL files then withdraws application

GYANENDRA KESHRI
NEW DELHI, DHNS

At least four applications have been made, including by a unit of Reliance Industries and three individuals, to trademark 'Operation Sindoor' that would give its owner the right to monopolise the name for movie, television series or other cultural and entertainment businesses.

Jio Studios, a unit of Reliance Industries Limited, filed the trademark application on Wednesday morning, hours after the details about the 'Operation Sindoor' was announced by the Indian armed forces.

To avenge the barbaric April 22 Pahalgam terrorist attack, in which 25 Indians and one Nepali citizen were killed, India on the intervening night of May 6 and 7 launched the 'Operation Sindoor' hitting terrorist infrastructure in Pakistan and Pakistan-occupied Jammu and Kashmir.

Apart from Jio Studios several individuals also rushed to trademark the name. Individuals who have submitted applications to the trademark registry for registering 'Operation Sindoor' include a retired Air Force officer, a New Delhi-based advocate and a resident from Mumbai.

However, Mukesh Ambani-led Reliance Industries on Thursday announced withdrawal of the application saying it was "filed inadvertently by a junior person without authorisation."

"Reliance Industries has no intention of trademarking Operation Sindoor, a phrase which is now a part of the national consciousness as an evocative symbol of Indian bravery," Reliance Industries said in a statement.

"Jio Studios, a unit of Reliance Industries, has withdrawn its trademark application, which was filed inadvertently by a junior person without authorisation," it said.

"Reliance Industries and all its stakeholders are incredibly proud of Operation Sindoor, which came about in response to a Pakistan-sponsored terrorist attack in Pahalgam. Operation Sindoor is the proud achievement of our brave Armed Forces in India's uncompromising fight against the evil of terrorism," it added.

Advocate Amarnath, who specialises in corporate and trademark laws, said RIL's application was made under Class 41, which encompasses educational and entertainment services.

Other applications have also been made under the Trademark Class 41, which includes services connected with education, entertainment, sports, and cultural activities. The owner of the trademark can use the name for activities like educational programmes, training services, organising events, film production, and sports competitions, Amarnath said. "The most obvious purpose looks like naming a movie or TV serial," he added.

APPLICATION WAS FOR TERM 'OPERATION SINDOOR' RIL pulls down trademark request

OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Calcutta: Reliance Industries Ltd (RIL) has withdrawn a trademark application to register the term 'Operation Sindoor' a day after filing with the ministry of commerce amidst backlash on social media.

The company blamed a 'junior person' who filed the application 'inadvertently' and 'without authorisation'. The application was made by Jio Studios, a division of RIL, which produces content for OTT platforms, among others.

The application was made on May 7, the day when India launched 'Operation Sindoor' — the codename to military strikes in Pakistan, retaliating for the massacre of innocent tourists in Pahalgam, Kashmir on April 22. The registration of the term was sought for 'goods and services' under class 41 which covers education and entertainment services.

In India, trademark applications are filed with the Controller General of Patents Design & Trade Marks, under the department for promotion of industry and internal trade within the Union ministry of commerce. A total of 6 entities, including five individuals, have filed trademark applications of the term 'Operation Sindoor'. As of now only RIL's application stands withdrawn.

RIL had filed the application for entertainment, publishing, and language training, according to the scope of application.

A statement by RIL said it has 'no intention' of trademarking 'Operation Sindoor', a phrase which is now an evocative symbol of Indian bravery.

"RIL and all its stakeholders are incredibly proud of Operation Sindoor, which came about in response to a Pakistan-sponsored terrorist attack in Pahalgam. Operation Sindoor is the proud achievement of our brave armed forces in India's uncompromising fight against the evil of terrorism," it said in the afternoon.

In the evening, Mukesh Ambani, chairman of RIL, issued a statement in praise of the military action. However, there was no mention of the earlier gaffe of the company.

"We are very proud of our Indian Armed Forces for Operation Sindoor", Ambani said, adding the Reliance family is ready to support any measure in protecting our nation's unity and integrity.

Reliance withdraws trademark request for Operation Sindoor

AGENCIES

NEW DELHI: Reliance Industries on Thursday withdrew its application to register 'Operation Sindoor' as a trademark, a day after it had submitted the request with Office of Controller General of Patents, Designs and Trade Marks.

The company, in a statement, said the application was filed "inadvertently" by a junior person without authorisation.

"Reliance Industries has no intention of trademarking 'Operation Sindoor', a phrase which is now a part of the national consciousness as an evocative symbol of Indian bravery," the company said.

Notably, as many as four applications, including one by Reliance and three more by a Mumbai resident, a retired Indian Air Force officer and a Delhi-based lawyer, were filed to use the phrase for entertainment-related services like audio and video content, which includes education and training services, film and media production, live performances and events, digital content delivery and publishing, and cultural and sporting activities.

The category is often used by OTT platforms, production houses, broadcasters, and event companies, suggesting that 'Operation Sindoor' could have become a film title, web series or documentary brand. Reliance filed the application for entertainment, publishing, and language training, according to the scope of application claimed by the applicants shown on the Controller General of Patents, Designs and Trade Marks.

The Mukesh Ambani-run firm stated that all its stakeholders are incredibly proud of Operation Sindoor, which came about in response to a Pakistan-sponsored terrorist attack in Pahalgam.

"'Operation Sindoor' is the proud achievement of our brave armed forces in India's uncompromising fight against the evil of terrorism. Reliance stands fully in support of our government and armed forces in this fight against terrorism," it said.

Reliance withdraws Operation Sindoor trademark application

Mumbai, May 9:

Reliance Industries Ltd has withdrawn its trademark application for the term 'Operation Sindoor' - the codename for India's military strikes in Pakistan - stating that it was inadvertently filed by a junior employee without authorisation.

In a statement, Reliance said it has no intention of "trademarking Operation Sindoor, a phrase which is now a part of the national consciousness as an evocative symbol of Indian bravery".

Earlier, four applications, including one by Reliance, were filed with the Office of the Controller General of Patents, Designs & Trade Marks on Wednesday, seeking to use the phrase for entertainment-related services like audio and video content.

All four applicants filed between 10.42 am and 6.27 pm on May 7 for registration under Class 41 of the Nice Classification, which includes

रिलायन्स इंडस्ट्रीज कंपनीचे स्पष्टीकरण

‘ऑपरेशन सिंदूर’चा ट्रेडमार्क करण्याचा कोणताही हेतू नाही

◆ मुंबई (प्रतिनिधी):

ऑपरेशन सिंदूरचा ट्रेडमार्क करण्याचा कोणताही हेतू नसल्याचे रिलायन्स इंडस्ट्रीजकडून स्पष्टीकरण दिले आहे. भारतीय सैन्याने ‘ऑपरेशन सिंदूर’ मोहीम राबवित पाकिस्तानमधून दहशतवादी तळ उद्ध्वस्त केले आहेत. भारतीय सैन्याने केलेल्या या कामगिरीचे देशभरातून कौतुक होत आहे. या घटनेवर लावकार पब्लिश्ट वॉरेल, अशी चर्चा आता सोशल मीडियावर सुरू झाली आहे. याचदरम्यान, उद्योगपती मुकेश अंबानी यांची कंपनी रिलायन्स इंडस्ट्रीज लिमिटेडनं (RIL) ‘ऑपरेशन सिंदूर’ नावाचा ट्रेडमार्क आपल्या नावे करण्यासाठी अर्ज करण्याची

जातची प्रसिद्ध झाली होती. रिलायन्सच्या या निर्वाचावर टीका सुरू झाल्यानंतर कंपनीने यावर निवर्तन प्रसिद्ध करत स्पष्टीकरण दिले आहे. रिलायन्स इंडस्ट्रीजचा ‘ऑपरेशन सिंदूर’ या शब्दाचे ट्रेडमार्क करण्याचा कोणताही हेतू नाही. हा शब्द आता राष्ट्रीय भेताचा घन बनत असून तो भारतीय सैन्याचे प्रेरणादायी प्रतीक आहे. जिओ स्टुडिओज,

हे रिलायन्स इंडस्ट्रीजचा एक भाग आहे, त्याने त्याचा ट्रेडमार्क अर्ज मागे घेतला आहे. हा अर्ज एकर कनिष्ठ व्यक्तीने अशिक्षित परवानाशिवाय दाखल केला होता. रिलायन्स इंडस्ट्रीज आणि त्याचे सर्व हितधारक ‘ऑपरेशन सिंदूर’चा खूप अभिमान बाळगतात. हे ऑपरेशन पाकिस्तान पुरस्कृत पहलमामध्ये केलेल्या दहशतवादी हत्येच्या प्रत्युत्तरात करण्यात आले आहे. ‘ऑपरेशन सिंदूर’ हे आपल्या शूर सशस्त्र दलांनी दहशतवादविरोध केलेल्या निर्भीड लढ्याचे गौरवस्वरूप आहे. दहशतवादविरोध या लढाईत रिलायन्स पूर्णपणे आपल्या सरकार आणि सशस्त्र दलांच्या पाठीशी उभी आहे. ‘इंडिया फर्स्ट’

या अभ्यास बीरवाक्याप्रती आमची बांधिलकी अटळ आहे. हे नाव यापूर्वी कोणी घेतलेय की नाही याची पडताळणी ट्रेडमार्क रजिस्ट्रारने केली आहे. जर कोणतीही हरकत आली नाही, तर सरकारच्या ट्रेडमार्क जनरलमध्ये हे छापले जाईल. यानंतर ४ महिन्यांपेक्षा कोणत्याही व्यक्तीला हरकत असल्यास ती नोंदवता येईल. सर्वकाही ठीक असेल, तर ट्रेडमार्क अर्जाद्वारे मिळते. रिलायन्सच्याविरुद्ध मुंबईचे मुकेश भेतराम अग्रवाल, जम्मूचे गुप कॅप्टन कमल शिंग (निवृत्त) आणि दिल्लीचे आनंद कोठारी यांनी याच नावासाठी अर्ज केले असल्याची माहिती समोर आली आहे.

रिलायंस ने 'ऑपरेशन सिंदूर' ट्रेडमार्क के लिए अपना आवेदन लिया वापस

'रिलायंस इंडस्ट्रीज लिमिटेड (आरआईएल)' ने यह कहते हुए 'ऑपरेशन सिंदूर' शब्द के लिए अपना ट्रेडमार्क आवेदन वापस ले लिया है कि उसके एक कनिष्ठ अधिकारी ने अनजाने में यह आवेदन दे दिया था, जबकि इसके लिए वह अधिकृत नहीं था। 'रिलायंस' ने एक बयान में कहा कि उसका "ऑपरेशन सिंदूर (शब्द) को ट्रेडमार्क बनाने का कोई इरादा नहीं है। यह एक ऐसा शब्द है, जो अब भारतीय बहादुरी के एक प्रतीक के रूप में राष्ट्रीय चेतना का हिस्सा बन गया है।" भारतीय सशस्त्रबलों ने पाकिस्तान में आतंकवादियों के विरुद्ध जो कार्रवाई की है उसे 'ऑपरेशन सिंदूर' नाम दिया गया है।

रिलायंस ने कहा, "रिलायंस इंडस्ट्रीज की इकाई जियो स्टूडियो ने अपना ट्रेडमार्क आवेदन वापस ले लिया है, जिसे एक कनिष्ठ

દેશની એકતા અને અખંડિતતાનું રક્ષણ કરવા માટે કોઈ પણ પ્રકારના સમર્થનથી લઈને મદદ આપવા તૈયાર : મુકેશ અંબાણી

કંપનીએ જણાવ્યું હતું કે તેના જુનિયર અધિકારીએ મંજૂરી વગર આ પ્રકારની અરજી ફાઈલ કરી હતી.

૭ મેના રોજ સવારે ૧૦-૪૨ થી સાંજે ૬-૨૭ વાગ્યાની વચ્ચે 'ઓપરેશન સિંદૂર' નામ માટે પાંચ અલગ-અલગ ટ્રેડમાર્ક અરજીઓ દાખલ કરવામાં આવી હતી. અરજદારોમાં મુંબઈના રહેવાસી મુકેશ ચેતરામ અગ્રવાલ, નિવૃત્ત ભારતીય વાયુસેના શ્રુપ કેપ્ટન કમલ સિંહ ઓબેરોય અને દિલ્હી સ્થિત વકીલ આલોક કોઠારીનો સમાવેશ થાય છે. કંપનીના ચેરમેન મુકેશ અંબાણીએ જણાવ્યું હતું કે તેઓ દેશની એકતા અને અખંડિતતાનું સંરક્ષણ કરવા માટે કોઈ પણ પ્રકારનું સમર્થન પૂરું પાડવા તૈયાર છે.

સમાચાર અહેવાલ મુજબ, ત્રણ અરજીઓમાં નામનો ઉલ્લેખ 'ઉપયોગ

માટે પ્રસ્તાવિત' તરીકે કરવામાં આવ્યો (અનુસંધાન ૧૧મા પાને)

રિલાયન્સ સહિત

(ત્રીજા પાનાનું ચાલું)

છે, જે દર્શાવે છે કે ભવિષ્યમાં તેનો વ્યાપારી રીતે ઉપયોગ થઈ શકે છે.

આ વર્ગનો ઉપયોગ સામાન્ય રીતે ઓટીટી પ્લેટફોર્મ, પ્રોડક્શન હાઉસ, બ્રોડકાસ્ટર્સ અને ઇવેન્ટ આયોજકો દ્વારા કરવામાં આવે છે. આના પરથી અનુમાન લગાવી શકાય છે કે ‘ઓપરેશન સિંદૂર’ ભવિષ્યમાં કોઈ ફિલ્મ, વેબ સિરીઝ કે ડોક્યુમેન્ટરીના નામ તરીકે જોવામાં આવી શકે છે.

‘সিন্দুর’ দখলে ট্রেডমার্কের বিতর্ক! সরলো রিলায়েন্স

এই সময়: পহেলাগামের জঙ্গিহানার বদলা নিতে মঙ্গলবার রাতেই ভারতীয় সেনা শুরু করেছে ‘অপারেশন সিন্দুর’। এই নামটা সে দিন রাতেই ভাইরাল হয়েছিল। বৃহস্পতিবার প্রতিরক্ষামন্ত্রী রাজনাথ সিং জানিয়ে দিয়েছেন, এই অপারেশন শেষ হয়নি, এটা চলবে। ভারত-পাকিস্তানের মধ্যে এই চূড়ান্ত টানাগড়নের মধ্যেও আলাদা একটা যুদ্ধ শুরু হয়েছে। সেটা হলো ‘অপারেশন সিন্দুর’ এই শব্দবন্ধের ট্রেডমার্ক দখল করবে কে? এই তালিকায় সবচেয়ে উল্লেখযোগ্য নাম ছিল মুকেশ আধানির রিলায়েন্স ইন্ডাস্ট্রিজ লিমিটেড। তার বাইরেও আরও তিন ব্যক্তি বা সংস্থা এই ট্রেডমার্ক পাওয়ার জন্য বাঁপায়। আধানির সংস্থাকে নিয়ে শুরু হয় রাজনৈতিক চাপানউতোরও। শেষমেশ বিতর্কের মুখে রিলায়েন্স তাদের আবেদন প্রত্যাহার করে নেয়। তাতে অবশ্য বিতর্ক পুরোপুরি থামেনি।

মঙ্গলবার মধ্যরাত্রে পাকিস্তানে প্রত্যাহারের পরে গোটা ঘটনাক্রম সংবাদমাধ্যমকে জানাতে বৃহবার সকাল সাড়ে ১০টা নাগাদ বৈঠক শুরু করে ভারত সরকার। বিশেষসচিব বিক্রম মিশ্রি ছাড়াও সাংবাদিক বৈঠকে উপস্থিত ছিলেন উইং কমান্ডার ব্যোমিকা সিং এবং কর্নেল সোফিয়া কুরেশি। কেন্দ্রীয় শিল্প ও বাণিজ্য মন্ত্রকের ওয়েবসাইটের তথ্য অনুযায়ী, ওই বৈঠক চলাকালীনই বৃহবার সকাল ১০টা ৪২ মিনিটে ‘অপারেশন সিন্দুর’-এর ট্রেডমার্ক পাওয়ার জন্য প্রথম আবেদন করে রিলায়েন্স ইন্ডাস্ট্রিজ। তার ঠিক এক ঘণ্টার মধ্যে বৃহবার সকাল ১১টা ২৫ মিনিটে ট্রেডমার্কের জন্য আবেদন করেন মুম্বইয়ের অধিবাসী মুকেশ চেন্নম আগরওয়াল। বেলা ১১টা ২৬ মিনিটে আবেদন জানান ভারতীয় সেনাবাহিনীর অবসরপ্রাপ্ত প্রপ ক্যাপ্টেন কমল সিং ওবের। সন্ধ্যা ৬টা ২৭ মিনিটে ট্রেডমার্কের জন্য আবেদন করেন

দিবির আইনজীবী অলোক কোঠারি। মুকেশ আগরওয়াল ছাড়া বাকি তিন আবেদনকারীই ওই শব্দের ট্রেডমার্ক চেয়েছেন বলে দেখা যায়। মুকেশের সংস্থা শুধুমাত্র ‘ডিভাইস’-এর জন্য ট্রেডমার্কের আবেদন করেন। যদিও জানা যায়, প্রত্যেকেই মনোরঞ্জন, চলচ্চিত্র, ওয়েব সিরিজ নির্মাণ, শিক্ষা সংক্রান্ত প্রশিক্ষণ এবং প্রকাশনার জন্য ট্রেডমার্কের আবেদন করেছেন।

তীব্র সমালোচনা

ওয়াকিবহাল মহলের একাংশের বক্তব্য, ভারতীয় সেনার ‘অপারেশন সিন্দুর’ দেশবাসীর মধ্যে যে আবেগের সঞ্চার করেছে, তাকে বাণিজ্যিক ভাবে কাজে লাগাতে মুকেশ আধানির রিলায়েন্স ইন্ডাস্ট্রিজ লিমিটেড সমেত তিন জন এই শব্দবন্ধ ট্রেডমার্কের জন্য আবেদন করে। যদিও বৃহস্পতিবার এক বিবৃতিতে মুকেশ আধানির সংস্থাটি

বলেছে, ‘রিলায়েন্স ইন্ডাস্ট্রিজের একটি শাখা— জিও স্টুডিওজ তাদের ট্রেডমার্কের আবেদন তুলে নিয়েছে। উর্ধ্বতন কর্তৃপক্ষের অনুমতি ছাড়াই সংস্থার এক জনিয়ার কর্মী অনবধানতাবশত এই আবেদন করে ফেলেছিলেন।’ রিলায়েন্স ইন্ডাস্ট্রিজ এবং সংস্থার সঙ্গে প্রত্যক্ষ বা পরোক্ষ ভাবে জড়িত প্রত্যেকে ‘অপারেশন সিন্দুর’ নিয়ে অত্যন্ত গর্বিত বলেও জানানো হয়েছে।

তবে রিলায়েন্সের আবেদন করার খবর সামনে আসায় এর মধ্যেই বিষয়টি নিয়ে তীব্র রাজনৈতিক প্রতিক্রিয়া দেখা দেয়। রাজনাথ সিং-কে চিঠি লিখে রিলায়েন্স গোষ্ঠীর বিরুদ্ধে অভিযোগ দায়ের করেন কংগ্রেসের ওয়ারিং কমিটির সদস্য অধীর চৌধুরী। রিলায়েন্সের এই কাজকে ‘পলিটিক্যাল রাসফেমি’ বলে চিহ্নিত করেছেন কংগ্রেসের প্রাক্তন লোকসভার দলনেতা। এই চিঠিতে অধীর লিখেছেন,

‘অপারেশন সিন্দুর’ শব্দবন্ধ প্রতিরক্ষা মন্ত্রক এবং সেনার ইন্টেলেকচুয়াল প্রপার্টি হিসেবে রক্ষা করতে হবে। কোনও রাজনৈতিক অথবা বাণিজ্যিক সংস্থা যাতে নিজেদের স্বার্থে এটা ব্যবহার না-করতে পারে তা নিশ্চিত করতে হবে।’

রিলায়েন্সের এই কাজকে ‘জঘন্য’ বলে সমালোচনা করেছেন তৃণমূলের রাজ্যসভার সাংসদ সাকেত গোলোও। তিনি এক হ্যাভলে লিখেছেন, ‘জম্মু-কাশ্মীরে যখন পাকিস্তানি গোলাতে সাধারণ মানুষ মারা যাচ্ছেন, দেশের বীর জওয়ানরা জীবন বাজি রেখে নিশ্চন্দে তাদের কাজ করছেন, সেই পরিস্থিতিতে টাকা কামানোর নির্লজ্জ দৌড় শুরু হয়েছে। জঘন্য।’ সিপিএমের ফেসবুক পেজে প্রশ্ন তোলা হয়েছে, ‘তীব্র সমালোচনা ও চাপের মুখে রিলায়েন্স এই ট্রেডমার্ক আবেদন প্রত্যাহার করেছে। কিন্তু এক জনিয়ার কর্মীর ঘাড়ে কেন দায় চাপানো হলো?’ যদিও বিজেপি

নেতারা স্বতঃপ্রণোদিত ভাবে রিলায়েন্স গোষ্ঠীর এই কাজের সমালোচনা করে কোনও কড়া বিবৃতি দেননি। বিজেপির রাজ্যসভার সাংসদ শমীক ভট্টাচার্যের বক্তব্য, ‘অবচীনের মতো কাজ করা হয়েছে। যদি কোনও জনিয়ার কর্মী এই কাজ করে তাঁর চাকরি থাক, কিন্তু তাঁর মানসিক চিকিৎসা করা হোক। কিন্তু তৃণমূল তো সার্জিক্যাল স্ট্রাইক নিয়ে প্রশ্ন তুলেছিল। ফলে ওদের এই বিষয়ে কথা বলা মানায় না।’ সোশ্যাল মিডিয়াতেও তীব্র সমালোচনা, কটাক্ষ, বিক্রপের মুখে পড়েছে দেশের বহুতম এই শিল্পগোষ্ঠী। আইন অনুযায়ী, কোনও সংস্থা বা ব্যক্তি প্রথমে আবেদন করলেই যে ট্রেডমার্ক পাবেন, তেমনটা হওয়ার কোনও নিশ্চয়তা নেই। কারণ, প্রথমে ট্রেডমার্কের জন্য নাম নথিভুক্ত করতে হয়। তার পর তা জানালে প্রকাশ করতে হয়। কেউ আপত্তি জানালে, তা খতিয়ে দেখে শিল্প ও বাণিজ্য মন্ত্রক। তার পরে সব ঠিক থাকলে ট্রেডমার্ক দেওয়া হয়।

‘অপারেশন সিঁদুর’-র একচেটিয়া মালিকানা চান আশ্বানি

তীব্র সমালোচনার মুখে ট্রেডমার্ক আবেদন প্রত্যাহার

নয়াদিল্লি, ৮ মে— অপারেশন সিঁদুর এখনও চলছে। বৃহস্পতিবার সর্বদলীয় বৈঠকে প্রতিরক্ষা মন্ত্রী রাজনাথ সিং তা স্পষ্ট করেছেন। এদিকে বুধবার এই নামের ‘ট্রেডমার্ক’-র মালিকানার জন্য কেন্দ্রের কাছে আবেদন করেন মৌদী ঘনিষ্ঠ শিল্পপতি মুকেশ আশ্বানির ফিল্ম প্রযোজনা সংস্থা ‘জিও স্টুডিওস’। এই নাম ব্যবহারের একচেটিয়া অধিকারের দাবি করেছে জিও সহ আরও তিনটি সংস্থা দাবি করেছে। বিনোদন শিল্প, ভিডিও অডিও উৎপাদন এবং তার বাণিজ্যিক সম্প্রচারে এই নাম ব্যবহারের আবেদন করা হয়েছে। তীব্র সমালোচনার মুখে, বৃহস্পতিবার আশ্বানির এই সংস্থা বাধ্য হয়ে এই আবেদন প্রত্যাহার করেছে।

মঙ্গলবার শেষ রাতে

পাকিস্তানের ৯টি সন্ত্রাসবাদী পরিকাঠামোয় ভারতের হামলার কয়েক ঘণ্টার মধ্যে বুধবার সকাল সাড়ে দশটার মধ্যেই পরপর এই চারটি আবেদনপত্র জমা পড়েছে কেন্দ্রীয় বাণিজ্য ও শিল্প মন্ত্রকের অধীনস্থ কন্ট্রোলার অব প্যাটেন্টস ডিজাইনস অ্যান্ড ট্রেডমার্কসের সদর দপ্তরে। প্রত্যেকটি আবেদনই বিনোদন শিল্প ও তার সংলগ্ন বাণিজ্যিক ব্যবহারের স্বার্থে। সুতরাং অনুমান করা হচ্ছে, এই জিও স্টুডিওজ’র মতো বাকি তিনটি সংস্থাও মূলত সিনেমা প্রযোজনা সংস্থা। ওটিটি প্ল্যাটফর্ম চালানো, চলচ্চিত্র প্রযোজনা, টিভি সম্প্রচার, সহ বিনোদন শিল্পের আরও বিভিন্ন কাজের সঙ্গে তারা যুক্ত। অর্থাৎ আগামী দিনে ‘অপারেশন সিঁদুর’ নাম দিয়ে কোনও ওয়েব সিরিজ, সিনেমা এমনকি গানও যদি তৈরি

হয়, আশ্বানির এই সংস্থা তার সম্প্রচার ও প্রযোজনায় একচেটিয়া মালিকানা চাইছে।

বৃহস্পতিবারের মধ্যেই এই খবর প্রচারে আসে। তারপরেই বিভিন্ন মহলে নিদ্দার বাড় ওঠে। এক নৃশংস সন্ত্রাসবাদী হামলা এবং তার প্রত্যাহাতে ভারতের সামরিক অভিযানের নাম ব্যবহার করে মুনাফা করতে চাইছেন আশ্বানি। এমনই অভিযোগ করা হয়েছে। যুদ্ধ, মৃত্যু এবং আপনজন হারানোর বেদনাকে সংকীর্ণ ব্যবসায়িক স্বার্থে ব্যবহার করতে চাইছে জিও স্টুডিওজ। অভিযোগ করেছেন নেটিজেনদের বড় অংশ। উঠেছে জিও স্টুডিওজ’কে ‘বয়কট’ করার ডাকও। আশ্বানির ঘোষিত ‘মোটাভাই’ মৌদীর পরোক্ষ আশ্বাসেই কি এই আবেদন করা হয়েছে, উঠেছে এমনই প্রশ্ন।

তীব্র সমালোচনার মুখে বাধ্য হয়ে বৃহস্পতিবার এই আবেদন প্রত্যাহার করেছে জিও স্টুডিওজ’র পৃষ্ঠপোষক সংস্থা রিলায়েন্স ইন্ডাস্ট্রিজ লিমিটেড। দেশের প্রতি তাদের দায়বদ্ধতা অটুট বলে দাবি করে, এক নিম্নপদস্থ আধিকারিকের উপর দোষ চাপিয়েছে রিলায়েন্স। উচ্চ পর্যায়ের অনুমোদন ছাড়াই তিনি এই ট্রেডমার্কের মালিকানার আবেদন করেন বলে এই বিবৃতিতে জ্ঞপ্তা গিয়েছে। যদিও এই দায়ের যৌক্তিকতা এবং সত্যতা নিয়ে নানা মহলে প্রশ্ন উঠেছে। এই প্রসঙ্গে সিপিআই(এম) এক ফেসবুক পোস্ট বলে, “তীব্র সমালোচনার মুখে রিলায়েন্স ট্রেডমার্কের আবেদন প্রত্যাহার করেছে। তবে এর দায় এক নিম্নপদস্থ আধিকারিকের উপর চাপানোর কী যৌক্তিকতা রয়েছে?”

रिलायंस ने 'ऑपरेशन सिंदूर' ट्रेडमार्क आवेदन लिया वापस, कहा: अनजाने में यह आवेदन दे दिया था

नयी दिल्ली : 'रिलायंस इंडस्ट्रीज लिमिटेड (आरआईएल)' ने यह कहते हुए 'ऑपरेशन सिंदूर' शब्द के लिए अपना ट्रेडमार्क आवेदन वापस ले लिया है कि उसके एक कनिष्ठ अधिकारी ने अनजाने में यह आवेदन दे दिया था, जबकि इसके लिए वह अधिकृत नहीं था। 'रिलायंस' ने एक बयान में कहा कि उसका "ऑपरेशन सिंदूर (शब्द) को ट्रेडमार्क बनाने का कोई इरादा नहीं है। यह एक ऐसा शब्द है, जो अब भारतीय बहादुरी के एक प्रतीक के रूप में राष्ट्रीय चेतना का हिस्सा बन गया है।" भारतीय सशस्त्रबलों ने पाकिस्तान में आतंकवादियों के विरुद्ध जो कार्रवाई की है उसे 'ऑपरेशन सिंदूर' नाम दिया गया है। रिलायंस ने कहा, "रिलायंस इंडस्ट्रीज की इकाई जियो स्टूडियो ने अपना ट्रेडमार्क आवेदन वापस ले लिया है, जिसे एक कनिष्ठ अधिकारी ने अनजाने में दे दिया था, जबकि इसके लिए वह अधिकृत नहीं था।" इससे पहले, चार आवेदन बुधवार को पेटेंट, डिजाइन और ट्रेडमार्क महानियंत्रक के कार्यालय में दायर किए गए थे, जिसमें ऑडियो एवं वीडियो सामग्री जैसी मनोरंजन संबंधी सेवाओं के लिए इस शब्द का उपयोग करने की मांग की गई थी। उनमें एक आवेदन रिलायंस का था।

‘ऑपरेशन सिंदूर’ ट्रेडमार्क की अर्जी वापस ली : रिलायंस

नई दिल्ली, 8 मई (वार्ता)

रिलायंस इंडस्ट्रीज ने कहा कि ‘ऑपरेशन सिंदूर’ को समूह की किसी इकाई के ट्रेडमार्क के रूप में दर्ज करने का उसका कोई इरादा नहीं है और इस संबंध में भूल से लगायी गयी अर्जी वापस ले ली गयी है.

रिलायंस की ओर से जारी एक बयान में कहा गया कि ‘ऑपरेशन सिंदूर’ भारत की जनभावना से जुड़ गया है और यह देश की बहादूरी का प्रतीक बन गया है.

कंपनी ने कहा कि समूह की कंपनी ‘जियो स्टूडियोज’ के एक कनिष्ठ कर्मचारी ने बिना अनुमति के ट्रेडमार्क के लिए आवेदन कर दिया था, जिसे वापस ले लिया गया है. बयान में कहा गया, ‘रिलायंस इंडस्ट्रीज और इसके सभी हितधारकों को पहलगाम में पर्यटकों पर पाकिस्तान परस्त आतंकवादियों के हमले के जवाब में भारतीय सैन्य बलों के अभियान (ऑपरेशन सिंदूर) पर असीम गर्व है. यह अभियान हमारे सशस्त्र बलों की गौरवपूर्ण उपलब्धि है और आतंकवाद के प्रति भारत के अडिग संघर्ष का प्रतीक है.’

ऑपरेशन सिंदूरचा ट्रेडमार्क विक्री! केंद्राची संमती तिघा धनदांडग्यांची बोली! जनतेत संताप

पहलगाम हल्ल्याचा बदला घेताना भारतीय लष्कराने अत्यंत नियोजनबद्ध आरवणी करून ऑपरेशन सिंदूर शिताफीने पार पाडले. पाकव्याप्त काश्मीर आणि थेट पाकिस्तानातील मिळून दहशतवाद्यांचे ९ तळ क्षेत्रांमधील मान्याने बेचिराख करण्यात आले. भारतीय लष्कराच्या या यशस्वी लष्करी मोहिमेची जगाने दरवल घेतली. मात्र देशाचा अभिमान ठरलेल्या ऑपरेशन सिंदूरचे पेटंट घेण्यास मंजुरी देण्याचा धक्कादायक निर्णय केंद्र सरकारने घेतला आहे. या मोहिमेची व्यावसायिक लाभ उठवण्यासाठी या नावाचा ट्रेड मार्क विकत मिळणार आहे. त्यासाठी धनिकांमध्ये चढाओढ लागली आहे. अब्जाधीश उद्योगपती मुकेश अंबानी यांच्या रिलायन्स इंडस्ट्रीजने ऑपरेशन सिंदूरच्या ट्रेड मार्कसाठी सर्वात पहिल्यांदा अर्ज दाखल केला होता. मात्र हा अर्ज त्यांनी परत घेतला आहे. परंतु आणखी तीन धनदांडग्यांनी यासाठी अर्ज केला आहे. ऑपरेशन सिंदूरचा ट्रेडमार्क सरकारने विक्रीस काढल्याने जनतेत संताप पसरला आहे.

भारतीय लष्कराने पाकव्याप्त काश्मीर आणि पाकिस्तानातील जैश ए महंमद, लष्कर ए तोयबा या दहशतवादी संघटनांच्या गुप्त ठिकाणांवर क्षेत्रांमध्ये डागण्यास सुरुवात केली. अवघी पंचवीस मिनिटे चाललेल्या या लष्करी

दहशतवादी मौलाना मसूद अझर याच्या संपूर्ण कुटुंबासह सुमारे शंभरहून अधिक दहशतवाद्यांचा खात्मा करण्यात आला. भारताच्या या जबरदस्त प्रतिहल्ल्याचे वृत्त काही क्षणातच जगभर पसरले. सकाळी दहा वाजता भारतीय लष्कराने पत्रकार परिषदेत ऑपरेशन सिंदूर

यांनी मुचविले, अशी सुत्रांनी दिलेली माहितीही व्हायरल झाली.

संपूर्ण देश या आनंदवार्तेचे जल्लोषात स्वागत करत असताना रिलायन्सने सर्वप्रथम ऑपरेशन सिंदूर या नावाच्या ट्रेडमार्कसाठी सकाळी १०.४२ वाजता रितसर अर्ज दाखल केला. त्यापाठोपाठ मुंबईकर छेत्राम अगरवाल, भारतीय हवाई दलाचे निवृत्त अधिकारी गुप्त कॅप्टन कमाल सिंह ओबेरॉय आणि दिल्लीस्थित वकील अलोक कोठारी यांनी या ट्रेडमार्कसाठी अर्ज केले. या सर्वांनी आपल्याला व्यावसायिक वापरासाठी ऑपरेशन सिंदूर हा ट्रेडमार्क हवा असल्याचे अर्जात नमूद केले आहे. ऑपरेशन सिंदूर या ११ पान ७ वर

मोहिमेत दहशतवाद्यांचे नऊ तळ उध्वस्त करण्यात आले. भारताच्या या क्षेत्रांमध्ये हल्ल्यांमध्ये भारताचा मोस्ट वॉटेड

यशस्वी झाल्याची अधिकृत माहिती दिल्ली. या धडक लष्करी मोहिमेला ऑपरेशन सिंदूर हे चपखल नाव पंतप्रधान नरेंद्र मोदी

नावाने तमाम भारतवासियांच्या मनात राष्ट्रप्रेमाची भावना चेतविली गेली. हेच नाव आपल्याला ट्रेडमार्क म्हणून मिळाले तर त्याचा व्यावसायिक लाभ होईल, हे जाणून हे नाव मिळवण्यासाठी ही स्पर्धा लागली आहे.
